(h) Cancellation and/or Adjustment of Global Securities. At such time as all beneficial interests in a particular Global Security have been exchanged for Definitive Securities or a particular Global Security has been redeemed, repurchased or canceled in whole and not in part, each such Global Security shall be returned to or retained and canceled by the Trustee in accordance with Section 2.12. At any time prior to such cancellation, if any beneficial interest in a Global Security is exchanged for or transferred to a Person who will take delivery thereof in the form of a beneficial interest in another Global Security or for Definitive Securities, the principal amount of Securities represented by such Global Security shall be reduced accordingly and an endorsement shall be made on such Global Security by the Trustee or by the Depositary at the direction of the Trustee to reflect such reduction. If the beneficial interest is being exchanged for or transferred to a Person who will take delivery thereof in the form of a beneficial interest in another Global Security, such other Global Security shall be increased accordingly and an endorsement shall be made on such Global Security by the Trustee or by the Depositary at the direction of the Trustee to reflect such increase.

(i) General Provisions Relating to Transfers and Exchanges.

(i) To permit registrations of transfers and exchanges, the Company shall execute and the Trustee shall authenticate Global Securities and Definitive Securities upon receipt of an Authentication Order in accordance with Section 2.03 or at the Registrar's request.

(ii) No service charge shall be made to a holder of a beneficial interest in a Global Security or to a Holder of a Definitive Security for any registration of transfer or exchange, but the Company may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any transfer tax or similar governmental charge payable in connection therewith (other than any such transfer taxes or similar governmental charge payable upon exchange or transfer pursuant to Section 2.07, Section 2.11, Section 3.06, Section 4.06, and Section 9.05).

(iii) Neither the Registrar nor the Company shall be required to register the transfer of or exchange any Security selected for redemption in whole or in part, except the unredeemed portion of any Security being redeemed in part.

(iv) All Global Securities and Definitive Securities issued upon any registration of transfer or exchange of Global Securities or Definitive Securities shall be the valid obligations of the Company, evidencing the same indebtedness and entitled to the same benefits under this Indenture, as the Global Securities or Definitive Securities surrendered upon such registration of transfer or exchange.

(v) The Company shall not be required (A) to issue, to register the transfer of or to exchange any Securities during a period beginning at the opening of business 10 days before the day of delivery of notice of redemption of Securities for redemption under Section 3.03 and ending at the close of business on the day of such delivery, (B) to register the transfer of or to exchange any Security so selected for redemption in whole or in part, except the unredeemed portion of any Security being redeemed in part, or (C) to register the transfer of or to exchange a Security between a record date and the next succeeding Interest Payment Date.

(vi) Prior to due presentment for the registration of a transfer of any Security, the Trustee, any Agent and the Company may deem and treat the Person in whose name any Security is registered as the absolute owner of such Security for the purpose of receiving payment of principal of (and premium, if any) and interest on such Securities and for all other purposes, and none of the Trustee, any Agent or the Company shall be affected by notice to the contrary.

(vii) Upon surrender for registration of transfer of any Security at the office or agency of the Company designated pursuant to Section 2.04, the Company shall execute, and the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, in the name of the designated transferee or transferees, one or more replacement Securities of any authorized denomination or denominations of a like aggregate principal amount.

(viii) At the option of the Holder, Securities may be exchanged for other Securities of any authorized denomination or denominations of a like aggregate principal amount upon surrender of the Securities to be exchanged at such office or agency. Whenever any Global Securities or Definitive Securities are so surrendered for exchange, the Company shall execute, and the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, the replacement Global Securities and Definitive Securities which the Holder making the exchange is entitled to in accordance with the provisions of this Section 2.07.

(ix) All certifications, certificates and Opinions of Counsel required to be submitted to the Registrar pursuant to this Section 2.07 to effect a registration of transfer or exchange may be submitted by facsimile.

(x) The Trustee shall have no obligation or duty to monitor, determine or inquire as to compliance with any restrictions on transfer imposed under this Indenture or under applicable law with respect to any transfer of any interest in any Security (including transfers between or among Depositary participants or beneficial owners of interests in any Global Security) other than to require delivery of such certificates and other documentation or evidence as are expressly required by, and to do so if and when expressly required by the terms of, this Indenture, and to examine the same to determine substantial compliance as to form with the express requirements hereof.

(j) Automatic Exchange from Restricted Global Security to Unrestricted Global Security. At the option of the Company and upon compliance with the following procedures, beneficial interests in a Restricted Global Security shall be exchanged for beneficial interests in an Unrestricted Global Security. In order to effect such exchange, the Company shall (i) provide written notice to the Trustee instructing the Trustee to direct the Depositary to transfer the specified amount of the outstanding beneficial interests in a particular Restricted Global Security to an Unrestricted Global Security and provide the Depositary with all such information as is necessary for the Depositary to appropriately credit and debit the relevant Holder accounts and (ii) provide prior written notice to all Holders of such exchange, which notice must include the date such exchange is proposed to occur, the CUSIP number of the relevant Restricted Global Security and the CUSIP number of the Unrestricted Global Security into which such Holders' beneficial interests will be exchanged. As a condition to any such exchange pursuant to this Section 2.07(j), the Trustee shall be entitled to receive from the Company, and rely upon conclusively without any liability, an Officer's Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel, in form and in substance reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee, to the effect that such transfer of beneficial interests to the Unrestricted Global Security shall be effected in compliance with the Securities Act. The Company may request from Holders such information it reasonably determines is required in order to be able to deliver such Officer's Certificate and Opinion of Counsel. Upon such exchange of beneficial interests pursuant to this Section 2.07(j), the Registrar shall reflect on its books and records the date of such transfer and a decrease and increase, respectively, in the principal amount of the applicable Restricted Global Security and the Unrestricted Global Security, respectively, equal to the principal amount of beneficial interests transferred. Following any such transfer pursuant to this Section 2.07(j) of all of the beneficial interests in a Restricted Global Security, such Restricted Global Security shall be cancelled.

Section 2.08 Replacement Securities. If a mutilated Security is surrendered to the Registrar or if the Trustee receives evidence to its satisfaction that such Security has been lost, destroyed or wrongfully taken, the Company shall issue and the Trustee shall authenticate a replacement Security. If required by the Trustee or the Company, such Holder shall furnish an indemnity bond sufficient in the judgment of the Company and the Trustee to protect the Company, the Trustee, the Paying Agent, the Registrar and any co-registrar from any loss which any of them may suffer if a Security is replaced. The Company and the Trustee may charge the Holder for their expenses in replacing a Security.

Every replacement Security is an additional obligation of the Company.

Section 2.09 Outstanding Securities. Securities outstanding at any time are all Securities authenticated by the Trustee except for those canceled by it, those delivered to it for cancellation and those described in this Section 2.09 as not outstanding. A Security does not cease to be outstanding because the Company or an Affiliate of the Company holds the Security. For the avoidance of doubt, the aggregate principal amount outstanding under any Security shall include any increase in the outstanding principal amount in Global Securities as the result of payment of PIK Interest.

If a Security is replaced pursuant to Section 2.08, it ceases to be outstanding unless the Trustee and the Company receive proof satisfactory to them that the replaced Security is held by a bona fide purchaser.

If the Paying Agent segregates and holds in trust, in accordance with this Indenture, on a redemption date or maturity date money sufficient to pay all principal, premium, if any, and interest payable on that date with respect to the Securities (or portions thereof) to be redeemed or maturing, as the case may be, then on and after that date such Securities (or portions thereof) cease to be outstanding and interest on them ceases to accrue.

Section 2.10 Treasury Securities. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Indenture, Section 316(a) of the Trust Indenture Act (including the last paragraph thereof), is expressly excluded from this Indenture.

Section 2.11 Temporary Securities. Until definitive Securities are ready for delivery, the Company may prepare and the Trustee shall authenticate temporary Securities. Temporary Securities shall be substantially in the form of definitive Securities but may have variations that the Company considers appropriate for temporary Securities. Without unreasonable delay, the Company shall prepare and the Trustee shall authenticate definitive Securities and deliver them in exchange for temporary Securities.

Section 2.12 Cancellation. The Company at any time may deliver Securities to the Trustee for cancellation. The Registrar and the Paying Agent shall forward to the Trustee any Securities surrendered to them for registration of transfer, exchange or payment. The Trustee, at the written direction of the Company, and no one else shall cancel and dispose of all Securities surrendered for registration of transfer, exchange, payment or cancellation and deliver a certificate of such disposal to the Company upon its request therefor unless the Company directs the Trustee to deliver canceled Securities to the Company. The Company may not issue new Securities to replace Securities it has redeemed, paid or delivered to the Trustee for cancellation.

Section 2.13 Defaulted Interest. If the Company defaults in a payment of interest on the Securities, the Company shall pay the defaulted interest (plus interest with respect to such defaulted interest to the extent lawful) in any lawful manner. The Company may pay the defaulted interest to the persons who are Holders on a subsequent special record date. The Company shall fix or cause to be fixed any such special record date and payment date to the reasonable satisfaction of the Trustee and shall promptly mail to each Holder a notice that states the special record date, the payment date and the amount of defaulted interest to be paid.

Section 2.14 CUSIP Numbers. The Company in issuing the Securities may use "CUSIP" numbers (if then generally in use) and, if so, the Trustee shall use "CUSIP" numbers in notices of redemption or repurchase as a convenience to Holders; provided, however, that neither the Company nor the Trustee shall have any responsibility for any defect in the "CUSIP" number that appears on any Security, check, advice of payment or redemption or repurchase notice, and any such notice may state that no representation is made as to the correctness of such numbers either as printed on the Securities or as contained in any notice of a redemption or repurchase and that reliance may be placed only on the other identification numbers printed on the Securities, and any such redemption or repurchase shall not be affected by any defect in or omission of such numbers.

Section 2.15 Tax Withholding. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Indenture, the Company, the Trustee and any Paying Agent may, to the extent it is required to do so by law, deduct or withhold income or other similar taxes imposed from principal or interest payments hereunder. The Company, the Trustee and the Paying Agent shall reasonably cooperate with each other and shall provide each other with copies of documents or information reasonably necessary for the Company, the Trustee and the Paying Agent to comply with any withholding tax or tax information reporting obligations imposed on any of them, including any obligations, imposed pursuant to an agreement with a governmental authority.

Section 2.16 Maturity Date; Extensions of Maturity Date.

(a) Maturity Date; Extensions of Maturity Date. The Securities will mature on August 30, 2031 (as may be extended from time to time pursuant to the proviso below, the "Maturity Date"); provided that, if (i) on the date that is 120 calendar days prior to the then-applicable Maturity Date the ABL Facility, as extended, renewed, replaced or refinanced from time to time, remains outstanding, then the then-applicable Maturity Date shall be automatically extended to the date that is 91 calendar days after the then stated maturity date of the ABL Facility (unless the then-applicable Maturity Date is already at least 91 calendar days after then stated maturity date of the ABL facility) and (ii) if connection with any proposed extension, renewal, replacement or refinancing of the ABL Facility the Company informs the Trustee that the proposed extension, renewal, replacement or refinancing of the ABL Facility shall provide for stated maturity date for the ABL Facility that occurs later than 91 calendar days prior to the then applicable Maturity Date, then the then-applicable Maturity Date shall, contemporaneously with the effectiveness of such extension, renewal, replacement or refinancing of the ABL Facility, be automatically extended to the date that is 91 calendar days after the stated maturity date of the ABL Facility, as so extended, renewed, replaced or refinanced (the date to which the then-applicable Maturity Date is extended pursuant to the terms of this proviso, the "Extended Maturity Date"). The Company shall deliver to the Trustee a supplemental indenture confirming any extension of the Maturity Date as set forth in this Section 2.16(a), and each Holder consents to the entry by the Trustee and the Company into such supplemental indenture. Such supplemental indenture shall provide that the Holders consent to the entry by the Trustee and the Company into a supplemental indenture to confirm the extension of the Maturity Date in accordance with this Section 2.16(a).

(b) Notice to Trustee and Securities Collateral Agent of Extension of Maturity Date. At least two (2) Business Days (unless a shorter notice shall be agreed to by the Trustee and/or Securities Collateral Agent) before notice of any anticipated extension of the then-applicable Maturity Date is required to be delivered to Holders pursuant to Section 2.16(c) hereof, the Company shall furnish to the Trustee and Securities Collateral Agent the form of such notice together with an Officer's Certificate setting forth (x) the applicable Extended Maturity Date and (y) the aggregate amount payable in respect of the Securities on such Extended Maturity Date.

(c) Notice of Extended Maturity Date. The Company shall send electronically, mail or cause to be mailed by first-class mail, postage prepaid, a notice of anticipated Extended Maturity Date at least ten (10) days before any then-applicable Maturity Date to each Holder of Securities to be redeemed at such Holder's registered address stated in the Security Register (with a copy to the Trustee) or otherwise in accordance with the Applicable Procedures.

The notice shall state:

(1) the anticipated Extended Maturity Date;

(2) the aggregate amount payable in respect of the Securities on the Extended Maturity Date;

(3) the name and address of the Paying Agent; and

(4) that interest shall continue to accrue to but excluding the Extended Maturity Date.

At the Company's request, the Trustee shall give the notice of Extended Maturity Date in the Company's name and at its expense; provided that the Company shall have delivered to the Trustee, at least two (2) Business Days, in the case of Global Securities, or five (5) Business Days, in the case of Definitive Securities, before notice of a Extended Maturity Date is required to be delivered electronically, mailed or caused to be mailed to Holders pursuant to this Section 2.16(c) (unless a shorter notice shall be agreed to by the Trustee), an Officer's Certificate requesting that the Trustee give such notice and setting forth the information to be stated in such notice as provided in the preceding paragraph.

(d) Effect of Notice of Extended Maturity Date. A notice of anticipated Extended Maturity Date pursuant to this Section 2.16, if delivered electronically, mailed or caused to be mailed in a manner herein provided, shall be conclusively presumed to have been given, whether or not the Holder receives such notice. In any case, failure to deliver such notice or any defect in the notice to the Holder of any Security shall not affect the validity of the proceedings for the payment of any other Security. Subject to compliance with Section 2.16(e) hereof, on and after the Extended Maturity Date, the Securities shall cease to be outstanding and interest thereon shall cease to accrue on Securities. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Indenture or any other Securities Document, no failure on the part of the Company or the Trustee to enter into a supplemental indenture contemplated by Section 2.16(a) or to deliver, or cause to be delivered, any notice of an Extended Maturity Date pursuant to this Section 2.16 shall impair any automatic extension of the Maturity Date pursuant to Section 2.16(a).

(e) Trustee. The Trustee and Securities Collateral Agent shall have no duty to monitor the principal amount, or determine the maturity date, of the ABL Facility and shall be entitled to conclusively rely on the Officer's Certificate delivered to it under Section 2.16(b) or written notice delivered by the Holders. In the absence of receipt of an Officer's Certificate under this Section 2.16 or such written notice by the Holders, the Trustee and Securities Collateral Agent shall be entitled to treat August 30, 2031 as the Maturity Date of the Securities.

Section 2.17 SOFR or Term SOFR Screen Rate Not Available. If a SOFR or Term SOFR Screen Rate is not published on the associated Interest Determination Date and a Benchmark Transition Event and its related Benchmark Replacement Date have not occurred with respect to SOFR, "Term SOFR" means, for the applicable Interest Period for which such index is not available, the rate of return on a daily compounded interest investment calculated in accordance with the formula for SOFR Averages, and definitions required for such formula, published on the New York Federal Reserve's Website at https://www.newyorkfed.org/markets/treasury-repo-reference-rates-information.

Section 2.18 Effect of a Benchmark Transition Event.

(a) Notwithstanding anything contained herein or in the Securities, if the Company or its designee determines on or prior to the relevant Reference Time that a Benchmark Transition Event and its related Benchmark Replacement Date have occurred with respect to the then-current Benchmark, the Benchmark Replacement will replace the then-current Benchmark for all purposes relating to the Securities in respect of all determinations on such date and for all determinations on all subsequent dates.

(b) In connection with the implementation of a Benchmark Replacement, the Company or its designee will have the right to make Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes from time to time.

(c) Any determination, decision or election that may be made by the Company or its designee pursuant to this section, including a determination with respect to a tenor, rate or adjustment or of the occurrence or non-occurrence of an event, circumstance or date and any decision to take or refrain from taking any action or any selection:

(i) will be conclusive and binding absent manifest error;

(ii) if made by the Company, will be made in the Company's sole discretion;

(iii) if made by the Company's designee, will be made after consultation with the Company, and such designee will not make any such determination, decision or election to which the Company objects; and

(iv) notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the documentation relating to the Securities, shall become effective without consent from the Holders or any other party.

(d) For the avoidance of doubt, if the event that gives rise to the Benchmark Replacement Date occurs on the same day as, but earlier than, the Reference Time in respect of any determination, the Benchmark Replacement Date will be deemed to have occurred prior to the Reference Time for such determination.

(e) For the avoidance of doubt, for purposes of the definitions of Benchmark Replacement Date and Benchmark Transition Event, references to Benchmark also include any reference rate underlying such Benchmark.

ARTICLE III

REDEMPTION

Section 3.01 Notices to Trustee. If the Company elects to redeem Securities pursuant to paragraph 5 of the Securities, it shall notify the Trustee in writing of the redemption date, the principal amount of Securities to be redeemed and that such redemption is being made pursuant to such paragraph 5 of the Securities.

The Company shall give each notice to the Trustee provided for in this Section 3.01 at least two Business Days prior to the date on which that notice is delivered to the Holders unless the Trustee consents to a shorter period. Such notice shall be accompanied by an Officer's Certificate from the Company to the effect that such redemption will comply with the conditions herein.

Section 3.02 Selection of Securities To Be Redeemed. If fewer than all the Securities are to be redeemed pursuant to paragraph 5 of the Securities, the Securities to be redeemed shall, in the case of Global Securities, be selected on a pro rata basis in accordance with the Depositary's policies and procedures and, in the case of Definitive Securities, shall be selected by lot or by such other method as the Trustee considers fair and appropriate. Selection of Securities shall be made from outstanding Securities not previously called for redemption and may include portions of the principal of Securities that have denominations larger than $1.00. Securities and portions of them that are selected shall be in amounts of $1.00 or a whole multiple in excess of $1.00. Provisions of this Indenture that apply to Securities called for redemption also apply to portions of Securities called for redemption. The Trustee shall notify the Company promptly of the Securities or portions of Securities to be redeemed. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Securities are represented by Global Securities, beneficial interests therein will be selected for redemption by DTC in accordance with its standard procedures therefor.

Section 3.03 Notice of Redemption. At least 10 days but not more than 60 days before a date for redemption of Securities pursuant to paragraph 5 of the Securities, the Company shall cause to be delivered a notice of redemption to each Holder of Securities to be redeemed at such Holder's registered address.

The notice shall identify the Securities to be redeemed and shall state:

(1) the redemption date;

(2) the redemption price, or if not then ascertainable, the manner of calculation thereof;

(3) the name and address of the Paying Agent;

(4) that Securities called for redemption must be surrendered to the Paying Agent to collect the redemption price;

(5) if fewer than all the outstanding Securities are to be redeemed, the identification and principal amounts of the particular Securities to be redeemed;

(6) that, unless the Company defaults in making such redemption payment, interest on Securities (or portion thereof) called for redemption ceases to accrue on and after the redemption date, and the only remaining right of the Holders is to receive payment of the redemption price upon surrender to the Paying Agent; and

(7) that no representation is made as to the correctness or accuracy of the CUSIP number, if any, listed in such notice or printed on the Securities.

At the Company's written request, the Trustee shall give the notice of redemption in the Company's name and at the Company's expense. In such event, the Company shall provide the Trustee with the information required by this Section 3.03 at least two Business Days prior to the Trustee giving the notice of redemption (unless a shorter period shall be acceptable to the Trustee).

Section 3.04 Effect of Notice of Redemption.

(a) Once notice of redemption is delivered, subject to the satisfaction of any conditions specified in the applicable notice of redemption pursuant to paragraph (b) of this Section 3.04, Securities called for redemption become due and payable on the redemption date and at the redemption price stated in the notice. Upon surrender to the Paying Agent, such Securities shall be paid at the redemption price stated in the notice, plus accrued interest, if any, to, but not including, the redemption date (subject to the right of Holders of record on the relevant record date to receive interest due on an Interest Payment Date that is on or prior to the date of redemption). Failure to give notice or any defect in the notice to any Holder shall not affect the validity of the notice to any other Holder.

(b) Any such redemption or notice may, at the Company's option and discretion, be subject to one or more conditions precedent. In addition, if such redemption is subject to satisfaction of one or more conditions precedent, such notice shall state that, in the Company's discretion, such redemption may not occur and such notice may be rescinded in the event that any or all such conditions shall not have been satisfied by the redemption date. In addition, the Company may provide in such notice that payment of the redemption price and performance of the Company's obligations with respect to such redemption may be performed by another Person (it being understood that any such provision for payment by another Person will not relieve the Company and the Subsidiary Guarantors from their obligations with respect to such redemption).

Section 3.05 Deposit of Redemption Price. Prior to or on the redemption date, subject to the satisfaction of any conditions specified in the applicable notice of redemption pursuant to paragraph (b) of Section 3.04, the Company shall deposit with the Paying Agent (or, if the Company or a Wholly Owned Subsidiary is the Paying Agent, shall segregate and hold in trust) money sufficient to pay the redemption price of and accrued interest, if any (subject to the right of Holders of record on the relevant record date to receive interest due on an Interest Payment Date that is on or prior to the date of redemption), on all Securities to be redeemed on that date other than Securities or portions of Securities called for redemption that have been delivered by the Company to the Trustee for cancellation.

Section 3.06 Securities Redeemed in Part. Upon surrender of a Security that is redeemed in part, the Company shall execute and the Trustee shall authenticate for the Holder (at the Company's expense) a new Security equal in principal amount to the unredeemed portion of the Security surrendered.

(xv) the surrender or waiver of contract rights or settlement, release or surrender of a contract, tort or other litigation claim in the ordinary course of business; and provided that, (i) with respect to sales, transfers or dispositions under Section 4.06(a)(ix) through (xii) and Section 4.06(a)(xvi)(B) above, at least seventy-five percent (75.00%) of the consideration therefor shall consist of cash (provided, however, that with respect to (x) any Specified Regional Sale Transaction, one hundred percent (100.00%) of the consideration therefor shall be in cash and (y) any other sales, transfers or dispositions (including pursuant to the sale of Equity Interests, or a merger, liquidation, division, contribution of assets, Equity Interests or Debt or otherwise) that results in the transfer to any Person (other than to a Securities Party) of assets of the type included in the determination of ABL Borrowing Base Amount or the FILO Borrowing Base Amount (including pursuant to Section 4.06(a)(xvi)(A), one hundred percent (100.00%) of the consideration therefor payable in respect of the assets of the type included in the determination of ABL Borrowing Base Amount or the FILO Borrowing Base Amount shall be in cash), (ii) [reserved], (iii) except with respect to sales of Inventory in connection with any series of related Store closings not exceeding 50 Stores, all sales of Inventory in connection with Store closings otherwise permitted pursuant to this Section 4.06 shall be conducted in accordance with liquidation agreements and with professional liquidators and (iv) in no event shall any Asset Sale include the disposition or other transfer of Intellectual Property, except as set forth in Section 4.06(a)(i)(ii), Section 4.06(a)(ii), Section 4.06(a)(iv) or Section 4.06(a)(v) above.

(b) The Company or the applicable Subsidiary shall cause the Net Available Cash to be applied within 180 days after receipt thereof, at its option:

(i) to ABL Loan Obligations;

(ii) to reinvest in Additional Assets or Expansion Capital Expenditures (including by means of an Investment in Additional Assets or Expansion Capital Expenditures by a Subsidiary with Net Available Cash received by the Company or another Subsidiary); provided, however, that if the assets that were the subject of such Asset Sale constituted Collateral, then such Net Available Cash must be reinvested in Additional Assets that are pledged at the time as Collateral to secure the Securities or the Subsidiary Guarantees of the Securities, subject to the Securities Collateral Documents, or in Expansion Capital Expenditures to improve assets that constitute Collateral securing the Securities or the Subsidiary Guarantees of the Securities at the time; or

(iii) any combination of the foregoing.

When the aggregate amount of Net Available Cash remaining following its application in accordance with this Section 4.06 exceeds $50.0 million (taking into account income earned on such Net Available Cash, if any), to the extent permitted by the terms of the ABL Credit Agreement and the ABL Intercreditor Agreement, the Company will be required to make an offer to purchase (the "Asset Sales Prepayment Offer") the Securities which offer shall be in the amount of the Allocable Proceeds, on a pro rata basis according to principal amount at maturity, at a purchase price equal to 100% of the principal amount thereof, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the purchase date (subject to the right of Holders of record on the relevant record date to receive interest due on an Interest Payment Date), in accordance with the procedures (including prorating in the event of oversubscription) set forth herein. To the extent that any portion of the amount of Net Available Cash remains after compliance with the preceding sentences and provided that all Holders have been given the opportunity to tender their Securities for purchase in accordance with this Indenture, the Company or such Subsidiary may use such remaining amount for any purpose permitted by this Indenture and the amount of Net Available Cash will be reset to zero.

The term "Allocable Proceeds" will mean the product of:

(a) the remaining Net Available Cash following its application in accordance with this Section 4.06; and

(b) a fraction,

(1) the numerator of which is the aggregate principal amount of the Securities outstanding on the date of the Asset Sales Prepayment Offer; and

(2) the denominator of which is the sum of the aggregate principal amount of the Securities outstanding on the date of the Asset Sales Prepayment Offer and the aggregate principal amount of other Debt of the Company outstanding on the date of the Asset Sales Prepayment Offer that is pari passu in right of payment (without regard to security) with the Securities and subject to terms and conditions in respect of Asset Sales similar in all material respects to this Section 4.06 and requiring the Company to make an offer to purchase such Debt or otherwise repay such Debt at substantially the same time as the Asset Sales Prepayment Offer.

Within five Business Days after the Company is obligated to make an Asset Sales Prepayment Offer as described in the preceding paragraph, the Company shall send a written notice, by first-class mail or electronically, to the Holders, accompanied by such information regarding the Company and its Subsidiaries as the Company in good faith believes will enable such Holders to make an informed decision with respect to such Asset Sales Prepayment Offer. Such notice shall state, among other things, the purchase price and the purchase date (the "Purchase Date"), which shall be, subject to any contrary requirements of applicable law, a Business Day no earlier than 20 Business Days nor later than 60 days from the date such notice is sent. Nothing shall prevent the Company from conducting an Asset Sales Prepayment Offer earlier than as set forth in this paragraph.

Not later than the date upon which written notice of an Asset Sales Prepayment Offer is delivered to the Trustee as provided above, the Company shall deliver to the Trustee an Officer's Certificate as to (a) the amount of the Asset Sales Prepayment Offer (the "Offer Amount"), (b) the allocation of the Net Available Cash from the Asset Sales pursuant to which such Asset Sales Prepayment Offer is being made and (c) the compliance of such allocation with the provisions of this Section 4.06. On or before the Purchase Date, the Company shall also irrevocably deposit with the Trustee or with the Paying Agent (or, if the Company or a Wholly Owned Subsidiary is the Paying Agent, shall segregate and hold in trust) in cash an amount equal to the Offer Amount to be held for payment in accordance with the provisions of this Section 4.06. Upon the expiration of the period for which the Asset Sales Prepayment Offer remains open (the "Offer Period"), the Company shall deliver to the Trustee for cancellation the Securities or portions thereof that have been properly tendered to and are to be accepted by the Company. The Trustee or the Paying Agent shall, on the Purchase Date, mail or deliver payment to each tendering Holder in the amount of the purchase price. In the event that the aggregate purchase price of the Securities delivered by the Company to the Trustee is less than the Offer Amount, the Trustee or the Paying Agent shall deliver the excess to the Company immediately after the expiration of the Offer Period for application in accordance with this Section 4.06.

Holders electing to have a Security purchased shall be required to surrender the Security, with an appropriate form duly completed, to the Company or its agent at the address specified in the notice at least three Business Days prior to the Purchase Date, or in the case of a Security represented by a Global Security, comply with the Depositary's policies and procedures related to the surrender of Securities. Holders shall be entitled to withdraw their election if the Trustee or the Company receives not later than one Business Day prior to the Purchase Date, a telex, facsimile transmission or letter setting forth the name of the Holder, the principal amount of the Security that was delivered for purchase by the Holder and a statement that such Holder is withdrawing its election to have such Security purchased. If at the expiration of the Offer Period the aggregate principal amount of Securities surrendered by Holders exceeds the Offer Amount, in the case of Global Securities, Securities shall be settled in accordance with the Depositary's policies and procedures and, in the case of Definitive Securities, the Company shall select the Securities to be purchased on a pro rata basis for all Securities (with such adjustments as may be deemed appropriate by the Company so that only Securities in denominations of $1.00 or integral multiples of $1.00 in excess thereof shall be purchased, provided that the unpurchased portion of any Security will be in a principal amount of $1.00 or an integral multiple of $1.00 in excess thereof). Holders whose Securities are purchased only in part shall be issued new Securities equal in principal amount to the unpurchased portion of the Securities surrendered.

At the time the Company delivers Securities to the Trustee that are to be accepted for purchase, the Company shall also deliver an Officer's Certificate stating that such Securities are to be accepted by the Company pursuant to and in accordance with the terms of this Section 4.06. A Security shall be deemed to have been accepted for purchase at the time the Trustee or the Paying Agent mails or delivers payment therefor to the surrendering Holder.

The Company will comply, to the extent applicable, with the requirements of Section 14(e) of the Exchange Act and any other securities laws or regulations in connection with the repurchase of Securities pursuant to this Section 4.06. To the extent that the provisions of any securities laws or regulations conflict with provisions of this Section 4.06, the Company will comply with the applicable securities laws and regulations and will not be deemed to have breached its obligations under this Section 4.06 by virtue thereof.

Section 4.07 Limitation on Transactions with Affiliates.

(a) The Company will not, and will not permit any Subsidiary to, directly or indirectly, sell, lease or otherwise transfer any property or assets to, or purchase, lease or otherwise acquire any property or assets from, or otherwise engage in any other transactions with, any of its Affiliates (an "Affiliate Transaction"), except:

(i) payment of compensation to directors, officers, and employees of the Company or any of the Subsidiaries in the ordinary course of business;

(ii) payments in respect of transactions required to be made pursuant to agreements or arrangements in effect on the Issue Date and set forth on Schedule 6.09 of the ABL Credit Agreement;

(iii) transactions involving the acquisition of Inventory in the ordinary course of business; provided that (i) the terms of such transaction are (A) set forth in writing, (B) in the best interests of the Company or such Subsidiary, as the case may be, and (C) no less favorable to the Company or such Subsidiary, as the case may be, than those that could be obtained in a comparable arm's length transaction with a Person that is not an Affiliate of the Company or a Subsidiary and (ii) if such transaction involves aggregate payments or value in excess of $5,500,000, the Board of Directors (including a majority of the disinterested members of the Board of Directors) approves such transaction and, in its good faith judgment, believes that such transaction complies with clauses (i)(B) and (C) of this Section 4.07(a)(iii);

(iv) transactions between or among the Company and/or one or more Subsidiaries;

(v) the payment of any Transaction Expenses; and

(vi) any other Affiliate Transaction not otherwise permitted pursuant to this Section 4.07; provided that (i) the terms of such transaction are (A) set forth in writing, (B) in the best interests of the Company or such Subsidiary, as the case may be, and (C) no less favorable to the Company or such Subsidiary, as the case may be, than those that could be obtained in a comparable arm's length transaction with a Person that is not an Affiliate of the Company or a Subsidiary, (ii) if such transaction involves aggregate payments or value in excess of $5,500,000 in any consecutive twelve (12) month period, the Board of Directors (including a majority of the disinterested members of the Board of Directors) approves such transaction and, in its good faith judgment, believes that such transaction complies with clauses (i)(B) and (C) of this Section 4.07(a)(vi) and (iii) if such transaction involves aggregate payments or value in excess of $5,500,000 in any consecutive twelve (12) month period, the Company obtains a written opinion from an independent investment banking firm or appraiser of national prominence, as appropriate, to the effect that such transaction is fair to the Company or such Subsidiary, as the case may be, from a financial point of view.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing limitation, the Company or any Subsidiary may enter into or suffer to exist the following:

(i) any transaction or series of transactions between the Company and one or more Subsidiaries or between two or more Subsidiaries;

(ii) any Restricted Payment, Payment of Debt and Plan Payment permitted to be made pursuant to Section 4.04 or any Investments permitted to be made pursuant to Section 4.10;

(iii) any Affiliate Transaction, if such Affiliate Transaction is with any Person solely in its capacity as a holder of Debt or Equity Interests of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, where (i) such Person is treated no more favorably than any other holder of such Debt or Equity Interests of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or (ii) such Affiliate Transaction results in a repurchase, redemption, c ancellation or extinguishment of some or all of the Securities;

(iv) any agreement as in effect on the Issue Date or any amendment thereto (so long as such amendment is not disadvantageous to the Holders in any material respect as determined by the Company in good faith) or any transaction contemplated thereby;

(v) payments of indemnification obligations to officers, managers and directors of the Company or any Subsidiary to the extent required by the organizational documents of such entity or applicable law;

(vi) any Affiliate Transaction between the Company or any Subsidiary and any Person that is an Affiliate of the Company or any Subsidiary solely because a director of such Person is also a director of the Company; provided that such director abstains from voting as a director of the Company on any matter involving such other Person;

(vii) transactions with customers, clients, suppliers, or purchasers or sellers of goods or services, in each case in the ordinary course of business and otherwise in compliance with the terms of this Indenture which are fair to the Company and the Subsidiaries, in the reasonable determination of the Company or are on terms, taken as a whole, at least as favorable as might reasonably have been obtained at such time from an unaffiliated party (as determined by the majority of disinterested members of Board of Directors or senior management of the Company in good faith); and

(viii) transactions involving the acquisition of Inventory in the ordinary course of business.

Section 4.08 Guarantees by Subsidiaries.

(a) (i) The Company shall cause each of its Subsidiaries that guarantees any Material Debt or any series of debt securities of the Company to Guarantee the Securities.

(i) The Company shall not permit any Subsidiary that is not a Subsidiary Guarantor to Guarantee the payment of any Debt or Equity Interests of the Company (other than Guarantees of Debt incurred under clause (a) of Section 4.03 or Guarantees permitted pursuant to clause (d) of Section 4.03, except that a Subsidiary that is not a Subsidiary Guarantor may Guarantee Debt of the Company; provided that:

(1) such Debt and the Debt represented by such Guarantee is permitted by Section 4.03;

(2) such Subsidiary executes and delivers a supplemental indenture to this Indenture within ten Business Days in the form of Exhibit D hereto providing for a Guarantee of payment of the Securities by such Subsidiary; and

(3) such Guarantee of Debt of the Company:

unless such Debt is a Subordinated Obligation, shall be pari passu (or subordinate) in right of payment to and on substantially the same terms as (or less favorable to such Debt than but without regards as to security interest) such Subsidiary's Guarantee with respect to the Securities; and if such Debt is a Subordinated Obligation, shall be subordinated in right of payment to such Subsidiary's Guarantee with respect to the Securities to at least the same extent as such Debt is subordinated to the Securities.

(b) Upon any Subsidiary becoming a Subsidiary Guarantor as described above, such Subsidiary shall deliver to the Trustee an Opinion of Counsel to the effect that:

(1) such Guarantee of the Securities has been duly executed and authorized; and

(2) such Guarantee of the Securities constitutes a valid, binding and enforceable obligation of such Subsidiary, except insofar as enforcement thereof may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency or similar laws (including, without limitation, all laws relating to fraudulent transfers) and except insofar as enforcement thereof is subject to general principles of equity.

The failure of any Subsidiary to provide a Guarantee if then prohibited to do so by any Debt of the Company or a Subsidiary shall not constitute a violation of the covenant described above; provided, however, that at the time such prohibition no longer exists if a Guarantee would then be required to comply with such clauses, such Subsidiary provides such Guarantee.

Section 4.09 Limitation on Sale and Leaseback Transactions. The Company will not, and will not permit any of the Subsidiaries to, enter into any Sale and Leaseback Transaction, except (a) to the extent constituting a Permitted Real Estate Disposition and (b) for Sale and Leaseback Transactions permitted by and effected pursuant to Section 4.03(l) or (n), which do not result in the creation or existence of any Liens (other than Liens permitted pursuant to Section 4.05).

Section 4.10 Investments, Loans, Advances, Guarantees and Acquisitions. The Company will not, and will not permit any of the Subsidiaries to, make any Investment except:

(a) Permitted Investments;

(b) Investments of the Company and the Subsidiary Guarantors that are set forth on Schedule 6.04 of the ABL Credit Agreement;

(f) Investments consisting of non-cash consideration received in connection with any Asset Sale permitted by Section 4.06 (other than with respect to any sale of Inventory at retail in the ordinary course of business);

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth in this Indenture or in any other Securities Document, (i) no Investment shall be made by any Securities Party to any other Securities Party or third party in the form of Real Estate, and (ii) no Investment shall include the Investment of Intellectual Property in any Person that is not a Securities Party.

Section 4.11 Additional Security Collateral Documents; After-Acquired Property.

(a) From and after the Issue Date, if the Company or any Subsidiary of the Company executes and delivers in respect of any Property of such Person any mortgages, deeds of trust, security agreements, pledge agreements or similar instruments to secure Debt or other obligations that at the time constitute ABL Loan Obligations or Takeback Notes Obligations (except for an Excluded Subsidiary that does so solely in respect of Debt or other obligations of itself or another Excluded Subsidiary), then the Company will, or will cause such Subsidiary to, within 90 days, execute and deliver substantially identical mortgages, deeds of trust, security agreements, pledge agreements or similar instruments in order to vest in the Securities Collateral Agent a perfected third priority security interest subject only to Liens permitted under the Indenture, the Intercreditor Agreements and any other applicable intercreditor agreement and/or collateral trust agreements, in such Property for the benefit of the Securities Collateral Agent on behalf of the Holders, among others, and thereupon all provisions of this Indenture relating to the Collateral will be deemed to relate to such Property to the same extent and with the same force and effect.

(b) From and after the Issue Date, in the event that additional ABL Loan Obligations, Takeback Notes Obligations or any additional notes or other Debt are incurred or issued, the Securities Collateral Agent will be authorized and required to enter into amendments, joinders or supplements to the Intercreditor Agreements, other intercreditor agreements and/or collateral trust agreements (in each case in customary form, scope and substance), as applicable, to reflect the priority of the Liens securing any such debt.

(c) From and after the Issue Date, if any Subsidiary Guarantor acquires any property or asset that would constitute Collateral pursuant to the terms of the Security Collateral Documents, the applicable Subsidiary Guarantor will grant to the Holders a senior security interest (subject to Liens permitted under this Indenture) upon such property or asset as security for the Securities within 90 days of such acquisition.

Section 4.12 [Reserved].

Section 4.13 Further Instruments and Acts. Upon request of the Trustee or as necessary, the Company shall execute and deliver such further instruments and do such further acts as may be reasonably necessary or proper to carry out more effectively the purpose of this Indenture.

Section 4.14 Hedging Agreements. The Company will not, and will not permit any of the Subsidiaries to, Incur or at any time be liable with respect to any monetary liability under any Hedging Agreements, unless such Hedging Agreements (a) are entered into for bona fide hedging purposes of the Company, any Subsidiary Guarantor (as determined in good faith by a member of the senior management of the Company at the time such Hedging Agreement is entered into), (b) correspond in terms of notional amount, duration, currencies and interest rates, as applicable, to Debt of the Company or any Subsidiary Guarantor permitted to be incurred under Section 4.03 or to business transactions of the Company and the Subsidiary Guarantors on customary terms entered into in the ordinary course of business and (c) do not exceed an amount equal to the aggregate principal amount of the Obligations.

Section 4.15 Restrictive Agreements.

(a) The Company will not, and will not permit any Subsidiary to, enter into any agreement which imposes a limitation on the incurrence by the Company and the Subsidiaries of Liens that (i) would restrict any Subsidiary from granting Liens on any of its assets (including assets in addition to the then-existing Collateral, to secure the Securities Obligations) or (ii) is more restrictive, taken as a whole, than the limitation on Liens set forth in this Indenture except, in each case, (A)(x) the ABL Loan Documents, (y) agreements with respect to Debt secured by Liens permitted by Section 4.05(c), (d), (f) and (k) restricting the ability to transfer (or grant Liens on) the assets securing such Debt (subject to the terms of the applicable Acceptable Intercreditor Agreements with respect to such Debt), and (z) agreements with respect to unsecured Debt governed by indentures or by credit agreements or note purchase agreements permitted by this Indenture containing terms that are not materially more restrictive, taken as a whole, than those of this Indenture, (B) customary restrictions contained in purchase and sale agreements limiting the transfer of or granting of Liens on the subject assets pending closing, (C) customary non-assignment provisions in leases and other contracts entered into in the ordinary course of business, (D) pursuant to applicable law, (E) agreements in effect as of the Issue Date and not entered into in contemplation of the Transactions effected on the Issue Date, (F) any restriction existing under agreements relating to assets acquired by the Company or a Subsidiary in a transaction permitted hereby; provided that such agreements existed at the time of such acquisition, were not put into place in anticipation of such acquisition and are not applicable to any assets other than assets so acquired, and (G) any restriction existing under any agreement of a Person acquired as a Subsidiary pursuant to Section 5.01 or Section 4.10(l); provided that any such agreement existed at the time of such acquisition, was not put into place in anticipation of such acquisition and was not applicable to any Person or assets other than the Person or assets so acquired.

(b) The Company will not, and will not permit any Subsidiary to, enter into or suffer to exist or become effective any consensual encumbrance or restriction on the ability of any Subsidiary to (i) make Restricted Payments in respect of any Equity Interests of such Subsidiary held by, or pay any Debt owed to, the Company or any other Subsidiary, (ii) make any Investment in the Company or any other Subsidiary, or (iii) transfer any of its assets to the Company or any other Subsidiary, except for (A) any restriction existing under (1) the ABL Loan Documents, the Takeback Notes Documents or the Securities Collateral Documents, and (2) agreements with respect to Debt permitted by this Indenture containing provisions described in clauses (i), (ii) and (iii) above and provided that (i)(x) the restriction is not materially more restrictive, taken as a whole, as reasonably determined by the Board of Directors or senior management of the Company, than the restrictions of the same type contained in this Indenture, (y) the restriction is not materially more restrictive, taken as a whole, as reasonably determined by the Board of Directors or senior management of the Company, than the restrictions of the same type contained in the ABL Credit Agreement or (z) the restriction is not materially more restrictive, taken as a whole, than customary provisions in comparable financings, as reasonably determined by the Board of Directors or senior management of the Company, and (ii) that the Board of Directors or senior management of the Company determines, at the time of such financing, will not impair the Company's ability to make payments as required under the Securities when due, (B) customary non-assignment provisions in leases and other contracts entered into in the ordinary course of business, (C) as required by applicable law, rule, regulation or order, (D) customary restrictions contained in purchase and sale agreements limiting the transfer of the subject assets pending closing, (E) any restriction existing under agreements relating to assets acquired by the Company or a Subsidiary in a transaction permitted hereby; provided that such agreements existed at the time of such acquisition, were not put into place in anticipation of such acquisition and are not applicable to any assets other than assets so acquired, (F) any restriction existing under any agreement of a Person acquired as a Subsidiary pursuant to Section 5.01 or Section 4.10(l); provided any such agreement existed at the time of such acquisition, was not put into place in anticipation of such acquisition and was not applicable to any Person or assets other than the Person or assets so acquired, (G) agreements with respect to Debt secured by Liens permitted by Section 4.05(c), (d), (f) and (k) that restrict the ability to transfer the assets securing such Debt (subject to the terms of the applicable Acceptable Intercreditor Agreements with respect to such Debt), (H) resulting from customary provisions restricting subletting or assignment of leases or customary provisions in other agreements that restrict assignment of such agreements or rights thereunder, (I) resulting from purchase money obligations for Property acquired or Capital Lease Obligations that impose restrictions on the Property so acquired, and (J) resulting from restrictions on cash or other deposits or net worth imposed by customers under contracts entered into in the ordinary course of business or consistent with past practice or industry practice.

Section 4.16 Impairment of Security Interest. The Securities Parties will not, and will not permit any of their Subsidiaries to, take or omit to take any action with respect to the Collateral that could reasonably be expected to have the result of affecting or impairing the security interest in the Collateral in favor of the Securities Collateral Agent for its benefit, for the benefit of the Trustee and for the benefit of the Holders, it being understood that actions with respect to the Collateral that are not prohibited by this Indenture and the Security Collateral Documents shall not be deemed to be actions prohibited by this Section 4.16.

Section 4.17 Additional Amounts.

(a) All payments made by the Company in respect of the Securities or a Guarantor in respect of a Guarantee will be made free and clear of and without withholding or deduction for, or on account of, any present or future Taxes unless the withholding or deduction of such Taxes is then required by law. If any deduction or withholding for, or on account of, any Taxes imposed or levied by or on behalf of any jurisdiction in which the Company or the relevant Guarantor is then incorporated or organized or resident for Tax purposes, any jurisdiction from or through which payment on behalf of the Company or Guarantor is made or any political subdivision or governmental authority thereof or therein having power to tax (each, a "Tax Jurisdiction"), will at any time be required to be made from any payments made by or on behalf of the Company in respect of the Securities or the relevant Guarantor under its Guarantee, including payments of principal, redemption price, purchase price, interest or premium, the Company or the relevant Guarantor will pay such additional amounts (the "Additional Amounts") as may be necessary in order that the net amounts received in respect of such payments (including payments of principal, redemption price, interest or premium) by each Holder (including Additional Amounts) after such withholding or deduction will equal the respective amounts that would have been received in respect of such payments in the absence of such withholding or deduction; provided, however, that no Additional Amounts will be payable with respect to:

(i) any Taxes that would not have been so imposed but for the existence of any present or former connection between the Holder or the beneficial owner of the Security or Guarantee (or between a fiduciary, settler, beneficiary, partner, member or shareholder of, or possessor of power over the relevant Holder or beneficial owner, if the relevant Holder is an estate, nominee, trust, partnership, limited liability company or corporation) and the relevant Tax Jurisdiction, other than by the mere acquisition or holding of any Security or the enforcement or receipt of payment under or in respect of any Security or Guarantee;

(ii) any Taxes imposed or withheld as a result of the failure of the Holder or beneficial owner of any Security or Guarantee to comply with any written request, made to that Holder or beneficial owner within a reasonable period before any such withholding or deduction would be payable, by the Company or a Guarantor to provide timely or accurate information concerning the nationality, residence or identity of such Holder or beneficial owner or to make any valid or timely declaration or similar claim or satisfy any certification information or other reporting requirements (in each case, to the extent such Holder or beneficial owner is legally eligible to do so), which is required or imposed by a statute, treaty, regulation or administrative practice of the relevant Tax Jurisdiction as a precondition to exemption from, or reduction in the rate of deduction or withholding of such Taxes;

(iii) any Taxes that are imposed or withheld as a result of the presentation of any Security or Guarantee for payment (where presentation is required) more than 30 days after the relevant payment is first made available for payment to the Holder or beneficial owner (except to the extent that the Holder or beneficial owner would have been entitled to Additional Amounts had the Security been presented on the last day of such 30 day period);

(iv) any estate, inheritance, gift, sale, excise, transfer, personal property or similar Tax or assessment;

(v) any Tax which is payable otherwise than by deduction or withholding from payments made under or with respect to any Security or Guarantee;

(vi) any Taxes that are imposed or withheld as a result of the presentation of any Security or Guarantee for payment by or on behalf of a Holder or beneficial owner of such Securities or Guarantee who would have been able to avoid such withholding or deduction by presenting the relevant Security or Guarantee to, or otherwise accepting payment from, another paying agent;

(vii) any Taxes that are imposed or withheld pursuant to Sections 1471 through 1474 of the Code, any regulations promulgated thereunder, any official interpretations thereof, any similar law or regulation adopted pursuant to an intergovernmental agreement between a non-U.S. jurisdiction and the United States with respect to the foregoing or any agreements entered into pursuant to Section 1471(b)(1) of the Code; or

(viii) any combination of items (i) through (vii) above.

(b) The relevant Guarantor will pay when due any present or future stamp, transfer, court or documentary Taxes or any other excise or property Taxes that arise in a Tax Jurisdiction with respect to the initial execution, delivery or registration of the Guarantee or any other document or instrument relating thereto (other than the Securities).

(c) The relevant Guarantor will use reasonable efforts to furnish to the Holders, within a reasonable period of time after the due date for the payment of any Taxes so deducted or withheld pursuant to applicable law, either certified copies of Tax receipts evidencing such payment by such Guarantor (in such form as provided in the ordinary course by the relevant Tax Jurisdiction and as is reasonably available to the Guarantor), or, if such receipts are not obtainable, other evidence of such payments by such Guarantor reasonably satisfactory to the Holders.

Section 4.18 Amendment of Material Documents.

(a) The Company will not, nor will it permit any Subsidiary to, amend or modify (or waive any of its rights under) the Pharmacy Inventory Supply Agreement or any McKesson Document, without the prior written consent of the Securities Collateral Agent (acting at the direction of Holders of a majority in principal amount of the Securities), other than amendments, modifications and waivers that are not adverse in any material respect to the interests of the Holders (it being understood and agreed that amendments or modifications having the following effect shall be deemed to be material to the interests of the Holders:

(i) increases the amount of the McKesson Guaranteed Cash Obligations or the McKesson Contingent Deferred Cash Obligations, (B) accelerates the timing, or increases the frequency, of any payment of the McKesson Guaranteed Cash Obligations or the McKesson Contingent Deferred Cash Obligations, or (C) otherwise changes any provision of the Pharmacy Inventory Supply Agreement or any McKesson Document applicable to the McKesson Guaranteed Cash Obligations or the McKesson Contingent Deferred Cash Obligations in any manner that is less favorable to the Holders;

(ii) reduces the amount or duration of trade credit provided to the Company or any Subsidiary under the Pharmacy Inventory Supply Agreement or any McKesson Document;

(v) restricts any Securities Party or any Subsidiary from (A) incurring Liens on any property of any Securities Party or any Subsidiary, (B) incurring Indebtedness, (C) making Restricted Payments in respect of any Equity Interests of any Securities Party or any Subsidiary held by, or to pay any Indebtedness owed to, any Securities Party or any other Subsidiary, (D) making any Investment in any Securities Party, any Subsidiary or any other Person, (E) disposing of, or otherwise transferring, any property of any Securities Party or any Subsidiary, or (F) engaging in any transaction or activity otherwise permitted by this Indenture; or

(vi) is otherwise adverse in any material respect to the interests of Holders of the Securities (provided that this clause (vi) shall not be applicable to ordinary course amendments or modifications to the trade terms under the Pharmacy Inventory Supply Agreement relating to pricing of goods, delivery procedures for goods, rebates and credits, invoicing procedures, product returns, record keeping requirements and audit procedures and similar commercial terms).

(b) The Company will not, nor will it permit any Subsidiary to, seek or consent to any amendment or other modification of Plan Document in any manner (i) that is adverse to the Securities Collateral Agent or the Holders or their interests under the Securities Documents or (ii) increases the amount of or changes the terms of any payments required to be made by the Company or any of the Subsidiaries pursuant to the Plan

(g) promptly following the occurrence of such event, any amendment, waiver, supplement, or modification of (i)(A) any Securities Document or (B) any Takeback Notes Document, in each case, accompanied by a true, correct and complete copy thereof or (ii)(A) the Pharmacy Inventory Supply Agreement or (B) any McKesson Document, to the extent any such amendment, waiver, supplement, or modification requires the consent of the ABL Administrative Agent hereunder, accompanied by a true, correct and complete copy thereof (which may contain redactions, other than of the provisions the amendment, modification or waiver of which are subject to the ABL Administrative Agent's consent hereunder);

(i) any notice received by any Securities Party or any Subsidiary (or any of their representatives) alleging any Securities Party's or any Subsidiary's failure to perform any of its obligations under any Plan Document.

Section 4.22 Information Regarding Collateral. The Company will furnish to the Trustee prompt written notice of any change (i) in any Securities Party's corporate name, (ii) in the location of any Securities Party's jurisdiction of incorporation or organization, or (iii) in any Securities Party's form of organization. The Company agrees not to effect or permit any change referred to in the preceding sentence unless all filings have been made (or arrangements have been approved by the Trustee, acting reasonably, for such filings to be made) under the Uniform Commercial Code or otherwise that are required in order for the Securities Collateral Agent to continue at all times following such change to have a valid, legal and perfected security interest in all the Collateral for the benefit of the Securities Collateral Agent.

Section 4.24 Maintenance of Properties. The Company will, and will cause each of the Subsidiaries to, keep and maintain all property used in the conduct of its business in good working order and condition, ordinary wear and tear excepted except where failure to do so, individually or in the aggregate could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

Section 4.25 Statement as to Compliance.

The Company will deliver to the Trustee within 120 days after the end of each fiscal year ending after the Issue Date an Officer's certificate stating whether or not to the best knowledge of the signer thereof the Company, to extent required in Section 314(a)(4) of the Trust Indenture Act, is in compliance (without regard to periods of grace or notice requirements) with all conditions and covenants under this Indenture, and if the Company shall not be in compliance, specifying such non-compliance and the nature and status thereof of which such signer may have knowledge.

Section 4.26 Statement by Officers as to Default.

The Company shall deliver to the Trustee, as soon as possible and in any event within 30 days after the Company becomes aware of the occurrence of any Event of Default or an event which, with notice or the lapse of time or both, would constitute an Event of Default, an Officer's Certificate setting forth the details of such Event of Default or default and the action which the Company proposes to take with respect thereto.

Section 4.27 Elixir Rx Distributions.

(a) The Company shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries and EIC to, (i) transfer all proceeds of the Elixir Rx Intercompany Claim and other distributable value at EIC, including the cash proceeds of the 2023 CMS Receivable, to the Elixir Escrow Account maintained with the Elixir Escrow Account Bank in accordance with the Plan of Reorganization and the Plan Confirmation Order within one (1) Business Day after receipt by EIC of any cash proceeds of the 2023 CMS Receivable, (ii) ensure that the Elixir Escrow Account is at all times subject to the Elixir Escrow Agreement, which shall be subject to the consent rights set forth in this Indenture and the Plan of Reorganization, and (iii) cause the Elixir Escrow Account Bank to promptly distribute the proceeds of the Elixir Rx Intercompany Claim and other distributable value at EIC, including the cash proceeds of the 2023 CMS Receivable, in the Elixir Escrow Account in accordance with the Elixir Escrow Agreement and the Elixir Rx Distributions Schedule set forth in the Plan of Reorganization.

(a) The Company shall not merge, consolidate or amalgamate with or into any other Person or sell, transfer, assign, lease, convey or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all its Property in any one transaction or series of transactions unless:

(i) the Company or the Person formed by or surviving or continuing any such merger consolidation or amalgamation (if other than the Company) or to which such sale, transfer, assignment, lease, conveyance or other disposition will have been made is a corporation, partnership or limited liability company or similar entity organized or existing under the laws of the United States of America, any State thereof or the District of Columbia will be the surviving Person (the "Surviving Person"), provided that, if such other Person is a Subsidiary Guarantor, it shall have no assets that constitute Collateral;

(iii) in the case of a sale, transfer, assignment, lease, conveyance or other disposition of all or substantially all the Property of the Company, such Property shall have been transferred as an entirety or virtually as an entirety to one Person (including its Subsidiaries);

(iv) at the time thereof and immediately after giving effect to such transaction or series of transactions, no Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing; and

(v) the Company shall deliver, or cause to be delivered, to the Trustee, an Officer's Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel, each stating that such transaction and the supplemental indenture, if any, in respect thereto comply with this Section 5.01 and that all conditions precedent herein provided for relating to such transaction have been satisfied.

(b) The Company shall not permit any Subsidiary Guarantor to merge, consolidate or amalgamate with or into any other Person (other than a merger of a Wholly Owned Subsidiary into such Subsidiary Guarantor, or a merger of a Subsidiary Guarantor into the Company or another Subsidiary Guarantor) or sell, transfer, assign, lease, convey or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all its Property in any one transaction or series of transactions unless:

(1) such Subsidiary Guarantor will be the Surviving Person or the Surviving Person (if other than such Subsidiary Guarantor) formed by such merger, consolidation or amalgamation or to which such sale, transfer, assignment, lease, conveyance or disposition is made will be an entity organized and existing under the laws of the United States of America, any State thereof or the District of Columbia;

(2) the Surviving Person (if other than such Subsidiary Guarantor) expressly assumes, by a Subsidiary Guarantee or a supplement to the Subsidiary Guarantee or a supplemental indenture, executed and delivered to the Trustee by such Surviving Person, the due and punctual performance and observance of all the obligations of such Subsidiary Guarantor under its Subsidiary Guarantee;

(3) at the time thereof and immediately after giving effect to such transaction or series of transactions, no Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing;

(4) in the case of a Subsidiary Guarantor that is not a wholly-owned Subsidiary, such transaction or series of transactions shall also be permitted by Section 4.04; and

(5) the Company shall deliver, or cause to be delivered, to the Trustee, an Officer's Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel, each stating that such transaction and such Subsidiary Guarantee, if any, in respect thereto comply with this Section 5.01 and that all conditions precedent herein provided for relating to such transaction have been satisfied.

The foregoing provisions (other than clause (3)) shall not apply to (A) any transactions which do not constitute an Asset Sale if the Subsidiary Guarantor is otherwise being released from its Subsidiary Guarantee at the time of such transaction in accordance with this Indenture and the Securities Collateral Documents or (B) any transactions which constitute an Asset Sale if the Company has complied with Section 4.06 and the Subsidiary Guarantor is released from its Subsidiary Guarantee at the time of such transaction in accordance with this Indenture and the Securities Collateral Documents.

The Surviving Person shall succeed to, and be substituted for, and may exercise every right and power of the Subsidiary Guarantor under the Subsidiary Guarantee and the applicable Subsidiary Guarantor shall be released from its obligations under this Indenture other than in the case of a lease (in which case the predecessor company shall not be released from its obligation to pay the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the Securities). Subject to the foregoing, following the merger, consolidation or amalgamation of any Subsidiary Guarantor or the sale, transfer, assignment, conveyance or other disposition of all or substantially all a Subsidiary Guarantor's Property in any one transaction or series of transactions, all references to the "Subsidiary Guarantor" under the Subsidiary Guarantee shall be deemed to refer to the Surviving Person.

ARTICLE VI

DEFAULTS AND REMEDIES

Section 6.01 Events of Default. The following events shall be "Events of Default":

(a) the Company fails to make the payment of any interest on any of the Securities when the same becomes due and payable, and such failure continues for a period of 30 days;

(b) the Company fails to make the payment of any principal of, or premium, if any, on any of the Securities when the same becomes due and payable at its Maturity Date or upon acceleration, redemption, optional redemption, required repurchase or otherwise;

(c) the Company fails to comply with Article V;

(d) the Company fails to comply with any covenant or agreement in the Securities or in this Indenture (other than a failure that is the subject of the foregoing clauses (a), (b) or (c)) and such failure continues for a period of 20 days after written notice is given to the Company as provided below;

(e) (i) a default under the ABL Facility by the Company or any Subsidiary that (x) constitutes a payment default, including a failure to pay any Debt under the ABL Facility at final maturity (in each case after giving effect to applicable grace periods) or (y) results in acceleration of the final maturity of the Debt under the ABL Facility, (ii) the Company or any Subsidiary shall fail to make any payment (whether of principal or interest and regardless of amount) in respect of any Material Debt (other than Debt under the ABL Facility), including any obligation to reimburse letter of credit obligations or to post cash collateral with respect thereto, when and as the same shall become due and payable or within any applicable grace period, or (iii) any event or condition occurs that results in any Material Debt (other than Debt under the ABL Facility) becoming due prior to its scheduled maturity or that enables or permits (with or without the giving of notice, the lapse of time or both) the holder or holders of any Material Debt (other than Debt under the ABL Facility) or any trustee or agent on its or their behalf to cause any such Material Debt to become due, or to require the prepayment, repurchase, redemption or defeasance thereof, prior to its scheduled maturity; provided that clauses (e)(ii) and (iii) above shall not apply to any such Material Debt that becomes due as a result of the voluntary sale or transfer of the property or assets securing such Material Debt; provided, further that clauses (e)(i) and (iii) above shall not apply to any mandatory repurchase offer or other mandatory repurchase, redemption or prepayment obligation of the Company that may arise under convertible debt to the extent that the making of such mandatory repurchase by the Company is otherwise permitted under this Indenture;

(f) an involuntary proceeding shall be commenced or an involuntary petition shall be filed seeking (i) liquidation, reorganization or other relief in respect of the Company or any Subsidiary, or of a substantial part of its assets, under any Federal, state or foreign bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership or similar law now or hereafter in effect or (ii) the appointment of a receiver, trustee, custodian, sequestrator, conservator or similar official for the Company or any Subsidiary or for a substantial part of its assets, and, in any such case, such proceeding or petition shall continue undismissed for sixty (60) days or an order or decree approving or ordering any of the foregoing shall be entered;

(g) the Company or any Subsidiary shall (i) voluntarily commence any proceeding or file any petition seeking liquidation, reorganization or other relief under any Federal, state or foreign bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership or similar law now or hereafter in effect, (ii) consent to the institution of, or fail to contest in a timely manner, any proceeding or petition described in Section 6.01(f), (iii) apply for or consent to the appointment of a receiver, trustee, custodian, sequestrator, conservator or similar official for the Company or any Subsidiary or for a substantial part of its assets, (iv) file an answer admitting the material allegations of a petition filed against it in any such proceeding, (v) make a general assignment for the benefit of creditors or (vi) take any action for the purpose of effecting any of the foregoing;

(h) [reserved];

(i) any Subsidiary Guarantee of a Significant Subsidiary ceases to be in full force and effect (other than in accordance with the terms of the Securities Collateral Documents and this Indenture) and such default continues for 20 days after notice as provided below or any Subsidiary Guarantor that is a Significant Subsidiary denies or disaffirms its obligations under its Subsidiary Guarantee (the "guarantee provisions");

(j) the Company or any Subsidiary shall become unable to, or admits in writing its inability or fails to, generally pay its debts as they become due;

(k) one or more judgments for the payment of money in an aggregate amount in excess of $38,500,000 shall be rendered against the Company, any Subsidiary or any combination thereof (to the extent not covered by insurance as to which the insurer has been notified of such judgment or order and has not denied coverage) and the same shall not have been satisfied, vacated, discharged or stayed or bonded pending an appeal for a period of thirty (30) consecutive days, or any action shall be legally taken by a judgment creditor to attach or levy upon any assets of the Company or any Subsidiary to enforce any such judgment;

(l) any ERISA Event shall have occurred that, when taken together with all other ERISA Events that have occurred, has resulted or could reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect;

(m) (i) any Lien purported to be created under any Securities Collateral Document shall cease to be a valid and perfected Lien on any material portion of the Collateral, with the priority required by the Securities or the Company or any Subsidiary shall so assert in writing, except as a result of the sale or other disposition of the applicable Collateral in a transaction permitted under the Securities Collateral Documents and except to the extent that any such loss of perfection or priority is not required pursuant to the terms of the Securities Collateral Documents or results from the failure of the Securities Collateral Agent to maintain possession of Collateral actually delivered to it and pledged under the Securities Collateral Documents, or (ii) any Securities Collateral Document shall become invalid, or the Company or any Subsidiary shall so assert in writing;

(n) the subordination provisions of the documents evidencing or governing any Subordinated Debt (such provisions, "Subordination Provisions") or the provisions of any Acceptable Intercreditor Agreement shall, in whole or in part, terminate, cease to be effective or cease to be legally valid, binding and enforceable against any holder of the applicable Subordinated Debt or other Debt, as applicable, except in each case, to the extent permitted by the terms of the applicable Subordination Provisions or Acceptable Intercreditor Agreement, or any Securities Party or Subsidiary or any holder of the applicable Subordinated Debt or other Debt (or applicable agent or debt representative for such holders) shall disavow or contest in writing the effectiveness, validity or enforceability of any of such Subordination Provisions or any such Acceptable Intercreditor Agreement with respect to any applicable Subordinated Debt or other Debt; or

(o) a Change of Control shall have occurred.

The foregoing will constitute Events of Default whatever the reason for any such Event of Default and whether it is voluntary or involuntary or is effected by operation of law or pursuant to any judgment, decree or order of any court or any order, rule or regulation of any administrative or governmental body.

A Default under clause (d), (i), (l), (m) or (n) of this Section 6.01 is not an Event of Default until the Trustee notifies the Company of such Default or the Holders of not less than 25% in aggregate principal amount of the Securities then outstanding notify the Company and the Trustee of the Default and the Company does not cure such Default within the time specified after receipt of such notice; provided that a notice of Default may not be given with respect to any action taken, and reported publicly or to holders, more than two years prior to such notice of Default. Such notice must specify the Default, demand that it be remedied and state that such notice is a "notice of Default".

The Company shall deliver to the Trustee, within 30 days after it becomes aware of the occurrence thereof, written notice in the form of an Officer's Certificate of any event that with the giving of notice or the lapse of time would become an Event of Default, its status and what action the Company is taking or proposes to take with respect thereto.

Section 6.02 Acceleration. If an Event of Default with respect to the Securities (other than an Event of Default specified in Section 6.01(f) or Section 6.01(g) with respect to the Company) shall have occurred and be continuing, the Trustee by notice to the Company, or the Holders of not less than 25% in aggregate principal amount of the Securities then outstanding by notice to the Company and the Trustee, may declare to be immediately due and payable an amount equal to 100% of the principal amount of the Securities then outstanding, plus the Applicable Premium as of, and accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to, but not including, the date of such payment. Upon such a declaration, such principal, premium and interest shall be due and payable immediately. If an Event of Default specified in Section 6.01(f) or Section 6.01(g) with respect to the Company occurs, the principal of and premium (including the Applicable Premium) and accrued and unpaid interest on all the Securities shall, automatically and without any action by the Trustee or any Holder, become and be immediately due and payable. The Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Securities by notice to the Trustee and the Company may rescind and annul such declaration of acceleration if the rescission would not conflict with any judgment or decree and if all existing Events of Default have been cured or waived except nonpayment of principal, premium, if any, or interest that has become due solely because of the acceleration. No such rescission shall affect any subsequent Default or impair any right consequent thereto.

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, in the event an Applicable Premium Event occurs, the amount that becomes due and payable upon such Applicable Premium Event shall include the Applicable Premium. In any such case, the Applicable Premium shall constitute part of the obligations payable by the Company (and guaranteed by the Subsidiary Guarantors) in respect of the Securities, which obligations are secured by the Collateral, and constitutes liquidated damages, not unmatured interest or a penalty, as the actual amount of damages to the holders as a result of the relevant Applicable Premium Event would be impracticable and extremely difficult to ascertain. Accordingly, the Applicable Premium is provided by mutual agreement of the Company and the Subsidiary Guarantors and the Holders as a reasonable estimation and calculation of such actual lost profits and other actual damages of such holders. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, it is understood and agreed that upon the occurrence of any Applicable Premium Event, the Applicable Premium shall be automatically and immediately due and payable as though any Securities subject to such Applicable Premium Event were voluntarily prepaid as of such date and shall constitute part of the obligations payable by the Company (and guaranteed by the Subsidiary Guarantors) in respect of the Securities, which obligations are secured by the Collateral. The Applicable Premium shall also be automatically and immediately due and payable if the Securities are satisfied, released or discharged by foreclosure (whether by power of judicial proceeding or otherwise), deed in lieu of foreclosure or by any other means. THE COMPANY AND THE SUBSIDIARY GUARANTORS HEREBY EXPRESSLY WAIVE (TO THE FULLEST EXTENT THEY MAY LAWFULLY DO SO) THE PROVISIONS OF ANY PRESENT OR FUTURE STATUTE OR OTHER LAW THAT PROHIBITS OR MAY PROHIBIT THE COLLECTION OF THE FOREGOING APPLICABLE PREMIUM IN CONNECTION WITH ANY SUCH EVENTS, ANY RESCISSION OF SUCH ACCELERATION OR THE COMMENCEMENT OF ANY BANKRUPTCY OR INSOLVENCY EVENT. The Company and the Subsidiary Guarantors expressly agree (to the fullest extent it and they may lawfully do so) that with respect to the Applicable Premium payable under the terms of this Indenture: (i) the Applicable Premium is reasonable and is the product of an arm's length transaction between sophisticated business parties, ably represented by counsel; (ii) the Applicable Premium shall be payable notwithstanding the then-prevailing market rates at the time payment is made; (iii) there has been a course of conduct between the Holders and the Company and the Subsidiary Guarantors giving specific consideration in this transaction for such agreement to pay the Applicable Premium; and (iv) the Company and the Subsidiary Guarantors shall be estopped hereafter from claiming differently than as agreed to in this paragraph. The Company and the Subsidiary Guarantors expressly acknowledge that their agreement to pay the Applicable Premium as herein described is a material inducement to the Holders to purchase the Securities. Nothing in this paragraph is intended to limit, restrict, or condition any of the Company's or the Subsidiary Guarantors' obligations or any of the Holders' rights or remedies hereunder.

Section 6.03 Other Remedies. Subject in all cases to the terms of the Intercreditor Agreements, if an Event of Default occurs and is continuing, the Trustee may pursue any available remedy to collect the payment of principal of, premium, if any, or interest on the Securities or to enforce the performance of any provision of the Securities or this Indenture.

The Trustee may maintain a proceeding even if it does not possess any of the Securities or does not produce any of them in the proceeding. A delay or omission by the Trustee or any Holder in exercising any right or remedy accruing upon an Event of Default shall not impair the right or remedy or constitute a waiver of or acquiescence in the Event of Default. No remedy is exclusive of any other remedy. All available remedies are cumulative and are subject in all cases to the terms of the Intercreditor Agreements.

Section 6.04 Waiver of Past Defaults. The Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Securities then outstanding by notice to the Trustee may waive an existing Default and its consequences except (i) a Default in the payment of the principal of, premium, if any, or interest on a Security, unless any such principal, premium or interest has been paid to all Holders in full, or (ii) a Default in respect of a provision that under Section 9.02 cannot be amended without the consent of each Holder affected. When a Default is waived, it is deemed cured, but no such waiver shall extend to any subsequent or other Default or impair any consequent right.

Section 6.05 Control by Majority. The Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Securities then outstanding may direct the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee or of exercising any trust or power conferred on the Trustee with respect to the Securities. However, the Trustee may refuse to follow any direction that conflicts with law or this Indenture or, subject to Section 7.01, that the Trustee determines is unduly prejudicial to the rights of other Holders (it being understood that the Trustee does not have an affirmative duty to ascertain whether or not such actions or forbearances are unduly prejudicial to such holders) or would involve the Trustee in personal liability; provided, however, that the Trustee may take any other action deemed proper by the Trustee that is not inconsistent with such direction. Prior to taking any action or following any direction hereunder, the Trustee shall be entitled to indemnification or security reasonably satisfactory to it against all losses and expenses caused by taking or not taking such action.

Section 6.06 Limitation on Suits. A Holder may not pursue any remedy with respect to this Indenture or the Securities unless:

(1) such Holder shall have previously given to the Trustee written notice of a continuing Event of Default;

(2) the Holders of at least 25% in aggregate principal amount of the Securities then outstanding shall have made a written request, and such Holder or Holders shall have offered and, if requested, provided, indemnity reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee to pursue a remedy;

(3) the Trustee has failed to institute such proceeding and has not received from the Holders of at least a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Securities outstanding a direction inconsistent with such request, within 60 days after such notice, request and offer; and

(4) such action is permitted under the Intercreditor Agreements.

The foregoing limitations on the pursuit of remedies by a Holder shall not apply to a suit instituted by a Holder for the enforcement of payment of the principal of and premium, if any, or interest payable with respect to such Security on or after the applicable due date specified in such Security.

Section 6.07 Rights of Holders to Receive Payment. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture, subject to the Intercreditor Agreements, the right of any Holder to receive payment of principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the Securities held by such Holder, on or after the respective due dates expressed or provided for in the Securities, or to bring suit for the enforcement of any such payment on or after such respective dates, shall not be impaired or affected without the consent of such Holder.

Section 6.08 Collection Suit by Trustee. Subject in all cases to the terms of the Intercreditor Agreements, if an Event of Default specified in Section 6.01(a) or Section 6.01(b) occurs and is continuing, the Trustee may recover judgment in its own name and as trustee of an express trust against the Company for the whole amount then due and owing (together with interest on any unpaid interest to the extent lawful) and the amounts provided for in Section 7.07.

Section 6.09 Trustee May File Proofs of Claim. The Trustee may file such proofs of claim and other papers or documents as may be necessary or advisable in order to have the claims of the Trustee and the Holders allowed in any judicial proceedings relative to the Company, its creditors or its property and, any receiver, trustee, assignee, liquidator, custodian or similar official under any Bankruptcy Law in any such judicial proceeding is hereby authorized by each Holder to make payments to the Trustee and, in the event that the Trustee shall consent to the making of such payments directly to the Holders (it being understood it shall be under no obligation to do so), to pay to the Trustee any amount due it for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee, its agents and its counsel, and any other amounts due the Trustee under Section 7.07. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to authorize the Trustee to authorize or consent to, or, on behalf of any Holder, to authorize, accept or adopt any plan of reorganization, arrangement, adjustment or composition affecting the Securities of the applicable series or the rights of any Holder thereof, or to authorize the Trustee to vote in respect of the claim of any Holder in any such proceeding.

Section 6.10 Priorities. If the Trustee collects any money or property pursuant to this Article VI, subject to the terms of the Intercreditor Agreements, it shall pay out the money or property in the following order:

FIRST: to the Trustee and the Securities Collateral Agent for amounts due to each under Section 7.07;

SECOND: to Holders of Securities for amounts due and unpaid on the Securities for principal, premium, if any, and interest, ratably, without preference or priority of any kind, according to the amounts due and payable on the Securities for principal, premium, if any, and interest, respectively; and THIRD: to the Company or as a court of competent jurisdiction shall direct in writing.

The Trustee may fix a record date and payment date for any payment to Holders pursuant to this Section 6.10. At least 15 days before such record date, the Company shall mail to each Holder and the Trustee a notice that states the record date, the payment date and amount to be paid.

Section 6.11 Undertaking for Costs. In any suit for the enforcement of any right or remedy under this Indenture or in any suit against the Trustee for any action taken or omitted by it as Trustee, a court in its discretion may require the filing by any party litigant in the suit of an undertaking to pay the costs of the suit, and the court in its discretion may assess reasonable costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses, against any party litigant in the suit, having due regard to the merits and good faith of the claims or defenses made by the party litigant. This Section 6.11 does not apply to a suit by the Trustee, a suit by a Holder pursuant to Section 6.07 or a suit by Holders of more than 10% in aggregate principal amount of the Securities.

Section 6.12 Waiver of Stay or Extension Laws. The Company (to the extent it may lawfully do so) shall not at any time insist upon, or plead, or in any manner whatsoever claim or take the benefit or advantage of, any stay or extension law wherever enacted, now or at any time hereafter in force, that may affect the covenants or the performance of this Indenture; and the Company (to the extent that it may lawfully do so) hereby expressly waives all benefit or advantage of any such law, and shall not hinder, delay or impede the execution of any power herein granted to the Trustee, but shall suffer and permit the execution of every such power as though no such law had been enacted.

ARTICLE VII

TRUSTEE

Section 7.01 Duties of Trustee.

(a) If an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, and subject in all cases to the terms of the Intercreditor Agreements, the Trustee shall exercise the rights and powers vested in it by this Indenture and use the same degree of care and skill in their exercise as a prudent Person would exercise or use under the circumstances in the conduct of such Person's own affairs.

(b) Except during the continuance of an Event of Default:

(1) the Trustee undertakes to perform such duties and only such duties as are specifically set forth in this Indenture, and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into this Indenture against the Trustee; and

(2) in the absence of bad faith on its part, the Trustee may conclusively rely, as to the truth of the statements and the correctness of the opinions expressed therein, upon certificates or opinions furnished to the Trustee and conforming to the requirements of this Indenture. However, in the case of certificates or opinions specifically required by any provision hereof to be furnished to it, the Trustee shall examine the certificates and opinions to determine whether or not they conform to the requirements of this Indenture (but need not confirm or investigate the accuracy of mathematical calculations stated therein).

(c) The Trustee may not be relieved from liability for its own negligent action, its own negligent failure to act or its own willful misconduct, except that:

(1) this paragraph does not limit the effect of paragraph (b) of this Section 7.01;

(2) the Trustee shall not be liable for any error of judgment made in good faith by a Trust Officer unless it is proved that the Trustee was negligent in ascertaining the pertinent facts; and

(3) the Trustee shall not be liable with respect to any action it takes or omits to take in good faith in accordance with a direction received by it pursuant to Section 6.05.

(d) Every provision of this Indenture that in any way relates to the Trustee is subject to paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of this Section 7.01 and the provisions of the Trust Indenture Act.

(e) The Trustee shall not be liable for interest on any money received by it except as the Trustee may agree in writing with the Company.

(f) Money held in trust by the Trustee need not be segregated from other funds except to the extent required by law.

(g) No provision of this Indenture shall require the Trustee to expend or risk its own funds or otherwise incur financial liability in the performance of any of its duties hereunder or in the exercise of any of its rights or powers.

(h) Every provision of this Indenture relating to the conduct or affecting the liability of or affording protection to the Trustee shall be subject to the provisions of this Section, and the provisions of this Article VII (except Section 7.01(a) and the lead-in to Section 7.01(b)) shall apply to the Trustee in its role as Registrar, Paying Agent and Securities Custodian.

(i) The Trustee shall not be deemed to have notice of a Default or an Event of Default unless (a) a Trust Officer of the Trustee has received written notice thereof from the Company or any Holder and such notice references the Securities and this Indenture.

(j) The Trustee and the Securities Collateral Agent are authorized to, and shall enter into the Intercreditor Agreements and bind the Holders to the Intercreditor Agreements (it being understood and agree that the Trustee, the Securities Collateral Agent and each of the Holders, and their respective successors and assigns, shall be subject to, and comply with, all terms and conditions of the Intercreditor Agreements).

Section 7.02 Rights of Trustee.

(a) The Trustee may conclusively rely on any document believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper person. The Trustee need not investigate any fact or matter stated in the document. The Trustee may, however, in its discretion make such further inquiry or investigation into such facts or matters as it may see fit and, if the Trustee shall determine to make such further inquiry or investigation, it shall be entitled to examine the books, records and premises of the Company, personally or by agent or attorney at the expense of the Company and shall incur no liability by reason of such inquiry or investigation.

(b) Before the Trustee acts or refrains from acting, it may require an Officer's Certificate or an Opinion of Counsel. The Trustee shall not be liable for any action it takes or omits to take in good faith in reliance on the Officer's Certificate or Opinion of Counsel.

(c) The Trustee may act through agents and shall not be responsible for the misconduct or negligence of any agent appointed with due care.

(d) The Trustee shall not be liable for any action it takes or omits to take in good faith that it believes to be authorized or within its rights or powers; provided, however, that, subject to paragraph (b) of Section 7.01, the Trustee's conduct does not constitute willful misconduct or negligence.

(e) The Trustee may consult with counsel of its selection, and the advice or opinion of counsel with respect to legal matters relating to this Indenture and the Securities shall be full and complete authorization and protection from liability in respect to any action taken, omitted or suffered by it hereunder in good faith and in accordance with the advice or opinion of such counsel.

(f) The permissive rights of the Trustee to do things enumerated in this Indenture shall not be construed as a duty unless so specified herein.

(g) The Trustee shall be under no obligation to exercise any of the rights or powers vested in it by this Indenture at the request or direction of any of the Holders pursuant to this Indenture, unless such Holders shall have offered to the Trustee security or indemnity reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee against the costs, expenses and liabilities which might be incurred by it in compliance with such request or direction.

(h) The rights, privileges, protections, immunities and benefits given to the Trustee, including, without limitation, its right to be indemnified, are extended to, and shall be enforceable by, the Trustee in each of its capacities hereunder, the Securities Collateral Agent, the Calculation Agent and each agent, custodian and other Person employed to act hereunder.

(i) In no event shall the Trustee be responsible or liable for special, indirect, or consequential loss or damage of any kind whatsoever (including, but not limited to, loss of profit) irrespective of whether the Trustee has been advised of the likelihood of such loss or damage and regardless of the form of action.

(j) The Trustee may request that the Company deliver a certificate setting forth the names of individuals and/or titles of officers authorized at such time to take specified actions pursuant to this Indenture.

Section 7.03 Individual Rights of Trustee. The Trustee in its individual or any other capacity may become the owner or pledgee of Securities and may otherwise deal with the Company or its Affiliates with the same rights it would have if it were not Trustee. Any Paying Agent, Registrar or co-registrar may do the same with like rights. However, the Trustee must comply with Section 7.10.

Section 7.04 Trustee's Disclaimer. The Trustee shall not be responsible for and makes no representation as to the validity, priority or adequacy of this Indenture or the Securities, it shall not be accountable for the Company's use of the proceeds from the Securities, and it shall not be responsible for any statement of the Company in this Indenture or in any document issued in connection with the sale of the Securities or in the Securities other than the Trustee's certificate of authentication.

Section 7.05 Notice of Defaults. If a Default or Event of Default occurs and is continuing and if it is known to the Trustee, the Trustee shall mail to each Holder notice of the Default or Event of Default, in the manner and to the extent provided in the Trust Indenture Act Section 313(c), within 30 days after written notice of it is received by a Trust Officer of the Trustee. Except in the case of a Default or Event of Default in payment of principal of, premium, if any, or interest on any Security, the Trustee may withhold the notice if and so long as a committee of its Trust Officers in good faith determines that withholding the notice is in the interests of Holders.

Section 7.06 Reports by Trustee to Holders of the Notes. Within 60 days after each December 31, beginning with the December 31 following the date of this Indenture, and for so long as Securities remain outstanding, the Trustee shall deliver to the Holders of the Securities a brief report dated as of such reporting date that complies with Trust Indenture Act Section 313(a) (but if no event described in Trust Indenture Act Section 313(a) has occurred within the twelve months preceding the reporting date, no report need be transmitted). The Trustee also shall comply with Trust Indenture Act Section 313(b). The Trustee shall also transmit by mail all reports as required by Trust Indenture Act Section 313(c).

A copy of each report at the time of its delivery to the Holders of Securities shall be delivered to the Company and filed with the Commission and each stock exchange, if any, on which the Securities are listed in accordance with Trust Indenture Act Section 313(d). The Company shall promptly notify the Trustee in writing when, if applicable, the Securities are listed on any stock exchange and of any delisting thereof.

Section 7.07 Compensation and Indemnity. The Company and the Subsidiary Guarantors, jointly and severally, shall pay to the Trustee and the Securities Collateral Agent from time to time reasonable compensation for its services. The Trustee's compensation shall not be limited by any law on compensation of a trustee of an express trust. The Company and the Subsidiary Guarantors, jointly and severally, shall reimburse the Trustee and the Securities Collateral Agent upon request for all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred or made by it, including costs of collection, in addition to the compensation for its services. Such expenses shall include the reasonable compensation and expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee's and the Securities Collateral Agent's agents, counsel, accountants and experts. The Company and the Subsidiary Guarantors, jointly and severally, shall indemnify the Trustee and the Securities Collateral Agent against any and all loss, liability, claim, damage or expense (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) incurred by it in connection with the acceptance or administration of this trust and the performance of its duties hereunder. The Trustee shall notify the Company promptly of any claim of which a Trust Officer has received notice for which it may seek indemnity. Failure by the Trustee or the Securities Collateral Agent to so notify the Company shall not relieve the Company of its obligations hereunder unless the Company has been prejudiced thereby. The Company shall defend the claim, and the Trustee and the Securities Collateral Agent may have separate counsel and the Company shall pay the reasonable fees and expenses of such counsel. The Company need not reimburse any expense or indemnify against any loss, liability or expense incurred by (i) the Trustee through the Trustee's own willful misconduct or gross negligence, or (ii) the Securities Collateral Agent through the Securities Collateral Agent's own willful misconduct or gross negligence. The Company need not pay for any settlement made by the Trustee or the Securities Collateral Agent without the Company's consent, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld. All indemnifications and releases from liability granted hereunder to the Trustee and the Securities Collateral Agent shall extend to its officers, directors, employees, agents, successors and assigns.

To secure the Company's payment obligations in this Section 7.07, the Trustee and the Securities Collateral Agent shall have a lien prior to the Securities on all money or property held or collected by the Trustee and the Securities Collateral Agent other than money or property held in trust to pay principal of and interest on particular Securities.

The Company's payment obligations pursuant to this Section 7.07 shall survive the resignation or removal of the Trustee or the Securities Collateral Agent and the discharge or termination of this Indenture. Without prejudice to any other rights available to the Trustee and the Securities Collateral Agent under applicable law, but subject to the terms of the Intercreditor Agreements, when the Trustee or the Securities Collateral Agent incurs expenses after the occurrence of a Default specified in Section 6.01(f) or Section 6.01(g) with respect to the Company, the expenses are intended to constitute expenses of administration under the Bankruptcy Law.

The Trustee shall comply with the provisions of the Trust Indenture Act Section 313(b)(2) to the extent applicable.

Section 7.08 Replacement of Trustee. The Trustee may resign at any time by so notifying the Company. The Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Securities then outstanding may remove the Trustee by so notifying the Trustee and may appoint a successor Trustee; provided that so long as no Default or Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Company shall have the right to consent to the successor Trustee, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld. The Company shall remove the Trustee if:

(1) the Trustee fails to comply with Section 7.10;

(2) the Trustee is adjudged bankrupt or insolvent;

(3) a receiver or other public officer takes charge of the Trustee or its property; or

(4) the Trustee otherwise becomes incapable of acting.

If the Trustee resigns or is removed by the Company or by the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Securities then outstanding, and (in the case of a removal by Holders) such Holders do not reasonably promptly appoint a successor Trustee, or if a vacancy exists in the office of Trustee for any reason (the Trustee in such event being referred to herein as the retiring Trustee), the Company shall promptly appoint a successor Trustee.

A successor Trustee shall deliver a written acceptance of its appointment to the retiring Trustee and to the Company. Thereupon the resignation or removal of the retiring Trustee shall become effective, and the successor Trustee shall have all the rights, powers and duties of the Trustee under this Indenture. The successor Trustee shall cause to be delivered a notice of its succession to Holders. The retiring Trustee shall upon payment of its outstanding fees, expenses and all amounts due it hereunder promptly transfer all property held by it as Trustee to the successor Trustee, subject to the lien provided for in Section 7.07.

If a successor Trustee does not take office within 60 days after the retiring Trustee resigns or is removed, the retiring Trustee or the Holders of 10% in aggregate principal amount of the Securities then outstanding may petition at the expense of the Company any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Trustee.

If the Trustee fails to comply with Section 7.10, any Holder who has been a bona fide Holder of a Security for at least six months may petition at the expense of the Company any court of competent jurisdiction for the removal of the Trustee and the appointment of a successor Trustee.

Notwithstanding the replacement of the Trustee pursuant to this Section 7.08, the Company's obligations under Section 7.07 shall continue for the benefit of the retiring Trustee.

Section 7.09 Successor Trustee by Merger. If the Trustee consolidates with, merges or converts into, or transfers all or substantially all its corporate trust business or assets to, another corporation or banking association, the resulting, surviving or transferee corporation or banking association without any further act shall be the successor Trustee.

In case at the time such successor or successors by merger, conversion or consolidation to the Trustee shall succeed to the trusts created by this Indenture any of the Securities shall have been authenticated but not delivered, any such successor to the Trustee may adopt the certificate of authentication of any predecessor trustee, and deliver such Securities so authenticated; and in case at that time any of the Securities shall not have been authenticated, any such successor to the Trustee may authenticate such Securities either in the name of any predecessor hereunder or in the name of the successor to the Trustee; and in all such cases such certificates shall have the full force which it is anywhere in the Securities or in this Indenture provided that the certificate of the Trustee shall have.

Section 7.10 Eligibility; Disqualification. There shall at all times be a Trustee hereunder that is a corporation or national banking association organized and doing business under the laws of the United States or of any state thereof that is authorized under such laws to exercise corporate trustee power, that is subject to supervision or examination by federal or state authorities and that has a combined capital and surplus of at least $50.0 million as set forth in its most recent published annual report of condition.

This Indenture shall always have a Trustee who satisfies the requirements of Trust Indenture Act Sections 310(a)(1), (2) and (5). The Trustee is subject to Trust Indenture Act Section 310(b).

Section 7.11 Preferential Collection of Claims Against the Company. The Trustee is subject to Trust Indenture Act Section 311(a), excluding any creditor relationship listed in Trust Indenture Act Section 311(b). A Trustee who has resigned or been removed shall be subject to Trust Indenture Act Section 311(a) to the extent indicated therein.

Section 7.12 Limitation on Duty of Trustee in Respect of Collateral; Indemnification.

(a) Beyond the exercise of reasonable care in the custody thereof, the Trustee shall have no duty as to any Collateral in its possession or control or in the possession or control of any agent or bailee or any income thereon or as to preservation of rights against prior parties or any other rights pertaining thereto and the Trustee shall not be responsible for filing any financing or continuation statements or recording any documents or instruments in any public office at any time or times or otherwise perfecting or maintaining the perfection of any security interest in the Collateral. The Trustee shall be deemed to have exercised reasonable care in the custody of the Collateral in its possession if the Collateral is accorded treatment substantially equal to that which it accords its own property and shall not be liable or responsible for any loss or diminution in the value of any of the Collateral, by reason of the act or omission of any carrier, forwarding agency or other agent or bailee selected by the Trustee in good faith.

(b) The Trustee shall not be responsible for the existence, genuineness or value of any of the Collateral or for the validity, perfection, priority or enforceability of the Liens in any of the Collateral, whether impaired by operation of law or by reason of any action or omission to act on its part hereunder, for the validity or sufficiency of the Collateral or any agreement or assignment contained therein, for the validity of the title of the Company to the Collateral, for insuring the Collateral or for the payment of taxes, charges, assessments or Liens upon the Collateral or otherwise as to the maintenance of the Collateral. Subject to Section 7.01 of this Indenture, the Trustee shall have no duty to ascertain or inquire as to the performance or observance of any of the terms of this Indenture, the Intercreditor Agreements or any other Security Document by the Company, the Subsidiary Guarantors or the Securities Collateral Agent. The Trustee may act and rely and shall be protected in acting and relying in good faith on the opinion or advice of or information obtained from any counsel, accountant, appraiser or other expert or adviser, whether retained or employed by the Company or by the Trustee, in relation to any matter arising in the administration of this Indenture or the Security Documents.

ARTICLE VIII

DISCHARGE OF INDENTURE; DEFEASANCE

Section 8.01 Discharge of Liability on Securities; Defeasance.

(a) When (i) the Company delivers to the Trustee all outstanding Securities (other than Securities replaced pursuant to Section 2.08 or Securities for whose payment money has theretofore been deposited in trust and thereafter repaid to the Company as provided in the second paragraph of Section 8.04) for cancelation or (ii) all outstanding Securities have become due and payable, whether at maturity or as a result of the delivery of a notice of redemption pursuant to Article III, or will become due and payable within one year or are to be called for redemption within one year under arrangements satisfactory to the Trustee, and the Company irrevocably deposits with the Trustee funds (comprised of cash to be held uninvested and/or U.S. Government Obligations) sufficient to pay at maturity or upon redemption all outstanding Securities, including interest thereon to maturity or such redemption date (other than Securities replaced pursuant to Section 2.08), and if in either case the Company pays all other sums payable hereunder by the Company, then this Indenture shall, subject to Section 8.01(c), cease to be of further effect. The Trustee shall acknowledge satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture on demand of the Company accompanied by an Officer's Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel and at the cost and expense of the Company.

(b) Subject to Section 8.01(c) and Section 8.02, the Company at any time may terminate (i) all of its obligations under the Securities and this Indenture ("legal defeasance option") or (ii) its obligations under Section 4.02, Section 4.03, Section 4.04, Section 4.05, Section 4.06, Section 4.07, Section 4.08, Section 4.09, Section 4.10, Section 4.11, Section 4.12, Section 4.13, Section 4.14, Section 4.15, Section 4.16, Section 4.17, Section 4.18, Section 4.19, Section 4.20, Section 4.21, Section 4.22, Section 4.24, Section 4.27 and the operation of Section 6.01(e), Section 6.01(f), Section 6.01(g), Section 6.01(i), Section 6.01(j), Section 6.01(k), Section 6.01(l), Section 6.01(m), Section 6.01(n) or Section 6.01(o) (but, in the case of Section 6.01(f) and Section 6.01(g), with respect only to Subsidiaries) and the limitations contained in clauses (ii) through (iv) of Section 5.01(a) and Section 5.01(b) ("covenant defeasance option"). The Company may exercise its legal defeasance option notwithstanding its prior exercise of its covenant defeasance option.

If the Company exercises its legal defeasance option, payment of the Securities may not be accelerated because of an Event of Default. If the Company exercises its covenant defeasance option, payment of the Securities may not be accelerated because of an Event of Default specified in Section 6.01(e), Section 6.01(f), Section 6.01(g), Section 6.01(i), Section 6.01(j), Section 6.01(k), Section 6.01(l), Section 6.01(m), Section 6.01(n) or Section 6.01(o) (but, in the case of Section 6.01(f) and Section 6.01(g), with respect only to Subsidiaries) or because of the failure of the Company to comply with the limitations contained in clauses (ii) through (iv) of Section 5.01(a) and Section 5.01(b). If the Company exercises its legal defeasance option or its covenant defeasance option, the Liens, as they pertain to the Securities, will be released and each Subsidiary Guarantor will be released from all its obligations under its Subsidiary Guarantee, as it pertains to the Securities.

Upon satisfaction of the conditions set forth herein and upon written request of the Company, the Trustee shall acknowledge in writing the discharge of those obligations that the Company terminates.

(c) Notwithstanding clauses (a) and (b) above, the Company's obligations in Section 2.04, Section 2.05, Section 2.06, Section 2.07, Section 2.08, Article VII, Section 8.05 and Section 8.06 shall survive until the Securities have been paid in full. Thereafter, the Company's obligations in Section 7.07 and Section 8.05 shall survive such satisfaction and discharge.

Section 8.02 Conditions to Defeasance. The Company may exercise its legal defeasance option or its covenant defeasance option only if:

(a) the Company irrevocably deposits in trust with the Trustee money or U.S. Government Obligations, which through the scheduled payments of principal and interest thereon will provide funds in an amount sufficient, or a combination thereof sufficient (without any reinvestment of the income therefrom) to pay the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the Securities to maturity or redemption, as the case may be, and the Company shall have specified whether the Securities are being defeased to maturity or to a particular Redemption Date;

(b) the Company delivers to the Trustee a certificate from a nationally recognized firm of independent certified public accountants expressing their opinion that the payments of principal and interest when due and without reinvestment on the deposited U.S. Government Obligations plus any deposited money without investment will provide cash at such times and in such amounts as will be sufficient to pay principal, premium, if any, and interest when due on all the Securities to maturity or redemption, as the case may be;

(c) the Company shall have delivered to the Trustee an Opinion of Counsel to the effect that, as of the date of such opinion and subject to customary assumptions and exclusions following the deposit, the trust funds will not be subject to the effect of Section 547 of Title 11 of the United States Code;

(d) no Default or Event of Default has occurred and is continuing on the date of such deposit and after giving effect thereto (other than any Default or Event of Default resulting from the borrowing of funds (and granting of related Liens) to fund the deposit);

(e) such deposit does not constitute a default under any other agreement or instrument binding on the Company;

(f) in the case of the legal defeasance option, the Company shall have delivered to the Trustee an Opinion of Counsel stating that

(1) the Company has received from the Internal Revenue Service a ruling; or

(2) since the date of this Indenture there has been a change in the applicable Federal income tax law, to the effect, in either case, that, and based thereon such Opinion of Counsel shall confirm that, the Holders will not recognize income, gain or loss for Federal income tax purposes as a result of such defeasance and will be subject to Federal income tax on the same amounts, in the same manner and at the same times as would have been the case if such defeasance had not occurred;

(g) in the case of the covenant defeasance option, the Company shall have delivered to the Trustee an Opinion of Counsel to the effect that the Holders will not recognize income, gain or loss for Federal income tax purposes as a result of such covenant defeasance and will be subject to Federal income tax on the same amounts, in the same manner and at the same times as would have been the case if such covenant defeasance had not occurred; and

(h) the Company delivers to the Trustee an Officer's Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel, each stating that all conditions precedent to the defeasance and discharge of the Securities as contemplated by this Article VIII have been complied with.

Before or after a deposit, the Company may make arrangements satisfactory to the Trustee for the redemption of Securities at a future date in accordance with Article III.

Section 8.03 Application of Trust Money. The Trustee shall hold in trust money or U.S. Government Obligations deposited with it pursuant to this Article VIII. It shall apply the deposited money and the money from U.S. Government Obligations through the Paying Agent and in accordance with this Indenture to the payment of principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the Securities.

Section 8.04 Repayment to Company. The Trustee and the Paying Agent shall promptly turn over to the Company upon request any excess money or securities held by them at any time.

Subject to any applicable abandoned property law, the Trustee and the Paying Agent shall pay to the Company upon request any money held by them for the payment of principal, premium, if any, or interest that remains unclaimed for two years, and, thereafter, Holders entitled to the money must look to the Company for payment as general creditors and all liability of the Trustee or such Paying Agent with respect to such money shall thereupon cease.

Section 8.05 Indemnity for Government Obligations. The Company shall pay and shall indemnify the Trustee against any tax, fee or other charge imposed on or assessed against deposited U.S. Government Obligations or the principal and interest received on such U.S. Government Obligations.

Section 8.06 Reinstatement. If the Trustee or Paying Agent is unable to apply any money or U.S. Government Obligations in accordance with this Article VIII by reason of any legal proceeding or by reason of any order or judgment of any court or governmental authority enjoining, restraining or otherwise prohibiting such application, the Company's obligations under this Indenture and the Securities shall be revived and reinstated as though no deposit had occurred pursuant to this Article VIII until such time as the Trustee or Paying Agent is permitted to apply all such money or U.S. Government Obligations in accordance with this Article VIII; provided, however, that, if the Company has made any payment of interest on or principal of any Securities because of the reinstatement of its obligations, the Company shall be subrogated to the rights of the Holders of such Securities to receive such payment from the money or U.S. Government Obligations held by the Trustee or Paying Agent.

ARTICLE IX

AMENDMENTS

Section 9.01 Without Consent of Holders. Without the consent of any Holders, the Company, the Subsidiary Guarantors and the Trustee may amend this Indenture, the Securities and, subject to any other consent required under the terms of the applicable Securities Collateral Documents, such Securities Collateral Documents, in each case without notice to:

(a) cure any ambiguity, omission, defect or inconsistency identified in an Officer's Certificate of the Company, which states that such cure is a good faith attempt by the Company to reflect the intention of the parties to this Indenture, delivered to the Trustee and the Securities Collateral Agent;

(b) provide for the assumption by a successor company of the obligations of the Company or any Subsidiary Guarantor under this Indenture, the Securities or any Securities Collateral Documents under and in accordance with this Indenture, the Securities or any Securities Collateral Document, as the case may be;

(c) provide for uncertificated Securities in addition to or in place of certificated Securities;

(d) add additional Guarantees with respect to the Securities or release Subsidiary Guarantors from Subsidiary Guarantees as provided by the terms of this Indenture and the Subsidiary Guarantees;

(e) further secure the Securities (and if such security interest includes Liens on Property of the Company, provide for releases of such Property on terms comparable to the terms on which Collateral constituting Property of Subsidiary Guarantors may be released), add to the covenants of the Company or the Subsidiary Guarantors for the benefit of the Holders or surrender any right or power herein conferred upon the Company or any Subsidiary Guarantor;

(f) make any change to this Indenture, the Securities or the Subsidiary Guarantees that does not adversely affect the rights of any Holder in any material respect upon delivery to the Trustee of an Officer's Certificate of the Company certifying the absence of such adverse effect;

(g) amend this Indenture to extend the Stated Maturity of any Security pursuant to Section 2.16 in connection with the ABL Facility, as extended, renewed, replaced or refinanced, that remains outstanding;

(h) evidence and provide for the acceptance and appointment under this Indenture of a successor Trustee;

(i) comply with the rules of any applicable securities depositary; provided, however, that such amendment does not materially and adversely affect the rights of holders to transfer the Securities;

(j) to comply with any requirement of the Commission in connection with the qualification of this Indenture under the Trust Indenture Act;

(k) to provide for the release of the Collateral from the Liens in accordance with the terms of this Indenture and the Intercreditor Agreements;

(l) in the event that PIK Securities are issued in certificated form, to make appropriate amendments to reflect an appropriate minimum denomination of certificated PIK Securities, and establish minimum redemption amounts for certificated PIK Securities;

(m) make any amendment to the provisions of this Indenture relating to the transfer and legending or de-legending of the Securities; provided, however, that (i) compliance with this Indenture as so amended would not result in the Securities being transferred in violation of the Securities Act or any applicable securities law and (ii) such amendment does not materially and adversely affect the rights of holders to transfer the Securities; or

(n) to provide for the accession of any parties to the Securities Documents or the Intercreditor Agreements, as applicable (and other amendments to such documents that in either case are administrative or ministerial in nature) in connection with an incurrence of additional Debt to the extent permitted by the Securities Documents.

After an amendment under this Section 9.01 becomes effective, the Company shall deliver to Holders a notice briefly describing such amendment. The failure to give such notice to all Holders, or any defect therein, shall not impair or affect the validity of an amendment under this Section 9.01.

Section 9.02 With Consent of Holders. (a) The Company, when authorized by a Board Resolution, the Subsidiary Guarantors and the Trustee may amend this Indenture, the Securities or, subject to any other consent required under the terms of the applicable Securities Collateral Documents, such Securities Collateral Documents, waive any past default or compliance with any provisions (except, in the case of this Indenture, as provided in Section 6.04) and the Subsidiary Guarantee provided by a Subsidiary Guarantors may be released, with the consent of the Holders of at least a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Securities then outstanding (including consents obtained in connection with a tender offer or exchange offer for the Securities). However, without the consent of each Holder affected thereby, an amendment may not:

(1) amend this Indenture to reduce the amount of Securities whose Holders are required to consent to an amendment, modification, supplement or waiver;

(2) amend this Indenture to reduce the rate of or extend the time for payment of interest or Applicable Premium on any Security;

(3) amend this Indenture to reduce the principal of or extend the Stated Maturity of any Security, except as provided in Section 9.01(g);

(4) amend this Indenture to make any Security payable in money other than that stated in the Security;

(5) amend this Indenture or any Subsidiary Guarantee to impair the right of any Holder to receive payment of principal of, premium, if any, and interest on such Holder's Securities on or after the due dates therefor or to institute suit for the enforcement of any payment on or with respect to such Holder's Securities or any Subsidiary Guarantee (except as set forth in the Intercreditor Agreements);

(6) amend this Indenture or any Subsidiary Guarantee to (a) subordinate the Liens and security interests securing the Securities on all or substantially all of the Collateral in any transaction or series of related transactions or (b) subordinate the Securities or any Subsidiary Guarantee to any other obligation of the Company or the applicable Subsidiary Guarantor (except as set forth in the Intercreditor Agreements);

(7) amend this Indenture to reduce the premium payable upon the redemption of any Security or change the time (other than amendments related to notice provisions) at which any Security may be redeemed in accordance with Article III;

(8) waive a Default in the payment of principal of or premium, if any, or interest on the Securities, except a rescission of acceleration of the Securities by the Holders of at least a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Securities and a waiver of the payment default that resulted from such acceleration;

(9) at any time after the Company is obligated to make an Asset Sales Prepayment Offer with the Net Available Cash from Asset Sales, amend this Indenture to change the time at which such Asset Sales Prepayment Offer must be made or at which the Securities must be repurchased pursuant thereto;

(10) release all or substantially all of the Collateral, unless pursuant to a transaction permitted by this Indenture or the Intercreditor Agreements, or release the Company or all or substantially all of the Subsidiary Guarantors from their Guarantees, unless, in the case of a Subsidiary Guarantor, all or substantially all the Equity Interests of such Subsidiary Guarantor is sold or otherwise disposed of in a transaction permitted by this Indenture or the Intercreditor Agreements; or

(11) make any change in the amendment or waiver provisions of this Indenture that require each Holder's consent, as described in clauses (1) through (10).

(b) The foregoing Section 9.02(a) will not limit the right of the Company to amend, waive or otherwise modify any Securities Collateral Document in accordance with its terms.

(c) It shall not be necessary for the consent of the Holders under this Section 9.02 to approve the particular form of any proposed amendment, but it shall be sufficient if such consent approves the substance thereof.

(d) Additional Securities will be disregarded for purposes of any amendment or waiver relating to a Default or Event of Default that existed (disregarding any applicable notice, cure or grace periods) prior to the time of issuance of such additional Securities.

After an amendment under this Section 9.02 becomes effective, the Company shall deliver to each Holder at such Holder's address appearing in the Security Register a notice briefly describing such amendment. The failure to give such notice to all Holders, or any defect therein, shall not impair or affect the validity of an amendment under this Section 9.02.

Section 9.03 Compliance with Trust Indenture Act. Every amendment or supplement to this Indenture or the Notes shall be set forth in an amended or supplemental indenture that complies with the Trust Indenture Act as then in effect.

Section 9.04 Revocation and Effect of Consents and Waivers. A consent to an amendment or a waiver by a Holder of a Security shall bind the Holder and every subsequent Holder of that Security or portion of the Security that evidences the same debt as the consenting Holder's Security, even if notation of the consent or waiver is not made on the Security. However, any such Holder or subsequent Holder may revoke the consent or waiver as to such Holder's Security or portion of the Security if the Trustee receives the notice of revocation before the date the amendment or waiver becomes effective. After an amendment or waiver becomes effective, it shall bind every Holder. An amendment or waiver becomes effective upon the execution of such amendment or waiver by the Trustee.

The Company may, but shall not be obligated to, fix a record date for the purpose of determining the Holders entitled to give their consent or take any other action described above or required or permitted to be taken pursuant to this Indenture. If a record date is fixed, then notwithstanding the immediately preceding paragraph, those Persons who were Holders at such record date (or their duly designated proxies), and only those Persons, shall be entitled to give such consent or to revoke any consent previously given or to take any such action, whether or not such Persons continue to be Holders after such record date. No such consent shall be valid or effective for more than 120 days after such record date.

Section 9.05 Notation on or Exchange of Securities. If an amendment changes the terms of a Security, the Trustee may require the Holder of the Security to deliver such Security to the Trustee. The Trustee may place an appropriate notation on the Security regarding the changed terms and return such Security to the Holder. Alternatively, if the Company or the Trustee so determines, the Company in exchange for the Security shall issue and the Trustee shall authenticate a new Security that reflects the changed terms. Failure to make the appropriate notation or to issue a new Security shall not affect the validity of such amendment.

Section 9.06 Trustee To Sign Amendments. The Trustee shall sign any amendment or release authorized pursuant to this Article IX if the amendment or release does not adversely affect the rights, duties, liabilities, indemnities or immunities of the Trustee. If such amendment or release does adversely affect the rights, duties, liabilities, indemnities or immunities of the Trustee, the Trustee may but need not sign it. In signing such amendment or release the Trustee shall be entitled to receive indemnity reasonably satisfactory to it and shall be provided with, and (subject to Section 7.01) shall be fully protected in relying upon, an Officer's Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel stating that such amendment or release is authorized or permitted by this Indenture.

SUBSIDIARY GUARANTEES

Section 10.01 Subsidiary Guarantees. Each Subsidiary Guarantor hereby unconditionally guarantees, jointly and severally, on a senior secured basis, to each Holder and to the Trustee and its successors and assigns (a) the full and punctual payment of principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the Securities when due, whether at maturity, by acceleration, by redemption or otherwise, and all other monetary obligations of the Company under this Indenture and the Securities and (b) the full and punctual performance within applicable grace periods of all other obligations of the Company under this Indenture and the Securities (all the foregoing being hereinafter collectively called the "Guaranteed Obligations"). Each Subsidiary Guarantor further agrees that the Obligations may be extended or renewed, in whole or in part, without notice or further assent from such Subsidiary Guarantor, and that such Subsidiary Guarantor will remain bound under this Article X notwithstanding any extension or renewal of any Guaranteed Obligation.

Any term or provision of this Indenture to the contrary notwithstanding, the maximum aggregate amount of the obligations guaranteed hereunder by any Subsidiary Guarantor shall not exceed the maximum amount that can be hereby guaranteed without rendering this Indenture, as it relates to such Subsidiary Guarantor, voidable under applicable law relating to fraudulent conveyance or fraudulent transfer or similar laws affecting the rights of creditors generally.

Each Subsidiary Guarantor waives presentation to, demand of, payment from and protest to the Company of any of the Guaranteed Obligations and also waives notice of protest for nonpayment. Each Subsidiary Guarantor waives notice of any default under the Securities or the Guaranteed Obligations. The obligations of each Subsidiary Guarantor hereunder shall not be affected by (a) the failure of any Holder or the Trustee to assert any claim or demand or to enforce any right or remedy against the Company or any other Person under this Indenture, the Securities or any other agreement or otherwise; (b) any extension or renewal of any thereof; (c) any rescission, waiver, amendment or modification of any of the terms or provisions of this Indenture, the Securities or any other agreement; (d) the release of any security held by any Holder or the Trustee for the Guaranteed Obligations or any of them; or (e) the failure of any Holder or the Trustee to exercise any right or remedy against any other guarantor of the Guaranteed Obligations.

Each Subsidiary Guarantor further agrees that its Subsidiary Guarantee herein constitutes a guarantee of payment, performance and compliance when due (and not a guarantee of collection) and waives any right to require that any resort be had by any Holder or the Trustee to any security held for payment of the Guaranteed Obligations.

Except as expressly set forth in Section 5.01(b), Section 8.01(b) and Section 10.06, the obligations of each Subsidiary Guarantor hereunder shall not be subject to any reduction, limitation, impairment or termination for any reason, including any claim of waiver, release, surrender, alteration or compromise, and shall not be subject to any defense of setoff, counterclaim, recoupment or termination whatsoever or by reason of the invalidity, illegality or unenforceability of the Guaranteed Obligations or otherwise. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the obligations of each Subsidiary Guarantor herein shall not be discharged or impaired or otherwise affected by the failure of any Holder or the Trustee to assert any claim or demand or to enforce any remedy under this Indenture, the Securities or any other agreement, by any waiver or modification of any thereof, by any default, failure or delay, willful or otherwise, in the performance of the obligations, or by any other act or thing or omission or delay to do any other act or thing which may or might in any manner or to any extent vary the risk of such Subsidiary Guarantor or would otherwise operate as a discharge of such Subsidiary Guarantor as a matter of law or equity.

Each Subsidiary Guarantor further agrees that its Subsidiary Guarantee herein shall continue to be effective or be reinstated, as the case may be, if at any time payment, or any part thereof, of principal of, premium, if any, or interest on any Guaranteed Obligation is rescinded or must otherwise be restored by any Holder or the Trustee upon the bankruptcy or reorganization of the Company or otherwise.

In furtherance of the foregoing and not in limitation of any other right which any Holder or the Trustee has at law or in equity against any Subsidiary Guarantor by virtue hereof, upon the failure of the Company to pay the principal of, premium, if any, or interest on any Guaranteed Obligation when and as the same shall become due, whether at maturity, by acceleration, by redemption or otherwise, or to perform or comply with any other Guaranteed Obligation, each Subsidiary Guarantor hereby promises to and will, upon receipt of written demand by the Trustee, forthwith pay, or cause to be paid, in cash, to the Holders or the Trustee an amount equal to the sum of (i) the unpaid amount of such Guaranteed Obligations, (ii) accrued and unpaid interest on such Guaranteed Obligations (but only to the extent not prohibited by law) and (iii) all other monetary Guaranteed Obligations of the Company to the Holders and the Trustee.

Each Subsidiary Guarantor agrees that it shall not be entitled to any right of subrogation in respect of any Guaranteed Obligations guaranteed hereby until payment in full in cash of all Guaranteed Obligations. Each Subsidiary Guarantor further agrees that, as between it, on the one hand, and the Holders and the Trustee, on the other hand, (x) the maturity of the Guaranteed Obligations guaranteed hereby may be accelerated as provided in Article VI for the purposes of such Subsidiary Guarantor's Subsidiary Guarantee herein, notwithstanding any stay, injunction or other prohibition preventing such acceleration in respect of the Guaranteed Obligations guaranteed hereby, and (y) in the event of any declaration of acceleration of such Guaranteed Obligations as provided in Article VI, such Guaranteed Obligations (whether or not due and payable) shall forthwith become due and payable by such Subsidiary Guarantor for the purposes of this Section.

Each Subsidiary Guarantor also agrees to pay any and all costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) incurred by the Trustee or any Holder in enforcing any rights under this Section 10.01.

Section 10.02 Contribution. Each of the Company and any Subsidiary Guarantor (a "Contributing Party") agrees that, in the event a payment shall be made by any other Subsidiary Guarantor under any Subsidiary Guarantee (the "Claiming Guarantor"), the Contributing Party shall indemnify the Claiming Guarantor in an amount equal to the amount of such payment multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the net worth of the Contributing Party on the date hereof and the denominator of which shall be the aggregate net worth of the Company and all the Subsidiary Guarantors on the date hereof (or, in the case of any Subsidiary Guarantor becoming a party hereto after the Issue Date, the date of the supplemental indenture executed and delivered by such Subsidiary Guarantor).

Section 10.03 Successors and Assigns. This Article X shall be binding upon each Subsidiary Guarantor and its successors and assigns and shall inure to the benefit of the successors and assigns of the Trustee and the Holders and, in the event of any transfer or assignment of rights by any Holder or the Trustee, the rights and privileges conferred upon that party in this Indenture and in the Securities shall automatically extend to and be vested in such transferee or assignee, all subject to the terms and conditions of this Indenture.

Section 10.04 No Waiver. Neither a failure nor a delay on the part of either the Trustee or the Holders in exercising any right, power or privilege under this Article X shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall a single or partial exercise thereof preclude any other or further exercise of any right, power or privilege. The rights, remedies and benefits of the Trustee and the Holders herein expressly specified are cumulative and not exclusive of any other rights, remedies or benefits which either may have under this Article X at law, in equity, by statute or otherwise.

Section 10.05 Modification. No modification, amendment or waiver of any provision of this Article X, nor the consent to any departure by any Subsidiary Guarantor therefrom, shall in any event be effective unless the same shall be in writing and signed by the Trustee, and then such waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the purpose for which given. No notice to or demand on any Subsidiary Guarantor in any case shall entitle such Subsidiary Guarantor to any other or further notice or demand in the same, similar or other circumstances.

Section 10.06 Release of Subsidiary Guarantor. A Subsidiary Guarantor will be released from its obligations under this Article X (other than any obligation that may have arisen under Section 10.02):

(1) upon the sale (including any sale pursuant to any exercise of remedies by a holder of Debt of the Company or of such Subsidiary Guarantor), transfer or other disposition (including by way of consolidation or merger) of Equity Interests of such Subsidiary Guarantor; provided, however, that (i) such sale, transfer or other disposition is otherwise permitted by this Indenture, (ii) such Person is no longer a Subsidiary and (iii) the Company provides an Officer's Certificate to the Trustee to the effect that the Company will comply with its obligations under Section 4.06; or

(2) upon the sale (including any sale pursuant to any exercise of remedies by a holder of Debt of the Company or of such Subsidiary Guarantor), transfer or other disposition of all or substantially all of the assets of such Subsidiary Guarantor; provided, however, that (i) such sale, transfer or other disposition is otherwise permitted by is otherwise permitted by this Indenture and (ii) the Company provides an Officer's Certificate to the Trustee to the effect that the Company will comply with its obligations under Section 4.06; or

(3) with the written consent of the Holders of at least a majority of the aggregate principal amount of the Securities then outstanding (in accordance with Section 9.02); or

(5) upon the full satisfaction of the Company's obligations under this Indenture pursuant to Section 8.01(a) or otherwise in accordance with the terms of this Indenture.

At the request of the Company, the Trustee shall execute and deliver any documents, instructions, or instruments (in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee) evidencing any such release.

Section 10.07 Execution of Supplemental Indenture for Future Subsidiary Guarantors. Each Subsidiary which is required to become a Subsidiary Guarantor pursuant to Section 4.08 shall promptly execute and deliver to the Trustee a supplemental indenture in the form of Exhibit D hereto pursuant to which such Subsidiary shall become a Subsidiary Guarantor under this Article X and shall guarantee the Guaranteed Obligations.

ARTICLE XIII

COLLATERAL

Section 13.01 Appointment and Authority of Securities Collateral Agent. The Trustee hereby irrevocably appoints, and each holder of Securities, by its acceptance thereof, will be deemed to have consented and agreed to the appointment of U.S. Bank Trust Company, National Association as the Securities Collateral Agent under the Securities Collateral Documents for purposes of acquiring, holding and enforcing any and all Liens on Collateral granted by any of the Subsidiary Guarantors to secure any of the Securities Obligations, together with such powers and discretion as are reasonably incidental thereto. In acting as Securities Collateral Agent, the Securities Collateral Agent may rely upon and enforce each and all of the rights, powers, immunities, indemnities and benefits of the Trustee under Article VII hereof.

Section 13.02 Authorization of Actions to be Taken. Each holder of Securities, by its acceptance thereof, will be deemed to have consented and agreed to the terms of each Securities Collateral Document, as originally in effect and as amended, supplemented or replaced from time to time in accordance with its terms or the terms of this Indenture, authorizes and directs the Securities Collateral Agent to enter into the Securities Collateral Documents to which it is a party, and authorizes and empowers the Securities Collateral Agent to bind the holders of Securities and other holders of Securities Obligations as set forth in the Securities Collateral Documents to which they are a party and to perform its obligations and exercise its rights and powers thereunder, including entering into amendments permitted by the terms of this Indenture or the Securities Collateral Documents.

Section 13.03 Authorization of Trustee.

(a) The Trustee is authorized and empowered to receive for the benefit of the Holders of Securities any funds collected or distributed to the Securities Collateral Agent under the Securities Collateral Documents to which the Securities Collateral Agent is a party and, subject to the terms of the Securities Collateral Documents and Intercreditor Agreements, to make further distributions of such funds to the Holders of Securities according to the provisions of this Indenture.

(b) Subject to the Intercreditor Agreements and at the Company's sole cost and expense, the Trustee is authorized and empowered to institute and maintain, or direct the Securities Collateral Agent to institute and maintain, such suits and proceedings as it may deem reasonably expedient to protect or enforce the Liens securing the Securities or the Securities Collateral Documents to which the Securities Collateral Agent or Trustee is a party or to prevent any impairment of Collateral by any acts that may be unlawful or in violation of the Securities Collateral Documents or this Indenture, and such suits and proceedings as the Trustee may deem reasonably expedient, at the Company's sole cost and expense, to preserve or protect its interests and the interests of the Holders of Securities in the Collateral, including the power to institute and maintain suits or proceedings to restrain the enforcement of or compliance with any legislative or other governmental enactment, rule or order that may be unconstitutional or otherwise invalid if the enforcement of, or compliance with, such enactment, rule or order would impair any security interest created or intended to be created by the Securities Collateral Documents or otherwise be prejudicial to the interests of Holders or the Trustee.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, any enforcement of the Subsidiary Guarantees or any remedies with respect to the Collateral under the Securities Collateral Documents is subject to the provisions of the Intercreditor Agreements then in effect.

Section 13.04 Insurance.

(a) For so long as the Securities are secured by Collateral, the Company will, and will cause each of its Subsidiaries to, (i) maintain (either in the name of the Company or in such Subsidiary's own name), with financially sound and reputable insurance companies insurance in such amounts (with no greater risk retention) and against such risks as are customarily maintained by companies of established repute engaged in the same or similar businesses operating in the same or similar locations and (ii) furnish to the Securities Collateral Agent (or any representatives designated thereby), upon the request of the Securities Collateral Agent, information in reasonable detail as to the insurance so maintained.

(b) The Company hereby covenants to use commercially reasonable efforts to cause, prior to the date that is 60 days following the Issue Date (and in any event will cause, within 120 days following the Issue Date), the Securities Collateral Agent to be named (through an endorsement or amendment to the applicable policy) as an additional insured and lender's loss payee on all liability insurance policies of the Company and the Subsidiary Guarantors for which the ABL Administrative Agent, the ABL Collateral Agent, the Takeback Notes Trustee or the agent or trustee for any Material Debt is named as an additional insured or lender's loss payee, respectively, and, if applicable, mortgagee on all property and casualty insurance policies of the Company and the Subsidiary Guarantors for which such ABL Administrative Agent, the ABL Collateral Agent, the Takeback Notes Trustee or the agent or trustee for any Material Debt is so named. If at any time there ceases to be a ABL Credit Agreement or ABL Facility or the Takeback Notes, the Company and the Subsidiary Guarantors shall continue to cause the Securities Collateral Agent to be so named as contemplated in this paragraph with respect to any liability, property and casualty insurance policies that insure the Collateral. The Company and the Subsidiary Guarantors shall exercise commercially reasonable efforts to cause the insurance providers of such policies to endeavor to give 30 days' notice to the Securities Collateral Agent of cancellation of all such property and casualty insurance policies of the Company and the Subsidiary Guarantors (or at least 10 days' prior written notice in the case of cancellation of such issuance due to non-payment).

Section 13.05 Replacement of Securities Collateral Agent. The Securities Collateral Agent may resign at any time by so notifying the Company and the Trustee. The Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Securities then outstanding may remove the Securities Collateral Agent by so notifying the Securities Collateral Agent and may appoint a successor Securities Collateral Agent; provided that such successor Securities Collateral Agent is a corporation or national banking association organized and doing business under the laws of the United States or of any state thereof that is subject to supervision or examination by federal or state authorities and that has a combined capital and surplus of at least $50.0 million as set forth in its most recent published annual report of condition, or an Affiliate thereof (an "Eligible Collateral Agent"); provided that so long as no Default or Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Company shall have the right to consent to the successor Securities Collateral Agent, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld. The Company shall remove the Securities Collateral Agent if:

(1) the Securities Collateral Agent fails to be an Eligible Collateral Agent;

(2) the Securities Collateral Agent is adjudged bankrupt or insolvent;

(3) a receiver or other public officer takes charge of the Securities Collateral Agent or its property; or

(4) the Securities Collateral Agent otherwise becomes incapable of acting.

If the Securities Collateral Agent resigns or is removed by the Company or by the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Securities then outstanding, and (in the case of a removal by Holders) such Holders do not reasonably promptly appoint a successor Securities Collateral Agent, or if a vacancy exists in the office of Securities Collateral Agent for any reason (the Securities Collateral Agent in such event being referred to herein as the retiring Securities Collateral Agent), the Company shall promptly appoint a successor Securities Collateral Agent.

A successor Securities Collateral Agent shall deliver a written acceptance of its appointment to the retiring Securities Collateral Agent and to the Company. Thereupon the resignation or removal of the retiring Securities Collateral Agent shall become effective, and the successor Securities Collateral Agent shall have all the rights, powers and duties of the Securities Collateral Agent under this Indenture and under the Securities Collateral Documents. The successor Securities Collateral Agent shall cause to be delivered a notice of its succession to Holders. The retiring Securities Collateral Agent shall upon payment of its outstanding fees and expenses hereunder promptly transfer all property held by it as Securities Collateral Agent to the successor Securities Collateral Agent.

If a successor Securities Collateral Agent does not take office within 60 days after the retiring Securities Collateral Agent resigns or is removed, the retiring Securities Collateral Agent or the Holders of 10% in aggregate principal amount of the Securities then outstanding may petition at the expense of the Company any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Securities Collateral Agent.

If the Securities Collateral Agent fails to be an Eligible Collateral Agent, any Holder who has been a bona fide Holder of a Security for at least six months may petition at the expense of the Company any court of competent jurisdiction for the removal of the Securities Collateral Agent and the appointment of a successor Securities Collateral Agent.

Notwithstanding the replacement of the Securities Collateral Agent pursuant to this Section 13.05, the provisions of this Article shall continue for the benefit of the retiring Securities Collateral Agent.

Section 13.06 Release of Collateral.

(a) Collateral may be released from the Liens and security interests created by the Securities Documents at any time or from time to time in accordance with the provisions of the Securities Documents and the Intercreditor Agreements. In addition, the Company and the Subsidiary Guarantors will be entitled to the release of assets included in the Collateral from the Liens and security interests securing the Securities. Such assets constituting Collateral shall be automatically released without further action by any party, and the Trustee shall (or, if the Trustee is not then the Securities Collateral Agent, shall direct the Securities Collateral Agent to) affirmatively release the same from such Liens and security interests at the Company's sole cost and expense, under any one or more of the following circumstances without the need for any further action by any Person:

Section 13.07 Filing, Recording and Opinions.

(a) The Company will comply with the provisions of Sections 314(b) and 314(d) of the Trust Indenture Act, in each case following qualification of this Indenture pursuant to the Trust Indenture Act. Any certificate or opinion required by Section 314(d) of the Trust Indenture Act may be made by an Officer of the Company except in cases where Section 314(d) of the Trust Indenture Act requires that such certificate or opinion be made by an independent engineer, appraiser or other expert, who shall be reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the Company and the Subsidiary Guarantors will not be required to comply with all or any portion of Section 314(d) of the Trust Indenture Act if they determine, in good faith, after consultation with counsel (which may be internal counsel), that under the terms of that section and/or any interpretation or guidance as to the meaning thereof of the Commission and its staff, including "no action" letters or exemptive orders, all or any portion of Section 314(d) of the Trust Indenture Act is inapplicable to the released Collateral. The Trustee may, to the extent permitted by Section 7.01 and Section 7.02, accept as conclusive evidence of compliance with the foregoing provisions the appropriate statements contained in such documents and Opinion of Counsel.

(b) If any Collateral is released in accordance with this Indenture or any Security Document at a time when the Trustee is not itself also the Securities Collateral Agent and if the Company has delivered the certificates and documents required by the Security Documents and Section 13.06, the Trustee will deliver all documentation received by it in connection with such release to the Securities Collateral Agent.

(c) For the avoidance of doubt, under this Indenture, without complying with paragraphs (a) and (b) of this Section 13.07, the Guarantors may, among other things, without any release or consent by the Holders of the Securities or the Trustee, but otherwise in compliance with the covenants of this Indenture and the Security Documents, conduct ordinary course activities with respect to the Collateral, including (i) selling or otherwise disposing of, in any transaction or series of related transactions, any property subject to the Lien of the Security Documents which has become worn out, defective or obsolete or not used or useful in the business; (ii) abandoning, terminating, canceling, releasing or making alterations in or substitutions of any leases or contracts subject to the Lien of the Security Documents; (iii) surrendering or modifying any franchise, license or permit subject to the Lien of the Security Documents which it may own or under which it may be operating; (iv) altering, repairing, replacing, changing the location or position of and adding to its structures, machinery, systems, equipment, fixtures and appurtenances; (v) granting a license of any intellectual property; (vi) selling, transferring or otherwise disposing of inventory in the ordinary course of business; (vii) collecting accounts receivable in the ordinary course of business or selling, liquidating, factoring or otherwise disposing of accounts receivable in the ordinary course of business; (viii) making cash payments (including for the repayment of Debt or interest and in connection with the Company's cash management activities) from cash that is at any time part of the Collateral in the ordinary course of business that are not otherwise prohibited by this Indenture and the Security Documents; and (ix) abandoning any intellectual property which is no longer used or useful in the Company's business. The Company shall deliver to the Trustee within 30 days following the end of each six-month period (with the second such six-month period being the end of each fiscal year), an Officer's Certificate to the effect that all releases and withdrawals during the preceding six-month period (or since the Issue Date, in the case of the first such certificate) in connection with which no consent of the holders of the Securities or the Trustee was obtained pursuant to the foregoing provisions were made in the ordinary course of the Company's or the respective Subsidiary Guarantor's business and such release and the use of proceeds in connection therewith were not prohibited by this Indenture.

(a) Any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other action provided by this Indenture to be given or taken by Holders may be embodied in and evidenced by one or more instruments of substantially similar tenor signed by such Holders in person or by an agent duly appointed in writing. Except as herein otherwise expressly provided, such action shall become effective when such instrument or instruments or record or both are delivered to the Trustee and, where it is hereby expressly required, to the Company. Proof of execution of any such instrument or of a writing appointing any such agent, or the holding by any Person of a Security, shall be sufficient for any purpose of this Indenture and (subject to Section 7.01) conclusive in favor of the Trustee and the Company, if made in the manner provided in this Section 1.05.

(b) The fact and date of the execution by any Person of any such instrument or writing may be proved by the affidavit of a witness of such execution or by the certificate of any notary public or other officer authorized by law to take acknowledgments of deeds, certifying that the individual signing such instrument or writing acknowledged to him the execution thereof. Where such execution is by or on behalf of any legal entity other than an individual, such certificate or affidavit shall also constitute proof of the authority of the Person executing the same. The fact and date of the execution of any such instrument or writing, or the authority of the Person executing the same, may also be proved in any other manner that the Trustee deems sufficient.

(c) The ownership of Securities shall be proved by the Security Register. Notwithstanding the foregoing, solely for purposes of determining whether any action to be taken or consent to be given under this Indenture is authorized, an owner of a beneficial interest in a Global Security shall be treated as a Holder, to the extent the Company directs the Trustee to accept reasonable evidence of such beneficial interest provided by such owner.

(d) Any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other action by the Holder of any Security shall bind every future Holder of the same Security and the Holder of every Security issued upon the registration of transfer thereof or in exchange therefor or in lieu thereof, in respect of any action taken, suffered or omitted by the Trustee or the Company in reliance thereon, whether or not notation of such action is made upon such Security.

(e) The Company may, in the circumstances permitted by the Trust Indenture Act, set a record date for purposes of determining the identity of Holders entitled to give any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or take any other act, or to vote or consent to any action by vote or consent authorized or permitted to be given or taken by Holders. Unless otherwise specified, if not set by the Company prior to the first solicitation of a Holder made by any Person in respect of any such action, or in the case of any such vote, prior to such vote, any such record date shall be the later of 30 days prior to the first solicitation of such consent or the date of the most recent list of Holders furnished to the Trustee prior to such solicitation.

(f) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, a Holder entitled to take any action hereunder with regard to any particular Security may do so with regard to all or any part of the principal amount of such Security or by one or more duly appointed agents, each of which may do so pursuant to such appointment with regard to all or any part of such principal amount. Any notice given or action taken by a Holder or its agents with regard to different parts of such principal amount pursuant to this paragraph shall have the same effect as if given or taken by separate Holders of each such different part.

(g) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, a Holder, including DTC, that is the Holder of a Global Security may make, give or take, by a proxy or proxies duly appointed in writing, any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other action provided in this Indenture to be made, given or taken by Holders, and DTC, as the Holder of a Global Security, may provide its proxy or proxies to the beneficial owners of interests in any such Global Security through such depositary's standing instructions and customary practices.

If such a record date is fixed, the Holders on such record date or their duly appointed proxy or proxies, and only such Persons, shall be entitled to make, give or take such request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other action, whether or not such Holders remain Holders after such record date. No such request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other action shall be valid or effective if made, given or taken more than 90 days after such record date.

Section 1.06 Pro Forma Calculations.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, Consolidated EBITDA and any financial ratio or test, including the Consolidated Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio (whether in connection with testing the satisfaction of the Payment Conditions or otherwise) and the Consolidated Total Leverage Ratio, shall be calculated in the manner prescribed by this Section 1.06.

(b) For purposes of calculating Consolidated EBITDA and any financial ratio or test, including the Consolidated Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio and the Consolidated Total Leverage Ratio, Specified Transactions (and the incurrence or repayment of any Debt in connection therewith, subject to Section 1.06(c) that have been made (i) during the applicable Measurement Period or (ii) subsequent to such Measurement Period and prior to or simultaneously with the event for which the calculation of any such ratio or test is made shall be calculated on a Pro Forma Basis assuming that all such Specified Transactions (and any increase or decrease in Consolidated EBITDA and the component financial definitions used therein attributable to any Specified Transaction) had occurred on the first day of the applicable Measurement Period. If since the beginning of any applicable Measurement Period any Person that subsequently became a Subsidiary or was merged, amalgamated or consolidated with or into a Securities Party or any Subsidiary since the beginning of such Measurement Period shall have made any Specified Transaction that would have required adjustment pursuant to this Section 1.06, then the Consolidated Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio and the Consolidated Total Leverage Ratio shall be calculated to give Pro Forma Effect thereto in accordance with this Section 1.06.

(c) In the event that any Securities Party or any Subsidiary incurs (including by assumption or guarantees) or repays (including by redemption, repayment, retirement or extinguishment) any Debt included in the calculations of the Consolidated Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio and the Consolidated Total Leverage Ratio, as the case may be (in each case, other than Debt incurred or repaid under any revolving credit facility in the ordinary course of business for working capital purposes), (i) during the applicable Measurement Period or (ii) subsequent to the end of the applicable Measurement Period and prior to or simultaneously with the event for which the calculation of any such ratio is made, then the Consolidated Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio and the Consolidated Total Leverage Ratio, as applicable, shall be calculated giving Pro Forma Effect to such incurrence or repayment of Debt, to the extent required, as if the same had occurred on the last day of the applicable Measurement Period (with respect to any calculation of the Consolidated Total Leverage Ratio) or the first day of the applicable Measurement Period (with respect to any calculation of the Consolidated Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio).

(d) Whenever Pro Forma Effect is to be given to a Specified Transaction, the pro forma calculations shall be made in good faith by a Financial Officer of the Company and may include, for the avoidance of doubt, the amount of Expected Cost Savings projected by a Financial Officer of the Company in good faith to be realized as a result of action that is taken, committed to be taken or reasonably expected to be taken (calculated on a Pro Forma Basis as though such Expected Cost Savings had been realized on the first day of such Measurement Period and as if such Expected Cost Savings were realized during the entirety of such Measurement Period) in connection with such Specified Transaction, net of the amount of actual amounts realized during such Measurement Period from such actions; provided that (i) such Expected Cost Savings are reasonably identifiable and factually supportable (in the good faith determination of a Financial Officer of the Company), (ii) the relevant action resulting in (or substantial steps towards the relevant action that would result in) such Expected Costs Savings must either be taken or reasonably expected to be taken within twelve (12) months after the date of such Specified Transaction, (iii) no amounts shall be added pursuant to this Section 1.06(d) to the extent duplicative of any amounts that are otherwise added back in computing Consolidated EBITDA, whether through a pro forma adjustment or otherwise, with respect to such Measurement Period, and (iv) amounts added back pursuant to this Section 1.06(d), when taken together with any such similar adjustments made in accordance with clause (b)(xi) of the definition of "Consolidated EBITDA", shall not exceed twenty percent (20.0%) of Consolidated EBITDA for such Measurement Period (calculated prior to giving effect to such addbacks).

(e) If any Debt bears a floating rate of interest and is being given Pro Forma Effect, the interest on such Debt shall be calculated as if the rate in effect on the date of the event for which the calculation of the Consolidated Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio and the Consolidated Total Leverage Ratio, as the case may be, is made had been the applicable rate for the entire period (taking into account any hedging obligations applicable to such Debt). Interest on a Capital Lease Obligation shall be deemed to accrue at an interest rate reasonably determined by a Financial Officer of the Company to be the rate of interest implicit in the applicable Capital Lease in accordance with GAAP. Interest on Debt that may optionally be determined at an interest rate based upon a factor of a prime or similar rate, an interbank offered rate, a risk-free rate, or other rate, shall be determined to have been based upon the rate actually chosen, or if none, then based upon such optional rate chosen as the Company may designate.

Any endorsement of a Global Security to reflect the amount of any increase or decrease in the aggregate principal amount of outstanding Securities represented thereby shall be made by the Trustee or the Securities Custodian, at the direction of the Trustee, in accordance with instructions given by the Holder thereof as required by Section 2.07 or by the Company in connection with a PIK Payment.

Following the termination of the Restricted Period, beneficial interests in the Regulation S Temporary Global Security will be exchanged for beneficial interests in the Regulation S Permanent Global Security pursuant to the Applicable Procedures. Simultaneously with the authentication of the Regulation S Permanent Global Security, the Trustee will cancel the Regulation S Temporary Global Security. The aggregate principal amount of the Regulation S Temporary Global Security and the Regulation S Permanent Global Security may from time to time be increased or decreased by adjustments made on the records of the Trustee and the Depositary or its nominee, as the case may be, in connection with transfers of interest as hereinafter provided.

(i) General Provisions Relating to Transfers and Exchanges.

(i) To permit registrations of transfers and exchanges, the Company shall execute and the Trustee shall authenticate Global Securities and Definitive Securities upon receipt of an Authentication Order in accordance with Section 2.03 or at the Registrar's request.

(ii) No service charge shall be made to a holder of a beneficial interest in a Global Security or to a Holder of a Definitive Security for any registration of transfer or exchange, but the Company may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any transfer tax or similar governmental charge payable in connection therewith (other than any such transfer taxes or similar governmental charge payable upon exchange or transfer pursuant to Section 2.07, Section 2.11, Section 3.06, Section 4.06, and Section 9.05).

(iii) Neither the Registrar nor the Company shall be required to register the transfer of or exchange any Security selected for redemption in whole or in part, except the unredeemed portion of any Security being redeemed in part.

(iv) All Global Securities and Definitive Securities issued upon any registration of transfer or exchange of Global Securities or Definitive Securities shall be the valid obligations of the Company, evidencing the same indebtedness and entitled to the same benefits under this Indenture, as the Global Securities or Definitive Securities surrendered upon such registration of transfer or exchange.

(v) The Company shall not be required (A) to issue, to register the transfer of or to exchange any Securities during a period beginning at the opening of business 10 days before the day of delivery of notice of redemption of Securities for redemption under Section 3.03 and ending at the close of business on the day of such delivery, (B) to register the transfer of or to exchange any Security so selected for redemption in whole or in part, except the unredeemed portion of any Security being redeemed in part, or (C) to register the transfer of or to exchange a Security between a record date and the next succeeding Interest Payment Date.

(vi) Prior to due presentment for the registration of a transfer of any Security, the Trustee, any Agent and the Company may deem and treat the Person in whose name any Security is registered as the absolute owner of such Security for the purpose of receiving payment of principal of (and premium, if any) and interest on such Securities and for all other purposes, and none of the Trustee, any Agent or the Company shall be affected by notice to the contrary.

(vii) Upon surrender for registration of transfer of any Security at the office or agency of the Company designated pursuant to Section 2.04, the Company shall execute, and the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, in the name of the designated transferee or transferees, one or more replacement Securities of any authorized denomination or denominations of a like aggregate principal amount.

(viii) At the option of the Holder, Securities may be exchanged for other Securities of any authorized denomination or denominations of a like aggregate principal amount upon surrender of the Securities to be exchanged at such office or agency. Whenever any Global Securities or Definitive Securities are so surrendered for exchange, the Company shall execute, and the Trustee shall authenticate and deliver, the replacement Global Securities and Definitive Securities which the Holder making the exchange is entitled to in accordance with the provisions of this Section 2.07.

(ix) All certifications, certificates and Opinions of Counsel required to be submitted to the Registrar pursuant to this Section 2.07 to effect a registration of transfer or exchange may be submitted by facsimile.

(x) The Trustee shall have no obligation or duty to monitor, determine or inquire as to compliance with any restrictions on transfer imposed under this Indenture or under applicable law with respect to any transfer of any interest in any Security (including transfers between or among Depositary participants or beneficial owners of interests in any Global Security) other than to require delivery of such certificates and other documentation or evidence as are expressly required by, and to do so if and when expressly required by the terms of, this Indenture, and to examine the same to determine substantial compliance as to form with the express requirements hereof.

(j) Automatic Exchange from Restricted Global Security to Unrestricted Global Security. At the option of the Company and upon compliance with the following procedures, beneficial interests in a Restricted Global Security shall be exchanged for beneficial interests in an Unrestricted Global Security. In order to effect such exchange, the Company shall (i) provide written notice to the Trustee instructing the Trustee to direct the Depositary to transfer the specified amount of the outstanding beneficial interests in a particular Restricted Global Security to an Unrestricted Global Security and provide the Depositary with all such information as is necessary for the Depositary to appropriately credit and debit the relevant Holder accounts and (ii) provide prior written notice to all Holders of such exchange, which notice must include the date such exchange is proposed to occur, the CUSIP number of the relevant Restricted Global Security and the CUSIP number of the Unrestricted Global Security into which such Holders' beneficial interests will be exchanged. As a condition to any such exchange pursuant to this Section 2.07(j), the Trustee shall be entitled to receive from the Company, and rely upon conclusively without any liability, an Officer's Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel, in form and in substance reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee, to the effect that such transfer of beneficial interests to the Unrestricted Global Security shall be effected in compliance with the Securities Act. The Company may request from Holders such information it reasonably determines is required in order to be able to deliver such Officer's Certificate and Opinion of Counsel. Upon such exchange of beneficial interests pursuant to this Section 2.07(j), the Registrar shall reflect on its books and records the date of such transfer and a decrease and increase, respectively, in the principal amount of the applicable Restricted Global Security and the Unrestricted Global Security, respectively, equal to the principal amount of beneficial interests transferred. Following any such transfer pursuant to this Section 2.07(j) of all of the beneficial interests in a Restricted Global Security, such Restricted Global Security shall be cancelled.

Section 2.08 Replacement Securities. If a mutilated Security is surrendered to the Registrar or if the Trustee receives evidence to its satisfaction that such Security has been lost, destroyed or wrongfully taken, the Company shall issue and the Trustee shall authenticate a replacement Security. If required by the Trustee or the Company, such Holder shall furnish an indemnity bond sufficient in the judgment of the Company and the Trustee to protect the Company, the Trustee, the Paying Agent, the Registrar and any co-registrar from any loss which any of them may suffer if a Security is replaced. The Company and the Trustee may charge the Holder for their expenses in replacing a Security.

Every replacement Security is an additional obligation of the Company.

Section 2.09 Outstanding Securities. Securities outstanding at any time are all Securities authenticated by the Trustee except for those canceled by it, those delivered to it for cancellation and those described in this Section 2.09 as not outstanding. A Security does not cease to be outstanding because the Company or an Affiliate of the Company holds the Security. For the avoidance of doubt, the aggregate principal amount outstanding under any Security shall include any increase in the outstanding principal amount in Global Securities as the result of payment of PIK Interest.

If a Security is replaced pursuant to Section 2.08, it ceases to be outstanding unless the Trustee and the Company receive proof satisfactory to them that the replaced Security is held by a bona fide purchaser.

If the Paying Agent segregates and holds in trust, in accordance with this Indenture, on a redemption date or maturity date money sufficient to pay all principal, premium, if any, and interest payable on that date with respect to the Securities (or portions thereof) to be redeemed or maturing, as the case may be, then on and after that date such Securities (or portions thereof) cease to be outstanding and interest on them ceases to accrue.

Section 2.10 Treasury Securities. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Indenture, Section 316(a) of the Trust Indenture Act (including the last paragraph thereof), is expressly excluded from this Indenture.

Section 2.11 Temporary Securities. Until definitive Securities are ready for delivery, the Company may prepare and the Trustee shall authenticate temporary Securities. Temporary Securities shall be substantially in the form of definitive Securities but may have variations that the Company considers appropriate for temporary Securities. Without unreasonable delay, the Company shall prepare and the Trustee shall authenticate definitive Securities and deliver them in exchange for temporary Securities.

Section 2.12 Cancellation. The Company at any time may deliver Securities to the Trustee for cancellation. The Registrar and the Paying Agent shall forward to the Trustee any Securities surrendered to them for registration of transfer, exchange or payment. The Trustee, at the written direction of the Company, and no one else shall cancel and dispose of all Securities surrendered for registration of transfer, exchange, payment or cancellation and deliver a certificate of such disposal to the Company upon its request therefor unless the Company directs the Trustee to deliver canceled Securities to the Company. The Company may not issue new Securities to replace Securities it has redeemed, paid or delivered to the Trustee for cancellation.

Section 2.13 Defaulted Interest. If the Company defaults in a payment of interest on the Securities, the Company shall pay the defaulted interest (plus interest with respect to such defaulted interest to the extent lawful) in any lawful manner. The Company may pay the defaulted interest to the persons who are Holders on a subsequent special record date. The Company shall fix or cause to be fixed any such special record date and payment date to the reasonable satisfaction of the Trustee and shall promptly mail to each Holder a notice that states the special record date, the payment date and the amount of defaulted interest to be paid.

Section 2.14 CUSIP Numbers. The Company in issuing the Securities may use "CUSIP" numbers (if then generally in use) and, if so, the Trustee shall use "CUSIP" numbers in notices of redemption or repurchase as a convenience to Holders; provided, however, that neither the Company nor the Trustee shall have any responsibility for any defect in the "CUSIP" number that appears on any Security, check, advice of payment or redemption or repurchase notice, and any such notice may state that no representation is made as to the correctness of such numbers either as printed on the Securities or as contained in any notice of a redemption or repurchase and that reliance may be placed only on the other identification numbers printed on the Securities, and any such redemption or repurchase shall not be affected by any defect in or omission of such numbers.

Section 2.15 Tax Withholding. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Indenture, the Company, the Trustee and any Paying Agent may, to the extent it is required to do so by law, deduct or withhold income or other similar taxes imposed from principal or interest payments hereunder. The Company, the Trustee and the Paying Agent shall reasonably cooperate with each other and shall provide each other with copies of documents or information reasonably necessary for the Company, the Trustee and the Paying Agent to comply with any withholding tax or tax information reporting obligations imposed on any of them, including any obligations, imposed pursuant to an agreement with a governmental authority.

Section 2.16 Maturity Date; Extensions of Maturity Date.

(a) Maturity Date; Extensions of Maturity Date. The Securities will mature on August 30, 2031 (as may be extended from time to time pursuant to the proviso below, the "Maturity Date"); provided that, if (i) on the date that is 120 calendar days prior to the then-applicable Maturity Date the ABL Facility, as extended, renewed, replaced or refinanced from time to time, remains outstanding, then the then-applicable Maturity Date shall be automatically extended to the date that is 91 calendar days after the then stated maturity date of the ABL Facility (unless the then-applicable Maturity Date is already at least 91 calendar days after then stated maturity date of the ABL facility) and (ii) if connection with any proposed extension, renewal, replacement or refinancing of the ABL Facility the Company informs the Trustee that the proposed extension, renewal, replacement or refinancing of the ABL Facility shall provide for stated maturity date for the ABL Facility that occurs later than 91 calendar days prior to the then applicable Maturity Date, then the then-applicable Maturity Date shall, contemporaneously with the effectiveness of such extension, renewal, replacement or refinancing of the ABL Facility, be automatically extended to the date that is 91 calendar days after the stated maturity date of the ABL Facility, as so extended, renewed, replaced or refinanced (the date to which the then-applicable Maturity Date is extended pursuant to the terms of this proviso, the "Extended Maturity Date"). The Company shall deliver to the Trustee a supplemental indenture confirming any extension of the Maturity Date as set forth in this Section 2.16(a), and each Holder consents to the entry by the Trustee and the Company into such supplemental indenture. Such supplemental indenture shall provide that the Holders consent to the entry by the Trustee and the Company into a supplemental indenture to confirm the extension of the Maturity Date in accordance with this Section 2.16(a).

(b) Notice to Trustee and Securities Collateral Agent of Extension of Maturity Date. At least two (2) Business Days (unless a shorter notice shall be agreed to by the Trustee and/or Securities Collateral Agent) before notice of any anticipated extension of the then-applicable Maturity Date is required to be delivered to Holders pursuant to Section 2.16(c) hereof, the Company shall furnish to the Trustee and Securities Collateral Agent the form of such notice together with an Officer's Certificate setting forth (x) the applicable Extended Maturity Date and (y) the aggregate amount payable in respect of the Securities on such Extended Maturity Date.

(c) Notice of Extended Maturity Date. The Company shall send electronically, mail or cause to be mailed by first-class mail, postage prepaid, a notice of anticipated Extended Maturity Date at least ten (10) days before any then-applicable Maturity Date to each Holder of Securities to be redeemed at such Holder's registered address stated in the Security Register (with a copy to the Trustee) or otherwise in accordance with the Applicable Procedures.

The notice shall state:

(1) the anticipated Extended Maturity Date;

(2) the aggregate amount payable in respect of the Securities on the Extended Maturity Date;

(3) the name and address of the Paying Agent; and

(4) that interest shall continue to accrue to but excluding the Extended Maturity Date.

At the Company's request, the Trustee shall give the notice of Extended Maturity Date in the Company's name and at its expense; provided that the Company shall have delivered to the Trustee, at least two (2) Business Days, in the case of Global Securities, or five (5) Business Days, in the case of Definitive Securities, before notice of a Extended Maturity Date is required to be delivered electronically, mailed or caused to be mailed to Holders pursuant to this Section 2.16(c) (unless a shorter notice shall be agreed to by the Trustee), an Officer's Certificate requesting that the Trustee give such notice and setting forth the information to be stated in such notice as provided in the preceding paragraph.

(d) Effect of Notice of Extended Maturity Date. A notice of anticipated Extended Maturity Date pursuant to this Section 2.16, if delivered electronically, mailed or caused to be mailed in a manner herein provided, shall be conclusively presumed to have been given, whether or not the Holder receives such notice. In any case, failure to deliver such notice or any defect in the notice to the Holder of any Security shall not affect the validity of the proceedings for the payment of any other Security. Subject to compliance with Section 2.16(e) hereof, on and after the Extended Maturity Date, the Securities shall cease to be outstanding and interest thereon shall cease to accrue on Securities. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Indenture or any other Securities Document, no failure on the part of the Company or the Trustee to enter into a supplemental indenture contemplated by Section 2.16(a) or to deliver, or cause to be delivered, any notice of an Extended Maturity Date pursuant to this Section 2.16 shall impair any automatic extension of the Maturity Date pursuant to Section 2.16(a).

(e) Trustee. The Trustee and Securities Collateral Agent shall have no duty to monitor the principal amount, or determine the maturity date, of the ABL Facility and shall be entitled to conclusively rely on the Officer's Certificate delivered to it under Section 2.16(b) or written notice delivered by the Holders. In the absence of receipt of an Officer's Certificate under this Section 2.16 or such written notice by the Holders, the Trustee and Securities Collateral Agent shall be entitled to treat August 30, 2031 as the Maturity Date of the Securities.

Redemption

Section 3.01 Notices to Trustee. If the Company elects to redeem Securities pursuant to paragraph 5 of the Securities, it shall notify the Trustee in writing of the redemption date, the principal amount of Securities to be redeemed and that such redemption is being made pursuant to such paragraph 5 of the Securities. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Company cannot elect to redeem Series B Securities pursuant to paragraph 5 of the Series B Securities until after all of Series A Securities have been redeemed in full (provided that the redemptions in full of Series A Securities and Series B Securities can take place concurrently).

The Company shall give each notice to the Trustee provided for in this Section 3.01 at least two Business Days prior to the date on which that notice is delivered to the Holders unless the Trustee consents to a shorter period. Such notice shall be accompanied by an Officer's Certificate from the Company to the effect that such redemption will comply with the conditions herein.

Section 3.02 Selection of Securities To Be Redeemed. If fewer than all the Securities are to be redeemed pursuant to paragraph 5 of the Securities, the Securities to be redeemed shall, in the case of Global Securities, be selected on a pro rata basis in accordance with the Depositary's policies and procedures and, in the case of Definitive Securities, shall be selected by lot or by such other method as the Trustee considers fair and appropriate. Selection of Securities shall be made from outstanding Securities not previously called for redemption and may include portions of the principal of Securities that have denominations larger than $1.00. Securities and portions of them that are selected shall be in amounts of $1.00 or a whole multiple in excess of $1.00. Provisions of this Indenture that apply to Securities called for redemption also apply to portions of Securities called for redemption. The Trustee shall notify the Company promptly of the Securities or portions of Securities to be redeemed. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Securities are represented by Global Securities, beneficial interests therein will be selected for redemption by DTC in accordance with its standard procedures therefor.

Section 3.03 Notice of Redemption. At least 10 days but not more than 60 days before a date for redemption of Securities pursuant to paragraph 5 of the Securities, the Company shall cause to be delivered a notice of redemption to each Holder of Securities to be redeemed at such Holder's registered address.

The notice shall identify the Securities to be redeemed and shall state:

(1) the redemption date;

(2) the redemption price, or if not then ascertainable, the manner of calculation thereof;

(3) the name and address of the Paying Agent;

(4) that Securities called for redemption must be surrendered to the Paying Agent to collect the redemption price;

(5) if fewer than all the outstanding Securities are to be redeemed, the identification and principal amounts of the particular Securities to be redeemed;

(6) that, unless the Company defaults in making such redemption payment, interest on Securities (or portion thereof) called for redemption ceases to accrue on and after the redemption date, and the only remaining right of the Holders is to receive payment of the redemption price upon surrender to the Paying Agent; and

(7) that no representation is made as to the correctness or accuracy of the CUSIP number, if any, listed in such notice or printed on the Securities.

At the Company's written request, the Trustee shall give the notice of redemption in the Company's name and at the Company's expense. In such event, the Company shall provide the Trustee with the information required by this Section 3.03 at least two Business Days prior to the Trustee giving the notice of redemption (unless a shorter period shall be acceptable to the Trustee).

Section 3.04 Effect of Notice of Redemption.

(a) Once notice of redemption is delivered, subject to the satisfaction of any conditions specified in the applicable notice of redemption pursuant to paragraph (b) of this Section 3.04, Securities called for redemption become due and payable on the redemption date and at the redemption price stated in the notice. Upon surrender to the Paying Agent, such Securities shall be paid at the redemption price stated in the notice, plus accrued interest, if any, to, but not including, the redemption date (subject to the right of Holders of record on the relevant record date to receive interest due on an Interest Payment Date that is on or prior to the date of redemption). Failure to give notice or any defect in the notice to any Holder shall not affect the validity of the notice to any other Holder.

(b) Any such redemption or notice may, at the Company's option and discretion, be subject to one or more conditions precedent. In addition, if such redemption is subject to satisfaction of one or more conditions precedent, such notice shall state that, in the Company's discretion, such redemption may not occur and such notice may be rescinded in the event that any or all such conditions shall not have been satisfied by the redemption date. In addition, the Company may provide in such notice that payment of the redemption price and performance of the Company's obligations with respect to such redemption may be performed by another Person (it being understood that any such provision for payment by another Person will not relieve the Company and the Subsidiary Guarantors from their obligations with respect to such redemption).

Section 3.05 Deposit of Redemption Price. Prior to or on the redemption date, subject to the satisfaction of any conditions specified in the applicable notice of redemption pursuant to paragraph (b) of Section 3.04, the Company shall deposit with the Paying Agent (or, if the Company or a Wholly Owned Subsidiary is the Paying Agent, shall segregate and hold in trust) money sufficient to pay the redemption price of and accrued interest, if any (subject to the right of Holders of record on the relevant record date to receive interest due on an Interest Payment Date that is on or prior to the date of redemption), on all Securities to be redeemed on that date other than Securities or portions of Securities called for redemption that have been delivered by the Company to the Trustee for cancellation.

Section 3.06 Securities Redeemed in Part. Upon surrender of a Security that is redeemed in part, the Company shall execute and the Trustee shall authenticate for the Holder (at the Company's expense) a new Security equal in principal amount to the unredeemed portion of the Security surrendered.

ARTICLE IV

Covenants

Section 4.01 Payment of Securities. The Company shall promptly pay the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the Securities on the dates and in the manner provided in the Securities and in this Indenture. Principal, premium and interest shall be considered paid on the date due if on such date the Trustee or the Paying Agent holds in accordance with this Indenture money sufficient to pay all principal, premium and interest then due. Except as otherwise provided for in this Indenture, interest shall be payable as PIK Interest. PIK Interest shall be considered paid on the date due if on such date the Trustee has received (i) an Authentication Order to increase the balance of any Global Security to reflect such PIK Interests or (ii) PIK Securities duly executed by the Company together with an Authentication Order requesting the authentication of such PIK Securities by the Trustee.

The Company shall pay interest on overdue principal at the rate per annum specified therefor in the Securities, and it shall pay interest on overdue installments of interest at the rate borne by the Securities, to the extent lawful.

Section 4.02 Financial Statements and Other Information.

(a) The Company will furnish to the Trustee and each Holder:

(b) The financial statements, information and other documents required to be provided as described in this Section 4.02 may be those of (i) the Company or (ii) any direct or indirect parent of the Company (any such entity described in clause (i) or (ii) that provides such financial statements, information or other documents, a "Reporting Entity"), so long as in the case of clause (ii) either (1) such direct or indirect parent of the Company shall not conduct, transact or otherwise engage, or commit to conduct, transact or otherwise engage, in any material business or operations other than its direct or indirect ownership of all of the Equity Interests in, and its management of, the Company or (2) if otherwise, the financial information so delivered shall be accompanied by a reasonably detailed description of the quantitative differences between the information relating to such parent, on the one hand, and the information relating to the Company and its Subsidiaries on a standalone basis, on the other hand.

(c) The Company will make such information available electronically to prospective investors and securities analysts upon request. The Company shall, for so long as any Securities remain outstanding during any period when neither it nor another Reporting Entity is subject to Section 13 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act, or otherwise permitted to furnish the Commission with certain information pursuant to Rule 12g3-2(b) of the Exchange Act, furnish to the Holders and to prospective investors, upon their request, the information required to be delivered pursuant to Rule 144A(d)(4) under the Securities Act.

(d) The Company shall deliver the reports and information referred to in this Section 4.02 to the holders, prospective investors, securities analysts and the Trustee by posting the required reports and information on IntraLinks or any comparable online data system or website. (e) The Trustee shall have no obligation to monitor whether the Company posts such reports, information and documents on the Company's website (or that of any of the Company's parent companies, including the Reporting Entity) or the SEC's EDGAR service, or collect any such information from the Company's (or any of the Company's parent companies') website, IntraLinks or any comparable online data system or website or the SEC's EDGAR service. The Trustee shall have no liability or responsibility for the content, filing or timeliness of any report delivered or filed under or in connection with this Indenture or the transactions contemplated thereunder.

(f) [Reserved].

(g) Delivery of such reports, information and documents to the Trustee pursuant to this Section 4.02 is for informational purposes only, and the Trustee's receipt thereof shall not constitute constructive notice of any information contained therein or determinable from information contained therein, including the Company's compliance with any of its covenants under this Indenture (as to which the Trustee is entitled to rely conclusively on any Officer's Certificate). The Trustee is under no duty to examine such reports, information or documents to ensure compliance with the provision of this Indenture or to ascertain the correctness or otherwise of the information or the statements contained therein.

(h) Notwithstanding the foregoing, if at any time the Company or any direct or indirect parent of the Company has made a good faith determination to file a registration statement with the Commission with respect to an Equity Offering of such entity's Equity Interests, the Company will not be required to disclose any information or take any actions that, in the good faith view of the Company, would violate securities laws or the SEC's "gun jumping" rules or otherwise have an adverse effect on such Equity Offering.

Section 4.03 Limitation on Debt. The Company shall not, and shall not permit any Subsidiary to, Incur, directly or indirectly, any Debt; provided that the Company and its Subsidiaries may Incur, directly or indirectly, Debt if either:

(1) the Consolidated Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio on a consolidated basis for the Company and its Subsidiaries as of the last day of the most recently ended Measurement Period (and calculated giving Pro Forma Effect to such Debt and as if such Debt was incurred as the last day of the most recently

When the aggregate amount of Net Available Cash remaining following its application in accordance with this Section 4.06 exceeds $50.0 million (taking into account income earned on such Net Available Cash, if any), to the extent permitted by the terms of any Senior Debt Documents or the Intercreditor Agreements, the Company will be required to make an offer to purchase (the "Asset Sales Prepayment Offer") the Series A Securities which offer shall be in the amount of the Allocable Proceeds, on a pro rata basis according to principal amount at maturity, at a purchase price equal to 100% of the principal amount thereof, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the purchase date (subject to the right of Holders of record on the relevant record date to receive interest due on an Interest Payment Date), in accordance with the procedures (including prorating in the event of oversubscription) set forth herein. To the extent that any portion of the amount of Net Available Cash remains after compliance with the preceding sentence and provided that all Holders have been given the opportunity to tender their Series A Securities for purchase in accordance with this Indenture, the Company will be required to make the Asset Sales Prepayment Offer with respect to the Series B Securities, which offer shall be in the amount of any remaining Allocable Proceeds on a pro rata basis according to principal amount at maturity, at a purchase price equal to 100% of the principal amount thereof, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the purchase date (subject to the right of Holders of record on the relevant record date to receive interest due on an Interest Payment Date), in accordance with the procedures (including prorating in the event of oversubscription) set forth herein. For the avoidance of doubt, the Asset Sales Prepayment Offers with respect to Series A Securities and Series B Securities can be conducted concurrently provided that Series A Securities are repurchased in priority to Series B Securities and no Series B Securities are repurchased unless all Series A Securities have been repurchased. To the extent that any portion of the amount of Net Available Cash remains after compliance with the preceding sentences and provided that all Holders have been given the opportunity to tender their Securities for purchase in accordance with this Indenture, the Company or such Subsidiary may use such remaining amount for any purpose permitted by this Indenture and the amount of Net Available Cash will be reset to zero.

The term "Allocable Proceeds" will mean the product of:

(a) the remaining Net Available Cash following its application in accordance with this Section 4.06; and

(b) a fraction,

(1) the numerator of which is the aggregate principal amount of the Securities outstanding on the date of the Asset Sales Prepayment Offer; and

(2) the denominator of which is the sum of the aggregate principal amount of the Securities outstanding on the date of the Asset Sales Prepayment Offer and the aggregate principal amount of other Debt of the Company outstanding on the date of the Asset Sales Prepayment Offer that is pari passu in right of payment (without regard to security) with the Securities and subject to terms and conditions in respect of Asset Sales similar in all material respects to this Section 4.06 and requiring the Company to make an offer to purchase such Debt or otherwise repay such Debt at substantially the same time as the Asset Sales Prepayment Offer.

Within five Business Days after the Company is obligated to make an Asset Sales Prepayment Offer as described in the preceding paragraph, the Company shall send a written notice, by first-class mail or electronically, to the Holders, accompanied by such information regarding the Company and its Subsidiaries as the Company in good faith believes will enable such Holders to make an informed decision with respect to such Asset Sales Prepayment Offer. Such notice shall state, among other things, the purchase price and the purchase date (the "Purchase Date"), which shall be, subject to any contrary requirements of applicable law, a Business Day no earlier than 20 Business Days nor later than 60 days from the date such notice is sent. Nothing shall prevent the Company from conducting an Asset Sales Prepayment Offer earlier than as set forth in this paragraph.

Not later than the date upon which written notice of an Asset Sales Prepayment Offer is delivered to the Trustee as provided above, the Company shall deliver to the Trustee an Officer's Certificate as to (a) the amount of the Asset Sales Prepayment Offer (the "Offer Amount"), (b) the allocation of the Net Available Cash from the Asset Sales pursuant to which such Asset Sales Prepayment Offer is being made and (c) the compliance of such allocation with the provisions of this Section 4.06. On or before the Purchase Date, the Company shall also irrevocably deposit with the Trustee or with the Paying Agent (or, if the Company or a Wholly Owned Subsidiary is the Paying Agent, shall segregate and hold in trust) in cash an amount equal to the Offer Amount to be held for payment in accordance with the provisions of this Section 4.06. Upon the expiration of the period for which the Asset Sales Prepayment Offer remains open (the "Offer Period"), the Company shall deliver to the Trustee for cancellation the Securities or portions thereof that have been properly tendered to and are to be accepted by the Company. The Trustee or the Paying Agent shall, on the Purchase Date, mail or deliver payment to each tendering Holder in the amount of the purchase price. In the event that the aggregate purchase price of the Securities delivered by the Company to the Trustee is less than the Offer Amount, the Trustee or the Paying Agent shall deliver the excess to the Company immediately after the expiration of the Offer Period for application in accordance with this Section 4.06.

Holders electing to have a Security purchased shall be required to surrender the Security, with an appropriate form duly completed, to the Company or its agent at the address specified in the notice at least three Business Days prior to the Purchase Date, or in the case of a Security represented by a Global Security, comply with the Depositary's policies and procedures related to the surrender of Securities. Holders shall be entitled to withdraw their election if the Trustee or the Company receives not later than one Business Day prior to the Purchase Date, a telex, facsimile transmission or letter setting forth the name of the Holder, the principal amount of the Security that was delivered for purchase by the Holder and a statement that such Holder is withdrawing its election to have such Security purchased. If at the expiration of the Offer Period the aggregate principal amount of Securities surrendered by Holders exceeds the Offer Amount, in the case of Global Securities, Securities shall be settled in accordance with the Depositary's policies and procedures and, in the case of Definitive Securities, the Company shall select the Securities to be purchased on a pro rata basis for all Securities (with such adjustments as may be deemed appropriate by the Company so that only Securities in denominations of $1.00 or integral multiples of $1.00 in excess thereof shall be purchased, provided that the unpurchased portion of any Security will be in a principal amount of $1.00 or an integral multiple of $1.00 in excess thereof). Holders whose Securities are purchased only in part shall be issued new Securities equal in principal amount to the unpurchased portion of the Securities surrendered.

At the time the Company delivers Securities to the Trustee that are to be accepted for purchase, the Company shall also deliver an Officer's Certificate stating that such Securities are to be accepted by the Company pursuant to and in accordance with the terms of this Section 4.06. A Security shall be deemed to have been accepted for purchase at the time the Trustee or the Paying Agent mails or delivers payment therefor to the surrendering Holder.

The Company will comply, to the extent applicable, with the requirements of Section 14(e) of the Exchange Act and any other securities laws or regulations in connection with the repurchase of Securities pursuant to this Section 4.06. To the extent that the provisions of any securities laws or regulations conflict with provisions of this Section 4.06, the Company will comply with the applicable securities laws and regulations and will not be deemed to have breached its obligations under this Section 4.06 by virtue thereof.

Section 4.07 Limitation on Transactions with Affiliates.

(a) The Company will not, and will not permit any Subsidiary to, directly or indirectly, sell, lease or otherwise transfer any property or assets to, or purchase, lease or otherwise acquire any property or assets from, or otherwise engage in any other transactions with, any of its Affiliates (an "Affiliate Transaction"), unless (i) the terms of such Affiliate Transaction are (A) set forth in writing, (B) in the best interests of the Company or such Subsidiary, as applicable, and (C) no less favorable, taken as a whole, to the Company or such Subsidiary, as applicable, than those that could be obtained in a comparable arm's-length transaction with a Person that is not an Affiliate of the Company or a Subsidiary as determined by the Board of Directors (including a majority of the disinterested members of the Board of Directors) or senior management of the Company in good faith; and (ii) if such Affiliate Transaction involves aggregate payments or value to the Affiliate in excess of $10.0 million in any 12-month period, the Board of Directors (including a majority of the disinterested members of the Board of Directors) approves such Affiliate Transaction and, in its good faith judgment, believes that such Affiliate Transaction complies with clauses (i)(B) and (i)(C) of this Section 4.07(a) as evidenced by a Board Resolution promptly delivered to the Trustee.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing limitation, the Company or any Subsidiary may enter into or suffer to exist the following:

(i) payment of compensation and related indemnities provided to directors, officers, consultants and employees of the Company or any of the Subsidiaries in the ordinary course of business;

(ii) transactions between or among the Company and/or one or more Subsidiaries;

(iii) the payment of any Transaction Expenses;

(iv) any transaction or series of transactions between the Company and one or more Subsidiaries or between two or more Subsidiaries;

(v) any Restricted Payment, Payment of Debt or Plan Payment permitted to be made pursuant to Section 4.04 or any Investments permitted to be made pursuant to Section 4.10;

(vi) loans (or cancellations thereof) and advances to employees made in the ordinary course of business in accordance with applicable law, provided that such loans and advances do not exceed $25.0 million in the aggregate at any one time outstanding;

(vii) any transaction effected as part of a Qualified Receivables Transaction or pursuant to a factoring arrangement or any transaction involving the transfer of accounts receivable permitted under Section 4.03(e);

(viii) any Affiliate Transaction, if such Affiliate Transaction is with any Person solely in its capacity as a holder of Debt or Equity Interests of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, where (A) such Person is treated no more favorably than any other holder of such Debt or Equity Interests of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries or (B) such Affiliate Transaction results in a repurchase, redemption, cancellation or extinguishment of some or all of the Securities;

(ix) any agreement as in effect on the Issue Date or any amendment thereto (so long as such amendment is not disadvantageous to the Holders in any material respect as determined by the Company in good faith) or any transaction contemplated thereby;

(x) any Affiliate Transaction that involves aggregate payments or value to the Affiliate not in excess of $15.0 million;

(xi) payments of indemnification obligations to officers, managers and directors of the Company or any Subsidiary to the extent required by the organizational documents of such entity or applicable law;

(xii) any Affiliate Transaction in which the only consideration paid by the Company or any Subsidiary consists of Capital Stock (other than Disqualified Stock) of the Company;

(xiii) any Affiliate Transaction with any joint venture or special purpose entity engaged in a related business; provided that no more than 5% of the outstanding ownership interests of such joint venture or special purpose entity are owned by Affiliates of the Company;

(xiv) any Affiliate Transaction between the Company or any Subsidiary and any Person that is an Affiliate of the Company or any Subsidiary solely because a director of such Person is also a director of the Company; provided that such director abstains from voting as a director of the Company on any matter involving such other Person;

(xv) issuances or sales of Capital Stock (other than Disqualified Stock) of the Company to Affiliates or employees of or consultants to the Company and granting and performance of registration rights in respect of such Capital Stock;

(xvi) an Affiliate Transaction in which the Company delivers to the Trustee a copy of a written opinion as to the fairness of such Affiliate Transaction to the Company or such Subsidiary from a financial point of view issued by an Independent Financial Advisor;

(xvii) transactions with customers, clients, suppliers, or purchasers or sellers of goods or services, in each case in the ordinary course of business and otherwise in compliance with the terms of this Indenture which are fair to the Company and the Subsidiaries, in the reasonable determination of the Company or are on terms, taken as a whole, at least as favorable as might reasonably have been obtained at such time from an unaffiliated party (as determined by the majority of disinterested members of Board of Directors or senior management of the Company in good faith); and (xviii) transactions involving the acquisition of Inventory in the ordinary course of business.

Section 4.08 Guarantees by Subsidiaries.

(a) (i) The Company shall cause each of its Subsidiaries that guarantees any of the Senior Obligations or any series of debt securities of the Company to Guarantee the Securities.

(ii) The Company shall not permit any Subsidiary that is not a Subsidiary Guarantor to Guarantee the payment of any Debt or Equity Interests of the Company (other than Guarantees of Debt incurred under clause (a) of Section 4.03 or Guarantees permitted pursuant to clauses (e), (f), (r), or (t) of Section 4.03, except that a Subsidiary that is not a Subsidiary Guarantor may Guarantee Debt of the Company; provided that:

(1) such Debt and the Debt represented by such Guarantee is permitted by Section 4.03;

(2) such Subsidiary executes and delivers a supplemental indenture to this Indenture within ten Business Days in the form of Exhibit D hereto providing for a Guarantee of payment of the Securities by such Subsidiary; and

(3) such Guarantee of Debt of the Company:

(A) unless such Debt is a Subordinated Obligation, shall be pari passu (or subordinate) in right of payment to and on substantially the same terms as (or less favorable to such Debt than but without regards as to security interest) such Subsidiary's Guarantee with respect to the Securities; and

(B) if such Debt is a Subordinated Obligation, shall be subordinated in right of payment to such Subsidiary's Guarantee with respect to the Securities to at least the same extent as such Debt is subordinated to the Securities.

(b) Upon any Subsidiary becoming a Subsidiary Guarantor as described above, such Subsidiary shall deliver to the Trustee an Opinion of Counsel to the effect that:

(i) such Guarantee of the Securities has been duly executed and authorized; and

(ii) such Guarantee of the Securities constitutes a valid, binding and enforceable obligation of such Subsidiary, except insofar as enforcement thereof may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency or similar laws (including, without limitation, all laws relating to fraudulent transfers) and except insofar as enforcement thereof is subject to general principles of equity.

The failure of any Subsidiary to provide a Guarantee if then prohibited to do so by any Debt of the Company or a Subsidiary shall not constitute a violation of the covenant described above; provided, however, that at the time such prohibition no longer exists if a Guarantee would then be required to comply with such clauses, such Subsidiary provides such Guarantee.

Section 4.09 Limitation on Sale and Leaseback Transactions. The Company will not, and will not permit any of the Subsidiaries to, enter into any Sale and Leaseback Transaction, except

(a) to the extent constituting a Permitted Real Estate Disposition;

(b) Sale and Leaseback Transactions permitted by and effected pursuant to Section 4.03(m) or (o), which do not result in the creation or existence of any Liens (other than Liens permitted pursuant to Section 4.05);

(c) To the extent the Company or such Subsidiary would be entitled to Incur Debt in an amount equal to the Attributable Debt with respect to such Sale and Leaseback Transaction pursuant to Section 4.03, create a Lien on such Property securing such Attributable Debt without also securing the Securities or the applicable Subsidiary Guarantee pursuant to Section 4.05 and such Sale and Leaseback Transaction is effected in compliance with Section 4.06 to the extent such Sale and Leaseback Transaction constitutes an Asset Sale.

Section 4.10 Investments, Loans, Advances, Guarantees and Acquisitions. The Company will not, and will not permit any of the Subsidiaries to, make any Investment except:

(a) Permitted Investments;

(b) Investments of the Company and the Subsidiary Securities Parties that are set forth on Schedule 6.04 of the ABL Credit Agreement;

(c) Guarantees of Debt and/or Guarantees consisting of Debt permitted by Section 4.03;

(d) Investments received in connection with the bankruptcy or reorganization of, or settlement of delinquent accounts and disputes with, customers and suppliers, in each case in the ordinary course of business;

(e) (i) Investments by the Company or any Subsidiary Guarantor in Subsidiary Securities Parties; provided that the Company and such Subsidiary Guarantor, as the case may be, shall comply with the applicable provisions of Section 4.08 with respect to any newly formed Subsidiary, (ii) Investments by the Subsidiaries in the Company; provided that the proceeds of such Investments are used for general corporate and ongoing working capital purposes, (iii) Investments by any Subsidiary that is not a Subsidiary Guarantor in any other Subsidiary that is not a Subsidiary Guarantor or in any Subsidiary Guarantor, and (iv) other Investments by the Company or any Subsidiary Guarantor in any Subsidiary that is not a Subsidiary Guarantor in an amount not to exceed $20.0 million in the aggregate at any one time;

(f) Investments consisting of non-cash consideration received in connection with any Asset Sale permitted by Section 4.06 (other than with respect to any sale of Inventory at retail in the ordinary course of business);

(g) usual and customary loans and advances to employees, officers and directors of the Company and the Subsidiaries, in the ordinary course of business; provided that the aggregate amount of such loans and advances outstanding at any time shall not exceed $11,000,000;

(h) Investments in charitable foundations organized under Section 501(c) of the Code in an amount not to exceed $3,300,000 in the aggregate in any calendar year;

(i) any Investment consisting of a Hedging Agreement permitted by Section 4.14;

(j) Investments held by any Person that becomes a Subsidiary at the time such Person becomes a Subsidiary; provided that no such Investment was made in contemplation of such Person becoming a Subsidiary;

(k) Investments consisting of Guarantees by the Company or any of its Subsidiaries of obligations of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries to the extent not constituting Debt and incurred in the ordinary course of business;

(l) Business Acquisitions and other Investments that are not otherwise permitted under any other provision of this Section 4.10; provided that, as of the date of such Business Acquisition or other Investment, and after giving effect thereto, each of the Payment Conditions shall be satisfied;

(m) Investments in Permitted Joint Ventures that do not exceed $25.0 million (with the Fair Market Value of each Investment being measured at the time made and without giving effect to subsequent changes in value);

(n) Investments in an amount not to exceed the Available Amount;

(o) Repurchases of the Securities and the Rollover Notes;

(p) Investments in a Related Business (with the Fair Market Value of each Investment being measured at the time made and without giving effect to subsequent changes in value) not to exceed $25.0 million; provided that if any Investment pursuant to this clause (p) is made in any Person that is not a Subsidiary at the date of the making of such Investment and such Person becomes a Subsidiary after such date, such Investment shall thereafter be deemed to have been made pursuant to clause (e) above and shall cease to have been made pursuant to this clause (p) for so long as such Person continues to be a Subsidiary;

(q) so long as no Event of Default then exists or would result therefrom, additional Investments so long as the Consolidated Total Leverage Ratio as of the last day of the most recently ended Measurement Period (and calculated giving Pro Forma Effect to such Restricted Payment and as if such Restricted Payment was made as the last day of the most recently ended Measurement Period) is equal to or greater than 5.75 to 1.00;

(r) Investments in Receivables Entities required in connection with a Qualified Receivables Transaction (including the contribution or lending of cash and cash equivalents to Receivables Entities to finance the purchase of assets from the Company or any Subsidiary or to otherwise fund required reserves); and

(s) other Investments outstanding at any one time in the aggregate that do not exceed $50.0 million (with the Fair Market Value of each Investment being measured at the time made and without giving effect to subsequent changes in value).

For purposes of determining compliance with this Section 4.10, in the event that a proposed Investment (or a portion thereof) meets the criteria of clauses (a) through (s) above and/or one or more of the clauses contained in the definition of "Permitted Investments," the Company may divide or classify or later divide or reclassify (based on circumstances existing on the date of such reclassification) such Investment (or a portion thereof) between such clauses (a) through (s) and one or more of the clauses contained in the definition of "Permitted Investments," in any manner that otherwise complies with this Section 4.10.

Section 4.11 Additional Security Collateral Documents; After-Acquired Property.

(a) From and after the Issue Date, if the Company or any Subsidiary of the Company executes and delivers in respect of any Property of such Person any mortgages, deeds of trust, security agreements, pledge agreements or similar instruments to secure Debt or other obligations that at the time constitute ABL Loan Obligations or Rollover Notes Obligations (except for an Excluded Subsidiary that does so solely in respect of Debt or other obligations of itself or another Excluded Subsidiary), then the Company will, or will cause such Subsidiary to, within 90 days, execute and deliver substantially identical mortgages, deeds of trust, security agreements, pledge agreements or similar instruments in order to vest in the Securities Collateral Agent a perfected third priority security interest subject only to Liens permitted under the Indenture, the Intercreditor Agreements and any other applicable intercreditor agreement and/or collateral trust agreements, in such Property for the benefit of the Securities Collateral Agent on behalf of the Holders, among others, and thereupon all provisions of this Indenture relating to the Collateral will be deemed to relate to such Property to the same extent and with the same force and effect.

(b) From and after the Issue Date, in the event that additional ABL Loan Obligations, Rollover Notes Obligations or any additional notes or other Debt are incurred or issued, the Securities Collateral Agent will be authorized and required to enter into amendments, joinders or supplements to the Intercreditor Agreements, other intercreditor agreements and/or collateral trust agreements (in each case in customary form, scope and substance), as applicable, to reflect the priority of the Liens securing any such debt.

(c) From and after the Issue Date, if any Subsidiary Guarantor acquires any property or asset that would constitute Collateral pursuant to the terms of the Security Collateral Documents, the applicable Subsidiary Guarantor will grant to the Holders a senior security interest (subject to Liens permitted under this Indenture) upon such property or asset as security for the Securities within 90 days of such acquisition.

Section 4.12 Change of Control.

(a) To the extent permitted by the terms of any Senior Debt Documents or the Intercreditor Agreements, upon the occurrence of a Change of Control, each Holder shall have the right to require the Company to repurchase all or any part of such Holder's Securities pursuant to the offer described below (the "Change of Control Offer") at a purchase price (the "Change of Control Purchase Price") equal to 101.0% of the principal amount thereof, plus accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to, but not including, the purchase date (subject to the right of holders of record on the relevant record date to receive interest due on an Interest Payment Date). If the purchase date is on or after a record date and on or before an Interest Payment Date, the accrued and unpaid interest, if any, will be paid to the person or entity in whose name the Security is registered at the close of business on that record date, and no additional interest will be payable to Holders whose Securities shall be subject to purchase. Securities may be purchased in part in principal amounts of 1.00 or an integral multiple of $1.00 in excess thereof; provided that the unpurchased portion of a Security must be in a principal amount of $1.00 or an integral multiple of $1.00 in excess thereof. Holders whose Securities are purchased only in part shall be issued new Securities equal in principal amount to the unpurchased portion of the surrendered Securities.

(b) To the extent that the making of a Change of Control Offer is prohibited pursuant to the terms of any applicable Intercreditor Agreement, the Company shall not be required to make such Change of Control Offer. To the extent that the Company can make a Change of Control Offer only with respect to some, but not all, of the outstanding Securities pursuant to the terms of any applicable Intercreditor Agreement, the Company shall make such Change of Control Offer with respect to the maximum amount of the outstanding Securities permitted pursuant to the terms of any applicable Intercreditor Agreement. If a Change of Control Offer is to be made with respect to fewer than all of the Securities then outstanding, the Securities to be purchased shall, in the case of Global Securities, be selected on a pro rata basis in accordance with the Depositary's policies and procedures and, in the case of Definitive Securities, shall be selected by lot or by such other method as the Trustee considers fair and appropriate. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Securities are represented by Global Securities, beneficial interests therein will be selected for repurchase by DTC in accordance with its standard procedures therefor.

(c) Within 30 days following any Change of Control, the Company send, with a copy to the Trustee, to each Holder, at such Holder's address appearing in the Security Register, a notice stating: (i) that a Change of Control Offer is being made pursuant to this Section 4.12 and that, to the extent permitted by the terms of any Senior Debt Documents or the Intercreditor Agreements, all Securities timely tendered will be accepted for payment; (ii) the Change of Control Purchase Price and the purchase date, which shall be, subject to any contrary requirements of applicable law, a Business Day no earlier than 30 days nor later than 60 days from the date such notice is sent (the "Change of Control Payment Date"); (iii) the circumstances and relevant facts regarding the Change of Control; (iv) the procedures that Holders must follow in order to tender their Securities (or portions thereof) for payment and the procedures that Holders must follow in order to withdraw an election to tender Securities (or portions thereof) for payment (which, in the case of Global Securities, will permit holders to effect such procedures through the Depositary), and (v) the principal amount of Securities that the Company may repurchase under the terms of any Senior Debt Documents or the Intercreditor Agreements (the "Change of Control Purchase Amount").

(d) Holders electing to have a Security purchased shall be required to surrender the Security, with an appropriate form duly completed, to the Company or its agent at the address specified in the notice at least three Business Days prior to the Change of Control Payment Date. Holders shall be entitled to withdraw their election if the Trustee or the Company receives not later than one Business Day prior to the Change of Control Payment Date, a telex, facsimile transmission or letter setting forth the name of the Holder, the principal amount of the Security that was delivered for purchase by the Holder and a statement that such Holder is withdrawing its election to have such Security purchased.

(e) On or prior to the Change of Control Payment Date, the Company shall irrevocably deposit with the Trustee or with the Paying Agent (or, if the Company or any of its Wholly Owned Subsidiaries is acting as the Paying Agent, segregate and hold in trust) in cash an amount equal to the Change of Control Purchase Amount payable to the Holders entitled thereto, to be held for payment in accordance with the provisions of this Section 4.12. On the Change of Control Payment Date, the Company shall deliver to the Trustee the Securities or portions thereof that have been properly tendered to and are to be accepted by the Company for payment. The Trustee or the Paying Agent shall, on the Change of Control Payment Date, mail or deliver payment to each tendering Holder the applicable amount of the Change of Control Purchase Amount. In the event that the aggregate Change of Control Purchase Amount is less than the amount delivered by the Company to the Trustee or the Paying Agent, the Trustee or the Paying Agent, as the case may be, shall deliver the excess to the Company immediately after the Change of Control Payment Date.

(f) If Holders of not less than 90% in aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Securities validly tender and do not withdraw such Securities in a Change of Control Offer and the Company or any other Person making a Change of Control Offer in lieu of the Company pursuant to paragraph (f) of this Section 4.12, to the extent permitted by the terms of any Senior Debt Documents or the Intercreditor Agreements, purchases all of the Securities validly tendered and not withdrawn by such Holders, the Company will have the right, upon not less than 15 nor more than 60 days' prior notice, given not more than 30 days following such purchase pursuant to the Change of Control Offer described above, to redeem all Securities that remain outstanding following such purchase at a redemption price in cash equal to 101% of the principal amount thereof, plus accrued and unpaid interest, to, but not including, the date of redemption (subject to the right of Holders of record on the relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant Interest Payment Date).

(g) The Company shall not be required to make a Change of Control Offer upon a Change of Control if (i) a third party makes the Change of Control Offer in the manner, at or prior to the times and otherwise in compliance with the requirements set forth in this Indenture applicable to a Change of Control Offer made by the Company and purchases all Securities properly tendered and not withdrawn under the Change of Control Offer (it being understood that such third-party may make a Change of Control Offer that is conditioned on and prior to the occurrence of a Change of Control pursuant to this Section 4.12), (ii) notice of redemption with respect to the Securities has been given pursuant to paragraph 5 of the Securities, unless there is a default in payment of the applicable redemption price, (iii) (A) no Default or Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, (B) the Change of Control transaction has been approved by the Board of Directors and (C) the Securities have received an Investment Grade Rating (with a stable or better outlook) from both Moody's and S&P during the period that begins 60 days prior to the earlier of (1) a Change of Control and (2) public notice of a Change of Control or of the intention by the Company to effect a Change of Control and ending 60 days after the applicable Change of Control, or (iv) the Change of Control Offer and the repurchase of the Securities is not permitted by the terms of any Senior Debt Documents or the Intercreditor Agreements.

(h) The Company will comply, to the extent applicable, with the requirements of Section 14(e) of the Exchange Act and any other securities laws or regulations in connection with the repurchase of Securities pursuant to a Change of Control Offer. To the extent that the provisions of any securities laws or regulations conflict with the provisions of this Section 4.12, the Company will comply with the applicable securities laws and regulations and will not be deemed to have breached its obligations under this Section 4.12 by virtue thereof.

(i) To the extent permitted by the terms of any Senior Debt Documents or the Intercreditor Agreements, a Change of Control Offer may be made in advance of a Change of Control, and conditional upon such Change of Control, if a definitive agreement is in place for the Change of Control at the time of the making of the Change of Control Offer.

Section 4.13 Further Instruments and Acts. Upon request of the Trustee or as necessary, the Company shall execute and deliver such further instruments and do such further acts as may be reasonably necessary or proper to carry out more effectively the purpose of this Indenture.

Section 4.14 Hedging Agreements. The Company will not, and will not permit any of the Subsidiaries to, Incur or at any time be liable with respect to any monetary liability under any Hedging Agreements, unless such Hedging Agreements (a) are entered into for bona fide hedging purposes of the Company, any Subsidiary Guarantor (as determined in good faith by a member of the senior management of the Company at the time such Hedging Agreement is entered into), (b) correspond in terms of notional amount, duration, currencies and interest rates, as applicable, to Debt of the Company or any Subsidiary Guarantor permitted to be incurred under Section 4.03 or to business transactions of the Company and the Subsidiary Securities Parties on customary terms entered into in the ordinary course of business and (c) do not exceed an amount equal to the aggregate principal amount of the Obligations.

Section 4.15 Limitation on Restrictions on Distributions from Subsidiaries. The Company shall not, and shall not permit any Subsidiary to, directly or indirectly, create or otherwise cause or suffer to exist any consensual restriction on the right of any Subsidiary to:

(a) pay dividends, in cash or otherwise, or make any other distributions on or in respect of its Equity Interests, or pay any Debt or other obligation owed, to the Company or any other Subsidiary;

(b) make any loans or advances to the Company or any other Subsidiary; or

(c) transfer any of its Property to the Company or any other Subsidiary.

The foregoing limitations will not apply:

(i) with respect to clauses (a) through (c), to restrictions

(1) in effect on the Issue Date;

(2) relating to Debt of a Subsidiary and existing at the time it became a Subsidiary if such restriction was not created in connection with or in anticipation of the transaction or series of transactions pursuant to which such Subsidiary became a Subsidiary or was acquired by the Company;

(3) that result from the Refinancing of Debt Incurred pursuant to an agreement referred to in clause (i)(1) or (i)(2) above or in clause (ii)(1) or (ii)(2) below; provided that (x) such restriction is no less favorable to the Holders in any material respect, as reasonably determined by the Board of Directors or senior management of the Company, than those under the agreement evidencing the Debt so Refinanced or (y) the restriction is not materially more restrictive, taken as a whole, than customary provisions in comparable financings, as reasonably determined by the Board of Directors or senior management of the Company;

(4) resulting from the Incurrence of any Debt permitted pursuant to Section 4.03; provided that (i) (x) the restriction is not materially more restrictive, taken as a whole, as reasonably determined by the Board of Directors or senior management of the Company, than the restrictions of the same type contained in this Indenture, (y) the restriction is not materially more restrictive, taken as a whole, as reasonably determined by the Board of Directors or senior management of the Company, than the restrictions of the same type contained in the ABL Credit Agreement or (z) the restriction is not materially more restrictive, taken as a whole, than customary provisions in comparable financings, as reasonably determined by the Board of Directors or senior management of the Company, and (ii) the Board of Directors or senior management of the Company determines, at the time of such financing, that such financing will not impair the Company's ability to make payments as required under the Securities when due;

(5) existing by reason of applicable law, rule, regulation or order;

(6) any contractual requirements incurred with respect to Qualified Receivables Transactions relating exclusively to a Receivables Entity that, in the good faith determination of the principal financial officer of the Company, are customary for Qualified Receivables Transactions or in a factoring or similar transaction; or

(7) customary restrictions contained in joint venture and other similar agreements; and

(ii) with respect to clause (c) only (and clause (a) with respect to clause (ii)(6) below), to restrictions:

(1) relating to Debt that is permitted to be Incurred and secured pursuant to Sections 4.03 and Section 4.05 that limit the right of the debtor to dispose of the Property securing such Debt;

(2) encumbering Property at the time such Property was acquired by the Company or any Subsidiary, so long as such restriction relates solely to the Property so acquired and was not created in connection with or in anticipation of such acquisition;

(3) resulting from customary provisions restricting subletting or assignment of leases or customary provisions in other agreements that restrict assignment of such agreements or rights thereunder;

(4) customary restrictions contained in agreements relating to the sale or other disposition of Property limiting the transfer of such Property pending the closing of such sale or following such sale if still in the possession of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries;

(5) resulting from purchase money obligations for Property acquired or Capital Lease Obligations that impose restrictions on the Property so acquired;

(6) resulting from restrictions on cash or other deposits or net worth imposed by customers under contracts entered into in the ordinary course of business or consistent with past practice or industry practice; or

(7) resulting from Liens permitted to be incurred under Section 4.05.

Section 4.17 Additional Amounts.

(a) All payments made by the Company in respect of the Securities or a Guarantor in respect of a Guarantee will be made free and clear of and without withholding or deduction for, or on account of, any present or future Taxes unless the withholding or deduction of such Taxes is then required by law. If any deduction or withholding for, or on account of, any Taxes imposed or levied by or on behalf of any jurisdiction in which the Company or the relevant Guarantor is then incorporated or organized or resident for Tax purposes, any jurisdiction from or through which payment on behalf of the Company or Guarantor is made or any political subdivision or governmental authority thereof or therein having power to tax (each, a "Tax Jurisdiction"), will at any time be required to be made from any payments made by or on behalf of the Company in respect of the Securities or the relevant Guarantor under its Guarantee, including payments of principal, redemption price, purchase price, interest or premium, the Company or the relevant Guarantor will pay such additional amounts (the "Additional Amounts") as may be necessary in order that the net amounts received in respect of such payments (including payments of principal, redemption price, interest or premium) by each Holder (including Additional Amounts) after such withholding or deduction will equal the respective amounts that would have been received in respect of such payments in the absence of such withholding or deduction; provided, however, that no Additional Amounts will be payable with respect to:

(i) any Taxes that would not have been so imposed but for the existence of any present or former connection between the Holder or the beneficial owner of the Security or Guarantee (or between a fiduciary, settler, beneficiary, partner, member or shareholder of, or possessor of power over the relevant Holder or beneficial owner, if the relevant Holder is an estate, nominee, trust, partnership, limited liability company or corporation) and the relevant Tax Jurisdiction, other than by the mere acquisition or holding of any Security or the enforcement or receipt of payment under or in respect of any Security or Guarantee;

(ii) any Taxes imposed or withheld as a result of the failure of the Holder or beneficial owner of any Security or Guarantee to comply with any written request, made to that Holder or beneficial owner within a reasonable period before any such withholding or deduction would be payable, by the Company or a Guarantor to provide timely or accurate information concerning the nationality, residence or identity of such Holder or beneficial owner or to make any valid or timely declaration or similar claim or satisfy any certification information or other reporting requirements (in each case, to the extent such Holder or beneficial owner is legally eligible to do so), which is required or imposed by a statute, treaty, regulation or administrative practice of the relevant Tax Jurisdiction as a precondition to exemption from, or reduction in the rate of deduction or withholding of such Taxes;

(iii) any Taxes that are imposed or withheld as a result of the presentation of any Security or Guarantee for payment (where presentation is required) more than 30 days after the relevant payment is first made available for payment to the Holder or beneficial owner (except to the extent that the Holder or beneficial owner would have been entitled to Additional Amounts had the Security been presented on the last day of such 30 day period);

(iv) any estate, inheritance, gift, sale, excise, transfer, personal property or similar Tax or assessment;

(v) any Tax which is payable otherwise than by deduction or withholding from payments made under or with respect to any Security or Guarantee;

(vi) any Taxes that are imposed or withheld as a result of the presentation of any Security or Guarantee for payment by or on behalf of a Holder or beneficial owner of such Securities or Guarantee who would have been able to avoid such withholding or deduction by presenting the relevant Security or Guarantee to, or otherwise accepting payment from, another paying agent;

(vii) any Taxes that are imposed or withheld pursuant to Sections 1471 through 1474 of the Code, any regulations promulgated thereunder, any official interpretations thereof, any similar law or regulation adopted pursuant to an intergovernmental agreement between a non-U.S. jurisdiction and the United States with respect to the foregoing or any agreements entered into pursuant to Section 1471(b)(1) of the Code; or

(viii) any combination of items (i) through (vii) above.

(b) The relevant Guarantor will pay when due any present or future stamp, transfer, court or documentary Taxes or any other excise or property Taxes that arise in a Tax Jurisdiction with respect to the initial execution, delivery or registration of the Guarantee or any other document or instrument relating thereto (other than the Securities).

(c) The relevant Guarantor will use reasonable efforts to furnish to the Holders, within a reasonable period of time after the due date for the payment of any Taxes so deducted or withheld pursuant to applicable law, either certified copies of Tax receipts evidencing such payment by such Guarantor (in such form as provided in the ordinary course by the relevant Tax Jurisdiction and as is reasonably available to the Guarantor), or, if such receipts are not obtainable, other evidence of such payments by such Guarantor reasonably satisfactory to the Holders.

Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything herein to the contrary, no Additional Amounts or other amounts due under this Section 4.17 shall be paid in cash on Series B Securities until after all such amounts due under this Section 4.17 on Series A Securities shall have been paid in full.

Section 4.18 [Reserved].

Section 4.19 [Reserved].

Section 4.20 Changes to Fiscal Calendar. Without the prior written consent of the Holders of the majority in aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Securities, the Company will not, and will not permit any Subsidiary to, change its fiscal year or method for determining its fiscal quarters or fiscal months.

Section 4.21 Notices of Material Events. The Company will furnish to the Trustee and each Holder prompt written notice after any Officer of the Company obtains knowledge of any of the following:

(a) the occurrence of any Default;

(b) the occurrence of any other event which could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on the security interests created by the Securities Documents for the benefit of the Securities Collateral Agent or on the aggregate value of the Collateral; and

(c) any notice received by any Securities Party or any Subsidiary (or any of their representatives) alleging any Securities Party's or any Subsidiary's failure to perform any of its obligations under any Plan Document.

Each notice delivered under this Section 4.21 shall be accompanied by a statement of an Officer or other executive officer of the Company setting forth the details of the event or development requiring such notice and any action taken or proposed to be taken with respect thereto.

Section 4.22 Information Regarding Collateral. The Company will furnish to the Trustee prompt written notice of any change (i) in any Securities Party's corporate name, (ii) in the location of any Securities Party's jurisdiction of incorporation or organization, or (iii) in any Securities Party's form of organization. The Company agrees not to effect or permit any change referred to in the preceding sentence unless all filings have been made (or arrangements have been approved by the Trustee, acting reasonably, for such filings to be made) under the Uniform Commercial Code or otherwise that are required in order for the Securities Collateral Agent to continue at all times following such change to have a valid, legal and perfected security interest in all the Collateral for the benefit of the Securities Collateral Agent.

Section 4.23 Existence; Conduct of Business. Except as otherwise permitted by this Indenture, the Company will continue, and will cause each Subsidiary to continue, to engage in business of the same general type as now conducted by the Company and including any related or supplemental business. The Company will, and will cause each of the Subsidiaries to, do or cause to be done all things necessary to preserve, renew and keep in full force and effect its legal existence and the rights, licenses, permits, privileges, and franchises, in each case material to the conduct of its business; provided that the foregoing shall not prohibit any merger, consolidation, liquidation, dissolution or sale of assets permitted under Article V or Section 4.06.

Section 4.24 Maintenance of Properties. The Company will, and will cause each of the Subsidiaries to, keep and maintain all property used in the conduct of its business in good working order and condition, ordinary wear and tear excepted except where failure to do so, individually or in the aggregate could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

Section 4.25 Statement as to Compliance.

The Company will deliver to the Trustee within 120 days after the end of each fiscal year ending after the Issue Date an Officer's certificate stating whether or not to the best knowledge of the signer thereof the Company, to extent required in Section 314(a)(4) of the Trust Indenture Act, is in compliance (without regard to periods of grace or notice requirements) with all conditions and covenants under this Indenture, and if the Company shall not be in compliance, specifying such non-compliance and the nature and status thereof of which such signer may have knowledge.

Section 4.26 Statement by Officers as to Default.

The Company shall deliver to the Trustee, as soon as possible and in any event within 30 days after the Company becomes aware of the occurrence of any Event of Default or an event which, with notice or the lapse of time or both, would constitute an Event of Default, an Officer's Certificate setting forth the details of such Event of Default or default and the action which the Company proposes to take with respect thereto.

Section 4.27 Elixir Rx Distributions.

The Company shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries and EIC to, (i) transfer all proceeds of the Elixir Rx Intercompany Claim and other distributable value at EIC, including the cash proceeds of the 2023 CMS Receivable, to the Elixir Escrow Account maintained with the Elixir Escrow Account Bank in accordance with the Plan of Reorganization and the Plan Confirmation Order within one (1) Business Day after receipt by EIC of any cash proceeds of the 2023 CMS Receivable, (ii) ensure that the Elixir Escrow Account is at all times subject to the Elixir Escrow Agreement, which shall be subject to the consent rights set forth in this Indenture and the Plan of Reorganization, and (iii) cause the Elixir Escrow Account Bank to promptly distribute the proceeds of the Elixir Rx Intercompany Claim and other distributable value at EIC, including the cash proceeds of the 2023 CMS Receivable, in the Elixir Escrow Account in accordance with the Elixir Escrow Agreement and the Elixir Rx Distributions Schedule set forth in the Plan of Reorganization.

The Company shall not, and shall not permit its Subsidiaries or EIC to, consent to any amendments, amendments and restatements, restatements, modifications or waivers to the Elixir Escrow Account, the Elixir Rix Distributions Schedule, or the Elixir Rx Intercompany Claim without the consent of the Trustee (acting at the direction of holders of a majority in principal amount of the Securities).

ARTICLE V

Successor Company

Section 5.01 When Company May Merge or Transfer Assets.

(a) The Company shall not merge, consolidate or amalgamate with or into any other Person or sell, transfer, assign, lease, convey or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all its Property in any one transaction or series of transactions unless:

(i) the Company or the Person formed by or surviving or continuing any such merger consolidation or amalgamation (if other than the Company) or to which such sale, transfer, assignment, lease, conveyance or other disposition will have been made is a corporation, partnership or limited liability company or similar entity organized or existing under the laws of the United States of America, any State thereof or the District of Columbia will be the surviving Person (the "Surviving Person"), provided that, if such other Person is a Subsidiary Guarantor, it shall have no assets that constitute Collateral;

(ii) the Surviving Person (if other than the Company) expressly assumes all the obligations of the Company under this Indenture, the Securities and the relevant Security Documents, as applicable, pursuant to a supplemental indenture or other applicable documents or instruments;

(iii) in the case of a sale, transfer, assignment, lease, conveyance or other disposition of all or substantially all the Property of the Company, such Property shall have been transferred as an entirety or virtually as an entirety to one Person (including its Subsidiaries);

(iv) at the time thereof and immediately after giving effect to such transaction or series of transactions, no Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing; and

(v) the Company shall deliver, or cause to be delivered, to the Trustee, an Officer's Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel, each stating that such transaction and the supplemental indenture, if any, in respect thereto comply with this Section 5.01 and that all conditions precedent herein provided for relating to such transaction have been satisfied.

(b) The Company shall not permit any Subsidiary Guarantor to merge, consolidate or amalgamate with or into any other Person (other than a merger of a Wholly Owned Subsidiary into such Subsidiary Guarantor, or a merger of a Subsidiary Guarantor into the Company or another Subsidiary Guarantor) or sell, transfer, assign, lease, convey or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all its Property in any one transaction or series of transactions unless:

(i) such Subsidiary Guarantor will be the Surviving Person or the Surviving Person (if other than such Subsidiary Guarantor) formed by such merger, consolidation or amalgamation or to which such sale, transfer, assignment, lease, conveyance or disposition is made will be an entity organized and existing under the laws of the United States of America, any State thereof or the District of Columbia;

(ii) the Surviving Person (if other than such Subsidiary Guarantor) expressly assumes, by a Subsidiary Guarantee or a supplement to the Subsidiary Guarantee or a supplemental indenture, executed and delivered to the Trustee by such Surviving Person, the due and punctual performance and observance of all the obligations of such Subsidiary Guarantor under its Subsidiary Guarantee;

(iii) at the time thereof and immediately after giving effect to such transaction or series of transactions, no Default or Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing;

(iv) in the case of a Subsidiary Guarantor that is not a wholly-owned Subsidiary, such transaction or series of transactions shall also be permitted by Section 4.04; and

(v) the Company shall deliver, or cause to be delivered, to the Trustee, an Officer's Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel, each stating that such transaction and such Subsidiary Guarantee, if any, in respect thereto comply with this Section 5.01 and that all conditions precedent herein provided for relating to such transaction have been satisfied.

The foregoing provisions (other than clause (3)) shall not apply to (A) any transactions which do not constitute an Asset Sale if the Subsidiary Guarantor is otherwise being released from its Subsidiary Guarantee at the time of such transaction in accordance with this Indenture and the Securities Collateral Documents or (B) any transactions which constitute an Asset Sale if the Company has complied with Section 4.06 and the Subsidiary Guarantor is released from its Subsidiary Guarantee at the time of such transaction in accordance with this Indenture and the Securities Collateral Documents.

The Surviving Person shall succeed to, and be substituted for, and may exercise every right and power of the Subsidiary Guarantor under the Subsidiary Guarantee and the applicable Subsidiary Guarantor shall be released from its obligations under this Indenture other than in the case of a lease (in which case the predecessor company shall not be released from its obligation to pay the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the Securities). Subject to the foregoing, following the merger, consolidation or amalgamation of any Subsidiary Guarantor or the sale, transfer, assignment, conveyance or other disposition of all or substantially all a Subsidiary Guarantor's Property in any one transaction or series of transactions, all references to the "Subsidiary Guarantor" under the Subsidiary Guarantee shall be deemed to refer to the Surviving Person.

Defaults and Remedies

Section 6.01 Events of Default. The following events shall be "Events of Default":

(a) the Company fails to make the payment of any interest on any of the Securities when the same becomes due and payable, and such failure continues for a period of 30 days;

(b) the Company fails to make the payment of any principal of, or premium, if any, on any of the Securities when the same becomes due and payable at its Maturity Date, or upon acceleration, redemption, optional redemption, required repurchase or otherwise (it being understood that Series B Securities shall not be accelerated, redeemed or otherwise repurchased prior to payment in full of Series A Securities);

(c) the Company fails to comply with Article V;

(d) the Company fails to comply for 30 days after written notice is given by the Trustee or the Holders of not less than 30% in principal amount of the Securities (with a copy to the Trustee) with any covenant or agreement in the Securities or in this Indenture (other than a failure that is the subject of the foregoing clauses (a), (b) or (c));

(e) (i) a default under the ABL Facility by the Company or any Subsidiary that (x) constitutes a payment default, including a failure to pay any Debt under the ABL Facility at final maturity (in each case after giving effect to applicable grace periods) or (y) results in acceleration of the final maturity of the Debt under the ABL Facility, (ii) the Company or any Subsidiary shall fail to make any payment (whether of principal or interest and regardless of amount) in respect of any Material Debt (other than Debt under the ABL Facility), including any obligation to reimburse letter of credit obligations or to post cash collateral with respect thereto, when and as the same shall become due and payable or within any applicable grace period, or (iii) any event or condition occurs that results in any Material Debt (other than Debt under the ABL Facility) becoming due prior to its scheduled maturity or that enables or permits (with or without the giving of notice, the lapse of time or both) the holder or holders of any such Material Debt or any trustee or agent on its or their behalf to cause any Material Debt (other than Debt under the ABL Facility) to become due, or to require the prepayment, repurchase, redemption or defeasance thereof, prior to its scheduled maturity; provided that clauses (e)(ii) and (e)(iii) above shall not apply to any such Material Debt that becomes due as a result of the voluntary sale or transfer of the property or assets securing such Material Debt; provided, further that clauses (e)(i) and (e)(iii) above shall not apply to any mandatory repurchase offer or other mandatory repurchase, redemption or prepayment obligation of the Company that may arise under convertible debt to the extent that the making of such mandatory repurchase by the Company is otherwise permitted under this Indenture;

(f) an involuntary proceeding shall be commenced or an involuntary petition shall be filed seeking (i) liquidation, reorganization or other relief in respect of the Company or any Subsidiary, or of a substantial part of its assets, under any Federal, state or foreign bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership or similar law now or hereafter in effect or (ii) the appointment of a receiver, trustee, custodian, sequestrator, conservator or similar official for the Company or any Subsidiary or for a substantial part of its assets, and, in any such case, such proceeding or petition shall continue undismissed for sixty (60) days or an order or decree approving or ordering any of the foregoing shall be entered;

(g) the Company or any Subsidiary shall (i) voluntarily commence any proceeding or file any petition seeking liquidation, reorganization or other relief under any Federal, state or foreign bankruptcy, insolvency, receivership or similar law now or hereafter in effect, (ii) consent to the institution of, or fail to contest in a timely manner, any proceeding or petition described in Section 6.01(f), (iii) apply for or consent to the appointment of a receiver, trustee, custodian, sequestrator, conservator or similar official for the Company or any Subsidiary or for a substantial part of its assets, (iv) file an answer admitting the material allegations of a petition filed against it in any such proceeding, (v) make a general assignment for the benefit of creditors or (vi) take any action for the purpose of effecting any of the foregoing;

(h) any Subsidiary Guarantee of a Significant Subsidiary ceases to be in full force and effect (other than in accordance with the terms of the Securities Collateral Documents and this Indenture) and such default continues for 20 days after notice as provided below or any Subsidiary Guarantor that is a Significant Subsidiary denies or disaffirms its obligations under its Subsidiary Guarantee (the "guarantee provisions");

(i) one or more judgments for the payment of money in an aggregate amount in excess of $38,500,000 shall be rendered against the Company, any Subsidiary or any combination thereof (to the extent not covered by insurance as to which the insurer has been notified of such judgment or order and has not denied coverage) and the same shall not have been satisfied, vacated, discharged or stayed or bonded pending an appeal for a period of thirty (30) consecutive days, or any action shall be legally taken by a judgment creditor to attach or levy upon any assets of the Company or any Subsidiary to enforce any such judgment;

(j) any ERISA Event shall have occurred that, when taken together with all other ERISA Events that have occurred, has resulted or could reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect;

(k) (i) any Lien purported to be created under any Securities Collateral Document shall cease to be a valid and perfected Lien on any material portion of the Collateral, with the priority required by the Securities or the Company or any Subsidiary shall so assert in writing, except as a result of the sale or other disposition of the applicable Collateral in a transaction permitted under the Securities Collateral Documents and except to the extent that any such loss of perfection or priority is not required pursuant to the terms of the Securities Collateral Documents or results from the failure of the Securities Collateral Agent to maintain possession of Collateral actually delivered to it and pledged under the Securities Collateral Documents, or (ii) any Securities Collateral Document shall become invalid, or the Company or any Subsidiary shall so assert in writing; and

(l) the Company fails to make a Change of Control Offer in accordance with Section 4.12 or the Company completes a Change of Control Offer with respect to fewer than all Securities then outstanding.

The foregoing will constitute Events of Default whatever the reason for any such Event of Default and whether it is voluntary or involuntary or is effected by operation of law or pursuant to any judgment, decree or order of any court or any order, rule or regulation of any administrative or governmental body.

A Default under clause (d), (h), (j) or (k) of this Section 6.01 is not an Event of Default until the Trustee notifies the Company of such Default or the Holders of not less than 30% in aggregate principal amount of the Securities then outstanding notify the Company and the Trustee of the Default and the Company does not cure such Default within the time specified after receipt of such notice; provided that a notice of Default may not be given with respect to any action taken, and reported publicly or to holders, more than two years prior to such notice of Default. Such notice must specify the Default, demand that it be remedied and state that such notice is a "notice of Default".

The Company shall deliver to the Trustee, within 30 days after it becomes aware of the occurrence thereof, written notice in the form of an Officer's Certificate of any event that with the giving of notice or the lapse of time would become an Event of Default, its status and what action the Company is taking or proposes to take with respect thereto.

Section 6.02 Acceleration. If an Event of Default with respect to the Securities (other than an Event of Default specified in Section 6.01(f) or Section 6.01(g) with respect to the Company) shall have occurred and be continuing, the Trustee by notice to the Company, or the Holders of not less than 30% in aggregate principal amount of the Securities then outstanding by notice to the Company and the Trustee, may declare to be immediately due and payable an amount equal to 100% of the principal amount of the Securities then outstanding, plus the Applicable Premium as of, and accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to, but not including, the date of such payment. Upon such a declaration, such principal, premium and interest shall be due and payable immediately. If an Event of Default specified in Section 6.01(f) or Section 6.01(g) with respect to the Company occurs, the principal of and premium (including the Applicable Premium) and accrued and unpaid interest on all the Securities shall, automatically and without any action by the Trustee or any Holder, become and be immediately due and payable. The Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the outstanding Securities by notice to the Trustee and the Company may rescind and annul such declaration of acceleration if the rescission would not conflict with any judgment or decree and if all existing Events of Default have been cured or waived except nonpayment of principal, premium, if any, or interest that has become due solely because of the acceleration. No such rescission shall affect any subsequent Default or impair any right consequent thereto.

Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, in the event an Applicable Premium Event occurs, the amount that becomes due and payable upon such Applicable Premium Event shall include the Applicable Premium. In any such case, the Applicable Premium shall constitute part of the obligations payable by the Company (and guaranteed by the Subsidiary Guarantors) in respect of the Securities, which obligations are secured by the Collateral, and constitutes liquidated damages, not unmatured interest or a penalty, as the actual amount of damages to the holders as a result of the relevant Applicable Premium Event would be impracticable and extremely difficult to ascertain. Accordingly, the Applicable Premium is provided by mutual agreement of the Company and the Subsidiary Guarantors and the Holders as a reasonable estimation and calculation of such actual lost profits and other actual damages of such holders. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, it is understood and agreed that upon the occurrence of any Applicable Premium Event, the Applicable Premium shall be automatically and immediately due and payable as though any Securities subject to such Applicable Premium Event were voluntarily prepaid as of such date and shall constitute part of the obligations payable by the Company (and guaranteed by the Subsidiary Guarantors) in respect of the Securities, which obligations are secured by the Collateral. The Applicable Premium shall also be automatically and immediately due and payable if the Securities are satisfied, released or discharged by foreclosure (whether by power of judicial proceeding or otherwise), deed in lieu of foreclosure or by any other means. THE COMPANY AND THE SUBSIDIARY GUARANTORS HEREBY EXPRESSLY WAIVE (TO THE FULLEST EXTENT THEY MAY LAWFULLY DO SO) THE PROVISIONS OF ANY PRESENT OR FUTURE STATUTE OR OTHER LAW THAT PROHIBITS OR MAY PROHIBIT THE COLLECTION OF THE FOREGOING APPLICABLE PREMIUM IN CONNECTION WITH ANY SUCH EVENTS, ANY RESCISSION OF SUCH ACCELERATION OR THE COMMENCEMENT OF ANY BANKRUPTCY OR INSOLVENCY EVENT. The Company and the Subsidiary Guarantors expressly agree (to the fullest extent it and they may lawfully do so) that with respect to the Applicable Premium payable under the terms of this Indenture: (i) the Applicable Premium is reasonable and is the product of an arm's length transaction between sophisticated business parties, ably represented by counsel; (ii) the Applicable Premium shall be payable notwithstanding the then-prevailing market rates at the time payment is made; (iii) there has been a course of conduct between the Holders and the Company and the Subsidiary Guarantors giving specific consideration in this transaction for such agreement to pay the Applicable Premium; and (iv) the Company and the Subsidiary Guarantors shall be estopped hereafter from claiming differently than as agreed to in this paragraph. The Company and the Subsidiary Guarantors expressly acknowledge that their agreement to pay the Applicable Premium as herein described is a material inducement to the Holders to purchase the Securities. Nothing in this paragraph is intended to limit, restrict, or condition any of the Company's or the Subsidiary Guarantors' obligations or any of the Holders' rights or remedies hereunder.

Section 6.03 Other Remedies. Subject in all cases to the terms of the Intercreditor Agreements, if an Event of Default occurs and is continuing, the Trustee may pursue any available remedy to collect the payment of principal of, premium, if any, or interest on the Securities or to enforce the performance of any provision of the Securities or this Indenture.

The Trustee may maintain a proceeding even if it does not possess any of the Securities or does not produce any of them in the proceeding. A delay or omission by the Trustee or any Holder in exercising any right or remedy accruing upon an Event of Default shall not impair the right or remedy or constitute a waiver of or acquiescence in the Event of Default. No remedy is exclusive of any other remedy. All available remedies are cumulative and are subject in all cases to the terms of the Intercreditor Agreements.

Section 6.04 Waiver of Past Defaults. The Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Securities then outstanding by notice to the Trustee may waive an existing Default and its consequences except a Default in the payment of the principal of, premium, if any, or interest on a Security unless any such principal, premium or interest has been paid to all Holders in full. When a Default is waived, it is deemed cured, but no such waiver shall extend to any subsequent or other Default or impair any consequent right.

Section 6.05 Control by Majority. The Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Securities then outstanding may direct the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee or of exercising any trust or power conferred on the Trustee with respect to the Securities. However, the Trustee may refuse to follow any direction that conflicts with law or this Indenture or, subject to Section 7.01, that the Trustee determines is unduly prejudicial to the rights of other Holders (it being understood that the Trustee does not have an affirmative duty to ascertain whether or not such actions or forbearances are unduly prejudicial to such holders) or would involve the Trustee in personal liability; provided, however, that the Trustee may take any other action deemed proper by the Trustee that is not inconsistent with such direction. Prior to taking any action or following any direction hereunder, the Trustee shall be entitled to indemnification or security reasonably satisfactory to it against all losses and expenses caused by taking or not taking such action.

Section 6.06 Limitation on Suits. A Holder may not pursue any remedy with respect to this Indenture or the Securities unless:

(1) such Holder shall have previously given to the Trustee written notice of a continuing Event of Default;

(2) the Holders of at least 30% in aggregate principal amount of the Securities then outstanding shall have made a written request, and such Holder or Holders shall have offered and, if requested, provided, indemnity reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee to pursue a remedy;

(3) the Trustee has failed to institute such proceeding and has not received from the Holders of at least a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Securities outstanding a direction inconsistent with such request, within 60 days after such notice, request and offer; and

(4) such action is permitted under the Intercreditor Agreements.

The foregoing limitations on the pursuit of remedies by a Holder shall not apply to a suit instituted by a Holder for the enforcement of payment of the principal of and premium, if any, or interest payable with respect to such Security on or after the applicable due date specified in such Security.

Section 6.07 Rights of Holders to Receive Payment. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Indenture, subject to the Intercreditor Agreements, the right of any Holder to receive payment of principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the Securities held by such Holder, on or after the respective due dates expressed or provided for in the Securities, or to bring suit for the enforcement of any such payment on or after such respective dates, shall not be impaired or affected without the consent of such Holder.

Section 6.08 Collection Suit by Trustee. Subject in all cases to the terms of the Intercreditor Agreements, if an Event of Default specified in Section 6.01(a) or Section 6.01(b) occurs and is continuing, the Trustee may recover judgment in its own name and as trustee of an express trust against the Company for the whole amount then due and owing (together with interest on any unpaid interest to the extent lawful) and the amounts provided for in Section 7.07.

Section 6.09 Trustee May File Proofs of Claim. The Trustee may file such proofs of claim and other papers or documents as may be necessary or advisable in order to have the claims of the Trustee and the Holders allowed in any judicial proceedings relative to the Company, its creditors or its property and, any receiver, trustee, assignee, liquidator, custodian or similar official under any Bankruptcy Law in any such judicial proceeding is hereby authorized by each Holder to make payments to the Trustee and, in the event that the Trustee shall consent to the making of such payments directly to the Holders (it being understood it shall be under no obligation to do so), to pay to the Trustee any amount due it for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee, its agents and its counsel, and any other amounts due the Trustee under Section 7.07. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to authorize the Trustee to authorize or consent to, or, on behalf of any Holder, to authorize, accept or adopt any plan of reorganization, arrangement, adjustment or composition affecting the Securities of the applicable series or the rights of any Holder thereof, or to authorize the Trustee to vote in respect of the claim of any Holder in any such proceeding.

Section 6.10 Priorities. If the Trustee collects any money or property pursuant to this Article VI, subject to the terms of the Intercreditor Agreements, it shall pay out the money or property in the following order:

FIRST: to the Trustee and the Securities Collateral Agent for amounts due to each under Section 7.07;

SECOND: to Holders of Series A Securities for amounts due and unpaid on the Series A Securities for principal, premium, if any, and interest, ratably, without preference or priority of any kind, according to the amounts due and payable on the Series A Securities for principal, premium, if any, and interest, respectively;

THIRD: to Holders of Series B Securities for amounts due and unpaid on the Series B Securities for principal, premium, if any, and interest, ratably, without preference or priority of any kind, according to the amounts due and payable on the Series B Securities for principal, premium, if any, and interest, respectively; and FOURTH: to the Company or as a court of competent jurisdiction shall direct in writing.

The Trustee may fix a record date and payment date for any payment to Holders pursuant to this Section 6.10. At least 15 days before such record date, the Company shall mail to each Holder and the Trustee a notice that states the record date, the payment date and amount to be paid.

Section 6.11 Undertaking for Costs. In any suit for the enforcement of any right or remedy under this Indenture or in any suit against the Trustee for any action taken or omitted by it as Trustee, a court in its discretion may require the filing by any party litigant in the suit of an undertaking to pay the costs of the suit, and the court in its discretion may assess reasonable costs, including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses, against any party litigant in the suit, having due regard to the merits and good faith of the claims or defenses made by the party litigant. This Section 6.11 does not apply to a suit by the Trustee, a suit by a Holder pursuant to Section 6.07 or a suit by Holders of more than 10% in aggregate principal amount of the Securities.

Section 6.12 Waiver of Stay or Extension Laws. The Company (to the extent it may lawfully do so) shall not at any time insist upon, or plead, or in any manner whatsoever claim or take the benefit or advantage of, any stay or extension law wherever enacted, now or at any time hereafter in force, that may affect the covenants or the performance of this Indenture; and the Company (to the extent that it may lawfully do so) hereby expressly waives all benefit or advantage of any such law, and shall not hinder, delay or impede the execution of any power herein granted to the Trustee, but shall suffer and permit the execution of every such power as though no such law had been enacted.

ARTICLE VII

Section 7.01 Duties of Trustee.

(a) If an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, and subject in all cases to the terms of the Intercreditor Agreements, the Trustee shall exercise the rights and powers vested in it by this Indenture and use the same degree of care and skill in their exercise as a prudent Person would exercise or use under the circumstances in the conduct of such Person's own affairs.

(b) Except during the continuance of an Event of Default:

(1) the Trustee undertakes to perform such duties and only such duties as are specifically set forth in this Indenture, and no implied covenants or obligations shall be read into this Indenture against the Trustee; and

(2) in the absence of bad faith on its part, the Trustee may conclusively rely, as to the truth of the statements and the correctness of the opinions expressed therein, upon certificates or opinions furnished to the Trustee and conforming to the requirements of this Indenture. However, in the case of certificates or opinions specifically required by any provision hereof to be furnished to it, the Trustee shall examine the certificates and opinions to determine whether or not they conform to the requirements of this Indenture (but need not confirm or investigate the accuracy of mathematical calculations stated therein).

(c) The Trustee may not be relieved from liability for its own negligent action, its own negligent failure to act or its own willful misconduct, except that:

(1) this paragraph does not limit the effect of paragraph (b) of this Section 7.01;

(2) the Trustee shall not be liable for any error of judgment made in good faith by a Trust Officer unless it is proved that the Trustee was negligent in ascertaining the pertinent facts; and

(3) the Trustee shall not be liable with respect to any action it takes or omits to take in good faith in accordance with a direction received by it pursuant to Section 6.05.

(d) Every provision of this Indenture that in any way relates to the Trustee is subject to paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of this Section 7.01 and the provisions of the Trust Indenture Act.

(e) The Trustee shall not be liable for interest on any money received by it except as the Trustee may agree in writing with the Company.

(f) Money held in trust by the Trustee need not be segregated from other funds except to the extent required by law.

(g) No provision of this Indenture shall require the Trustee to expend or risk its own funds or otherwise incur financial liability in the performance of any of its duties hereunder or in the exercise of any of its rights or powers.

(h) Every provision of this Indenture relating to the conduct or affecting the liability of or affording protection to the Trustee shall be subject to the provisions of this Section, and the provisions of this Article

VII (except Section 7.01(a) and the lead-in to Section 7.01(b)) shall apply to the Trustee in its role as Registrar, Paying Agent and Securities Custodian.

(i) The Trustee shall not be deemed to have notice of a Default or an Event of Default unless (a) a Trust Officer of the Trustee has received written notice thereof from the Company or any Holder and such notice references the Securities and this Indenture.

(j) The Trustee and the Securities Collateral Agent are authorized to, and shall enter into the Intercreditor Agreements and bind the Holders to the Intercreditor Agreements (it being understood and agree that the Trustee, the Securities Collateral Agent and each of the Holders, and their respective successors and assigns, shall be subject to, and comply with, all terms and conditions of the Intercreditor Agreements).

Section 7.02 Rights of Trustee.

(a) The Trustee may conclusively rely on any document believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper person. The Trustee need not investigate any fact or matter stated in the document. The Trustee may, however, in its discretion make such further inquiry or investigation into such facts or matters as it may see fit and, if the Trustee shall determine to make such further inquiry or investigation, it shall be entitled to examine the books, records and premises of the Company, personally or by agent or attorney at the expense of the Company and shall incur no liability by reason of such inquiry or investigation.

(b) Before the Trustee acts or refrains from acting, it may require an Officer's Certificate or an Opinion of Counsel. The Trustee shall not be liable for any action it takes or omits to take in good faith in reliance on the Officer's Certificate or Opinion of Counsel.

(c) The Trustee may act through agents and shall not be responsible for the misconduct or negligence of any agent appointed with due care.

(d) The Trustee shall not be liable for any action it takes or omits to take in good faith that it believes to be authorized or within its rights or powers; provided, however, that, subject to paragraph (b) of Section 7.01, the Trustee's conduct does not constitute willful misconduct or negligence.

(e) The Trustee may consult with counsel of its selection, and the advice or opinion of counsel with respect to legal matters relating to this Indenture and the Securities shall be full and complete authorization and protection from liability in respect to any action taken, omitted or suffered by it hereunder in good faith and in accordance with the advice or opinion of such counsel.

(f) The permissive rights of the Trustee to do things enumerated in this Indenture shall not be construed as a duty unless so specified herein.

(g) The Trustee shall be under no obligation to exercise any of the rights or powers vested in it by this Indenture at the request or direction of any of the Holders pursuant to this Indenture, unless such Holders shall have offered to the Trustee security or indemnity reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee against the costs, expenses and liabilities which might be incurred by it in compliance with such request or direction.

(h) The rights, privileges, protections, immunities and benefits given to the Trustee, including, without limitation, its right to be indemnified, are extended to, and shall be enforceable by, the Trustee in each of its capacities hereunder, the Securities Collateral Agent and each agent, custodian and other Person employed to act hereunder.

(i) In no event shall the Trustee be responsible or liable for special, indirect, or consequential loss or damage of any kind whatsoever (including, but not limited to, loss of profit) irrespective of whether the Trustee has been advised of the likelihood of such loss or damage and regardless of the form of action.

(j) The Trustee may request that the Company deliver a certificate setting forth the names of individuals and/or titles of officers authorized at such time to take specified actions pursuant to this Indenture.

Section 7.03 Individual Rights of Trustee. The Trustee in its individual or any other capacity may become the owner or pledgee of Securities and may otherwise deal with the Company or its Affiliates with the same rights it would have if it were not Trustee. Any Paying Agent, Registrar or co-registrar may do the same with like rights. However, the Trustee must comply with Section 7.10.

Section 7.04 Trustee's Disclaimer. The Trustee shall not be responsible for and makes no representation as to the validity, priority or adequacy of this Indenture or the Securities, it shall not be accountable for the Company's use of the proceeds from the Securities, and it shall not be responsible for any statement of the Company in this Indenture or in any document issued in connection with the sale of the Securities or in the Securities other than the Trustee's certificate of authentication.

Section 7.05 Notice of Defaults. If a Default or Event of Default occurs and is continuing and if it is known to the Trustee, the Trustee shall mail to each Holder notice of the Default or Event of Default, in the manner and to the extent provided in the Trust Indenture Act Section 313(c), within 30 days after written notice of it is received by a Trust Officer of the Trustee. Except in the case of a Default or Event of Default in payment of principal of, premium, if any, or interest on any Security, the Trustee may withhold the notice if and so long as a committee of its Trust Officers in good faith determines that withholding the notice is in the interests of Holders.

Section 7.06 Reports by Trustee to Holders of the Notes. Within 60 days after each December 31, beginning with the December 31 following the date of this Indenture, and for so long as Securities remain outstanding, the Trustee shall deliver to the Holders of the Securities a brief report dated as of such reporting date that complies with Trust Indenture Act Section 313(a) (but if no event described in Trust Indenture Act Section 313(a) has occurred within the twelve months preceding the reporting date, no report need be transmitted). The Trustee also shall comply with Trust Indenture Act Section 313(b). The Trustee shall also transmit by mail all reports as required by Trust Indenture Act Section 313(c).

A copy of each report at the time of its delivery to the Holders of Securities shall be delivered to the Company and filed with the Commission and each stock exchange, if any, on which the Securities are listed in accordance with Trust Indenture Act Section 313(d). The Company shall promptly notify the Trustee in writing when, if applicable, the Securities are listed on any stock exchange and of any delisting thereof.

Section 7.07 Compensation and Indemnity. The Company and the Subsidiary Guarantors, jointly and severally, shall pay to the Trustee and the Securities Collateral Agent from time to time reasonable compensation for its services. The Trustee's compensation shall not be limited by any law on compensation of a trustee of an express trust. The Company and the Subsidiary Guarantors, jointly and severally, shall reimburse the Trustee and the Securities Collateral Agent upon request for all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred or made by it, including costs of collection, in addition to the compensation for its services. Such expenses shall include the reasonable compensation and expenses, disbursements and advances of the Trustee's and the Securities Collateral Agent's agents, counsel, accountants and experts. The Company and the Subsidiary Guarantors, jointly and severally, shall indemnify the Trustee and the Securities Collateral Agent against any and all loss, liability, claim, damage or expense (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) incurred by it in connection with the acceptance or administration of this trust and the performance of its duties hereunder. The Trustee shall notify the Company promptly of any claim of which a Trust Officer has received notice for which it may seek indemnity. Failure by the Trustee or the Securities Collateral Agent to so notify the Company shall not relieve the Company of its obligations hereunder unless the Company has been prejudiced thereby. The Company shall defend the claim, and the Trustee and the Securities Collateral Agent may have separate counsel and the Company shall pay the reasonable fees and expenses of such counsel. The Company need not reimburse any expense or indemnify against any loss, liability or expense incurred by (i) the Trustee through the Trustee's own willful misconduct or gross negligence, or (ii) the Securities Collateral Agent through the Securities Collateral Agent's own willful misconduct or gross negligence. The Company need not pay for any settlement made by the Trustee or the Securities Collateral Agent without the Company's consent, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld. All indemnifications and releases from liability granted hereunder to the Trustee and the Securities Collateral Agent shall extend to its officers, directors, employees, agents, successors and assigns.

To secure the Company's payment obligations in this Section 7.07, the Trustee and the Securities Collateral Agent shall have a lien prior to the Securities on all money or property held or collected by the Trustee and the Securities Collateral Agent other than money or property held in trust to pay principal of and interest on particular Securities.

The Company's payment obligations pursuant to this Section 7.07 shall survive the resignation or removal of the Trustee or the Securities Collateral Agent and the discharge or termination of this Indenture. Without prejudice to any other rights available to the Trustee and the Securities Collateral Agent under applicable law, but subject to the terms of the Intercreditor Agreements, when the Trustee or the Securities Collateral Agent incurs expenses after the occurrence of a Default specified in Section 6.01(f) or Section 6.01(g) with respect to the Company, the expenses are intended to constitute expenses of administration under the Bankruptcy Law.

The Trustee shall comply with the provisions of the Trust Indenture Act Section 313(b)(2) to the extent applicable.

Section 7.08 Replacement of Trustee. The Trustee may resign at any time by so notifying the Company. The Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Securities then outstanding may remove the Trustee by so notifying the Trustee and may appoint a successor Trustee; provided that so long as no Default or Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Company shall have the right to consent to the successor Trustee, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld. The Company shall remove the Trustee if:

(1) the Trustee fails to comply with Section 7.10;

(2) the Trustee is adjudged bankrupt or insolvent;

(3) a receiver or other public officer takes charge of the Trustee or its property; or

(4) the Trustee otherwise becomes incapable of acting.

If the Trustee resigns or is removed by the Company or by the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Securities then outstanding, and (in the case of a removal by Holders) such Holders do not reasonably promptly appoint a successor Trustee, or if a vacancy exists in the office of Trustee for any reason (the Trustee in such event being referred to herein as the retiring Trustee), the Company shall promptly appoint a successor Trustee.

A successor Trustee shall deliver a written acceptance of its appointment to the retiring Trustee and to the Company. Thereupon the resignation or removal of the retiring Trustee shall become effective, and the successor Trustee shall have all the rights, powers and duties of the Trustee under this Indenture. The successor Trustee shall cause to be delivered a notice of its succession to Holders. The retiring Trustee shall upon payment of its outstanding fees, expenses and all amounts due it hereunder promptly transfer all property held by it as Trustee to the successor Trustee, subject to the lien provided for in Section 7.07.

If a successor Trustee does not take office within 60 days after the retiring Trustee resigns or is removed, the retiring Trustee or the Holders of 10% in aggregate principal amount of the Securities then outstanding may petition at the expense of the Company any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Trustee.

If the Trustee fails to comply with Section 7.10, any Holder who has been a bona fide Holder of a Security for at least six months may petition at the expense of the Company any court of competent jurisdiction for the removal of the Trustee and the appointment of a successor Trustee.

Notwithstanding the replacement of the Trustee pursuant to this Section 7.08, the Company's obligations under Section 7.07 shall continue for the benefit of the retiring Trustee.

Section 7.09 Successor Trustee by Merger. If the Trustee consolidates with, merges or converts into, or transfers all or substantially all its corporate trust business or assets to, another corporation or banking association, the resulting, surviving or transferee corporation or banking association without any further act shall be the successor Trustee.

In case at the time such successor or successors by merger, conversion or consolidation to the Trustee shall succeed to the trusts created by this Indenture any of the Securities shall have been authenticated but not delivered, any such successor to the Trustee may adopt the certificate of authentication of any predecessor trustee, and deliver such Securities so authenticated; and in case at that time any of the Securities shall not have been authenticated, any such successor to the Trustee may authenticate such Securities either in the name of any predecessor hereunder or in the name of the successor to the Trustee; and in all such cases such certificates shall have the full force which it is anywhere in the Securities or in this Indenture provided that the certificate of the Trustee shall have.

Section 7.10 Eligibility; Disqualification. There shall at all times be a Trustee hereunder that is a corporation or national banking association organized and doing business under the laws of the United States or of any state thereof that is authorized under such laws to exercise corporate trustee power, that is subject to supervision or examination by federal or state authorities and that has a combined capital and surplus of at least $50.0 million as set forth in its most recent published annual report of condition.

This Indenture shall always have a Trustee who satisfies the requirements of Trust Indenture Act Sections 310(a)(1), (2) and (5). The Trustee is subject to Trust Indenture Act Section 310(b).

Section 7.11 Preferential Collection of Claims Against the Company. The Trustee is subject to Trust Indenture Act Section 311(a), excluding any creditor relationship listed in Trust Indenture Act Section 311(b). A Trustee who has resigned or been removed shall be subject to Trust Indenture Act Section 311(a) to the extent indicated therein.

Section 7.12 Limitation on Duty of Trustee in Respect of Collateral; Indemnification.

(a) Beyond the exercise of reasonable care in the custody thereof, the Trustee shall have no duty as to any Collateral in its possession or control or in the possession or control of any agent or bailee or any income thereon or as to preservation of rights against prior parties or any other rights pertaining thereto and the Trustee shall not be responsible for filing any financing or continuation statements or recording any documents or instruments in any public office at any time or times or otherwise perfecting or maintaining the perfection of any security interest in the Collateral. The Trustee shall be deemed to have exercised reasonable care in the custody of the Collateral in its possession if the Collateral is accorded treatment substantially equal to that which it accords its own property and shall not be liable or responsible for any loss or diminution in the value of any of the Collateral, by reason of the act or omission of any carrier, forwarding agency or other agent or bailee selected by the Trustee in good faith.

(b) The Trustee shall not be responsible for the existence, genuineness or value of any of the Collateral or for the validity, perfection, priority or enforceability of the Liens in any of the Collateral, whether impaired by operation of law or by reason of any action or omission to act on its part hereunder, for the validity or sufficiency of the Collateral or any agreement or assignment contained therein, for the validity of the title of the Company to the Collateral, for insuring the Collateral or for the payment of taxes, charges, assessments or Liens upon the Collateral or otherwise as to the maintenance of the Collateral. Subject to Section 7.01of this Indenture, the Trustee shall have no duty to ascertain or inquire as to the performance or observance of any of the terms of this Indenture, the Intercreditor Agreements or any other Security Document by the Company, the Subsidiary Guarantors or the Securities Collateral Agent. The Trustee may act and rely and shall be protected in acting and relying in good faith on the opinion or advice of or information obtained from any counsel, accountant, appraiser or other expert or adviser, whether retained or employed by the Company or by the Trustee, in relation to any matter arising in the administration of this Indenture or the Security Documents.

Discharge of Indenture; Defeasance

Section 8.01 Discharge of Liability on Securities; Defeasance.

(a) When (i) the Company delivers to the Trustee all outstanding Securities (other than Securities replaced pursuant to Section 2.08 or Securities for whose payment money has theretofore been deposited in trust and thereafter repaid to the Company as provided in the second paragraph of Section 8.04) for cancelation or (ii) all outstanding Securities have become due and payable, whether at maturity or as a result of the delivery of a notice of redemption pursuant to Article III, or will become due and payable within one year or are to be called for redemption within one year under arrangements satisfactory to the Trustee, and the Company irrevocably deposits with the Trustee funds (comprised of cash to be held uninvested and/or U.S. Government Obligations) sufficient to pay at maturity or upon redemption all outstanding Securities, including interest thereon to maturity or such redemption date (other than Securities replaced pursuant to Section 2.08), and if in either case the Company pays all other sums payable hereunder by the Company, then this Indenture shall, subject to Section 8.01(c), cease to be of further effect. The Trustee shall acknowledge satisfaction and discharge of this Indenture on demand of the Company accompanied by an Officer's Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel and at the cost and expense of the Company.

(b) Subject to Section 8.01(c) and Section 8.02, the Company at any time may terminate (i) all of its obligations under the Securities and this Indenture ("legal defeasance option") or (ii) its obligations under Section 4.02, Section 4.03, Section 4.04, Section 4.05, Section 4.06, Section 4.07, Section 4.08, Section 4.09, Section 4.10, Section 4.11, Section 4.12, Section 4.13, Section 4.14, Section 4.15, Section 4.17, Section 4.20, Section 4.21, Section 4.22, Section 4.24, Section 4.27 and the operation of Section 6.01(e), Section 6.01(f), Section 6.01(g), Section 6.01(h), Section 6.01(i), Section 6.01(j), Section 6.01(k) and Section 6.01(l) (but, in the case of Section 6.01(f) and Section 6.01(g), with respect only to Subsidiaries) and the limitations contained in clauses (ii) through (iv) of Section 5.01(a) and Section 5.01(b) ("covenant defeasance option"). The Company may exercise its legal defeasance option notwithstanding its prior exercise of its covenant defeasance option.

If the Company exercises its legal defeasance option, payment of the Securities may not be accelerated because of an Event of Default. If the Company exercises its covenant defeasance option, payment of the Securities may not be accelerated because of an Event of Default specified in Section 6.01(e), Section 6.01(f), Section 6.01(g), Section 6.01(h), Section 6.01(i), Section 6.01(j), Section 6.01(k) and Section 6.01(l) (but, in the case of Section 6.01(f) and Section 6.01(g), with respect only to Subsidiaries) or because of the failure of the Company to comply with the limitations contained in clauses (ii) through (iv) of Section 5.01(a) and Section 5.01(b). If the Company exercises its legal defeasance option or its covenant defeasance option, the Liens, as they pertain to the Securities, will be released and each Subsidiary Guarantor will be released from all its obligations under its Subsidiary Guarantee, as it pertains to the Securities.

Upon satisfaction of the conditions set forth herein and upon written request of the Company, the Trustee shall acknowledge in writing the discharge of those obligations that the Company terminates.

(c) Notwithstanding clauses (a) and (b) above, the Company's obligations in Section 2.04, Section 2.05, Section 2.06, Section 2.07, Section 2.08, Article VII, Section 8.05 and Section 8.06 shall survive until the Securities have been paid in full. Thereafter, the Company's obligations in Section 7.07 and Section 8.05 shall survive such satisfaction and discharge.

Section 8.02 Conditions to Defeasance. The Company may exercise its legal defeasance option or its covenant defeasance option only if:

(a) the Company irrevocably deposits in trust with the Trustee money or U.S. Government Obligations, which through the scheduled payments of principal and interest thereon will provide funds in an amount sufficient, or a combination thereof sufficient (without any reinvestment of the income therefrom) to pay the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the Securities to maturity or redemption, as the case may be, and the Company shall have specified whether the Securities are being defeased to maturity or to a particular Redemption Date;

(b) the Company delivers to the Trustee a certificate from a nationally recognized firm of independent certified public accountants expressing their opinion that the payments of principal and interest when due and without reinvestment on the deposited U.S. Government Obligations plus any deposited money without investment will provide cash at such times and in such amounts as will be sufficient to pay principal, premium, if any, and interest when due on all the Securities to maturity or redemption, as the case may be;

(c) the Company shall have delivered to the Trustee an Opinion of Counsel to the effect that, as of the date of such opinion and subject to customary assumptions and exclusions following the deposit, the trust funds will not be subject to the effect of Section 547 of Title 11 of the United States Code;

(d) no Default or Event of Default has occurred and is continuing on the date of such deposit and after giving effect thereto (other than any Default or Event of Default resulting from the borrowing of funds (and granting of related Liens) to fund the deposit);

(e) such deposit does not constitute a default under any other agreement or instrument binding on the Company;

(f) in the case of the legal defeasance option, the Company shall have delivered to the Trustee an Opinion of Counsel stating that

(i) the Company has received from the Internal Revenue Service a ruling; or

(ii) since the date of this Indenture there has been a change in the applicable Federal income tax law, to the effect, in either case, that, and based thereon such Opinion of Counsel shall confirm that, the Holders will not recognize income, gain or loss for Federal income tax purposes as a result of such defeasance and will be subject to Federal income tax on the same amounts, in the same manner and at the same times as would have been the case if such defeasance had not occurred;

(g) in the case of the covenant defeasance option, the Company shall have delivered to the Trustee an Opinion of Counsel to the effect that the Holders will not recognize income, gain or loss for Federal income tax purposes as a result of such covenant defeasance and will be subject to Federal income tax on the same amounts, in the same manner and at the same times as would have been the case if such covenant defeasance had not occurred; and

(h) the Company delivers to the Trustee an Officer's Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel, each stating that all conditions precedent to the defeasance and discharge of the Securities as contemplated by this Article VIII have been complied with.

Before or after a deposit, the Company may make arrangements satisfactory to the Trustee for the redemption of Securities at a future date in accordance with Article III.

Section 8.03 Application of Trust Money. The Trustee shall hold in trust money or U.S. Government Obligations deposited with it pursuant to this Article VIII. It shall apply the deposited money and the money from U.S. Government Obligations through the Paying Agent and in accordance with this Indenture to the payment of principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the Securities.

Section 8.04 Repayment to Company. The Trustee and the Paying Agent shall promptly turn over to the Company upon request any excess money or securities held by them at any time.

Subject to any applicable abandoned property law, the Trustee and the Paying Agent shall pay to the Company upon request any money held by them for the payment of principal, premium, if any, or interest that remains unclaimed for two years, and, thereafter, Holders entitled to the money must look to the Company for payment as general creditors and all liability of the Trustee or such Paying Agent with respect to such money shall thereupon cease.

Section 8.05 Indemnity for Government Obligations. The Company shall pay and shall indemnify the Trustee against any tax, fee or other charge imposed on or assessed against deposited U.S. Government Obligations or the principal and interest received on such U.S. Government Obligations.

Section 8.06 Reinstatement. If the Trustee or Paying Agent is unable to apply any money or U.S. Government Obligations in accordance with this Article VIII by reason of any legal proceeding or by reason of any order or judgment of any court or governmental authority enjoining, restraining or otherwise prohibiting such application, the Company's obligations under this Indenture and the Securities shall be revived and reinstated as though no deposit had occurred pursuant to this Article VIII until such time as the Trustee or Paying Agent is permitted to apply all such money or U.S. Government Obligations in accordance with this Article VIII; provided, however, that, if the Company has made any payment of interest on or principal of any Securities because of the reinstatement of its obligations, the Company shall be subrogated to the rights of the Holders of such Securities to receive such payment from the money or U.S. Government Obligations held by the Trustee or Paying Agent.

Amendments

Section 9.01 Without Consent of Holders. Without the consent of any Holders, the Company, the Subsidiary Guarantors and the Trustee may amend this Indenture, the Securities and, subject to any other consent required under the terms of the applicable Securities Collateral Documents, such Securities Collateral Documents, in each case without notice to:

(a) cure any ambiguity, omission, defect or inconsistency identified in an Officer's Certificate of the Company, which states that such cure is a good faith attempt by the Company to reflect the intention of the parties to this Indenture, delivered to the Trustee and the Securities Collateral Agent;

(b) provide for the assumption by a successor company of the obligations of the Company or any Subsidiary Guarantor under this Indenture, the Securities or any Securities Collateral Documents under and in accordance with this Indenture, the Securities or any Securities Collateral Document, as the case may be;

(n) to provide for the accession of any parties to the Securities Documents or the Intercreditor Agreements, as applicable (and other amendments to such documents that in either case are administrative or ministerial in nature) in connection with an incurrence of additional Debt to the extent permitted by the Securities Documents.

After an amendment under this Section 9.01 becomes effective, the Company shall deliver to Holders a notice briefly describing such amendment. The failure to give such notice to all Holders, or any defect therein, shall not impair or affect the validity of an amendment under this Section 9.01.

Section 9.02 With Consent of Holders. (a) The Company, when authorized by a Board Resolution, the Subsidiary Guarantors and the Trustee may amend this Indenture, the Securities or, subject to any other consent required under the terms of the applicable Securities Collateral Documents, such Securities Collateral Documents, waive any past default or compliance with any provisions (except, in the case of this Indenture, as provided in Section 6.04) and the Subsidiary Guarantee provided by a Subsidiary Guarantors may be released, with the consent of the Holders of at least a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Securities then outstanding (including consents obtained in connection with a tender offer or exchange offer for the Securities). However, without the consent of each Holder affected thereby, an amendment may not:

(i) amend this Indenture to reduce the amount of Securities whose Holders are required to consent to an amendment, modification, supplement or waiver;

(ii) amend this Indenture to reduce the rate of or extend the time for payment of interest or Applicable Premium on any Security;

(iii) amend this Indenture to reduce the principal of or extend the Stated Maturity of any Security, except as provided in Section 9.01(g);

(vi) amend this Indenture or any Subsidiary Guarantee to subordinate the Securities or any Subsidiary Guarantee to any other obligation of the Company or the applicable Subsidiary Guarantor (except as set forth in the Intercreditor Agreements);

(vii) amend this Indenture to reduce the premium payable upon the redemption of any Security or change the time (other than amendments related to notice provisions) at which any Security may be redeemed in accordance with Article III;

(viii) waive a Default in the payment of principal of or premium, if any, or interest on the Securities, except a rescission of acceleration of the Securities by the Holders of at least a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Securities and a waiver of the payment default that resulted from such acceleration;

(ix) at any time after the Company is obligated to make an Asset Sales Prepayment Offer with the Net Available Cash from Asset Sales, amend this Indenture to change the time at which such Asset Sales Prepayment Offer must be made or at which the Securities must be repurchased pursuant thereto;

(xi) make any change in the amendment or waiver provisions of this Indenture that require each Holder's consent, as described in clauses (1) through (10), that is materially adverse to the Holders.

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, without the consent of the Holders of at least 66 2/3% in principal amount of the Securities then outstanding, no amendment, supplement or waiver may release all or substantially all of the Collateral other than in accordance with this Indenture, the Intercreditor Agreements or the Security Documents.

(b) The foregoing Section 9.02(a) will not limit the right of the Company to amend, waive or otherwise modify any Securities Collateral Document in accordance with its terms.

(c) It shall not be necessary for the consent of the Holders under this Section 9.02 to approve the particular form of any proposed amendment, but it shall be sufficient if such consent approves the substance thereof.

(d) Additional Securities will be disregarded for purposes of any amendment or waiver relating to a Default or Event of Default that existed (disregarding any applicable notice, cure or grace periods) prior to the time of issuance of such additional Securities.

After an amendment under this Section 9.02 becomes effective, the Company shall deliver to each Holder at such Holder's address appearing in the Security Register a notice briefly describing such amendment. The failure to give such notice to all Holders, or any defect therein, shall not impair or affect the validity of an amendment under this Section 9.02.

Section 9.03 Compliance with Trust Indenture Act. Every amendment or supplement to this Indenture or the Notes shall be set forth in an amended or supplemental indenture that complies with the Trust Indenture Act as then in effect.

Section 9.04 Revocation and Effect of Consents and Waivers. A consent to an amendment or a waiver by a Holder of a Security shall bind the Holder and every subsequent Holder of that Security or portion of the Security that evidences the same debt as the consenting Holder's Security, even if notation of the consent or waiver is not made on the Security. However, any such Holder or subsequent Holder may revoke the consent or waiver as to such Holder's Security or portion of the Security if the Trustee receives the notice of revocation before the date the amendment or waiver becomes effective. After an amendment or waiver becomes effective, it shall bind every Holder. An amendment or waiver becomes effective upon the execution of such amendment or waiver by the Trustee.

The Company may, but shall not be obligated to, fix a record date for the purpose of determining the Holders entitled to give their consent or take any other action described above or required or permitted to be taken pursuant to this Indenture. If a record date is fixed, then notwithstanding the immediately preceding paragraph, those Persons who were Holders at such record date (or their duly designated proxies), and only those Persons, shall be entitled to give such consent or to revoke any consent previously given or to take any such action, whether or not such Persons continue to be Holders after such record date. No such consent shall be valid or effective for more than 120 days after such record date.

Section 9.05 Notation on or Exchange of Securities. If an amendment changes the terms of a Security, the Trustee may require the Holder of the Security to deliver such Security to the Trustee. The Trustee may place an appropriate notation on the Security regarding the changed terms and return such Security to the Holder. Alternatively, if the Company or the Trustee so determines, the Company in exchange for the Security shall issue and the Trustee shall authenticate a new Security that reflects the changed terms. Failure to make the appropriate notation or to issue a new Security shall not affect the validity of such amendment.

Section 9.06 Trustee To Sign Amendments. The Trustee shall sign any amendment or release authorized pursuant to this Article IX if the amendment or release does not adversely affect the rights, duties, liabilities, indemnities or immunities of the Trustee. If such amendment or release does adversely affect the rights, duties, liabilities, indemnities or immunities of the Trustee, the Trustee may but need not sign it. In signing such amendment or release the Trustee shall be entitled to receive indemnity reasonably satisfactory to it and shall be provided with, and (subject to Section 7.01) shall be fully protected in relying upon, an Officer's Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel stating that such amendment or release is authorized or permitted by this Indenture.

Subsidiary Guarantees

Section 10.01 Subsidiary Guarantees. Each Subsidiary Guarantor hereby unconditionally guarantees, jointly and severally, on a senior secured basis, to each Holder and to the Trustee and its successors and assigns (a) the full and punctual payment of principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the Securities when due, whether at maturity, by acceleration, by redemption or otherwise, and all other monetary obligations of the Company under this Indenture and the Securities and (b) the full and punctual performance within applicable grace periods of all other obligations of the Company under this Indenture and the Securities (all the foregoing being hereinafter collectively called the "Guaranteed Obligations"). Each Subsidiary Guarantor further agrees that the Obligations may be extended or renewed, in whole or in part, without notice or further assent from such Subsidiary Guarantor, and that such Subsidiary Guarantor will remain bound under this Article X notwithstanding any extension or renewal of any Guaranteed Obligation.

Any term or provision of this Indenture to the contrary notwithstanding, the maximum aggregate amount of the obligations guaranteed hereunder by any Subsidiary Guarantor shall not exceed the maximum amount that can be hereby guaranteed without rendering this Indenture, as it relates to such Subsidiary Guarantor, voidable under applicable law relating to fraudulent conveyance or fraudulent transfer or similar laws affecting the rights of creditors generally.

Each Subsidiary Guarantor waives presentation to, demand of, payment from and protest to the Company of any of the Guaranteed Obligations and also waives notice of protest for nonpayment. Each Subsidiary Guarantor waives notice of any default under the Securities or the Guaranteed Obligations. The obligations of each Subsidiary Guarantor hereunder shall not be affected by (a) the failure of any Holder or the Trustee to assert any claim or demand or to enforce any right or remedy against the Company or any other Person under this Indenture, the Securities or any other agreement or otherwise; (b) any extension or renewal of any thereof; (c) any rescission, waiver, amendment or modification of any of the terms or provisions of this Indenture, the Securities or any other agreement; (d) the release of any security held by any Holder or the Trustee for the Guaranteed Obligations or any of them; or (e) the failure of any Holder or the Trustee to exercise any right or remedy against any other guarantor of the Guaranteed Obligations.

Each Subsidiary Guarantor further agrees that its Subsidiary Guarantee herein constitutes a guarantee of payment, performance and compliance when due (and not a guarantee of collection) and waives any right to require that any resort be had by any Holder or the Trustee to any security held for payment of the Guaranteed Obligations.

Except as expressly set forth in Section 5.01(b), Section 8.01(b) and Section 10.06, the obligations of each Subsidiary Guarantor hereunder shall not be subject to any reduction, limitation, impairment or termination for any reason, including any claim of waiver, release, surrender, alteration or compromise, and shall not be subject to any defense of setoff, counterclaim, recoupment or termination whatsoever or by reason of the invalidity, illegality or unenforceability of the Guaranteed Obligations or otherwise. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the obligations of each Subsidiary Guarantor herein shall not be discharged or impaired or otherwise affected by the failure of any Holder or the Trustee to assert any claim or demand or to enforce any remedy under this Indenture, the Securities or any other agreement, by any waiver or modification of any thereof, by any default, failure or delay, willful or otherwise, in the performance of the obligations, or by any other act or thing or omission or delay to do any other act or thing which may or might in any manner or to any extent vary the risk of such Subsidiary Guarantor or would otherwise operate as a discharge of such Subsidiary Guarantor as a matter of law or equity.

Each Subsidiary Guarantor further agrees that its Subsidiary Guarantee herein shall continue to be effective or be reinstated, as the case may be, if at any time payment, or any part thereof, of principal of, premium, if any, or interest on any Guaranteed Obligation is rescinded or must otherwise be restored by any Holder or the Trustee upon the bankruptcy or reorganization of the Company or otherwise.

In furtherance of the foregoing and not in limitation of any other right which any Holder or the Trustee has at law or in equity against any Subsidiary Guarantor by virtue hereof, upon the failure of the Company to pay the principal of, premium, if any, or interest on any Guaranteed Obligation when and as the same shall become due, whether at maturity, by acceleration, by redemption or otherwise, or to perform or comply with any other Guaranteed Obligation, each Subsidiary Guarantor hereby promises to and will, upon receipt of written demand by the Trustee, forthwith pay, or cause to be paid, in cash, to the Holders or the Trustee an amount equal to the sum of (i) the unpaid amount of such Guaranteed Obligations, (ii) accrued and unpaid interest on such Guaranteed Obligations (but only to the extent not prohibited by law) and (iii) all other monetary Guaranteed Obligations of the Company to the Holders and the Trustee.

Each Subsidiary Guarantor agrees that it shall not be entitled to any right of subrogation in respect of any Guaranteed Obligations guaranteed hereby until payment in full in cash of all Guaranteed Obligations. Each Subsidiary Guarantor further agrees that, as between it, on the one hand, and the Holders and the Trustee, on the other hand, (x) the maturity of the Guaranteed Obligations guaranteed hereby may be accelerated as provided in Article VI for the purposes of such Subsidiary Guarantor's Subsidiary Guarantee herein, notwithstanding any stay, injunction or other prohibition preventing such acceleration in respect of the Guaranteed Obligations guaranteed hereby, and (y) in the event of any declaration of acceleration of such Guaranteed Obligations as provided in Article VI, such Guaranteed Obligations (whether or not due and payable) shall forthwith become due and payable by such Subsidiary Guarantor for the purposes of this Section 10.01.

Each Subsidiary Guarantor also agrees to pay any and all costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) incurred by the Trustee or any Holder in enforcing any rights under this Section 10.01.

Section 10.02 Contribution. Each of the Company and any Subsidiary Guarantor (a "Contributing Party") agrees that, in the event a payment shall be made by any other Subsidiary Guarantor under any Subsidiary Guarantee (the "Claiming Guarantor"), the Contributing Party shall indemnify the Claiming Guarantor in an amount equal to the amount of such payment multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the net worth of the Contributing Party on the date hereof and the denominator of which shall be the aggregate net worth of the Company and all the Subsidiary Guarantors on the date hereof (or, in the case of any Subsidiary Guarantor becoming a party hereto after the Issue Date, the date of the supplemental indenture executed and delivered by such Subsidiary Guarantor).

Section 10.03 Successors and Assigns. This Article X shall be binding upon each Subsidiary Guarantor and its successors and assigns and shall inure to the benefit of the successors and assigns of the Trustee and the Holders and, in the event of any transfer or assignment of rights by any Holder or the Trustee, the rights and privileges conferred upon that party in this Indenture and in the Securities shall automatically extend to and be vested in such transferee or assignee, all subject to the terms and conditions of this Indenture.

Section 10.04 No Waiver. Neither a failure nor a delay on the part of either the Trustee or the Holders in exercising any right, power or privilege under this Article X shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall a single or partial exercise thereof preclude any other or further exercise of any right, power or privilege. The rights, remedies and benefits of the Trustee and the Holders herein expressly specified are cumulative and not exclusive of any other rights, remedies or benefits which either may have under this Article X at law, in equity, by statute or otherwise.

Section 10.05 Modification. No modification, amendment or waiver of any provision of this Article X, nor the consent to any departure by any Subsidiary Guarantor therefrom, shall in any event be effective unless the same shall be in writing and signed by the Trustee, and then such waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the purpose for which given. No notice to or demand on any Subsidiary Guarantor in any case shall entitle such Subsidiary Guarantor to any other or further notice or demand in the same, similar or other circumstances.

Section 10.06 Release of Subsidiary Guarantor. A Subsidiary Guarantor will be released from its obligations under this Article X (other than any obligation that may have arisen under Section 10.02):

(1) upon the sale (including any sale pursuant to any exercise of remedies by a holder of Debt of the Company or of such Subsidiary Guarantor), transfer or other disposition (including by way of consolidation or merger) of Equity Interests of such Subsidiary Guarantor; provided, however, that (i) such sale, transfer or other disposition is otherwise permitted by this Indenture, (ii) such Person is no longer a Subsidiary and (iii) the Company provides an Officer's Certificate to the Trustee to the effect that the Company will comply with its obligations under Section 4.06; or

(7) upon the release or discharge of the Guarantee by such Subsidiary Guarantor of indebtedness under the Senior Obligations and each series of debt securities of the Company (which may be simultaneous with the release contemplated hereby), except a discharge or release by or as a result of payment under such Guarantee (it being understood that a release subject to a contingent reinstatement will constitute a release for the purposes of this provision, and that if any such Guarantee is so reinstated, such Subsidiary Guarantee shall also be reinstated to the extent that such Subsidiary Guarantor would then be required to Guarantee the Securities pursuant to Section 4.08).

At the request of the Company, the Trustee shall execute and deliver any documents, instructions, or instruments (in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee) evidencing any such release.

ARTICLE XIII

Collateral

Section 13.01 Appointment and Authority of Securities Collateral Agent. The Trustee hereby irrevocably appoints, and each holder of Securities, by its acceptance thereof, will be deemed to have consented and agreed to the appointment of U.S. Bank Trust Company National Association as the Securities Collateral Agent under the Securities Collateral Documents for purposes of acquiring, holding and enforcing any and all Liens on Collateral granted by any of the Subsidiary Guarantors to secure any of the Securities Obligations, together with such powers and discretion as are reasonably incidental thereto. In acting as Securities Collateral Agent, the Securities Collateral Agent may rely upon and enforce each and all of the rights, powers, immunities, indemnities and benefits of the Trustee under Article VII hereof.

Section 13.02 Authorization of Actions to be Taken. Each holder of Securities, by its acceptance thereof, will be deemed to have consented and agreed to the terms of each Securities Collateral

Document, as originally in effect and as amended, supplemented or replaced from time to time in accordance with its terms or the terms of this Indenture, authorizes and directs the Securities Collateral Agent to enter into the Securities Collateral Documents to which it is a party, and authorizes and empowers the Securities Collateral Agent to bind the holders of Securities and other holders of Securities Obligations as set forth in the Securities Collateral Documents to which they are a party and to perform its obligations and exercise its rights and powers thereunder, including entering into amendments permitted by the terms of this Indenture or the Securities Collateral Documents.

Section 13.03 Authorization of Trustee.

(a) The Trustee is authorized and empowered to receive for the benefit of the Holders of Securities any funds collected or distributed to the Securities Collateral Agent under the Securities Collateral Documents to which the Securities Collateral Agent is a party and, subject to the terms of the Securities Collateral Documents and Intercreditor Agreements, to make further distributions of such funds to the Holders of Securities according to the provisions of this Indenture.

(b) Subject to the Intercreditor Agreements and at the Company's sole cost and expense, the Trustee is authorized and empowered to institute and maintain, or direct the Securities Collateral Agent to institute and maintain, such suits and proceedings as it may deem reasonably expedient to protect or enforce the Liens securing the Securities or the Securities Collateral Documents to which the Securities Collateral Agent or Trustee is a party or to prevent any impairment of Collateral by any acts that may be unlawful or in violation of the Securities Collateral Documents or this Indenture, and such suits and proceedings as the Trustee may deem reasonably expedient, at the Company's sole cost and expense, to preserve or protect its interests and the interests of the Holders of Securities in the Collateral, including the power to institute and maintain suits or proceedings to restrain the enforcement of or compliance with any legislative or other governmental enactment, rule or order that may be unconstitutional or otherwise invalid if the enforcement of, or compliance with, such enactment, rule or order would impair any security interest created or intended to be created by the Securities Collateral Documents or otherwise be prejudicial to the interests of Holders or the Trustee.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, any enforcement of the Subsidiary Guarantees or any remedies with respect to the Collateral under the Securities Collateral Documents is subject to the provisions of the Intercreditor Agreements then in effect.

Section 13.04 Insurance.

(a) For so long as the Securities are secured by Collateral, the Company will, and will cause each of its Subsidiaries to, (i) maintain (either in the name of the Company or in such Subsidiary's own name), with financially sound and reputable insurance companies insurance in such amounts (with no greater risk retention) and against such risks as are customarily maintained by companies of established repute engaged in the same or similar businesses operating in the same or similar locations and (ii) furnish to the Securities Collateral Agent (or any representatives designated thereby), upon the request of the Securities Collateral Agent, information in reasonable detail as to the insurance so maintained.

(b) The Company hereby covenants to use commercially reasonable efforts to cause, prior to the date that is 60 days following the Issue Date (and in any event will cause, within 120 days following the Issue Date), the Securities Collateral Agent to be named (through an endorsement or amendment to the applicable policy) as an additional insured and lender's loss payee on all liability insurance policies of the Company and the Subsidiary Guarantors for which any Senior Agent is named as an additional insured or lender's loss payee, respectively, and, if applicable, mortgagee on all property and casualty insurance policies of the Company and the Subsidiary Guarantors for which such Senior Agent is so named. If at any time there ceases to be any Senior Obligations outstanding, the Company and the Subsidiary Guarantors shall continue to cause the Securities Collateral Agent to be so named as contemplated in this paragraph with respect to any liability, property and casualty insurance policies that insure the Collateral. The Company and the Subsidiary Guarantors shall exercise commercially reasonable efforts to cause the insurance providers of such policies to endeavor to give 30 days' notice to the Securities Collateral Agent of cancellation of all such property and casualty insurance policies of the Company and the Subsidiary Guarantors (or at least 10 days' prior written notice in the case of cancellation of such issuance due to non-payment).

Section 13.05 Replacement of Securities Collateral Agent. The Securities Collateral Agent may resign at any time by so notifying the Company and the Trustee. The Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Securities then outstanding may remove the Securities Collateral Agent by so notifying the Securities Collateral Agent and may appoint a successor Securities Collateral Agent; provided that such successor Securities Collateral Agent is a corporation or national banking association organized and doing business under the laws of the United States or of any state thereof that is subject to supervision or examination by federal or state authorities and that has a combined capital and surplus of at least $50.0 million as set forth in its most recent published annual report of condition, or an Affiliate thereof (an "Eligible Collateral Agent"); provided that so long as no Default or Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Company shall have the right to consent to the successor Securities Collateral Agent, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld. The Company shall remove the Securities Collateral Agent if:

(a) the Securities Collateral Agent fails to be an Eligible Collateral Agent;

(b) the Securities Collateral Agent is adjudged bankrupt or insolvent;

(c) a receiver or other public officer takes charge of the Securities Collateral Agent or its property; or

(d) the Securities Collateral Agent otherwise becomes incapable of acting.

If the Securities Collateral Agent resigns or is removed by the Company or by the Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the Securities then outstanding, and (in the case of a removal by Holders) such Holders do not reasonably promptly appoint a successor Securities Collateral Agent, or if a vacancy exists in the office of Securities Collateral Agent for any reason (the Securities Collateral Agent in such event being referred to herein as the retiring Securities Collateral Agent), the Company shall promptly appoint a successor Securities Collateral Agent.

A successor Securities Collateral Agent shall deliver a written acceptance of its appointment to the retiring Securities Collateral Agent and to the Company. Thereupon the resignation or removal of the retiring Securities Collateral Agent shall become effective, and the successor Securities Collateral Agent shall have all the rights, powers and duties of the Securities Collateral Agent under this Indenture and under the Securities Collateral Documents. The successor Securities Collateral Agent shall cause to be delivered a notice of its succession to Holders. The retiring Securities Collateral Agent shall upon payment of its outstanding fees and expenses hereunder promptly transfer all property held by it as Securities Collateral Agent to the successor Securities Collateral Agent.

If a successor Securities Collateral Agent does not take office within 60 days after the retiring Securities Collateral Agent resigns or is removed, the retiring Securities Collateral Agent or the Holders of 10% in aggregate principal amount of the Securities then outstanding may petition at the expense of the Company any court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Securities Collateral Agent.

If the Securities Collateral Agent fails to be an Eligible Collateral Agent, any Holder who has been a bona fide Holder of a Security for at least six months may petition at the expense of the Company any court of competent jurisdiction for the removal of the Securities Collateral Agent and the appointment of a successor Securities Collateral Agent.

Notwithstanding the replacement of the Securities Collateral Agent pursuant to this Section 13.05, the provisions of this Article shall continue for the benefit of the retiring Securities Collateral Agent.

Section 13.06 Release of Collateral.

(a) Collateral may be released from the Liens and security interests created by the Securities Documents at any time or from time to time in accordance with the provisions of the Securities Documents and the Intercreditor Agreements. In addition, the Company and the Subsidiary Guarantors will be entitled to the release of assets included in the Collateral from the Liens and security interests securing the Securities. Such assets constituting Collateral shall be automatically released without further action by any party, and the Trustee shall (or, if the Trustee is not, then the Securities Collateral Agent, shall direct the Securities Collateral Agent to) affirmatively release the same from such Liens and security interests at the Company's sole cost and expense, under any one or more of the following circumstances without the need for any further action by any Person:

(i) as to any property or assets to enable the Company or the Subsidiary Guarantors to consummate the disposition of such property or assets to the extent not prohibited and otherwise in accordance with Section 4.06; provided, however, that if such property or assets, immediately prior thereto, were subject to any Lien securing any Obligations of the Company or Subsidiary Guarantors and such property or assets continue after such disposition to be subject to a Lien securing any such Obligations, no such release shall occur with respect to such property or assets;

(ii) in the case of the property and assets of a Subsidiary that is a Subsidiary Guarantor, upon the release of such Subsidiary Guarantor from its Subsidiary Guarantee of the Securities;

(iii) if such Collateral is released from the Liens securing the Senior Obligations;

(iv) as described under Article IX of this Indenture.

(b) The security interests in all Collateral securing the Securities also will be released upon payment in full of the principal of, together with accrued and unpaid interest on, the Securities and all other Obligations under this Indenture, the Securities, the Guarantees and the Security Collateral Documents that are due and payable at or prior to the time such principal, together with accrued and unpaid interest are paid, including pursuant to the satisfaction and discharge of the Indenture under Section 8.01 or upon the Company's exercise of a legal defeasance option or covenant defeasance option under this Indenture as described under Article VIII.

Upon the written request of the Company pursuant to an Officer's Certificate and Opinion of Counsel stating that all conditions precedent hereunder and under the Securities Collateral Documents have been met, and upon receipt of any necessary or proper instruments of termination, satisfaction or release prepared by the Company or the Subsidiary Guarantors, as the case may be, the Securities Collateral Agent, without the consent of any Holder or the Trustee and at the expense of the Company or the Subsidiary Guarantors, shall execute, deliver or acknowledge such instruments or releases to evidence the release of any Collateral permitted to be released pursuant to this Indenture or the Securities Collateral Documents.

Section 13.07 Filing, Recording and Opinions.

(a) The Company will comply with the provisions of Sections 314(b) and 314(d) of the Trust Indenture Act, in each case following qualification of this Indenture pursuant to the Trust Indenture Act. Any certificate or opinion required by Section 314(d) of the Trust Indenture Act may be made by an Officer of the Company except in cases where Section 314(d) of the Trust Indenture Act requires that such certificate or opinion be made by an independent engineer, appraiser or other expert, who shall be reasonably satisfactory to the Trustee. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the Company and the Subsidiary Guarantors will not be required to comply with all or any portion of Section 314(d) of the Trust Indenture Act if they determine, in good faith, after consultation with counsel (which may be internal counsel), that under the terms of that section and/or any interpretation or guidance as to the meaning thereof of the Commission and its staff, including "no action" letters or exemptive orders, all or any portion of Section 314(d) of the Trust Indenture Act is inapplicable to the released Collateral. Following such qualification, to the extent the Company is required to furnish to the Trustee an Opinion of Counsel pursuant to Section 314(b)(2) of the Trust Indenture Act, the Company will furnish such opinion not more than 60 but not less than 30 days prior to each December 31, commencing December 31, 2024.

Any release of Collateral permitted by Section 13.06 and this Section 13.07 will be deemed not to impair the Liens under this Indenture and the Security Documents in contravention thereof and any Person that is required to deliver an Officer's Certificate or Opinion of Counsel pursuant to Section 314(d) of the Trust Indenture Act, shall be entitled to rely upon the foregoing as a basis for delivery of such certificate or opinion. The Trustee may, to the extent permitted by Section 7.01 and Section 7.02, accept as conclusive evidence of compliance with the foregoing provisions the appropriate statements contained in such documents and Opinion of Counsel.

(b) If any Collateral is released in accordance with this Indenture or any Security Document at a time when the Trustee is not itself also the Securities Collateral Agent and if the Company has delivered the certificates and documents required by the Security Documents and Section 13.06, the Trustee will deliver all documentation received by it in connection with such release to the Securities Collateral Agent.

3.5 Limitation of GUC Equity Trustee's Authority; No Ongoing Business

Without first obtaining an opinion of counsel to the effect that such action will not, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, cause the GUC Equity Trust to be taxable as other than a "grantor trust" for U.S. federal income tax purposes, the GUC Equity Trust shall not, and neither the GUC

Equity Trust nor anyone acting on behalf of the GUC Equity Trust shall have the power or authority to, cause the GUC Equity Trust to:

(b) The GUC Equity Trustee shall take such actions consistent with the prompt and orderly liquidation of the GUC Equity Trust Assets as required by applicable law and consistent with the treatment of the GUC Equity Trust as a "liquidation trust" pursuant to Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(d) and IRS Revenue Procedure 94-45, 1994-2 C.B. 124 and as a "grantor trust" for federal income tax purposes, pursuant to Sections 671 through 679 of the IRC to the extent such actions are permitted by this Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, any portion of the GUC Equity Pool that has not been liquidated at the time of dissolution of the GUC Equity Trust shall be required to be liquidated and any shares comprising the GUC Equity Pool shall not be distributed to the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiaries.

(c) The GUC Equity Trustee shall not take, or fail to take, any action that would jeopardize treatment of the GUC Equity Trust as a "liquidation trust" and as a "grantor trust" (with the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiaries as the grantors) for federal income tax purposes.

(d) The GUC Equity Trustee shall not have the power to guarantee any debt of other Persons.

3.7 Other Activities

The GUC Equity Trustee shall be entitled to be employed by third parties, including the Sub-Trust A and the Master Trust, while performing the duties required under the Plan and this Agreement, so long as such other employment does not involve holding or representing any interest adverse to the interests of the GUC Equity Trust, or otherwise preclude or impair the GUC Equity Trustee from performing its duties under the Plan and this Agreement. The GUC Equity Trustee represents that, as of the Effective Date, the GUC Equity Trustee does not hold or represent any interest adverse to the interests of GUC Equity Trust by virtue of its employment with or engagement by any GUC Equity Trust Beneficiaries, third parties or otherwise. For the avoidance of doubt, the GUC Equity Trustee shall be the same entity as the Sub-Trust A Trustee and the applicable Master Trustee.

4.4 Removal

The GUC Equity Trustee, and any successor GUC Equity Trustee appointed by legal counsel retained by the GUC Equity Trust in accordance with Section 12.1 herein (the "GUC Equity Trust Counsel") may be removed by GUC Equity Trust Counsel for Cause immediately upon notice thereof, or without Cause, upon 90 days' prior written notice.

(a) To the extent there is any dispute regarding the removal of a GUC Equity Trustee (including any dispute relating to any compensation or expense reimbursement due under this Agreement), the Bankruptcy Court shall retain jurisdiction to consider and adjudicate any such dispute. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the GUC Equity Trustee will continue to serve as the GUC Equity Trustee after their removal until the earlier of (i) the time when appointment of a successor GUC Equity Trustee will become effective in accordance with Section Error! The GUC Equity Trustee or the Bankruptcy Court, as applicable, may confer upon such Supplemental GUC Equity Trustee any or all of the rights, powers, privileges and duties of the GUC Equity Trustee hereunder, subject to the conditions and limitations of this Agreement, except as modified or limited by the laws of the applicable state or other jurisdiction (in which case, the laws of the state or other jurisdiction in which such Supplemental GUC Equity Trustee is acting shall prevail to the extent necessary). (b) The GUC Equity Trust will reimburse the Delaware Trustee for all actual, reasonable and documented out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Delaware Trustee in connection with the performance of the duties of the Delaware Trustee hereunder or under the Confirmation Order or the Plan, including but not limited to, actual, reasonable and documented fees and disbursements of the Delaware Trustee's legal counsel incurred in connection with the preparation, execution and delivery of this Agreement and related documents.

(c) The fees and expenses payable to the Delaware Trustee shall be paid to the Delaware Trustee without necessity for review and approval by the Bankruptcy Court or any other Person. The Bankruptcy Court shall retain non-exclusive jurisdiction to adjudicate any dispute regarding the fees, compensation, and expenses of the Delaware Trustee.

4.10 Powers of the Delaware Trustee.

(a) Notwithstanding any provision hereof to the contrary, the duties and responsibilities of the Delaware Trustee shall be limited solely to (i) accepting legal process served on the GUC Equity Trust in the State of Delaware and (ii) the execution of any certificates required to be filed with the office of the Delaware Secretary of State that the Delaware Trustee is required to execute under section 3811 of the Trust Act at the written direction of any GUC Equity Trustee (including without limitation the certificate of trust of the GUC Equity Trust as required by sections 3810 and 3820 of the Trust Act (the "Certificate of Trust")). Except as provided in the foregoing sentence, the Delaware Trustee shall have no management or administrative responsibilities or owe any fiduciary duties to the GUC Equity Trust, the GUC Equity Trustee, or the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiaries. The filing of the Certificate of Trust with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware as provided under the Trust Act is hereby ratified.

(b) By its execution hereof, the Delaware Trustee accepts the trusteeship of the GUC Equity Trust on the terms set forth herein. The Delaware Trustee shall not have any duty or liability with respect to the administration of the GUC Equity Trust (except as otherwise expressly set forth in Section 4.9(a) hereof), the investment of the GUC Equity Trust Assets or the distribution of the GUC Equity Trust Assets to the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiaries, and no such duties shall be implied. To the extent that, at law or in equity, the Delaware Trustee has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating to the GUC Equity Trust, the GUC Equity Trustee, or the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiaries, such duties and liabilities are replaced by the duties and liabilities of the Delaware Trustee expressly set forth in this Agreement. The Delaware Trustee shall not be liable for the acts or omissions of the GUC Equity Trustee, nor shall the Delaware Trustee be liable for supervising or monitoring the performance of the duties and obligations of the GUC Equity Trustee, or any other Person (including, without limitation, any affiliate of the Delaware Trustee appointed to act as a custodian or otherwise hereunder) under this Agreement. The Delaware Trustee shall not be obligated to give any bond or other security for the performance of any of its duties hereunder. The Delaware Trustee shall not be personally liable under any circumstances, except for its own gross negligence or willful misconduct in the performance of its express duties under this Agreement. Without limiting the foregoing:

(i) The Delaware Trustee shall not be personally liable for any error of judgment made in good faith, except to the extent such error of judgment constitutes willful misconduct or gross negligence in the performance of its express duties under this Agreement ("Excluded Matters"); (ii) the Delaware Trustee shall not have any duty or obligation to manage or deal with the GUC Equity Trust Assets, or to otherwise take or refrain from taking any action under this Agreement except as expressly provided in Section 4.9(a) hereof, and no implied trustee duties or obligations shall be deemed to be imposed on the Delaware Trustee;

(ii) the Delaware Trustee shall not be personally liable for the validity or sufficiency of this Agreement, the value or sufficiency of the GUC Equity Trust Assets, or for the due execution hereof by the other Parties hereto;

(iii) no provision of this Agreement shall require the Delaware Trustee to expend or risk its personal funds or otherwise incur any financial liability in the performance of its rights or powers hereunder if the Delaware Trustee has reasonable grounds to believe that the payment of such funds or adequate indemnity against such risk or liability is not reasonably assured or provided to it;

(iv) the Delaware Trustee shall not be personally liable for the validity or sufficiency of this Agreement, the value or sufficiency of the GUC Equity Trust Assets, or for the due execution hereof by the other Parties hereto;

(v) the Delaware Trustee may request the GUC Equity Trustee to provide a certificate with regard to any fact or matter the manner of ascertainment of which is not specifically prescribed herein, and such certificate shall constitute full protection to the Delaware Trustee for any action taken or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in reliance thereon;

(vi) in the exercise of its duties hereunder, the Delaware Trustee (i) may act directly or through agents or attorneys pursuant to agreements entered into with any of them and shall not be liable for the acts or omissions of any agents or attorneys selected by it in good faith, and (ii) may consult with counsel selected by it in good faith and employed by it, and it shall not be liable for anything done, suffered, or omitted in good faith by it in accordance with the advice or opinion of any such counsel;

(vii) the Delaware Trustee acts solely as Delaware Trustee hereunder and not in its individual capacity, and, except with respect to Excluded Matters, all persons having any claim against the Delaware Trustee by reason of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall look only to the GUC Equity Trust Assets for payment or satisfaction thereof;

(viii) the Delaware Trustee shall not be personally liable for any representation, warranty, covenant, agreement, or indebtedness of the GUC Equity Trust;

(ix) the Delaware Trustee shall not incur liability to anyone in acting upon any signature, instrument, notice, resolution, request, consent, order, certificate, report, opinion, bond, or other document or paper reasonably believed by it to be genuine and reasonably believed by it to be signed by the proper party or parties. As to any fact or matter the manner of ascertainment of which is not specifically prescribed herein, the Delaware Trustee may for all purposes hereof rely on a certificate, signed by an officer of the GUC Equity Trust, as to such fact or matter, and such certificate shall constitute full protection to the Delaware Trustee for any action taken or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in reliance thereon;

(x) the Delaware Trustee shall not be liable for punitive, exemplary, consequential, special, or other damages for a breach of this Agreement under any circumstances;

(xi) in connection with any of the Claims, GUC Equity Trust Assets, documents, and information related to duties of the Delaware Trustee, and any Causes of Action, any attorney-client privilege, work-product privilege, joint interest privilege, or other privilege or immunity (collectively, the "Privileges") attaching to or arising in or in connection with any documents, data, information, or communications (whether written, electronic, or oral) shall apply to and inure to the benefit of the Delaware Trustee and its representatives, and the Delaware Trustee is authorized to and shall take necessary actions to effectuate the transfer of such Privileges. The Delaware Trustee's receipt of the Privileges shall not operate as a waiver or limitation of any Privileges held and retained by the Debtors;

(xii) the Delaware Trustee shall be authorized to take such action as the GUC Equity Trustee specifically directs in written instructions delivered to the Delaware Trustee and shall have no liability for acting in accordance therewith; provided, however, the forgoing shall not be construed to require the Delaware Trustee to take any action in excess of its express duties under this Agreement;

(xiii) no permissive authority of the Delaware Trustee shall be construed as a duty or imply discretion on the part of the Delaware Trustee;

(xiv) notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Delaware Trustee shall not be required to take any action that is in violation of applicable law;

(xv) it shall be the duty and responsibility of the GUC Equity Trustee (and not the Delaware Trustee) to cause the GUC Equity Trust to comply with, respond to, defend, participate in or otherwise act in connection with any regulatory, administrative, governmental, investigative or other obligation, proceeding or inquiry relating in any way to the Trust, its assets or the conduct of its business;

(xvi) the Delaware Trustee shall neither be responsible for, nor chargeable with, knowledge of the terms and conditions of any other agreement, instrument, or document, other than this GUC Equity Trust Agreement, whether or not, an original or a copy of such agreement has been provided to the Delaware Trustee. Delivery of reports, information and documents to the Delaware Trustee is for informational purposes only and neither the Delaware Trustee's receipt of the foregoing, nor publicly available information shall constitute constructive notice of any information contained therein or determinable from information contained therein. The Delaware Trustee may rely on the accuracy of any document delivered to it and shall have no responsibility to verify the accuracy of it or be required to calculate or verify any numerical information in it. Neither the Delaware Trustee nor any of its directors, officers, employees, agents or affiliates shall be responsible for nor have any duty to monitor the performance or any action of the GUC Equity Trust, the GUC Equity Trustee or any other person, or any of their directors, members, officers, agents, affiliates or employee, nor shall it have any liability in connection with the malfeasance or nonfeasance by such party. The Delaware Trustee may assume performance by all such persons of their respective obligations. The Delaware Trustee shall have no enforcement or notification obligations relating to breaches of representations or warranties of any other person. The Delaware Trustee shall have no responsibilities (except as expressly set forth herein) as to the validity, sufficiency, value, genuineness, enforceability, ownership or transferability of any GUC Equity Trust Assets, written instructions, or any other documents in connection therewith, and will not be regarded as making, nor be required to make, any representations thereto, nor shall the Delaware Trustee have any duty to prepare, authorize or file any financing statements, continuation statements or amendments thereto; and

(xvii) The Delaware Trustee shall not be responsible or liable for any failure or delay in the performance of its obligations under this GUC Equity Trust Agreement arising out of, or caused, directly or indirectly, by circumstances beyond its control, including without limitation, any act or provision of any present or future law or regulation or governmental authority; acts of God; earthquakes; fires; floods; wars; terrorism; civil or military disturbances; sabotage; epidemics or pandemics; riots; interruptions, loss or malfunctions of utilities, computer (hardware or software) or communications service; accidents; labor disputes; acts of civil or military authority or governmental actions; or the unavailability of the Federal Reserve Bank wire or telex or other wire or communication facility.

4.11 Duration and Replacement of the Delaware Trustee. The Delaware Trustee shall serve for the duration of the GUC Equity Trust or until the earlier of (i) the effective date of the Delaware Trustee's resignation, or (ii) the effective date of the removal of the Delaware Trustee. The Delaware Trustee may resign at any time by giving thirty (30) days written notice to the GUC Equity Trustee provided, however, that such resignation shall not be effective until such time as a successor Delaware Trustee has accepted appointment. The Delaware Trustee may be removed by the GUC Equity Trustee, by providing thirty (30) days written notice to the Delaware Trustee; provided, however, that such removal shall not be effective until such time as a successor Delaware Trustee has accepted appointment. Upon the resignation or removal of the Delaware Trustee, the GUC Equity Trustee shall appoint a successor Delaware Trustee. The Delaware Trustee may petition the Bankruptcy Court for the appointment of a successor Delaware Trustee. Any successor Delaware Trustee appointed pursuant to this Section shall be eligible to act in such capacity in accordance with this Agreement and, following compliance with this Section, shall become fully vested with the rights, powers, duties, and obligations of its predecessor under this Trust Agreement, with like effect as if originally named as Delaware Trustee. Any such successor Delaware Trustee shall notify the Delaware Trustee of its appointment by providing written notice to the Delaware Trustee and upon receipt of such notice, the Delaware Trustee shall be discharged of its duties herein. Any such successor Delaware Trustee shall also file any amendment to the Certificate of Trust to the extent required by the Trust Act or as reasonably requested by the GUC Equity Trustee. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, any business entity into which the Delaware Trustee may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated or any entity resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Delaware Trustee shall be a party, or any entity succeeding to all or substantially all of the corporate trust business of the Delaware Trustee, shall be the successor of the Delaware Trustee hereunder, without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto.

PROVISIONS REGARDING DISTRIBUTIONS

5.1 Distribution Agent

The GUC Equity Trustee shall distribute proceeds from any sale or liquidation of the GUC Equity Trust Assets, after reasonable provision has been made for any GUC Trust Expenses, to the Sub-Trust A, to be distributed to GUC Equity Trust Beneficiaries through their Sub-Trust A-1 Interests.

5.2 Timing of Distributions

The GUC Equity Trustee shall make distributions to Sub-Trust A, on behalf of the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiaries, not less frequently than once annually, starting on the Effective Date, unless the GUC Equity Trustee determines, in the GUC Equity Trustee's reasonable discretion, that making such a distribution is impracticable in light of the anticipated Cash needs of the GUC Equity Trust going forward, or that, in light of the Cash available for distribution, making a distribution would not warrant the incurrence of costs in making the distribution or funds are otherwise not available to distribute.

5.3 [Reserved]

5.4 De Minimis Distributions

Notwithstanding anything in the Plan or herein to the contrary, the GUC Equity Trustee shall not be required to make distributions or payments of less than $50.00 .

Whenever any distribution of a fraction of a dollar would be required, the GUC Equity Trustee shall round such fraction to the nearest whole dollar (up or down), with half dollars being rounded down.

5.5 Final Plan Distribution

Notwithstanding anything in the Plan to the contrary, in the event that: (a) in the discretion of the GUC Equity Trustee, the GUC Equity Trust (i) has insufficient funds to make any further distributions to Sub-Trust A for distribution to the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiaries through their Sub-Trust A-1 Interests, and (ii) has no remaining potential sources of funds; (b) all GUC Equity Trust Beneficiaries have been paid in full; or (c) it is impractical or impossible for the GUC Equity Trustee to make further distributions to the Sub-Trust A for distribution to the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiaries through their Sub-Trust A-1 Interests, the GUC Equity Trustee shall have the right to transfer such assets to the Reorganized Debtors, subject to the terms of the New Corporate Governance Documents; provided, however, that the GUC Equity Trustee shall be permitted to establish a reserve sufficient to pay all costs and expenses of the GUC Equity Trust.

5.6 Requirement of Undertaking

The GUC Equity Trustee may request any court of competent jurisdiction to require, and any such court may in its discretion require, in any suit for the enforcement of any right or remedy under the Plan, or in any suit against the GUC Equity Trustee for any act taken or omitted by the GUC Equity Trustee, that the filing party litigant in such suit undertake to pay the costs of such suit or post a bond, if required, and such court may in its discretion assess reasonable costs, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees, against any party litigant in such suit, having due regard to the merits and good faith of the claims or defenses made by such party litigant. The requirement of an undertaking shall not apply to suits filed by the GUC Equity Trustee.

GUC EQUITY TRUST FUNDING

6.1 GUC Equity Trust Funding

The GUC Equity Trust Expenses shall be paid solely from the GUC Equity Trust Assets, the Sub-Trust A Assets, and any proceeds therefrom.

6.2 GUC Equity Trust Assets

Notwithstanding any prohibition of assignability under applicable nonbankruptcy law, on the Effective Date, the Debtors shall be deemed to have automatically distributed the GUC Equity Trust Assets to the GUC Equity Trust, all of their right, title, and interest in and to all of the GUC Equity Trust Assets, and in accordance with section 1141 of the Bankruptcy Code, all such GUC Equity Trust Assets shall automatically vest in the GUC Equity Trust free and clear of all Claims, Liens, encumbrances, and other liabilities, subject only to the Claims of the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiaries as set forth in the Plan and the expenses of the GUC Equity Trust and the GUC Equity Trustee as set forth herein, with all proceeds of the GUC Equity Trust to be distributed in accordance with the provisions of the Plan and this Agreement. Thereupon, the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors shall have no interest in or with respect to the GUC Equity Trust Assets or the GUC Equity Trust.

LIABILITY AND EXCULPATION PROVISIONS

7.1 Liability, Indemnification of the GUC Equity Trustee and the GUC Equity Trustee Professionals

The GUC Equity Trustee and the Delaware Trustee, shall have no liability for any actions or omissions in accordance with this Agreement or with respect to the GUC Equity Trust unless arising out of such Person's own fraud or willful misconduct. Unless arising out of such Person's own fraud or willful misconduct in performing its duties under this Agreement, the GUC Equity

Trustee and the Delaware Trustee, shall have no liability for any action taken by such Person in accordance with the advice of counsel, accountants, appraisers, and/or other professionals retained by the GUC Equity Trustee, the Delaware Trustee, or the GUC Equity Trust. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the GUC Equity Trustee and the Delaware Trustee may rely without independent investigation on copies of orders of the Bankruptcy Court reasonably believed by such Person to be genuine and shall have no liability for actions taken in reliance thereon. None of the provisions of this Agreement shall require the GUC Equity Trustee or the Delaware Trustee, to expend or risk their own funds or otherwise incur personal financial liability in the performance of any of their duties hereunder or in the exercise of any of their rights and powers. The GUC Equity Trustee and the Delaware Trustee, may rely without inquiry upon writings delivered to such Person pursuant to the Plan or the Confirmation Order that such Person reasonably believes to be genuine and to have been properly given. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Section 7.1 shall relieve the GUC Equity Trustee or the Delaware Trustee, from any liability for any actions or omissions arising out of such Person's fraud or willful misconduct. No termination of this Agreement or amendment, modification, or repeal of this Section 7.1 shall adversely affect any right or protection of the GUC Equity Trustee, that exists at the time of such amendment, modification, or repeal.

7.2 Indemnification of the GUC Equity Trustee and the Delaware Trustee.

(a) From and after the Effective Date, each of the GUC Equity Trustee, the Delaware Trustee, the GUC Equity Trustee Professionals and other the professionals of the GUC Equity Trust and their representatives and professionals (each, a "GUC Equity Trust Indemnified Party," and collectively, the "GUC Equity Trust Indemnified Parties") shall be, and each of them hereby is, indemnified by GUC Equity Trust, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, including the Trust Act, from and against any and all Claims, debts, dues, accounts, actions, suits, Causes of Action (including, without limitation, any suit or other enforcement action brought to enforce indemnity obligations under this Agreement), bonds, covenants, judgments, damages, reasonable attorneys' fees, defense costs, and other assertions of liability arising out of any such GUC Equity Trust Indemnified Party's exercise of what such GUC Equity Trust Indemnified Party reasonably understands to be its powers or the discharge of what such GUC Equity Trust Indemnified Party reasonably understands to be its duties conferred by the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement or this Agreement, any order of the Bankruptcy Court entered pursuant to, or in furtherance of, the Plan, applicable law, or otherwise (except only for actions or omissions to act to the extent determined by a Final Order to be due to such GUC Equity Trust Indemnified Party's own fraud or willful misconduct on and after the Effective Date). The foregoing indemnification shall also extend to matters directly or indirectly in connection with, arising out of, based on, or in any way related to: (i) this Agreement; (ii) the services to be rendered pursuant to this Agreement; (iii) any document or information, whether oral or written, referred to herein or supplied to the GUC Equity Trustee or Delaware Trustee in connection herewith; or (iv) proceedings by or on behalf of any creditor, or (v) the application of any law, statute, regulation or other rule to the GUC Equity Trust or its assets. The GUC Equity Trust shall, on demand, advance or pay promptly, at the election of the GUC Equity Trust Indemnified Party, solely out of the GUC Equity Trust Assets, on behalf of each GUC Equity Trust Indemnified Party, reasonable attorneys' fees and other expenses and disbursements to which such GUC Equity Trust Indemnified Party would be entitled pursuant to the foregoing indemnification provision; provided, however, that any GUC Equity Trust Indemnified Party receiving any such advance shall execute a written undertaking to repay such advance if a court of competent jurisdiction ultimately determines, by Final Order, that such GUC Equity Trust Indemnified Party is not entitled to indemnification hereunder due to such Person's own fraud or willful misconduct. Any indemnification Claim of a GUC Equity Trust Indemnified Party shall be entitled to a priority distribution from the GUC Equity Trust Assets, ahead of Trust Interests and any other Claim to or Interest in such assets. In any matter covered by the first two sentences of this subsection, any party entitled to indemnification shall have the right to employ such party's own separate counsel, at the GUC Equity Trust's expense, subject to the foregoing terms and conditions. In addition, the GUC Equity Trust shall purchase insurance coverage, including fiduciary liability insurance using funds from the GUC Equity Trust Assets for the benefit of the Master Trustees. The indemnification provided under this Section 7.2 shall survive the death, dissolution, resignation, or removal, as may be applicable, of the GUC Equity Trustee, or any other GUC Equity Trust Indemnified Party and shall inure to the benefit of the GUC Equity Trustee, and each other GUC Equity Trust Indemnified Party's respective heirs, successors, and assigns.

(b) The foregoing indemnity in respect of any GUC Equity Trust Indemnified Party shall survive the termination of such GUC Equity Trust Indemnified Party from the capacity for which such party is indemnified. Termination or modification of this Agreement shall not affect any indemnification rights or obligations set forth herein.

(c) The GUC Equity Trust may, but is not obligated to, indemnify any Person who is not a GUC Equity Trust Indemnified Party for any loss, cost, damage, expense or liability for which a GUC Equity Trust Indemnified Party would be entitled to mandatory indemnification under this Section 7.2.

(d) Any GUC Equity Trust Indemnified Party may waive the benefits of indemnification under this Section 7.2, but only by an instrument in writing executed by such GUC Equity Trust Indemnified Party.

(e) The rights to indemnification under this Section 7.2 are not exclusive of other rights which any GUC Equity Trust Indemnified Party may otherwise have at law or in equity, including, without limitation, common law rights to indemnification or contribution. Nothing in this Section 7.2 will affect the rights or obligations of any Person (or the limitations on those rights or obligations) under any other agreement or instrument to which that Person is a party. Further, the GUC Equity Trust hereby agrees that the GUC Equity Trust shall be required to pay the full amount of expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) actually incurred by such GUC Equity Indemnified Party in connection with any proceeding as to which GUC Equity Trust Indemnified Party is entitled to indemnification hereunder in advance of the final disposition of such proceeding. For the avoidance of doubt, each GUC Equity Trust Indemnified Party shall be entitled, subject to the terms hereof, to indemnification for any costs and reasonable attorneys' fees such GUC Equity Trust Indemnified Party may incur in connection with enforcing any of its rights under this Article VII.

7.3 GUC Equity Trust Liabilities. All liabilities of the GUC Equity Trust, including, without limitation, indemnity obligations under Section 7.2 of this Agreement, will be liabilities of the GUC Equity Trust as an Entity and will be paid or satisfied solely from the GUC Equity Trust Assets. No liability of the GUC Equity Trust will be payable in whole or in part by any GUC

Equity Trust Beneficiary individually or in the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiary's capacity as a GUC Equity Trust Beneficiary, by the GUC Equity Trustee individually or in the GUC Equity Trustee's capacity as GUC Equity Trustee, or by any representative, member, partner, shareholder, director, officer, professional, employees, agent, affiliate, or advisor of any GUC Equity Trust Beneficiary, the Delaware Trustee, or their respective affiliates.

7.4 Limitation of Liability. None of the GUC Equity Trust Indemnified Parties shall be liable for indirect, punitive, exemplary, consequential, special, or other damages for a breach of this Agreement under any circumstances.

7.5 Burden of Proof. In making a determination with respect to entitlement to exculpation or indemnification hereunder, the court, person, or entity making such determination shall presume that any Covered Party is entitled to exculpation and indemnification under this Agreement and any person seeking to overcome such presumption shall have the burden of proof to overcome that presumption.

7.6 Reliance by GUC Equity Trustee

Except as otherwise provided herein:

(a) the GUC Equity Trustee may rely, and shall be protected in acting or refraining from acting, upon any certificates, opinions, statements, instruments, or reports believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper Person or Persons;

(b) the GUC Equity Trustee shall not be liable for any action reasonably taken or not taken by it in reasonable reliance upon the advice of a GUC Equity Trustee Professional or GUC Equity Trustee Non-Professional;

(c) Persons providing services to the GUC Equity Trustee shall look only to the GUC Equity Trust Assets to satisfy any liability incurred by the GUC Equity Trustee to such Person in carrying out the terms of this Agreement, and neither the GUC Equity Trustee nor GUC Equity Trust Beneficiaries shall have any personal obligation to satisfy any such liability, except to the extent that actions taken or not taken after the Effective Date by the GUC Equity Trustee are determined by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction to be solely due to the GUC Equity Trustee's own willful misconduct or fraud;

(d) whenever, in the administration of this Agreement, the GUC Equity Trustee shall deem it desirable that a matter be proved or established prior to taking, suffering, or omitting any action hereunder, the GUC Equity Trustee (unless other evidence be herein specifically prescribed) may rely upon an opinion of counsel or certificate furnished to the GUC Equity Trustee by or on behalf of the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiaries;

(e) the GUC Equity Trustee shall not be bound to make any investigation into the facts or matters stated in any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, direction, consent, order, bond, or other paper or document, but the GUC Equity Trustee, in the GUC Equity Trustee's discretion, may make such further inquiry or investigation into such facts or matters as the GUC Equity Trustee may see fit, and, if the GUC Equity Trustee shall determine to make such further inquiry or investigation, the GUC Equity Trustee shall be entitled to examine the books, records, and premises of the relevant Person or entity, personally or by agent or attorney; and

(f) the GUC Equity Trustee may execute any of the trusts or powers hereunder or perform any duties hereunder either directly or by or through agents or attorneys and the GUC Equity Trustee shall not be responsible for any misconduct or negligence on the part of any agent or attorney appointed with due care by the GUC Equity Trustee hereunder.

ESTABLISHMENT OF THE GUC EQUITY TRUST

8.1 Transfer of Assets to GUC Equity Trust; Assumption of Liabilities

(a) Pursuant to the Plan, the Debtors and the GUC Equity Trustee hereby establish the GUC Equity Trust on behalf of the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiaries, through their Sub-Trust A-1 Interests, to be treated as the grantors. On the Effective Date, pursuant to the Plan, the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, shall transfer, assign, and deliver to the GUC Equity Trust the GUC Equity Trust Assets for the benefit of the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiaries.

8.2 Title to Assets. Notwithstanding any prohibition of assignability under applicable nonbankruptcy law, on the Effective Date, the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, shall deposit with the GUC Equity Trust, all of their right, title, and interest in and to all of the GUC Equity Trust Assets. In accordance with section 1141 of the Bankruptcy Code, all such assets shall automatically vest in the GUC Equity Trust free and clear of all Liens, Claims, charges, or other encumbrances, and no other Person shall have any interest, legal, beneficial, or otherwise, in the GUC Equity Trust or the GUC Equity Trust Assets upon the assignment and transfer of such assets to the GUC Equity Trust (other than as provided in the Plan, the Confirmation Order, or this Agreement). Thereupon, the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors shall not have any interest in or with respect to the GUC Equity Trust Assets or the GUC Equity Trust. To the extent any law or regulation prohibits the transfer of ownership of any of the GUC Equity Trust Assets from the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors (as applicable) to the GUC Equity Trust and such law is not superseded by the Bankruptcy Code, the GUC Equity Trust's interest shall be a lien upon and security interest in such GUC Equity Trust Assets, in trust, nevertheless, for the sole use and purposes set forth herein and in the Plan, and this Agreement shall be deemed a security agreement granting such interest thereon without need to file financing statements or mortgages. By executing this Agreement, the GUC Equity Trustee on behalf of the GUC Equity Trust hereby accepts all of such property as GUC Equity Trust Assets, to be held in trust for the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiaries, subject to the terms of this Agreement and the Plan.

8.3 Tax Treatment.

(a) Unless the GUC Equity Trust has undergone the Conversion, the Debtors, GUC Equity Trustee, and GUC Equity Trust Beneficiaries agree to treat the GUC Equity Trust as a "liquidating trust" described in Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(d), taxable as a "grantor trust" for U.S. federal income tax purposes under Sections 671 through 679 of the IRC, unless otherwise required by applicable law. The Parties agree that, unless otherwise required by applicable law, the GUC Equity Trust shall file or cause to be filed any annual or other necessary returns, reports and other forms consistent with the characterization of the GUC Equity Trust as a liquidating trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes and, subject to the provisions of Section 8.3(b), no Party shall take a position on any tax return inconsistent with such treatment.

(b) If, in the reasonable judgment of the GUC Equity Trustee, the GUC Equity Trust is expected to survive for a period of more than five (5) years from the Emergence Date, the Parties agree that the GUC Equity Trustee, in the exercise of its reasonable discretion, shall either (i) seek to extend the term of the GUC Equity Trust for a reasonable period of time in a manner consistent with Section 13.1 hereof and Revenue Procedure 94-45 § 3.06, or (ii) convert the GUC Equity Trust from a liquidating trust described in Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(d) to an investment trust described in Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c), taxable as a grantor trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes under Sections 671 through 679 of the IRC (the process described in this clause (ii), the "Conversion"). In the event of a Conversion, the Parties (x) agree that, unless otherwise required by applicable law, the GUC Equity Trust shall file or cause to be filed any annual or other necessary returns, reports and other forms consistent with the characterization of the converted entity as an investment trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes, (y) shall cooperate to amend this Agreement to reflect such Conversion, and (z) shall take no position on any tax return inconsistent with such treatment.

(c) As soon as reasonably practicable following the establishment of the GUC Equity Trust, the GUC Equity Trustee shall determine the value of the GUC Equity Trust Assets transferred to the GUC Equity Trust as of the Effective Date, based on the good-faith determination of the GUC Equity Trustee. The valuation of the GUC Equity Trust Assets prepared pursuant to this Agreement shall be used consistently by all parties (including, without limitation, the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, the GUC Equity Trustee, and the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiaries) for all U.S. federal income tax purposes. In connection with the preparation of any valuation contemplated hereby, the GUC Equity Trust, subject to Section 12.1 hereof, shall be entitled to retain such GUC Equity Trust professionals as the GUC Equity Trustee shall determine to be appropriate or necessary in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, and the GUC Equity Trustee shall take such other actions in connection therewith as it determines to be appropriate or necessary. For the avoidance of doubt, the valuation shall not be binding on the GUC Equity Trust, the GUC Equity Trustee, or the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiaries for any purpose other than U.S. federal income tax purposes, and the valuation shall not impair or prejudice rights, claims, powers, duties, authority and/or privileges of the GUC Equity Trustee, the GUC Equity Trust, or nay of the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiaries except with respect to U.S. federal income tax purposes.

GUC EQUITY TRUST INTEREST

9.1 Interest Beneficial Only

The ownership of the GUC Equity Trust Interest or Sub-Trust A-1 Interests shall not entitle the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiary to any title in or to the GUC Equity Trust Assets (which title shall be vested in the GUC Equity Trust) or to any right to call for a partition or division of the GUC Equity Trust Assets or to require an accounting. The GUC Equity Trust Interest and Sub-Trust A-1 Interests shall not be evidenced by a certificate or other instrument, shall not possess any voting rights and shall not be entitled to receive any dividends or interests.

9.2 Transfer of GUC Equity Trust Interest

The GUC Equity Trust Interest shall not be transferable, except by operation of law. No transfer, assignment, pledge, hypothecation, or other disposition of the GUC Equity Trust Interest shall be effective or binding upon the GUC Equity Trust or the GUC Equity Trustee for any purpose, except as set forth in the immediately preceding sentence.

9.3 Effect of Death, Dissolution, Incapacity, or Bankruptcy of GUC Equity Trust Beneficiary

The death, dissolution, incapacity, or bankruptcy of a GUC Equity Trust Beneficiary during the term of the GUC Equity Trust shall not operate to terminate the GUC Equity Trust during the term of the GUC Equity Trust, nor shall it entitle the representative or creditors of the deceased, incapacitated, or bankrupt GUC Equity Trust Beneficiary to an accounting or to take any action in any court or elsewhere for the distribution of the GUC Equity Trust Assets or for a partition thereof, nor shall it otherwise affect the rights and obligations of the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiary under this Agreement or in the GUC Equity Trust.

9.4 Securities Law

The parties hereto intend that the GUC Equity Trust Interest shall not be a "security" under applicable laws, but none of the parties hereto represent or warrant that such rights shall not be securities or shall be entitled to exemption from registration under applicable securities laws. If it should be determined that any such interests constitute "securities," the parties hereto intend that the exemption provisions of Section 1145 of the Bankruptcy Code will be satisfied and the offer and sale under the Plan of the GUC Equity Trust Interest will be exempt from registration under the Securities Act, all rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, and all applicable state and local securities laws and regulations.

Subject to Section 9.4 hereof, the GUC Equity Trustee may amend this Agreement in accordance with Section 15.1 hereof to make such changes as are deemed necessary or appropriate, with the advice of counsel, to ensure that the GUC Equity Trust is not subject to registration and/or reporting requirements of the Securities Act, the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended.

ADMINISTRATION

10.1 Purpose of the GUC Equity Trust

The GUC Equity Trust shall be established for the primary purpose of protecting and conserving the assets of the GUC Equity Trust and to facilitate the liquidation and administration of the GUC Equity Trust Assets in accordance with Treasury Regulation section 301.7701-4(d), with no objective to continue or engage in the conduct of a trade or any other business, except to the extent reasonably necessary to, and consistent with, the purpose of the GUC Equity Trust other than as expressly permitted by this Agreement. The GUC Equity Trust and GUC Equity Trustee (and any agent of either person) shall take, or refrain from taking, all such action as is necessary to maintain the status of the GUC Equity Trust as a grantor trust.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement or otherwise, neither the GUC Equity Trust nor the GUC Equity Trustee (nor any agent of either person) shall (i) acquire any assets or dispose of any portion of the GUC Equity Trust other than pursuant to the specific provisions of this Agreement, (ii) vary the investment of the GUC Equity Trust within the meaning of Treasury Regulation Section 301.7701-4(c) or (iii) substitute new investments or reinvest so as to enable the GUC Equity Trust to take advantage of variations in the market to improve the investment of the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiaries. The GUC Equity Trustee shall not have any authority to manage, control, use, sell, dispose of or otherwise deal with any part of the GUC Equity Trust property except as required by the express terms of this Agreement in accordance with the powers granted to or the authority conferred upon the GUC Equity Trustee pursuant to this Agreement.

10.2 Books and Records

The GUC Equity Trustee shall maintain books and records relating to the administration of the GUC Equity Trust Assets and the distribution by the GUC Equity Trustee of the proceeds therefrom in such detail and for such period of time as may be necessary to make full and proper accounting in respect thereof and to comply with applicable provisions of law. The GUC Equity Trustee shall also maintain books and records relating to the income and expenses of the GUC Equity Trust, and the payment of expenses of and liabilities of, claims against or assumed by, the GUC Equity Trust in such detail and for such period of time as may be necessary to make full and proper accounting in respect thereof and to comply with applicable provisions of law. Except as otherwise provided herein or in the Plan, nothing in this Agreement requires the GUC Equity Trustee to file any accounting or seek approval of any court with respect to the administration of the GUC Equity Trust, or as a condition for making any payment or distribution out of the GUC Equity Trust Assets.

Subject to all applicable privileges, the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiaries shall have the right, in addition to any other rights they may have pursuant to this Agreement, under the Plan, or otherwise, upon thirty (30) days' prior written notice to the GUC Equity Trustee, to request a reasonable inspection of the books and records held by the GUC Equity Trustee, provided, however, that all costs associated with such inspection shall be paid in advance by such requesting GUC Equity Trust Beneficiary, and further, if so requested, such GUC Equity Trust Beneficiary shall have entered into a confidentiality agreement satisfactory in form and substance to the GUC Equity Trustee, and make such other arrangements as may be reasonably requested by the GUC Equity Trustee.

The books and records maintained by the GUC Equity Trustee may be disposed of by the GUC Equity Trustee at the later of (i) such time as the GUC Equity Trustee determines that the continued possession or maintenance of such books and records is no longer necessary for the benefit of the GUC Equity Trust or the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiaries or (ii) upon the termination and completion of the winding down of the GUC Equity Trust.

10.3 Compliance with Laws

Any and all distributions made pursuant to this Agreement shall comply with all applicable laws and regulations, including, but not limited to, applicable federal and state tax and securities laws.

ARTICLE XI
REPORTING

11.1 Federal Income Tax

(a) Accounting and Reports to the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiary, the Internal Revenue Service and Others. The GUC Equity Trustee shall maintain (or cause to be maintained) the books of the GUC Equity Trust on a calendar year basis on the accrual method of accounting, deliver to the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiaries, as may be required by the Code and applicable Treasury Regulations or otherwise, such information in the possession or control of the GUC Equity Trustee as may be required to enable the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiary to prepare its federal income tax return, file such tax returns relating to the GUC Equity Trust and make such elections as may from time to time be required or appropriate under any applicable State or U.S. federal statute or rule or regulation thereunder so as to maintain the GUC Equity Trust's characterization as an entity described in this Section 11.1 for federal income tax purposes, cause such tax returns to be signed in the manner required by law and collect or cause to be collected any withholding tax as described in and in accordance with Section Error! Reference source not found. hereof with respect to income or distributions to the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiary. The GUC Equity Trustee shall annually cause to be sent to the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiary a separate statement setting forth the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiary's share of items of income, gain, loss, deduction or credit and will instruct the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiary to report such items on its federal income tax return. The GUC Equity Trustee shall prepare or cause to be prepared the returns and information required by Treasury Regulations Section 1.671-5, as well as any other applicable provisions of law, to be provided and filed, as applicable, in the manner prescribed therein.

(b) Signature on Returns; Other Tax Matters. The GUC Equity Trustee shall sign on behalf of the GUC Equity Trust any and all tax returns of the GUC Equity Trust, unless applicable law requires the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiary to sign such documents, in which case the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiary hereby agrees to sign such document and to cooperate fully with the reasonable requests of the GUC Equity Trustee with respect thereto. The GUC Equity Trustee shall file (or cause to be filed) any statement, returns, or disclosures relating to the GUC Equity Trust or the GUC Equity Trust Assets, that are required by any governmental unit.

(c) Determination of Taxes. The GUC Equity Trust may request an expedited determination of taxes of the GUC Equity Trust under Section 505(a) of the Bankruptcy Code for all returns filed for, or on behalf of, the GUC Equity Trust for all taxable periods through the dissolution of the GUC Equity Trust.

ARTICLE XII
GUC EQUITY TRUSTEE PROFESSIONALS AND NONPROFESSIONALS

12.1 Retention of GUC Equity Trustee Professionals and GUC Equity Trustee Non-Professionals

The GUC Equity Trustee shall have the right to retain GUC Equity Trustee Professionals and GUC Equity Trustee Non-Professionals, each on such terms as the GUC Equity

Trustee deems appropriate.[3] The GUC Equity Trustee Professionals and the GUC Equity Trustee Non-Professionals shall be compensated in accordance with Section 12.2 hereof and need not be "disinterested" as that term is defined in the Bankruptcy Code.

12.2 Payment to GUC Equity Trustee Professionals and GUC Equity Trustee Non-Professionals

After the Effective Date, the GUC Equity Trustee Professionals and GUC Equity Trustee Non-Professionals shall be required to submit reasonably detailed invoices on a monthly basis to the GUC Equity Trustee, including in such invoices a description of the work performed, who performed such work, and if billing on an hourly basis, the hourly rate of each such Person, plus an itemized statement of expenses. The GUC Equity Trustee shall pay those invoices within ten (10) days after receipt, without Bankruptcy Court approval, unless the GUC Equity Trustee objects in writing specifying the reasons for such objection and identifying the specific fees or expenses to which objection is made. If there is a dispute as to a portion of an invoice, the GUC Equity Trustee shall pay the undisputed portion. All payments to GUC Equity Trustee Professionals and GUC Equity Trustee Non-Professionals shall be paid out of the GUC Equity Trust Assets and pursuant to the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement.

ARTICLE XIII
TERMINATION OF GUC EQUITY TRUST

13.1 Duration and Extension

The GUC Equity Trust shall be dissolved at such time as all of the GUC Equity Trust Assets have been distributed pursuant to the Plan and this Agreement; provided, however, that in no event shall the GUC Equity Trust be dissolved later than five (5) years from the Effective Date unless the Bankruptcy Court, upon motion within the six-month period prior to the fifth (5^{th}) anniversary (or within the six-month period prior to the end of an extension period), determines that a fixed period extension (not to exceed three (3) years, including any prior extensions, without a favorable private letter ruling from the Internal Revenue Service or an opinion of counsel satisfactory to the GUC Equity Trustee that any further extension would not adversely affect the status of the GUC Equity Trust as a liquidating trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes) is necessary to facilitate or complete the recovery and liquidation of the GUC Equity Trust Assets. If at any time the GUC Equity Trustee determine, in reliance upon such professionals as the GUC Equity Trustee may retain that the expense of administering the GUC Equity Trust so as to make a final distribution to the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiaries is likely to exceed the value of the assets remaining in the GUC Equity Trust, the GUC Equity Trustee may apply to the Bankruptcy Court for authority to (i) reserve any amount necessary to dissolve the GUC Equity Trust, (ii) donate any balance to a charitable organization (A) described in section 501(c)(3) of the IRC, (B) exempt from U.S. federal income tax under section 501(a) of the IRC, (C) not a "private foundation," as defined in section 509(a) of the IRC and (D) that is unrelated to the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors, the GUC Equity Trust and any insider of the GUC Equity Trustee and (iii) dissolve the GUC Equity Trust. If a final decree has been entered closing the Chapter 11 Cases, the GUC Equity Trustee may seek to open the Chapter 11 Cases for the limited purpose of filing a motion seeking authority as set forth in the immediately preceding sentence, and the costs for such motion and costs related to re-opening the Chapter 11 Cases shall be paid by use of the GUC Equity Trust Assets. Such date upon which the GUC Equity Trust shall finally be dissolved shall be referred to herein as the "Termination Date." Upon the Termination Date, the GUC Equity Trustee shall wind up and liquidate the GUC Equity Trust in accordance with section 3808 of the Trust Act and Section 13.1 herein and all monies remaining in the GUC Equity Trust shall be distributed or disbursed in accordance with Article V above. The GUC Equity Trustee and the Delaware Trustee (acting at the direction of the GUC Equity Trustee) shall file any required Certificate of Cancellation in accordance with section 3810(d) of the Trust Act, and thereupon this Agreement shall terminate.

13.2 Diligent Administration

The GUC Equity Trustee shall (a) not unduly prolong the duration of the GUC Equity Trust; (b) at all times endeavor to monetize the GUC Equity Trust Assets; (c) consult and confer with the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiaries and keep them fully advised of its activities; and (d) effect the liquidation of the GUC Equity Trust Assets and distribution of such proceeds to the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiaries in accordance with the terms of the Plan and this Agreement. The GUC Equity Trustee shall continue to hold the GUC Equity Trust Assets until such time as the GUC Equity Trustee determines, in consultation with the GUC Equity Trust Professionals, that it is in the best interests of the beneficiaries of the GUC Equity Trust to liquidate some or all of the GUC Equity Trust Assets, consistent with the terms of the Plan, the Committee Settlement Documents and this Agreement (such plan as may be developed and revised from time to time, the "Sell-Down Plan"). This provision is intended to modify the "prudent person" rule, "prudent investor" rule, or any other rule of law that would require the GUC Equity Trustee to diversify this stock portfolio. The GUC Equity Trustee shall execute the Sell-Down Plan from time to time in consultation with the GUC Equity Trust Professionals.

ARTICLE XIV
AMENDMENT AND WAIVER

14.1 Amendment and Waiver

The GUC Equity Trustee may amend or waive any provision of this Agreement, provided however, that no change may be made to this Agreement that would adversely affect the federal income tax status of the GUC Equity Trust as a liquidating trust taxable as a grantor trust or an investment trust taxable as a grantor trust, as applicable; provided, further, that no such amendment or waiver shall (i) be inconsistent with the Plan or (ii) materially and adversely impact the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, or modify the obligations of the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors hereunder, without the prior written consent of the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable (not to be unreasonably withheld).

Notwithstanding the forgoing, to the extent any such amendment, supplement, or waiver affects the rights, duties, protections, immunities, or indemnities of the Delaware Trustee, such act shall require the written consent of the Delaware Trustee. The fees and expenses (including attorney's fees) of the Delaware Trustee incurred in connection with any amendment shall be paid by the GUC Equity Trust. In consenting to any amendment hereunder, the Delaware

Trustee shall be entitled to receive and be fully protected in relying on an opinion of counsel that such amendment is authorized and permitted by this Agreement and that all conditions precedent to such amendment have been satisfied.

ARTICLE XV

15.2 Debtors' and Reorganized Debtors' Further Assurances

The Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors and their respective officers, directors, professionals, and agents shall take such actions and execute such documents as are reasonably requested by the GUC Equity Trustee to implement the provisions of this Agreement; and to the extent that the expected costs of such actions are not already provided for under the New Corporate Governance Documents, the GUC Equity Trustee and the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors agree to negotiate in good faith regarding the expected costs (including all allocation of costs) of any such actions; provided, however, that nothing provided in this Section 15.2 shall limit the generality of Section 6.2.

15.3 Confidentiality

The Confidential Parties shall hold strictly confidential and not use for personal gain any material, nonpublic information of which they have become aware in their capacity as a Confidential Party, of or pertaining to any Entity to which any of the GUC Equity Trust Assets relates; provided, however, that such information may be disclosed (a) if it is now or in the future becomes generally available to the public other than as a result of a disclosure by the Confidential Parties, (b) if such disclosure is required of the Confidential Parties pursuant to legal process, including, but not limited to, subpoena or other court order or other applicable laws or regulations, or (c) subject to an agreement containing confidentiality undertakings substantially similar to those of this Section 15.4, to any purchaser of or participant in, or any prospective purchaser of or participant in, any of the GUC Equity Trust Assets. In the event that any Confidential Party is requested to divulge confidential information pursuant to clause (b) above, such Confidential Party shall promptly, in advance of making such disclosure, provide reasonable notice of such required disclosure to the GUC Equity Trustee to allow it sufficient time to object to or prevent such disclosure through judicial or other means and shall cooperate reasonably with the GUC Equity Trustee in making any such objection, including, but not limited to, appearing in any judicial or administrative proceeding in support of any objection to such disclosure.

15.4 Laws as to Construction; Enforcement of Agreement

(a) This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware (without reference to principles of conflicts of law thereof), including all matters of validity, construction, and administration; provided, however, that the following shall not be applicable to the GUC Equity Trust, the GUC Equity Trustee, the Delaware Trustee or this Agreement; (a) the provisions of section 3540 of Title 12 of the Delaware Code and (b) any provisions of the laws (statutory or common) of the State of Delaware pertaining to trusts that relate to or regulate, in a manner inconsistent with the terms hereof, (i) the filing with any court or governmental body or agency of trustee accounts or schedule of trustee fees and charges, affirmative requirements to post bonds for trustees, officers, agents, or employees of a trust, the necessity for obtaining court or other governmental approval concerning the acquisition, holding, or disposition of real or personal property, (ii) fees or other sums payable to trustees, officers, agents, or employees of a trust, (iii) the allocation of receipts and expenditures to income and principal, (iv) restrictions or limitations on the permissible nature, amount, or concentration of trust investments or requirements relating to the titling, storage, or other manner of holding or investing trust assets, or (v) the establishment of fiduciary or other standards or responsibilities or limitations on the acts or powers of trustees

(b) The Parties agree that the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction over the GUC Equity Trust and the GUC Equity Trustee, including, without limitation, the administration and activities of the GUC Equity Trust and the GUC Equity Trustee to the fullest extent permitted by law. Each Party to this Agreement and the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiaries, by accepting and holding their interest in the GUC Equity Trust, hereby irrevocably consents to the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court in any action to enforce, interpret or construe any provision of this Agreement or of any other agreement or document delivered in connection with this Agreement, and also hereby irrevocably waives any defense of improper venue, forum non conveniens, or lack of personal jurisdiction to any such action brought in the Bankruptcy Court. Until the closing of the Chapter 11 Cases, any action to enforce, interpret, or construe any provision of this Agreement will be brought only in the Bankruptcy Court. In the event that all of the Chapter 11 Cases are closed, the Parties agree that the GUC Equity Trustee shall have the right to move to re-open the Chapter 11 Cases or alternatively, to bring the dispute(s) before the courts of the State of Delaware, including any federal court located in the State of Delaware (and, in such event, the Parties agree that the such courts shall have jurisdiction over the GUC Equity Trust and the GUC Equity Trustee, including, without limitation, the administration and activities of the GUC Equity Trust and the GUC Equity Trustee to the fullest extent permitted by law). Each Party hereby irrevocably consents to the service by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, of any process in any action to enforce, interpret, or construe any provision of this Agreement. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO, AND EACH GUC EQUITY TRUST BENEFICIARY, BY ACCEPTING ITS INTEREST HEREIN, HEREBY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY AND ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY WITH RESPECT TO ANY LITIGATION OR LEGAL PROCEEDING DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF, UNDER OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT, THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY AND/OR THE GUC EQUITY TRUST.

15.5 Severability

Except with respect to provisions herein that are contained in the Plan, if any provision of this Agreement or the application thereof to any Person or circumstance shall be finally determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Agreement, or the application of such provision to Persons or circumstances other than those as to which it is held invalid or unenforceable, shall not be affected thereby, and shall be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

IRC to the extent such actions are permitted by this Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, any portion of the GUC Equity Pool that has not been liquidated at the time of dissolution of the GUC Equity Trust shall be required to be liquidated and any shares comprising the GUC Equity Pool shall not be distributed to the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiaries.

(c) The GUC Equity Trustee shall not take, or fail to take, any action that would jeopardize treatment of the GUC Equity Trust as a "liquidation trust" and as a "grantor trust" (with the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiaries as the grantors) for federal income tax purposes.

3.7 Other Activities

The GUC Equity Trustee shall be entitled to be employed by third parties, including the Sub-Trust A and the Master Trust, while performing the duties required under the Plan and this Agreement, so long as such other employment does not involve holding or representing any interest adverse to the interests of the GUC Equity Trust, or otherwise preclude or impair the GUC Equity Trustee from performing its duties under the Plan and this Agreement. The GUC Equity Trustee represents that, as of the Effective Date, the GUC Equity Trustee does not hold or represent any interest adverse to the interests of GUC Equity Trust by virtue of its employment with or engagement by any GUC Equity Trust Beneficiaries, third parties or

The GUC Equity Trustee, and any successor GUC Equity Trustee appointed by legal counsel retained by the GUC Equity Trust in accordance with Section 13.1 herein (the "GUC Equity Trust Counsel") may be removed by GUC Equity Trust Counsel for Cause immediately upon notice thereof, or without Cause, upon 90 days' prior written notice.

(a) To the extent there is any dispute regarding the removal of a GUC Equity Trustee (including any dispute relating to any compensation or expense reimbursement due under this Agreement), the Bankruptcy Court shall retain jurisdiction to consider and adjudicate any such dispute. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the GUC Equity Trustee will continue to serve as the GUC Equity Trustee after their removal until the earlier of (i) the time when appointment

To the extent that, at law or in equity, the Delaware Trustee has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating to the GUC Equity Trust, the GUC Equity Trustee, or the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiaries, such duties and liabilities are replaced by the duties and liabilities of the Delaware Trustee expressly set forth in this Agreement. The Delaware Trustee shall not be liable for the acts or omissions of the GUC Equity Trustee, nor shall the Delaware Trustee be liable for supervising or monitoring the performance of the duties and obligations of the GUC Equity Trustee, or any other Person (including, without limitation, any affiliate of the Delaware Trustee appointed to act as a custodian or otherwise hereunder) under this Agreement. (ii) the Delaware Trustee shall not be personally liable for the validity or sufficiency of this Agreement, the value or sufficiency of the GUC Equity Trust Assets, or for the due execution hereof by the other Parties hereto;

(iii) no provision of this Agreement shall require the Delaware Trustee to expend or risk its personal funds or otherwise incur any financial liability in the performance of its rights or powers hereunder if the Delaware Trustee has reasonable grounds to believe that the payment of such funds or adequate indemnity against such risk or liability is not reasonably assured or provided to it;

(iv) the Delaware Trustee shall not be personally liable for the validity or sufficiency of this Agreement, the value or sufficiency of the GUC Equity Trust Assets, or for the due execution hereof by the other Parties hereto;

(v) the Delaware Trustee may request the GUC Equity Trustee to provide a certificate with regard to any fact or matter the manner of ascertainment of which is not specifically prescribed herein, and such certificate shall constitute full protection to the Delaware Trustee for any action taken or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in reliance thereon;

(vi) in the exercise of its duties hereunder, the Delaware Trustee (i) may act directly or through agents or attorneys pursuant to agreements entered into with any of them and shall not be liable for the acts or omissions of any agents or attorneys selected by it in good faith, and (ii) may consult with counsel selected by it in good faith and employed by it, and it shall not be liable for anything done, suffered, or omitted in good faith by it in accordance with the advice or opinion of any such counsel;

(vii) the Delaware Trustee acts solely as Delaware Trustee hereunder and not in its individual capacity, and, except with respect to Excluded Matters, all persons having any claim against the Delaware Trustee by reason of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall look only to the GUC Equity Trust Assets for payment or satisfaction thereof;

(viii) the Delaware Trustee shall not be personally liable for any representation, warranty, covenant, agreement, or indebtedness of the GUC Equity Trust;

(ix) the Delaware Trustee shall not incur liability to anyone in acting upon any signature, instrument, notice, resolution, request, consent, order, certificate, report, opinion, bond, or other document or paper reasonably believed by it to be genuine and reasonably believed by it to be signed by the proper party or parties. As to any fact or matter the manner of ascertainment of which is not specifically prescribed herein, the Delaware Trustee may for all purposes hereof rely on a certificate, signed by an officer of the GUC Equity Trust, as to such fact or matter, and such certificate shall constitute full protection to the Delaware Trustee for any action taken or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in reliance thereon;

(x) the Delaware Trustee shall not be liable for punitive, exemplary, consequential, special, or other damages for a breach of this Agreement under any circumstances;

(xi) in connection with any of the Claims, GUC Equity Trust Assets, documents, and information related to duties of the Delaware Trustee, and any Causes of Action, any attorney-client privilege, work-product privilege, joint interest privilege, or other privilege or immunity (collectively, the "Privileges") attaching to or arising in or in connection with any documents, data, information, or communications (whether written, electronic, or oral) shall apply to and inure to the benefit of the Delaware Trustee and its representatives, and the Delaware Trustee is authorized to and shall take necessary actions to effectuate the transfer of such Privileges. The Delaware Trustee's receipt of the Privileges shall not operate as a waiver or limitation of any Privileges held and retained by the Debtors;

(xii) the Delaware Trustee shall be authorized to take such action as the GUC Equity Trustee specifically directs in written instructions delivered to the Delaware Trustee and shall have no liability for acting in accordance therewith; provided, however, the forgoing shall not be construed to require the Delaware Trustee to take any action in excess of its express duties under this Agreement;

(xiii) no permissive authority of the Delaware Trustee shall be construed as a duty or imply discretion on the part of the Delaware Trustee;

(xv) it shall be the duty and responsibility of the GUC Equity Trustee (and not the Delaware Trustee) to cause the GUC Equity Trust to comply with, respond to, defend, participate in or otherwise act in connection with any regulatory, administrative, governmental, investigative or other obligation, proceeding or inquiry relating in any way to the Trust, its assets or the conduct of its business;

(xvi) the Delaware Trustee shall neither be responsible for, nor chargeable with, knowledge of the terms and conditions of any other agreement, instrument, or document, other than this GUC Equity Trust Agreement, whether or not, an original or a copy of such agreement has been provided to the Delaware Trustee. Delivery of reports, information and documents to the Delaware Trustee is for informational purposes only and neither the Delaware Trustee's receipt of the foregoing, nor publicly available information shall constitute constructive notice of any information contained therein or determinable from information contained therein. The Delaware Trustee may rely on the accuracy of any document delivered to it and shall have no responsibility to verify the accuracy of it or be required to calculate or verify any numerical information in it. Neither the Delaware Trustee nor any of its directors, officers, employees, agents or affiliates shall be responsible for nor have any duty to monitor the performance or any action of the GUC Equity Trust, the GUC Equity Trustee or any other person, or any of their directors, members, officers, agents, affiliates or employee, nor shall it have any liability in connection with the malfeasance or nonfeasance by such party. The Delaware Trustee may assume performance by all such persons of their respective obligations. The Delaware Trustee shall have no enforcement or notification obligations relating to breaches of representations or warranties of any other person. The Delaware Trustee shall have no responsibilities (except as expressly set forth herein) as to the validity, sufficiency, value, genuineness, enforceability, ownership or transferability of any GUC Equity Trust Assets, written instructions, or any other documents in connection therewith, and will not be regarded as making, nor be required to make, any representations thereto, nor shall the Delaware Trustee have any duty to prepare, authorize or file any financing statements, continuation statements or amendments thereto; and (xvii) The Delaware Trustee shall not be responsible or liable for any failure or delay in the performance of its obligations under this GUC Equity Trust Agreement arising out of, or caused, directly or indirectly, by circumstances beyond its control, including without limitation, any act or provision of any present or future law or regulation or governmental authority; acts of God; earthquakes; fires; floods; wars; terrorism; civil or military disturbances; sabotage; epidemics or pandemics; riots; interruptions, loss or malfunctions of utilities, computer (hardware or software) or communications service; accidents; labor disputes; acts of civil or military authority or governmental actions; or the unavailability of the Federal Reserve Bank wire or telex or other wire or communication facility.

The Delaware Trustee may resign at any time by giving thirty (30) days written notice to the GUC Equity Trustee provided, however, that such resignation shall not be effective until such time as a successor Delaware Trustee has accepted appointment. The Delaware Trustee may be removed by the GUC Equity Trustee, by providing thirty (30) days written notice to the Delaware Trustee; provided, however, that such removal shall not be effective until such time as a successor Delaware Trustee has accepted appointment. Upon the resignation or removal of the Delaware Trustee, the GUC Equity Trustee shall appoint a successor Delaware Trustee. The Delaware Trustee may petition the Bankruptcy Court for the appointment of a successor Delaware Trustee. Any successor Delaware Trustee appointed pursuant to this Section shall be eligible to act in such capacity in accordance with this Agreement and, following compliance with this Section, shall become fully vested with the rights, powers, duties, and obligations of its predecessor under this Trust Agreement, with like effect as if originally named as Delaware Trustee. ARTICLE V

5.1 Distribution Agent

5.2 Timing of Distributions

The GUC Equity Trustee shall make distributions to Sub-Trust A, on behalf of the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiaries, not less frequently than once annually, starting on the Effective Date, unless the GUC Equity Trustee determines, in the GUC Equity Trustee's reasonable discretion, that making such a distribution is impracticable in light of the anticipated Cash needs of the GUC Equity Trust going forward, or that, in light of the Cash available for distribution, making a distribution would not warrant the incurrence of costs in making the distribution or funds are otherwise not available to distribute.

5.3 [Reserved]

5.4 De Minimis Distributions

Notwithstanding anything in the Plan or herein to the contrary, the GUC Equity Trustee shall not be required to make distributions or payments of less than $50.00 .

Whenever any distribution of a fraction of a dollar would be required, the GUC Equity Trustee shall round such fraction to the nearest whole dollar (up or down), with half dollars being rounded down.

5.5 Final Plan Distribution

Notwithstanding anything in the Plan to the contrary, in the event that: (a) in the discretion of the GUC Equity Trustee, the GUC Equity Trust (i) has insufficient funds to make any further distributions to Sub-Trust A for distribution to the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiaries through their Sub-Trust A-1 Interests, and (ii) has no remaining potential sources of funds; (b) all GUC Equity Trust Beneficiaries have been paid in full; or (c) it is impractical or impossible for the GUC Equity Trustee to make further distributions to the Sub-Trust A for distribution to the

GUC Equity Trust Beneficiaries through their Sub-Trust A-1 Interests, the GUC Equity Trustee shall have the right to transfer such assets to the Reorganized Debtors, subject to the terms of the New Corporate Governance Documents; provided, however, that the GUC Equity Trustee shall be permitted to establish a reserve sufficient to pay all costs and expenses of the GUC Equity Trust.

5.6 Requirement of Undertaking

The GUC Equity Trustee may request any court of competent jurisdiction to require, and any such court may in its discretion require, in any suit for the enforcement of any right or remedy under the Plan, or in any suit against the GUC Equity Trustee for any act taken or omitted by the GUC Equity Trustee, that the filing party litigant in such suit undertake to pay the costs of such suit or post a bond, if required, and such court may in its discretion assess reasonable costs, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees, against any party litigant in such suit, having due regard to the merits and good faith of the claims or defenses made by such party litigant. The requirement of an undertaking shall not apply to suits filed by the GUC Equity Trustee.

7.1 Liability, Indemnification of the GUC Equity Trustee and the GUC Equity Trustee Professionals

The GUC Equity Trustee and the Delaware Trustee, shall have no liability for any actions or omissions in accordance with this Agreement or with respect to the GUC Equity Trust unless arising out of such Person's own fraud or willful misconduct. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the GUC Equity Trustee and the Delaware Trustee may rely without independent investigation on copies of orders of the Bankruptcy Court reasonably believed by such Person to be genuine and shall have no liability for actions taken in reliance thereon. None of the provisions of this Agreement shall require the GUC Equity Trustee or the Delaware Trustee, to expend or risk their own funds or otherwise incur personal financial liability in the performance of any of their duties hereunder or in the exercise of any of their rights and powers. The GUC Equity Trustee and the Delaware Trustee, may rely without inquiry upon writings delivered to such Person pursuant to the Plan or the Confirmation Order that such Person reasonably believes to be genuine and to have been properly given. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Section 7.1 shall relieve the GUC Equity Trustee or the Delaware Trustee, from any liability for any actions or omissions arising out of such Person's fraud or willful misconduct. No termination of this Agreement or amendment, modification, or repeal of this Section 7.1 shall adversely affect any right or protection of the GUC Equity Trustee, that exists at the time of such amendment, modification, or repeal.

(a) From and after the Effective Date, each of the GUC Equity Trustee, the Delaware Trustee, the GUC Equity Trustee Professionals and other the professionals of the GUC Equity Trust and their representatives and professionals (each, a "GUC Equity Trust Indemnified Party," and collectively, the "GUC Equity Trust Indemnified Parties") shall be, and each of them hereby is, indemnified by GUC Equity Trust, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, including the Trust Act, from and against any and all Claims, debts, dues, accounts, actions, suits, Causes of Action (including, without limitation, any suit or other enforcement action brought to enforce indemnity obligations under this Agreement), bonds, covenants, judgments, damages, reasonable attorneys' fees, defense costs, and other assertions of liability arising out of any such GUC Equity Trust Indemnified Party's exercise of what such GUC Equity Trust Indemnified Party reasonably understands to be its powers or the discharge of what such GUC Equity Trust Indemnified Party reasonably understands to be its duties conferred by the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement or this Agreement, any order of the Bankruptcy Court entered pursuant to, or in furtherance of, the Plan, applicable law, or otherwise (except only for actions or omissions to act to the extent determined by a Final Order to be due to such GUC Equity Trust Indemnified Party's own fraud or willful misconduct on and after the Effective Date). The foregoing indemnification shall also extend to matters directly or indirectly in connection with, arising out of, based on, or in any way related to: (i) this Agreement; (ii) the services to be rendered pursuant to this Agreement; (iii) any document or information, whether oral or written, referred to herein or supplied to the GUC Equity Trustee or Delaware Trustee in connection herewith; or (iv) proceedings by or on behalf of any creditor, or

(v) the application of any law, statute, regulation or other rule to the GUC Equity Trust or its assets. The GUC Equity Trust shall, on demand, advance or pay promptly, at the election of the GUC Equity Trust Indemnified Party, solely out of the GUC Equity Trust Assets, on behalf of each GUC Equity Trust Indemnified Party, reasonable attorneys' fees and other expenses and disbursements to which such GUC Equity Trust Indemnified Party would be entitled pursuant to the foregoing indemnification provision; provided, however, that any GUC Equity Trust Indemnified Party receiving any such advance shall execute a written undertaking to repay such advance if a court of competent jurisdiction ultimately determines, by Final Order, that such GUC Equity Trust Indemnified Party is not entitled to indemnification hereunder due to such Person's own fraud or willful misconduct. Any indemnification Claim of a GUC Equity Trust Indemnified Party shall be entitled to a priority distribution from the GUC Equity Trust Assets, ahead of Trust Interests and any other Claim to or Interest in such assets. In any matter covered by the first two sentences of this subsection, any party entitled to indemnification shall have the right to employ such party's own separate counsel, at the GUC Equity Trust's expense, subject to the foregoing terms and conditions. In addition, the GUC Equity Trust shall purchase insurance coverage, including fiduciary liability insurance using funds from the GUC Equity Trust Assets for the benefit of the Master Trustees. The indemnification provided under this Section 7.2 shall survive the death, dissolution, resignation, or removal, as may be applicable, of the GUC Equity Trustee, or any other GUC Equity Trust Indemnified Party and shall inure to the benefit of the GUC Equity Trustee, and each other GUC Equity Trust Indemnified Party's respective heirs, successors, and assigns.

(b) The foregoing indemnity in respect of any GUC Equity Trust Indemnified Party shall survive the termination of such GUC Equity Trust Indemnified Party from the capacity for which such party is indemnified. Termination or modification of this Agreement shall not affect any indemnification rights or obligations set forth herein.

(c) The GUC Equity Trust may, but is not obligated to, indemnify any Person who is not a GUC Equity Trust Indemnified Party for any loss, cost, damage, expense or liability for which a GUC Equity Trust Indemnified Party would be entitled to mandatory indemnification under this Section 7.2.

(d) Any GUC Equity Trust Indemnified Party may waive the benefits of indemnification under this Section 7.2, but only by an instrument in writing executed by such GUC Equity Trust Indemnified Party.

(e) The rights to indemnification under this Section 7.2 are not exclusive of other rights which any GUC Equity Trust Indemnified Party may otherwise have at law or in equity, including, without limitation, common law rights to indemnification or contribution. Nothing in this Section 7.2 will affect the rights or obligations of any Person (or the limitations on those rights or obligations) under any other agreement or instrument to which that Person is a party. Further, the GUC Equity Trust hereby agrees that the GUC Equity Trust shall be required to pay the full amount of expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) actually incurred by such GUC Equity Indemnified Party in connection with any proceeding as to which GUC Equity Trust Indemnified Party is entitled to indemnification hereunder in advance of the final disposition of such proceeding. For the avoidance of doubt, each GUC Equity Trust Indemnified Party shall be entitled, subject to the terms hereof, to indemnification for any costs and reasonable attorneys' fees such GUC Equity Trust Indemnified Party may incur in connection with enforcing any of its rights under this Article VII.

7.3 GUC Equity Trust Liabilities. All liabilities of the GUC Equity Trust, including, without limitation, indemnity obligations under Section 7.2 of this Agreement, will be liabilities of the GUC Equity Trust as an Entity and will be paid or satisfied solely from the GUC Equity Trust Assets. No liability of the GUC Equity Trust will be payable in whole or in part by any GUC Equity Trust Beneficiary individually or in the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiary's capacity as a GUC Equity Trust Beneficiary, by the GUC Equity Trustee individually or in the GUC Equity Trustee's capacity as GUC Equity Trustee, or by any representative, member, partner, shareholder, director, officer, professional, employees, agent, affiliate, or advisor of any GUC Equity Trust Beneficiary, the Delaware Trustee, or their respective affiliates.

7.4 Limitation of Liability. None of the GUC Equity Trust Indemnified Parties shall be liable for indirect, punitive, exemplary, consequential, special, or other damages for a breach of this Agreement under any circumstances.

7.5 Burden of Proof. In making a determination with respect to entitlement to exculpation or indemnification hereunder, the court, person, or entity making such determination shall presume that any Covered Party is entitled to exculpation and indemnification under this Agreement and any person seeking to overcome such presumption shall have the burden of proof to overcome that presumption.

7.6 Reliance by GUC Equity Trustee

Except as otherwise provided herein:

(a) the GUC Equity Trustee may rely, and shall be protected in acting or refraining from acting, upon any certificates, opinions, statements, instruments, or reports believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed or presented by the proper Person or Persons;

(b) the GUC Equity Trustee shall not be liable for any action reasonably taken or not taken by it in reasonable reliance upon the advice of a GUC Equity Trustee Professional or GUC Equity Trustee Non-Professional;

(c) Persons providing services to the GUC Equity Trustee shall look only to the GUC Equity Trust Assets to satisfy any liability incurred by the GUC Equity Trustee to such Person in carrying out the terms of this Agreement, and neither the GUC Equity Trustee nor GUC Equity Trust Beneficiaries shall have any personal obligation to satisfy any such liability, except to the extent that actions taken or not taken after the Effective Date by the GUC Equity Trustee are determined by a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction to be solely due to the GUC Equity Trustee's own willful misconduct or fraud;

(d) whenever, in the administration of this Agreement, the GUC Equity Trustee shall deem it desirable that a matter be proved or established prior to taking, suffering, or omitting any action hereunder, the GUC Equity Trustee (unless other evidence be herein specifically prescribed) may rely upon an opinion of counsel or certificate furnished to the GUC Equity Trustee by or on behalf of the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiaries;

(e) the GUC Equity Trustee shall not be bound to make any investigation into the facts or matters stated in any resolution, certificate, statement, instrument, opinion, report, notice, request, direction, consent, order, bond, or other paper or document, but the GUC Equity Trustee, in the GUC Equity Trustee's discretion, may make such further inquiry or investigation into such facts or matters as the GUC Equity Trustee may see fit, and, if the GUC Equity Trustee shall determine to make such further inquiry or investigation, the GUC Equity Trustee shall be entitled to examine the books, records, and premises of the relevant Person or entity, personally or by agent or attorney; and

(f) the GUC Equity Trustee may execute any of the trusts or powers hereunder or perform any duties hereunder either directly or by or through agents or attorneys and the GUC Equity Trustee shall not be responsible for any misconduct or negligence on the part of any agent or attorney appointed with due care by the GUC Equity Trustee hereunder.

ESTABLISHMENT OF THE GUC EQUITY TRUST

8.1 Transfer of Assets to GUC Equity Trust; Assumption of Liabilities

(a) Pursuant to the Plan, the Debtors and the GUC Equity Trustee hereby establish the GUC Equity Trust on behalf of the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiaries, through their Sub-Trust A-1 Interests, to be treated as the grantors. On the Effective Date, pursuant to the Plan, the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, shall transfer, assign, and deliver to the GUC Equity Trust the GUC Equity Trust Assets for the benefit of the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiaries.

8.2 Title to Assets. Notwithstanding any prohibition of assignability under applicable nonbankruptcy law, on the Effective Date, the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, shall deposit with the GUC Equity Trust, all of their right, title, and interest in and to all of the GUC Equity Trust Assets. In accordance with section 1141 of the Bankruptcy Code, all such assets shall automatically vest in the GUC Equity Trust free and clear of all Liens, Claims, charges, or other encumbrances, and no other Person shall have any interest, legal, beneficial, or otherwise, in the GUC Equity Trust or the GUC Equity Trust Assets upon the assignment and transfer of such assets to the GUC Equity Trust (other than as provided in the Plan, the Confirmation Order, or this Agreement). Thereupon, the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors shall not have any interest in or with respect to the GUC Equity Trust Assets or the GUC Equity Trust. To the extent any law or regulation prohibits the transfer of ownership of any of the GUC Equity Trust Assets from the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors (as applicable) to the GUC Equity Trust and such law is not superseded by the Bankruptcy Code, the GUC Equity Trust's interest shall be a lien upon and security interest in such GUC Equity Trust Assets, in trust, nevertheless, for the sole use and purposes set forth herein and in the Plan, and this Agreement shall be deemed a security agreement granting such interest thereon without need to file financing statements or mortgages. By executing this Agreement, the GUC Equity Trustee on behalf of the GUC Equity Trust hereby accepts all of such property as GUC Equity Trust Assets, to be held in trust for the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiaries, subject to the terms of this Agreement and the Plan.

8.3 Tax Treatment.

(a) Unless the GUC Equity Trust has undergone the Conversion, the Debtors, GUC Equity Trustee, and GUC Equity Trust Beneficiaries agree to treat the GUC Equity Trust as a "liquidating trust" described in Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(d), taxable as a "grantor trust" for U.S. federal income tax purposes under Sections 671 through 679 of the IRC, unless otherwise required by applicable law. The Parties agree that, unless otherwise required by applicable law, the GUC Equity Trust shall file or cause to be filed any annual or other necessary returns, reports and other forms consistent with the characterization of the GUC Equity Trust as a liquidating trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes and, subject to the provisions of Section 8.3(b), no Party shall take a position on any tax return inconsistent with such treatment.

(b) If, in the reasonable judgment of the GUC Equity Trustee, the GUC Equity Trust is expected to survive for a period of more than five (5) years from the Emergence Date, the Parties agree that the GUC Equity Trustee, in the exercise of its reasonable discretion, shall either (i) seek to extend the term of the GUC Equity Trust for a reasonable period of time in a manner consistent with Section 13.1 hereof and Revenue Procedure 94-45 § 3.06, or (ii) convert the GUC Equity Trust from a liquidating trust described in Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(d) to an investment trust described in Treasury Regulation § 301.7701-4(c), taxable as a grantor trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes under Sections 671 through 679 of the IRC (the process described in this clause (ii), the "Conversion"). In the event of a Conversion, the Parties (x) agree that, unless otherwise required by applicable law, the GUC Equity Trust shall file or cause to be filed any annual or other necessary returns, reports and other forms consistent with the characterization of the converted entity as an investment trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes, (y) shall cooperate to amend this Agreement to reflect such Conversion, and (z) shall take no position on any tax return inconsistent with such treatment.

(c) As soon as reasonably practicable following the establishment of the GUC Equity Trust, the GUC Equity Trustee shall determine the value of the GUC Equity Trust Assets transferred to the GUC Equity Trust as of the Effective Date, based on the good-faith determination of the GUC Equity Trustee. The valuation of the GUC Equity Trust Assets prepared pursuant to this Agreement shall be used consistently by all parties (including, without limitation, the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, the GUC Equity Trustee, and the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiaries) for all U.S. federal income tax purposes. In connection with the preparation of any valuation contemplated hereby, the GUC Equity Trust, subject to Section 12.1 hereof, shall be entitled to retain such GUC Equity Trust professionals as the GUC Equity Trustee shall determine to be appropriate or necessary in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, and the GUC Equity Trustee shall take such other actions in connection therewith as it determines to be appropriate or necessary. For the avoidance of doubt, the valuation shall not be binding on the GUC Equity Trust, the GUC Equity Trustee, or the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiaries for any purpose other than U.S. federal income tax purposes, and the valuation shall not impair or prejudice rights, claims, powers, duties, authority and/or privileges of the GUC Equity Trustee, the GUC Equity Trust, or nay of the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiaries except with respect to U.S. federal income tax purposes.

9.1 Interest Beneficial Only

The ownership of the GUC Equity Trust Interest or Sub-Trust A-1 Interests shall not entitle the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiary to any title in or to the GUC Equity Trust Assets (which title shall be vested in the GUC Equity Trust) or to any right to call for a partition or division of the GUC Equity Trust Assets or to require an accounting. The GUC Equity Trust Interest and Sub-Trust A-1 Interests shall not be evidenced by a certificate or other instrument, shall not possess any voting rights and shall not be entitled to receive any dividends or interests.

9.2 Transfer of GUC Equity Trust Interest

The GUC Equity Trust Interest shall not be transferable, except by operation of law. No transfer, assignment, pledge, hypothecation, or other disposition of the GUC Equity Trust Interest shall be effective or binding upon the GUC Equity Trust or the GUC Equity Trustee for any purpose, except as set forth in the immediately preceding sentence.

9.3 Effect of Death, Dissolution, Incapacity, or Bankruptcy of GUC Equity Trust Beneficiary

The death, dissolution, incapacity, or bankruptcy of a GUC Equity Trust Beneficiary during the term of the GUC Equity Trust shall not operate to terminate the GUC Equity Trust during the term of the GUC Equity Trust, nor shall it entitle the representative or creditors of the deceased, incapacitated, or bankrupt GUC Equity Trust Beneficiary to an accounting or to take any action in any court or elsewhere for the distribution of the GUC Equity Trust Assets or for a partition thereof, nor shall it otherwise affect the rights and obligations of the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiary under this Agreement or in the GUC Equity Trust.

9.4 Securities Law

The parties hereto intend that the GUC Equity Trust Interest shall not be a "security" under applicable laws, but none of the parties hereto represent or warrant that such rights shall not be securities or shall be entitled to exemption from registration under applicable securities laws. If it should be determined that any such interests constitute "securities," the parties hereto intend that the exemption provisions of Section 1145 of the Bankruptcy Code will be satisfied and the offer and sale under the Plan of the GUC Equity Trust Interest will be exempt from registration under the Securities Act, all rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, and all applicable state and local securities laws and regulations.

Subject to Section 9.4 hereof, the GUC Equity Trustee may amend this Agreement in accordance with Section 15.1 hereof to make such changes as are deemed necessary or appropriate, with the advice of counsel, to ensure that the GUC Equity Trust is not subject to registration and/or reporting requirements of the Securities Act, the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended.

ADMINISTRATION

10.1 Purpose of the GUC Equity Trust

The GUC Equity Trust shall be established for the primary purpose of protecting and conserving the assets of the GUC Equity Trust and to facilitate the liquidation and administration of the GUC Equity Trust Assets in accordance with Treasury Regulation section 301.7701-4(d), with no objective to continue or engage in the conduct of a trade or any other business, except to the extent reasonably necessary to, and consistent with, the purpose of the GUC Equity Trust other than as expressly permitted by this Agreement. The GUC Equity Trust and GUC Equity Trustee (and any agent of either person) shall take, or refrain from taking, all such action as is necessary to maintain the status of the GUC Equity Trust as a grantor trust. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement or otherwise, neither the GUC Equity Trust nor the GUC Equity Trustee (nor any agent of either person) shall (i) acquire any assets or dispose of any portion of the GUC Equity Trust other than pursuant to the specific provisions of this Agreement, (ii) vary the investment of the GUC Equity Trust within the meaning of Treasury Regulation Section 301.7701-4(c) or (iii) substitute new investments or reinvest so as to enable the GUC Equity Trust to take advantage of variations in the market to improve the investment of the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiaries. The GUC Equity Trustee shall not have any authority to manage, control, use, sell, dispose of or otherwise deal with any part of the GUC Equity Trust property except as required by the express terms of this Agreement in accordance with the powers granted to or the authority conferred upon the GUC Equity Trustee pursuant to this Agreement.

The GUC Equity Trustee shall maintain books and records relating to the administration of the GUC Equity Trust Assets and the distribution by the GUC Equity Trustee of the proceeds therefrom in such detail and for such period of time as may be necessary to make full and proper accounting in respect thereof and to comply with applicable provisions of law. The GUC Equity Trustee shall also maintain books and records relating to the income and expenses of the GUC Equity Trust, and the payment of expenses of and liabilities of, claims against or assumed by, the GUC Equity Trust in such detail and for such period of time as may be necessary to make full and proper accounting in respect thereof and to comply with applicable provisions of law. Except as otherwise provided herein or in the Plan, nothing in this Agreement requires the GUC Equity Trustee to file any accounting or seek approval of any court with respect to the administration of the GUC Equity Trust, or as a condition for making any payment or distribution out of the GUC Equity Trust Assets.

Subject to all applicable privileges, the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiaries shall have the right, in addition to any other rights they may have pursuant to this Agreement, under the Plan, or otherwise, upon thirty (30) days' prior written notice to the GUC Equity Trustee, to request a reasonable inspection of the books and records held by the GUC Equity Trustee, provided, however, that all costs associated with such inspection shall be paid in advance by such requesting GUC Equity Trust Beneficiary, and further, if so requested, such GUC Equity Trust Beneficiary shall have entered into a confidentiality agreement satisfactory in form and substance to the GUC Equity Trustee, and make such other arrangements as may be reasonably requested by the GUC Equity Trustee.

The books and records maintained by the GUC Equity Trustee may be disposed of by the GUC Equity Trustee at the later of (i) such time as the GUC Equity Trustee determines that the continued possession or maintenance of such books and records is no longer necessary for the benefit of the GUC Equity Trust or the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiaries or (ii) upon the termination and completion of the winding down of the GUC Equity Trust.

10.3 Compliance with Laws

Any and all distributions made pursuant to this Agreement shall comply with all applicable laws and regulations, including, but not limited to, applicable federal and state tax and securities laws.

ARTICLE XI
REPORTING

11.1 Federal Income Tax

(a) Accounting and Reports to the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiary, the Internal Revenue Service and Others. The GUC Equity Trustee shall maintain (or cause to be maintained) the books of the GUC Equity Trust on a calendar year basis on the accrual method of accounting, deliver to the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiaries, as may be required by the Code and applicable Treasury Regulations or otherwise, such information in the possession or control of the GUC Equity Trustee as may be required to enable the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiary to prepare its federal income tax return, file such tax returns relating to the GUC Equity Trust and make such elections as may from time to time be required or appropriate under any applicable State or U.S. federal statute or rule or regulation thereunder so as to maintain the GUC Equity Trust's characterization as an entity described in this Section 11.1 for federal income tax purposes, cause such tax returns to be signed in the manner required by law and collect or cause to be collected any withholding tax as described in and in accordance with Section 5.4(b) hereof with respect to income or distributions to the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiary. The GUC Equity Trustee shall annually cause to be sent to the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiary a separate statement setting forth the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiary's share of items of income, gain, loss, deduction or credit and will instruct the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiary to report such items on its federal income tax return. The GUC Equity Trustee shall prepare or cause to be prepared the returns and information required by Treasury Regulations Section 1.671-5, as well as any other applicable provisions of law, to be provided and filed, as applicable, in the manner prescribed therein.

(b) Signature on Returns; Other Tax Matters. The GUC Equity Trustee shall sign on behalf of the GUC Equity Trust any and all tax returns of the GUC Equity Trust, unless applicable law requires the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiary to sign such documents, in which case the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiary hereby agrees to sign such document and to cooperate fully with the reasonable requests of the GUC Equity Trustee with respect thereto. The GUC Equity Trustee shall file (or cause to be filed) any statement, returns, or disclosures relating to the GUC Equity Trust or the GUC Equity Trust Assets, that are required by any governmental unit.

12.1 Retention of GUC Equity Trustee Professionals and GUC Equity Trustee Non-Professionals

The GUC Equity Trustee shall have the right to retain GUC Equity Trustee Professionals and GUC Equity Trustee Non-Professionals, each on such terms as the GUC

Equity Trustee deems appropriate.[3] The GUC Equity Trustee Professionals and the GUC Equity Trustee Non-Professionals shall be compensated in accordance with Section 13.2 hereof and need not be "disinterested" as that term is defined in the Bankruptcy Code.

The GUC Equity Trustee shall pay those invoices within ten (10) days after receipt, without Bankruptcy Court approval, unless the GUC Equity Trustee objects in writing specifying the reasons for such objection and identifying the specific fees or expenses to which objection is made. If there is a dispute as to a portion of an invoice, the GUC Equity Trustee shall pay the undisputed portion. All payments to GUC Equity Trustee Professionals and GUC Equity Trustee Non-Professionals shall be paid out of the GUC Equity Trust Assets and pursuant to the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement.

ARTICLE XIII

13.1 Duration and Extension

The GUC Equity Trust shall be dissolved at such time as all of the GUC Equity Trust Assets have been distributed pursuant to the Plan and this Agreement; provided, however, that in no event shall the GUC Equity Trust be dissolved later than five (5) years from the Effective Date unless the Bankruptcy Court, upon motion within the six-month period prior to the fifth (5th) anniversary (or within the six-month period prior to the end of an extension period), determines that a fixed period extension (not to exceed three (3) years, including any prior extensions, without a favorable private letter ruling from the Internal Revenue Service or an opinion of counsel satisfactory to the GUC Equity Trustee that any further extension would not adversely affect the status of the GUC Equity Trust as a liquidating trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes) is necessary to facilitate or complete the recovery and liquidation of the GUC Equity Trust Assets. If at any time the GUC Equity Trustee determine, in reliance upon such professionals as the GUC Equity Trustee may retain that the expense of administering the GUC Equity Trust so as to make a final distribution to the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiaries is likely to exceed the value of the assets remaining in the GUC Equity Trust, the GUC Equity Trustee may apply to the Bankruptcy Court for authority to (i) reserve any amount necessary to dissolve the GUC Equity Trust, (ii) donate any balance to a charitable organization (A) described in section 501(c)(3) of the IRC, (B) exempt from U.S. federal income tax under section 501(a) of the IRC, (C) not a "private foundation," as defined in section 509(a) of the IRC and (D) that is unrelated to the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors, the GUC Equity Trust and any insider of the GUC Equity

[3] For the avoidance of doubt, the GUC Equity Trustee Professionals may be the same professionals advising Sub-Trust A.

Trustee and (iii) dissolve the GUC Equity Trust. If a final decree has been entered closing the Chapter 11 Cases, the GUC Equity Trustee may seek to open the Chapter 11 Cases for the limited purpose of filing a motion seeking authority as set forth in the immediately preceding sentence, and the costs for such motion and costs related to re-opening the Chapter 11 Cases shall be paid by use of the GUC Equity Trust Assets. Such date upon which the GUC Equity Trust shall finally be dissolved shall be referred to herein as the "Termination Date." Upon the Termination Date, the GUC Equity Trustee shall wind up and liquidate the GUC Equity Trust in accordance with section 3808 of the Trust Act and Section 13.1 herein and all monies remaining in the GUC Equity Trust shall be distributed or disbursed in accordance with Article V above. The GUC Equity Trustee and the Delaware Trustee (acting at the direction of the GUC Equity Trustee) shall file any required Certificate of Cancellation in accordance with section 3810(d) of the Trust Act, and thereupon this Agreement shall terminate.

13.2 Diligent Administration

The GUC Equity Trustee shall (a) not unduly prolong the duration of the GUC Equity Trust; (b) at all times endeavor to monetize the GUC Equity Trust Assets; (c) consult and confer with the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiaries and keep them fully advised of its activities; and (d) effect the liquidation of the GUC Equity Trust Assets and distribution of such proceeds to the GUC Equity Trust Beneficiaries in accordance with the terms of the Plan and this Agreement. The GUC Equity Trustee shall continue to hold the GUC Equity Trust Assets until such time as the GUC Equity Trustee determines, in consultation with the GUC Equity Trust Professionals, that it is in the best interests of the beneficiaries of the GUC Equity Trust to liquidate some or all of the GUC Equity Trust Assets, consistent with the terms of the Plan, the Committee Settlement Documents and this Agreement (such plan as may be developed and revised from time to time, the "Sell-Down Plan"). This provision is intended to modify the "prudent person" rule, "prudent investor" rule, or any other rule of law that would require the GUC Equity Trustee to diversify this stock portfolio. The GUC Equity Trustee shall execute the Sell-Down Plan from time to time in consultation with the GUC Equity Trust Professionals.

ARTICLE XIV

14.1 Amendment and Waiver

The GUC Equity Trustee may amend or waive any provision of this Agreement, provided however, that no change may be made to this Agreement that would adversely affect the federal income tax status of the GUC Equity Trust as a liquidating trust taxable as a grantor trust or an investment trust taxable as a grantor trust, as applicable; provided, further, that no such amendment or waiver shall (i) be inconsistent with the Plan or (ii) materially and adversely impact the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, or modify the obligations of the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors hereunder, without the prior written consent of the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable (not to be unreasonably withheld).

Notwithstanding the forgoing, to the extent any such amendment, supplement, or waiver affects the rights, duties, protections, immunities, or indemnities of the Delaware Trustee, such act shall require the written consent of the Delaware Trustee. The fees and expenses (including attorney's fees) of the Delaware Trustee incurred in connection with any amendment shall be paid by the GUC Equity Trust. In consenting to any amendment hereunder, the Delaware Trustee shall be entitled to receive and be fully protected in relying on an opinion of counsel that such amendment is authorized and permitted by this Agreement and that all conditions precedent to such amendment have been satisfied.

In the event that any Confidential Party is requested to divulge confidential information pursuant to clause (b) above, such Confidential Party shall promptly, in advance of making such disclosure, provide reasonable notice of such required disclosure to the GUC Equity Trustee to allow it sufficient time to object to or prevent such disclosure through judicial or other means and shall cooperate reasonably with the GUC Equity Trustee in making any such objection, including, but not limited to, appearing in any judicial or administrative proceeding in support of any objection to such disclosure.

(h) Pursuant to the Plan, as of the Effective Date, the Master Trust, on behalf of the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, and the Estates shall irrevocably vest, transfer, assign, and deliver, and shall be deemed to have vested, transferred, assigned and delivered:

(i) $1,625,000 of the Committees' Initial Cash Consideration to the Sub-Trust A, plus cash savings, if any, from the Committees' professsional fee budget, and the right to receive $4,500,000 of the Committees' Post-Emergence

Cash Consideration[2] to the Sub-Trust A (the "Sub-Trust A Cash Consideration," and together with the Sub-Trust A Claims, the "Sub-Trust A Assets"); and

(ii) $18,375,000 of the Committees' Initial Cash Consideration to the Sub-Trust B and the right to receive $23,000,000 of the Committees' Post-Emergence Cash Consideration to the Sub-Trust B (the "Sub-Trust B Cash Consideration," and together with the Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights, the "Sub-Trust B Assets").

(i) For the avoidance of doubt, except to the extent retained by the Master Trust to pay Master Trust Expenses (as defined below), the Master Trust shall retain none of the Master Trust Assets following receipt of such assets unless the Master Trust is unable to transfer any Sub-Trust A Assets and Sub-Trust B Assets to the Sub-Trust A or Sub-Trust B, respectively. To the extent that any of the Master Trust Assets cannot be transferred to or vested in the Master Trust because of a restriction on transferability under non-bankruptcy law that is not superseded or preempted by the Bankruptcy Code, such Master Trust Asset shall, to the extent permitted by applicable law, be deemed held by the Reorganized Debtors, as bailee for the Master Trust, and the Master Trustees shall be deemed to have been designated as a representative of the Reorganized Debtors, including pursuant to section 1123(b)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code to liquidate, monetize, enforce, and/or pursue such Master Trust Assets to the extent and subject to the limitations set forth in the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, and this Agreement, on behalf of the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, for the Master Trust Beneficiaries; provided, however, that the Reorganized Debtors shall be permitted to recoup the reasonable, documented out-of-pocket costs, if any, incurred in connection with holding and/or disposing of such asset(s) (to the extent not already recouped or paid in accordance with the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement) solely by withholding proceeds from (i) any amount payable to the Master Trust under the Plan as part of the Committees' Post-Emergence Cash Consideration, and (ii) any amounts otherwise payable to the Master Trust on account of the Reorganized Debtors monetizing the corresponding assets; provided, further, however, that the net proceeds of the sale or other disposition of any such assets by the Reorganized Debtors, until such time they are transferred to Master Trust, shall nevertheless be deemed to constitute Master Trust Assets.

(j) The Master Trust Assets and the rights thereto shall be Assigned to the Master Trust on the Effective Date; provided, however, to the extent any of the Master Trust Assets are capable of being Assigned but are not Assigned upon the Effective Date, the obligation to effect the Assignment of such Master Trust Asset shall be satisfied by the Master Trust and the Reorganized Debtors, in accordance with the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement and/or the Plan, as applicable.

(k) The Master Trustees may deduct and withhold Taxes from amounts otherwise distributable to any Entity any and all amounts, determined in the Master Trustees' sole discretion, required by this Agreement, any law, regulation, rule, ruling, directive, treaty, or other governmental requirement.

[2] The Sub-Trust A Cash payable from the Committees' Post-Emergence Cash Consideration shall be funded as follows: 20% of any amounts paid on account of real estate, 20% of any amounts paid on account of the CMS Receivable, 20% of the first three post-Effective Date payments and 10% of any remaining post-Effective Date payments, as set forth in the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement.

(l) In accordance with, and subject to, terms and conditions set forth in the Plan, the Confirmation Order, and the Litigation Trust Documents, the Reorganized Debtors shall take, or cause to be taken, all such further actions as Master Trust may reasonably request, in each case to the extent necessary, to permit Master Trust to preserve, secure, and obtain the benefit of the Master Trust Assets.

(m) On the Effective Date, the Reorganized Debtors, the Master Trust, Sub-Trust A and Sub-Trust B shall enter into the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement.

(n) At any time and from time to time on and after the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, and any party under the control of such parties shall agree (i) at the reasonable request of the Master Trustees to execute and/or deliver any instruments, documents, books, and records (including those maintained in electronic format and original documents as may be needed), and (ii) to take, or cause to be taken, all such further actions as the Master Trustees may reasonably request, in each case (x) in order to evidence or effectuate the transfer of the Master Trust Assets to the Master Trust and (y) to qualify at all times as a "liquidating trust" within the meaning of Section 301.7701-4(d) taxable as a grantor trust under U.S. tax principles.

(o) For all U.S. federal, state and local income tax purposes, as applicable, all parties (including, without limitation, the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors, the Master Trustees, the Delaware Trustee, and the Master Trust Beneficiaries) shall treat the transfer of the Master Trust Assets to the Master Trust in accordance with Section 6.1 hereof.

(p) The transfers set forth in this Section 1.2, made pursuant to the Plan, shall be exempt from any stamp, real estate transfer, mortgage reporting, sales, use or other similar tax, pursuant to section 1146(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

(q) Notwithstanding the foregoing, for purposes of section 553 of the Bankruptcy Code, the transfer of the Assigned Claims and Assigned Insurance Rights to the Master Trust shall not affect the mutuality of obligations that otherwise may have existed prior to the effectuation of such transfer. Notwithstanding anything in the Plan or in this Agreement to the contrary, the transfer of the Master Trust Assets to the Master Trust, and to the Sub-Trust A and the Sub-Trust B does not diminish, and fully preserves, any defenses a defendant would have if the Assigned Claims and Assigned Insurance Rights had been retained by the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors.

1.3 Funding of the Master Trust; Payment of Fees and Expenses.

(a) The Master Trust may be funded in accordance with the Plan with a portion of the Committees' Initial Cash Consideration or may be funded by periodic advances from the Sub-Trust A and Sub-Trust B, which funds shall be used to administer all Master Trust Assets and initially pay all reasonable fees, costs, and expenses (including indemnities) of and incurred by the Master Trust, including legal and other professional fees, costs, and expenses, administrative fees and expenses, insurance fees, taxes, and escrow expenses, which shall be paid in accordance with this Agreement; provided, however, that neither the Debtors nor the Reorganized Debtors shall be required in any event to pay the Master Trust Expenses (the "Master Trust Expenses"). The Master Trust Beneficiaries, the Debtors, and the Reorganized Debtors, shall have no obligation to provide any additional funding with respect to the Master Trust, except with respect to the Reorganized Debtors, any funding associated with the Committees Post-Emergence Cash Consideration.

(b) Each of the Master Trustees and the Delaware Trustee may incur any Master Trust Expenses in connection with the performance of their duties under the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement and this Agreement, including in connection with retaining professionals and/or entering into agreements pursuant to Sections 2.3 and 2.4 herein; provided, however, that the Delaware Trustee's expenses shall be limited to those specifically authorized in Section 4.3 or payable under the indemnification provisions of Article V hereof. All Master Trust Expenses shall be paid by, and solely be the obligation of, the Master Trust.

1.4 Title to the Master Trust Assets. The transfer of the Master Trust Assets to the Master Trust pursuant to Section 1.2 hereof is being made for the sole benefit, and on behalf, of the Master Trust Beneficiaries. Upon the transfer of the Master Trust Assets to the Master Trust, the Master Trust shall succeed to all of the Debtors', Reorganized Debtors', and the Estates' rights, title, and interest in the Master Trust Assets, including all such assets held or controlled by third parties, free and clear of all Liens, Claims, encumbrances, Interests, contractually imposed restrictions, and other interests, and no other Person shall have any interest, legal, beneficial, or otherwise, in the Master Trust or the Master Trust Assets upon the assignment and transfer of such assets to the Master Trust (other than as provided in the Plan, the Confirmation Order, or this Agreement). On the Effective Date, the Master Trust shall be substituted for the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors for all purposes with respect to the Master Trust Assets. To the extent any law or regulation prohibits the transfer of ownership of any of the Master Trust Assets from the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors (as applicable) to the Master Trust and such law is not superseded by the Bankruptcy Code, the Master Trust's interest shall be a lien upon and security interest in such Trust Assets, in trust, nevertheless, for the sole use and purposes set forth herein and in the Plan, and this Agreement shall be deemed a security agreement granting such interest thereon without need to file financing statements or mortgages. By executing this Agreement, the Master Trustees on behalf of the Master Trust hereby accept all of such property as Master Trust Assets, to be held in trust for the Master Trust Beneficiaries, subject to the terms of this Agreement and the Plan.

1.5 Nature and Purpose of the Master Trust.

(a) Purpose. The Master Trust is organized and established as a trust pursuant to which the Master Trustees, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, shall administer the Master Trust Assets, and otherwise implement the terms of this Agreement on behalf, and for the benefit, of the Master Trust Beneficiaries. The Master Trust shall liquidate and administer the Master Trust Assets in accordance with Treasury Regulation Section 301.7701-4(d) and with no objective to continue or engage in the conduct of a trade or business, except to the extent reasonably necessary to, and consistent with, the liquidating purpose of the Master Trust.

(b) Relationship. This Agreement is intended to create a trust and a trust relationship and to be governed and construed in all respects as a trust. The Master Trust is not intended to be, and shall not be deemed to be, or be treated as, a general partnership, limited partnership, joint venture, corporation, joint stock company, or association, nor shall the Master Trustees, or the Master Trust Beneficiaries for any purpose be, or be deemed to be or treated in any way whatsoever to be, liable or responsible hereunder as partners or joint venturers. The relationship of the Master Trust Beneficiaries, on the one hand, to the Master Trustees, on the other hand, shall be solely that of a beneficiary of a trust and shall not be deemed a principal and agency relationship, and their rights shall be limited to those conferred upon them by the Plan, the Confirmation Order, and this Agreement.

(c) Relationship to and Incorporation of the Plan. The principal purpose of this Agreement is to aid in the implementation of the Plan, the Confirmation Order, and the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, and therefore this Agreement incorporates the provisions thereof by reference. To that end, the Master Trustees shall have full power and authority to take any action consistent with the purpose and provisions of the Plan and the Confirmation Order, to seek any orders from the Bankruptcy Court in furtherance of implementation of the Plan that directly affect the interests of the Master Trust, and to seek any orders from the Bankruptcy Court solely in furtherance of this Agreement. To the extent there is a conflict between the provisions of this Agreement, the provisions of the Plan, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement and/or the Confirmation Order, each such document shall have controlling effect in the following ranked order: (1) the Confirmation Order; (2) the Plan; (3) the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement; and (4) this Agreement; provided, that the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement shall control over this Agreement with respect to any matters specifically addressed in the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement, and nothing in this Agreement shall modify or expand the obligations of the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors under the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement with respect to any matters addressed therein. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, no provision herein shall be construed or implemented in a manner that would cause the Master Trust to fail to qualify as a "liquidating trust" within the meaning of Section 301.7701-4(d) of the Treasury Regulations.

(d) Incidents of Ownership. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, the Master Trust Beneficiaries shall be the sole beneficiaries of the Master Trust, and the Master Trustees shall retain only such incidents of ownership as are necessary to undertake the actions and transactions authorized herein, in the Plan and in the Confirmation Order, including those powers set forth in this Agreement.

(e) Capacity of Master Trust. Notwithstanding any state or federal law to the contrary or anything herein, the Master Trust shall itself have the capacity, in its own right and name, to act or refrain from acting, including the capacity to sue and be sued and to enter into contracts. The Master Trust may alone be the named movant, respondent, party plaintiff or defendant, or the like in all adversary proceedings, contested matters, and other state or federal proceedings brought by or against it, and may settle and compromise all such matters in its own name.

1.6 Channeling and Assumption of Tort Claims.

(a) As of the Effective Date, and immediately following the channeling of such claims to the Master Trust, each Tort Claim, including any and all liability of the Debtors and/or the Reorganized Debtors for any and all Tort Claims shall automatically, and without further act, deed or court order, be channeled to and assumed by Sub-Trust B solely for the purpose of (i) automatically further channeling such Tort Claims to certain sub-trusts, in whole or in part, (ii) prosecuting such Tort Claim and/or corresponding insurance rights, and/or (iii) otherwise directing the administration, processing, liquidation, and payment of certain Tort Claims in accordance with the Sub-Trust B Agreement.

(b) In furtherance of the foregoing, except as otherwise provided in the Plan, Sub-Trust B shall have all defenses, cross-claims, offsets and recoupments, as well as rights of indemnification, contribution, subrogation and similar rights, regarding the Tort Claims that the Debtors and/or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, have, or would have had, under applicable law; provided that all such defenses, cross-claims, offsets and recoupments regarding any Tort Claim that is channeled to a sub-trust, in accordance with the trust agreement for Sub-Trust B shall be transferred to such sub-trusts with such Tort Claims, at which point, the Sub-Trust B shall no longer have such defenses, cross-claims, offsets and recoupments regarding such Tort Claims.

ARTICLE II
RIGHTS, POWERS, AND DUTIES OF MASTER TRUSTEES

2.1 Role of the Master Trustees. In furtherance of and consistent with the purpose of the Master Trust and the Plan, subject to the terms and conditions contained in the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement and this Agreement, and exercising the rights of trustees under the Trust Act, the Master Trustees shall (i) receive, manage, supervise, and protect the Master Trust Assets upon their receipt of same on behalf of and for the benefit of the Master Trust Beneficiaries; (ii) prepare and file all required tax returns and pay taxes and all other obligations of the Master Trust; and (iii) have all such other responsibilities and obligations as may be vested in the Master Trustees pursuant to the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement and this Agreement, and all other orders of the Bankruptcy Court. The Master Trustees shall be responsible for all decisions and duties with respect to the Master Trust and the Master Trust Assets, and such decisions and duties shall be carried out in accordance with the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement and this Agreement, and all other orders of the Bankruptcy Court. In all circumstances, the Master Trustees shall act in the best interests of the Master Trust Beneficiaries and in furtherance of the purpose of the Master Trust.

2.2 Fiduciary Duties. The Master Trustees' powers are exercisable solely in a fiduciary capacity on behalf of the Master Trust and the Master Trust Beneficiaries, consistent with, and in furtherance of, the purpose of the Master Trust and not otherwise, and in accordance with applicable law, including the Trust Act, and the provisions of this Agreement and the Plan.

2.3 Retention of Counsel and Other Professionals. The Master Trustees may, without further order of the Bankruptcy Court, employ various professionals, including counsel, tax advisors, consultants, and financial advisors, as the Master Trustees deem necessary to aid them in fulfilling their obligations under this Agreement and the Plan, and on whatever fee arrangement the Master Trustees deem appropriate, including contingency fee arrangements. Professionals engaged by the Master Trustees shall not be required to file applications to receive compensation for services rendered and reimbursement of actual out-of-pocket expenses incurred.

2.4 Agreements. Pursuant to the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, and the other provisions of this Agreement, the Master Trustees may enter into any agreement or execute any document in furtherance of the purposes of and consistent with the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, and this Agreement and perform all of the Master Trust's obligations thereunder.

2.5 Additional Powers of the Master Trustees. In addition to any and all of the powers enumerated above, and except as otherwise provided in the Plan, the Confirmation Order or this Agreement, and subject to the U.S. federal income tax principles governing grantor trusts and/or liquidating trusts and the retained jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court as provided for in the Plan, the Master Trustees, shall be empowered to:

(a) hold legal title to any and all rights in or arising from the Master Trust Assets, including, but not limited to, the right to collect any and all money and other property belonging to the Master Trust (including any proceeds of the Master Trust Assets);

(b) perform the duties, exercise the powers, and assert the rights of a trustee under sections 704 and 1106 of the Bankruptcy Code with respect to the Master Trust Assets, including the right to assert claims, defenses, offsets, and privileges;

(c) protect and enforce the rights of the Master Trust to the Master Trust Assets by any method deemed appropriate including, without limitation, by judicial proceedings or pursuant to any applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, moratorium, or similar law and general principles of equity;

(d) determine and satisfy any and all liabilities created, incurred, or assumed by the Master Trust;

(e) make all payments relating to the Master Trust Assets;

(f) obtain reasonable insurance coverage with respect to the potential liabilities and obligations of the Master Trust, and the Master Trustees, under this Agreement (in the form of a directors and officers policy, an errors and omissions policy, or otherwise);

(g) receive and distribute the Master Trust Assets, and withdraw and make distributions from and pay Taxes and other obligations owed by the Master Trust from funds held by the Master Trustees and/or the Master Trust, as long as such management is consistent with the Master Trust's status as a liquidating trust taxable as a grantor trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes and which actions are merely incidental to its liquidation and dissolution with no objective to continue or engage in the conduct of a trade or business, except to the extent reasonably necessary to, and consistent with, the liquidating purpose of the Master Trust;

(h) prepare, or have prepared, and file, if necessary, with the appropriate taxing authority (each, a "Tax Authority") any and all tax returns, information returns, and other required documents with respect to the Master Trust (including, without limitation, U.S. federal, state, local, or foreign tax or information returns required to be filed by the Master Trust) and pay taxes properly payable by the Master Trust, if any, and cause all Taxes payable by the Master Trust, if any, to be paid exclusively out of the Master Trust Assets;

(i) request any appropriate tax determination with respect to the Master Trust, including, without limitation, a determination pursuant to section 505 of the Bankruptcy Code;

(j) make tax elections by and on behalf of the Master Trust;

(k) retain and reasonably compensate for services rendered and expenses incurred an accounting firm or financial consulting firm and other advisory firms to perform such reviews and/or audits of the financial books and records of the Master Trust as may be appropriate in the Master Trustees' discretion and to prepare and file any tax returns or informational returns for the Master Trust as may be required;

(l) take or refrain from taking any and all actions the Master Trustees reasonably deems necessary for the continuation, protection, and maximization of the Master Trust Assets consistent with the purposes hereof;

(m) take all steps and execute all instruments and documents the Master Trustees reasonably deems necessary to effectuate the Master Trust;

(n) liquidate any remaining Master Trust Assets, and provide for the distributions therefrom in accordance with the provisions of the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, the Sub-Trust A Agreement, the Sub-Trust B Agreement, the GUC Equity Trust Agreement and this Agreement;

(o) take all actions the Master Trustees reasonably deems necessary to comply with the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, and this Agreement (including all obligations thereunder);

(p) in the event that the Master Trust shall fail or cease to qualify as a liquidating trust taxable as a grantor trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes, take any and all necessary actions as it shall deem appropriate to have such assets treated as held by another liquidating trust taxable as a grantor trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes, if no such liquidating trust taxable as a grantor trust treatment is available, as another tax-efficient entity/grantor trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes;

(q) exercise such other powers as may be vested in the Master Trustees pursuant to the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, or this Agreement, any order of the Bankruptcy Court, or as otherwise determined by the Master Trustees to be necessary and proper to carry out the obligations of the Master Trustees and Master Trust; and

(r) remove or replace the Delaware Trustee, and to enter into agreements with the Delaware Trustee concerning its engagement and compensation.

2.6 Limitations on Power and Authority of the Master Trustees. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the Master Trustees will not have the authority to do any of the following:

(a) take any action in contravention of the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, the Sub-Trust A Agreement, the Sub-Trust B Agreement, this Agreement, or the Trust Act;

(b) take any action that would make it impossible to carry on the activities of the Master Trust;

(c) possess property of the Master Trust or assign the Master Trust's rights in specific property for any purpose other than as provided herein;

(d) cause or permit the Master Trust to engage in any trade or business;

(e) receive transfers of any listed stocks or securities or any readily marketable assets or any operating assets of a going business, except as is necessary or required under the Plan, the Confirmation Order or this Agreement; provided, however, that in no event shall the Master Trustees receive any such investment that would jeopardize treatment of the Master Trust as a liquidating trust taxable as a grantor trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes; provided, however, that this section 3.13(e) shall not apply to the GUC Equity Trust Interest;

(f) receive or retain any operating assets of an operating business, a partnership interest in a partnership that holds operating assets, or 50% or more of the stock of a corporation with operating assets, except as is necessary or required under the Plan, the Confirmation Order or this Agreement; provided, however, that in no event shall the Master Trustees receive or retain any such asset or interest that would jeopardize treatment of the Master Trust as a liquidating trust taxable as a grantor trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes; or

(g) take any other action or engage in any investments or activities that would jeopardize treatment of the Master Trust as a liquidating trust taxable as a grantor trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

2.7 Books and Records. The Master Trustees shall maintain books and records relating to the Master Trust Assets and income of the Master Trust and the payment of, expenses of, and liabilities of claims against or assumed by, the Master Trust in such detail and for such period of time as may be necessary to enable it to make full and proper accounting in respect thereof and in accordance with applicable law. Such books and records shall be maintained as reasonably necessary to facilitate compliance with the tax reporting requirements of the Master Trust. Nothing in this Agreement requires the Master Trustees to file any accounting or seek approval of any court with respect to the administration of the Master Trust or as a condition for managing any payment or distribution out of the Master Trust Assets.

2.8 Distributions to Master Trust Beneficiaries. The Master Trustees shall make distributions to the Master Trust Beneficiaries not less frequently than once annually, starting on the Effective Date, unless the Master Trustees determine, in their reasonable discretion, that making such a distribution is impracticable in light of the anticipated Cash needs of the Master Trust going forward, or that, in light of the Cash available for distribution, making a distribution would not warrant the incurrence of costs in making the distribution or funds are otherwise not available to distribute; provided, however, that the Master Trustees' discretion may not be exercised in a manner inconsistent with any express requirements of the Plan.

THE MASTER TRUSTEES GENERALLY

3.1 Co-Trustees. The Master Trustees shall be same individuals or entities serving as the Sub-Trust A Trustee and the Sub-Trust B Trustee. The Master Trustees will serve as co-trustees for the Master Trust, with all of the same rights, powers, and limitations, as set forth in this Agreement.

3.2 Independent Master Trustees. The Master Trustees shall be professional persons or financial institutions. The Master Trustees shall not hold a financial interest in, act as a representative of, attorney, consultant, or agent for or serve as any other professional for the Debtors, or their affiliated persons.

3.3 Master Trustees' Compensation and Reimbursement.

(a) Compensation. Absent agreement by the Sub-Trust A Trustee and the Sub-Trust B Trustee, the Master Trustees' shall receive no compensation hereunder and shall instead be compensated solely in their capacity as Sub-Trust A Trustee or Sub-Trust B Trustee. Any modification of the Master Trustees' compensation shall be done with the prior written consent of the Sub-Trust A Trustee and the Sub-Trust B Trustee, and notice thereof shall be posted on the Master Trust's website, if any.

(b) Expenses. The Master Trust will reimburse the Master Trustees for all actual, reasonable and documented out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Master Trustees in connection with the performance of the duties of the Master Trustees hereunder or under the Confirmation Order or the Plan, including but not limited to, actual, reasonable and documented fees and disbursements of the Master Trustees' legal counsel incurred in connection with the preparation, execution and delivery of this Agreement and related documents.

(c) Payment. The fees and expenses payable to the Master Trustees shall be paid to the Master Trustees without necessity for review or approval by the Bankruptcy Court or any other Person.

3.4 Resignation. The Master Trustees may resign by giving not less than 90 days' prior written notice thereof to legal counsel retained by Sub-Trust A (the "Sub-Trust A Counsel") and legal counsel retained by Sub-Trust B (the "Sub-Trust B Counsel"). Such resignation shall become effective on the later to occur of: (a) the day specified in such notice, and (b) the appointment of a successor Master Trustee, pursuant to Section 3.6 herein, and the acceptance by such successor of such appointment. If a successor Master Trustee is not appointed or does not accept its appointment within 90 days following delivery of notice of resignation, the Sub-Trust A Counsel and the Sub-Trust B Counsel may select a replacement Master Trustee by mutual agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, upon the Termination Date (as defined in Section 7.1 below), the Master Trustee shall be deemed to have resigned, except as otherwise provided for in Section 7.2 herein.

3.5 Removal.

(a) The Master Trustees may be removed, and any successor Master Trustee appointed by the mutual agreement of Sub-Trust A Counsel and the Sub-Trust B Counsel, but may only be removed for Cause upon 90 days' prior written notice. "Cause" shall mean:

(i) such Person's or Entity's conviction of any felony or the filing of any indictment or any criminal information against such person in respect of any crime involving moral turpitude;

(ii) any act or failure to act by such person involving actual dishonesty, willful misconduct, fraud, material misrepresentation, theft, or embezzlement

(iii) such Person's or Entity's willful and repeated failure to perform their duties under this Trust Agreement or the Trust Act; or

(iv) such Person's or Entity's incapacity, such that they presently are, and are expected to be for more than ninety (90) consecutive days, unable to substantially perform their duties under this Agreement or the Trust Act.

(b) To the extent there is any dispute regarding the removal of a Master Trustee (including any dispute relating to any compensation or expense reimbursement due under this Agreement), the Bankruptcy Court shall retain jurisdiction to consider and adjudicate any such dispute. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a Master Trustee will continue to serve as a Master Trustee after his removal until the earlier of (i) the time when appointment of a successor Master Trustee will become effective in accordance with Section 3.6 of this Agreement or (ii) such date as the Bankruptcy Court otherwise orders.

3.6 Appointment of Successor Master Trustee.

(a) In the event of the death or disability (in the case of a Master Trustee that is a natural person), dissolution (in the case of a Master Trustee that is not a natural person), resignation, incompetency, or removal of a Master Trustee, or the Master Trustees, the Sub-Trust A Counsel and the Sub-Trust B Counsel shall designate a successor Master Trustee or successor Master Trustees by mutual agreement. Such appointment shall specify the date on which such appointment shall be effective. Every successor Master Trustee appointed hereunder shall execute, acknowledge, and deliver to the Sub-Trust A Counsel and the Sub-Trust B Counsel an instrument accepting the appointment under this Agreement and agreeing to be bound as Master Trustee thereto, and thereupon the successor Master Trustee, without any further act, deed, or conveyance, shall become vested with all rights, powers, trusts and duties of the retiring Master Trustee and the successor Master Trustee shall not be personally liable for any act or omission of the predecessor Master Trustee; provided, however, that a removed or resigning Master Trustee shall, nevertheless, when requested in writing by the successor Master Trustee, execute and deliver an instrument or instruments conveying and transferring to such successor Master Trustee under the Master Trust all the estates, properties, rights, powers, and trusts of such predecessor Master Trustee and otherwise assist and cooperate, without cost or expense to the predecessor Master Trustee, in effectuating the assumption of its obligations and functions by the successor Master Trustee.

(b) During any period in which there is a vacancy in the position of a Master Trustee, the respective counsel for the Sub-Trust whose interests, immediately prior to such vacancy arising, were represented by the Master Trustee in such now-vacant position, shall appoint someone to serve as interim Master Trustee (the "Interim Trustee") until a successor Master Trustee is appointed pursuant to Section 3.6(a) herein and the acceptance by such successor of such appointment. The Interim Trustee shall be subject to all the terms and conditions applicable to a Master Trustee hereunder.

3.7 Effect of Resignation or Removal. The death, Disability, dissolution, bankruptcy, resignation, incompetency, incapacity, or removal of a Master Trustee, or the Master Trustees, as applicable, shall not operate to terminate the Master Trust created by this Agreement or to revoke any existing agency created pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or invalidate any action theretofore taken by the Master Trustees or any prior Master Trustee. In the event of the resignation or removal of a Master Trustee, such Master Trustee will promptly (a) execute and deliver such documents, instruments, and other writings as may be reasonably requested by the Sub-Trust A Trustee and the Sub-Trust B Trustee or the successor Master Trustee to effect the termination of such Master Trustee's capacity under this Agreement, (b) deliver to the Sub-Trust A Counsel and the Sub-Trust B Counsel, and/or the successor Master Trustee all documents, instruments, records and other writings related to the Master Trust as may be in the possession of such Master Trustee (provided, however, that such Master Trustee may retain one copy of such documents for archival purposes), and (c) otherwise assist and cooperate in effecting the assumption of its obligations and functions by such successor Master Trustee.

3.8 Confidentiality. The Master Trustees shall, during the period that the Master Trustees serve as Master Trustees under this Agreement and following the termination of this Agreement or following such Master Trustee's removal or resignation hereunder, hold strictly confidential and not use for personal gain any non-public information of or pertaining to any Person to which any of the Master Trust Assets relates or of which the Master Trustees have become aware in the Master Trustees' capacity as Master Trustee, except as otherwise required by law.

3.9 Manner of Acting. Any action or inaction required or permitted to be taken hereunder by the Master Trustees shall be taken by unanimous consent of both Master Trustees; provided, however, that any matter on which the Master Trustees disagree may be submitted to the Bankruptcy Court for determination.

ARTICLE IV
THE DELAWARE TRUSTEE

4.1 Appointment. The Delaware Trustee shall act solely for the purpose of complying with the requirement of section 3807 of the Trust Act, and its powers and obligations hereunder shall have become effective upon the Effective Date.

4.2 Powers.

(a) Notwithstanding any provision hereof to the contrary, the duties and responsibilities of the Delaware Trustee shall be limited solely to (i) accepting legal process served on the Master Trust in the State of Delaware and (ii) the execution of any certificates required to be filed with the office of the Delaware Secretary of State that the Delaware Trustee is required to execute under section 3811 of the Trust Act at the written direction of the Master Trustees (including without limitation the certificate of trust of the Master Trust as required by sections 3810 and 3820 of the Trust Act (the "Certificate of Trust")). Except as provided in the foregoing sentence, the Delaware Trustee shall have no management or administrative responsibilities or owe any fiduciary duties to the Master Trust, the Master Trustees, or the Master Trust Beneficiaries. The filing of the Certificate of Trust with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware as provided under the Trust Act is hereby ratified.

(b) By its execution hereof, the Delaware Trustee accepts the trusteeship of the Master Trust on the terms set forth herein. The Delaware Trustee shall not have any duty or liability with respect to the administration of the Master Trust (except as otherwise expressly set forth in Section 4.2(a) hereof), the investment of the Master Trust Assets or the distribution of the Master Trust Assets to the Master Trust Beneficiaries, and no such duties shall be implied. To the extent that, at law or in equity, the Delaware Trustee has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating to the Master Trust, the Master Trustees, or the Master Trust Beneficiaries, such duties and liabilities are replaced by the duties and liabilities of the Delaware Trustee expressly set forth in this Agreement. The Delaware Trustee shall not be liable for the acts or omissions of the Master Trustees, nor shall the Delaware Trustee be liable for supervising or monitoring the performance of the duties and obligations of the Master Trustees, or any other Person (including, without limitation, any affiliate of the Delaware Trustee appointed to act as a custodian or otherwise hereunder) under this Agreement. The Delaware Trustee shall not be obligated to give any bond or other security for the performance of any of its duties hereunder. The Delaware Trustee shall not be personally liable under any circumstances, except for its own gross negligence or willful misconduct in the performance of its express duties under this Agreement. Without limiting the foregoing:

(i) The Delaware Trustee shall not be personally liable for any error of judgment made in good faith, except to the extent such error of judgment constitutes willful misconduct or gross negligence in the performance of its express duties under this Agreement ("Excluded Matters");

(ii) the Delaware Trustee shall not have any duty or obligation to manage or deal with the Master Trust Assets, or to otherwise take or refrain from taking any action under this Agreement except as expressly provided in Section 4.2(a) hereof, and no implied trustee duties or obligations shall be deemed to be imposed on the Delaware Trustee;

(iii) no provision of this Agreement shall require the Delaware Trustee to expend or risk its personal funds or otherwise incur any financial liability in the performance of its rights or powers hereunder if the Delaware Trustee has reasonable grounds to believe that the payment of such funds or adequate indemnity against such risk or liability is not reasonably assured or provided to it;

(iv) the Delaware Trustee shall not be personally liable for the validity or sufficiency of this Agreement, the value or sufficiency of the Master Trust Assets, or for the due execution hereof by the other Parties hereto;

(v) the Delaware Trustee may request the Master Trustees to provide a certificate with regard to any fact or matter the manner of ascertainment of which is not specifically prescribed herein, and such certificate shall constitute full protection to the Delaware Trustee for any action taken or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in reliance thereon;

(vi) in the exercise of its duties hereunder, the Delaware Trustee (i) may act directly or through agents or attorneys pursuant to agreements entered into with any of them and shall not be liable for the acts or omissions of any agents or attorneys selected by it in good faith, and (ii) may consult with counsel selected by it in good faith and employed by it, and it shall not be liable for anything done, suffered, or omitted in good faith by it in accordance with the advice or opinion of any such counsel;

(vii) the Delaware Trustee acts solely as Delaware Trustee hereunder and not in its individual capacity, and, except with respect to Excluded Matters, all persons having any claim against the Delaware Trustee by reason of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall look only to the Master Trust Assets for payment or satisfaction thereof;

(viii) except with respect to Excluded Matters, the Delaware Trustee shall not be personally liable for any representation, warranty, covenant, agreement, or indebtedness of the Master Trust;

(ix) the Delaware Trustee shall not incur liability to anyone in acting upon any signature, instrument, notice, resolution, request, consent, order, certificate, report, opinion, bond, or other document or paper reasonably believed by it to be genuine and reasonably believed by it to be signed by the proper party or parties. As to any fact or matter the manner of ascertainment of which is not specifically prescribed herein, the Delaware Trustee may for all purposes hereof rely on a certificate, signed by an officer of the Master Trust, as to such fact or matter, and such certificate shall constitute full protection to the Delaware Trustee for any action taken or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in reliance thereon;

(x) the Delaware Trustee shall not be liable for punitive, exemplary, consequential, special, or other damages for a breach of this Agreement under any circumstances;

(xi) in connection with any of the Claims, Master Trust Assets, documents, and information related to duties of the Delaware Trustee, and any Causes of Action, any attorney-client privilege, work-product privilege, joint interest privilege, or other privilege or immunity (collectively, the "Privileges") attaching to or arising in or in connection with any documents, data, information, or communications (whether written, electronic, or oral) shall apply to and inure to the benefit of the Delaware Trustee and its representatives, and the Delaware Trustee is authorized to and shall take necessary actions to effectuate the transfer of such Privileges. The Delaware Trustee's receipt of the Privileges shall not operate as a waiver or limitation of any Privileges held and retained by the Debtors;

(xii) the Delaware Trustee shall be authorized to take such action as the Master Trustees specifically direct in written instructions delivered to the Delaware Trustee and shall have no liability for acting in accordance therewith; provided, however, the forgoing shall not be construed to require the Delaware Trustee to take any action in excess of its express duties under this Agreement;

(xiii) no permissive authority of the Delaware Trustee shall be construed as a duty or imply discretion on the part of the Delaware Trustee;

(xiv) notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Delaware Trustee shall not be required to take any action that is in violation of applicable law;

(xv) except as otherwise specifically provided herein, it shall be the duty and responsibility of the Master Trustees (and not the Delaware Trustee) to cause the Trust to comply with, respond to, defend, participate in or otherwise act in connection with any regulatory, administrative, governmental, investigative or other obligation, proceeding or inquiry relating in any way to the Master Trust, its assets or the conduct of its business;

(xvi) the Delaware Trustee shall neither be responsible for, nor chargeable with, knowledge of the terms and conditions of any other agreement, instrument, or document, other than this Master Trust Agreement, whether or not, an original or a copy of such agreement has been provided to the Delaware Trustee. Delivery of reports, information and documents to the Delaware Trustee is for informational purposes only and neither the Delaware Trustee's receipt of the foregoing, nor publicly available information shall constitute constructive notice of any information contained therein or determinable from information contained therein. The Delaware Trustee may rely on the accuracy of any document delivered to it and shall have no responsibility to verify the accuracy of it or be required to calculate or verify any numerical information in it. Neither the Delaware Trustee nor any of its directors, officers, employees, agents or affiliates shall be responsible for nor have any duty to monitor the performance or any action of the Master Trust, the Master Trustees or any other person, or any of their directors, members, officers, agents, affiliates or employee, nor shall it have any liability in connection with the malfeasance or nonfeasance by such party. The Delaware Trustee may assume performance by all such persons of their respective obligations. The Delaware Trustee shall have no enforcement or notification obligations relating to breaches of representations or warranties of any other person. The Delaware Trustee shall have no responsibilities (except as expressly set forth herein) as to the validity, sufficiency, value, genuineness, enforceability, ownership or transferability of any Master Trust Assets, written instructions, or any other documents in connection therewith, and will not be regarded as making, nor be required to make, any representations thereto, nor shall the Delaware Trustee have any duty to prepare, authorize or file and financing statements, continuation statements or amendments thereto; and

(xvii) The Delaware Trustee shall not be responsible or liable for any failure or delay in the performance of its obligations under this Master Trust Agreement arising out of, or caused, directly or indirectly, by circumstances beyond its control, including without limitation, any act or provision of any present or future law or regulation or governmental authority; acts of God; earthquakes; fires; floods; wars; terrorism; civil or military disturbances; sabotage; epidemics or pandemics; riots; interruptions, loss or malfunctions of utilities, computer (hardware or software) or communications service; accidents; labor disputes; acts of civil or military authority or governmental actions; or the unavailability of the Federal Reserve Bank wire or telex or other wire or communication facility.

4.3 Compensation.

The Delaware Trustee shall be entitled to receive compensation from the Master Trust in accordance with this Agreement and in accordance with such fee schedules as shall be agreed from time to time by the Delaware Trustee and the Master Trustees. The Delaware Trustee may also consult with counsel (who may be counsel for the Master Trust) with respect to those matters that relate to the Delaware Trustee's role as the Delaware Trustee of the Master Trust, and the reasonable legal fees incurred in connection with such consultation and any other reasonable out-of-pocket expenses of the Delaware Trustee shall be reimbursed by the Master Trust. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, in addition to the Master Trust's responsibility for the fees and expenses of, and all other obligations to, the Delaware Trustee hereunder, (i) Sub-Trust A shall be responsible for 50% of the fees and expenses (including, but not limited to, any indemnification obligations) owed to the Delaware Trustee in connection with the Delaware Trustee's services to the Master Trust and (ii) Sub-Trust B shall be responsible for 50% of the fees and expenses (including, but not limited to, any indemnification obligations) owed to the Delaware Trustee in connection with the Delaware Trustee's services to the Master Trust; provided, however that, in the event of the incurrence of indemnity obligations by the Master Trust, the Sub-Trust A Trustee and Sub-Trust B Trustee shall cooperate in good faith with each other to reasonably allocate the responsibility for such indemnification obligations between Sub-Trust A and Sub-Trust B based on the facts and circumstances underlying the indemnification obligation, provided further however that if the Sub-Trust A Trustee and the Sub-Trust B Trustee are unable to agree on such allocation, either such Trustee shall be entitled to file a motion before the Bankruptcy Court requesting that it determine such allocation.

4.4 Duration and Replacement.

The Delaware Trustee shall serve for the duration of the Master Trust or until the earlier of (i) the effective date of the Delaware Trustee's resignation, or (ii) the effective date of the removal of the Delaware Trustee. The Delaware Trustee may resign at any time by giving thirty (30) days written notice to the Master Trustees provided, however, that such resignation shall not be effective until such time as a successor Delaware Trustee has accepted appointment. The Delaware Trustee may be removed by the Master Trustees, by providing thirty (30) days written notice to the Delaware Trustee; provided, however, that such removal shall not be effective until such time as a successor Delaware Trustee has accepted appointment. Upon the resignation or removal of the Delaware Trustee, the Master Trustees shall appoint a successor Delaware Trustee. The Delaware Trustee may petition the Bankruptcy Court for the appointment of a successor Delaware Trustee. Any successor Delaware Trustee appointed pursuant to this Section shall be eligible to act in such capacity in accordance with this Agreement and, following compliance with this Section, shall become fully vested with the rights, powers, duties, and obligations of its predecessor under this Trust Agreement, with like effect as if originally named as Delaware Trustee. Any such successor Delaware Trustee shall notify the Delaware Trustee of its appointment by providing written notice to the Delaware Trustee and upon receipt of such notice, the Delaware Trustee shall be discharged of its duties herein. Any such successor Delaware Trustee shall also file any amendment to the Certificate of Trust to the extent required by the Trust Act or as reasonably requested by the Master Trustees. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, any business entity into which the Delaware Trustee may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated or any entity resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Delaware Trustee shall be a party, or any entity succeeding to all or substantially all of the corporate trust business of the Delaware Trustee, shall be the successor of the Delaware Trustee hereunder, without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto

ARTICLE V
LIABILITY AND INDEMNIFICATION

5.1 No Further Liability. Neither the Master Trustees nor the Delaware Trustee, shall have any liability for any actions or omissions in accordance with this Agreement or with respect to the Master Trust unless arising out of such Person's own fraud or willful misconduct. Unless arising out of such Person's own fraud or willful misconduct in performing its duties under this Agreement, neither the Master Trustees nor the Delaware Trustee, shall have any liability for any action taken by such Person in accordance with the advice of counsel, accountants, appraisers, and/or other professionals retained by the Master Trustees, the Delaware Trustee, or the Master Trust, or any action or inaction taken by such Person in accordance with the approval of the Bankruptcy Court. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Master Trustees and the Delaware Trustee may rely without independent investigation on copies of orders of the Bankruptcy Court reasonably believed by such Person to be genuine and shall have no liability for actions taken in reliance thereon. None of the provisions of this Agreement shall require the Master Trustees or the Delaware Trustee to expend or risk their own funds or otherwise incur personal financial liability in the performance of any of their duties hereunder or in the exercise of any of their rights and powers. The Master Trustees and the Delaware Trustee, may rely without inquiry upon writings delivered to such Person pursuant to the Plan or the Confirmation Order that such Person reasonably believes to be genuine and to have been properly given. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Section 5.1 shall relieve the Master Trustees or the Delaware Trustee, from any liability for any actions or omissions arising out of such Person's fraud or willful misconduct. No termination of this Agreement or amendment, modification, or repeal of this Section 5.1 shall adversely affect any right or protection of the Master Trustees or the Delaware Trustee that exists at the time of such amendment, modification, or repeal.

5.2 Indemnification of the Master Trustees and the Delaware Trustee.

(a) From and after the Effective Date, each of the Master Trustees, the Delaware Trustee, and the professionals of the Master Trust and their representatives and professionals (each, a "Master Trust Indemnified Party," and collectively, the "Master Trust Indemnified Parties") shall be, and each of them hereby is, indemnified by Master Trust, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, including the Trust Act, from and against any and all Claims, debts, dues, accounts, actions, suits, Causes of Action (including, without limitation, any suit or other enforcement action brought to enforce indemnity obligations under this Agreement), bonds, covenants, judgments, damages, reasonable attorneys' fees, defense costs, and other assertions of liability arising out of any such Master Trust Indemnified Party's exercise of what such Master Trust Indemnified Party reasonably understands to be its powers or the discharge of what such Master Trust Indemnified Party reasonably understands to be its duties conferred by the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement or this Agreement, any order of the Bankruptcy Court entered pursuant to, or in furtherance of, the Plan, applicable law, or otherwise (except only for actions or omissions to act to the extent determined by a Final Order to be due to such Master Trust Indemnified Party's own fraud or willful misconduct on and after the Effective Date). The foregoing indemnification shall also extend to matters directly or indirectly in connection with, arising out of, based on, or in any way related to: (i) this Agreement; (ii) the services to be rendered pursuant to this Agreement; (iii) any document or information, whether oral or written, referred to herein or supplied to the Master Trustees or Delaware Trustee in connection herewith; (iv) proceedings by or on behalf of any creditor, or (v) the application of any law, statute, regulation or other rule to the Master Trust or its assets. The Master Trust shall, on demand, advance or pay promptly, at the election of the Master Trust Indemnified Party, solely out of the Master Trust Assets, on behalf of each Master Trust Indemnified Party, reasonable attorneys' fees and other expenses and disbursements to which such Master Trust Indemnified Party would be entitled pursuant to the foregoing indemnification provision; provided, however, that any Master Trust Indemnified Party receiving any such advance shall execute a written undertaking to repay such advance if a court of competent jurisdiction ultimately determines, by Final Order, that such Master Trust Indemnified Party is not entitled to indemnification hereunder due to such Person's own fraud or willful misconduct. Any indemnification Claim of a Master Trust Indemnified Party shall be entitled to a priority distribution from the Master Trust Assets, ahead of Trust Interests and any other Claim to or Interest in such assets. In any matter covered by the first two sentences of this subsection, any party entitled to indemnification shall have the right to employ such party's own separate counsel, at the Master Trust's expense, subject to the foregoing terms and conditions. In addition, the Master Trust shall purchase insurance coverage as set forth in Section 2.5(f) hereof, including fiduciary liability insurance using funds from the Master Trust Assets for the benefit of the Master Trustees. The indemnification provided under this Section 5.2 shall survive the death, dissolution, incapacity, resignation, or removal, as may be applicable, of the Master Trustees, or any other Master Trust Indemnified Party and shall inure to the benefit of the Master Trustees, and each other Master Trust Indemnified Party's respective heirs, successors, and assigns.

(b) The foregoing indemnity in respect of any Master Trust Indemnified Party shall survive the termination of such Master Trust Indemnified Party from the capacity for which such party is indemnified. Termination or modification of this Agreement shall not affect any indemnification rights or obligations set forth herein.

(c) The Master Trust may, but is not obligated to, indemnify any Person who is not a Master Trust Indemnified Party for any loss, cost, damage, expense or liability for which a Master Trust Indemnified Party would be entitled to mandatory indemnification under this Section 5.2.

(d) Any Master Trust Indemnified Party may waive the benefits of indemnification under this Section 5.2, but only by an instrument in writing executed by such Master Trust Indemnified Party.

(e) The rights to indemnification under this Section 5.2 are not exclusive of other rights which any Master Trust Indemnified Party may otherwise have at law or in equity, including, without limitation, common law rights to indemnification or contribution. Nothing in this Section 5.2 will affect the rights or obligations of any Person (or the limitations on those rights or obligations) under any other agreement or instrument to which that Person is a party. Further, the Master Trust hereby agrees that Master Trust shall be required to pay the full amount of expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) actually incurred by such Master Trust Indemnified Party in connection with any proceeding as to which Master Trust Indemnified Party is entitled to indemnification hereunder in advance of the final disposition of such proceeding. For the avoidance of doubt, each Master Trust Indemnified Party shall be entitled, subject to the terms hereof, to indemnification for any costs and reasonable attorneys' fees such Master Trust Indemnified Party may incur in connection with enforcing any of its rights under this Article V.

5.3 Master Trust Liabilities. All liabilities of the Master Trust, including, without limitation, actual indemnity obligations under Section 5.2 of this Agreement, will be liabilities of the Master Trust as an Entity and will be paid or satisfied solely from the Master Trust Assets. For the avoidance of doubt, all expenses of the Master Trust must be satisfied or reserved for before any Master Trust Beneficiary may receive a distribution. No liability of the Master Trust will be payable in whole or in part by any Master Trust Beneficiary individually or in the Master Trust Beneficiary's capacity as a Master Trust Beneficiary, by the Master Trustees individually or in the Master Trustees' capacity as Master Trustees, or by any representative, member, partner, shareholder, director, officer, professional, employees, agent, affiliate, or advisor of any Master Trust Beneficiary, the Delaware Trustee, or their respective affiliates.

5.4 Limitation of Liability. None of the Master Trust Indemnified Parties shall be liable for indirect, punitive, exemplary, consequential, special, or other damages for a breach of this Agreement under any circumstances.

5.5 Burden of Proof. In making a determination with respect to entitlement to exculpation or indemnification hereunder, the court, Person, or Entity making such determination shall presume that any Master Trust Indemnified Party is entitled to exculpation and indemnification under this Agreement and any Person seeking to overcome such presumption shall have the burden of proof to overcome that presumption.

ARTICLE VI
TAX MATTERS

6.1 Treatment of the Master Trust Assets Transfer. For all U.S. federal income tax purposes, all parties (including, without limitation, the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors, the Master Trustees, and the Master Trust Beneficiaries) shall treat the transfer of the Master Trust Assets to the Master Trust for the benefit of the Master Trust Beneficiaries, including any amounts or other assets subsequently transferred to the Master Trust (but only at such time as actually transferred) (i) as a transfer of the Master Trust Assets (subject to any obligations relating to such Master Trust Assets) by Rite Aid Corporation directly to the Master Trust Beneficiaries followed by (ii) the transfer by the Master Trust Beneficiaries of the Master Trust Assets to the Master Trust in exchange for their respective ownership interest in the Master Trust. Accordingly, the Master Trust Beneficiaries (or their beneficiaries) shall be treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes as grantors and/or indirect owners of their respective share of the Master Trust Assets. For U.S. federal income tax purposes (and for purposes of all state, local and other jurisdictions to the extent applicable, the Master Trust shall be treated as a liquidating trust pursuant to Section 301.7701-4(d) of the Treasury Regulations and that is taxable as a grantor trust pursuant to Sections 671–77 of the Code). To the extent consistent with Revenue Procedure 94-45 and not otherwise inconsistent with this Agreement, the Master Trust shall satisfy the requirements for liquidating trust status. The Master Trust shall at all times be administered so as to constitute a domestic trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement or the Plan, the failure of the Master Trust to be treated for tax purposes as contemplated by this Section 6.1 shall not limit or affect the validity or formation of the Master Trust or the effectiveness of the Plan or the power of authority of the Master Trustees, and the Master Trustees shall be entitled to take such steps or actions as the Master Trustees deem appropriate or advisable, in order to further or support the tax treatment and effects contemplated by this Section 6.1.

6.2 Tax Reporting.

(a) The "taxable year" of the Master Trust shall be the "calendar year" as such terms are defined in section 441 of the IRC, unless the Master Trustees determine in good faith to use a different tax year in the interests of all beneficiaries to the extent permitted under the IRC and the Treasury Regulations thereunder. The Master Trustees shall file all tax returns or information returns required to be filed under applicable law for the Master Trust treating the Master Trust as a "grantor trust," including, without limitation, pursuant to Treasury Regulation section 1.671-4(a) and in accordance with this Section 6.2. The Master Trustees also will annually send to each Master Trust Beneficiary a separate statement setting forth such holder's share of items of income, gain, loss, deduction, or credit (including the receipts and expenditures of the Master Trust) as relevant for U.S. federal income tax purposes and will instruct all such Master Trust Beneficiaries to use such information in preparing their U.S. federal income tax returns or to forward the appropriate information to such Master Trust Beneficiary's underlying beneficial holders with instructions to utilize such information in preparing their U.S. federal income tax returns.

(b) To the extent applicable, allocations of the Master Trust taxable income among the Master Trust Beneficiaries shall be determined by reference to the manner in which an amount of Cash equal to such taxable income would be distributed (were such Cash permitted to be distributed at such time, and without regard to any restrictions on distributions set forth in the Plan or this Agreement) if, immediately prior to such deemed distribution, the Master Trust had distributed all its assets (valued at their tax book value, to the Master Trust Beneficiaries, adjusted for prior taxable income and loss and taking into account all prior and concurrent distributions from the Master Trust. Similarly, taxable loss of the Master Trust shall be allocated by reference to the manner in which an economic loss would be borne immediately after a hypothetical liquidating distribution of the remaining Master Trust Assets). The tax book value of the Master Trust Assets for purposes of this Section 6.2(b) shall equal their fair market value on the Effective Date, adjusted in accordance with tax accounting principles prescribed by the IRC, the applicable Treasury Regulations and other applicable administrative and judicial authorities and pronouncements. Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent applicable, the Master Trustees shall be permitted to allocate taxable income in such other equitable manner as they may jointly determine in good faith taking into account the interests of the Master Trust Beneficiaries as a whole.

(c) The Master Trustees shall be responsible for payment of, and shall be permitted to pay, out of the Master Trust Assets, any taxes imposed on the Master Trust or the Master Trust Assets and any such payment shall be considered a cost and expense of the operation of the Master Trust payable without Bankruptcy Court order.

6.3 Withholding of Taxes. The Master Trust shall comply with all withholding and reporting requirements imposed by the IRC, state, local or non-U.S. taxing authority. The Master Trustees shall be authorized to take any and all actions that may be necessary or appropriate to comply with any such withholding, payment, and reporting requirements. The Master Trustees may deduct and withhold and pay to the appropriate Tax Authority all amounts required to be deducted or withheld pursuant to the IRC or any provision of any state, local or non-U.S. tax law with respect to any payment or distribution to the Master Trust Beneficiaries. Notwithstanding the above, each holder of an ownership interest in the Master Trust that is to receive a distribution under the Plan shall have the sole and exclusive responsibility for the satisfaction and payment of any taxes imposed on such holder by any Tax Authority, including income, withholding, and other tax obligations, on account of such distribution. All such amounts withheld and paid to the appropriate Tax Authority shall be treated as amounts distributed to such Master Trust Beneficiaries for all purposes of this Agreement. The Master Trust Trustees shall be authorized to collect such tax information from the Master Trust Beneficiaries (including, without limitation, social security numbers or other tax identification numbers) as it, in its sole discretion, deems necessary to effectuate the Plan, the Confirmation Order, and this Agreement. As a condition to receive distributions under the Plan, all Master Trust Beneficiaries will need to identify themselves to the Master Trust Trustees and provide tax information and the specifics of their holdings, to the extent the Master Trust Trustees deem appropriate, including an IRS Form W-9 (or any successor form) or, in the case of Master Trust Beneficiaries that are not United States persons for U.S. federal income tax purposes, certification of foreign status on an applicable IRS Form W-8 (or any successor form). The Master Trust Trustees may refuse to make a distribution to any Master Trust Beneficiary that fails to furnish such information in a timely fashion, until such information is delivered; provided, however, that, upon the delivery of such information by a Master Trust Beneficiary within 180 days of the Master Trust Trustees' request, the Master Trust Trustees shall make such distribution to which the Master Trust Beneficiary is entitled, without interest; and, provided, further, that, if the Master Trust Trustees fail to withhold in respect of amounts received or distributable with respect to any such holder and the Master Trust Trustees are later held liable for the amount of such withholding, such holder shall reimburse the Master Trust Trustees for such liability. If the holder fails to comply with such a request for tax information within such 180 days of the Master Trust Trustees' request, such distribution shall be deemed an unclaimed distribution and treated in accordance with Section 2.8(d) hereof.

6.4 Expedited Determination of Taxes. The Master Trustees may request an expedited determination of taxes of the Master Trust under section 505(b) of the Bankruptcy Code for all returns filed for, or on behalf of, the Master Trust for all taxable periods through the termination of the Master Trust.

6.5 Valuation. As soon as reasonably practicable following the establishment of the Master Trust, the Master Trust Trustees shall determine the value of the Master Trust Assets transferred to the Master Trust as of the Effective Date, based on the good-faith determination of the Master Trust Trustees. The Master Trust Trustees shall apprise, in writing, the applicable Master Trust Beneficiaries of such valuation. The valuation of the Master Trust Assets prepared pursuant to this Agreement shall be used consistently by all parties (including, without limitation, the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, the Master Trust Trustees, and the Master Trust Beneficiaries) for all U.S. federal income tax purposes. The Master Trust also shall file (or cause to be filed) any other statements, returns, or disclosures relating to the Master Trust that are required by any Governmental Unit. In connection with the preparation of any valuation contemplated hereby, the Master Trust, subject to Section 2.3 hereof, shall be entitled to retain such Master Trust professionals as the Master Trust Trustees shall determine to be appropriate or necessary in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, and the Master Trust Trustees shall take such other actions in connection therewith as it determines to be appropriate or necessary. For the avoidance of doubt, the valuation shall not be binding on the Master Trust, the Master Trustees, or the Master Trust Beneficiaries for any purpose other than U.S. federal income tax purposes, and the valuation shall not impair or prejudice rights, claims, powers, duties, authority and/or privileges of the Master Trust, the Master Trustees, or any of the Master Trust Beneficiaries expect with respect to U.S. federal income tax purposes.

TERMINATION OF MASTER TRUST

7.1 Termination. The Master Trust shall be dissolved at the later of (i) such time as all of the Master Trust Assets have been distributed pursuant to the Plan and this Agreement; and (ii) dissolution or termination of Sub-Trust A and Sub-Trust B; provided, however, that in no event shall the Master Trust be dissolved later than five (5) years from the Effective Date unless the Bankruptcy Court, upon motion within the six-month period prior to the fifth (5^{th}) anniversary (or within the six-month period prior to the end of an extension period), determines that a fixed period extension (not to exceed five (5) years, including any prior extensions, without a favorable private letter ruling from the Internal Revenue Service or an opinion of counsel satisfactory to the Master Trustees that any further extension would not adversely affect the status of the Master Trust as a liquidating trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes) is necessary to facilitate or complete the recovery and liquidation of the Master Trust Assets. If at any time the Master Trustees determine, in reliance upon such professionals as the Master Trustees may retain that the expense of administering the Master Trust so as to make a final distribution to the Master Trust Beneficiaries is likely to exceed the value of the assets remaining in the Master Trust, the Master Trustees may, in their discretion and without the need to apply to the Bankruptcy Court for approval, (i) reserve any amount necessary to dissolve the Master Trust, (ii) donate any balance to a charitable organization (A) described in section 501(c)(3) of the IRC, (B) exempt from U.S. federal income tax under section 501(a) of the IRC, (C) not a "private foundation," as defined in section 509(a) of the IRC and (D) that is unrelated to the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors, the Master Trust and any insider of the Master Trustees and (iii) dissolve the Master Trust. The Master Trustees may, but shall not be required to, apply for any order of the Bankruptcy Court approving any or all of the foregoing. If a final decree has been entered closing the Chapter 11 Cases, the Master Trustees may seek to open the Chapter 11 Cases for the limited purpose of filing a motion seeking authority as set forth in the immediately preceding sentence, and the costs for such motion and costs related to re-opening the Chapter 11 Cases shall be paid by use of the Master Trust Assets. Such date upon which the Master Trust shall finally be dissolved shall be referred to herein as the "Termination Date." Upon the Termination Date, the Master Trustees shall wind up and liquidate the Master Trust in accordance with section 3808 of the Trust Act and Section 7.2 herein and all monies remaining in the Master Trust shall be distributed or disbursed in accordance with Section 2.8 above. The Master Trustees and the Delaware Trustee (acting at the written direction of the Master Trustees) shall file any required Certificate of Cancellation in accordance with section 3810(d) of the Trust Act, and thereupon this Agreement shall terminate.

7.2 Continuance of the Master Trust for Winding Up. After the termination of the Master Trust and solely for the purpose of liquidating and winding up the affairs of the Master Trust, the Master Trustees shall continue to act as such until their duties have been fully performed and shall continue to be entitled to receive the fees called for by Section 3.3(a) hereof. Upon distribution of all the Master Trust Assets, the Master Trustees may, but shall not be required to, retain the books, records, and files that shall have been delivered or created by the Master Trustees. For the avoidance of doubt, at the Master Trustees' discretion, all of such records and documents may be abandoned or destroyed by the Master Trustees (unless such records and documents are necessary to fulfill the Master Trustees' obligations hereunder) subject to the terms of any joint prosecution and common interest agreement(s) to which the Master Trustees may be a party. Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, upon the final distribution of the Master Trust Assets and filing by the Master Trustees and the Delaware Trustee of a Certificate of Cancellation with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware, the Master Trustees shall be deemed discharged and have no further duties or obligations hereunder, except to account to the Master Trust Beneficiaries as provided herein, Trust Interests shall be cancelled, and the Master Trust will be deemed to have dissolved.

8.1 Subject to Sections 1.5(c) and 8.2 of this Agreement, the Master Trustees may amend, supplement or seek to waive any provision of this Agreement with the consent of both Master Trustees; provided, that to the extent any such amendment, supplement or waiver materially and adversely impacts the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, or modifies the obligations of the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors hereunder, such amendment, supplement, or waiver shall also require the prior written consent of the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, as applicable (not to be unreasonably withheld); provided, further, that to the extent that any such amendment, supplement, or waiver materially and adversely affects the interests of the holder of the Sub-Trust A-3 Interest (as defined in the Sub-Trust A Agreement) or the Sub-Trust B-3 Interest (as defined in the Sub-Trust B Agreement) in a manner disproportionate to holders of other Sub-Trust A Interests or other Sub-Trust B Interests, as applicable, such amendment, supplement or waiver shall also require the prior consent of the DIP Noteholder Trust Trustee (as defined in the Sub-Trust A Agreement and Sub-Trust B Agreement), as applicable.

8.2 Notwithstanding Section 8.1 of this Agreement, no amendment, supplement, or waiver of or to this Agreement shall: (a) adversely affect the payments and/or distributions to be made under the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement or this Agreement; (b) alter or conflict with the procedural requirements of this Agreement or the obligations under the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement; (c) adversely affect the U.S. federal income tax status of the Master Trust as a liquidating trust taxable as a grantor trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes; or (d) be inconsistent with the purpose and intention of the Master Trust to liquidate the Master Trust Assets in an expeditious but orderly manner.

8.3 No failure by the Master Trust or the Master Trustees to exercise or delay in exercising any right, power, or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, power, or privilege hereunder preclude any further exercise thereof, or of any other right, power, or privilege.

(o) For all U.S. federal, state and local income tax purposes, as applicable, all parties (including, without limitation, the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors, the Master Trustees, the Delaware Trustee, and the Master Trust Beneficiaries) shall treat the transfer of the Master Trust Assets to the Master Trust in accordance with Section 6.1 hereof.

(p) The transfers set forth in this Section 1.2, made pursuant to the Plan, shall be exempt from any stamp, real estate transfer, mortgage reporting, sales, use or other similar tax, pursuant to section 1146(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

(q) Notwithstanding the foregoing, for purposes of section 553 of the Bankruptcy Code, the transfer of the Assigned Claims and Assigned Insurance Rights to the Master Trust shall not affect the mutuality of obligations that otherwise may have existed prior to the effectuation of such transfer. Notwithstanding anything in the Plan or in this Agreement to the contrary, the transfer of the Master Trust Assets to the Master Trust, and to the Sub-Trust A and the Sub-Trust B does not diminish, and fully preserves, any defenses a defendant would have if the Assigned Claims and Assigned Insurance Rights had been retained by the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors.

1.3 Funding of the Master Trust; Payment of Fees and Expenses.

(a) The Master Trust ~~shall~~may be funded in accordance with the Plan with a portion of the Committees' Initial Cash Consideration ~~equal to [●], which~~or may be funded by periodic advances from the Sub-Trust A and Sub-Trust B, which funds shall be used to administer all Master Trust Assets and initially pay all reasonable fees, costs, and expenses (including indemnities) of and incurred by the Master Trust, including legal and other professional fees, costs, and expenses, administrative fees and expenses, insurance fees, taxes, and escrow expenses, which shall be paid in accordance with this Agreement; provided, however, that neither the Debtors nor the Reorganized Debtors shall be required in any event to pay the Master Trust Expenses (the "Master Trust Expenses"). The Master Trust Beneficiaries, the Debtors, and the Reorganized Debtors, shall have no obligation to provide any additional funding with respect to the Master Trust, except with respect to the Reorganized Debtors, any funding associated with the Committees Post-Emergence Cash Consideration.

(b) Each of the Master Trustees and the Delaware Trustee may incur any Master Trust Expenses in connection with the performance of their duties under the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement and this Agreement, including in connection with retaining professionals and/or entering into agreements pursuant to Sections 2.3 and 2.4 herein; provided, however, that the Delaware Trustee's expenses shall be limited to those specifically authorized in Section 4.3~~(b)~~ or payable under the indemnification provisions of Article V hereof. All Master Trust Expenses shall be paid by, and solely be the obligation of, the Master Trust.

1.4 Title to the Master Trust Assets. The transfer of the Master Trust Assets to the Master Trust pursuant to Section 1.2 hereof is being made for the sole benefit, and on behalf, of the Master Trust Beneficiaries. Upon the transfer of the Master Trust Assets to the Master Trust, the Master Trust shall succeed to all of the Debtors', Reorganized Debtors', and the Estates' rights, title, and interest in the Master Trust Assets, including all such assets held or controlled by third parties, free and clear of all Liens, Claims, encumbrances, Interests, contractually imposed restrictions, and other interests, and no other Person shall have any interest, legal, beneficial, or otherwise, in the Master Trust or the Master Trust Assets upon the assignment and transfer of such assets to the Master Trust (other than as provided in the Plan, the Confirmation Order, or this Agreement). On the Effective Date, the Master Trust shall be substituted for the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors for all purposes with respect to the Master Trust Assets. To the extent any law or regulation prohibits the transfer of ownership of any of the Master Trust Assets from the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors (as applicable) to the Master Trust and such law is not superseded by the Bankruptcy Code, the Master Trust's interest shall be a lien upon and security interest in such Trust Assets, in trust, nevertheless, for the sole use and purposes set forth herein and in the Plan, and this Agreement shall be deemed a security agreement granting such interest thereon without need to file financing statements or mortgages. By executing this Agreement, the Master Trustees on behalf of the Master Trust hereby accept all of such property as Master Trust Assets, to be held in trust for the Master Trust Beneficiaries, subject to the terms of this Agreement and the Plan.

1.5 Nature and Purpose of the Master Trust.

(a) Purpose. The Master Trust is organized and established as a trust pursuant to which the Master Trustees, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, shall administer the Master Trust Assets, and otherwise implement the terms of this Agreement on behalf, and for the benefit, of the Master Trust Beneficiaries. The Master Trust shall liquidate and administer the Master Trust Assets in accordance with Treasury Regulation Section 301.7701-4(d) and with no objective to continue or engage in the conduct of a trade or business, except to the extent reasonably necessary to, and consistent with, the liquidating purpose of the Master Trust.

(b) Relationship. This Agreement is intended to create a trust and a trust relationship and to be governed and construed in all respects as a trust. The Master Trust is not intended to be, and shall not be deemed to be, or be treated as, a general partnership, limited partnership, joint venture, corporation, joint stock company, or association, nor shall the Master Trustees, or the Master Trust Beneficiaries for any purpose be, or be deemed to be or treated in any way whatsoever to be, liable or responsible hereunder as partners or joint venturers. The relationship of the Master Trust Beneficiaries, on the one hand, to the Master Trustees, on the other hand, shall be solely that of a beneficiary of a trust and shall not be deemed a principal and agency relationship, and their rights shall be limited to those conferred upon them by the Plan, the Confirmation Order, and this Agreement.

(c) Relationship to and Incorporation of the Plan. The principal purpose of this Agreement is to aid in the implementation of the Plan, the Confirmation Order, and the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, and therefore this Agreement incorporates the provisions thereof by reference. To that end, the Master Trustees shall have full power and authority to take any action consistent with the purpose and provisions of the Plan and the Confirmation Order, to seek any orders from the Bankruptcy Court in furtherance of implementation of the Plan that directly affect the interests of the Master Trust, and to seek any orders from the Bankruptcy Court solely in furtherance of this Agreement. To the extent there is a conflict between the provisions of this Agreement, the provisions of the Plan, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement and/or the Confirmation Order, each such document shall have controlling effect in the following ranked order: (1) the Confirmation Order; (2) the Plan; (3) the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement; and (4) this Agreement; provided, that the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement shall control over this Agreement with respect to any matters specifically addressed in the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement, and nothing in this Agreement shall modify or expand the obligations of the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors under the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement with respect to any matters addressed therein. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, no provision herein shall be construed or implemented in a manner that would cause the Master Trust to fail to qualify as a "liquidating trust" within the meaning of Section 301.7701-4(d) of the Treasury Regulations.

(d) Incidents of Ownership. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, the Master Trust Beneficiaries shall be the sole beneficiaries of the Master Trust, and the Master Trustees shall retain only such incidents of ownership as are necessary to undertake the actions and transactions authorized herein, in the Plan and in the Confirmation Order, including those powers set forth in this Agreement.

(e) Capacity of Master Trust. Notwithstanding any state or federal law to the contrary or anything herein, the Master Trust shall itself have the capacity, in its own right and name, to act or refrain from acting, including the capacity to sue and be sued and to enter into contracts. The Master Trust may alone be the named movant, respondent, party plaintiff or defendant, or the like in all adversary proceedings, contested matters, and other state or federal proceedings brought by or against it, and may settle and compromise all such matters in its own name.

1.6 Channeling and Assumption of Tort Claims.

(a) As of the Effective Date, and immediately following the channeling of such claims to the Master Trust, each Tort Claim, including any and all liability of the Debtors and/or the Reorganized Debtors for any and all Tort Claims shall automatically, and without further act, deed or court order, be channeled to and assumed by Sub-Trust B solely for the purpose of (i) automatically further channeling such Tort Claims to certain sub-trusts, in whole or in part, (ii) prosecuting such Tort Claim and/or corresponding insurance rights, and/or (iii) otherwise directing the administration, processing, liquidation, and payment of certain Tort Claims in accordance with the Sub-Trust B Agreement.

(b) In furtherance of the foregoing, except as otherwise provided in the Plan, Sub-Trust B shall have all defenses, cross-claims, offsets and recoupments, as well as rights of indemnification, contribution, subrogation and similar rights, regarding the Tort Claims that the Debtors and/or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, have, or would have had, under applicable law; provided that all such defenses, cross-claims, offsets and recoupments regarding any Tort Claim that is channeled to a sub-trust, in accordance with the trust agreement for Sub-Trust B shall be transferred to such sub-trusts with such Tort Claims, at which point, the Sub-Trust B shall no longer have such defenses, cross-claims, offsets and recoupments regarding such Tort Claims.

2.1 Role of the Master Trustees. In furtherance of and consistent with the purpose of the Master Trust and the Plan, subject to the terms and conditions contained in the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement and this Agreement, and exercising the rights of trustees under the Trust Act, the Master Trustees shall (i) receive, manage, supervise, and protect the Master Trust Assets upon their receipt of same on behalf of and for the benefit of the Master Trust Beneficiaries; (ii) prepare and file all required tax returns and pay taxes and all other obligations of the Master Trust; and (iii) have all such other responsibilities and obligations as may be vested in the Master Trustees pursuant to the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement, the UCC/TCC Recovery

2.3 Retention of Counsel and Other Professionals. The Master Trustees may, without further order of the Bankruptcy Court, employ various professionals, including counsel, tax advisors, consultants, and financial advisors, as the Master Trustees deem necessary to aid them in fulfilling their obligations under this Agreement and the Plan, and on whatever fee arrangement the Master Trustees deem appropriate, including contingency fee arrangements. Professionals engaged by the Master Trustees shall not be required to file applications to receive compensation for services rendered and reimbursement of actual out-of-pocket expenses incurred.

2.4 Agreements. Pursuant to the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, and the other provisions of this Agreement, the Master Trustees may enter into any agreement or execute any document in furtherance of the purposes of and consistent with the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, and this Agreement and perform all of the Master Trust's obligations thereunder.

2.5 Additional Powers of the Master Trustees. (b) perform the duties, exercise the powers, and assert the rights of a trustee under sections 704 and 1106 of the Bankruptcy Code with respect to the Master Trust Assets, including the right to assert claims, defenses, offsets, and privileges;

(c) protect and enforce the rights of the Master Trust to the Master Trust Assets by any method deemed appropriate including, without limitation, by judicial proceedings or pursuant to any applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, moratorium, or similar law and general principles of equity;

(d) determine and satisfy any and all liabilities created, incurred, or assumed by the Master Trust;

(e) make all payments relating to the Master Trust Assets;

(f) obtain reasonable insurance coverage with respect to the potential liabilities and obligations of the Master Trust, and the Master Trustees, under this Agreement (in the form of a directors and officers policy, an errors and omissions policy, or otherwise);

(g) receive and distribute the Master Trust Assets, and withdraw and make distributions from and pay Taxes and other obligations owed by the Master Trust from funds held by the Master Trustees and/or the Master Trust, as long as such management is consistent with the Master Trust's status as a liquidating trust taxable as a grantor trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes and which actions are merely incidental to its liquidation and dissolution with no objective to continue or engage in the conduct of a trade or business, except to the extent reasonably necessary to, and consistent with, the liquidating purpose of the Master Trust;

(h) prepare, or have prepared, and file, if necessary, with the appropriate taxing authority (each, a "Tax Authority") any and all tax returns, information returns, and other required documents with respect to the Master Trust (including, without limitation, U.S. federal, state, local, or foreign tax or information returns required to be filed by the Master Trust) and pay taxes properly payable by the Master Trust, if any, and cause all Taxes payable by the Master Trust, if any, to be paid exclusively out of the Master Trust Assets;

(j) make tax elections by and on behalf of the Master Trust;

(l) take or refrain from taking any and all actions the Master Trustees reasonably deems necessary for the continuation, protection, and maximization of the Master Trust Assets consistent with the purposes hereof;

(m) take all steps and execute all instruments and documents the Master Trustees reasonably deems necessary to effectuate the Master Trust;

(n) liquidate any remaining Master Trust Assets, and provide for the distributions therefrom in accordance with the provisions of the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, the Sub-Trust A Agreement, the Sub-Trust B Agreement, the GUC Equity Trust Agreement and this Agreement;

(p) in the event that the Master Trust shall fail or cease to qualify as a liquidating trust taxable as a grantor trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes, take any and all necessary actions as it shall deem appropriate to have such assets treated as held by another liquidating trust taxable as a grantor trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes, if no such liquidating trust taxable as a grantor trust treatment is available, as another tax-efficient entity/grantor trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes;

(q) exercise such other powers as may be vested in the Master Trustees pursuant to the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, or this Agreement, any order of the Bankruptcy Court, or as otherwise determined by the Master Trustees to be necessary and proper to carry out the obligations of the Master Trustees and Master Trust; and

(r) remove or replace the Delaware Trustee, and to enter into agreements with the Delaware Trustee concerning its engagement and compensation.

2.6 Limitations on Power and Authority of the Master Trustees. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, the Master Trustees will not have the authority to do any of the following:

(a) take any action in contravention of the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, the Sub-Trust A Agreement, the Sub-Trust B Agreement, this Agreement, or the Trust Act;

(c) possess property of the Master Trust or assign the Master Trust's rights in specific property for any purpose other than as provided herein;

(d) cause or permit the Master Trust to engage in any trade or business;

(e) receive transfers of any listed stocks or securities or any readily marketable assets or any operating assets of a going business, except as is necessary or required under the Plan, the Confirmation Order or this Agreement; provided, however, that in no event shall the Master Trustees receive any such investment that would jeopardize treatment of the Master Trust as a liquidating trust taxable as a grantor trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes; provided, however, that this section 3.13(e) shall not apply to the GUC Equity Trust Interest;

(f) receive or retain any operating assets of an operating business, a partnership interest in a partnership that holds operating assets, or 50% or more of the stock of a corporation with operating assets, except as is necessary or required under the Plan, the Confirmation Order or this Agreement; provided, however, that in no event shall the Master Trustees receive or retain any such asset or interest that would jeopardize treatment of the Master Trust as a liquidating trust taxable as a grantor trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes; or

(g) take any other action or engage in any investments or activities that would jeopardize treatment of the Master Trust as a liquidating trust taxable as a grantor trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

2.7 Books and Records. The Master Trustees shall maintain books and records relating to the Master Trust Assets and income of the Master Trust and the payment of, expenses of, and liabilities of claims against or assumed by, the Master Trust in such detail and for such period of time as may be necessary to enable it to make full and proper accounting in respect thereof and in accordance with applicable law. Such books and records shall be maintained as reasonably necessary to facilitate compliance with the tax reporting requirements of the Master Trust. Nothing in this Agreement requires the Master Trustees to file any accounting or seek approval of any court with respect to the administration of the Master Trust or as a condition for managing any payment or distribution out of the Master Trust Assets.

2.8 Distributions to Master Trust Beneficiaries. The Master Trustees shall make distributions to the Master Trust Beneficiaries not less frequently than once annually, starting on the Effective Date, unless the Master Trustees determine, in their reasonable discretion, that making such a distribution is impracticable in light of the anticipated Cash needs of the Master Trust going forward, or that, in light of the Cash available for distribution, making a distribution would not warrant the incurrence of costs in making the distribution or funds are otherwise not available to distribute; provided, however, that the Master Trustees' discretion may not be exercised in a manner inconsistent with any express requirements of the Plan.

THE MASTER TRUSTEES GENERALLY

3.1 Co-Trustees. The Master Trustees shall be same individuals or entities serving as the Sub-Trust A Trustee and the Sub-Trust B Trustee. The Master Trustees will serve as co-trustees for the Master Trust, with all of the same rights, powers, and limitations, as set forth in this Agreement.

Such resignation shall become effective on the later to occur of: (a) the day specified in such notice, and (b) the appointment of a successor Master Trustee, pursuant to Section 3.6 herein, and the acceptance by such successor of such appointment. If a successor Master Trustee is not appointed or does not accept its appointment within 90 days following delivery of notice of resignation, the Sub-Trust A Counsel and the Sub-Trust B Counsel may select a replacement Master Trustee by mutual agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, upon the Termination Date (as defined in Section 7.1 below), the Master Trustee shall be deemed to have resigned, except as otherwise provided for in Section 7.2 herein.

(b) To the extent there is any dispute regarding the removal of a Master Trustee (including any dispute relating to any compensation or expense reimbursement due under this Agreement), the Bankruptcy Court shall retain jurisdiction to consider and adjudicate any such dispute. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a Master Trustee will continue to serve as a Master Trustee after his removal until the earlier of (i) the time when appointment of a successor Master Trustee will become effective in accordance with Section 3.6 of this Agreement or (ii) such date as the Bankruptcy Court otherwise orders.

(iv) the Delaware Trustee shall not be personally liable for the validity or sufficiency of this Agreement, the value or sufficiency of the Master Trust Assets, or for the due execution hereof by the other Parties hereto;

(v) the Delaware Trustee may request the Master Trustees to provide a certificate with regard to any fact or matter the manner of ascertainment of which is not specifically prescribed herein, and such certificate shall constitute full

(ix) the Delaware Trustee shall not incur liability to anyone in acting upon any signature, instrument, notice, resolution, request, consent, order, certificate, report, opinion, bond, or other document or paper reasonably believed by it to be genuine and reasonably believed by it to be signed by the proper party or parties. As to any fact or matter the manner of ascertainment of which is not specifically prescribed herein, the Delaware Trustee may for all purposes hereof rely on a certificate, signed by an officer of the Master Trust, as to such fact or matter, and such certificate shall constitute full protection to the Delaware Trustee for any action taken or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in reliance thereon;

(x) the Delaware Trustee shall not be liable for punitive, exemplary, consequential, special, or other damages for a breach of this Agreement under any circumstances;

(xi) in connection with any of the Claims, Master Trust Assets, documents, and information related to duties of the Delaware Trustee, and any Causes of Action, any attorney-client privilege, work-product privilege, joint interest privilege, or other privilege or immunity (collectively, the "Privileges") attaching to or arising in or in connection with any documents, data, information, or communications (whether written, electronic, or oral) shall apply to and inure to the benefit of the Delaware Trustee and its representatives, and the Delaware Trustee is authorized to and shall take necessary actions to effectuate the transfer of such Privileges. (xv) except as otherwise specifically provided herein, it shall be the duty and responsibility of the Master Trustees (and not the Delaware Trustee) to cause the Trust to comply with, respond to, defend, participate in or otherwise act in connection with any regulatory, administrative, governmental, investigative or other obligation, proceeding or inquiry relating in any way to the Master Trust, its assets or the conduct of its business;

(xvi) the Delaware Trustee shall neither be responsible for, nor chargeable with, knowledge of the terms and conditions of any other agreement, instrument, or document, other than this Master Trust Agreement, whether or not, an original or a copy of such agreement has been provided to the Delaware Trustee. Delivery of reports, information and documents to the Delaware Trustee is for informational purposes only and neither the Delaware Trustee's receipt of the foregoing, nor publicly available information shall constitute constructive notice of any information contained therein or determinable from information contained therein. The Delaware Trustee may rely on the accuracy of any document delivered to it and shall have no responsibility to verify the accuracy of it or be required to calculate or verify any numerical information in it. Neither the Delaware Trustee nor any of its directors, officers, employees, agents or affiliates shall be responsible for nor have any duty to monitor the performance or any action of the Master Trust, the Master Trustees or any other person, or any of their directors, members, officers, agents, affiliates or employee, nor shall it have any liability in connection with the malfeasance or nonfeasance by such party. The Delaware Trustee may assume performance by all such persons of their respective obligations. The Delaware Trustee shall have no enforcement or notification obligations relating to breaches of representations or warranties of any other person. The Delaware Trustee shall have no responsibilities (except as expressly set forth herein) as to the validity, sufficiency, value, genuineness, enforceability, ownership or transferability of any Master Trust Assets, written instructions, or any other documents in connection therewith, and will not be regarded as making, nor be required to make, any representations thereto, nor shall the Delaware Trustee have any duty to prepare, authorize or file and financing statements, continuation statements or amendments thereto; and

(xvii) The Delaware Trustee shall not be responsible or liable for any failure or delay in the performance of its obligations under this Master Trust Agreement arising out of, or caused, directly or indirectly, by circumstances beyond its control, including without limitation, any act or provision of any present or future law or regulation or governmental authority; acts of God; earthquakes; fires; floods; wars; terrorism; civil or military disturbances; sabotage; epidemics or pandemics; riots; interruptions, loss or malfunctions of utilities, computer (hardware or software) or communications service; accidents; labor disputes; acts of civil or military authority or governmental actions; or the unavailability of the Federal Reserve Bank wire or telex or other wire or communication facility.

4.3 Compensation.

The Delaware Trustee shall be entitled to receive compensation from the Master Trust in accordance with this Agreement and in accordance with such fee schedules as shall be agreed from time to time by the Delaware Trustee and the Master Trustees. The Delaware Trustee may also consult with counsel (who may be counsel for the Master Trust) with respect to those matters that relate to the Delaware Trustee's role as the Delaware Trustee of the Master Trust, and the reasonable legal fees incurred in connection with such consultation and any other reasonable out-of-pocket expenses of the Delaware Trustee shall be reimbursed by the Master Trust. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, in addition to the Master Trust's responsibility for the fees and expenses of, and all other obligations to, the Delaware Trustee hereunder, (i) Sub-Trust A shall be responsible for 50% of the fees and expenses (including, but not limited to, any indemnification obligations) owed to the Delaware Trustee in connection with the Delaware Trustee's services to the Master Trust and (ii) Sub-Trust B shall be responsible for 50% of the fees and expenses (including, but not limited to, any indemnification obligations) owed to the Delaware Trustee in connection with the Delaware Trustee's services to the Master Trust; provided, however that, in the event of the incurrence of indemnity obligations by the Master Trust, the Sub-Trust A Trustee and Sub-Trust B Trustee shall cooperate in good faith with each other to reasonably allocate the responsibility for such indemnification obligations between Sub-Trust A and Sub-Trust B based on the facts and circumstances underlying the indemnification obligation, provided further however that if the Sub-Trust A Trustee and the Sub-Trust B Trustee are unable to agree on such allocation, either such Trustee shall be entitled to file a motion before the Bankruptcy Court requesting that it determine such allocation.

4.4 Duration and Replacement.

The Delaware Trustee shall serve for the duration of the Master Trust or until the earlier of (i) the effective date of the Delaware Trustee's resignation, or (ii) the effective date of the removal of the Delaware Trustee. The Delaware Trustee may resign at any time by giving thirty (30) days written notice to the Master Trustees provided, however, that such resignation shall not be effective until such time as a successor Delaware Trustee has accepted appointment. The Delaware Trustee may be removed by the Master Trustees, by providing thirty (30) days written notice to the Delaware Trustee; provided, however, that such removal shall not be effective until such time as a successor Delaware Trustee has accepted appointment. Upon the resignation or removal of the Delaware Trustee, the Master Trustees shall appoint a successor Delaware

Trustee. The Delaware Trustee may petition the Bankruptcy Court for the appointment of a successor Delaware Trustee. Any successor Delaware Trustee appointed pursuant to this Section shall be eligible to act in such capacity in accordance with this Agreement and, following compliance with this Section, shall become fully vested with the rights, powers, duties, and obligations of its predecessor under this Trust Agreement, with like effect as if originally named as Delaware Trustee. Any such successor Delaware Trustee shall notify the Delaware Trustee of its appointment by providing written notice to the Delaware Trustee and upon receipt of such notice, the Delaware Trustee shall be discharged of its duties herein. Any such successor Delaware Trustee shall also file any amendment to the Certificate of Trust to the extent required by the Trust Act or as reasonably requested by the Master Trustees. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, any business entity into which the Delaware Trustee may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated or any entity resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Delaware Trustee shall be a party, or any entity succeeding to all or substantially all of the corporate trust business of the Delaware Trustee, shall be the successor of the Delaware Trustee hereunder, without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto

LIABILITY AND INDEMNIFICATION

5.1 No Further Liability. Neither the Master Trustees nor the Delaware Trustee, shall have any liability for any actions or omissions in accordance with this Agreement or with respect to the Master Trust unless arising out of such Person's own fraud or willful misconduct. Unless arising out of such Person's own fraud or willful misconduct in performing its duties under this Agreement, neither the Master Trustees nor the Delaware Trustee, shall have any liability for any action taken by such Person in accordance with the advice of counsel, accountants, appraisers, and/or other professionals retained by the Master Trustees, the Delaware Trustee, or the Master Trust, or any action or inaction taken by such Person in accordance with the approval of the Bankruptcy Court. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Master Trustees and the Delaware Trustee may rely without independent investigation on copies of orders of the Bankruptcy Court reasonably believed by such Person to be genuine and shall have no liability for actions taken in reliance thereon. None of the provisions of this Agreement shall require the Master Trustees or the Delaware Trustee to expend or risk their own funds or otherwise incur personal financial liability in the performance of any of their duties hereunder or in the exercise of any of their rights and powers. The Master Trustees and the Delaware Trustee, may rely without inquiry upon writings delivered to such Person pursuant to the Plan or the Confirmation Order that such Person reasonably believes to be genuine and to have been properly given. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Section 5.1 shall relieve the Master Trustees or the Delaware Trustee, from any liability for any actions or omissions arising out of such Person's fraud or willful misconduct. No termination of this Agreement or amendment, modification, or repeal of this Section 5.1 shall adversely affect any right or protection of the Master Trustees or the Delaware Trustee that exists at the time of such amendment, modification, or repeal.

5.2 Indemnification of the Master Trustees and the Delaware Trustee.

(a) From and after the Effective Date, each of the Master Trustees, the Delaware Trustee, and the professionals of the Master Trust and their representatives and professionals

(each, a "Master Trust Indemnified Party," and collectively, the "Master Trust Indemnified Parties") shall be, and each of them hereby is, indemnified by Master Trust, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, including the Trust Act, from and against any and all Claims, debts, dues, accounts, actions, suits, Causes of Action (including, without limitation, any suit or other enforcement action brought to enforce indemnity obligations under this Agreement), bonds, covenants, judgments, damages, reasonable attorneys' fees, defense costs, and other assertions of liability arising out of any such Master Trust Indemnified Party's exercise of what such Master Trust Indemnified Party reasonably understands to be its powers or the discharge of what such Master Trust Indemnified Party reasonably understands to be its duties conferred by the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement or this Agreement, any order of the Bankruptcy Court entered pursuant to, or in furtherance of, the Plan, applicable law, or otherwise (except only for actions or omissions to act to the extent determined by a Final Order to be due to such Master Trust Indemnified Party's own fraud or willful misconduct on and after the Effective Date). The foregoing indemnification shall also extend to matters directly or indirectly in connection with, arising out of, based on, or in any way related to: (i) this Agreement; (ii) the services to be rendered pursuant to this Agreement; (iii) any document or information, whether oral or written, referred to herein or supplied to the Master Trustees or Delaware Trustee in connection herewith; (iv) proceedings by or on behalf of any creditor, or (v) the application of any law, statute, regulation or other rule to the Master Trust or its assets. The Master Trust shall, on demand, advance or pay promptly, at the election of the Master Trust Indemnified Party, solely out of the Master Trust Assets, on behalf of each Master Trust Indemnified Party, reasonable attorneys' fees and other expenses and disbursements to which such Master Trust Indemnified Party would be entitled pursuant to the foregoing indemnification provision; provided, however, that any Master Trust Indemnified Party receiving any such advance shall execute a written undertaking to repay such advance if a court of competent jurisdiction ultimately determines, by Final Order, that such Master Trust Indemnified Party is not entitled to indemnification hereunder due to such Person's own fraud or willful misconduct. Any indemnification Claim of a Master Trust Indemnified Party shall be entitled to a priority distribution from the Master Trust Assets, ahead of Trust Interests and any other Claim to or Interest in such assets. In any matter covered by the first two sentences of this subsection, any party entitled to indemnification shall have the right to employ such party's own separate counsel, at the Master Trust's expense, subject to the foregoing terms and conditions. In addition, the Master Trust shall purchase insurance coverage as set forth in Section 2.5(f) hereof, including fiduciary liability insurance using funds from the Master Trust Assets for the benefit of the Master Trustees. The indemnification provided under this Section 5.2 shall survive the death, dissolution, incapacity, resignation, or removal, as may be applicable, of the Master Trustees, or any other Master Trust Indemnified Party and shall inure to the benefit of the Master Trustees, and each other Master Trust Indemnified Party's respective heirs, successors, and assigns.

(b) The foregoing indemnity in respect of any Master Trust Indemnified Party shall survive the termination of such Master Trust Indemnified Party from the capacity for which such party is indemnified. Termination or modification of this Agreement shall not affect any indemnification rights or obligations set forth herein.

(c) The Master Trust may, but is not obligated to, indemnify any Person who is not a Master Trust Indemnified Party for any loss, cost, damage, expense or liability for which a Master Trust Indemnified Party would be entitled to mandatory indemnification under this Section 5.2.

(d) Any Master Trust Indemnified Party may waive the benefits of indemnification under this Section 5.2, but only by an instrument in writing executed by such Master Trust Indemnified Party.

(e) The rights to indemnification under this Section 5.2 are not exclusive of other rights which any Master Trust Indemnified Party may otherwise have at law or in equity, including, without limitation, common law rights to indemnification or contribution. Nothing in this Section 5.2 will affect the rights or obligations of any Person (or the limitations on those rights or obligations) under any other agreement or instrument to which that Person is a party. Further, the Master Trust hereby agrees that Master Trust shall be required to pay the full amount of expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) actually incurred by such Master Trust Indemnified Party in connection with any proceeding as to which Master Trust Indemnified Party is entitled to indemnification hereunder in advance of the final disposition of such proceeding. For the avoidance of doubt, each Master Trust Indemnified Party shall be entitled, subject to the terms hereof, to indemnification for any costs and reasonable attorneys' fees such Master Trust Indemnified Party may incur in connection with enforcing any of its rights under this Article V.

5.3 Master Trust Liabilities. All liabilities of the Master Trust, including, without limitation, actual indemnity obligations under Section 5.2 of this Agreement, will be liabilities of the Master Trust as an Entity and will be paid or satisfied solely from the Master Trust Assets. For the avoidance of doubt, all expenses of the Master Trust must be satisfied or reserved for before any Master Trust Beneficiary may receive a distribution. No liability of the Master Trust will be payable in whole or in part by any Master Trust Beneficiary individually or in the Master Trust Beneficiary's capacity as a Master Trust Beneficiary, by the Master Trustees individually or in the Master Trustees' capacity as Master Trustees, or by any representative, member, partner, shareholder, director, officer, professional, employees, agent, affiliate, or advisor of any Master Trust Beneficiary, the Delaware Trustee, or their respective affiliates.

5.4 Limitation of Liability. None of the Master Trust Indemnified Parties shall be liable for indirect, punitive, exemplary, consequential, special, or other damages for a breach of this Agreement under any circumstances.

5.5 Burden of Proof. In making a determination with respect to entitlement to exculpation or indemnification hereunder, the court, Person, or Entity making such determination shall presume that any Master Trust Indemnified Party is entitled to exculpation and indemnification under this Agreement and any Person seeking to overcome such presumption shall have the burden of proof to overcome that presumption.

ARTICLE VI
TAX MATTERS

6.1 Treatment of the Master Trust Assets Transfer. For all U.S. federal income tax purposes, all parties (including, without limitation, the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors, the Master Trustees, and the Master Trust Beneficiaries) shall treat the transfer of the Master Trust Assets to the Master Trust for the benefit of the Master Trust Beneficiaries, including any amounts or other assets subsequently transferred to the Master Trust (but only at such time as actually transferred) (i) as a transfer of the Master Trust Assets (subject to any obligations relating to such Master Trust Assets) by Rite Aid Corporation directly to the Master Trust Beneficiaries followed by (ii) the transfer by the Master Trust Beneficiaries of the Master Trust Assets to the Master Trust in exchange for their respective ownership interest in the Master Trust. Accordingly, the Master Trust Beneficiaries (or their beneficiaries) shall be treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes as grantors and/or indirect owners of their respective share of the Master Trust Assets. For U.S. federal income tax purposes (and for purposes of all state, local and other jurisdictions to the extent applicable, the Master Trust shall be treated as a liquidating trust pursuant to Section 301.7701-4(d) of the Treasury Regulations and that is taxable as a grantor trust pursuant to Sections 671–77 of the Code). To the extent consistent with Revenue Procedure 94-45 and not otherwise inconsistent with this Agreement, the Master Trust shall satisfy the requirements for liquidating trust status. The Master Trust shall at all times be administered so as to constitute a domestic trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement or the Plan, the failure of the Master Trust to be treated for tax purposes as contemplated by this Section 6.1 shall not limit or affect the validity or formation of the Master Trust or the effectiveness of the Plan or the power of authority of the Master Trustees, and the Master Trustees shall be entitled to take such steps or actions as the Master Trustees deem appropriate or advisable, in order to further or support the tax treatment and effects contemplated by this Section 6.1.

6.2 Tax Reporting.

(a) The "taxable year" of the Master Trust shall be the "calendar year" as such terms are defined in section 441 of the IRC, unless the Master Trustees determine in good faith to use a different tax year in the interests of all beneficiaries to the extent permitted under the IRC and the Treasury Regulations thereunder. The Master Trustees shall file all tax returns or information returns required to be filed under applicable law for the Master Trust treating the Master Trust as a "grantor trust," including, without limitation, pursuant to Treasury Regulation section 1.671-4(a) and in accordance with this Section 6.2. The Master Trustees also will annually send to each Master Trust Beneficiary a separate statement setting forth such holder's share of items of income, gain, loss, deduction, or credit (including the receipts and expenditures of the Master Trust) as relevant for U.S. federal income tax purposes and will instruct all such Master Trust Beneficiaries to use such information in preparing their U.S. federal income tax returns or to forward the appropriate information to such Master Trust Beneficiary's underlying beneficial holders with instructions to utilize such information in preparing their U.S. federal income tax returns.

(b) To the extent applicable, allocations of the Master Trust taxable income among the Master Trust Beneficiaries shall be determined by reference to the manner in which an amount of Cash equal to such taxable income would be distributed (were such Cash permitted to be distributed at such time, and without regard to any restrictions on distributions set forth in the Plan or this Agreement) if, immediately prior to such deemed distribution, the Master Trust had distributed all its assets (valued at their tax book value, to the Master Trust Beneficiaries, adjusted for prior taxable income and loss and taking into account all prior and concurrent distributions from the Master Trust. Similarly, taxable loss of the Master Trust shall be allocated by reference to the manner in which an economic loss would be borne immediately after a hypothetical liquidating distribution of the remaining Master Trust Assets). The tax book value of the Master Trust Assets for purposes of this Section 6.2(b) shall equal their fair market value on the Effective Date, adjusted in accordance with tax accounting principles prescribed by the IRC, the applicable Treasury Regulations and other applicable administrative and judicial authorities and pronouncements. Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent applicable, the Master Trustees shall be permitted to allocate taxable income in such other equitable manner as they may jointly determine in good faith taking into account the interests of the Master Trust Beneficiaries as a whole.

(c) The Master Trustees shall be responsible for payment of, and shall be permitted to pay, out of the Master Trust Assets, any taxes imposed on the Master Trust or the Master Trust Assets and any such payment shall be considered a cost and expense of the operation of the Master Trust payable without Bankruptcy Court order.

6.3 Withholding of Taxes. The Master Trust shall comply with all withholding and reporting requirements imposed by the IRC, state, local or non-U.S. taxing authority. The Master Trustees shall be authorized to take any and all actions that may be necessary or appropriate to comply with any such withholding, payment, and reporting requirements. The Master Trustees may deduct and withhold and pay to the appropriate Tax Authority all amounts required to be deducted or withheld pursuant to the IRC or any provision of any state, local or non-U.S. tax law with respect to any payment or distribution to the Master Trust Beneficiaries. Notwithstanding the above, each holder of an ownership interest in the Master Trust that is to receive a distribution under the Plan shall have the sole and exclusive responsibility for the satisfaction and payment of any taxes imposed on such holder by any Tax Authority, including income, withholding, and other tax obligations, on account of such distribution. All such amounts withheld and paid to the appropriate Tax Authority shall be treated as amounts distributed to such Master Trust Beneficiaries for all purposes of this Agreement. The Master Trust Trustees shall be authorized to collect such tax information from the Master Trust Beneficiaries (including, without limitation, social security numbers or other tax identification numbers) as it, in its sole discretion, deems necessary to effectuate the Plan, the Confirmation Order, and this Agreement. As a condition to receive distributions under the Plan, all Master Trust Beneficiaries will need to identify themselves to the Master Trust Trustees and provide tax information and the specifics of their holdings, to the extent the Master Trust Trustees deem appropriate, including an IRS Form W-9 (or any successor form) or, in the case of Master Trust Beneficiaries that are not United States persons for U.S. federal income tax purposes, certification of foreign status on an applicable IRS Form W-8 (or any successor form). The Master Trust Trustees may refuse to make a distribution to any Master Trust Beneficiary that fails to furnish such information in a timely fashion, until such information is delivered; provided, however, that, upon the delivery of such information by a Master Trust Beneficiary within 180 days of the Master Trust Trustees' request, the Master Trust Trustees shall make such distribution to which the Master Trust Beneficiary is entitled, without interest; and, provided, further, that, if the Master Trust Trustees fail to withhold in respect of amounts received or distributable with respect to any such holder and the Master Trust Trustees are later held liable for the amount of such withholding, such holder shall reimburse the Master Trust Trustees for such liability. If the holder fails to comply with such a request for tax information within such 180 days of the Master Trust Trustees' request, such distribution shall be deemed an unclaimed distribution and treated in accordance with Section 2.8(d) hereof.

6.4 Expedited Determination of Taxes. The Master Trustees may request an expedited determination of taxes of the Master Trust under section 505(b) of the Bankruptcy Code for all returns filed for, or on behalf of, the Master Trust for all taxable periods through the termination of the Master Trust.

6.5 Valuation. As soon as reasonably practicable following the establishment of the Master Trust, the Master Trust Trustees shall determine the value of the Master Trust Assets transferred to the Master Trust as of the Effective Date, based on the good-faith determination of the Master Trust Trustees. The Master Trust Trustees shall apprise, in writing, the applicable Master Trust Beneficiaries of such valuation. The valuation of the Master Trust Assets prepared pursuant to this Agreement shall be used consistently by all parties (including, without limitation, the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, the Master Trust Trustees, and the Master Trust Beneficiaries) for all U.S. federal income tax purposes. The Master Trust also shall file (or cause to be filed) any other statements, returns, or disclosures relating to the Master Trust that are required by any Governmental Unit. In connection with the preparation of any valuation contemplated hereby, the Master Trust, subject to Section 2.3 hereof, shall be entitled to retain such Master Trust professionals as the Master Trust Trustees shall determine to be appropriate or necessary in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, and the Master Trust Trustees shall take such other actions in connection therewith as it determines to be appropriate or necessary. For the avoidance of doubt, the valuation shall not be binding on the Master Trust, the Master Trustees, or the Master Trust Beneficiaries for any purpose other than U.S. federal income tax purposes, and the valuation shall not impair or prejudice rights, claims, powers, duties, authority and/or privileges of the Master Trust, the Master Trustees, or any of the Master Trust Beneficiaries expect with respect to U.S. federal income tax purposes.

TERMINATION OF MASTER TRUST

7.1 Termination. The Master Trust shall be dissolved at the later of (i) such time as all of the Master Trust Assets have been distributed pursuant to the Plan and this Agreement; and (ii) dissolution or termination of Sub-Trust A and Sub-Trust B; provided, however, that in no event shall the Master Trust be dissolved later than five (5) years from the Effective Date unless the Bankruptcy Court, upon motion within the six-month period prior to the fifth (5^{th}) anniversary (or within the six-month period prior to the end of an extension period), determines that a fixed period extension (not to exceed five (5) years, including any prior extensions, without a favorable private letter ruling from the Internal Revenue Service or an opinion of counsel satisfactory to the Master Trustees that any further extension would not adversely affect the status of the Master Trust as a liquidating trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes) is necessary to facilitate or complete the recovery and liquidation of the Master Trust Assets. If at any time the Master Trustees determine, in reliance upon such professionals as the Master Trustees may retain that the expense of administering the Master Trust so as to make a final distribution to the Master Trust Beneficiaries is likely to exceed the value of the assets remaining in the Master Trust, the Master Trustees may, in their discretion and without the need to apply to the Bankruptcy Court for approval, (i) reserve any amount necessary to dissolve the Master Trust, (ii) donate any balance to a charitable organization (A) described in section 501(c)(3) of the IRC, (B) exempt from U.S. federal income tax under section 501(a) of the IRC, (C) not a "private foundation," as defined in section 509(a) of the IRC and (D) that is unrelated to the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors, the Master Trust and any insider of the Master Trustees and (iii) dissolve the Master Trust. The Master Trustees may, but shall not be required to, apply for any order of the Bankruptcy Court approving any or all of the foregoing. If a final decree has been entered closing the Chapter 11 Cases, the Master Trustees may seek to open the Chapter 11 Cases for the limited purpose of filing a motion seeking authority as set forth in the immediately preceding sentence, and the costs for such motion and costs related to re-opening the Chapter 11 Cases shall be paid by use of the Master Trust Assets. Such date upon which the Master Trust shall finally be dissolved shall be referred to herein as the "Termination Date." Upon the Termination Date, the Master Trustees shall wind up and liquidate the Master Trust in accordance with section 3808 of the Trust Act and Section 7.2 herein and all monies remaining in the Master Trust shall be distributed or disbursed in accordance with Section 2.8 above. The Master Trustees and the Delaware Trustee (acting at the written direction of the Master Trustees) shall file any required Certificate of Cancellation in accordance with section 3810(d) of the Trust Act, and thereupon this Agreement shall terminate.

7.2 Continuance of the Master Trust for Winding Up. After the termination of the Master Trust and solely for the purpose of liquidating and winding up the affairs of the Master Trust, the Master Trustees shall continue to act as such until their duties have been fully performed and shall continue to be entitled to receive the fees called for by Section 3.3(a) hereof. Upon distribution of all the Master Trust Assets, the Master Trustees may, but shall not be required to, retain the books, records, and files that shall have been delivered or created by the Master Trustees. For the avoidance of doubt, at the Master Trustees' discretion, all of such records and documents may be abandoned or destroyed by the Master Trustees (unless such records and documents are necessary to fulfill the Master Trustees' obligations hereunder) subject to the terms of any joint prosecution and common interest agreement(s) to which the Master Trustees may be a party. Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, upon the final distribution of the Master Trust Assets and filing by the Master Trustees and the Delaware Trustee of a Certificate of Cancellation with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware, the Master Trustees shall be deemed discharged and have no further duties or obligations hereunder, except to account to the Master Trust Beneficiaries as provided herein, Trust Interests shall be cancelled, and the Master Trust will be deemed to have dissolved.

8.1 Subject to Sections 1.5(c) and 8.2 of this Agreement, the Master Trustees may amend, supplement or seek to waive any provision of this Agreement with the consent of both Master Trustees; provided, that to the extent any such amendment, supplement or waiver materially and adversely impacts the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, or modifies the obligations of the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors hereunder, such amendment, supplement, or waiver shall also require the prior written consent of the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, as applicable (not to be unreasonably withheld); provided, further, that to the extent that any such amendment, supplement, or waiver materially and adversely affects the interests of the holder of the Sub-Trust A-3 Interest (as defined in the Sub-Trust A Agreement) or the Sub-Trust B-3 Interest (as defined in the Sub-Trust B Agreement) in a manner disproportionate to holders of other Sub-Trust A Interests or other Sub-Trust B Interests, as applicable, such amendment, supplement or waiver shall also require the prior consent of the DIP Noteholder Trust Trustee (as defined in the Sub-Trust A Agreement and Sub-Trust B Agreement), as applicable.

8.2 Notwithstanding Section 8.1 of this Agreement, no amendment, supplement, or waiver of or to this Agreement shall: (a) adversely affect the payments and/or distributions to be made under the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement or this Agreement; (b) alter or conflict with the procedural requirements of this Agreement or the obligations under the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement; (c) adversely affect the U.S. federal income tax status of the Master Trust as a liquidating trust taxable as a grantor trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes; or (d) be inconsistent with the purpose and intention of the Master Trust to liquidate the Master Trust Assets in an expeditious but orderly manner.

8.3 No failure by the Master Trust or the Master Trustees to exercise or delay in exercising any right, power, or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, power, or privilege hereunder preclude any further exercise thereof, or of any other right, power, or privilege.

8.4 Notwithstanding the forgoing, to the extent any such amendment, supplement, or waiver affects the rights, duties, protections, immunities, or indemnities of the Delaware Trustee, such act shall require the written consent of the Delaware Trustee. The fees and expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees) of the Delaware Trustee incurred in connection with any amendment shall be paid by the Master Trust. In consenting to any amendment hereunder, the Delaware Trustee shall be entitled to receive and be fully protected in relying on an opinion of counsel that such amendment is authorized and permitted by this Agreement and that all conditions precedent to such amendment have been satisfied.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

9.1 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware (without reference to principles of conflicts of law thereof), including all matters of validity, construction, and administration; provided, however, that the following shall not be applicable to the Master Trust, the Master Trustees, the Delaware Trustee or this Agreement; (a) the provisions of section 3540 of Title 12 of the Delaware Code and (b) any provisions of the laws (statutory or common) of the State of Delaware pertaining to trusts that relate to or regulate, in a manner inconsistent with the terms hereof, (i) the filing with any court or governmental body or agency of trustee accounts or schedule of trustee fees and charges, affirmative requirements to post bonds for trustees, officers, agents, or employees of a trust, the necessity for obtaining court or other governmental approval concerning the acquisition, holding, or disposition of real or personal property, (ii) fees or other sums payable to trustees, officers, agents, or employees of a trust, (iii) the allocation of receipts and expenditures to income and principal, (iv) restrictions or limitations on the permissible nature, amount, or concentration of trust investments or requirements relating to the titling, storage, or other manner of holding or investing trust assets, or (v) the establishment of fiduciary or other standards or responsibilities or limitations on the acts or powers of trustees.

9.2 Jurisdiction; WAIVER OF TRIAL BY JURY. The Parties agree that the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction over the Master Trust and the Master Trustees, including, without limitation, the administration and activities of the Master Trust and the Master Trustees to the fullest extent permitted by law. Each Party to this Agreement and the Master Trust Beneficiaries, by accepting and holding their interest in the Master Trust, hereby irrevocably consents to the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court in any action to enforce, interpret or construe any provision of this Agreement or of any other agreement or document delivered in connection with this Agreement, and also hereby irrevocably waives any defense of improper venue, forum non conveniens, or lack of personal jurisdiction to any such action brought in the Bankruptcy Court. Until the closing of the Chapter 11 Cases, any action to enforce, interpret, or construe any provision of this Agreement will be brought only in the Bankruptcy Court. In the event that all of the Chapter 11 Cases are closed, the Parties agree that the Master Trustees shall have the right to move to re-open the Chapter 11 Cases or alternatively, to bring the dispute(s) before the courts of the State of Delaware, including any federal court located in the State of Delaware (and, in such event, the Parties agree that the such courts shall have jurisdiction over the Master Trust and the Master Trustees, including, without limitation, the administration and activities of the Master Trust and the Master Trustees to the fullest extent permitted by law). Each Party hereby irrevocably consents to the service by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, of any process in any action to enforce, interpret, or construe any provision of this Agreement. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO, AND EACH MASTER TRUST BENEFICIARY, BY ACCEPTING ITS INTEREST HEREIN, HEREBY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY AND ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY WITH RESPECT TO ANY LITIGATION OR LEGAL PROCEEDING DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF, UNDER OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT, THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY AND/OR THE MASTER TRUST. NOTWITHSTANDING THE FOREGOING AND FOR THE AVOIDANCE OF DOUBT, NOTHING CONTAINED HEREIN SHALL PROHIBIT OR RESTRICT THE MASTER TRUST OR ITS TRUSTEES FROM SEEKING A JURY TRIAL WITH RESPECT TO ANY OF THE ASSIGNED INSURANCE RIGHTS OR ASSIGNED CLAIMS.

9.3 Severability. In the event any provision of this Agreement or the application thereof to any person or circumstances shall be determined by Final Order to be invalid or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Agreement or the application of such provision to persons or circumstances or in jurisdictions other than those as to or in which it is held invalid or unenforceable, shall not be affected thereby, and each provision of this Agreement shall be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

9.4 Notices. Any notice or other communication required or permitted to be made under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been sufficiently given, for all purposes, if delivered personally or by facsimile or electronic communication, sent by nationally recognized overnight delivery service or mailed by first-class mail. The date of receipt of such notice shall be the earliest of (a) the date of actual receipt by the receiving party, (b) the date of personal delivery (or refusal upon presentation for delivery), (c) the date of the transmission confirmation, or (d) three Business Days after service by first-class mail, to the receiving party's below address(es):

NOW, THEREFORE, pursuant to the Plan and the Confirmation Order, in consideration of the promises, the mutual agreements of the Parties contained herein, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged and affirmed, the Parties hereby agree as follows:

ARTICLE I
ESTABLISHMENT OF SUB-TRUST A

1.1 Establishment of Sub-Trust A and Appointment of the Sub-Trust A Trustee.

(a) The Parties, pursuant to the Plan and the Confirmation Order and in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, hereby establish a trust on behalf of the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries, which shall be known as the "RAD Sub-Trust A," on the terms set forth herein. In connection with the exercise of the Sub-Trust A Trustee's powers hereunder, the Sub-Trust A Trustee may use this name or such variation thereof as the Sub-Trust A Trustee sees fit.

(b) The Sub-Trust A Trustee has been selected by the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "UCC"), in consultation with the Tort Claimants Committee (the "TCC") and counsel to the Required Junior DIP Noteholders, which Person (and any successor Sub-Trust A Trustee) is (and shall be) a "U.S. person" as determined for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

(c) The Sub-Trust A Trustee shall be deemed a trustee under the Delaware Statutory Trust Act, 12 Del. C. § 3801 et seq., as the same may from time to time be amended, or any successor statute (the "Trust Act").

(d) The Sub-Trust A Trustee agrees to accept and hold the Sub-Trust A Assets in trust for the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries, subject to the provisions of the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, the Master Trust Agreement, this Agreement and applicable law.

(e) The Sub-Trust A Trustee and each successor trustee serving from time to time hereunder shall have all the rights, powers, and duties as set forth herein.

(f) The Sub-Trust A Trustee may serve without bond.

(g) Subject to the terms of this Agreement, any action by the Sub-Trust A Trustee that affects the interests of more than one Sub-Trust A Beneficiary shall be binding and conclusive on all Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries even if such Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries have different or conflicting interests.

(h) For the avoidance of doubt, the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall not be deemed an officer, director, or fiduciary of any of the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, or their respective subsidiaries.

1.2 Transfer of the Sub-Trust A Assets.

(a) The "Sub-Trust A Assets" shall include:

(i) The Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims;

(ii) The Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights;

(iii) The "Sub-Trust A Cash Consideration," which is (i) $1,625,000 of the Committees Initial Cash Consideration, plus cash savings, if any, from the Committees' professional fee budget, and (ii) $4,500,000 of the Committees' Post-Emergence Cash Consideration;[1]

(iv) The "Sub-Trust B-2 Interest," which shall be an interest in Sub-Trust B issued to the Sub-Trust A Trust, entitling Sub-Trust A to a portion of the Tort Claim Insurance Proceeds as set forth in the Sub-Trust B Agreement; and

(v) The "GUC Equity Trust Interest," which shall be 100% of the interests in the GUC Equity Trust issued to the Sub-Trust A Trustee for the benefit of holders of Sub-Trust A-1 Interests.

[1] The Sub-Trust A Cash payable from the Committees' Post-Emergence Cash Consideration shall be funded as follows: 20% of any amounts paid on account of real estate, 20% of any amounts paid on account of the CMS Receivable, 20% of the first three post-Effective Date payments and 10% of any remaining post-Effective Date payments, as set forth in the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement.

(b) Pursuant to the Plan, the Master Trust Agreement, and the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, as of the Effective Date, following receipt thereof by the Master Trust, the Master Trust, on behalf of the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, and the Debtors' Estates shall irrevocably grant, vest, transfer, assign, and deliver, and shall be deemed to have granted, vested, transferred, assigned and delivered, to Sub-Trust A, without recourse, all of their respective rights, title, and interest in the Sub-Trust A Assets, free and clear of all Liens and Claims for the benefit of the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries, including, without limitation and pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Plan, the Confirmation Order, and the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement, all privileges (including, without limitation, attorney-client privileges), which shall vest solely in the Sub-Trust A, in trust, and, consistent with sections 1123(a)(5)(B) and 1123(b)(3)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code, for the sole benefit of the Sub-Trust A Trustee and the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries. In no event shall any part of the Sub-Trust A Assets revert to or be distributed to the Debtors and the Reorganized Debtors except as set forth herein.

(c) The Sub-Trust A Assets and the rights thereto shall vest in Sub-Trust A on the Effective Date; provided, however, to the extent any of the Sub-Trust A Assets are capable of being assigned to Sub-Trust A but are not assigned to Sub-Trust A upon the Effective Date, the obligation to effect the assignment of such Sub-Trust A Assets shall be satisfied by the Master Trust and the Reorganized Debtors, in accordance with the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement and/or the Plan, as applicable.

(d) In accordance with, and subject to, the terms and conditions set forth in the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement, and this Agreement, the Reorganized Debtors shall take, or cause to be taken, all such further actions as the Sub-Trust A Trustee may reasonably request, in each case to the extent necessary, to permit Sub-Trust A to investigate, prosecute, monetize, settle, protect, and conserve all Claims and Causes of Action constituting Sub-Trust A Assets. In accordance with, and subject to, terms and conditions set forth in the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement, and this Agreement, the Reorganized Debtors shall take, or cause to be taken, all such further actions as the Sub-Trust A Trustee may reasonably request, in each case to the extent necessary, to permit Sub-Trust A to preserve, secure, and obtain the benefit of the Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights and the other Sub-Trust A Assets. Sub-Trust A shall be the successor-in-interest to the Debtors and/or the applicable Reorganized Debtors with respect to any Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims and Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights, provided, however, that neither Sub-Trust A nor the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall bear any liabilities in connection therewith other than as expressly set forth in the Plan. Nothing in this Agreement shall preclude Sub-Trust A from disclosing information, documents, or other materials reasonably necessary to preserve, litigate, resolve, or settle coverage, or to comply with an applicable obligation under an insurance policy or settlement agreement, subject to appropriate confidentiality protections and any other restrictions or limitations set forth in the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing herein shall expand the obligations of the Reorganized Debtors beyond what has been agreed to in the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement and/or is required pursuant to the Confirmation Order.

(e) To the extent that any of the Sub-Trust A Assets cannot be transferred to or vested in the Sub-Trust A because of a restriction on transferability under non-bankruptcy law that is not superseded or preempted by the Bankruptcy Code or the Confirmation Order, such Sub-Trust A Asset shall, to the extent permitted by applicable law, be deemed held by the Master Trust, and if not the Master Trust, then by the Reorganized Debtors, as bailee for Sub-Trust A, and the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall be deemed to have been designated as a representative of the Master Trust, or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, including pursuant to section 1123(b)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code to liquidate, monetize, enforce, and/or pursue such Sub-Trust A Assets to the extent and subject to the limitations set forth in the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, the Master Trust Agreement, and this Agreement, on behalf of the Master Trust or Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, for the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries; provided, however, that the Reorganized Debtors shall be permitted to recoup the reasonable, documented out-of-pocket costs, if any, incurred in connection with holding and/or disposing of such asset(s) (to the extent not already recouped or paid in accordance with the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement) solely by withholding proceeds from (i) any amount payable to the Master Trust under the Plan as part of the Committees' Post-Emergence Cash Consideration, and (ii) any amounts otherwise payable to the Sub-Trust A on account of the Reorganized Debtors' monetizing the corresponding assets; provided, further, however, that the proceeds of the sale or other disposition of any such assets by the Master Trust or the Reorganized Debtors, until such time they are transferred to Sub-Trust A, shall nevertheless be deemed to constitute Sub-Trust A Assets.

(f) On the Effective Date, the Reorganized Debtors, the Master Trust, Sub-Trust A, and Sub-Trust B shall enter into the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement.

(g) At any time and from time to time on and after the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, and any party under the control of such parties shall agree (i) at the reasonable request of the Sub-Trust A Trustee to execute and/or deliver any instruments, documents, books, and records (including those maintained in electronic format and original documents as may be needed), subject to the preceding Section 1.2(d), and (ii) to take, or cause to be taken, all such further actions as the Sub-Trust A Trustee may reasonably request, subject to the preceding Section 1.2(d), in each case (i) and (ii) in order to evidence or effectuate the transfer of the Sub-Trust A Assets to the Sub-Trust A.

(h) In accordance with, and subject to, the Plan (subject to Section 1.5(d) hereof), the Confirmation Order, and the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement, the Reorganized Debtors, and any party under the control of the Reorganized Debtors, and the Estates shall take, or cause to be taken, subject to the preceding Section 1.2(d), all such further actions as the Sub-Trust A Trustee may reasonably request, in each case to permit the Sub-Trust A Trustee to investigate, prosecute, settle, protect, and conserve all Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims and Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights.

(i) All of the proceeds received by Sub-Trust A from the pursuit of any Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims (the "Sub-Trust A Assigned Claim Proceeds"), the Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights (the "Sub-Trust A Insurance Proceeds"), and other Sub-Trust A Assets, including the Sub-Trust B-2 Interest and the GUC Equity Trust Interest (collectively, the "Sub-Trust A Asset Proceeds") shall be added to the Sub-Trust A Assets and held as a part thereof (and title thereto shall be vested in Sub-Trust A).

(j) For all U.S. federal, state and local income tax purposes, as applicable, all parties (including, without limitation, the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors, the Sub-Trust A Trustee, the Delaware Trustee, and the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries) shall treat the transfer of the Sub-Trust A Assets to Sub-Trust A and the transfer of the Sub-Trust A-1 Interests to the Sub-Trust A-1 Disputed Claims Reserve in accordance with Section 8.1 hereof.

(k) The transfers set forth in this Section 1.2, made pursuant to the Plan, shall be exempt from any stamp, real estate transfer, mortgage reporting, sales, use or other similar tax, pursuant to section 1146(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

(l) Notwithstanding the foregoing, for purposes of section 553 of the Bankruptcy Code, the transfer of the Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims and Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights to Sub-Trust A shall not affect the mutuality of obligations that otherwise may have existed prior to the effectuation of such transfer. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary and subject to the Plan, the Confirmation Order and applicable law, the transfer of the Sub-Trust A Assets to Sub-Trust A does not diminish, and fully preserves, any defenses a defendant would have if the Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims and Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights had been retained by the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors.

1.3 Funding of Sub-Trust A; Payment of Fees and Expenses.

(a) Sub-Trust A shall be funded by the Master Trust with the Sub-Trust A Cash Consideration, which shall be used to administer all Sub-Trust A Assets and initially pay all reasonable fees, costs, and expenses (including indemnities) of and incurred by Sub-Trust A, including legal and other professional fees, costs, and expenses, administrative fees and expenses, insurance fees, taxes, and escrow expenses, which shall be paid in accordance with this Agreement; (the "Sub-Trust A Expenses"). The Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries, Debtors, and Reorganized Debtors shall have no obligation to provide any funding with respect to Sub-Trust A, except (i) as may be directly funded by the Sub-Trust A Assets, including the Sub-Trust A Asset Proceeds or (ii) with respect to the Reorganized Debtors, any funding associated with the Committees Post-Emergence Cash Consideration.

(b) Each of the Sub-Trust A Trustee and the Delaware Trustee may incur any Sub-Trust A Expenses in connection with the performance of its duties under the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement, and this Agreement, including in connection with retaining professionals and/or entering into agreements pursuant to Sections 3.8 and 3.9 herein. All Sub-Trust A Expenses shall be paid by, and solely be the obligation of, Sub-Trust A. In accordance with Section 1.3(a) and 1.3(d) hereof, all Sub-Trust A Expenses shall initially be paid by Sub-Trust A from the Sub-Trust A Cash Consideration. Thereafter, in accordance with Section 3.7(b) hereof, the Sub-Trust A Trustee may elect to apply amounts from the Sub-Trust A Assets to fund expenses (including professional fees) incurred, or reasonably projected to be incurred, in connection with prosecuting or settling the Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims and Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights, monetizing the Sub-Trust A Assets, and distributing the Sub-Trust

A Distributable Proceeds[2] to the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries; provided, however, that the Delaware Trustee's expenses shall be limited to those specifically authorized in Section 6.3 or payable as indemnification pursuant to Article VII hereof. For the avoidance of doubt, all Sub-Trust A Expenses shall be satisfied or reserved for before any distributions may be made to Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries.

(c) Up to $450,000 of the Sub-Trust A Cash Consideration will be used to fund distributions to holders of Convenience Class Claims (defined below) (the "Convenience Class Cash Consideration"), as set forth herein.

(d) Up to $1,125,000 of the Sub-Trust A Cash Consideration may be used to pay Sub-Trust A Expenses (the "Sub-Trust A Initial Funding"), including pursuit of the Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights and the Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims. The Sub-Trust A Trustee may, as set forth herein, obtain additional funding to pay Sub-Trust A Expenses ("Sub-Trust A Additional Funding," and together with the Sub-Trust A Initial Funding, "Sub-Trust A Funding").

(e) Any failure or inability of the Sub-Trust A Trustee to obtain Sub-Trust A Funding will not affect the enforceability of the Sub-Trust A Agreement.

(f) The Sub-Trust A Trustee shall be paid from the Sub-Trust A Initial Funding and any additional funding obtained by the Sub-Trust A Trustee, or in accordance with Section 3.7(b) hereof.

1.4 Title to the Sub-Trust A Assets. The transfer of the Sub-Trust A Assets to Sub-Trust A pursuant to Section 1.2 hereof is being made for the sole benefit, and on behalf, of the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries. Upon the transfer of the Sub-Trust A Assets to Sub-Trust A, Sub-Trust A shall succeed to all of the Debtors', Reorganized Debtors', the Debtors' Estates, the Master Trust's, and the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries' rights, title, and interest in the Sub-Trust A Assets, free and clear of all Liens, Claims, encumbrances, Interests, contractually imposed restrictions, and other interests, and no other Person shall have any interest, legal, beneficial, or otherwise, in Sub-Trust A or the Sub-Trust A Assets upon the assignment and transfer of such assets to Sub-Trust A (other than as provided in the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, or this Agreement). On the Effective Date, Sub-Trust A shall be substituted for the Master Trust, Master Trustees, Debtors and Reorganized Debtors (as applicable) for all purposes with respect to the Sub-Trust A Assets. To the extent any law or regulation prohibits the transfer of ownership of any of the Sub-Trust A Assets from the Master Trust to Sub-Trust A and such law is not superseded by the Bankruptcy Code, Sub-Trust A's interest shall be a lien upon and security interest in such Sub-Trust A Assets, in trust, nevertheless, for the sole use and purposes set forth herein and in the Plan, and this Agreement shall be deemed a security agreement granting such interest thereon without need to file financing statements or mortgages. By executing this Agreement, the Sub-Trust A Trustee on behalf of Sub-Trust A hereby accepts all of such property as Sub-Trust A Assets, to be held in trust for the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries, subject to the terms of this Agreement and the Plan.

1.5 Nature and Purpose of Sub-Trust A.

(a) Purpose. Sub-Trust A is organized and established as a trust pursuant to which the Sub-Trust A Trustee, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and subject to any consultation rights of the Sub-Trust B Trustee provided for herein, shall administer the Sub-Trust A Assets, investigate, prosecute, settle, or abandon the Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims and Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights and otherwise implement the terms of this Agreement on behalf, and for the benefit, of the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries. Sub-Trust A shall (i) serve as a mechanism for prosecuting all Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims and Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights, monetizing the Sub-Trust A Assets, and distributing the Sub-Trust A Distributable Proceeds in a timely fashion to or for the benefit of the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries in accordance with the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, and this Agreement and (ii) liquidate and administer the Sub-Trust A Assets in accordance with Treasury Regulations section 301.7701-4(d), with no objective to continue or engage in the conduct of a trade or any other business, except to the extent reasonably necessary to, and consistent with, the liquidating purpose of Sub-Trust A. Except as otherwise provided in Article III hereof and subject to the Confirmation Order, Sub-Trust A shall have the sole responsibility for the pursuit and settlement of the Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims and the Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights and the sole power and authority to allow or settle and compromise any Claims related to the Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims. The primary purpose of Sub-Trust A is to, in an expeditious and orderly manner, maximize the recoveries to the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries by monetizing and converting the Sub-Trust A Assets to Cash and making timely distributions to the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries, in accordance with the Plan and the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, with no objective to continue or engage in the conduct of, or to further, any trade or business. The Sub-Trust A Trustee shall be obligated to make continuing reasonable efforts to timely resolve the Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims and Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights and not unreasonably prolong the duration of Sub-Trust A. The liquidation of the Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims and Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights may be accomplished either through the prosecution, compromise and settlement, abandonment, or dismissal, or other form of monetization of any or all claims, rights, or causes of action or otherwise, in accordance with the Plan, the Confirmation Order and this Agreement.

(b) Relationship. This Agreement is intended to create a trust and a trust relationship and to be governed and construed in all respects as a trust. Sub-Trust A is not intended to be, and shall not be deemed to be, or be treated as, a general partnership, limited partnership, joint venture, corporation, joint stock company, or association, nor shall the Sub-Trust A Trustee, or the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries for any purpose be, or be deemed to be or treated in any way whatsoever to be, liable or responsible hereunder as partners or joint venturers. The relationship of the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries, on the one hand, to the Sub-Trust A Trustee, on the other hand, shall be solely that of a beneficiary of a trust and shall not be deemed a principal and agency relationship, and their rights shall be limited to those conferred upon them by the Plan, the Confirmation Order, and this Agreement.

(c) No Waiver of Claims. In accordance with section 1123(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Sub-Trust A Trustee may enforce all rights to commence and pursue, as appropriate, any and all Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims and Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights after the Effective Date. No Person or entity may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Plan to any Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims or Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights against them as any indication that the Sub-Trust A Trustee will not pursue any and all available Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims and Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights or objections against them. Unless any Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims or Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights against a Person or Entity are expressly waived, relinquished, exculpated, released, compromised, or settled in the Plan or an order of the Bankruptcy Court, the Sub-Trust A Trustee expressly reserves all Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims and Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights for later adjudication, and, therefore, no preclusion doctrine, including the doctrines of res judicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, estoppel (judicial, equitable, or otherwise), or laches, shall apply to such Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims and Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights upon, after, or as a consequence of the Confirmation Order.

(d) Relationship to and Incorporation of the Plan. The principal purpose of this Agreement is to aid in the implementation of the Plan, the Confirmation Order, and the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, and therefore this Agreement incorporates the provisions thereof by reference. To that end, the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall have full power and authority to take any action consistent with the purpose and provisions of the Plan and the Confirmation Order, to seek any orders from the Bankruptcy Court in furtherance of implementation of the Plan that directly affect the interests of Sub-Trust A, and to seek any orders from the Bankruptcy Court solely in furtherance of this Agreement. To the extent there is a conflict between the provisions of this Agreement, the provisions of the Plan, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, and/or the Confirmation Order, each such document shall have controlling effect in the following ranked order: (1) the Confirmation Order; (2) the Plan; (3) the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement; (4) this Agreement; provided, that the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement shall control over this Agreement with respect to any matters specifically addressed in the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement, and nothing in this Agreement shall modify or expand the obligations of the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors under the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement with respect to any matters addressed therein. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, no provision herein shall be construed or implemented in a manner that would cause the Sub-Trust A to fail to qualify as a "liquidating trust" within the meaning of Treasury Regulations section 301.7701-4(d).

(e) Capacity of Sub-Trust A. Notwithstanding any state or federal law to the contrary or anything herein, Sub-Trust A shall itself have the capacity, in its own right and name, to act or refrain from acting, including the capacity to sue and be sued and to enter into contracts. Sub-Trust A may alone be the named movant, respondent, party plaintiff or defendant, or the like in all adversary proceedings, contested matters, and other state or federal proceedings brought by or against it, and may settle and compromise all such matters in its own name.

1.6 Appointment as Representative. Pursuant to section 1123(b)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall be the duly appointed representative of the Debtors' Estates for certain limited purposes and, as such, to the extent provided herein, the Sub-Trust A Trustee succeeds to the rights and powers of a trustee in bankruptcy solely with respect to prosecution of the Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims and Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights.

1.7 Incidents of Ownership. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries shall be the sole beneficiaries of the Sub-Trust A, and the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall retain only such incidents of ownership as are necessary to undertake the actions and transactions authorized herein, in the Plan and in the Confirmation Order, including those powers set forth in this Agreement.

2.3 Interests Beneficial Only. The ownership of the beneficial interests in Sub-Trust A shall not entitle the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries to any title in or to the Sub-Trust A Assets as such (which title shall be vested in Sub-Trust A) or to any right to call for a partition or division of the Sub-Trust A Assets or to require an accounting. No Sub-Trust A Beneficiary shall have any governance right or other right to direct Sub-Trust A activities.

2.4 Issuance of Sub-Trust A-1 Interests.

(a) On or as soon as reasonably practicable following the Effective Date, the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall determine, in consultation with the Sub-Trust A professionals, the aggregate number of Sub-Trust A-1 Interests to be issued by Sub-Trust A to Sub-Trust A-1 Claimants entitled to receive Sub-Trust A-1 Interests pursuant to this Sub-Trust A Agreement (the "Initial Interest Pool"), which, for the avoidance of doubt, shall not include holders of Convenience Class Claims. The Sub-Trust A Trustee shall endeavor to size the Initial Interest Pool to ensure that all Sub-Trust A-1 Claimants whose Sub-Trust A-1 Claims are ultimately Allowed receive their pro-rata share of Sub-Trust A-1 Interests.

(b) Sub-Trust A shall establish a disputed claims reserve on or as soon reasonably practicable following the Effective Date, into which all Sub-Trust A-1 Interests comprising the Initial Interest Pool shall be deposited and held, pending the allowance of Sub-Trust A-1 Claims pursuant to Article IX of the Plan (the "Sub-Trust A-1 Disputed Claims Reserve"). The Sub-Trust A-1 Interests held in the Sub-Trust A-1 Disputed Claims Reserve shall not be commingled with any Sub-Trust A Assets.

(c) As Sub-Trust A-1 Claims are allowed pursuant to Article IX of the Plan, Sub-Trust A shall distribute to Holders of Allowed Sub-Trust A-1 Claims their pro-rata share, as determined by the Sub-Trust A Trustee in accordance with Section 2.2(a), of Sub-Trust A-1 Interests from the Sub-Trust A-1 Disputed Claims Reserve. In the event the expected pro-rata share of Sub-Trust A-1 Interests for all Allowed Sub-Trust A-1 Claims would exceed the Initial Interest Pool, Sub-Trust A shall be authorized to issue additional Sub-Trust A-1 Interests to ensure that Holders of Allowed Unsecured Claims receive their pro-rata share of Sub-Trust A-1 Interests. After the allowance of all Sub-Trust A-1 Claims pursuant to the Plan, if Sub-Trust A-1 Interests remain undistributed, such remaining Sub-Trust A-1 Interests shall be cancelled.

2.5 Transferability of Trust Interests. The Sub-Trust A Interests shall not be transferrable except by operation of law.

2.6 Registry of Beneficial Interests.

(a) The Sub-Trust A Trustee shall appoint a registrar, which may be the Sub-Trust A Trustee (the "Registrar"), for the purpose of recording ownership of the Sub-Trust A Interests as herein provided. For its services hereunder, the Registrar, unless it is the Sub-Trust A Trustee, shall be entitled to receive reasonable compensation from Sub-Trust A as a cost of administering Sub-Trust A.

(b) The Sub-Trust A Trustee shall cause to be kept at the office of the Registrar, or at such other place or places as shall be designated by the Registrar from time to time, a registry of the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries (the "Trust Register"), which shall be maintained pursuant to such reasonable regulations as the Sub-Trust A Trustee and the Registrar may prescribe. The initial Trust Register may be the official claims register maintained by the Claims and Noticing Agent, on which the Sub-Trust A Trustee may conclusively rely.

but none of the Parties represent or warrant that such rights shall not be securities or shall be entitled to exemption from registration under applicable securities laws. Subject to Section 2.4 hereof, the Sub-Trust A Trustee and the Sub-Trust B Trustee, acting unanimously may amend this Agreement in accordance with Article X hereof to make such changes as are deemed necessary or appropriate, with the advice of counsel, to ensure that Sub-Trust A is not subject to registration and/or reporting requirements of the Securities Act of 1933 (the "Securities Act"), the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act"), the Trust Indenture Act, or the Investment Company Act. Except as otherwise provided herein, the Sub-Trust A Interests shall not have consent or voting rights or otherwise confer on the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries any rights similar to the rights of a shareholder of a corporation in respect of any actions taken or to be taken, or decisions made or to be made, by the Sub-Trust A Trustee in connection with Sub-Trust A.

2.8 Change of Address. Any Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries may, after the Effective Date, select an alternative distribution address by providing written notice to the Sub-Trust A Trustee identifying such alternative distribution address. Such notification shall be effective only upon receipt by the Sub-Trust A Trustee. Absent actual receipt of such written notice by the Sub-Trust A Trustee, the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall not recognize any such change of distribution address and shall use the address set forth in such Sub-Trust A Beneficiary's Proof of Claim (if any) consistent with Section 3.7(c) (or, if no Proof of Claim is filed, the address set forth on the Debtors' Schedules), or, with respect to the DIP Noteholder Trust, U.S. Bank Trust Company, National Association, West Side Flats St Paul, 111 Fillmore Ave., Saint Paul, MN 55107, Attention of: Rite Aid DIP Notes Trust Administrator, Email: benjamin.krueger@usbank.com.

No party shall have any beneficial interest in Sub-Trust A, except as set forth in the immediately preceding sentence.

2.10 Standing. No Sub-Trust A Beneficiary shall have standing to direct the Sub-Trust A Trustee to do or not to do any act or to institute any action or proceeding at law or in equity against any party upon or with respect to the Sub-Trust A Assets.

3.3 Prosecution of Sub-Trust A Causes of Action.

(a) Subject to the provisions of this Agreement, the Plan, and the Confirmation Order, the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall prosecute, pursue, compromise, settle, or abandon, or otherwise monetize any and all Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims and Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights as of the Effective Date. The Sub-Trust A Trustee, in accordance with Section 3.4 hereof, shall have the absolute right to pursue, not pursue, release, abandon, and/or settle any and all Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims and Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights (including any counterclaims asserted against Sub-Trust A) as it determines in the best interests of the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries, and consistent with the purposes of Sub-Trust A, and shall have no liability for the outcome of its decision except for any damages caused by fraud or willful misconduct.

(b) To the extent that any action has been taken to prosecute or otherwise resolve any Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims or Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights prior to the Effective Date by the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors, the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall be substituted for the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors in connection therewith in accordance with Rule 25 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, made applicable to the litigation by Bankruptcy Rule 7025, and the caption with respect to such pending litigation shall be changed to the following, at the option of Sub-Trust A: "[Name of Trustee], as Trustee for the RAD Sub-Trust A v. [Defendant]" or "RAD Sub-Trust A v. [Defendant]." Without limiting the foregoing, the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall take any and all actions necessary or prudent to intervene as plaintiff, movant, or additional party, as appropriate, with respect to any applicable Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims and Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights. For purposes of exercising its powers, the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall be deemed to be a representative of the Debtors' Estates pursuant to section 1123(b)(3)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code.

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, to the extent necessary to preserve standing, secure insurance recovery, or otherwise maximize the value to Sub-Trust A of the Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims and Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights, the Sub-Trust Trustee shall have the authority to assign or transfer such Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims and Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights for such consideration as the Sub-Trust A Trustee determines (which may include, without limitation, Cash, other assets or a right to all or a portion of any recovery collected in respect of transferred Assigned Claims).

The Sub-Trust A Trustee, in the exercise of its reasonable business judgment, shall, in an expeditious but orderly manner and subject to the other provisions of the Plan, the Confirmation Order, and this Agreement, liquidate and convert to Cash the Sub-Trust A Assets, make timely distributions in accordance with the terms of the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, and this Agreement, and not unduly prolong the existence of Sub-Trust A. The Sub-Trust A Trustee shall exercise reasonable business judgment and liquidate the Sub-Trust A Assets to maximize net recoveries to the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries; provided, however, that the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall be entitled to take into consideration the risks, timing, and costs of potential actions in making determinations as to the maximization of such recoveries. Such liquidations may be accomplished through the prosecution, compromise and settlement, abandonment, dismissal, or other monetization of any or all of the Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims and Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights or otherwise or through the sale or other disposition of the Sub-Trust A Assets (in whole or in combination).

[7] "DIP Noteholder Trust Trustee" means U.S. Bank National Trust Association, and any successor thereto, as trustee for the DIP Noteholder Trust.

Pursuant to an agreed-upon budget in accordance with this Agreement, if any, the Sub-Trust A Trustee may incur any reasonable and necessary expenses in connection with the liquidation of the Sub-Trust A Assets and distribution of the proceeds thereof.

3.7 Distributions.

(a) The Sub-Trust A Trustee shall make distributions of the Sub-Trust A Distributable Proceeds to the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries on account of their Sub-Trust A Interests only in accordance with the terms of the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, and this Agreement and from the Sub-Trust A Assets (or income and/or proceeds, realized from the Sub-Trust A Assets), and after the Sub-Trust A Proceeds are received by Sub-Trust A, and only to the extent that Sub-Trust A has sufficient Sub-Trust A Assets (or income and/or proceeds realized from the Ligation Trust Assets) to make such payments in accordance with and to the extent provided for in this Agreement, and the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, and after accounting for any monetary obligations of the Sub-Trust A under the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement. Substantially contemporaneously with any distribution to Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries other than holders of Convenience Class Claims, the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall provide each Sub-Trust A Beneficiary with written notice of such distribution, setting forth the aggregate amount distributed to each type of Sub-Trust A Interest, the source of funds for such distribution, the type of proceeds represented and reasonably detailed supporting calculations that are sufficient to calculate the amount of Aggregate Eligible Distributable Proceeds required to be distributed by Sub-Trust A in connection with such distribution.

(b) In the reasonable discretion of the Sub-Trust A Trustee and subject to the requirements of Treasury Regulations section 301.7701-4(d), the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall distribute no less frequently than annually all Cash on hand (including, but not limited to, the net income and the Sub-Trust A Distributable Proceeds, if any, from any disposition of Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims and Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights, any Cash received on account of or representing proceeds, and treating as Cash for purposes of this Section 3.7, and any permitted investments under Section 3.11 below) to the holders of Sub-Trust A Interests in accordance with the Plan, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, and this Agreement; provided, however, that the Sub-Trust A Trustee may retain proceeds from the Sub-Trust A Assets to fund additional litigation with respect to the Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims and Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights in accordance with Section 1.3 of this Agreement and to satisfy other obligations of Sub-Trust A under the Plan, the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement, and this Agreement (including for the payment of Sub-Trust A Expenses). For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 3.7(b) shall not prohibit the Sub-Trust A Trustee from using the Sub-Trust A Assets to timely pay obligations and liabilities of Sub-Trust A duly incurred in accordance with this Agreement or the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement, including with respect to the payment of any Taxes or other amounts owed to Governmental Authorities and to timely compensate consultants, agents, employees, and professionals (including counsel, tax advisors and financial advisors) engaged by Sub-Trust A in accordance with this Agreement to assist the Sub-Trust A Trustee with respect to the Sub-Trust A Trustee's responsibilities.

(c) The Sub-Trust A Trustee shall make distributions to Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries (other than the DIP Noteholder Trust) at the last-known address for each such Sub-

Trust A Beneficiary as indicated on the Debtors' and Reorganized Debtors ' or Sub-Trust A's records as of the applicable distribution date (which, subject to Section 2.8 hereof, for each holder of a Sub-Trust A Interest shall be deemed to be the address set forth in any Proof of Claim filed by that holder, or, if no Proof of Claim is filed, at the address set forth in the Debtors' Schedules). In the event that multiple Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries (other than the DIP Noteholder Trust) are represented by a single attorney as reflected on the applicable trust register, Sub-Trust A may make a single distribution to such attorney on account of the Sub-Trust A Interests held by such multiple Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries for such attorney to remit to the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries it represents. Any payment of Cash by Sub-Trust A shall be made by the Sub-Trust A Trustee via (i) a check drawn on, or (ii) wire transfer from, a domestic bank selected by the Sub-Trust A Trustee, the option of which shall be in the sole discretion of the Sub-Trust A Trustee. If any distribution to any holder is returned as undeliverable, no distribution to such holder shall be made unless and until the Sub-Trust A Trustee is notified in writing of the then-current address of such holder, at which time such distribution shall be made as soon as reasonably practicable after such distribution has become deliverable or has been claimed to such holder without interest; provided, however, that such distributions shall be made without interest and that such distribution shall be deemed unclaimed property under section 347(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and forfeited at the expiration of ninety (90) days from the applicable Distribution Date After such date, all "unclaimed property" or interests in property shall revert to Sub-Trust A (notwithstanding any applicable federal or state escheat, abandoned, or unclaimed property laws to the contrary) for redistribution in accordance with the terms of the Plan, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, and this Agreement, and the Claim of any holder to such property or interest in property shall be forever barred. Nothing contained herein shall require the Sub-Trust A Trustee to attempt to locate any holder of a Sub-Trust A Interest.

(d) The Sub-Trust A Trustee shall make distributions to the DIP Noteholder Trust at U.S. Bank Trust Company, National Association, West Side Flats St Paul, 111 Fillmore Ave., Saint Paul, MN 55107, Attention of: Rite Aid DIP Notes Trust Administrator, Email: benjamin.krueger@usbank.com.

(e) The Sub-Trust A Trustee shall have the authority to enter into agreements with one or more agents ("Distribution Agents") to facilitate the distributions required under the Plan and this Agreement. The Sub-Trust A Trustee may pay to the Distribution Agents all reasonable and documented fees and expenses of the Distribution Agents without the need for any approvals, authorizations, actions, or consents. For the avoidance of doubt, the reasonable and documented fees of the Distribution Agents will be paid by Sub-Trust A and will not be deducted from distributions to be made under the Plan to holders of Sub-Trust A Interests receiving distributions from the Distribution Agent other than in accordance with Section 3.7(b).

(f) The Sub-Trust A Trustee may deduct and withhold Taxes from amounts otherwise distributable to any Entity any and all amounts, determined in the Sub-Trust A Trustee's sole discretion, required by this Agreement, any law, regulation, rule, ruling, directive, treaty, or other governmental requirement in accordance with Section 8.3 hereof.

(h) Any check issued by Sub-Trust A to a Sub-Trust A Beneficiary shall be null and void if not negotiated within 120 days after the issuance of such check. Requests for reissuance of any check shall be made directly to the Sub-Trust A Trustee by the holder of the relevant Sub-Trust A Interest with respect to which such check originally was issued, and if paid, shall be net of any expenses of Sub-Trust A with respect thereto (including any costs incurred to attempt to locate the recipient and any stop-payment or similar bank charges). If any holder of a Sub-Trust A Interest holding an un-negotiated check does not request reissuance of that check within six months after the date the check was mailed or otherwise delivered to the holder, that Sub-Trust A Interest shall be released and the holder thereof shall be forever barred, estopped, and enjoined from asserting any Claim against any of the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors, Sub-Trust A, or the Sub-Trust A Trustee. In such cases, any Cash or Sub-Trust A Interests held for payment on account of such Claims shall be property of Sub-Trust A, free of any Claims of such holder with respect thereto. The Sub-Trust A Trustee may, but is not required to, file with the Bankruptcy Court a list of the holders of any un-negotiated checks. Nothing contained herein shall require the Sub-Trust A Trustee to attempt to locate any holder of a Sub-Trust A Interest.

Any obligation to pay any amounts in respect of prepetition deductibles or self-insured retention amounts with respect to Claims covered by the Debtors' insurance policies shall be determined by applicable law.

(j) Subject to Sections 3.10, 3.11, and 3.12 hereof, any non-Cash property of Sub-Trust A may be sold, transferred, abandoned, or otherwise disposed of by the Sub-Trust A Trustee. Notice of such sale, transfer, abandonment, or disposition shall be provided to the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries pursuant to the reporting obligations provided in Section 3.15 of this Agreement. If, in the Sub-Trust A Trustee's reasonable judgment, such property cannot be sold in a commercially reasonable manner, or the Sub-Trust A Trustee believes, in good faith, such property has no consequential value to Sub-Trust A, the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall have the right, in consultation with the Sub-Trust B Trustee to abandon or otherwise dispose of such property; provided, to the extent the proceeds from such property would be payable, in whole or in part, to the holders of the Sub-Trust A-2 Interest, the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall not abandon or otherwise dispose of such property without the consent (not to be unreasonably withheld) of the Sub-Trust B Trustee. Except in the case of fraud or willful misconduct, no party in interest shall have a cause of action against Sub-Trust A, the Sub-Trust A Trustee, or any of their directors, officers, employees, consultants, or professionals arising from or related to the disposition of non-Cash property in accordance with this Section 3.7(j).

3.11 Investment of Cash. The right and power of the Sub-Trust A Trustee to invest Sub-Trust A Assets, the proceeds thereof, or any income earned by Sub-Trust A shall be limited to the right and power to invest in such Sub-Trust A Assets only in Cash and U.S. Government securities as defined in section 2(a)(16) of the Investment Company Act, and money market funds; provided, however, that (a) the scope of any such permissible investments shall be further limited to include only those investments that a liquidating trust within the meaning of Treasury Regulations section 301.7701-4(d), may be permitted to hold, pursuant to the Treasury Regulations, or any modification in the IRS guidelines, whether set forth in IRS rulings, other IRS pronouncements, or otherwise, as applicable, and (b) the Sub-Trust A Trustee may expend the assets of Sub-Trust A (i) as reasonably necessary to meet contingent liabilities and maintain the value of the assets of Sub-Trust A during liquidation, (ii) to pay reasonable administrative expenses (including, but not limited to, any taxes imposed on Sub-Trust A and the Sub-Trust A-1 Disputed Claims Reserve or reasonable fees and expenses in connection with litigation), and (iii) to satisfy other liabilities incurred or assumed by Sub-Trust A (or to which the assets are otherwise subject) in accordance with the Plan or this Agreement.

5.1 Authority and Responsibilities.

(a) The Sub-Trust A Trustee (i) shall, as and when required under the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, this Agreement, or the Trust Act, and (ii) may when requested by the Sub-Trust B Trustee, or when the Sub-Trust A Trustee deems it to be appropriate, consult with the Sub-Trust B Trustee as to the administration and management of Sub-Trust A in accordance with the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, and this Agreement.

(b) The Sub-Trust A Trustee shall cooperate in providing information to the Sub-Trust B Trustee in accordance with and pursuant to the terms of the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, the Plan, the Confirmation Order and this Agreement to enable the Sub-Trust B Trustee to meet its obligations hereunder, or as otherwise reasonably requested by the Sub-Trust B Trustee.

5.2 Meetings of the Sub-Trust A Trustee and the Sub-Trust B Trustee. The Sub-Trust A Trustee and the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall consult with each other as they deem necessary.

ARTICLE VI
THE DELAWARE TRUSTEE

6.1 Appointment. The Delaware Trustee shall act solely for the purpose of complying with the requirement of section 3807 of the Trust Act, and its powers and obligations hereunder shall have become effective upon the Effective Date.

6.2 Powers.

(a) Notwithstanding any provision hereof to the contrary, the duties and responsibilities of the Delaware Trustee shall be limited solely to (i) accepting legal process served on the Sub-Trust A in the State of Delaware and (ii) the execution of any certificates required to be filed with the office of the Delaware Secretary of State that the Delaware Trustee is required to execute under section 3811 of the Trust Act at the written direction of the Sub-Trust A Trustee (including without limitation the certificate of trust of Sub-Trust A as required by sections 3810 and 3820 of the Trust Act (the "Certificate of Trust")). Except as provided in the foregoing sentence, the Delaware Trustee shall have no management responsibilities or owe any fiduciary duties to Sub-Trust A, the Sub-Trust A Trustee, the Sub-Trust B Trustee, the Sub-

Trust A Beneficiaries, or any other Person receiving a distribution from Sub-Trust A hereunder. The filing of the Certificate of Trust with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware as provided under the Trust Act is hereby ratified.

(b) By its execution hereof, the Delaware Trustee accepts the trusteeship of Sub-Trust A on the terms set forth herein. The Delaware Trustee shall not have any duty or liability with respect to the administration of Sub-Trust A (except as otherwise expressly set forth in Section 6.2(a) hereof), the investment of the Sub-Trust A Assets or the distribution of the Sub-Trust A Assets to the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries, and no such duties shall be implied. To the extent that, at law or in equity, the Delaware Trustee has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating to Sub-Trust A, the Sub-Trust A Trustees, or the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries, such duties and liabilities are replaced by the duties and liabilities of the Delaware Trustee expressly set forth in this Agreement. The Delaware Trustee shall not be liable for the acts or omissions of the Sub-Trust A Trustee, or the Sub-Trust B Trustee, nor shall the Delaware Trustee be liable for supervising or monitoring the performance of the duties and obligations of the Sub-Trust A Trustee, the Sub-Trust B Trustee, or any other Person (including, without limitation, any affiliate of the Delaware Trustee appointed to act as a custodian or otherwise hereunder) under this Agreement. The Delaware Trustee shall not be obligated to give any bond or other security for the performance of any of its duties hereunder. The Delaware Trustee shall not be personally liable under any circumstances, except for its own gross negligence or willful misconduct in the performance of its express duties under this Agreement. Without limiting the foregoing:

(i) The Delaware Trustee shall not be personally liable for any error of judgment made in good faith, except to the extent such error of judgment constitutes willful misconduct or gross negligence in the performance of its express duties under this Agreement (the "Excluded Matters");

(ii) the Delaware Trustee shall not have any duty or obligation to manage or deal with the Sub-Trust A Assets, or to otherwise take or refrain from taking any action under this Agreement except as expressly provided in Section 6.2(a) hereof, and no implied trustee duties or obligations shall be deemed to be imposed on the Delaware Trustee;

(iii) no provision of this Agreement shall require the Delaware Trustee to expend or risk its personal funds or otherwise incur any financial liability in the performance of its rights or powers hereunder if the Delaware Trustee has reasonable grounds to believe that the payment of such funds or adequate indemnity against such risk or liability is not reasonably assured or provided to it;

(iv) the Delaware Trustee shall not be personally liable for the validity or sufficiency of this Agreement, the value or sufficiency of the Sub-Trust A Assets, or for the due execution hereof by the other Parties hereto;

(v) the Delaware Trustee may request the Sub-Trust A Trustee to provide a certificate with regard to any fact or matter the manner of ascertainment of which is not specifically prescribed herein, and such certificate shall constitute full protection to the Delaware Trustee for any action taken or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in reliance thereon;

(vi) in the exercise of its duties hereunder, the Delaware Trustee (i) may act directly or through agents or attorneys pursuant to agreements entered into with any of them and shall not be liable for the acts or omissions of any agents or attorneys selected by it in good faith (absent a conflict with the Sub-Trust A Trustee or a requirement for advice under the laws of a particular jurisdiction, the Delaware Trustee may rely on the counsel selected by the Sub-Trust A Trustee), and (ii) may consult with counsel selected by it in good faith and employed by it, and it shall not be liable for anything done, suffered, or omitted in good faith by it in accordance with the advice or opinion of any such counsel;

(vii) the Delaware Trustee acts solely as Delaware Trustee hereunder and not in its individual capacity, and, except with respect to Excluded Matters, all persons having any claim against the Delaware Trustee by reason of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall look only to the Sub-Trust A Assets for payment or satisfaction thereof;

(viii) except with respect to Excluded Matters, the Delaware Trustee shall not be personally liable for any representation, warranty, covenant, agreement, or indebtedness of Sub-Trust A;

(ix) the Delaware Trustee shall not incur liability to anyone in acting upon any signature, instrument, notice, resolution, request, consent, order, certificate, report, opinion, bond, or other document or paper reasonably believed by it to be genuine and reasonably believed by it to be signed by the proper party or parties. As to any fact or matter the manner of ascertainment of which is not specifically prescribed herein, the Delaware Trustee may for all purposes hereof rely on a certificate, signed by an officer of Sub-Trust A, as to such fact or matter, and such certificate shall constitute full protection to the Delaware Trustee for any action taken or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in reliance thereon;

(x) the Delaware Trustee shall not be liable for punitive, exemplary, consequential, special, or other damages for a breach of this Agreement under any circumstances; and

(xi) in connection with any of the Claims, Sub-Trust A Assets, documents, and information related to duties of the Delaware Trustee, and any Causes of Action, any attorney-client privilege, work-product privilege, joint interest privilege, or other privilege or immunity (collectively, the "Privileges") attaching to or arising in or in connection with any documents, data, information, or communications (whether written, electronic, or oral) shall apply to and inure to the benefit of the Delaware Trustee and its representatives, and the Delaware Trustee is authorized to and shall take necessary actions to effectuate the transfer of such Privileges. The Delaware Trustee's receipt of the Privileges shall not operate as a waiver or limitation of any Privileges held and retained by the Debtors;

(xii) the Delaware Trustee shall be authorized to take such action as the Sub-Trust A Trustee specifically directs in written instructions delivered to the Delaware Trustee and shall have no liability for acting in accordance therewith; provided, however, the forgoing shall not be construed to require the Delaware Trustee to take any action in excess of its express duties under this Agreement;

(xiii) no permissive authority of the Delaware Trustee shall be construed as a duty or imply discretion on the part of the Delaware Trustee;

(xiv) notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Delaware Trustee shall not be required to take any action that is in violation of applicable law;

(xv) except as otherwise specifically provided herein, it shall be the duty and responsibility of the Sub-Trust A Trustee (and not the Delaware Trustee) to cause the Trust to comply with, respond to, defend, participate in or otherwise act in connection with any regulatory, administrative, governmental, investigative or other obligation, proceeding or inquiry relating in any way to the Sub-Trust A Trust, its assets or the conduct of its business;

(xvi) the Delaware Trustee shall neither be responsible for, nor chargeable with, knowledge of the terms and conditions of any other agreement, instrument, or document, other than this Sub-Trust A Agreement, whether or not, an original or a copy of such agreement has been provided to the Delaware Trustee. Delivery of reports, information and documents to the Delaware Trustee is for informational purposes only and neither the Delaware Trustee's receipt of the foregoing, nor publicly available information shall constitute constructive notice of any information contained therein or determinable from information contained therein. The Delaware Trustee may rely on the accuracy of any document delivered to it and shall have no responsibility to verify the accuracy of it or be required to calculate or verify any numerical information in it. Neither the Delaware Trustee nor any of its directors, officers, employees, agents or affiliates shall be responsible for nor have any duty to monitor the performance or any action of the Sub-Trust A Trust, the Sub-Trust A Trustee or any other person, or any of their directors, members, officers, agents, affiliates or employee, nor shall it have any liability in connection with the malfeasance or nonfeasance by such party. The Delaware Trustee may assume performance by all such persons of their respective obligations. The Delaware Trustee shall have no enforcement or notification obligations relating to breaches of representations or warranties of any other person. The Delaware Trustee shall have no responsibilities (except as expressly set forth herein) as to the validity, sufficiency, value, genuineness, enforceability, ownership or transferability of any Sub-Trust A Assets, written instructions, or any other documents in connection therewith, and will not be regarded as making, nor be required to make, any representations thereto, nor shall the Delaware Trustee have any duty to prepare, authorize or file and financing statements, continuation statements or amendments thereto;

(xvii) The Delaware Trustee shall not be responsible or liable for any failure or delay in the performance of its obligations under this Sub-Trust A Agreement arising out of, or caused, directly or indirectly, by circumstances beyond its control, including without limitation, any act or provision of any present or future law or regulation or governmental authority; acts of God; earthquakes; fires; floods; wars; terrorism; civil or military disturbances; sabotage; epidemics or pandemics; riots; interruptions, loss or malfunctions of utilities, computer (hardware or software) or communications service; accidents; labor disputes; acts of civil or military authority or governmental actions; or the unavailability of the Federal Reserve Bank wire or telex or other wire or communication facility

6.3 Compensation.

The Delaware Trustee shall be entitled to receive compensation from the Sub-Trust A in accordance with this Agreement and in accordance with such fee schedules as shall be agreed from time to time by the Delaware Trustee and the Sub-Trust A Trustee. The Delaware Trustee may also consult with counsel (who may be Sub-Trust A Counsel) with respect to those matters that relate to the Delaware Trustee's role as the Delaware Trustee of Sub-Trust A, and the reasonable legal fees incurred in connection with such consultation and any other reasonable out-of-pocket expenses of the Delaware Trustee shall be reimbursed by Sub-Trust A. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, in addition to Sub-Trust A's responsibility for the fees and expenses of, and all other obligations to, the Delaware Trustee hereunder, Sub-Trust A shall also be responsible for (a) 100% of the fees and expenses (including, but not limited to, any indemnification obligations) owed to the Delaware Trustee in connection with the Delaware Trustee's services to the GUC Equity Trust; and (b) 50% of the fees and expenses (including, but not limited to, any indemnification obligations) owed to the Delaware Trustee in connection with the Delaware Trustee's services to the Master Trust; provided, however that, in the event of the incurrence of indemnity obligations by the Master Trust, the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall cooperate in good faith with the Sub-Trust B Trustee to reasonably allocate the responsibility for such indemnification obligations between Sub-Trust A and Sub-Trust B based on the facts and circumstances underlying the indemnification obligation, provided further however that if the Sub-Trust A Trustee and the Sub-Trust B Trustee are unable to agree on such allocation, either such Trustee shall be entitled to file a motion before the Bankruptcy Court requesting that it determine such allocation.

6.4 Duration and Replacement.

The Delaware Trustee shall serve for the duration of Sub-Trust A or until the earlier of (i) the effective date of the Delaware Trustee's resignation, or (ii) the effective date of the removal of the Delaware Trustee. The Delaware Trustee may resign at any time by giving thirty (30) days written notice to the Sub-Trust A Trustee; provided, however, that such resignation shall not be effective until such time as a successor Delaware Trustee has accepted appointment. The Delaware Trustee may be removed by the Sub-Trust A Trustee, in consultation with the Sub-Trust B Trustee, by providing thirty (30) days written notice to the Delaware Trustee; provided, however, that such removal shall not be effective until such time as a successor Delaware Trustee has accepted appointment. Upon the resignation or removal of the Delaware Trustee, the Sub-Trust A Trustee, in consultation with the Sub-Trust B Trustee, shall appoint a successor Delaware Trustee. The Delaware Trustee may petition the Bankruptcy Court for the appointment of a successor Delaware Trustee. Any successor Delaware Trustee appointed pursuant to this Section shall be eligible to act in such capacity in accordance with this Agreement and, following compliance with this Section, shall become fully vested with the rights, powers, duties, and obligations of its predecessor under this Agreement, with like effect as if originally named as Delaware Trustee. Any such successor Delaware Trustee shall notify the Delaware Trustee of its appointment by providing written notice to the Delaware Trustee and upon receipt of such notice, the Delaware Trustee shall be discharged of its duties herein. Any such successor Delaware Trustee shall also file any amendment to the Certificate of Trust to the extent required by the Trust Act or as otherwise reasonably requested by the Sub-Trust A Trustee. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, any business entity into which the Delaware Trustee may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated or any entity resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Delaware Trustee shall be a party, or any entity succeeding to all or substantially all of the corporate trust business of the Delaware Trustee, shall be the successor of the Delaware Trustee hereunder, without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto.

7.1 Limitation of Liability. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement, the Plan, or the Confirmation Order to the contrary, to the maximum extent provided for under the Trust Act, none of the Sub-Trust A Trustee, the Delaware Trustee, nor any of their respective principals, advisors, or professionals, each of the foregoing, in their capacity as such, shall be liable to the Sub-Trust A or any Sub-Trust A Beneficiary for any Claim arising out of, or in connection with, the creation, operation, or termination of the Sub-Trust A, including actions taken or omitted in fulfillment of such parties' duties with respect to the Sub-Trust A, nor shall such parties incur any responsibility or liability by reason of any error of law or of any matter or thing done or suffered or omitted to be done under this Agreement, except as may be determined by Final Order to have arisen out of such party's bad faith or willful misconduct (and, in the case of the Delaware Trustee, in the performance of its express duties under this Agreement); provided that in no event will any such party be liable for punitive, exemplary, consequential, or special damages under any circumstances. Furthermore, none of the Sub-Trust A Trustee, the Delaware Trustee, nor any of their respective principals, advisors, or professionals shall be liable to the Sub-Trust A or any Sub-Trust A Beneficiary for any action or inaction taken in good faith reliance upon the advice of the professionals retained by the Sub-Trust A to the maximum extent provided for under the Trust Act, or in reliance upon any order of the Bankruptcy Court.

(a) Upon the appointment of a successor Sub-Trust A Trustee as provided in Section 4.5 hereof, or the appointment of a successor Delaware Trustee, the predecessor Sub-Trust A Trustee, or the predecessor Delaware Trustee, as the case may be, and each of their respective accountants, agents, assigns, attorneys, bankers, consultants, directors, employees, executors, financial advisors, investment bankers, real estate brokers, transfer agents, independent contractors, managers, members, officers, partners, predecessors, principals, professional persons, representatives, affiliates, employers, and successors shall have no further liability or responsibility with respect thereto, except to the extent arising out of any act or failure to act by such person prior to such appointment. A successor Sub-Trust A Trustee or successor

Delaware Trustee shall have no duty to examine or inquire into the acts or omissions of its immediate or remote predecessor, and no successor Sub-Trust A Trustee or successor Delaware Trustee shall be in any way liable for the acts or omissions of any predecessor Sub-Trust A Trustee or predecessor Delaware Trustee, unless such party expressly assumes such responsibility. A predecessor Sub-Trust A Trustee or predecessor Delaware Trustee shall have no liability for the acts or omissions of any immediate or subsequent successor Sub-Trust A Trustee or successor Delaware Trustee for any events or occurrences subsequent to the cessation of its role.

(b) None of the Sub-Trust A Trustee nor the Delaware Trustee, when acting in such capacities, shall be subject to any personal liability whatsoever, whether in tort, contract, or otherwise, to any Person, other than the Sub-Trust A or the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries, in connection with the affairs of the Sub-Trust A to the fullest extent provided under section 3803 of the Trust Act, and all persons claiming against any of the Sub-Trust A Trustee or the Delaware Trustee, or otherwise asserting Claims of any nature in connection with affairs of the Sub-Trust A, shall look solely to the Sub-Trust A Assets for satisfaction of any such Claims.

(c) Except as expressly provided herein, nothing in this Agreement shall be, or be deemed to be, an assumption, covenant, or agreement to assume or accept, any liability, obligation, or duty, (x) by the Sub-Trust A Trustee or the Delaware Trustee of any of the liabilities, obligations, or duties of the Reorganized Debtors or (y) by the Reorganized Debtors of any of the liabilities, obligations, or duties of the Sub-Trust A, the Sub-Trust A Trustee, or the Delaware Trustee. For the avoidance of doubt, none of the Debtors nor Reorganized Debtors shall have any liability or obligation with respect to indemnification or reimbursement under this Agreement.

7.2 Indemnification.

(a) From and after the Effective Date, each of the Sub-Trust A Trustee, the Delaware Trustee, and the professionals of the Sub-Trust A and their representatives and professionals (each, a "Sub-Trust A Indemnified Party," and collectively, the "Sub-Trust A Indemnified Parties") shall be, and each of them hereby is, indemnified by Sub-Trust A Trust, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, including the Trust Act, from and against any and all Claims, debts, dues, accounts, actions, suits, Causes of Action (including, without limitation, any suit or other enforcement action brought to enforce indemnity obligations under this Agreement), bonds, covenants, judgments, damages, reasonable attorneys' fees, defense costs, and other assertions of liability arising out of any such Sub-Trust A Indemnified Party's exercise of what such Sub-Trust A Indemnified Party reasonably understands to be its powers or the discharge of what such Sub-Trust A Indemnified Party reasonably understands to be its duties conferred by the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement or this Agreement, any order of the Bankruptcy Court entered pursuant to, or in furtherance of, the Plan, applicable law, or otherwise (except only for actions or omissions to act to the extent determined by a Final Order to be due to such Sub-Trust A Indemnified Party's own fraud or willful misconduct on and after the Effective Date). The foregoing indemnification shall also extend to matters directly or indirectly in connection with, arising out of, based on, or in any way related to: (i) this Agreement; (ii) the services to be rendered pursuant to this Agreement; (iii) any document or information, whether oral or written, referred to herein or supplied to the Sub-

Trust A Trustee or Delaware Trustee in connection herewith; or (iv) proceedings by or on behalf of any creditor, or (v) the application of any law, statute, regulation or other rule to the Sub-Trust A or its assets. The Sub-Trust A shall, on demand, advance or pay promptly, at the election of the Sub-Trust A Indemnified Party, solely out of the Sub-Trust A Assets, on behalf of each Sub-Trust A Indemnified Party, reasonable attorneys' fees and other expenses and disbursements to which such Sub-Trust A Indemnified Party would be entitled pursuant to the foregoing indemnification provision; provided, however, that any Sub-Trust A Indemnified Party receiving any such advance shall execute a written undertaking to repay such advance if a court of competent jurisdiction ultimately determines, by Final Order, that such Sub-Trust A Indemnified Party is not entitled to indemnification hereunder due to such Person's own fraud or willful misconduct. Any indemnification Claim of a Sub-Trust A Indemnified Party shall be entitled to a priority distribution from the Sub-Trust A Assets, ahead of Trust Interests and any other Claim to or Interest in such assets. In any matter covered by the first two sentences of this subsection, any party entitled to indemnification shall have the right to employ such party's own separate counsel, at the Sub-Trust A Trust's expense, subject to the foregoing terms and conditions. The indemnification provided under this Section 7.2 shall survive the death, dissolution, resignation, or removal, as may be applicable, of the Sub-Trust A Trustee, or any other Sub-Trust A Indemnified Party and shall inure to the benefit of the Sub-Trust A Trustee, and each other Sub-Trust A Indemnified Party's respective heirs, successors, and assigns.

(b) The foregoing indemnity in respect of any Sub-Trust A Indemnified Party shall survive the termination of such Sub-Trust A Indemnified Party from the capacity for which such party is indemnified. Termination or modification of this Agreement shall not affect any indemnification rights or obligations set forth herein.

(c) The Sub-Trust A may, but is not obligated to, indemnify any Person who is not a Sub-Trust A Indemnified Party for any loss, cost, damage, expense or liability for which a Sub-Trust A Indemnified Party would be entitled to mandatory indemnification under this Section 7.2.

(d) Any Sub-Trust A Indemnified Party may waive the benefits of indemnification under this Section 7.2, but only by an instrument in writing executed by such Sub-Trust A Indemnified Party.

(e) The rights to indemnification under this Section 7.2 are not exclusive of other rights which any Sub-Trust A Indemnified Party may otherwise have at law or in equity, including, without limitation, common law rights to indemnification or contribution. Nothing in this Section 7.2 will affect the rights or obligations of any Person (or the limitations on those rights or obligations) under any other agreement or instrument to which that Person is a party. Further, the Sub-Trust A hereby agrees that Sub-Trust A shall be required to pay the full amount of expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) actually incurred by such Sub-Trust A Indemnified Party in connection with any proceeding as to which Sub-Trust A Indemnified Party is entitled to indemnification hereunder in advance of the final disposition of such proceeding. For the avoidance of doubt, each Sub-Trust A Indemnified Party shall be entitled, subject to the terms hereof, to indemnification for any costs and reasonable attorneys' fees such Sub-Trust A Indemnified Party may incur in connection with enforcing any of its rights under this Article VII.

7.3 Sub-Trust A Liabilities. All liabilities of the Sub-Trust A, including, without limitation, actual indemnity obligations under Section 7.2 of this Agreement, will be liabilities of the Sub-Trust A as an Entity and will be paid or satisfied solely from the Sub-Trust A Assets. No liability of the Sub-Trust A will be payable in whole or in part by any Sub-Trust A Beneficiary individually or in the Sub-Trust A Beneficiary's capacity as a Sub-Trust A Beneficiary, by the Sub-Trust A Trustee individually or in the Sub-Trust A Trustee's capacity as Sub-Trust A Trustee, or by any representative, member, partner, shareholder, director, officer, professional, employees, agent, affiliate, or advisor of any Sub-Trust A Beneficiary, the Delaware Trustee, or their respective affiliates.

7.4 Limitation of Liability. None of the Sub-Trust A Indemnified Parties shall be liable for indirect, punitive, exemplary, consequential, special, or other damages for a breach of this Agreement under any circumstances.

7.5 Burden of Proof. In making a determination with respect to entitlement to exculpation or indemnification hereunder, the court, person, or entity making such determination shall presume that any Covered Party is entitled to exculpation and indemnification under this Agreement and any person seeking to overcome such presumption shall have the burden of proof to overcome that presumption.

ARTICLE VIII
TAX MATTERS

8.1 Treatment of Sub-Trust A Assets Transfer. For all U.S. federal and applicable state and local income tax purposes, all parties (including, without limitation, the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors, the Sub-Trust A Trustee, and the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries) shall treat the transfer of the Sub-Trust A Assets to Sub-Trust A for the benefit of the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries, whether their Claims are Allowed on or after the Effective Date, including any amounts or other assets subsequently transferred to Sub-Trust A (but only at such time as actually transferred) as (i) a transfer of the Sub-Trust A Assets (subject to any obligations relating to such Sub-Trust A Assets) directly by the Debtors to the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries, followed by (ii) a transfer by the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries to Sub-Trust A of the Sub-Trust A Assets in exchange for Sub-Trust A Interests. Accordingly, the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries shall be treated for U.S. federal and applicable state and local income tax purposes as the grantors and/or indirect owners of their respective share of the Sub-Trust A Assets. For U.S. federal and applicable state and local income tax purposes, Sub-Trust A shall be treated as a liquidating trust pursuant to Section 301.7701-4(d) of the Treasury Regulations that is taxable as a grantor trust pursuant to Sections 671-677 of the IRC. To the extent consistent with Revenue Procedure 94-45 and not otherwise inconsistent with this Agreement, Sub-Trust A shall satisfy the requirements for liquidating trust status. Sub-Trust A shall at all times be administered so as to constitute a domestic trust for U.S. federal and applicable state and local income tax purposes. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement or the Plan, the failure of Sub-Trust A to be treated for tax purposes as contemplated by this Section 8.1 shall not limit or affect the validity or formation of Sub-Trust A or the effectiveness of the Plan or the power or authority of the Sub-Trust A Trustee, and the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall be entitled to take such steps or actions as the Sub-Trust A Trustee deems appropriate or advisable, in order to further or support the tax treatment and effects contemplated by this Section 8.1. The Sub-Trust A Trustee may timely elect to treat any Sub-Trust A-1 Disputed Claims Reserve as a DOF, and if such election is made: (x) the Sub-Trust A-1 Assets subject to such election will be subject to entity-level taxation; (y) all parties (including, without limitation, the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, the Sub-Trust A Trustee and the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries shall report for U.S. federal, state, and local income tax purposes consistently with the foregoing; and (z) the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall file all income tax returns with respect to any income attributable to the DOF.

8.2 Tax Reporting.

(a) The "taxable year" of Sub-Trust A shall be the "calendar year" as such terms are defined in section 441 of the IRC, unless the Sub-Trust A Trustee determines in good faith to use a different tax year in the interest of all beneficiaries to the extent permitted under the IRC and the Treasury Regulations thereunder. The Sub-Trust A Trustee shall file all tax or information returns required to be filed under applicable law for Sub-Trust A treating Sub-Trust A as a "grantor trust", including, without limitation, pursuant to Treasury Regulations section 1.671-4(a) and in accordance with this Section 8.2. The Sub-Trust A Trustee also will annually send to each Sub-Trust A Beneficiary a separate statement setting forth such holder's share of items of income, gain, loss, deduction, or credit (including the receipts and expenditures of Sub-Trust A) as relevant for U.S. federal and applicable state and local income tax purposes and will instruct all such Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries to use such information in preparing their U.S. federal income tax returns or to forward the appropriate information to such Sub-Trust A Beneficiary's underlying beneficial holders with instructions to utilize such information in preparing their U.S. federal income tax returns.

(b) Allocations of Sub-Trust A taxable income among the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries shall be determined by reference to the manner in which an amount of Cash equal to such taxable income would be distributed (were such Cash permitted to be distributed at such time, and without regard to any restrictions on distributions set forth in the Plan or this Agreement) if, immediately prior to such deemed distribution, Sub-Trust A had distributed all its assets (valued at their tax book value), to the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries, adjusted for prior taxable income and loss and taking into account all prior and concurrent distributions from Sub-Trust A. Similarly, taxable loss of Sub-Trust A shall be allocated by reference to the manner in which an economic loss would be borne immediately after a hypothetical liquidating distribution of the remaining Sub-Trust A Assets. The tax book value of the Sub-Trust A Assets for purposes of this Section 8.2(b) shall equal their fair market value on the Effective Date, adjusted in accordance with tax accounting principles prescribed by the IRC, the applicable Treasury Regulations and other applicable administrative and judicial authorities and pronouncements.

(c) The Sub-Trust A Trustee shall be responsible for payment of, and shall be permitted to pay, out of the Sub-Trust A Assets, any taxes imposed on Sub-Trust A, the Sub-Trust A Assets or the Sub-Trust A-1 Disputed Claims Reserve, and any such payment shall be considered a cost and expense of the operation of Sub-Trust A (or the Sub-Trust A-1 Disputed Claims Reserve, as applicable) payable without Bankruptcy Court order.

8.3 Withholding of Taxes. Sub-Trust A and the Sub-Trust A-1 Disputed Claims Reserve shall comply, to the extent applicable, with all withholding and reporting requirements

imposed by the IRC, state, local or non-U.S. taxing authority. The Sub-Trust A Trustee shall be authorized to take any and all actions that may be necessary or appropriate to comply with any such withholding, payment, and reporting requirements. The Sub-Trust A Trustee may deduct and withhold and pay to the appropriate Tax Authority all amounts required to be deducted or withheld pursuant to the IRC or any provision of any state, local or non-U.S. tax law with respect to any payment or distribution to the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries. Notwithstanding the above, each holder of a Sub-Trust A Interest that is to receive a distribution under the Plan shall have the sole and exclusive responsibility for the satisfaction and payment of any taxes imposed on such holder by any Tax Authority, including income, withholding, and other tax obligations, on account of such distribution. All such amounts withheld and paid to the appropriate Tax Authority shall be treated as amounts distributed to such Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries for all purposes of this Agreement. The Sub-Trust A Trustee shall be authorized to collect such tax information from the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries (including, without limitation, social security numbers or other tax identification numbers) as it, in its sole discretion, deems necessary to effectuate the Plan, the Confirmation Order, and this Agreement. As a condition to receive distributions under the Plan, all Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries will need to identify themselves to the Sub-Trust A Trustee and provide tax information and the specifics of their holdings, to the extent the Sub-Trust A Trustee deems appropriate, including an IRS Form W-9 (or any successor form) or, in the case of Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries that are not United States persons for U.S. federal income tax purposes, certification of foreign status on an applicable IRS Form W-8 (or any successor form). The Sub-Trust A Trustee may refuse to make a distribution to any Sub-Trust A Beneficiary that fails to furnish such information in a timely fashion, until such information is delivered; provided, however, that, upon the delivery of such information by a Sub-Trust A Beneficiary within 90 days of the Sub-Trust A Trustee's first request, the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall make such distribution to which the Sub-Trust A Beneficiary is entitled, without interest; and, provided, further, that, if the Sub-Trust A Trustee fails to withhold in respect of amounts received or distributable with respect to any such holder and the Sub-Trust A Trustee is later held liable for the amount of such withholding, such holder shall reimburse the Sub-Trust A Trustee for such liability. If the holder fails to comply with such a request for tax information within such 90 days of the Sub-Trust A Trustee's request, such distribution shall be deemed an unclaimed distribution and treated in accordance with Section 3.7(c) hereof.

8.4 Valuation. As soon as reasonably practicable following the establishment of the Sub-Trust A, the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall determine the value of the Sub-Trust A Assets transferred to the Sub-Trust A as of the Effective Date, based on the good-faith determination of the Sub-Trust A Trustee. The Sub-Trust A Trustee shall apprise, in writing, the applicable Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries of such valuation. The valuation of the Sub-Trust A Assets prepared pursuant to this Agreement shall be used consistently by all parties (including, without limitation, the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, the Sub-Trust A Trustee, and the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries) for all U.S. federal income tax purposes. Sub-Trust A also shall file (or cause to be filed) any other statements, returns, or disclosures relating to Sub-Trust A that are required by any Governmental Unit. In connection with the preparation of any valuation contemplated hereby, the Sub-Trust A, subject to Section 3.8 hereof, shall be entitled to retain such Sub-Trust A professionals as the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall determine to be appropriate or necessary in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, and the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall take such other actions in connection therewith as it determines to be appropriate or necessary. The Sub-Trust A shall bear all of the reasonable and documented costs and expenses incurred in connection with determining such value, including the fees and expenses of any Sub-Trust A professionals retained in connection therewith. For the avoidance of doubt, the valuation shall not be binding on the Sub-Trust A, the Sub-Trust A Trustee, or the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries for any purpose other than U.S. federal income tax purposes, and the valuation shall not impair or prejudice rights, claims, powers, duties, authority and/or privileges of the Sub-Trust A Trustee, the Sub Trust A, or any of the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries except with respect to U.S. federal income tax purposes.

8.5 Expedited Determination of Taxes. The Sub-Trust A Trustee may request an expedited determination of taxes of Sub-Trust A under section 505(b) of the Bankruptcy Code for all returns filed for, or on behalf of, Sub-Trust A for all taxable periods through the termination of Sub-Trust A.

TERMINATION OF SUB-TRUST A

9.1 Termination. Sub-Trust A shall be dissolved at such time as (i) all of the Sub-Trust A Assets have been distributed to Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries or otherwise applied to Sub-Trust A Expenses pursuant to the Plan and this Agreement or (ii) the Sub-Trust A Trustee determines, following the approval of the Sub-Trust B Trustee (such approval not to be unreasonably withheld), that the administration of any remaining Sub-Trust A Assets is not likely to yield sufficient additional Sub-Trust A Proceeds to justify further pursuit; provided, however, that in no event shall Sub-Trust A be dissolved later than five (5) years from the Effective Date unless the Bankruptcy Court, upon motion within the six-month period prior to the fifth (5^{th}) anniversary (or within the six-month period prior to the end of an extension period), determines that a fixed period extension (not to exceed five years, including any prior extensions, without a favorable private letter ruling from the Internal Revenue Service or an opinion of counsel satisfactory to the Sub-Trust A Trustee that any further extension would not adversely affect the status of Sub-Trust A as a liquidating trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes) is necessary to facilitate or complete the recovery and liquidation of the Sub-Trust A Assets. If at any time the Sub-Trust A Trustee determines, in reliance upon such professionals as the Sub-Trust A Trustee may retain and following approval of the Sub-Trust B Trustee, that the expense of administering Sub-Trust A so as to make a final distribution to the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries is likely to exceed the value of the assets remaining in Sub-Trust A, the Sub-Trust A Trustee may, in its discretion and without the need to apply to the Bankruptcy Court for authority or approval, (i) reserve any amount necessary to dissolve Sub-Trust A, (ii) donate any balance to a charitable organization (A) described in section 501(c)(3) of the IRC, (B) exempt from U.S. federal income tax under section 501(a) of the IRC, (C) not a "private foundation," as defined in section 509(a) of the IRC and (D) that is unrelated to the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors, Sub-Trust A and any insider of the Sub-Trust A Trustee and (iii) dissolve Sub-Trust A. The Sub-Trust A Trustee may, but shall not be required to, apply for an order of the Bankruptcy Court approving any or all of the foregoing. If a final decree has been entered closing the Chapter 11 Cases, the Sub-Trust A Trustee may seek to open the Chapter 11 Cases for the limited purpose of filing a motion seeking authority as set forth in the immediately preceding sentence, and the costs for such motion and costs related to re-opening the Chapter 11 Cases shall be paid by use of the Sub-Trust A Assets. Such date upon which Sub-Trust A shall finally be dissolved shall be referred to herein as the "Termination Date." Upon the Termination Date, the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall wind up and liquidate Sub-Trust A in accordance with section 3808 of the Trust Act, and Section 9.2 herein, and all monies remaining in the Sub-

Trust A shall be distributed or disbursed in accordance with Section 3.7 above. The Sub-Trust A Trustee and the Delaware Trustee (acting at the written direction of the Sub-Trust A Trustee) shall file a Certificate of Cancellation in accordance with section 3810(d) of the Trust Act, and thereupon this Agreement shall terminate.

9.2 Continuance of Sub-Trust A for Winding Up. After the termination of Sub-Trust A and solely for the purpose of liquidating and winding up the affairs of Sub-Trust A, the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall continue to act as such until its duties have been fully performed and shall continue to be entitled to receive the fees called for by Section 4.2(a) hereof. Upon distribution of all the Sub-Trust A Assets, the Sub-Trust A Trustee may retain the books, records, and files that shall have been delivered or created by the Sub-Trust A Trustee; provided, however, that the Sub-Trust A Trustee may, in its discretion, abandon or destroy such books and records (unless such records and documents are necessary to fulfill the Sub-Trust A Trustee's obligations hereunder) subject to the terms of any joint prosecution and common interest agreement(s) to which the Sub-Trust A Trustee may be a party. Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, upon the final distribution of Sub-Trust A Assets and filing by the Sub-Trust A Trustee and the Delaware Trustee of a Certificate of Cancellation with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware, the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall be deemed discharged and have no further duties or obligations hereunder, except to account to the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries as provided herein, Sub-Trust A Interests shall be cancelled, and Sub-Trust A will be deemed to have dissolved.

AMENDMENT AND WAIVER

10.1 Subject to Sections 1.5(d) and 10.2 of this Agreement, the Sub-Trust A Trustee, with the prior consent of the Sub-Trust B Trustee (not to be unreasonably withheld) may amend, supplement, or seek to waive any provision of this Agreement; provided, that to the extent any such amendment, supplement or waiver materially and adversely impacts the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, or modifies the obligations of the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors hereunder, such amendment, supplement, or waiver shall also require the prior written consent of the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, as applicable (not to be unreasonably withheld); provided, further, that to the extent that any such amendment, supplement, or waiver materially or adversely affects the interests of the holder of the Sub-Trust A-3 Interest in a manner disproportionate to holders of other Sub-Trust A Interests, such amendment, supplement, or waiver shall also require the prior consent of the DIP Noteholder Trust Trustee.

10.2 Notwithstanding Section 10.1 of this Agreement, no amendment, supplement, or waiver of or to this Agreement shall: (a) adversely affect the payments and/or distributions to be made under the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, or this Agreement; (b) alter the procedural requirements of Section 3.4 of this Agreement; (c) adversely affect the status of Sub-Trust A as a "liquidating trust" that is taxable as a "grantor trust" for U.S. federal and applicable income tax purposes; (d) adversely affect any consent, consultation or other rights afforded to the Sub-Trust B Trustee hereunder without the consent of the Sub-Trust B Trustee or adversely affect, in a manner disproportionate to holders of other Sub-Trust A Interests, any consent, consultation or other rights of the DIP Noteholder Trust (without the consent of the DIP Noteholder Trust Trustee) (e) conflict with, or expand the Reorganized Debtors' obligations under the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement, or (f) be inconsistent with the purpose and intention of Sub-Trust A to liquidate in an expeditious but orderly manner the Sub-Trust A Assets in accordance with Treasury Regulations section 301.7701-4(d).

10.3 No failure by Sub-Trust A, or the Sub-Trust A Trustee, to exercise or delay in exercising any right, power, or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, power, or privilege hereunder preclude any further exercise thereof, or of any other right, power, or privilege.

10.4 Notwithstanding the forgoing, to the extent any such amendment, supplement, or waiver affects the rights, duties, protections, immunities, or indemnities of the Delaware Trustee, such act shall require the written consent of the Delaware Trustee. The fees and expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees) of the Delaware Trustee incurred in connection with any amendment shall be paid by the Sub-Trust A. In consenting to any amendment hereunder, the Delaware Trustee shall be entitled to receive and be fully protected in relying on an opinion of counsel that such amendment is authorized and permitted by this Agreement and that all conditions precedent to such amendment have been satisfied.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

11.1 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware (without reference to principles of conflicts of law thereof), including all matters of validity, construction, and administration; provided, however, that the following shall not be applicable to Sub-Trust A, the Sub-Trust A Trustee, the Delaware Trustee or this Agreement: (a) the provisions of section 3540 of Title 12 of the Delaware Code; and (b) any provisions of the laws (statutory or common) of the State of Delaware pertaining to trusts that relate to or regulate, in a manner inconsistent with the terms hereof, (i) the filing with any court or governmental body or agency of trustee accounts or schedule of trustee fees and charges, affirmative requirements to post bonds for trustees, officers, agents, or employees of a trust, the necessity for obtaining court or other governmental approval concerning the acquisition, holding, or disposition of real or personal property, (ii) fees or other sums payable to trustees, officers, agents, or employees of a trust, (iii) the allocation of receipts and expenditures to income and principal, (iv) restrictions or limitations on the permissible nature, amount, or concentration of trust investments or requirements relating to the titling, storage, or other manner of holding or investing trust assets, or (v) the establishment of fiduciary or other standards or responsibilities or limitations on the acts or powers of trustees.

11.2 Jurisdiction; WAIVER OF TRIAL BY JURY. Subject to the proviso below, the Parties agree that the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction over Sub-Trust A and the Sub-Trust A Trustee, including, without limitation, the administration and activities of Sub-Trust A and the Sub-Trust A Trustee to the fullest extent permitted by law; provided, however, that notwithstanding the foregoing, the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall have power and authority to bring any action in any court of competent jurisdiction to prosecute any of the Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims and the Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights. Each Party to this Agreement and the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries, by accepting and holding their interest in the Sub-Trust A, hereby irrevocably consents to the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court in any action to enforce, interpret or construe any provision of this Agreement or of any other agreement or document delivered in connection with this Agreement, and also hereby irrevocably waives any defense of improper venue, forum non conveniens, or lack of personal jurisdiction to any such action brought in the Bankruptcy Court. Until the closing of the Chapter 11 Cases, any action to enforce, interpret, or construe any provision of this Agreement will be brought only in the Bankruptcy Court. In the event that all of the Chapter 11 Cases are closed, the Parties agree that the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall have the right to move to re-open the Chapter 11 Cases or alternatively, to bring the dispute(s) before the courts of the State of Delaware, including any federal court located in the State of Delaware (and, in such event, the Parties agree that the such courts shall have jurisdiction over the Sub-Trust A and the Sub-Trust A Trustee, including, without limitation, the administration and activities of the Sub-Trust A and the Sub-Trust A Trustee to the fullest extent permitted by law). Each Party hereby irrevocably consents to the service by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, of any process in any action to enforce, interpret, or construe any provision of this Agreement. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO, AND EACH SUB-TRUST A BENEFICIARY, BY ACCEPTING ITS INTEREST HEREIN, HEREBY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY AND ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY WITH RESPECT TO ANY LITIGATION OR LEGAL PROCEEDING DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF, UNDER OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT, THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY AND/OR THE SUB-TRUST A. NOTWITHSTANDING THE FOREGOING AND FOR THE AVOIDANCE OF DOUBT, NOTHING CONTAINED HEREIN SHALL PROHIBIT OR RESTRICT SUB-TRUST A OR ITS TRUSTEE FROM SEEKING A JURY TRIAL WITH RESPECT TO ANY OF THE SUB-TRUST A ASSIGNED INSURANCE RIGHTS OR SUB-TRUST A ASSIGNED CLAIMS.

11.3 Severability. In the event any provision of this Agreement or the application thereof to any person or circumstances shall be determined by Final Order to be invalid or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Agreement or the application of such provision to persons or circumstances or in jurisdictions other than those as to or in which it is held invalid or unenforceable, shall not be affected thereby, and each provision of this Agreement shall be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

11.4 Notices. Any notice or other communication required or permitted to be made under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been sufficiently given, for all purposes, if delivered personally or by facsimile or electronic communication, sent by nationally recognized overnight delivery service or mailed by first-class mail. The date of receipt of such notice shall be the earliest of (a) the date of actual receipt by the receiving party, (b) the date of personal delivery (or refusal upon presentation for delivery), (c) the date of the transmission confirmation, or (d) three Business Days after service by first-class mail, to the receiving party's below address(es):

From and after the Effective Date, the Parties hereto covenant and agree to execute and deliver all such documents and notices and to take all such further actions as may reasonably be required from time to time to carry out the intent and purposes of this Agreement, and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby, in each case, except to the extent inconsistent with the express terms and conditions of the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement.

applicable, and the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall confer in good faith to minimize such costs and agree on a mutually acceptable cost sharing agreement among the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, and Sub-Trust A for such costs. If the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors and Sub-Trust A cannot reach agreement on a mutually acceptable cost sharing agreement, each of the Debtors, Reorganized Debtors, and Sub-Trust A agree that the Bankruptcy Court shall have exclusive jurisdiction to adjudicate and resolve any such dispute.

Each party hereto agrees that it shall provide the Delaware Trustee with such information and documentation as the Delaware Trustee may request from time to time in order to enable the Delaware Trustee to comply with all applicable requirements of Banking AML Law, including, but not limited to, information or documentation used to identify and verify each party's identity, including, but not limited to, each Party's name, physical address, tax identification number, organizational documents, certificates of good standing, licenses to do business or other pertinent identifying information. By accepting and holding a beneficial ownership interest in the Sub-Trust A, each holder thereof shall be deemed to have made each of the agreements and acknowledgements made by the parties hereto in this Section 11.14. In addition to the Delaware Trustee's obligations under Banking AML Law, the Corporate Transparency Act (31 U.S.C § 5336) and its implementing regulations (collectively, the "CTA" and together with Banking AML Law, "AML Law"), may require the Sub-Trust A to file reports with the U.S. Financial Crimes Enforcement Network after the date of this Agreement. It shall be Sub-Trust A Trustee's duty and not the Delaware Trustee's duty to cause the Sub-Trust A to prepare and make such filings and to cause the Sub-Trust A to comply with its obligations under the CTA, if any. The parties hereto acknowledge and agree that to the fullest extent permitted by law, for purposes of AML Law, the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries are and shall be deemed to be the sole direct beneficial owners of the Sub-Trust A and that the Sub-Trust A Trustee is and shall deemed to be a person with the power and authority to exercise substantial control over the Sub-Trust A.

(b) The Sub-Trust A Trustee has been selected by the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "UCC"), in consultation with the Tort Claimants Committee (the "TCC") and counsel to the Required Junior DIP Noteholders, which Person (and any successor Sub-Trust A Trustee) is (and shall be) a "U.S. person" as determined for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

(c) The Sub-Trust A Trustee shall be deemed a trustee under the Delaware Statutory Trust Act, 12 Del. C. § 3801 et seq., as the same may from time to time be amended, or any successor statute (the "Trust Act").

(d) The Sub-Trust A Trustee agrees to accept and hold the Sub-Trust A Assets in trust for the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries, subject to the provisions of the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, the Master Trust Agreement, this Agreement and applicable law.

(e) The Sub-Trust A Trustee and each successor trustee serving from time to time hereunder shall have all the rights, powers, and duties as set forth herein.

(f) The Sub-Trust A Trustee may serve without bond.

(g) Subject to the terms of this Agreement, any action by the Sub-Trust A Trustee that affects the interests of more than one Sub-Trust A Beneficiary shall be binding and conclusive on all Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries even if such Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries have different or conflicting interests.

(h) For the avoidance of doubt, the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall not be deemed an officer, director, or fiduciary of any of the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, or their respective subsidiaries.

1.2 Transfer of the Sub-Trust A Assets.

(a) The "Sub-Trust A Assets" shall include:

(i) The Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims;

(ii) The Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights;

(iii) The "Sub-Trust A Cash Consideration," which is (i) $1,625,000 of the Committees Initial Cash Consideration, plus cash savings, if any, from the Committees' professional fee budget, and (ii) $4,500,000 of the Committees' Post-Emergence Cash Consideration;[1]

[1] The Sub-Trust A Cash payable from the Committees' Post-Emergence Cash Consideration shall be funded as follows: 20% of any amounts paid on account of real estate, 20% of any amounts paid on account of the CMS

(iv) The "Sub-Trust B-2 Interest," which shall be an interest in Sub-Trust B issued to the Sub-Trust A Trust, entitling Sub-Trust A to a portion of the Tort Claim Insurance Proceeds as set forth in the Sub-Trust B Agreement; and

(v) The "GUC Equity Trust Interest," which shall be 100% of the interests in the GUC Equity Trust issued to the Sub-Trust A Trustee for the benefit of holders of Sub-Trust A-1 Interests.

(b) Pursuant to the Plan, the Master Trust Agreement, and the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, as of the Effective Date, following receipt thereof by the Master Trust, the Master Trust, on behalf of the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, and the Debtors' Estates shall irrevocably grant, vest, transfer, assign, and deliver, and shall be deemed to have granted, vested, transferred, assigned and delivered, to Sub-Trust A, without recourse, all of their respective rights, title, and interest in the Sub-Trust A Assets, free and clear of all Liens and Claims for the benefit of the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries, including, without limitation and pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Plan, the Confirmation Order, and the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement, all privileges (including, without limitation, attorney-client privileges), which shall vest solely in the Sub-Trust A, in trust, and, consistent with sections 1123(a)(5)(B) and 1123(b)(3)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code, for the sole benefit of the Sub-Trust A Trustee and the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries. In no event shall any part of the Sub-Trust A Assets revert to or be distributed to the Debtors and the Reorganized Debtors except as set forth herein.

(c) The Sub-Trust A Assets and the rights thereto shall vest in Sub-Trust A on the Effective Date; provided, however, to the extent any of the Sub-Trust A Assets are capable of being assigned to Sub-Trust A but are not assigned to Sub-Trust A upon the Effective Date, the obligation to effect the assignment of such Sub-Trust A Assets shall be satisfied by the Master Trust and the Reorganized Debtors, in accordance with the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement and/or the Plan, as applicable.

(d) In accordance with, and subject to, the terms and conditions set forth in the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement, and this Agreement, the Reorganized Debtors shall take, or cause to be taken, all such further actions as the Sub-Trust A Trustee may reasonably request, in each case to the extent necessary, to permit Sub-Trust A to investigate, prosecute, monetize, settle, protect, and conserve all Claims and Causes of Action constituting Sub-Trust A Assets. In accordance with, and subject to, terms and conditions set forth in the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement, and this Agreement, the Reorganized Debtors shall take, or cause to be taken, all such further actions as the Sub-Trust A Trustee may reasonably request, in each case to the extent necessary, to permit Sub-Trust A to preserve, secure, and obtain the benefit of the Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights and the other Sub-Trust A Assets. Sub-Trust A shall follows: 20% of any amounts paid on account of real estate, 20% of any amounts paid on account of the CMS Receivable, 20% of the first three post-Effective Date payments and 10% of any remaining post-Effective Date payments, as set forth in the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement.

be the successor-in-interest to the Debtors and/or the applicable Reorganized Debtors with respect to any Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims and Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights, provided, however, that neither Sub-Trust A nor the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall bear any liabilities in connection therewith other than as expressly set forth in the Plan. Nothing in this Agreement shall preclude Sub-Trust A from disclosing information, documents, or other materials reasonably necessary to preserve, litigate, resolve, or settle coverage, or to comply with an applicable obligation under an insurance policy or settlement agreement, subject to appropriate confidentiality protections and any other restrictions or limitations set forth in the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing herein shall expand the obligations of the Reorganized Debtors beyond what has been agreed to in the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement and/or is required pursuant to the Confirmation Order.

(e) To the extent that any of the Sub-Trust A Assets cannot be transferred to or vested in the Sub-Trust A because of a restriction on transferability under non-bankruptcy law that is not superseded or preempted by the Bankruptcy Code or the Confirmation Order, such Sub-Trust A Asset shall, to the extent permitted by applicable law, be deemed held by the Master Trust, and if not the Master Trust, then by the Reorganized Debtors, as bailee for Sub-Trust A, and the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall be deemed to have been designated as a representative of the Master Trust, or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, including pursuant to section 1123(b)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code to liquidate, monetize, enforce, and/or pursue such Sub-Trust A Assets to the extent and subject to the limitations set forth in the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, the Master Trust Agreement, and this Agreement, on behalf of the Master Trust or Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, for the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries; provided, however, that the Reorganized Debtors shall be permitted to recoup the reasonable, documented out-of-pocket costs, if any, incurred in connection with holding and/or disposing of such asset(s) (to the extent not already recouped or paid in accordance with the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement) solely by withholding proceeds from (i) any amount payable to the Master Trust under the Plan as part of the Committees' Post-Emergence Cash Consideration, and (ii) any amounts otherwise payable to the Sub-Trust A on account of the Reorganized Debtors' monetizing the corresponding assets; provided, further, however, that the proceeds of the sale or other disposition of any such assets by the Master Trust or the Reorganized Debtors, until such time they are transferred to Sub-Trust A, shall nevertheless be deemed to constitute Sub-Trust A Assets.

(f) On the Effective Date, the Reorganized Debtors, the Master Trust, Sub-Trust A, and Sub-Trust B shall enter into the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement.

(g) At any time and from time to time on and after the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, and any party under the control of such parties shall agree (i) at the reasonable request of the Sub-Trust A Trustee to execute and/or deliver any instruments, documents, books, and records (including those maintained in electronic format and original documents as may be needed), subject to the preceding Section 1.2(d), and (ii) to take, or cause to be taken, all such further actions as the Sub-Trust A Trustee may reasonably request, subject to the preceding Section 1.2(d), in each case (i) and (ii) in order to evidence or effectuate the transfer of the Sub-Trust A Assets to the Sub-Trust A.

(h) In accordance with, and subject to, the Plan (subject to Section 1.5(d) hereof), the Confirmation Order, and the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement, the Reorganized Debtors, and any party under the control of the Reorganized Debtors, and the Estates shall take, or cause to be taken, subject to the preceding Section 1.2(d), all such further actions as the Sub-Trust A Trustee may reasonably request, in each case to permit the Sub-Trust A Trustee to investigate, prosecute, settle, protect, and conserve all Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims and Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights.

(i) All of the proceeds received by Sub-Trust A from the pursuit of any Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims (the "Sub-Trust A Assigned Claim Proceeds"), the Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights (the "Sub-Trust A Insurance Proceeds"), and other Sub-Trust A Assets, including the Sub-Trust B-2 Interest and the GUC Equity Trust Interest (collectively, the "Sub-Trust A Asset Proceeds") shall be added to the Sub-Trust A Assets and held as a part thereof (and title thereto shall be vested in Sub-Trust A).

(j) For all U.S. federal, state and local income tax purposes, as applicable, all parties (including, without limitation, the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors, the Sub-Trust A Trustee, the Delaware Trustee, and the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries) shall treat the transfer of the Sub-Trust A Assets to Sub-Trust A and the transfer of the Sub-Trust A-1 Interests to the Sub-Trust A-1 Disputed Claims Reserve in accordance with Section 8.1 hereof.

(k) The transfers set forth in this Section 1.2, made pursuant to the Plan, shall be exempt from any stamp, real estate transfer, mortgage reporting, sales, use or other similar tax, pursuant to section 1146(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

(l) Notwithstanding the foregoing, for purposes of section 553 of the Bankruptcy Code, the transfer of the Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims and Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights to Sub-Trust A shall not affect the mutuality of obligations that otherwise may have existed prior to the effectuation of such transfer. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary and subject to the Plan, the Confirmation Order and applicable law, the transfer of the Sub-Trust A Assets to Sub-Trust A does not diminish, and fully preserves, any defenses a defendant would have if the Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims and Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights had been retained by the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors.

1.3 Funding of Sub-Trust A; Payment of Fees and Expenses.

(a) Sub-Trust A shall be funded by the Master Trust with the Sub-Trust A Cash Consideration, which shall be used to administer all Sub-Trust A Assets and initially pay all reasonable fees, costs, and expenses (including indemnities) of and incurred by Sub-Trust A, including legal and other professional fees, costs, and expenses, administrative fees and expenses, insurance fees, taxes, and escrow expenses, which shall be paid in accordance with this Agreement; (the "Sub-Trust A Expenses"). The Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries, Debtors, and Reorganized Debtors shall have no obligation to provide any funding with respect to Sub-Trust A, except (i) as may be directly funded by the Sub-Trust A Assets, including the Sub-Trust A Asset Proceeds or (ii) with respect to the Reorganized Debtors, any funding associated with the Committees Post-Emergence Cash Consideration.

(b) Each of the Sub-Trust A Trustee and the Delaware Trustee may incur any Sub-Trust A Expenses in connection with the performance of its duties under the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement, and this Agreement, including in connection with retaining professionals and/or entering into agreements pursuant to Sections 3.8 and 3.9 herein. All Sub-Trust A Expenses shall be paid by, and solely be the obligation of, Sub-Trust A. In accordance with Section 1.3(a) and 1.3(d) hereof, all Sub-Trust A Expenses shall initially be paid by Sub-Trust A from the Sub-Trust A Cash Consideration. Thereafter, in accordance with Section 3.7(b) hereof, the Sub-Trust A Trustee may elect to apply amounts from the Sub-Trust A Assets to fund expenses (including professional fees) incurred, or reasonably projected to be incurred, in connection with prosecuting or settling the Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims and Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights, monetizing the Sub-Trust A Assets, and distributing the Sub-Trust A Distributable Proceeds[2] to the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries; provided, however, that the Delaware Trustee's expenses shall be limited to those specifically authorized in Section ~~4~~6.3~~(b)~~ or payable as indemnification pursuant to Article VII hereof. For the avoidance of doubt, all Sub-Trust A Expenses shall be satisfied or reserved for before any distributions may be made to Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries.

(c) Up to $450,000 of the Sub-Trust A Cash Consideration will be used to fund distributions to holders of Convenience Class Claims (defined below) (the "Convenience Class Cash Consideration"), as set forth herein.

(d) Up to $1,125,000 of the Sub-Trust A Cash Consideration may be used to pay Sub-Trust A Expenses (the "Sub-Trust A Initial Funding"), including pursuit of the Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights and the Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims. The Sub-Trust A Trustee may, as set forth herein, obtain additional funding to pay Sub-Trust A Expenses ("Sub-Trust A Additional Funding," and together with the Sub-Trust A Initial Funding, "Sub-Trust A Funding").

(e) Any failure or inability of the Sub-Trust A Trustee to obtain Sub-Trust A Funding will not affect the enforceability of the Sub-Trust A Agreement.

(f) The Sub-Trust A Trustee shall be paid from the Sub-Trust A Initial Funding and any additional funding obtained by the Sub-Trust A Trustee, or in accordance with Section 3.7(b) hereof.

1.4 Title to the Sub-Trust A Assets. The transfer of the Sub-Trust A Assets to Sub-Trust A pursuant to Section 1.2 hereof is being made for the sole benefit, and on behalf, of the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries. Upon the transfer of the Sub-Trust A Assets to Sub-Trust A, Sub-Trust A shall succeed to all of the Debtors', Reorganized Debtors', the Debtors' Estates, the Master Trust's, and the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries' rights, title, and interest in the Sub-Trust A Assets, free and clear of all Liens, Claims, encumbrances, Interests, contractually imposed restrictions, and other interests, and no other Person shall have any interest, legal, beneficial, or otherwise, in Sub-Trust A or the Sub-Trust A Assets upon the assignment and transfer of such assets to Sub-Trust A (other than as provided in the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, or this Agreement). On the Effective Date, Sub-Trust A shall be substituted for the Master Trust, Master Trustees, Debtors and Reorganized Debtors (as applicable) for all purposes with respect to the Sub-Trust A Assets. To the extent any law or regulation prohibits the transfer of ownership of any of the Sub-Trust A Assets from the Master Trust to Sub-Trust A and such law is not superseded by the Bankruptcy Code, Sub-Trust A's interest shall be a lien upon and security interest in such Sub-Trust A Assets, in trust, nevertheless, for the sole use and purposes set forth herein and in the Plan, and this Agreement shall be deemed a security agreement granting such interest thereon without need to file financing statements or mortgages. By executing this Agreement, the Sub-Trust A Trustee on behalf of Sub-Trust A hereby accepts all of such property as Sub-Trust A Assets, to be held in trust for the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries, subject to the terms of this Agreement and the Plan.

1.5 Nature and Purpose of Sub-Trust A.

(a) Purpose. Sub-Trust A is organized and established as a trust pursuant to which the Sub-Trust A Trustee, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and subject to any consultation rights of the Sub-Trust B Trustee provided for herein, shall administer the Sub-Trust A Assets, investigate, prosecute, settle, or abandon the Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims and Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights and otherwise implement the terms of this Agreement on behalf, and for the benefit, of the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries. Sub-Trust A shall (i) serve as a mechanism for prosecuting all Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims and Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights, monetizing the Sub-Trust A Assets, and distributing the Sub-Trust A Distributable Proceeds in a timely fashion to or for the benefit of the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries in accordance with the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, and this Agreement and (ii) liquidate and administer the Sub-Trust A Assets in accordance with Treasury Regulations section 301.7701-4(d), with no objective to continue or engage in the conduct of a trade or any other business, except to the extent reasonably necessary to, and consistent with, the liquidating purpose of Sub-Trust A. Except as otherwise provided in Article III hereof and subject to the Confirmation Order, Sub-Trust A shall have the sole responsibility for the pursuit and settlement of the Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims and the Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights and the sole power and authority to allow or settle and compromise any Claims related to the Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims. The primary purpose of Sub-Trust A is to, in an expeditious and orderly manner, maximize the recoveries to the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries by monetizing and converting the Sub-Trust A Assets to Cash and making timely distributions to the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries, in accordance with the Plan and the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, with no objective to continue or engage in the conduct of, or to further, any trade or business. The Sub-Trust A Trustee shall be obligated to make continuing reasonable efforts to timely resolve the Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims and Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights and not unreasonably prolong the duration of Sub-Trust A. The liquidation of the Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims and Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights may be accomplished either through the prosecution, compromise and settlement, abandonment, or dismissal, or other form of monetization of any or all claims, rights, or causes of action or otherwise, in accordance with the Plan, the Confirmation Order and this Agreement.

(b) Relationship. This Agreement is intended to create a trust and a trust relationship and to be governed and construed in all respects as a trust. Sub-Trust A is not intended to be, and shall not be deemed to be, or be treated as, a general partnership, limited partnership, joint venture, corporation, joint stock company, or association, nor shall the Sub-Trust A Trustee, or the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries for any purpose be, or be deemed to be or treated in any way whatsoever to be, liable or responsible hereunder as partners or joint venturers. The relationship of the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries, on the one hand, to the Sub-Trust A Trustee, on the other hand, shall be solely that of a beneficiary of a trust and shall not be deemed a principal and agency relationship, and their rights shall be limited to those conferred upon them by the Plan, the Confirmation Order, and this Agreement.

(c) No Waiver of Claims. In accordance with section 1123(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Sub-Trust A Trustee may enforce all rights to commence and pursue, as appropriate, any and all Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims and Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights after the Effective Date. No Person or entity may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Plan to any Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims or Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights against them as any indication that the Sub-Trust A Trustee will not pursue any and all available Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims and Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights or objections against them. Unless any Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims or Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights against a Person or Entity are expressly waived, relinquished, exculpated, released, compromised, or settled in the Plan or an order of the Bankruptcy Court, the Sub-Trust A Trustee expressly reserves all Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims and Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights for later adjudication, and, therefore, no preclusion doctrine, including the doctrines of res judicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, estoppel (judicial, equitable, or otherwise), or laches, shall apply to such Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims and Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights upon, after, or as a consequence of the Confirmation Order.

(d) Relationship to and Incorporation of the Plan. The principal purpose of this Agreement is to aid in the implementation of the Plan, the Confirmation Order, and the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, and therefore this Agreement incorporates the provisions thereof by reference. To that end, the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall have full power and authority to take any action consistent with the purpose and provisions of the Plan and the Confirmation Order, to seek any orders from the Bankruptcy Court in furtherance of implementation of the Plan that directly affect the interests of Sub-Trust A, and to seek any orders from the Bankruptcy Court solely in furtherance of this Agreement. To the extent there is a conflict between the provisions of this Agreement, the provisions of the Plan, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, and/or the Confirmation Order, each such document shall have controlling effect in the following ranked order: (1) the Confirmation Order; (2) the Plan; (3) the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement; (4) this Agreement; provided, that the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement shall control over this Agreement with respect to any matters specifically addressed in the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement, and nothing in this Agreement shall modify or expand the obligations of the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors under the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement with respect to any matters addressed therein. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, no provision herein shall be construed or implemented in a manner that would cause the Sub-Trust A to fail to qualify as a "liquidating trust" within the meaning of Treasury Regulations section 301.7701-4(d).

(e) Capacity of Sub-Trust A. Notwithstanding any state or federal law to the contrary or anything herein, Sub-Trust A shall itself have the capacity, in its own right and name, to act or refrain from acting, including the capacity to sue and be sued and to enter into contracts. Sub-Trust A may alone be the named movant, respondent, party plaintiff or defendant, or the like in all adversary proceedings, contested matters, and other state or federal proceedings brought by or against it, and may settle and compromise all such matters in its own name.

1.6 Appointment as Representative. Pursuant to section 1123(b)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall be the duly appointed representative of the Debtors' Estates for certain limited purposes and, as such, to the extent provided herein, the Sub-Trust A Trustee succeeds to the rights and powers of a trustee in bankruptcy solely with respect to prosecution of the Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims and Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights.

1.7 Incidents of Ownership. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries shall be the sole beneficiaries of the Sub-Trust A, and the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall retain only such incidents of ownership as are necessary to undertake the actions and transactions authorized herein, in the Plan and in the Confirmation Order, including those powers set forth in this Agreement.

ARTICLE II

2.1 Trust Interests. On the Effective Date, Sub-Trust A shall issue the Sub-Trust A Interests (defined below), as described below, to the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries in accordance with the terms of the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, and this Agreement. The Sub-Trust A Interests shall be entitled to distributions from the Sub-Trust A Distributable Proceeds in accordance with the terms of the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, and this Agreement. The beneficial interests in Sub-Trust A will be represented by book entries on the books and records of Sub-Trust A. Sub-Trust A will not issue any certificate or certificates to evidence any beneficial interests in Sub-Trust A.

2.2 The "Sub-Trust A Interests" shall include the Sub-Trust A-1 Interests, the Sub-Trust A-2 Interest, and the Sub-Trust A-3 Interest, as defined below. Holders of the Sub-Trust A Interests shall be the "Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries."

The Sub-Trust A-1 Interests shall receive their pro-rata share of:

(i) 85% of Sub-Trust A Distributable Proceeds arising from Sub-Trust A Assigned Claim Proceeds, other than Sub-Trust A Distributable Proceeds from Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims against directors and officers ("Sub-Trust A D&O Claims"), net of any such proceeds that constitute Sub-Trust A-3 Proceeds (defined below);

(ii) 55% of Sub-Trust A Distributable Proceeds arising from Sub-Trust A D&O Claims and any Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights related to the Sub-Trust A D&O Claims (the "Sub-Trust A D&O Proceeds"), net of any such proceeds that constitute Sub-Trust A-3 Proceeds (defined below);

(iv) The Sub-Trust A Distributable Proceeds arising from the Sub-Trust B-2 Interest; and

[3] "Non-Tort Claims" means all General Unsecured Claims (as defined in the Plan) that are not Tort Claims, Opioid Claims, or DOJ Claims.

(v) All Sub-Trust A Distributable Proceeds arising from the GUC Equity Trust Interest.

(b) Sub-Trust A-2 Interest: Sub-Trust B shall receive the Sub-Trust A-2 Interest, the proceeds of which shall be distributed to beneficiaries of Sub-Trust B in accordance with the Sub-Trust B Agreement. The Sub-Trust A-2 Interest shall receive:

(i) 15% of Sub-Trust A Distributable Proceeds arising from Sub-Trust A Assigned Claim Proceeds, other than the Sub-Trust A D&O Claims, net of any such proceeds that constitute Sub-Trust A-3 Proceeds; and

(ii) 45% of Sub-Trust A D&O Proceeds, net of any such proceeds that constitute Sub-Trust A-3 Proceeds.

(c) Sub-Trust A-3 Interest: The DIP Noteholder Trust[4] shall receive the "Sub-Trust A-3 Interest". The Sub-Trust A-3 Interest shall receive the Applicable Percentage[5] of Sub-Trust A Distributable Proceeds arising from Aggregate Eligible Distributable

[4] "DIP Noteholder Trust" means a trust to be established on or prior to the Effective Date pursuant to the Plan to hold the Sub-Trust A-3 Interest and the Sub-Trust B-3 Interest for the benefit of Holders of Allowed New Money DIP Notes Claims entitled to receive their pro-rata share of Litigation Trust Class B Interests in accordance with Article II.E.4 of the Plan.

[5] "Applicable Percentage" means,

(i) 15% of the first $100 million of Aggregate Eligible Distributable Proceeds (defined below) distributed to Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries or Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries (as defined in the Sub-Trust B Agreement), and

(ii) 25% of any amounts above $100 million and less than $200 million of Aggregate Eligible Distributable Proceeds distributed to Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries or Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries, and

(d) Convenience Class Claims. The holders of Non-Tort Claims Allowed by the Sub-Trust A in amounts less than $20,000, including all Non-Tort Claims that are listed on the Debtors' Schedules and Statements as not contingent, unliquidated, or disputed, in amounts less than $20,000, which shall be automatically allowed, shall have such claims classified as "Convenience Class Claims"; provided, however, that holders of Non-Tort Claims that are listed on the Debtors' Schedules and Statements as not contingent, unliquidated, or disputed, in amounts less than $30,000 may also elect to have their claims classified as Convenience Class Claims; provided, further, that the automatic allowance and the classification and treatment of Convenience Class Claims shall not apply to (i) claims listed on the Debtors' Schedules that are superseded by a filed Proof of Claim; and (ii) any Claim, whether filed or listed on the Debtors' Schedules, that has been satisfied by cure or pursuant to an order of the Bankruptcy Court. Holders of Convenience Class Claims will receive their pro-rata share of the Convenience Class Cash Consideration in respect of such Claims; provided, however, that to the extent that a material amount of holders of Non-Tort Claims that are listed on the Debtors' Schedules and Statements as not contingent, unliquidated, or disputed, in amounts between $20,000 and $30,000 elect not to participate in the Convenience Class, the Convenience Class Cash Consideration may be proportionately reduced.

2.3 Interests Beneficial Only. The ownership of the beneficial interests in Sub-Trust A shall not entitle the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries to any title in or to the Sub-Trust A Assets as such (which title shall be vested in Sub-Trust A) or to any right to call for a partition or division of the Sub-Trust A Assets or to require an accounting. No Sub-Trust A Beneficiary shall have any governance right or other right to direct Sub-Trust A activities.

[6] "Aggregate Eligible Distributable Proceeds" means, collectively,

(i) The Sub-Trust A Assigned Claim Proceeds and the Sub-Trust A Insurance Proceeds, in both cases, without duplication of any deductions otherwise applied, net of any amounts (a) used to repay any Sub-Trust A Funding or Sub-Trust B Funding (as defined in the Sub-Trust B Agreement) in accordance with the terms of such funding, (b) used to pay the Sub-Trust A Expenses or Sub-Trust B Expenses (as defined in the Sub-Trust B Agreement), (c) withheld, upon the good faith determination of the Sub-Trust A Trustee, to fund future Sub-Trust A Expenses, or upon the good faith determination of the Sub-Trust B Trustee, to fund future Sub-Trust B Expenses (d) applied or withheld to pay Taxes and (e) as otherwise provided in accordance with this Agreement, in each case (a) through (e), in accordance with the terms of the applicable agreement; and

(ii) the Other Claim Proceeds (including, for the avoidance of doubt, the Repayment Proceeds), without duplication of any deductions otherwise applied, net of any amounts (a) used to repay any Sub-Trust B Funding or Sub-Trust A Funding in accordance with the terms of such funding, (b) used to pay the Sub-Trust B Expenses or Sub-Trust A Expenses, (c) withheld, upon the good faith determination of the Sub-Trust B Trustee, to fund future Sub-Trust B Expenses, or upon the good faith determination of the Sub-Trust A Trustee, to fund future Sub-Trust A Expenses, (d) applied or withheld to pay Taxes, and (e) as otherwise provided in accordance with the Sub-Trust B Agreement (all as defined in the Sub-Trust B Agreement), in each case (a) through (e), in accordance with the terms of the applicable agreement.

2.4 Issuance of Sub-Trust A-1 Interests.

(a) On or as soon as reasonably practicable following the Effective Date, the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall determine, in consultation with the Sub-Trust A professionals, the aggregate number of Sub-Trust A-1 Interests to be issued by Sub-Trust A to Sub-Trust A-1 Claimants entitled to receive Sub-Trust A-1 Interests pursuant to this Sub-Trust A Agreement (the "Initial Interest Pool"), which, for the avoidance of doubt, shall not include holders of Convenience Class Claims. The Sub-Trust A Trustee shall endeavor to size the Initial Interest Pool to ensure that all Sub-Trust A-1 Claimants whose Sub-Trust A-1 Claims are ultimately Allowed receive their pro-rata share of Sub-Trust A-1 Interests.

(b) Sub-Trust A shall establish a disputed claims reserve on or as soon reasonably practicable following the Effective Date, into which all Sub-Trust A-1 Interests comprising the Initial Interest Pool shall be deposited and held, pending the allowance of Sub-Trust A-1 Claims pursuant to Article IX of the Plan (the "Sub-Trust A-1 Disputed Claims Reserve"). The Sub-Trust A-1 Interests held in the Sub-Trust A-1 Disputed Claims Reserve shall not be commingled with any Sub-Trust A Assets.

(c) As Sub-Trust A-1 Claims are allowed pursuant to Article IX of the Plan, Sub-Trust A shall distribute to Holders of Allowed Sub-Trust A-1 Claims their pro-rata share, as determined by the Sub-Trust A Trustee in accordance with Section 2.2(a), of Sub-Trust A-1 Interests from the Sub-Trust A-1 Disputed Claims Reserve. In the event the expected pro-rata share of Sub-Trust A-1 Interests for all Allowed Sub-Trust A-1 Claims would exceed the Initial Interest Pool, Sub-Trust A shall be authorized to issue additional Sub-Trust A-1 Interests to ensure that Holders of Allowed Unsecured Claims receive their pro-rata share of Sub-Trust A-1 Interests. After the allowance of all Sub-Trust A-1 Claims pursuant to the Plan, if Sub-Trust A-1 Interests remain undistributed, such remaining Sub-Trust A-1 Interests shall be cancelled.

2.5 Transferability of Trust Interests. The Sub-Trust A Interests shall not be transferrable except by operation of law.

2.6 Registry of Beneficial Interests.

(a) The Sub-Trust A Trustee shall appoint a registrar, which may be the Sub-Trust A Trustee (the "Registrar"), for the purpose of recording ownership of the Sub-Trust A Interests as herein provided. (b) The Sub-Trust A Trustee shall cause to be kept at the office of the Registrar, or at such other place or places as shall be designated by the Registrar from time to time, a registry of the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries (the "Trust Register"), which shall be maintained pursuant to such reasonable regulations as the Sub-Trust A Trustee and the Registrar may prescribe. The initial Trust Register may be the official claims register maintained by the Claims and Noticing Agent, on which the Sub-Trust A Trustee may conclusively rely.

2.7 Exemption from Registration. The Parties hereto intend that the rights of the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries arising under Sub-Trust A shall not be "securities" under applicable laws, but none of the Parties represent or warrant that such rights shall not be securities or shall be entitled to exemption from registration under applicable securities laws. Subject to Section 2.4 hereof, the Sub-Trust A Trustee and the Sub-Trust B Trustee, acting unanimously may amend this Agreement in accordance with Article X hereof to make such changes as are deemed necessary or appropriate, with the advice of counsel, to ensure that Sub-Trust A is not subject to registration and/or reporting requirements of the Securities Act of 1933 (the "Securities Act"), the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act"), the Trust Indenture Act, or the Investment Company Act. Except as otherwise provided herein, the Sub-Trust A Interests shall not have consent or voting rights or otherwise confer on the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries any rights similar to the rights of a shareholder of a corporation in respect of any actions taken or to be taken, or decisions made or to be made, by the Sub-Trust A Trustee in connection with Sub-Trust A.

2.8 Change of Address. Any Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries may, after the Effective Date, select an alternative distribution address by providing written notice to the Sub-Trust A Trustee identifying such alternative distribution address. Such notification shall be effective only upon receipt by the Sub-Trust A Trustee. Absent actual receipt of such written notice by the Sub-Trust A Trustee, the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall not recognize any such change of distribution address and shall use the address set forth in such Sub-Trust A Beneficiary's Proof of Claim (if any) consistent with Section 3.7(c) (or, if no Proof of Claim is filed, the address set forth on the Debtors' Schedules), or, with respect to the DIP Noteholder Trust, ~~[TBD].~~U.S. Bank Trust Company, National Association, West Side Flats St Paul, 111 Fillmore Ave., Saint Paul, MN 55107, Attention of: Rite Aid DIP Notes Trust Administrator, Email: benjamin.krueger@usbank.com.

The Sub-Trust A Trustee may deem and treat any Sub-Trust A Beneficiary reflected as the owner of a Sub-Trust A Interest on the applicable Trust Register as the absolute owner thereof for the purposes of receiving distributions and payments on account thereof, for U.S. federal and applicable state income tax purposes and for all other purposes whatsoever. No party shall have any beneficial interest in Sub-Trust A, except as set forth in the immediately preceding sentence.

2.10 Standing. No Sub-Trust A Beneficiary shall have standing to direct the Sub-Trust A Trustee to do or not to do any act or to institute any action or proceeding at law or in equity against any party upon or with respect to the Sub-Trust A Assets.

Without limiting the foregoing, the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall take any and all actions necessary or prudent to intervene as plaintiff, movant, or additional party, as appropriate, with respect to any applicable Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims and Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights. For purposes of exercising its powers, the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall be deemed to be a representative of the Debtors' Estates pursuant to section 1123(b)(3)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code.

(b) Any determinations by the Sub-Trust A Trustee, in consultation with the Sub-Trust B Trustee, with regard to the amount or timing of settlement or other disposition of any Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims and Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights settled in accordance with the terms of this Agreement shall be conclusive and binding on the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries and all other parties of interest.

3.6 Liquidation of Sub-Trust A Assets. The Sub-Trust A Trustee, in the exercise of its reasonable business judgment, shall, in an expeditious but orderly manner and subject to the other provisions of the Plan, the Confirmation Order, and this Agreement, liquidate and convert to Cash the Sub-Trust A Assets, make timely distributions in accordance with the terms of the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, and this Agreement, and not unduly prolong the existence of Sub-Trust A. The Sub-Trust A Trustee shall exercise reasonable business judgment and liquidate the Sub-Trust A Assets to maximize net recoveries to the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries; provided, however, that the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall be entitled to take into consideration the risks, timing, and costs of potential actions in making determinations as to the maximization of such recoveries. Such liquidations may be accomplished through the prosecution, compromise and settlement, abandonment, dismissal, or other monetization of any or all of the Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims and Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights or otherwise or through the sale or other disposition of the Sub-Trust A Assets (in whole or in combination). Pursuant to an agreed-upon budget in accordance with this Agreement, if any, the Sub-Trust A Trustee may incur any reasonable and necessary expenses in connection with the liquidation of the Sub-Trust A Assets and distribution of the proceeds thereof.

3.7 Distributions.

(a) The Sub-Trust A Trustee shall make distributions of the Sub-Trust A Distributable Proceeds to the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries on account of their Sub-Trust A Interests only in accordance with the terms of the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, and this Agreement and from the Sub-Trust A Assets (or income and/or proceeds, realized from the Sub-Trust A Assets), and after the Sub-Trust A Proceeds are received by Sub-Trust A, and only to the extent that Sub-Trust A has sufficient Sub-Trust A Assets (or income and/or proceeds realized from the Ligation Trust Assets) to make such payments in accordance with and to the extent provided for in this Agreement, and the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, and after accounting for any monetary obligations of the Sub-Trust A under the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement. Substantially contemporaneously with any distribution to Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries other than holders of Convenience Class Claims, the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall provide each Sub-Trust A Beneficiary with written notice of such distribution, setting forth the aggregate amount distributed to each type of Sub-Trust A Interest, the source of funds for such distribution, the type of proceeds represented and reasonably detailed supporting calculations that are sufficient to calculate the amount of Aggregate Eligible Distributable Proceeds required to be distributed by Sub-Trust A in connection with such distribution.

(b) In the reasonable discretion of the Sub-Trust A Trustee and subject to the requirements of Treasury Regulations section 301.7701-4(d), the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall distribute no less frequently than annually all Cash on hand (including, but not limited to, the net income and the Sub-Trust A Distributable Proceeds, if any, from any disposition of Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims and Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights, any Cash received on account of or representing proceeds, and treating as Cash for purposes of this Section 3.7, and any permitted investments under Section 3.11 below) to the holders of Sub-Trust A Interests in accordance with the Plan, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, and this Agreement; provided, however, that the Sub-Trust A Trustee may retain proceeds from the Sub-Trust A Assets to fund additional litigation with respect to the Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims and Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights in accordance with Section 1.3 of this Agreement and to satisfy other obligations of Sub-Trust A under the Plan, the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement, and this Agreement (including for the payment of Sub-Trust A Expenses). For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 3.7(b) shall not prohibit the Sub-Trust A Trustee from using the Sub-Trust A Assets to timely pay obligations and liabilities of Sub-Trust A duly incurred in accordance with this Agreement or the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement, including with respect to the payment of any Taxes or other amounts owed to Governmental Authorities and to timely compensate consultants, agents, employees, and professionals (including counsel, tax advisors and financial advisors) engaged by Sub-Trust A in accordance with this Agreement to assist the Sub-Trust A Trustee with respect to the Sub-Trust A Trustee's responsibilities.

(c) The Sub-Trust A Trustee shall make distributions to Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries (other than the DIP Noteholder Trust) at the last-known address for each such Sub-Trust A Beneficiary as indicated on the Debtors' and Reorganized Debtors ' or Sub-Trust A's records as of the applicable distribution date (which, subject to Section 2.8 hereof, for each holder of a Sub-Trust A Interest shall be deemed to be the address set forth in any Proof of Claim filed by that holder, or, if no Proof of Claim is filed, at the address set forth in the Debtors' Schedules). In the event that multiple Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries (other than the DIP Noteholder Trust) are represented by a single attorney as reflected on the applicable trust register, Sub-Trust A may make a single distribution to such attorney on account of the Sub-Trust A Interests held by such multiple Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries for such attorney to remit to the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries it represents. Any payment of Cash by Sub-Trust A shall be made by the Sub-Trust A Trustee via (i) a check drawn on, or (ii) wire transfer from, a domestic bank selected by the Sub-Trust A Trustee, the option of which shall be in the sole discretion of the Sub-Trust A Trustee. If any distribution to any holder is returned as undeliverable, no distribution to such holder shall be made unless and until the Sub-Trust A Trustee is notified in writing of the then-current address of such holder, at which time such distribution shall be made as soon as reasonably practicable after such distribution has become deliverable or has been claimed to such holder without interest; provided, however, that such distributions shall be made without interest and that such distribution shall be deemed unclaimed property under section 347(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and forfeited at the expiration of ninety (90) days from the applicable Distribution Date After such date, all "unclaimed property" or interests in property shall revert to Sub-Trust A (notwithstanding any applicable federal or state escheat, abandoned, or unclaimed property laws to the contrary) for redistribution in accordance with the terms of the Plan, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, and this Agreement, and the Claim of any holder to such property or interest in property shall be forever barred. Nothing contained herein shall require the Sub-Trust A Trustee to attempt to locate any holder of a Sub-Trust A Interest.

(d) The Sub-Trust A Trustee shall make distributions to the DIP Noteholder Trust at ~~[●].~~[8] U.S. Bank Trust Company, National Association, West Side Flats St Paul, 111 Fillmore Ave., Saint Paul, MN 55107, Attention of: Rite Aid DIP Notes Trust Administrator, Email: benjamin.krueger@usbank.com.

The Sub-Trust A Trustee may pay to the Distribution Agents all reasonable and documented fees and expenses of the Distribution Agents without the need for any approvals, authorizations, actions, or consents. For the avoidance of doubt, the reasonable and documented fees of the Distribution Agents will be paid by Sub-Trust A and will not be deducted from distributions to be made under the Plan to holders of Sub-Trust A Interests receiving distributions from the Distribution Agent other than in accordance with Section 3.7(b).

(f) The Sub-Trust A Trustee may deduct and withhold Taxes from amounts otherwise distributable to any Entity any and all amounts, determined in the Sub-Trust A Trustee's sole discretion, required by this Agreement, any law, regulation, rule, ruling, directive, treaty, or other governmental requirement in accordance with Section 8.3 hereof.

(g) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, until the final distribution of Sub-Trust A, the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall not be required to make on account of a Sub-Trust A Interest (i) partial distributions or payments of fractions of dollars; (ii) partial distributions or payments of fractions of Sub-Trust A Interests; or (iii) a distribution if the amount to be distributed is or has an economic value of less than $100.00. Any funds so withheld and not distributed shall be held in reserve and distributed in subsequent distributions; provided, that all Cash (including funds withheld in reserve pursuant to the preceding clause) shall be distributed in the final distribution of Sub-Trust A; provided, however, that the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall not be required to make any final distribution on account of a Sub-Trust A Interest in an amount less than $50.00

(h) Any check issued by Sub-Trust A to a Sub-Trust A Beneficiary shall be null and void if not negotiated within 120 days after the issuance of such check. Requests for reissuance of any check shall be made directly to the Sub-Trust A Trustee by the holder of the relevant Sub-Trust A Interest with respect to which such check originally was issued, and if paid, shall be net of any expenses of Sub-Trust A with respect thereto (including any costs incurred to attempt to locate the recipient and any stop-payment or similar bank charges). If any holder of a Sub-Trust A Interest holding an un-negotiated check does not request reissuance of that check within six months after the date the check was mailed or otherwise delivered to the holder, that Sub-Trust A Interest shall be released and the holder thereof shall be forever barred, estopped, and enjoined from asserting any Claim against any of the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors, Sub-Trust A, or the Sub-Trust A Trustee. In such cases, any Cash or Sub-Trust A Interests held for payment on account of such Claims shall be property of

The Sub-Trust A Trustee may, but is not required to, file with the Bankruptcy Court a list of the holders of any un-negotiated checks. Nothing contained herein shall require the Sub-Trust A Trustee to attempt to locate any holder of a Sub-Trust A Interest.

(i) For the avoidance of doubt, and notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall have no obligation to pay any amounts in respect of prepetition deductibles or self-insured retention amounts with respect to Claims covered by the Reorganized Debtors' insurance policies. Any obligation to pay any amounts in respect of prepetition deductibles or self-insured retention amounts with respect to Claims covered by the Debtors' insurance policies shall be determined by applicable law.

(j) Subject to Sections 3.10, 3.11, and 3.12 hereof, any non-Cash property of Sub-Trust A may be sold, transferred, abandoned, or otherwise disposed of by the Sub-Trust A Trustee. Notice of such sale, transfer, abandonment, or disposition shall be provided to the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries pursuant to the reporting obligations provided in Section 3.15 of this Agreement. If, in the Sub-Trust A Trustee's reasonable judgment, such property cannot be sold in a commercially reasonable manner, or the Sub-Trust A Trustee believes, in good faith, such property has no consequential value to Sub-Trust A, the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall have the right, in consultation with the Sub-Trust B Trustee to abandon or otherwise dispose of such property; provided, to the extent the proceeds from such property would be payable, in whole or in part, to the holders of the Sub-Trust A-2 Interest, the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall not abandon or otherwise dispose of such property without the consent (not to be unreasonably withheld) of the Sub-Trust B Trustee. Except in the case of fraud or willful misconduct, no party in interest shall have a cause of action against Sub-Trust A, the Sub-Trust A Trustee, or any of their directors, officers, employees, consultants, or professionals arising from or related to the disposition of non-Cash property in accordance with this Section 3.7(j).

(k) Any payment or distribution due on a day other than a Business Day shall be made, without interest, on the next Business Day.

3.8 Retention of Counsel and Other Professionals. The Sub-Trust A Trustee, without further order of the Bankruptcy Court, may employ various professionals, including counsel, tax advisors, consultants, and financial advisors, as the Sub-Trust A Trustee deems necessary to aid it in fulfilling its obligations under this Agreement and the Plan, and on whatever fee arrangement the Sub-Trust A Trustee deems appropriate, including contingency fee arrangements. Professionals engaged by the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall not be required to file applications to receive compensation for services rendered and reimbursement of actual out-of-pocket expenses incurred. Unless an alternative fee arrangement has been agreed to (either by order of the Bankruptcy Court or with the consent of the Sub-Trust A Trustee), professionals retained by the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall be compensated, pursuant to Section 1.3 hereof, from the proceeds of Sub-Trust A Funding, the proceeds of the Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims and Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights, or other Sub-Trust A Assets.

3.9 Agreements. Pursuant to the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, and the other provisions of this Agreement, the Sub-Trust A Trustee may enter into any agreement or execute any document required by or consistent with the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement, or this Agreement and perform all of Sub-Trust A's obligations thereunder.

3.10 Management of Sub-Trust A Assets.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, or this Agreement, and subject to Treasury Regulations governing liquidating trusts and the retained jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court as provided for in the Plan, but without prior or further authorization, the Sub-Trust A Trustee may control and exercise authority over the Sub-Trust A Assets, over the management and disposition thereof, and over the management and conduct of Sub-Trust A, in each case, as necessary or advisable to enable the Sub-Trust A Trustee to fulfill the intents and purposes of this Agreement. No Person dealing with Sub-Trust A will be obligated to inquire into the authority of the Sub-Trust A Trustee in connection with the acquisition, management, or disposition of the Sub-Trust A Assets.

3.11 Investment of Cash. The right and power of the Sub-Trust A Trustee to invest Sub-Trust A Assets, the proceeds thereof, or any income earned by Sub-Trust A shall be limited to the right and power to invest in such Sub-Trust A Assets only in Cash and U.S. Government securities as defined in section 2(a)(16) of the Investment Company Act, and money market funds; provided, however, that (a) the scope of any such permissible investments shall be further limited to include only those investments that a liquidating trust within the meaning of Treasury Regulations section 301.7701-4(d), may be permitted to hold, pursuant to the Treasury Regulations, or any modification in the IRS guidelines, whether set forth in IRS rulings, other

A successor Sub-Trust A Trustee or successor Delaware Trustee shall have no duty to examine or inquire into the acts or omissions of its immediate or remote predecessor, and no successor Sub-Trust A Trustee or successor Delaware Trustee shall be in any way liable for the acts or omissions of any predecessor Sub-Trust A Trustee or predecessor Delaware Trustee, unless such party expressly assumes such responsibility. A predecessor Sub-Trust A Trustee or predecessor Delaware Trustee shall have no liability for the acts or omissions of any immediate or subsequent successor Sub-Trust A Trustee or successor Delaware Trustee for any events or occurrences subsequent to the cessation of its role.

(b) None of the Sub-Trust A Trustee nor the Delaware Trustee, when acting in such capacities, shall be subject to any personal liability whatsoever, whether in tort, contract, or otherwise, to any Person, other than the Sub-Trust A or the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries, in connection with the affairs of the Sub-Trust A to the fullest extent provided under section 3803 of the Trust Act, and all persons claiming against any of the Sub-Trust A Trustee or the Delaware Trustee, or otherwise asserting Claims of any nature in connection with affairs of the Sub-Trust A, shall look solely to the Sub-Trust A Assets for satisfaction of any such Claims.

(c) Except as expressly provided herein, nothing in this Agreement shall be, or be deemed to be, an assumption, covenant, or agreement to assume or accept, any liability, obligation, or duty, (x) by the Sub-Trust A Trustee or the Delaware Trustee of any of the liabilities, obligations, or duties of the Reorganized Debtors or (y) by the Reorganized Debtors of any of the liabilities, obligations, or duties of the Sub-Trust A, the Sub-Trust A Trustee, or the Delaware Trustee. For the avoidance of doubt, none of the Debtors nor Reorganized Debtors shall have any liability or obligation with respect to indemnification or reimbursement under this Agreement.

7.2 Indemnification.

(a) From and after the Effective Date, each of the Sub-Trust A Trustee, the Delaware Trustee, and the professionals of the Sub-Trust A and their representatives and professionals (each, a "Sub-Trust A Indemnified Party," and collectively, the "Sub-Trust A Indemnified Parties") shall be, and each of them hereby is, indemnified by Sub-Trust A Trust, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, including the Trust Act, from and against any and all Claims, debts, dues, accounts, actions, suits, Causes of Action (including, without limitation, any suit or other enforcement action brought to enforce indemnity obligations under this Agreement), bonds, covenants, judgments, damages, reasonable attorneys' fees, defense costs, and other assertions of liability arising out of any such Sub-Trust A Indemnified Party's exercise of what such Sub-Trust A Indemnified Party reasonably understands to be its powers or the discharge of what such Sub-Trust A Indemnified Party reasonably understands to be its duties conferred by the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement or this Agreement, any order of the Bankruptcy Court entered pursuant to, or in furtherance of, the Plan, applicable law, or otherwise (except only for actions or omissions to act to the extent determined by a Final Order to be due to such Sub-Trust A Indemnified Party's own fraud or willful misconduct on and after the Effective Date). The foregoing indemnification shall also extend to matters directly or indirectly in connection with, arising out of, based on, or in any way related to: (i) this Agreement; (ii) the services to be rendered pursuant to this Agreement; (iii) any document or information, whether oral or written, referred to herein or supplied to the Sub-Trust A Trustee or Delaware Trustee in connection herewith; or (iv) proceedings by or on behalf of any creditor, or (v) the application of any law, statute, regulation or other rule to the Sub-Trust A or its assets. The Sub-Trust A shall, on demand, advance or pay promptly, at the election of the Sub-Trust A Indemnified Party, solely out of the Sub-Trust A Assets, on behalf of each Sub-Trust A Indemnified Party, reasonable attorneys' fees and other expenses and disbursements to which such Sub-Trust A Indemnified Party would be entitled pursuant to the foregoing indemnification provision; provided, however, that any Sub-Trust A Indemnified Party receiving any such advance shall execute a written undertaking to repay such advance if a court of competent jurisdiction ultimately determines, by Final Order, that such Sub-Trust A Indemnified Party is not entitled to indemnification hereunder due to such Person's own fraud or willful misconduct. Any indemnification Claim of a Sub-Trust A Indemnified Party shall be entitled to a priority distribution from the Sub-Trust A Assets, ahead of Trust Interests and any other Claim to or Interest in such assets. In any matter covered by the first two sentences of this subsection, any party entitled to indemnification shall have the right to employ such party's own separate counsel, at the Sub-Trust A Trust's expense, subject to the foregoing terms and conditions. The indemnification provided under this Section 7.2 shall survive the death, dissolution, resignation, or removal, as may be applicable, of the Sub-Trust A Trustee, or any other Sub-Trust A Indemnified Party and shall inure to the benefit of the Sub-Trust A Trustee, and each other Sub-Trust A Indemnified Party's respective heirs, successors, and assigns.

(b) The foregoing indemnity in respect of any Sub-Trust A Indemnified Party shall survive the termination of such Sub-Trust A Indemnified Party from the capacity for which such party is indemnified. Termination or modification of this Agreement shall not affect any indemnification rights or obligations set forth herein.

(c) The Sub-Trust A may, but is not obligated to, indemnify any Person who is not a Sub-Trust A Indemnified Party for any loss, cost, damage, expense or liability for which a Sub-Trust A Indemnified Party would be entitled to mandatory indemnification under this Section 7.2.

(d) Any Sub-Trust A Indemnified Party may waive the benefits of indemnification under this Section 7.2, but only by an instrument in writing executed by such Sub-Trust A Indemnified Party.

(e) The rights to indemnification under this Section 7.2 are not exclusive of other rights which any Sub-Trust A Indemnified Party may otherwise have at law or in equity, including, without limitation, common law rights to indemnification or contribution. Nothing in this Section 7.2 will affect the rights or obligations of any Person (or the limitations on those rights or obligations) under any other agreement or instrument to which that Person is a party. Further, the Sub-Trust A hereby agrees that Sub-Trust A shall be required to pay the full amount of expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) actually incurred by such Sub-Trust A Indemnified Party in connection with any proceeding as to which Sub-Trust A Indemnified Party is entitled to indemnification hereunder in advance of the final disposition of such proceeding. For the avoidance of doubt, each Sub-Trust A Indemnified Party shall be entitled, subject to the terms hereof, to indemnification for any costs and reasonable attorneys' fees such Sub-Trust A Indemnified Party may incur in connection with enforcing any of its rights under this Article VII.

7.3 Sub-Trust A Liabilities. All liabilities of the Sub-Trust A, including, without limitation, actual indemnity obligations under Section 7.2 of this Agreement, will be liabilities of the Sub-Trust A as an Entity and will be paid or satisfied solely from the Sub-Trust A Assets. No liability of the Sub-Trust A will be payable in whole or in part by any Sub-Trust A Beneficiary individually or in the Sub-Trust A Beneficiary's capacity as a Sub-Trust A Beneficiary, by the Sub-Trust A Trustee individually or in the Sub-Trust A Trustee's capacity as Sub-Trust A Trustee, or by any representative, member, partner, shareholder, director, officer, professional, employees, agent, affiliate, or advisor of any Sub-Trust A Beneficiary, the Delaware Trustee, or their respective affiliates.

7.4 Limitation of Liability. None of the Sub-Trust A Indemnified Parties shall be liable for indirect, punitive, exemplary, consequential, special, or other damages for a breach of this Agreement under any circumstances.

7.5 Burden of Proof. In making a determination with respect to entitlement to exculpation or indemnification hereunder, the court, person, or entity making such determination shall presume that any Covered Party is entitled to exculpation and indemnification under this Agreement and any person seeking to overcome such presumption shall have the burden of proof to overcome that presumption.

ARTICLE VIII
TAX MATTERS

8.1 Treatment of Sub-Trust A Assets Transfer. For all U.S. federal and applicable state and local income tax purposes, all parties (including, without limitation, the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors, the Sub-Trust A Trustee, and the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries) shall treat the transfer of the Sub-Trust A Assets to Sub-Trust A for the benefit of the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries, whether their Claims are Allowed on or after the Effective Date, including any amounts or other assets subsequently transferred to Sub-Trust A (but only at such time as actually transferred) as (i) a transfer of the Sub-Trust A Assets (subject to any obligations relating to such Sub-Trust A Assets) directly by the Debtors to the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries, followed by (ii) a transfer by the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries to Sub-Trust A of the Sub-Trust A Assets in exchange for Sub-Trust A Interests. Accordingly, the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries shall be treated for U.S. federal and applicable state and local income tax purposes as the grantors and/or indirect owners of their respective share of the Sub-Trust A Assets. For U.S. federal and applicable state and local income tax purposes, Sub-Trust A shall be treated as a liquidating trust pursuant to Section 301.7701-4(d) of the Treasury Regulations that is taxable as a grantor trust pursuant to Sections 671-677 of the IRC. To the extent consistent with Revenue Procedure 94-45 and not otherwise inconsistent with this Agreement, Sub-Trust A shall satisfy the requirements for liquidating trust status. Sub-Trust A shall at all times be administered so as to constitute a domestic trust for U.S. federal and applicable state and local income tax purposes. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement or the Plan, the failure of Sub-Trust A to be treated for tax purposes as contemplated by this Section 8.1 shall not limit or affect the validity or formation of Sub-Trust A or the effectiveness of the Plan or the power or authority of the Sub-Trust A Trustee, and the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall be entitled to take such steps or actions as the Sub-Trust A Trustee deems appropriate or advisable, in order to further or support the tax treatment and effects contemplated by this Section 8.1. The Sub-Trust A Trustee may timely elect to treat any Sub-Trust A-1 Disputed Claims Reserve as a DOF, and if such election is made: (x) the Sub-Trust A-1 Assets subject to such election will be subject to entity-level taxation; (y) all parties (including, without limitation, the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, the Sub-Trust A Trustee and the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries shall report for U.S. federal, state, and local income tax purposes consistently with the foregoing; and (z) the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall file all income tax returns with respect to any income attributable to the DOF.

8.2 Tax Reporting.

(a) The "taxable year" of Sub-Trust A shall be the "calendar year" as such terms are defined in section 441 of the IRC, unless the Sub-Trust A Trustee determines in good faith to use a different tax year in the interest of all beneficiaries to the extent permitted under the IRC and the Treasury Regulations thereunder. The Sub-Trust A Trustee shall file all tax or information returns required to be filed under applicable law for Sub-Trust A treating Sub-Trust A as a "grantor trust", including, without limitation, pursuant to Treasury Regulations section 1.671-4(a) and in accordance with this Section 8.2. The Sub-Trust A Trustee also will annually send to each Sub-Trust A Beneficiary a separate statement setting forth such holder's share of items of income, gain, loss, deduction, or credit (including the receipts and expenditures of Sub-Trust A) as relevant for U.S. federal and applicable state and local income tax purposes and will instruct all such Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries to use such information in preparing their U.S. federal income tax returns or to forward the appropriate information to such Sub-Trust A Beneficiary's underlying beneficial holders with instructions to utilize such information in preparing their U.S. federal income tax returns.

(b) Allocations of Sub-Trust A taxable income among the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries shall be determined by reference to the manner in which an amount of Cash equal to such taxable income would be distributed (were such Cash permitted to be distributed at such time, and without regard to any restrictions on distributions set forth in the Plan or this Agreement) if, immediately prior to such deemed distribution, Sub-Trust A had distributed all its assets (valued at their tax book value), to the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries, adjusted for prior taxable income and loss and taking into account all prior and concurrent distributions from Sub-Trust A. Similarly, taxable loss of Sub-Trust A shall be allocated by reference to the manner in which an economic loss would be borne immediately after a hypothetical liquidating distribution of the remaining Sub-Trust A Assets. The tax book value of the Sub-Trust A Assets for purposes of this Section 8.2(b) shall equal their fair market value on the Effective Date, adjusted in accordance with tax accounting principles prescribed by the IRC, the applicable Treasury Regulations and other applicable administrative and judicial authorities and pronouncements.

(c) The Sub-Trust A Trustee shall be responsible for payment of, and shall be permitted to pay, out of the Sub-Trust A Assets, any taxes imposed on Sub-Trust A, the Sub-Trust A Assets or the Sub-Trust A-1 Disputed Claims Reserve, and any such payment shall be considered a cost and expense of the operation of Sub-Trust A (or the Sub-Trust A-1 Disputed Claims Reserve, as applicable) payable without Bankruptcy Court order.

8.3 Withholding of Taxes. Sub-Trust A and the Sub-Trust A-1 Disputed Claims Reserve shall comply, to the extent applicable, with all withholding and reporting requirements imposed by the IRC, state, local or non-U.S. taxing authority. The Sub-Trust A Trustee shall be authorized to take any and all actions that may be necessary or appropriate to comply with any such withholding, payment, and reporting requirements. The Sub-Trust A Trustee may deduct and withhold and pay to the appropriate Tax Authority all amounts required to be deducted or withheld pursuant to the IRC or any provision of any state, local or non-U.S. tax law with respect to any payment or distribution to the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries. Notwithstanding the above, each holder of a Sub-Trust A Interest that is to receive a distribution under the Plan shall have the sole and exclusive responsibility for the satisfaction and payment of any taxes imposed on such holder by any Tax Authority, including income, withholding, and other tax obligations, on account of such distribution. All such amounts withheld and paid to the appropriate Tax Authority shall be treated as amounts distributed to such Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries for all purposes of this Agreement. The Sub-Trust A Trustee shall be authorized to collect such tax information from the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries (including, without limitation, social security numbers or other tax identification numbers) as it, in its sole discretion, deems necessary to effectuate the Plan, the Confirmation Order, and this Agreement. As a condition to receive distributions under the Plan, all Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries will need to identify themselves to the Sub-Trust A Trustee and provide tax information and the specifics of their holdings, to the extent the Sub-Trust A Trustee deems appropriate, including an IRS Form W-9 (or any successor form) or, in the case of Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries that are not United States persons for U.S. federal income tax purposes, certification of foreign status on an applicable IRS Form W-8 (or any successor form). The Sub-Trust A Trustee may refuse to make a distribution to any Sub-Trust A Beneficiary that fails to furnish such information in a timely fashion, until such information is delivered; provided, however, that, upon the delivery of such information by a Sub-Trust A Beneficiary within 90 days of the Sub-Trust A Trustee's first request, the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall make such distribution to which the Sub-Trust A Beneficiary is entitled, without interest; and, provided, further, that, if the Sub-Trust A Trustee fails to withhold in respect of amounts received or distributable with respect to any such holder and the Sub-Trust A Trustee is later held liable for the amount of such withholding, such holder shall reimburse the Sub-Trust A Trustee for such liability. If the holder fails to comply with such a request for tax information within such 90 days of the Sub-Trust A Trustee's request, such distribution shall be deemed an unclaimed distribution and treated in accordance with Section 3.7(c) hereof.

8.4 Valuation. As soon as reasonably practicable following the establishment of the Sub-Trust A, the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall determine the value of the Sub-Trust A Assets transferred to the Sub-Trust A as of the Effective Date, based on the good-faith determination of the Sub-Trust A Trustee. The Sub-Trust A Trustee shall apprise, in writing, the applicable Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries of such valuation. The valuation of the Sub-Trust A Assets prepared pursuant to this Agreement shall be used consistently by all parties (including, without limitation, the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, the Sub-Trust A Trustee, and the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries) for all U.S. federal income tax purposes. Sub-Trust A also shall file (or cause to be filed) any other statements, returns, or disclosures relating to Sub-Trust A that are required by any Governmental Unit. In connection with the preparation of any valuation contemplated hereby, the Sub-Trust A, subject to Section 3.8 hereof, shall be entitled to retain such Sub-Trust A professionals as the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall determine to be appropriate or necessary in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, and the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall take such other actions in connection therewith as it determines to be appropriate or necessary. The Sub-Trust A shall bear all of the reasonable and documented costs and expenses incurred in connection with determining such value, including the fees and expenses of any Sub-Trust A professionals retained in connection therewith. For the avoidance of doubt, the valuation shall not be binding on the Sub-Trust A, the Sub-Trust A Trustee, or the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries for any purpose other than U.S. federal income tax purposes, and the valuation shall not impair or prejudice rights, claims, powers, duties, authority and/or privileges of the Sub-Trust A Trustee, the Sub Trust A, or any of the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries except with respect to U.S. federal income tax purposes.

8.5 Expedited Determination of Taxes. The Sub-Trust A Trustee may request an expedited determination of taxes of Sub-Trust A under section 505(b) of the Bankruptcy Code for all returns filed for, or on behalf of, Sub-Trust A for all taxable periods through the termination of Sub-Trust A.

TERMINATION OF SUB-TRUST A

9.1 Termination. Sub-Trust A shall be dissolved at such time as (i) all of the Sub-Trust A Assets have been distributed to Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries or otherwise applied to Sub-Trust A Expenses pursuant to the Plan and this Agreement or (ii) the Sub-Trust A Trustee determines, following the approval of the Sub-Trust B Trustee (such approval not to be unreasonably withheld), that the administration of any remaining Sub-Trust A Assets is not likely to yield sufficient additional Sub-Trust A Proceeds to justify further pursuit; provided, however, that in no event shall Sub-Trust A be dissolved later than five (5) years from the Effective Date unless the Bankruptcy Court, upon motion within the six-month period prior to the fifth (5^{th}) anniversary (or within the six-month period prior to the end of an extension period), determines that a fixed period extension (not to exceed five years, including any prior extensions, without a favorable private letter ruling from the Internal Revenue Service or an opinion of counsel satisfactory to the Sub-Trust A Trustee that any further extension would not adversely affect the status of Sub-Trust A as a liquidating trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes) is necessary to facilitate or complete the recovery and liquidation of the Sub-Trust A Assets. If at any time the Sub-Trust A Trustee determines, in reliance upon such professionals as the Sub-Trust A Trustee may retain and following approval of the Sub-Trust B Trustee, that the expense of administering Sub-Trust A so as to make a final distribution to the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries is likely to exceed the value of the assets remaining in Sub-Trust A, the Sub-Trust A Trustee may, in its discretion and without the need to apply to the Bankruptcy Court for authority or approval, (i) reserve any amount necessary to dissolve Sub-Trust A, (ii) donate any balance to a charitable organization (A) described in section 501(c)(3) of the IRC, (B) exempt from U.S. federal income tax under section 501(a) of the IRC, (C) not a "private foundation," as defined in section 509(a) of the IRC and (D) that is unrelated to the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors, Sub-Trust A and any insider of the Sub-Trust A Trustee and (iii) dissolve Sub-Trust A. The Sub-Trust A Trustee may, but shall not be required to, apply for an order of the Bankruptcy Court approving any or all of the foregoing. If a final decree has been entered closing the Chapter 11 Cases, the Sub-Trust A Trustee may seek to open the Chapter 11 Cases for the limited purpose of filing a motion seeking authority as set forth in the immediately preceding sentence, and the costs for such motion and costs related to re-opening the Chapter 11 Cases shall be paid by use of the Sub-Trust A Assets. Such date upon which Sub-Trust A shall finally be dissolved shall be referred to herein as the "Termination Date." Upon the Termination Date, the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall wind up and liquidate Sub-Trust A in accordance with section 3808 of the Trust Act, and Section 9.2 herein, and all monies remaining in the Sub-Trust A shall be distributed or disbursed in accordance with Section 3.7 above. The Sub-Trust A Trustee and the Delaware Trustee (acting at the written direction of the Sub-Trust A Trustee) shall file a Certificate of Cancellation in accordance with section 3810(d) of the Trust Act, and thereupon this Agreement shall terminate.

9.2 Continuance of Sub-Trust A for Winding Up. After the termination of Sub-Trust A and solely for the purpose of liquidating and winding up the affairs of Sub-Trust A, the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall continue to act as such until its duties have been fully performed and shall continue to be entitled to receive the fees called for by Section 4.2(a) hereof. Upon distribution of all the Sub-Trust A Assets, the Sub-Trust A Trustee may retain the books, records, and files that shall have been delivered or created by the Sub-Trust A Trustee; provided, however, that the Sub-Trust A Trustee may, in its discretion, abandon or destroy such books and records (unless such records and documents are necessary to fulfill the Sub-Trust A Trustee's obligations hereunder) subject to the terms of any joint prosecution and common interest agreement(s) to which the Sub-Trust A Trustee may be a party. Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, upon the final distribution of Sub-Trust A Assets and filing by the Sub-Trust A Trustee and the Delaware Trustee of a Certificate of Cancellation with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware, the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall be deemed discharged and have no further duties or obligations hereunder, except to account to the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries as provided herein, Sub-Trust A Interests shall be cancelled, and Sub-Trust A will be deemed to have dissolved.

AMENDMENT AND WAIVER

10.1 Subject to Sections 1.5(d) and 10.2 of this Agreement, the Sub-Trust A Trustee, with the prior consent of the Sub-Trust B Trustee (not to be unreasonably withheld) may amend, supplement, or seek to waive any provision of this Agreement; provided, that to the extent any such amendment, supplement or waiver materially and adversely impacts the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, or modifies the obligations of the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors hereunder, such amendment, supplement, or waiver shall also require the prior written consent of the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, as applicable (not to be unreasonably withheld); provided, further, that to the extent that any such amendment, supplement, or waiver materially or adversely affects the interests of the holder of the Sub-Trust A-3 Interest in a manner disproportionate to holders of other Sub-Trust A Interests, such amendment, supplement, or waiver shall also require the prior consent of the DIP Noteholder Trust Trustee.

10.2 Notwithstanding Section 10.1 of this Agreement, no amendment, supplement, or waiver of or to this Agreement shall: (a) adversely affect the payments and/or distributions to be made under the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, or this Agreement; (b) alter the procedural requirements of Section 3.4 of this Agreement; (c) adversely affect the status of Sub-Trust A as a "liquidating trust" that is taxable as a "grantor trust" for U.S. federal and applicable income tax purposes; (d) adversely affect any consent, consultation or other rights afforded to the Sub-Trust B Trustee hereunder without the consent of the Sub-Trust B Trustee or adversely affect, in a manner disproportionate to holders of other Sub-Trust A Interests, any consent, consultation or other rights of the DIP Noteholder Trust (without the consent of the DIP Noteholder Trust Trustee) (e) conflict with, or expand the Reorganized Debtors' obligations under the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement, or (f) be inconsistent with the purpose and intention of Sub-Trust A to liquidate in an expeditious but orderly manner the Sub-Trust A Assets in accordance with Treasury Regulations section 301.7701-4(d).

10.3 No failure by Sub-Trust A, or the Sub-Trust A Trustee, to exercise or delay in exercising any right, power, or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, power, or privilege hereunder preclude any further exercise thereof, or of any other right, power, or privilege.

10.4 Notwithstanding the forgoing, to the extent any such amendment, supplement, or waiver affects the rights, duties, protections, immunities, or indemnities of the Delaware Trustee, such act shall require the written consent of the Delaware Trustee. The fees and expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees) of the Delaware Trustee incurred in connection with any amendment shall be paid by the Sub-Trust A. In consenting to any amendment hereunder, the Delaware Trustee shall be entitled to receive and be fully protected in relying on an opinion of counsel that such amendment is authorized and permitted by this Agreement and that all conditions precedent to such amendment have been satisfied.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

11.1 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware (without reference to principles of conflicts of law thereof), including all matters of validity, construction, and administration; provided, however, that the following shall not be applicable to Sub-Trust A, the Sub-Trust A Trustee, the Delaware Trustee or this Agreement: (a) the provisions of section 3540 of Title 12 of the Delaware Code; and (b) any provisions of the laws (statutory or common) of the State of Delaware pertaining to trusts that relate to or regulate, in a manner inconsistent with the terms hereof, (i) the filing with any court or governmental body or agency of trustee accounts or schedule of trustee fees and charges, affirmative requirements to post bonds for trustees, officers, agents, or employees of a trust, the necessity for obtaining court or other governmental approval concerning the acquisition, holding, or disposition of real or personal property, (ii) fees or other sums payable to trustees, officers, agents, or employees of a trust, (iii) the allocation of receipts and expenditures to income and principal, (iv) restrictions or limitations on the permissible nature, amount, or concentration of trust investments or requirements relating to the titling, storage, or other manner of holding or investing trust assets, or (v) the establishment of fiduciary or other standards or responsibilities or limitations on the acts or powers of trustees.

11.2 Jurisdiction; WAIVER OF TRIAL BY JURY. Subject to the proviso below, the Parties agree that the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction over Sub-Trust A and the Sub-Trust A Trustee, including, without limitation, the administration and activities of Sub-Trust A and the Sub-Trust A Trustee to the fullest extent permitted by law; provided, however, that notwithstanding the foregoing, the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall have power and authority to bring any action in any court of competent jurisdiction to prosecute any of the Sub-Trust A Assigned Claims and the Sub-Trust A Assigned Insurance Rights. Each Party to this Agreement and the Sub-Trust A Beneficiaries, by accepting and holding their interest in the Sub-Trust A, hereby irrevocably consents to the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court in any action to enforce, interpret or construe any provision of this Agreement or of any other agreement or document delivered in connection with this Agreement, and also hereby irrevocably waives any defense of improper venue, forum non conveniens, or lack of personal jurisdiction to any such action brought in the Bankruptcy Court. Until the closing of the Chapter 11 Cases, any action to enforce, interpret, or construe any provision of this Agreement will be brought only in the Bankruptcy Court. In the event that all of the Chapter 11 Cases are closed, the Parties agree that the Sub-Trust A Trustee shall have the right to move to re-open the Chapter 11 Cases or alternatively, to bring the dispute(s) before the courts of the State of Delaware, including any federal court located in the State of Delaware (and, in such event, the Parties agree that the such courts shall have jurisdiction over the Sub-Trust A and the Sub-Trust A Trustee, including, without limitation, the administration and activities of the Sub-Trust A and the Sub-Trust A Trustee to the fullest extent permitted by law). Each Party hereby irrevocably consents to the service by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, of any process in any action to enforce, interpret, or construe any provision of this Agreement. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO, AND EACH SUB-TRUST A BENEFICIARY, BY ACCEPTING ITS INTEREST HEREIN, HEREBY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY AND ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY WITH RESPECT TO ANY LITIGATION OR LEGAL PROCEEDING DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF, UNDER OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT, THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY AND/OR THE SUB-TRUST A. NOTWITHSTANDING THE FOREGOING AND FOR THE AVOIDANCE OF DOUBT, NOTHING CONTAINED HEREIN SHALL PROHIBIT OR RESTRICT SUB-TRUST A OR ITS TRUSTEE FROM SEEKING A JURY TRIAL WITH RESPECT TO ANY OF THE SUB-TRUST A ASSIGNED INSURANCE RIGHTS OR SUB-TRUST A ASSIGNED CLAIMS.

11.3 Severability. In the event any provision of this Agreement or the application thereof to any person or circumstances shall be determined by Final Order to be invalid or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Agreement or the application of such provision to persons or circumstances or in jurisdictions other than those as to or in which it is held invalid or unenforceable, shall not be affected thereby, and each provision of this Agreement shall be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

11.4 Notices. Any notice or other communication required or permitted to be made under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been sufficiently given, for all purposes, if delivered personally or by facsimile or electronic communication, sent by nationally recognized overnight delivery service or mailed by first-class mail. The date of receipt of such notice shall be the earliest of (a) the date of actual receipt by the receiving party, (b) the date of personal delivery (or refusal upon presentation for delivery), (c) the date of the transmission confirmation, or (d) three Business Days after service by first-class mail, to the receiving party's below address(es):

(b) Pursuant to the Plan, the Master Trust Agreement, and the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, as of the Effective Date, following receipt thereof by the Master Trust, the Master Trust, on behalf of the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, and the Debtors' Estates shall irrevocably grant, vest, transfer, assign, and deliver, and shall be deemed to have granted, vested, transferred, assigned and delivered, to Sub-Trust B, without recourse, all of their respective rights, title, and interest in the Sub-Trust B Trust Assets, free and clear of all Liens and Claims for the benefit of the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries, including, without limitation and pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Plan, the Confirmation Order, and the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement, all privileges (including, without limtiation, attorney-client privileges), which shall vest solely in the Sub-Trust B, in trust, and, consistent with sections 1123(a)(5)(B) and 1123(b)(3)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code, for the sole benefit of the Sub-Trust B Trustee and the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries; provided that, at the written direction of the Sub-Trust B Trustee, as of the Effective Date, a portion of the Sub-Trust B Cash Consideration from the Commitees Initial Cash Consideration, (i) in an amount not to exceed $17,000,000 (the "Emergence Opioid Distribution Amount") shall be funded directly for the benefit of holders of the Sub-Trust B-1 Interest in accordance with the Opioid Beneficiaries Basic Sharing Percentages (as defined below), and (ii) in an amount not to exceed $125,000 (the "Emergence Valsartan Distribution"), shall be funded directly for the benefit of holders of the Sub-Trust B-5 Interest, in each case, in lieu of funding such Cash to Sub-Trust B. In no event shall any part of the Sub-Trust B Assets revert to or be distributed to the Debtors and the Reorganized Debtors except as set forth herein.

(c) The Sub-Trust B Assets and the rights thereto shall vest in Sub-Trust B on the Effective Date, subject to the proviso to Section 1.2(b); provided, however, to the extent any of the Sub-Trust B Assets are capable of being assigned to Sub-Trust B but are not assigned to Sub-Trust B upon the Effective Date, the obligation to effect the assignment of such Sub-Trust B Assets shall be satisfied by the Master Trust and the Reorganized Debtors, in accordance with the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement and/or the Plan, as applicable.

(d) In accordance with, and subject to, the terms and conditions set forth in the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement, and this Agreement, the Reorganized Debtors shall take, or cause to be taken, all such further actions as the Sub-Trust B Trustee may reasonably request, in each case to the extent necessary, to permit Sub-Trust B to investigate, prosecute, settle, protect, and conserve all Claims and Causes of Action constituting Sub-Trust B Assets and the liabilities of the Debtors and/or the Reorganized Debtors for Tort Claims channeled to Sub-Trust B pursuant to the Plan and the Master Trust Agreement. In accordance with, and subject to, the terms and conditions set forth in the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement, and this Agreement, the Reorganized Debtors shall take, or cause to be taken, all such further actions as the Sub-Trust B Trustee may reasonably request, in each case to the extent necessary, to permit Sub-Trust B to preserve, secure, and obtain the benefit of the Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights and the other Sub-Trust B Assets. Sub-Trust B shall be the successor-in-interest to the Debtors and/or the applicable Reorganized Debtors with respect to any Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights; provided, however, that neither Sub-Trust B nor the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall bear any liabilities in connection therewith other than as expressly set forth in the Plan. Nothing in this Agreement shall preclude Sub-Trust B from disclosing information, documents, or other materials reasonably necessary to preserve, litigate, resolve, or settle coverage, or to comply with an applicable obligation under an insurance policy or settlement agreement, subject to appropriate confidentiality protections and any other restrictions or limitations set forth in the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing herein shall expand the obligations of the Reorganized Debtors beyond what has been agreed to in the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement and/or is required pursuant to the Confirmation Order.

(e) To the extent that any of the Sub-Trust B Assets cannot be transferred to or vested in the Sub-Trust B because of a restriction on transferability under non-bankruptcy law that is not superseded or preempted by the Bankruptcy Code or the Confirmation Order, such Sub-Trust B Asset shall, to the extent permitted by applicable law, be deemed held by the Master Trust, and if not the Master Trust, then by the Reorganized Debtors, as bailee for Sub-Trust B, and the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall be deemed to have been designated as a representative of the Master Trust, or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, including pursuant to section 1123(b)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code to liquidate, monetize, enforce, and/or pursue such Sub-Trust B Assets to the extent and subject to the limitations set forth in the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, the Master Trust Agreement, and this Agreement, on behalf of the Master Trust or Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, for the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries; provided, however, that the Reorganized Debtors shall be permitted to recoup the reasonable, documented out-of-pocket costs, if any, incurred in connection with holding and/or disposing of such asset(s) (to the extent not already recouped or paid in accordance with the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement) solely by withholding proceeds from (i) any amount payable to the Master Trust under the Plan as part of the Committees' Post-Emergence Cash Consideration, and (ii) any amounts otherwise payable to Sub-Trust B on account of the Reorganized Debtors monetizing the corresponding assets; provided, further, however, that the proceeds of the sale or other disposition of any such assets by the Master Trust or the Reorganized Debtors, until such time they are transferred to Sub-Trust B, shall nevertheless be deemed to constitute Sub-Trust B Assets.

(f) On the Effective Date, the Reorganized Debtors, the Master Trust, Sub-Trust B, and Sub-Trust A shall enter into the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement.

(g) At any time and from time to time on and after the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Debtors, Reorganized Debtors, and any party under the control of such parties agree (i) at the reasonable request of the Sub-Trust B Trustee to execute and/or deliver any instruments, documents, books, and records (including those maintained in electronic format and original documents as may be needed), subject to the preceding Section 1.2(d) and the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement, and (ii) to take, or cause to be taken, all such further actions as the Sub-Trust B Trustee may reasonably request, subject to the preceding Section 1.2(d), in each case (i) and (ii) in order to evidence or effectuate the transfer of the Sub-Trust B Assets to the Sub-Trust B.

(h) In accordance with, and subject to, the Plan (subject to Section 1.5(c) hereof), the Confirmation Order, and the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement, the Reorganized Debtors, and any party under the control of the Reorganized Debtors, and the Estates shall take, or cause to be taken, subject to the preceding Section 1.2(d), all such further actions as the Sub-Trust B Trustee may reasonably request, in each case to permit the Sub-Trust B Trustee to investigate, prosecute, settle, protect, and conserve all Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights and the liabilities of the Debtors and/or the Reorganized Debtors for Tort Claims channeled to Sub-Trust B pursuant to the Plan and the Master Trust Agreement.

(i) All of the proceeds received by Sub-Trust B from the pursuit of any the Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights (the "Sub-Trust B Insurance Proceeds"), and other Sub-Trust B Assets, including the Sub-Trust A-2 Interest (collectively, the "Sub-Trust B Asset Proceeds") shall be added to the Sub-Trust B Assets and held as a part thereof (and title thereto shall be vested in Sub-Trust B).

(j) For all U.S. federal, state and local income tax purposes, as applicable, all parties (including, without limitation, the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors, the Sub-Trust B Trustee, the Delaware Trustee, and the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries) shall treat the transfer of the Sub-Trust B Assets to Sub-Trust B in accordance with Section 8.1 hereof.

(k) The transfers set forth in this Section 1.2, made pursuant to the Plan, shall be exempt from any stamp, real estate transfer, mortgage reporting, sales, use or other similar tax, pursuant to section 1146(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

(l) Notwithstanding the foregoing, for purposes of section 553 of the Bankruptcy Code, the transfer of the Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights to Sub-Trust B shall not affect the mutuality of obligations that otherwise may have existed prior to the effectuation of such transfer. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary and subject to the Plan, the Confirmation Order and applicable law, the transfer of the Sub-Trust B Assets to Sub-Trust B does not diminish, and fully preserves, any defenses a defendant would have if the Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights had been retained by the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors.

1.3 Funding of Sub-Trust B; Payment of Fees and Expenses.

(a) Sub-Trust B shall be funded by the Master Trust with the Sub-Trust B Cash Consideration (subject to the proviso to Section 1.2(b)), which shall be used to administer all Sub-Trust B Assets and initially pay all reasonable fees, costs, and expenses (including indemnities) of and incurred by Sub-Trust B, including legal and other professional fees, costs, and expenses, administrative fees and expenses, insurance fees, taxes, and escrow expenses, which shall be paid in accordance with this Agreement; (the "Sub-Trust B Expenses"). The Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries, Debtors, and Reorganized Debtors shall have no obligation to provide any funding with respect to Sub-Trust B, except (i) as may be directly funded by the Sub-Trust B Assets, including the Sub-Trust B Asset Proceeds or (ii) with respect to the Reorganized Debtors, any funding associated with the Committee's Post-Emergence Cash Consideration.

(b) Each of the Sub-Trust B Trustee and the Delaware Trustee may incur any Sub-Trust B Expenses in connection with the performance of its duties under the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement, and this Agreement, including in connection with retaining professionals and/or entering into agreements pursuant to Sections 3.8 and 3.9 herein. All Sub-Trust B Expenses shall be paid by, and solely be the obligation of, Sub-Trust B. In accordance with Section 1.3(a) and 1.3(d) hereof, all Sub-Trust B Expenses shall initially be paid by Sub-Trust B from the Sub-Trust B Cash Consideration. Thereafter, in accordance with Section 3.7(b) hereof, the Sub-Trust B Trustee may elect to apply amounts from the Sub-Trust B Assets to fund expenses (including professional fees) incurred, or reasonably projected to be incurred, in connection with prosecuting or settling the Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights, monetizing the Sub-Trust B Assets, and distributing the Sub-Trust B Distributable Proceeds[2] to the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries; provided, however, that the Delaware Trustee's expenses shall be limited to those specifically authorized in Section 6.3 or payable pursuant to the indemnification provisions of Article VII hereof. For the avoidance of doubt, all Sub-Trust B Expenses shall be satisfied or reserved for before any distributions may be made to Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries.

(c) [RESERVED].

(d) Up to $1,125,000 of the Sub-Trust B Cash Consideration may be used to pay Sub-Trust B Expenses (the "Sub-Trust B Initial Funding"), including pursuit of the Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights. The Sub-Trust B Trustee may, as set forth herein, obtain additional funding to pay Sub-Trust B Expenses ("Sub-Trust B Additional Funding," and together with the Sub-Trust B Initial Funding, "Sub-Trust B Funding").

(e) Any failure or inability of the Sub-Trust B Trustee to obtain Sub-Trust B Funding will not affect the enforceability of the Sub-Trust B Agreement.

(f) The Sub-Trust B Trustee shall be paid from the Sub-Trust B Initial Funding and any additional funding obtained by the Sub-Trust B Trustee, or in accordance with Section 3.7(b) hereof.

1.4 Title to the Sub-Trust B Assets. The transfer of the Sub-Trust B Assets to Sub-Trust B pursuant to Section 1.2 hereof is being made for the sole benefit, and on behalf, of the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries. Upon the transfer of the Sub-Trust B Assets to Sub-Trust B, Sub-Trust B shall succeed to all of the Debtors', Reorganized Debtors', the Debtors' Estates, the Master Trust's, and the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries' rights, title, and interest in the Sub-Trust B Assets, free and clear of all Liens, Claims, encumbrances, Interests, contractually imposed restrictions, and other interests, and no other Person shall have any interest, legal, beneficial, or otherwise, in Sub-Trust B or the Sub-Trust B Assets upon the assignment and transfer of such assets to Sub-Trust B (other than as provided in the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, or this Agreement). On the Effective Date, Sub-Trust B shall be substituted for the Master Trust, Master Trustees, Debtors and Reorganized Debtors (as applicable) for all purposes with respect to the Sub-Trust B Assets. To the extent any law or regulation prohibits the transfer of ownership of any of the Sub-Trust B Assets from the Master Trust to Sub-Trust B and such law is not superseded by the Bankruptcy Code, Sub-Trust B's interest shall be a lien upon and security interest in such Sub-Trust B Assets, in trust, nevertheless, for the sole use and purposes set forth herein and in the Plan, and this Agreement shall be deemed a security agreement granting such interest thereon without need to file financing statements or mortgages. By executing this Agreement, the Sub-Trust B Trustee on behalf of Sub-Trust B hereby accepts all of such property as Sub-Trust B Assets, to be held in trust for the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries, subject to the terms of this Agreement and the Plan.

1.5 Nature and Purpose of Sub-Trust B.

(a) Purpose. Sub-Trust B is organized and established as a trust pursuant to which the Sub-Trust B Trustee, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and subject to any consultation rights of the Sub-Trust A Trustee provided for herein, shall (i) further channel the Tort Claims channeled to Sub-Trust B from the Master Trust to the Tort Sub-Trusts, in whole or in part, in accordance with the Plan and this Agreement, (ii) administer and distribute the Sub-Trust B Assets, (iii) investigate, prosecute, settle, or abandon Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights and otherwise implement the terms of this Agreement on behalf, and for the benefit, of the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries, and (iv) otherwise direct the administration, processing, liquidation and payment of Other Tort Claims. Sub-Trust B shall (i) serve as a mechanism for prosecuting all Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights (except those insurance rights that Sub-Trust B assigns to any Tort-Sub Trust(s) in accordance herewith), monetizing the Sub-Trust B Assets, and distributing the Sub-Trust B Distributable Proceeds in a timely fashion to or for the benefit of the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries in accordance with the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, and this Agreement and (ii) liquidate and administer the Sub-Trust B Assets in accordance with Treasury Regulation section 301.7701-4(d), with no objective to continue or engage in the conduct of a trade or any other business, except to the extent reasonably necessary to, and consistent with, the liquidating purpose of Sub-Trust B. Except as otherwise provided in Article III hereof and subject to the Confirmation Order, Sub-Trust B shall have the sole responsibility for the pursuit and settlement of the Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights and the sole power and authority to allow or settle and compromise any Claims related to the Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights. The primary purpose of Sub-Trust B is to, in an expeditious and orderly manner, maximize the recoveries to the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries by monetizing and converting the Sub-Trust B Assets to Cash and making timely distributions to the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries, in accordance with the Plan and the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, with no objective to continue or engage in the conduct of, or to further, any trade or business. The Sub-Trust B Trustee shall be obligated to make continuing reasonable efforts to timely resolve the Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights and not unreasonably prolong the duration of Sub-Trust B. The liquidation of Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights may be accomplished either through the prosecution, compromise and settlement, abandonment, or dismissal, or other form of monetization of any or all claims, rights, or causes of action or otherwise, in accordance with the Plan, the Confirmation Order and this Agreement.

(b) Relationship. This Agreement is intended to create a trust and a trust relationship and to be governed and construed in all respects as a trust. Sub-Trust B is not intended to be, and shall not be deemed to be, or be treated as, a general partnership, limited partnership, joint venture, corporation, joint stock company, or association, nor shall the Sub-Trust B Trustee, or the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries for any purpose be, or be deemed to be or treated in any way whatsoever to be, liable or responsible hereunder as partners or joint venturers.

The relationship of the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries, on the one hand, to the Sub-Trust B Trustee, on the other hand, shall be solely that of a beneficiary of a trust and shall not be deemed a principal and agency relationship, and their rights shall be limited to those conferred upon them by the Plan, the Confirmation Order, and this Agreement.

(c) No Waiver of Claims. In accordance with section 1123(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Sub-Trust B Trustee may enforce all rights to commence and pursue, as appropriate, any and all Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights after the Effective Date. No Person or entity may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Plan to any Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights against them as any indication that the Sub-Trust B Trustee will not pursue any and all available Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights or objections against them. Unless any Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights against a Person or Entity are expressly waived, relinquished, exculpated, released, compromised, or settled in the Plan or an order of the Bankruptcy Court, the Sub-Trust B Trustee expressly reserves all Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights for later adjudication, and, therefore, no preclusion doctrine, including the doctrines of res judicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, estoppel (judicial, equitable, or otherwise), or laches, shall apply to such Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights upon, after, or as a consequence of the Confirmation Order.

(d) Relationship to and Incorporation of the Plan. The principal purpose of this Agreement is to aid in the implementation of the Plan, the Confirmation Order, and the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, and therefore this Agreement incorporates the provisions thereof by reference. To that end, the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall have full power and authority to take any action consistent with the purpose and provisions of the Plan and the Confirmation Order, to seek any orders from the Bankruptcy Court in furtherance of implementation of the Plan that directly affect the interests of Sub-Trust B, and to seek any orders from the Bankruptcy Court solely in furtherance of this Agreement. To the extent there is a conflict between the provisions of this Agreement, the provisions of the Plan, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement and/or the Confirmation Order, each such document shall have controlling effect in the following ranked order: (1) the Confirmation Order; (2) the Plan; (3) the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement; and (4) this Agreement; provided, that the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement shall control over this Agreement with respect to any matters specifically addressed in the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement, and nothing in this Agreement shall modify or expand the obligations of the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors under the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement with respect to any matters addressed therein. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, no provision herein shall be construed or implemented in a manner that would cause the Sub-Trust B to fail to qualify as a "liquidating trust" within the meaning of Section 301.7701-4(d) of the Treasury Regulations.

(e) Capacity of Sub-Trust B. Notwithstanding any state or federal law to the contrary or anything herein, Sub-Trust B shall itself have the capacity, in its own right and name, to act or refrain from acting, including the capacity to sue and be sued and to enter into contracts. Sub-Trust B may alone be the named movant, respondent, party plaintiff or defendant, or the like in all adversary proceedings, contested matters, and other state or federal proceedings brought by or against it, and may settle and compromise all such matters in its own name.

1.6 Appointment as Representative. Pursuant to section 1123(b)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall be the duly appointed representative of the Debtors' Estates for certain limited purposes and, as such, to the extent provided herein, the Sub-Trust B Trustee succeeds to the rights and powers of a trustee in bankruptcy solely with respect to prosecution of Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights and the Tort Claims channeled to this Sub-Trust B.

1.7 Incidents of Ownership. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries shall be the sole beneficiaries of Sub-Trust B, and the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall retain only such incidents of ownership as are necessary to undertake the actions and transactions authorized herein, in the Plan and in the Confirmation Order, including those powers set forth in this Agreement.

1.8 Channeling and Assumption of Tort Claims.

(a) Subject to Section 1.8(g), as of the Effective Date, and immediately following the channeling of such claims to the Master Trust, each Tort Claim, including any and all liability of the Debtors and/or the Reorganized Debtors for any and all Tort Claims shall automatically, and without further act, deed or court order, be channeled to and assumed by Sub-Trust B solely for the purpose of (i) further channeling such Tort Claims to the Tort Sub-Trusts, in whole or in part, as set forth in Section 1.8(b), (ii) prosecuting the Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights, (iii) otherwise directing the administration, processing, liquidation and payment of Other Tort Claims in accordance herewith. In consideration for the assumption by the Tort Sub-Trusts of applicable Tort Claims in accordance therewith, and, if applicable, the acceptance of the Sub-Trust Cooperation Obligations (as defined below) set forth herein, Sub-Trust B shall make the Distributions to the Tort Sub-Trusts as set forth herein.

(b) Set forth on Exhibit A(i) and Exhibit A(ii) hereto are lists of the Tort Sub-Trusts and definitions of the corresponding sub-groups of Tort Claims to be channeled to such Tort Sub-Trusts. Subject to Section 1.8(g), immediately following the channeling of Tort Claims to this Sub-Trust B, (i) 0.1% of each Tort Claim that meets a definition set forth on Exhibit A(i) (the "Two-Step Tort Claims") shall automatically, and without further act, deed or court order, be channeled to and assumed by the corresponding Tort Sub-Trust, and (ii) each Tort Claim that meets a definition set forth on Exhibit A(ii) (the "One-Step Tort Claims") shall automatically, and without further act, deed or court order, be channeled to and assumed by the corresponding Tort Sub-Trust in full. Following such channeling, in whole or in part, distributions, in accordance with the applicable governing documents of the Tort Sub-Trusts, from the Tort Sub-Trusts to which a Tort Claim is channeled in accordance herewith, shall be the sole source of remuneration, if any, in respect of such Tort Claims (except, with respect to Two-Step Tort Claims, for any proceeds arising from the successful prosecution of associated insurance rights, which proceeds are distributed to the corresponding Tort Sub-Trust), and the holder of such Tort Claims shall have no other or further recourse against the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors; provided that, solely with respect to Two-Step Tort Claims, the applicable Tort Sub-Trusts shall be entitled to request assignment of the remaining unchanneled portion of such Claims and the corresponding insurance rights held by Sub-Trust B in accordance with Section 3.3(b), to allow the trustee of such Tort Sub-Trust to direct the administration, processing, liquidation and payment of such Claims, and to prosecute such insurance rights directly. All Tort Claims channeled to a Tort Sub-Trust in accordance herewith shall be administered, liquidated and discharged solely pursuant to, and solely to the extent provided in, the governing documents of the applicable Tort Sub-Trust for such Tort Claim.

(c) In furtherance of the foregoing, any trust to whom a Tort Claim is channeled in full hereunder (whether in a single channeling with respect to One-Stop Tort Claims, or upon the channeling of the remaining 99.9% with respect to Two-Step Tort Claims), except as otherwise provided in the Plan, shall have all defenses, cross-claims, offsets and recoupments, as well as rights of indemnification, contribution, subrogation and similar rights, regarding the Tort Claims that the Debtors and/or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, have, or would have had, under applicable law; provided (i) (ii) that all such defenses, cross-claims, offsets and recoupments regarding any Tort Claim that is channeled to a Tort Sub-Trust in accordance herewith shall be transferred to such Tort Sub-Trust with such Tort Claims, at which point, the Sub-Trust B shall no longer have such defenses, cross-claims, offsets and recoupments regarding such Tort Claims.

(d) No Tort Claim shall be channeled to any Tort Sub-Trust except as and to the extent provided herein. Individual Tort Claims shall be administered and resolved pursuant to, and to the extent provided in, the governing documents of the applicable Tort Sub-Trust to which such Tort Claim is channeled. Distributions from the Tort Sub-Trusts in accordance with their terms shall be the sole source of recovery, if any, in respect of Tort Claims, and holders of Tort Claims have no other or further recourse to the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, the Master Trust or Sub-Trust A on account of such Tort Claims.

(e) The Bankruptcy Court shall have exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether any claim is a Tort Claim and whether any Tort Claim satisfies the requirements under this Agreement to be channeled to a Tort Sub-Trust. Only the following parties shall have standing to participate in any such determination before the Bankruptcy Court after the Effective Date: the Sub-Trust B Trustee, the trustee of the applicable Tort Sub-Trust, the Person seeking to assert such Tort Claim, and any Person against which such Tort Claim is purportedly asserted.

(f) Solely with respect to Two-Step Tort Claims, the 99.9% interest therein retained by this Sub-Trust B on the Effective Date (i) may be assigned along with the corresponding insurance rights held by Sub-Trust B in accordance with Section 3.3(b), (ii) shall be channeled to the applicable Tort Sub-Trust, along with a corresponding distribution of proceeds, if any, upon the successful prosecution of such Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights (whether by settlement, judgment or otherwise), as determined in the Sub-Trust B Trustee's sole and absolute discretion, or (iii) shall be channeled to the applicable Tort Sub-Trust upon the determination of the Sub-Trust B Trustee to abandon further prosecution of such Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights.

(g) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, (i) Talc Claims shall remain at this Sub-Trust B, and shall not be further channeled to the applicable Tort Sub-Trust until the designation of the applicable recipient Tort Sub-Trust in accordance with Section 2.6(a), and (ii) Public Opioid Claims shall remain at this Sub-Trust B, and shall not be further channeled to the applicable Tort Sub-Trust until the designation of the applicable recipient Tort Sub-Trust in accordance with Section 2.5.

(h) For the avoidance of doubt, (i) the partial channeling of Two-Step Tort Claims on the Effective Date contemplated herein is being effected as a matter of convenience and to maximize the potential recovery in respect of such Claims, and (ii) the fractional interest in Two-Step Tort Claims channeled to applicable Tort Sub-Trusts on the Effective Date, and the fractional interest retained by Sub-Trust B on the Effective Date shall in no way affect the distribution entitlements or other rights associated with Sub-Trust B Interests held by such Tort Sub-Trusts.

The Sub-Trust B Trustee, in the exercise of its reasonable business judgment, shall, in an expeditious but orderly manner and subject to the other provisions of the Plan, the Confirmation Order, and this Agreement, liquidate and convert to Cash the Sub-Trust B Assets, make timely distributions in accordance with the terms of the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, and this Agreement, and not unduly prolong the existence of Sub-Trust B. The Sub-Trust B Trustee shall exercise reasonable business judgment and liquidate the Sub-Trust B Assets to maximize net recoveries to the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries; provided, however, that the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall be entitled to take into consideration the risks, timing, and costs of potential actions in making determinations as to the maximization of such recoveries. Such liquidations may be accomplished through the prosecution, compromise and settlement, abandonment, dismissal, or other monetization of any or all of the Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights or otherwise or through the sale or other disposition of the Sub-Trust B Assets (in whole or in combination). Pursuant to an agreed-upon budget in accordance with this Agreement, if any, the Sub-Trust B Trustee may incur any reasonable and necessary expenses in connection with the liquidation of the Sub-Trust B Assets and distribution of the proceeds thereof.

(a) The Sub-Trust B Trustee shall make distributions of the Sub-Trust B Distributable Proceeds to the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries on account of their Sub-Trust B Interests only in accordance with the terms of the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, and this Agreement and from the Sub-Trust B Assets (or income and/or proceeds, realized from the Sub-Trust B Assets), and after the Sub-Trust B Proceeds are received by Sub-Trust B, and only to the extent that Sub-Trust B has sufficient Sub-Trust B Assets (or income and/or proceeds realized from the Ligation Trust Assets) to make such payments in accordance with and to the extent provided for in this Agreement, and the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, and after accounting for any monetary obligations of the Sub-Trust B under the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement. Substantially contemporaneously with any distribution other than the distributions of Committees' Initial Cash Consideration, the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall provide each Sub-Trust B Beneficiary with written notice of such distribution, setting forth the aggregate amount distributed to each type of Sub-Trust B Interest, the source of funds for such distribution, the type of proceeds represented, and reasonably detailed supporting calculations that are sufficient to calculate the amount of Aggregate Eligible Distributable Proceeds required to be distributed by Sub-Trust B in connection with such distribution. For avoidance of doubt, as of the date hereof, it is intent of the parties that (i) the only classes of

[4] "DIP Noteholder Trust Trustee" means U.S. Bank National Trust Association, and any successor thereto, as trustee for the DIP Noteholder Trust

Sub-Trust B Interests that are expected to have multiple direct holders are the Sub-Trust B-1 Interests and the Sub-Trust B-7 Interests, and (ii) the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall make distributions and provide notice, as and to the extent contemplated herein, to (A) the trustees of the Tort Sub-Trusts holding Sub-Trust B-1 Interests, (B) the trustees of the trusts holding Sub-Trust B-2 Interests, Sub-Trust B-3 Interests, Sub-Trust B-4 Interests and Sub-Trust B-5 Interests, (C) the trustee of any trust, or the other applicable entity acting for the Sub-Trust B-6 Interest, as provided in Section 2.5 hereof, and (D) to the individual Claimants holding Sub-Trust B-7 Interests.

(b) In the reasonable discretion of the Sub-Trust B Trustee and subject to the requirements of Treasury Regulation section 301.7701-4(d), the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall distribute no less frequently than annually all Cash on hand (including, but not limited to, the net income and the Sub-Trust B Distributable Proceeds, if any, from any disposition of Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights, any Cash received on account of or representing proceeds, and treating as Cash for purposes of this Section 3.7, and any permitted investments under Section 3.11 below) to the holders of Sub-Trust B Interests in accordance with the Plan, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, and this Agreement; provided, however, that the Sub-Trust B Trustee, may retain proceeds from the Sub-Trust B Assets to fund additional litigation with respect to the Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights in accordance with Section 1.3 of this Agreement and to satisfy other obligations of Sub-Trust B under the Plan, the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement, and this Agreement (including for the payment of Sub-Trust B Expenses). For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 3.7(b) shall not prohibit the Sub-Trust B Trustee from using the Sub-Trust B Assets to timely pay obligations and liabilities of Sub-Trust B duly incurred in accordance with this Agreement or the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement, including with respect to the payment of any Taxes or other amounts owed to Governmental Authorities and to timely compensate consultants, agents, employees, and professionals (including counsel, tax advisors and financial advisors) engaged by Sub-Trust B in accordance with this Agreement to assist the Sub-Trust B Trustee with respect to the Sub-Trust B Trustee's responsibilities.

(c) Any payment of Cash by Sub-Trust B shall be made by the Sub-Trust B Trustee via (i) a check drawn on, or (ii) wire transfer from, a domestic bank selected by the Sub-Trust B Trustee, the option of which shall be in the sole discretion of the Sub-Trust B Trustee. If any distribution to any holder is returned as undeliverable, no distribution to such holder shall be made unless and until the Sub-Trust B Trustee is notified in writing of the then-current address of such holder, at which time such distribution shall be made as soon as reasonably practicable after such distribution has become deliverable or has been claimed to such holder without interest; provided, however, that such distributions shall be made without interest and that such distribution shall be deemed unclaimed property under section 347(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and forfeited at the expiration of six months from the applicable Distribution Date. After such date, all "unclaimed property" or interests in property shall revert to Sub-Trust B (notwithstanding any applicable federal or state escheat, abandoned, or unclaimed property laws to the contrary) for redistribution in accordance with the terms of the Plan, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, and this Agreement, and the Claim of any holder to such property or interest in property shall be forever barred. Nothing contained herein shall require the Sub-Trust B Trustee to attempt to locate any holder of a Sub-Trust B Interest.

(d) The Sub-Trust B Trustee shall make distributions to the DIP Noteholder Trust at U.S. Bank Trust Company, National Association, West Side Flats St Paul, 111 Fillmore Ave., Saint Paul, MN 55107, Attention of: Rite Aid DIP Notes Trust Administrator, Email: benjamin.krueger@usbank.com.

(e) The Sub-Trust B Trustee shall have the authority to enter into agreements with one or more agents ("Distribution Agents") to facilitate the distributions required under the Plan and this Agreement. The Sub-Trust B Trustee may pay to the Distribution Agents all reasonable and documented fees and expenses of the Distribution Agents without the need for any approvals, authorizations, actions, or consents. For the avoidance of doubt, the reasonable and documented fees of the Distribution Agents will be paid by Sub-Trust B and will not be deducted from distributions to be made under the Plan to holders of Sub-Trust B Interests receiving distributions from the Distribution Agent other than in accordance with Section 3.7(b).

(f) The Sub-Trust B Trustee may deduct and withhold Taxes from amounts otherwise distributable to any Entity any and all amounts, determined in the Sub-Trust B Trustee's sole discretion, required by this Agreement, any law, regulation, rule, ruling, directive, treaty, or other governmental requirement in accordance with Section 8.3 hereof.

(g) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, until the final distribution of Sub-Trust B, the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall not be required to make on account of a Sub-Trust B Interest (i) partial distributions or payments of fractions of dollars; (ii) partial distributions or payments of fractions of Sub-Trust B Interests; or (iii) a distribution if the amount to be distributed is or has an economic value of less than $100.00. Any funds so withheld and not distributed shall be held in reserve and distributed in subsequent distributions; provided, that all Cash (including funds withheld in reserve pursuant to the preceding clause) shall be distributed in the final distribution of Sub-Trust B; provided, however, that the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall not be required to make any final distribution on account of a Sub-Trust B Interest in an amount less than $100.00

(h) Any check issued by Sub-Trust B to a Sub-Trust B Beneficiary shall be null and void if not negotiated within 120 days after the issuance of such check. Requests for reissuance of any check shall be made directly to the Sub-Trust B Trustee by the holder of the relevant Sub-Trust B Interest with respect to which such check originally was issued, and if paid, shall be net of any expenses of Sub-Trust B with respect thereto (including any costs incurred to attempt to locate the recipient and any stop-payment or similar bank charges). If any holder of a Sub-Trust B Interest holding an un-negotiated check does not request reissuance of that check within six months after the date the check was mailed or otherwise delivered to the holder, that Sub-Trust B Interest shall be released and the holder thereof shall be forever barred, estopped, and enjoined from asserting any Claim against any of the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors, Sub-Trust B, or the Sub-Trust B Trustee. In such cases, any Cash or Sub-Trust B Interests held for payment on account of such Claims shall be property of Sub-Trust B, free of any Claims of such holder with respect thereto. The Sub-Trust B Trustee may, but is not required to, file with the Bankruptcy Court a list of the holders of any un-negotiated checks. Nothing contained herein shall require the Sub-Trust B Trustee to attempt to locate any holder of a Sub-Trust B Interest.

(i) For the avoidance of doubt, and notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall have no obligation to pay any amounts in respect of prepetition deductibles or self-insured retention amounts with respect to Claims covered by the Reorganized Debtors' insurance policies. Any obligation to pay any amounts in respect of prepetition deductibles or self-insured retention amounts with respect to Claims covered by the Debtors' insurance policies shall be determined by applicable law.

(j) Subject to Sections 3.10, 3.11, and 3.12 hereof, any non-Cash property of Sub-Trust B may be sold, transferred, abandoned, or otherwise disposed of by the Sub-Trust B Trustee. Notice of such sale, transfer, abandonment, or disposition shall be provided to the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries pursuant to the reporting obligations provided in Section 3.15 of this Agreement. If, in the Sub-Trust B Trustee's reasonable judgment, such property cannot be sold in a commercially reasonable manner, or the Sub-Trust B Trustee believes, in good faith, such property has no consequential value to Sub-Trust B, the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall have the right, in consultation with the Sub-Trust A Trustee to abandon or otherwise dispose of such property; provided, to the extent the proceeds from such property would be payable, in whole or in part, to the holders of the Sub-Trust B-2 Interest, the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall not abandon or otherwise dispose of such property without the consent (not to be unreasonably withheld) of the Sub-Trust A Trustee. Except in the case of fraud or willful misconduct, no party in interest shall have a cause of action against Sub-Trust B, the Sub-Trust B Trustee, or any of their directors, officers, employees, consultants, or professionals arising from or related to the disposition of non-Cash property in accordance with this Section 3.7(j).

(k) Any payment or distribution due on a day other than a Business Day shall be made, without interest, on the next Business Day.

Professionals engaged by the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall not be required to file applications to receive compensation for services rendered and reimbursement of actual out-of-pocket expenses incurred. Unless an alternative fee arrangement has been agreed to (either by order of the Bankruptcy Court or with the consent of the Sub-Trust B Trustee), professionals retained by the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall be compensated, pursuant to Section 1.3 hereof, from the proceeds of Sub-Trust B Funding, the proceeds of Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights, or other Sub-Trust B Assets.

3.9 Agreements. Pursuant to the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, and the other provisions of this Agreement, the Sub-Trust B Trustee may enter into any agreement or execute any document required by or consistent with the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, or this Agreement and perform all of Sub-Trust B's obligations thereunder.

3.10 Management of Sub-Trust B Assets.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, or this Agreement, and subject to Treasury Regulations governing liquidating trusts and the retained jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court as provided for in the Plan, but without prior or further authorization, the Sub-Trust B Trustee may control and exercise authority over the Sub-Trust B Assets, over the management and disposition thereof, and over the management and conduct of Sub-Trust B, in each case, as necessary or advisable to enable the Sub-Trust B Trustee to fulfill the intents and purposes of this Agreement. No Person dealing with Sub-Trust B will be obligated to inquire into the authority of the Sub-Trust B Trustee in connection with the acquisition, management, or disposition of the Sub-Trust B Assets.

(b) In connection with the management and use of the Sub-Trust B Assets and except as otherwise expressly limited in the Plan, the Confirmation Order, or this Agreement, Sub-Trust B will have, in addition to any powers conferred upon Sub-Trust B by any other provision of this Agreement, the power to take any and all actions as, in the Sub-Trust B Trustee's discretion, are necessary or advisable to effectuate the primary purposes of Sub-Trust B, subject to any approvals or direction of the Sub-Trust A Trustee as set forth herein or the Confirmation Order, including, without limitation, the power and authority to (i) pay taxes and other obligations owed by Sub-Trust B or incurred by the Sub-Trust B Trustee; (ii) engage and compensate consultants, agents, employees, and professional persons to assist the Sub-Trust B Trustee with respect to the Sub-Trust B Trustee's responsibilities; (iii) commence and/or pursue any and all actions involving the Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights that could arise or be asserted at any time, unless otherwise waived or relinquished in the Plan, the Confirmation Order, or this Agreement; (iv) act and implement the Plan, this Agreement, and orders of the Bankruptcy Court; and (v) take any action or engage in any activities that are necessary to have the Sub-Trust B treated as a liquidating trust within the meaning of Treasury Regulation Section 301.7701-4(d) and taxable as a grantor trust pursuant to sections 671–77 of the IRC.

3.11 Investment of Cash. The right and power of the Sub-Trust B Trustee to invest Sub-Trust B Assets, the proceeds thereof, or any income earned by Sub-Trust B shall be limited to the right and power to invest in such Sub-Trust B Assets only in Cash and U.S. Government securities as defined in section 2(a)(16) of the Investment Company Act, and money market funds; provided, however, that (a) the scope of any such permissible investments shall be further limited to include only those investments that a liquidating trust within the meaning of Treasury Regulation Section 301.7701-4(d), may be permitted to hold, pursuant to the Treasury Regulations, or any modification in the IRS guidelines, whether set forth in IRS rulings, other IRS pronouncements, or otherwise, as applicable, and (b) the Sub-Trust B Trustee may expend the assets of Sub-Trust B (i) as reasonably necessary to meet contingent liabilities and maintain the value of the assets of Sub-Trust B during liquidation, (ii) to pay reasonable administrative expenses (including, but not limited to, any taxes imposed on Sub-Trust B or reasonable fees and expenses in connection with litigation), and (iii) to satisfy other liabilities incurred or assumed by Sub-Trust B (or to which the assets are otherwise subject) in accordance with the Plan or this Agreement.

3.12 Additional Powers of the Sub-Trust B Trustee. In addition to any and all of the powers enumerated above, and except as otherwise provided in the Plan, the Confirmation Order, or this Agreement, and subject to the IRC sections governing grantor trusts and Treasury Regulations governing liquidating trusts and the retained jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court as provided for in the Plan, the Sub-Trust B Trustee, shall be empowered to:

(a) hold legal title to any and all rights in or arising from the Sub-Trust B Assets, including, but not limited to, the right to collect any and all money and other property belonging to Sub-Trust B (including any proceeds of the Sub-Trust B Assets) and to open and maintain any bank account(s) in connection therewith;

(g) take any other action or engage in any investments or activities that would jeopardize treatment of Sub-Trust B as a liquidating trust that is taxable as a "grantor trust" for U.S. federal and applicable state and local income tax purposes.

3.14 Books and Records. The Sub-Trust B Trustee shall maintain books and records relating to the Sub-Trust B Assets and income of Sub-Trust B and the payment of, expenses of, and liabilities of claims against or assumed by, Sub-Trust B in such detail and for such period of time as may be necessary to enable it to make full and proper accounting in respect thereof and in accordance with applicable law, and the Sub-Trust B Trustee may abandon or destroy, as appropriate, such books and records, in its discretion and without the need for Bankruptcy Court approval, at such time as the Sub-Trust B Trustee determines such books and records are of inconsequential value to Sub-Trust B. Such books and records shall be maintained as reasonably necessary to facilitate compliance with the tax reporting requirements of Sub-Trust B. Nothing in this Agreement requires the Sub-Trust B Trustee to file any accounting or seek approval of any court with respect to the administration of Sub-Trust B or as a condition for managing any payment or distribution out of the Sub-Trust B Assets.

3.15 Reporting and Access to Information.

(a) The Sub-Trust B Trustee shall cause to be prepared financial and other reports as, in the determination of the Sub-Trust B Trustee, are necessary or desirable for administering Sub-Trust B, and as are otherwise in furtherance of the intents and purposes of this Agreement. Without limitation, the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall also cause to be timely prepared and distributed such additional statements, reports and submissions (x) as may be necessary to cause Sub-Trust B to be in compliance with applicable law, or (y) as may be otherwise required from time to time by the Bankruptcy Court.

(b) The Sub-Trust B Trustee may provide to the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries a bi-annual statement in narrative form briefly describing the activities of Sub-Trust A during the preceding six months, in such detail and covering such matters as the Sub-Trust A Trustee determines is appropriate in its discretion.

(c) The Sub-Trust B Trustee shall make reasonable efforts to provide to the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries a reasonably detailed report every six months (with the first such report due at the end of the first quarter ending more than six months after the Effective Date) regarding (i) the status of its monetization efforts with respect to the Sub-Trust B Assets, which may, in the Trustee's discretion, include information regarding any settlements or judgments agreed or entered into during the applicable quarter(s), (ii) any material developments in material pending disputes, and (iii) such other matters as the Sub-Trust B Trustee determines is appropriate in his discretion.

(d) The Sub-Trust B Trustee shall cooperate in good faith and use its commercially reasonable efforts to (i) revise future forms of such report to address reasonable comments and requests from the Sub-Trust A Trustee, and (ii) respond to reasonable inquiries and requests for information regarding the operations of Sub-Trust B from the Sub-Trust A Trustee.

(e) Section 3819(a) of the Trust Act notwithstanding, Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries shall have the right to obtain from Sub-Trust B only a copy of the governing instrument and Certificate of Trust and all amendments thereto, together with copies of any written powers of attorney pursuant to which the governing instrument and any certificate and any amendments thereto have executed.

(f) The Sub-Trust B Trustee shall be entitled to comply with the requirement of this section by, among other things, (i) posting a copy of any required reports on a website maintained by the Sub-Trust B Trustee or the Reorganized Debtors and made available to the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries; (ii) a filing with the Bankruptcy Court with service on creditors requesting notices pursuant to Rule 2002 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, or (iii) provide its reports directly to Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries, via email or other communication.

3.16 Bankruptcy Court Approval. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall not be required to obtain any order or approval of the Bankruptcy Court or any other court of competent jurisdiction, or account to the Bankruptcy Court or any other court of competent jurisdiction, for the exercise of any right, power or privilege conferred hereunder.

ARTICLE IV

The Sub-Trust B Trustee shall not hold a financial interest in, act as a representative, attorney, consultant or agent for or serve as any other professional for the Debtors, or their affiliated persons.

4.2 Sub-Trust B Trustee's Compensation and Reimbursement.

(a) Compensation. The Sub-Trust B Trustee shall receive compensation from Sub-Trust B as provided on Exhibit C, hereto. Notice of any modification of the Sub-Trust B Trustee's compensation shall be posted on Sub-Trust B 's website, if any; provided that no such modification shall be effected without the prior written consent (not to be unreasonably withheld) of the Sub-Trust A Trustee.

(b) Expenses. Sub-Trust B will reimburse the Sub-Trust B Trustee for all actual, reasonable, and documented out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Sub-Trust B Trustee in connection with the performance of the duties of the Sub-Trust B Trustee hereunder or under the Confirmation Order or the Plan, including but not limited to, actual, reasonable, and documented fees and disbursements of the Sub-Trust B Trustee's legal counsel incurred in connection with the preparation, execution, and delivery of this Agreement and related documents.

(c) Payment. The fees and expenses payable to the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall be paid to the Sub-Trust B Trustee without necessity for review or approval by the Bankruptcy Court or any other Person. The Bankruptcy Court shall retain non-exclusive jurisdiction to adjudicate any dispute regarding the fees, compensation, and expenses of the Sub-Trust B Trustee.

4.3 Resignation. The Sub-Trust B Trustee may resign by giving not less than 90 days' prior written notice thereof to legal counsel retained by Sub-Trust B in accordance with Section

3.8 herein (the "Sub-Trust B Counsel"). Such resignation shall become effective on the later to occur of: (a) the day specified in such notice, and (b) the appointment of a successor Sub-Trust B Trustee, pursuant to Section 4.5 herein, and the acceptance by such successor of such appointment. If a successor Sub-Trust B Trustee is not appointed or does not accept its appointment within 90 days following delivery of notice of resignation, Sub-Trust B Counsel may select a replacement Sub-Trust B Trustee. Notwithstanding the foregoing, upon the Termination Date (as defined in Section 9.1 below), the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall be deemed to have resigned, except as otherwise provided for in Section 9.2 herein.

4.4 Removal.

(a) The Sub-Trust B Trustee, and any successor Sub-Trust B Trustee appointed by Sub-Trust B Counsel, may be removed, for Cause by Sub-Trust B Counsel or, following good faith consultation with the Sub-Trust A Trustee, immediately upon notice thereof, or without Cause, upon 90 days' prior written notice. "Cause" shall mean:

(i) such person's conviction of any felony or the filing of any indictment or any criminal information against such person in respect of any crime involving moral turpitude;

(ii) any act or failure to act by such person involving actual dishonesty, willful misconduct, fraud, material misrepresentation, theft, or embezzlement;

(iii) such person's willful and repeated failure to perform their duties under this Agreement or the Trust Act; or

(iv) such person's incapacity, such that they presently are, and are expected to be for more than ninety (90) consecutive days, unable to substantially perform their duties under this Agreement or the Trust Act.

(b) To the extent there is any dispute regarding the removal of a Sub-Trust B Trustee (including any dispute relating to any compensation or expense reimbursement due under this Agreement), the Bankruptcy Court shall retain jurisdiction to consider and adjudicate any such dispute. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Sub-Trust B Trustee will continue to serve as the Sub-Trust B Trustee after their removal until the earlier of (i) the time when appointment of a successor Sub-Trust B Trustee will become effective in accordance with Section 4.5 of this Agreement or (ii) such date as the Bankruptcy Court otherwise orders.

4.5 Appointment of Successor Sub-Trust B Trustee.

(a) In the event of the death or disability (in the case of a Sub-Trust B Trustee that is a natural person), dissolution (in the case of a Sub-Trust B Trustee that is not a natural person), resignation, incompetency, or removal of the Sub-Trust B Trustee, Sub-Trust B Counsel shall designate a successor Sub-Trust B Trustee. Such appointment shall specify the date on which such appointment shall be effective. Every successor Sub-Trust B Trustee appointed hereunder shall execute, acknowledge, and deliver to Sub-Trust B Counsel an instrument accepting the appointment under this Agreement and agreeing to be bound as Sub-Trust B Trustee thereto, and thereupon the successor Sub-Trust B Trustee, without any further act, deed, or conveyance, shall become vested with all rights, powers, trusts, and duties of the retiring Sub-Trust B Trustee and the successor Sub-Trust B Trustee shall not be personally liable for any act or omission of the predecessor Sub-Trust B Trustee; provided, however, that a removed or resigning Sub-Trust B Trustee shall, nevertheless, when requested in writing by the successor Sub-Trust B Trustee, execute and deliver an instrument or instruments conveying and transferring to such successor Sub-Trust B Trustee under Sub-Trust B all the estates, properties, rights, powers, and trusts of such predecessor Sub-Trust B Trustee and otherwise assist and cooperate, without cost or expense to the predecessor Sub-Trust B Trustee, in effectuating the assumption of its obligations and functions by the successor Sub-Trust B Trustee.

(b) During any period in which there is a vacancy in the position of Sub-Trust B Trustee, Sub-Trust B Counsel shall appoint someone to serve as interim Sub-Trust B Trustee (the "Interim Trustee") until a successor Sub-Trust B Trustee is appointed pursuant to Section 4.5(a) herein and the acceptance by such successor of such appointment. The Interim Trustee shall be subject to all the terms and conditions applicable to a Sub-Trust B Trustee hereunder.

4.6 Effect of Resignation or Removal. The death, disability, dissolution, bankruptcy, resignation, incompetency, incapacity, or removal of the Sub-Trust B Trustee, as applicable, shall not operate to terminate Sub-Trust B created by this Agreement or to revoke any existing agency created pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or invalidate any action theretofore taken by the Sub-Trust B Trustee or any prior Sub-Trust B Trustee. In the event of the resignation or removal of the Sub-Trust B Trustee, such Sub-Trust B Trustee will promptly (a) execute and deliver such documents, instruments, and other writings as may be reasonably requested by Sub-Trust B Counsel or the successor Sub-Trust B Trustee to effect the termination of such Sub-Trust B Trustee's capacity under this Agreement, (b) deliver to Sub-Trust B Counsel, and/or the successor Sub-Trust B Trustee all documents, instruments, records, and other writings related to Sub-Trust B as may be in the possession of such Sub-Trust B Trustee (provided, however, that such Sub-Trust B Trustee may retain one copy of such documents for archival purposes), and (c) otherwise assist and cooperate in effecting the assumption of its obligations and functions by such successor Sub-Trust B Trustee.

4.7 Appointment of Supplemental Sub-Trust B Trustee. If the Sub-Trust B Trustee determines that he has a conflict of interest or any of the Sub-Trust B Assets are situated in any state or other jurisdiction in which the Sub-Trust B Trustee is not qualified to act as trustee, the Sub-Trust B Trustee may nominate and appoint a Person duly qualified to act as trustee (the "Supplemental Sub-Trust B Trustee") with respect to such conflict, or in such state or jurisdiction, and require from each such Supplemental Sub-Trust B Trustee such security as may be designated by the Sub-Trust B Trustee in his discretion. In the event the Sub-Trust B Trustee is unable to appoint a disinterested Person to act as Supplemental Sub-Trust B Trustee to handle any such matter, he may seek an order of the Bankruptcy Court appointing such a Supplemental Sub-Trust B Trustee. The Sub-Trust B Trustee or the Bankruptcy Court, as applicable, may confer upon such Supplemental Sub-Trust B Trustee such rights, powers, privileges and duties of the Sub-Trust B Trustee hereunder that the Sub-Trust B Trustee cannot perform, subject to the conditions and limitations of this Agreement, except as modified or limited by the laws of the applicable state or other jurisdiction (in which case, the laws of the state or other jurisdiction in which such Supplemental Sub-Trust B Trustee is acting shall prevail to the extent necessary). The Sub-Trust B Trustee shall require such Supplemental Sub-Trust B Trustee to be answerable to the Sub-Trust B Trustee for all monies, assets and other property that may be received in connection with the administration of all property. The Sub-Trust B Trustee or the Bankruptcy Court, as applicable, may remove such Supplemental Sub-Trust B Trustee, with or without cause, and appoint a successor Supplemental Sub-Trust B Trustee at any time by executing a written instrument declaring such Supplemental Sub-Trust B Trustee removed from office and specifying the effective date and time of removal.

4.8 Confidentiality. The Sub-Trust B Trustee shall, during the period that the Sub-Trust B Trustee serves as Sub-Trust B Trustee under this Agreement and following the termination of this Agreement or following such Sub-Trust B Trustee's removal or resignation hereunder, hold strictly confidential and not use for personal gain any non-public information of or pertaining to any Person to which any of the Sub-Trust B Assets relates or of which the Sub-Trust B Trustee has become aware in the Sub-Trust B Trustee's capacity as Sub-Trust B Trustee, except as otherwise required by law.

(a) The Sub-Trust B Trustee (i) shall, as and when required under the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, this Agreement, or the Trust Act, and (ii) may when requested by the Sub-Trust A Trustee, or when the Sub-Trust B Trustee deems it to be appropriate, consult with the Sub-Trust A Trustee as to the administration and management of Sub-Trust B in accordance with the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, and this Agreement.

(b) The Sub-Trust B Trustee shall cooperate in providing information to the Sub-Trust A Trustee in accordance with and pursuant to the terms of the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, the Plan, the Confirmation Order and this Agreement to enable the Sub-Trust A Trustee to meet its obligations hereunder, or as otherwise reasonably requested by the Sub-Trust A Trustee.

5.2 Meetings of the Sub-Trust B Trustee and the Sub-Trust A Trustee. The Sub-Trust B Trustee and Sub-Trust A Trustee shall consult with each other as they deem necessary.

ARTICLE VI
THE DELAWARE TRUSTEE

6.1 Appointment. The Delaware Trustee shall act solely for the purpose of complying with the requirement of section 3807 of the Trust Act, and its powers and obligations hereunder shall have become effective upon the Effective Date.

6.2 Powers.

(a) Notwithstanding any provision hereof to the contrary, the duties and responsibilities of the Delaware Trustee shall be limited solely to (i) accepting legal process served on the Sub-Trust B in the State of Delaware and (ii) the execution of any certificates required to be filed with the office of the Delaware Secretary of State that the Delaware Trustee is required to execute under section 3811 of the Trust Act at the written direction of the Sub Trust B Trustee (including without limitation the certificate of trust of Sub-Trust B as required by sections 3810 and 3820 of the Trust Act (the "Certificate of Trust")). Except as provided in the foregoing sentence, the Delaware Trustee shall have no management responsibilities or owe any fiduciary duties to Sub-Trust B, the Sub-Trust B Trustee, the Sub-Trust A Trustee, the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries, or any other Person receiving a distribution from Sub-Trust B hereunder. The filing of the Certificate of Trust with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware as provided under the Trust Act is hereby ratified.

(b) By its execution hereof, the Delaware Trustee accepts the trusteeship of Sub-Trust B on the terms set forth herein. The Delaware Trustee shall not have any duty or liability with respect to the administration of Sub-Trust B (except as otherwise expressly set forth in Section 6.2(a) hereof), the investment of the Sub-Trust B Assets or the distribution of the Sub-Trust B Assets to the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries, and no such duties shall be implied. To the extent that, at law or in equity, the Delaware Trustee has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating to Sub-Trust B, the Sub-Trust B Trustee, or the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries, such duties and liabilities are replaced by the duties and liabilities of the Delaware Trustee expressly set forth in this Agreement. The Delaware Trustee shall not be liable for the acts or omissions of the Sub-Trust B Trustee, the Sub-Trust A Trustee, nor shall the Delaware Trustee be liable for supervising or monitoring the performance of the duties and obligations of the Sub-Trust B Trustee, the Sub-Trust A Trustee, or any other Person (including, without limitation, any affiliate of the Delaware Trustee appointed to act as a custodian or otherwise hereunder) under this Agreement. The Delaware Trustee shall not be obligated to give any bond or other security for the performance of any of its duties hereunder. The Delaware Trustee shall not be personally liable under any circumstances, except for its own gross negligence or willful misconduct in the performance of its express duties under this Agreement. Without limiting the foregoing:

(i) The Delaware Trustee shall not be personally liable for any error of judgment made in good faith, except to the extent such error of judgment constitutes willful misconduct or bad faith in the performance of its express duties under this Agreement (the "Excluded Matters");

(ii) the Delaware Trustee shall not have any duty or obligation to manage or deal with the Sub-Trust B Assets, or to otherwise take or refrain from taking any action under this Agreement except as expressly provided in Section 6.2(a) hereof, and no implied trustee duties or obligations shall be deemed to be imposed on the Delaware Trustee;

(iii) no provision of this Agreement shall require the Delaware Trustee to expend or risk its personal funds or otherwise incur any financial liability in the performance of its rights or powers hereunder if the Delaware Trustee has reasonable grounds to believe that the payment of such funds or adequate indemnity against such risk or liability is not reasonably assured or provided to it;

(iv) the Delaware Trustee shall not be personally liable for the validity or sufficiency of this Agreement, the value or sufficiency of the Sub-Trust B Assets, or for the due execution hereof by the other Parties hereto;

(v) the Delaware Trustee may request the Sub-Trust B Trustee to provide a certificate with regard to any fact or matter the manner of ascertainment of which is not specifically prescribed herein, and such certificate shall constitute full protection to the Delaware Trustee for any action taken or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in reliance thereon;

(vi) in the exercise of its duties hereunder, the Delaware Trustee (i) may act directly or through agents or attorneys pursuant to agreements entered into with any of them and shall not be liable for the acts or omissions of any agents or attorneys selected by it in good faith (absent a conflict with the Sub-Trust B Trustee or a requirement for advice under the laws of a particular jurisdiction, the Delaware Trustee may rely on the counsel selected by the Sub-Trust B Trustee), and (ii) may consult with counsel selected by it in good faith and employed by it, and it shall not be liable for anything done, suffered, or omitted in good faith by it in accordance with the advice or opinion of any such counsel;

(vii) the Delaware Trustee acts solely as Delaware Trustee hereunder and not in its individual capacity, and, except with respect to Excluded Matters, all persons having any claim against the Delaware Trustee by reason of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall look only to the Sub-Trust B Assets for payment or satisfaction thereof;

(viii) except with respect to Excluded Matters, the Delaware Trustee shall not be personally liable for any representation, warranty, covenant, agreement, or indebtedness of Sub-Trust B;

(ix) the Delaware Trustee shall not incur liability to anyone in acting upon any signature, instrument, notice, resolution, request, consent, order, certificate, report, opinion, bond, or other document or paper reasonably believed by it to be genuine and reasonably believed by it to be signed by the proper party or parties. As to any fact or matter the manner of ascertainment of which is not specifically prescribed herein, the Delaware Trustee may for all purposes hereof rely on a certificate, signed by an officer of Sub-Trust B, as to such fact or matter, and such certificate shall constitute full protection to the Delaware Trustee for any action taken or omitted to be taken by it in good faith in reliance thereon;

(x) the Delaware Trustee shall not be liable for punitive, exemplary, consequential, special, or other damages for a breach of this Agreement under any circumstances; and

(xi) in connection with any of the Claims, Sub-Trust B Trust Assets, documents, and information related to duties of the Delaware Trustee, and any Causes of Action, any attorney-client privilege, work-product privilege, joint interest privilege, or other privilege or immunity (collectively, the "Privileges") attaching to or arising in or in connection with any documents, data, information, or communications (whether written, electronic, or oral) shall apply to and inure to the benefit of the Delaware Trustee and its representatives, and the Delaware Trustee is authorized to and shall take necessary actions to effectuate the transfer of such Privileges. The Delaware Trustee's receipt of the Privileges shall not operate as a waiver or limitation of any Privileges held and retained by the Debtors;

(xii) the Delaware Trustee shall be authorized to take such action as the Sub-Trust B Trustee specifically directs in written instructions delivered to the Delaware Trustee and shall have no liability for acting in accordance therewith; provided, however, the forgoing shall not be construed to require the Delaware Trustee to take any action in excess of its express duties under this Agreement;

(xiii) no permissive authority of the Delaware Trustee shall be construed as a duty or imply discretion on the part of the Delaware Trustee;

(xiv) notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Delaware Trustee shall not be required to take any action that is in violation of applicable law;

(xv) except as otherwise specifically provided herein, it shall be the duty and responsibility of the Sub-Trust B Trustee (and not the Delaware Trustee) to cause the Trust to comply with, respond to, defend, participate in or otherwise act in connection with any regulatory, administrative, governmental, investigative or other obligation, proceeding or inquiry relating in any way to the Sub-Trust B Trust, its assets or the conduct of its business;

(xvi) the Delaware Trustee shall neither be responsible for, nor chargeable with, knowledge of the terms and conditions of any other agreement, instrument, or document, other than this Sub-Trust B Trust Agreement, whether or not, an original or a copy of such agreement has been provided to the Delaware Trustee. Delivery of reports, information and documents to the Delaware Trustee is for informational purposes only and neither the Delaware Trustee's receipt of the foregoing, nor publicly available information shall constitute constructive notice of any information contained therein or determinable from information contained therein. The Delaware Trustee may rely on the accuracy of any document delivered to it and shall have no responsibility to verify the accuracy of it or be required to calculate or verify any numerical information in it. Neither the Delaware Trustee nor any of its directors, officers, employees, agents or affiliates shall be responsible for nor have any duty to monitor the performance or any action of Sub-Trust B, the Sub-Trust B Trustee or any other person, or any of their directors, members, officers, agents, affiliates or employee, nor shall it have any liability in connection with the malfeasance or nonfeasance by such party. The Delaware Trustee may assume performance by all such persons of their respective obligations. The Delaware Trustee shall have no enforcement or notification obligations relating to breaches of representations or warranties of any other person. The Delaware Trustee shall have no responsibilities (except as expressly set forth herein) as to the validity, sufficiency, value, genuineness, enforceability, ownership or transferability of any Sub-Trust B Trust Assets, written instructions, or any other documents in connection therewith, and will not be regarded as making, nor be required to make, any representations thereto, nor shall the Delaware Trustee have any duty to prepare, authorize or file and financing statements, continuation statements or amendments thereto;

(xvii) The Delaware Trustee shall not be responsible or liable for any failure or delay in the performance of its obligations under this Sub-Trust B Trust Agreement arising out of, or caused, directly or indirectly, by circumstances beyond its control, including without limitation, any act or provision of any present or future law or regulation or governmental authority; acts of God; earthquakes; fires; floods; wars; terrorism; civil or military disturbances; sabotage; epidemics or pandemics; riots; interruptions, loss or malfunctions of utilities, computer (hardware or software) or communications service; accidents; labor disputes; acts of civil or military authority or governmental actions; or the unavailability of the Federal Reserve Bank wire or telex or other wire or communication.

6.3 Compensation.

The Delaware Trustee shall be entitled to receive compensation as Sub-Trust B Expenses for the services that the Delaware Trustee performs in accordance with this Trust Agreement and in accordance with such fee schedules as shall be agreed from time to time by the Delaware Trustee and the Trustee. The Delaware Trustee may also consult with counsel (who may be Sub-Trust B Counsel) with respect to those matters that relate to the Delaware Trustee's role as the Delaware Trustee of Sub-Trust B, and the reasonable legal fees incurred in connection with such consultation and any other reasonable out-of-pocket expenses of the Delaware Trustee shall be reimbursed by Sub-Trust B. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, in addition to Sub-Trust B's responsibility for the fees and expenses of, and all other obligations to, the Delaware Trustee hereunder, Sub-Trust B shall also be responsible for 50% of the fees and expenses (including, but not limited to, any indemnification obligations) owed to the Delaware Trustee in connection with the Delaware Trustee's services to the Master Trust; provided however that, in the event of the incurrence of indemnity obligations by the Master Trust, the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall cooperate in good faith with the Sub-Trust A Trustee to reasonably allocate the responsibility for such indemnification obligations between Sub-Trust B and Sub-Trust A based on the facts and circumstances underlying the indemnification obligation, provided further however that if the Sub-Trust B Trustee and the Sub-Trust A Trustee are unable to agree on such allocation, either such Trustee shall be entitled to file a motion before the Bankruptcy Court requesting it determine such allocation.

6.4 Duration and Replacement.

The Delaware Trustee shall serve for the duration of Sub-Trust B or until the earlier of (i) the effective date of the Delaware Trustee's resignation, or (ii) the effective date of the removal of the Delaware Trustee. The Delaware Trustee may resign at any time by giving thirty (30) days written notice to the Sub-Trust B Trustee provided, however, that such resignation shall not be effective until such time as a successor Delaware Trustee has accepted appointment. The Delaware

Trustee may be removed by the Sub-Trust B Trustee, in consultation with the Sub-Trust A Trustee, by providing thirty (30) days written notice to the Delaware Trustee; provided, however, that such removal shall not be effective until such time as a successor Delaware Trustee has accepted appointment. Upon the resignation or removal of the Delaware Trustee, the Sub-Trust B Trustee, in consultation with the Sub-Trust A Trustee, shall appoint a successor Delaware Trustee. The Delaware Trustee may petition the Bankruptcy Court for the appointment of a successor Delaware Trustee. Any successor Delaware Trustee appointed pursuant to this Section shall be eligible to act in such capacity in accordance with this Agreement and, following compliance with this Section, shall become fully vested with the rights, powers, duties, and obligations of its predecessor under this Agreement, with like effect as if originally named as Delaware Trustee. Any such successor Delaware Trustee shall notify the Delaware Trustee of its appointment by providing written notice to the Delaware Trustee and upon receipt of such notice, the Delaware Trustee shall be discharged of its duties herein. Any such successor Delaware Trustee shall also file any amendment to the Certificate of Trust to the extent required by the Trust Act or as otherwise reasonably requested by the Sub-Trust B Trustee. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, any business entity into which the Delaware Trustee may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated or any entity resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Delaware Trustee shall be a party, or any entity succeeding to all or substantially all of the corporate trust business of the Delaware Trustee, shall be the successor of the Delaware Trustee hereunder, without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto.

7.1 Limitation of Liability. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement, the Plan, or the Confirmation Order to the contrary, to the maximum extent provided for under the Trust Act, none of the Sub-Trust B Trustee, the Delaware Trustee, nor any of their respective principals, advisors, or professionals, each of the foregoing, in their capacity as such, shall be liable to Sub-Trust B or any Sub-Trust B Beneficiary for any Claim arising out of, or in connection with, the creation, operation, or termination of the Sub-Trust B, including actions taken or omitted in fulfillment of such parties' duties with respect to the Sub-Trust B, nor shall such parties incur any responsibility or liability by reason of any error of law or of any matter or thing done or suffered or omitted to be done under this Agreement, except as may be determined by Final Order to have arisen out of such party's bad faith or willful misconduct (and, in the case of the Delaware Trustee, in the performance of its express duties under this Agreement); provided that in no event will any such party be liable for punitive, exemplary, consequential, or special damages under any circumstances. Furthermore, none of the Sub-Trust B Trustee, the Delaware Trustee, nor any of their respective principals, advisors, or professionals shall be liable to the Sub-Trust B or any Sub-Trust B Beneficiary for any action or inaction taken in good faith reliance upon the advice of the professionals retained by the Sub-Trust B to the maximum extent provided for under the Trust Act, or in reliance upon any order of the Bankruptcy Court.

(a) Upon the appointment of a successor Sub-Trust B Trustee as provided in Section 4.5 hereof, or the appointment of a successor Delaware Trustee, the predecessor Sub-Trust B Trustee, or the predecessor Delaware Trustee, as the case may be, and each of their respective accountants, agents, assigns, attorneys, bankers, consultants, directors, employees, executors, financial advisors, investment bankers, real estate brokers, transfer agents, independent contractors, managers, members, officers, partners, predecessors, principals, professional persons, representatives, affiliates, employers, and successors shall have no further liability or responsibility with respect thereto, except to the extent arising out of any act or failure to act by such person prior to such appointment. A successor Sub-Trust B Trustee or successor Delaware Trustee shall have no duty to examine or inquire into the acts or omissions of its immediate or remote predecessor, and no successor Sub-Trust B Trustee or successor Delaware Trustee shall be in any way liable for the acts or omissions of any predecessor Sub-Trust B Trustee or predecessor Delaware Trustee, unless such party expressly assumes such responsibility. A predecessor Sub-Trust B Trustee or predecessor Delaware Trustee shall have no liability for the acts or omissions of any immediate or subsequent successor Sub-Trust B Trustee or successor Delaware Trustee for any events or occurrences subsequent to the cessation of its role.

(b) None of the Sub-Trust B Trustee nor the Delaware Trustee, when acting in such capacities, shall be subject to any personal liability whatsoever, whether in tort, contract, or otherwise, to any Person, other than the Sub-Trust B or the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries, in connection with the affairs of the Sub-Trust B to the fullest extent provided under section 3803 of the Trust Act, and all persons claiming against any of the Sub-Trust B Trustee or the Delaware Trustee, or otherwise asserting Claims of any nature in connection with affairs of the Sub-Trust B, shall look solely to the Sub-Trust B Assets for satisfaction of any such Claims.

(c) Except as expressly provided herein, nothing in this Agreement shall be, or be deemed to be, an assumption, covenant, or agreement to assume or accept, any liability, obligation, or duty, (x) by the Sub-Trust B Trustee or the Delaware Trustee of any of the liabilities, obligations, or duties of the Reorganized Debtors or (y) by the Reorganized Debtors of any of the liabilities, obligations, or duties of the Sub-Trust B, the Sub-Trust B Trustee, or the Delaware Trustee. For the avoidance of doubt, none of the Debtors nor Reorganized Debtors shall have any liability or obligation with respect to indemnification or reimbursement under this Agreement.

7.2 Indemnification.

(a) From and after the Effective Date, each of the Sub-Trust B Trustee, the Delaware Trustee, and the professionals of Sub-Trust B and their representatives and professionals (each, a "Sub-Trust B Trust Indemnified Party," and collectively, the "Sub-Trust B Trust Indemnified Parties") shall be, and each of them hereby is, indemnified by Sub-Trust B Trust, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, including the Trust Act, from and against any and all Claims, debts, dues, accounts, actions, suits, Causes of Action (including, without limitation, any suit or other enforcement action brought to enforce indemnity obligations under this Agreement), bonds, covenants, judgments, damages, reasonable attorneys' fees, defense costs, and other assertions of liability arising out of any such Sub-Trust B Trust Indemnified Party's exercise of what such Sub-Trust B Trust Indemnified Party reasonably understands to be its powers or the discharge of what such Sub-Trust B Trust Indemnified Party reasonably understands to be its duties conferred by the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement or this Agreement, any order of the Bankruptcy Court entered pursuant to, or in furtherance of, the Plan, applicable law, or otherwise (except only for actions or omissions to act to the extent determined by a Final Order to be due to such Sub-Trust B Trust Indemnified Party's own fraud or willful misconduct on and after the Effective Date). The foregoing indemnification shall also extend to matters directly or indirectly in connection with, arising out of, based on, or in any way related to: (i) this Agreement; (ii) the services to be rendered pursuant to this Agreement; (iii) any document or information, whether oral or written, referred to herein or supplied to the Sub-Trust B Trustee or Delaware Trustee in connection herewith; or (iv) proceedings by or on behalf of any creditor, or (v) the application of any law, statute, regulation or other rule to the Sub-Trust B Trust or its assets. Sub-Trust B shall, on demand, advance or pay promptly, at the election of the Sub-Trust B Trust Indemnified Party, solely out of the Sub-Trust B Trust Assets, on behalf of each Sub-Trust B Trust Indemnified Party, reasonable attorneys' fees and other expenses and disbursements to which such Sub-Trust B Trust Indemnified Party would be entitled pursuant to the foregoing indemnification provision; provided, however, that any Sub-Trust B Trust Indemnified Party receiving any such advance shall execute a written undertaking to repay such advance if a court of competent jurisdiction ultimately determines, by Final Order, that such Sub-Trust B Trust Indemnified Party is not entitled to indemnification hereunder due to such Person's own fraud or willful misconduct. Any indemnification Claim of a Sub-Trust B Trust Indemnified Party shall be entitled to a priority distribution from the Sub-Trust B Trust Assets, ahead of Trust Interests and any other Claim to or Interest in such assets. In any matter covered by the first two sentences of this subsection, any party entitled to indemnification shall have the right to employ such party's own separate counsel, at Sub-Trust B's expense, subject to the foregoing terms and conditions. The indemnification provided under this Section 7.2 shall survive the death, dissolution, resignation, or removal, as may be applicable, of the Sub-Trust B Trustee, or any other Sub-Trust B Trust Indemnified Party and shall inure to the benefit of the Sub-Trust B Trustee, and each other Sub-Trust B Trust Indemnified Party's respective heirs, successors, and assigns.

(b) The foregoing indemnity in respect of any Sub-Trust B Trust Indemnified Party shall survive the termination of such Sub-Trust B Trust Indemnified Party from the capacity for which such party is indemnified. Termination or modification of this Agreement shall not affect any indemnification rights or obligations set forth herein.

(c) Sub-Trust B may, but is not obligated to, indemnify any Person who is not a Sub-Trust B Trust Indemnified Party for any loss, cost, damage, expense or liability for which a Sub-Trust B Trust Indemnified Party would be entitled to mandatory indemnification under this Section 7.2.

(d) Any Sub-Trust B Trust Indemnified Party may waive the benefits of indemnification under this Section 7.2, but only by an instrument in writing executed by such Sub-Trust B Trust Indemnified Party.

(e) The rights to indemnification under this Section 7.2 are not exclusive of other rights which any Sub-Trust B Trust Indemnified Party may otherwise have at law or in equity, including, without limitation, common law rights to indemnification or contribution. Nothing in this Section 7.2 will affect the rights or obligations of any Person (or the limitations on those rights or obligations) under any other agreement or instrument to which that Person is a party. Further, Sub-Trust B hereby agrees that that Sub-Trust B Trust shall be required to pay the full amount of expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) actually incurred by such Sub-Trust B Indemnified Party in connection with any proceeding as to which Sub-Trust B Trust

Indemnified Party is entitled to indemnification hereunder in advance of the final disposition of such proceeding. For the avoidance of doubt, each Sub-Trust B Trust Indemnified Party shall be entitled, subject to the terms hereof, to indemnification for any costs and reasonable attorneys' fees such Sub-Trust B Trust Indemnified Party may incur in connection with enforcing any of its rights under this Article VII

7.3 Sub-Trust B Trust Liabilities. All liabilities of Sub-Trust B, including, without limitation, actual indemnity obligations under Section 7.2 of this Agreement, will be liabilities of Sub-Trust B as an Entity and will be paid or satisfied solely from the Sub-Trust B Trust Assets and paid. No liability of Sub-Trust B will be payable in whole or in part by any Sub-Trust B Beneficiary individually or in the Sub-Trust B Beneficiary's capacity as a Sub-Trust B Beneficiary, by the Sub-Trust B Trustee individually or in the Sub-Trust B Trustee's capacity as Sub-Trust B Trustee, or by any representative, member, partner, shareholder, director, officer, professional, employees, agent, affiliate, or advisor of any Sub-Trust B Beneficiary, the Delaware Trustee, or their respective affiliates

7.4 Limitation of Liability. None of the Sub-Trust B Trust Indemnified Parties shall be liable for indirect, punitive, exemplary, consequential, special, or other damages for a breach of this Agreement under any circumstances

7.5 Burden of Proof. In making a determination with respect to entitlement to exculpation or indemnification hereunder, the court, person, or entity making such determination shall presume that any Covered Party is entitled to exculpation and indemnification under this Agreement and any person seeking to overcome such presumption shall have the burden of proof to overcome that presumption.

ARTICLE VIII
TAX MATTERS

8.1 Treatment of Sub-Trust B Assets Transfer. For all U.S. federal income tax purposes, all parties (including, without limitation, the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors, the Sub-Trust B Trustee, and the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries) shall treat the transfer of the Sub-Trust B Assets to Sub-Trust B for the benefit of the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries, whether their Claims are Allowed on or after the Effective Date, including any amounts or other assets subsequently transferred to Sub-Trust B (but only at such time as actually transferred) as (i) a transfer of the Sub-Trust B Assets (subject to any obligations relating to such Sub-Trust B Assets) directly by the Debtors to the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries, followed by (ii) a transfer by the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries to Sub-Trust B of the Sub-Trust B Assets in exchange for Sub-Trust B Interests. Accordingly, the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries shall be treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes as the grantors and/or indirect owners of their respective share of the Sub-Trust B Assets. The foregoing treatment shall also apply, to the extent permitted by applicable law, for state and local income tax purposes. For U.S. federal income tax purposes (and for purposes of all state, local and other jurisdictions to the extent applicable), Sub-Trust B shall be treated as a liquidating trust pursuant to Section 301.7701-4(d) of the Treasury Regulations and that is taxable as a grantor trust pursuant to Sections 671-677 of the IRC. To the extent consistent with Revenue Procedure 94-45 and not otherwise inconsistent with this Agreement, Sub-Trust B shall satisfy the requirements for liquidating trust status. Sub-Trust B shall at all times be administered so as to constitute a domestic trust for U.S. federal and applicable state and local income tax purposes. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement or the Plan, the failure of Sub-Trust B to be treated for tax purposes as contemplated by this Section 8.1 shall not limit or affect the validity or formation of Sub-Trust B or the effectiveness of the Plan or the power or authority of the Sub-Trust B Trustee, and the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall be entitled to take such steps or actions as the Sub-Trust B Trustee deems appropriate or advisable, in order to further or support the tax treatment and effects contemplated by this Section 8.1.

8.2 Tax Reporting.

(a) The "taxable year" of Sub-Trust B shall be the "calendar year" as such terms are defined in section 441 of the IRC, unless the Sub-Trust B Trustee determines in good faith to use a different tax year in the interest of all beneficiaries to the extent permitted under the IRC and the Treasury Regulations thereunder. The Sub-Trust B Trustee shall file all tax or information returns required to be filed under applicable law for Sub-Trust B treating Sub-Trust B as a "grantor trust", including, without limitation, pursuant to Treasury Regulation section 1.671-4(a) and in accordance with this Section 8.2. The Sub-Trust B Trustee also will annually send to each Sub-Trust B Beneficiary a separate statement setting forth such holder's share of items of income, gain, loss, deduction, or credit (including the receipts and expenditures of Sub-Trust B) as relevant for U.S. federal and applicable state and local income tax purposes and will instruct all such Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries to use such information in preparing their U.S. federal income tax returns or to forward the appropriate information to such Sub-Trust B Beneficiary's underlying beneficial holders with instructions to utilize such information in preparing their U.S. federal income tax returns.

(b) Allocations of Sub-Trust B taxable income among the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries shall be determined by reference to the manner in which an amount of Cash equal to such taxable income would be distributed (were such Cash permitted to be distributed at such time, and without regard to any restrictions on distributions set forth in the Plan or this Agreement) if, immediately prior to such deemed distribution, Sub-Trust B had distributed all its assets (valued at their tax book value), to the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries, adjusted for prior taxable income and loss and taking into account all prior and concurrent distributions from Sub-Trust B. Similarly, taxable loss of Sub-Trust B shall be allocated by reference to the manner in which an economic loss would be borne immediately after a hypothetical liquidating distribution of the remaining Sub-Trust B Assets. The tax book value of the Sub-Trust B Assets for purposes of this Section 8.2(a) shall equal their fair market value on the Effective Date, adjusted in accordance with tax accounting principles prescribed by the IRC, the applicable Treasury Regulations and other applicable administrative and judicial authorities and pronouncements.

(c) The Sub-Trust B Trustee shall be responsible for payment of, and shall be permitted to pay, out of the Sub-Trust B Assets, any taxes imposed on Sub-Trust B or the Sub-Trust B Assets and any such payment shall be considered a cost and expense of the operation of Sub-Trust B payable without Bankruptcy Court order.

8.3 Withholding of Taxes. Sub-Trust B shall comply with all withholding and reporting requirements imposed by the IRC, state, local or non-U.S. taxing authority. The Sub-Trust B Trustee shall be authorized to take any and all actions that may be necessary or appropriate to comply with any such withholding, payment, and reporting requirements The Sub-Trust B Trustee may deduct and withhold and pay to the appropriate Tax Authority all amounts required to be deducted or withheld pursuant to the IRC or any provision of any state, local or non-U.S. tax law with respect to any payment or distribution to the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries. Notwithstanding the above, each holder of a Sub-Trust B Interest that is to receive a distribution under the Plan shall have the sole and exclusive responsibility for the satisfaction and payment of any taxes imposed on such holder by any Tax Authority, including income, withholding, and other tax obligations, on account of such distribution. All such amounts withheld and paid to the appropriate Tax Authority shall be treated as amounts distributed to such Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries for all purposes of this Agreement. The Sub-Trust B Trustee shall be authorized to collect such tax information from the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries (including, without limitation, social security numbers or other tax identification numbers) as it, in its sole discretion, deems necessary to effectuate the Plan, the Confirmation Order, and this Agreement. As a condition to receive distributions under the Plan, all Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries will need to identify themselves to the Sub-Trust B Trustee and provide tax information and the specifics of their holdings, to the extent the Sub-Trust B Trustee deems appropriate, including an IRS Form W-9 (or any successor form) or, in the case of Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries that are not United States persons for U.S. federal income tax purposes, certification of foreign status on an applicable IRS Form W-8 (or any successor form). The Sub-Trust B Trustee may refuse to make a distribution to any Sub-Trust B Beneficiary that fails to furnish such information in a timely fashion, until such information is delivered; provided, however, that, upon the delivery of such information by a Sub-Trust B Beneficiary within 180 days of the Sub-Trust B Trustee's request, the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall make such distribution to which the Sub-Trust B Beneficiary is entitled, without interest; and, provided, further, that, if the Sub-Trust B Trustee fails to withhold in respect of amounts received or distributable with respect to any such holder and the Sub-Trust B Trustee is later held liable for the amount of such withholding, such holder shall reimburse the Sub-Trust B Trustee for such liability. If the holder fails to comply with such a request for tax information within such 180 days of the Sub-Trust B Trustee's request, such distribution shall be deemed an unclaimed distribution and treated in accordance with Section 3.7(c) hereof.

8.4 Valuation. As soon as reasonably practicable following the establishment of the Sub-Trust B, the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall determine the value of the Sub-Trust B Assets transferred to the Sub-Trust B as of the Effective Date, based on the good-faith determination of the Sub-Trust B Trustee. The Sub-Trust B Trustee shall apprise, in writing, the applicable Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries of such valuation. The valuation of the Sub-Trust B Assets prepared pursuant to this Agreement shall be used consistently by all parties (including, without limitation, the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, the Sub-Trust B Trustee, and the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries) for all U.S. federal income tax purposes. Sub-Trust B also shall file (or cause to be filed) any other statements, returns, or disclosures relating to Sub-Trust B that are required by any Governmental Unit. In connection with the preparation of any valuation contemplated hereby, the Sub-Trust B, subject to Section 3.8 hereof, shall be entitled to retain such Sub-Trust B Professionals as the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall determine to be appropriate or necessary in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, and the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall take such other actions in connection therewith as it determines to be appropriate or necessary. The Sub-Trust B shall bear all of the reasonable and documented costs and expenses incurred in connection with determining such value, including the fees and expenses of any Sub-Trust B professionals retained in connection therewith. For avoidance of doubt, the valuation shall not be binding on Sub-Trust B, the Sub-Trust B Trustee, or the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries for any purpose other than U.S. federal income tax purposes, and the valuation shall not impair or prejudice rights, claims, powers, duties, authority and/or privileges of Sub-Trust B, the Sub-Trust B Trustee, or any of the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries except with respect to U.S. federal income tax purposes.

8.5 Expedited Determination of Taxes. The Sub-Trust B Trustee may request an expedited determination of taxes of Sub-Trust B under section 505(b) of the Bankruptcy Code for all returns filed for, or on behalf of, Sub-Trust B for all taxable periods through the termination of Sub-Trust B.

TERMINATION OF SUB-TRUST B

9.1 Termination. Sub-Trust B shall be dissolved at such time as (i) all of the Sub-Trust B Assets have been distributed to Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries or otherwise applied to Sub-Trust B Expenses pursuant to the Plan and this Agreement or (ii) the Sub-Trust B Trustee determines, following the approval of the Sub-Trust A Trustee (such approval not to be unreasonably withheld), that the administration of any remaining Sub-Trust B Assets is not likely to yield sufficient additional Sub-Trust B Proceeds to justify further pursuit; provided, however, that in no event shall Sub-Trust B be dissolved later than five (5) years from the Effective Date unless the Bankruptcy Court, upon motion within the six-month period prior to the fifth (5^{th}) anniversary (or within the six-month period prior to the end of an extension period), determines that a fixed period extension (not to exceed five (5) years, including any prior extensions, without a favorable private letter ruling from the Internal Revenue Service or an opinion of counsel satisfactory to the Sub-Trust B Trustee that any further extension would not adversely affect the status of Sub-Trust B as a liquidating trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes) is necessary to facilitate or complete the recovery and liquidation of the Sub-Trust B Assets. If at any time the Sub-Trust B Trustee determines, in reliance upon such professionals as the Sub-Trust B Trustee may retain and following approval of the Sub-Trust A Trustee, that the expense of administering Sub-Trust B so as to make a final distribution to the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries is likely to exceed the value of the assets remaining in Sub-Trust B, the Sub-Trust B Trustee may, in its discretion and without the need to apply to the Bankruptcy Court for approval (i) reserve any amount necessary to dissolve Sub-Trust B, (ii) donate any balance to a charitable organization (A) described in section 501(c)(3) of the IRC, (B) exempt from U.S. federal income tax under section 501(a) of the IRC, (C) not a "private foundation," as defined in section 509(a) of the IRC and (D) that is unrelated to the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors, Sub-Trust B and any insider of the Sub-Trust B Trustee and (iii) dissolve Sub-Trust B. The Sub-Trust B Trustee may, but shall not be required to, apply for an order of the Bankruptcy Court approving any or all of the foregoing. If a final decree has been entered closing the Chapter 11 Cases, the Sub-Trust B Trustee may seek to open the Chapter 11 Cases for the limited purpose of filing a motion seeking authority as set forth in the immediately preceding sentence, and the costs for such motion and costs related to re-opening the Chapter 11 Cases shall be paid by use of the Sub-Trust B Assets. Such date upon which Sub-Trust B shall finally be dissolved shall be referred to herein as the "Termination Date." Upon the Termination Date, the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall wind up and liquidate Sub-Trust B in accordance with section 3808 of the Trust Act and Section 9.2 herein and all monies remaining in Sub-Trust B shall be distributed or disbursed in accordance with Section 3.7 above. The Sub-Trust B Trustee and the Delaware Trustee (acting at the written direction of the Sub-Trust B Trustee) shall file a Certificate of Cancellation in accordance with section 3810(d) of the Trust Act, and thereupon this Agreement shall terminate.

9.2 Continuance of Sub-Trust B for Winding Up. After the termination of Sub-Trust B and solely for the purpose of liquidating and winding up the affairs of Sub-Trust B, the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall continue to act as such until its duties have been fully performed and shall continue to be entitled to receive the fees called for by Section 4.2(a) hereof. Upon distribution of all the Sub-Trust B Assets, the Sub-Trust B Trustee may retain the books, records, and files that shall have been delivered or created by the Sub-Trust B Trustee; provided, however, that the Sub-Trust B Trustee may, in its discretion, abandon or destroy such books and records (unless such records and documents are necessary to fulfill the Sub-Trust B Trustee's obligations hereunder) subject to the terms of any joint prosecution and common interest agreement(s) to which the Sub-Trust B Trustee may be a party. Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, upon the final distribution of Sub-Trust B Assets and filing by the Sub-Trust B Trustee and the Delaware Trustee of a Certificate of Cancellation with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware, the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall be deemed discharged and have no further duties or obligations hereunder, except to account to the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries as provided herein, Sub-Trust B Interests shall be cancelled, and Sub-Trust B will be deemed to have dissolved.

AMENDMENT AND WAIVER

10.1 Subject to Sections 1.5(c) and 10.2 of this Agreement, the Sub-Trust B Trustee, with the prior consent of the Sub-Trust A Trustee (not to be unreasonably withheld), may amend, supplement, or seek to waive any provision of this Agreement; provided, that to the extent any such amendment, supplement or waiver materially and adversely impacts the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, or modifies the obligations of the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors hereunder, such amendment, supplement, or waiver shall also require the prior written consent of the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, as applicable (not to be unreasonably withheld); provided, further, that to the extent any such amendment, supplement, or waiver materially and adversely affects the interests of the holder of the Sub-Trust B-3 Interest in a manner disproportionate to holders of other Sub-Trust B Interests, such amendment, supplement or waiver shall also require the prior consent of the DIP Notes Trust Trustee.

10.2 Notwithstanding Section 10.1 of this Agreement, no amendment, supplement, or waiver of or to this Agreement shall: (a) adversely affect the payments and/or distributions to be made under the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, or this Agreement; (b) alter the procedural requirements of Section 3.4 of this Agreement; (c) adversely affect the U.S. federal income tax status of Sub-Trust B as a "liquidating trust" that is taxable as a "grantor trust" for U.S. federal and applicable state and local income taxes; (d) adversely affect any consent, consultation or other rights afforded to the Sub-Trust A Trustee hereunder without the consent of the Sub-Trust A Trustee or adversely affect, in a manner disproportionate to holders of other Sub-Trust B Interests, any consent, consultation or other rights of the DIP Noteholder Trust (without the consent of the DIP Noteholder Trust Trustee); (e) conflict with, or expand the Reorganized Debtors' obligations under, the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement; or (f) be inconsistent with the purpose and intention of Sub-Trust B to liquidate in an expeditious but orderly manner the Sub-Trust B Assets in accordance with Treasury Regulation Section 301.7701-4(d).

10.3 No failure by Sub-Trust B, or the Sub-Trust B Trustee, to exercise or delay in exercising any right, power, or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, power, or privilege hereunder preclude any further exercise thereof, or of any other right, power, or privilege.

10.4 Notwithstanding the forgoing, to the extent any such amendment, supplement, or waiver affects the rights, duties, protections, immunities, or indemnities of the Delaware Trustee, such act shall require the written consent of the Delaware Trustee. The fees and expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees) of the Delaware Trustee incurred in connection with any amendment shall be paid by the Sub-Trust B. In consenting to any amendment hereunder, the Delaware Trustee shall be entitled to receive and be fully protected in relying on an opinion of counsel that such amendment is authorized and permitted by this Agreement and that all conditions precedent to such amendment have been satisfied.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

11.1 Cooperation. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or otherwise, by accepting the Sub-Trust B-1 Interest or the Sub-Trust B-4 Interest, and accepting the corresponding distribution of a portion of the Committees Initial Cash Consideration, and without any requirement to execute and deliver this Agreement or any other document, each applicable Tort Sub-Trust shall be deemed to have agreed with this Sub-Trust B to (the "Sub Trust Cooperation Obligations") cooperate in good faith with this Sub-Trust B, at such Tort Sub-Trust's expense, and use its commercially reasonable efforts, in connection with the prosecution of the Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights for portion of each Tort Claim retained by Sub-Trust B after the Effective Date, including, without limitation, responding to reasonable information requests and coordinating information requests and other matters with its beneficiaries.

11.2 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware (without reference to principles of conflicts of law thereof), including all matters of validity, construction, and administration; provided, however, that the following shall not be applicable to Sub-Trust B, the Sub-Trust B Trustee, the Delaware Trustee, or this Agreement: (a) the provisions of section 3540 of Title 12 of the Delaware Code; and (b) any provisions of the laws (statutory or common) of the State of Delaware pertaining to trusts that relate to or regulate, in a manner inconsistent with the terms hereof, (i) the filing with any court or governmental body or agency of trustee accounts or schedule of trustee fees and charges, affirmative requirements to post bonds for trustees, officers, agents, or employees of a trust, the necessity for obtaining court or other governmental approval concerning the acquisition, holding, or disposition of real or personal property, (ii) fees or other sums payable to trustees, officers, agents, or employees of a trust, (iii) the allocation of receipts and expenditures to income and principal, (iv) restrictions or limitations on the permissible nature, amount, or concentration of trust investments or requirements relating to the titling, storage, or other manner of holding or investing trust assets, or (v) the establishment of fiduciary or other standards or responsibilities or limitations on the acts or powers of trustees.

11.3 Jurisdiction; WAIVER OF TRIAL BY JURY. Subject to the proviso below, the Parties agree that the Bankruptcy Court shall have jurisdiction over Sub-Trust B and the Sub-Trust B Trustee, including, without limitation, the administration and activities of Sub-Trust B and the Sub-Trust B Trustee to the fullest extent permitted by law; provided, however, that notwithstanding the foregoing, the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall have power and authority to bring any action in any court of competent jurisdiction to prosecute any of the Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights. Each Party to this Agreement and the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries, by accepting and holding their interest in the Sub-Trust B, hereby irrevocably consents to the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court in any action to enforce, interpret or construe any provision of this Agreement or of any other agreement or document delivered in connection with this Agreement, and also hereby irrevocably waives any defense of improper venue, forum non conveniens, or lack of personal jurisdiction to any such action brought in the Bankruptcy Court. Until the closing of the Chapter 11 Cases, any action to enforce, interpret, or construe any provision of this Agreement will be brought only in the Bankruptcy Court. In the event that all of the Chapter 11 Cases are closed, the Parties agree that the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall have the right to move to re-open the Chapter 11 Cases or alternatively, to bring the dispute(s) before the courts of the State of Delaware, including any federal court located in the State of Delaware (and, in such event, the Parties agree that the such courts shall have jurisdiction over the Sub-Trust B and the Sub-Trust B Trustee, including, without limitation, the administration and activities of the Sub-Trust B and the Sub-Trust B Trustee to the fullest extent permitted by law). Each Party hereby irrevocably consents to the service by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, of any process in any action to enforce, interpret, or construe any provision of this Agreement. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO, AND EACH SUB-TRUST B BENEFICIARY, BY ACCEPTING ITS INTEREST HEREIN, HEREBY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY AND ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY WITH RESPECT TO ANY LITIGATION OR LEGAL PROCEEDING DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF, UNDER OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT, THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY AND/OR SUB-TRUST B. NOTWITHSTANDING THE FOREGOING AND FOR AVOIDANCE OF DOUBT, NOTHING CONTAINED HEREIN SHALL PROHIBIT OR RESTRICT SUB-TRUST-B OR ITS TRUSTEE FROM SEEKING A JURY TRIAL WITH RESPECT TO ANY OF THE ASSIGNED INSURANCE RIGHTS.

11.4 Severability. In the event any provision of this Agreement or the application thereof to any person or circumstances shall be determined by Final Order to be invalid or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Agreement or the application of such provision to persons or circumstances or in jurisdictions other than those as to or in which it is held invalid or unenforceable, shall not be affected thereby, and each provision of this Agreement shall be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

11.5 Notices. Any notice or other communication required or permitted to be made under this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been sufficiently given, for all purposes, if delivered personally or by facsimile or electronic communication, sent by nationally recognized overnight delivery service or mailed by first-class mail. The date of receipt of such notice shall be the earliest of (a) the date of actual receipt by the receiving party, (b) the date of personal delivery (or refusal upon presentation for delivery), (c) the date of the transmission confirmation, or (d) three Business Days after service by first-class mail, to the receiving party's below address(es):

Each party hereto shall be entitled to conclusively rely upon, and shall have no liability with respect to, any faxed, scanned, or photocopied manual signature, or other electronic signature, of any party and shall have no duty to investigate, confirm or otherwise verify the validity or authenticity thereof.

11.15 Costs. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, except as provided in the Plan or Confirmation Order, to the extent that the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors expect to incur material, out-of-pocket costs or expenses in connection with the performance of their obligations under this Agreement, unless such costs are subject to reimbursement pursuant to the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement or otherwise, the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, and the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall confer in good faith to minimize such costs and agree on a mutually acceptable cost sharing agreement among the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, and Sub-Trust B for such costs. If the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors and Sub-Trust B cannot reach agreement on a mutually acceptable cost sharing agreement, each of the Debtors, Reorganized Debtors, and Sub-Trust B agree that the Bankruptcy Court shall have exclusive jurisdiction to adjudicate and resolve any such dispute.

11.16 Anti- Money Laundering Law. The Parties hereto acknowledge that in accordance with laws, regulations and executive orders of the United States or any state or political subdivision thereof as are in effect from time to time applicable to financial institutions relating to the funding of terrorist activities and money laundering, including, without limitation, the USA Patriot Act (Pub. L. 107-56) and regulations promulgated by U.S. Department of Treasury or the Office of Foreign Asset Control (collectively, "Banking AML Law"), the Delaware Trustee is required to obtain, verify, and record information relating to individuals and entities that establish a business relationship or open an account with the Delaware Trustee. By accepting and holding a beneficial ownership interest in the Sub-Trust B, each holder thereof shall be deemed to have made each of the agreements and acknowledgements made by the parties hereto in this Section 11.15. In addition to the Delaware Trustee's obligations under Banking AML Law, the Corporate Transparency Act (31 U.S.C. § 5336) and its implementing regulations (collectively, the "CTA" and together with Banking AML Law, "AML Law"), may require the Sub-Trust B to file reports with the U.S. Financial Crimes Enforcement Network after the date of this Agreement. It shall be Sub-Trust B Trustee's duty and not the Delaware Trustee's duty to cause the Sub-Trust B to prepare and make such filings and to cause the Sub-Trust B to comply with its obligations under the CTA, if any. The parties hereto acknowledge and agree that to the fullest extent permitted by law, for purposes of AML Law, the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries are and shall be deemed to be the sole direct beneficial owners of the Sub-Trust B and that the Sub-Trust B Trustee is and shall deemed to be a person with the power and authority to exercise substantial control over the Sub-Trust B.

(a) The Parties, pursuant to the Plan and the Confirmation Order and in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, hereby establish a trust on behalf of the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries, which shall be known as the "RAD Sub-Trust B," on the terms set forth herein. In connection with the exercise of the Sub-Trust B Trustee's powers hereunder, the Sub-Trust B Trustee may use this name or such variation thereof as the Sub-Trust B Trustee sees fit.

(b) The Sub-Trust B Trustee has been selected by the Official Committee of Tort Claimants (the "TCC") in consultation with the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "UCC") and counsel to the Required Junior DIP Noteholders, which Person (and any successor Sub-Trust B Trustee) is (and shall be) a "U.S. person" as determined for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

(c) The Sub-Trust B Trustee shall be deemed a trustee under the Delaware Statutory Trust Act, 12 Del. C. § 3801 et seq., as the same may from time to time be amended, or any successor statute (the "Trust Act").

(c) The Sub-Trust B Assets and the rights thereto shall vest in Sub-Trust B on the Effective Date, subject to the proviso to Section 1.2(b); provided, however, to the extent any of the Sub-Trust B Assets are capable of being assigned to Sub-Trust B but are not assigned to Sub-Trust B upon the Effective Date, the obligation to effect the assignment of such Sub-Trust B Assets shall be satisfied by the Master Trust and the Reorganized Debtors, in accordance with the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement and/or the Plan, as applicable.

Agreement, the Reorganized Debtors shall take, or cause to be taken, all such further actions as the Sub-Trust B Trustee may reasonably request, in each case to the extent necessary, to permit Sub-Trust B to investigate, prosecute, settle, protect, and conserve all Claims and Causes of Action constituting Sub-Trust B Assets and the liabilities of the Debtors and/or the Reorganized Debtors for Tort Claims channeled to Sub-Trust B pursuant to the Plan and the Master Trust Agreement. In accordance with, and subject to, the terms and conditions set forth in the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement, and this Agreement, the Reorganized Debtors shall take, or cause to be taken, all such further actions as the Sub-Trust B Trustee may reasonably request, in each case to the extent necessary, to permit Sub-Trust B to preserve, secure, and obtain the benefit of the Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights and the other Sub-Trust B Assets. Sub-Trust B shall be the successor-in-interest to the Debtors and/or the applicable Reorganized Debtors with respect to any Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights; provided, however, that neither Sub-Trust B nor the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall bear any liabilities in connection therewith other than as expressly set forth in the Plan. Nothing in this Agreement shall preclude Sub-Trust B from disclosing information, documents, or other materials reasonably necessary to preserve, litigate, resolve, or settle coverage, or to comply with an applicable obligation under an insurance policy or settlement agreement, subject to appropriate confidentiality protections and any other restrictions or limitations set forth in the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing herein shall expand the obligations of the Reorganized Debtors beyond what has been agreed to in the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement and/or is required pursuant to the Confirmation Order.

(e) To the extent that any of the Sub-Trust B Assets cannot be transferred to or vested in the Sub-Trust B because of a restriction on transferability under non-bankruptcy law that is not superseded or preempted by the Bankruptcy Code or the Confirmation Order, such Sub-Trust B Asset shall, to the extent permitted by applicable law, be deemed held by the Master Trust, and if not the Master Trust, then by the Reorganized Debtors, as bailee for Sub-Trust B, and the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall be deemed to have been designated as a representative of the Master Trust, or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, including pursuant to section 1123(b)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code to liquidate, monetize, enforce, and/or pursue such Sub-Trust B Assets to the extent and subject to the limitations set forth in the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, the Master Trust Agreement, and this Agreement, on behalf of the Master Trust or Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, for the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries; provided, however, that the Reorganized Debtors shall be permitted to recoup the reasonable, documented out-of-pocket costs, if any, incurred in connection with holding and/or disposing of such asset(s) (to the extent not already recouped or paid in accordance with the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement) solely by withholding proceeds from (i) any amount payable to the Master Trust under the Plan as part of the Committees' Post-Emergence Cash Consideration, and (ii) any amounts otherwise payable to Sub-Trust B on account of the Reorganized Debtors monetizing the corresponding assets; provided, further, however, that the proceeds of the sale or other disposition of any such assets by the Master Trust or the Reorganized Debtors, until such time they are transferred to Sub-Trust B, shall nevertheless be deemed to constitute Sub-Trust B Assets.

(f) On the Effective Date, the Reorganized Debtors, the Master Trust, Sub-Trust B, and Sub-Trust A shall enter into the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement.

(g) At any time and from time to time on and after the Effective Date, the Wind-Down Debtors, Reorganized Debtors, and any party under the control of such parties agree (i) at the reasonable request of the Sub-Trust B Trustee to execute and/or deliver any instruments, documents, books, and records (including those maintained in electronic format and original documents as may be needed), subject to the preceding Section 1.2(d) and the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement, and (ii) to take, or cause to be taken, all such further actions as the Sub-Trust B Trustee may reasonably request, subject to the preceding Section 1.2(d), in each case (i) and (ii) in order to evidence or effectuate the transfer of the Sub-Trust B Assets to the Sub-Trust B.

(h) In accordance with, and subject to, the Plan (subject to Section 1.5(d) hereof), the Confirmation Order, and the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement, the Reorganized Debtors, and any party under the control of the Reorganized Debtors, and the Estates shall take, or cause to be taken, subject to the preceding Section 1.2(d), all such further actions as the Sub-Trust B Trustee may reasonably request, in each case to permit the Sub-Trust B Trustee to investigate, prosecute, settle, protect, and conserve all Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights and the liabilities of the Debtors and/or the Reorganized Debtors for Tort Claims channeled to Sub-Trust B pursuant to the Plan and the Master Trust Agreement.

(i) All of the proceeds received by Sub-Trust B from the pursuit of any the Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights (the "Sub-Trust B Insurance Proceeds"), and other Sub-Trust B Assets, including the Sub-Trust A-2 Interest (collectively, the "Sub-Trust B Asset Proceeds") shall be added to the Sub-Trust B Assets and held as a part thereof (and title thereto shall be vested in Sub-Trust B).

(j) For all U.S. federal, state and local income tax purposes, as applicable, all parties (including, without limitation, the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors, the Sub-Trust B Trustee, the Delaware Trustee, and the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries) shall treat the transfer of the Sub-Trust B Assets to Sub-Trust B in accordance with Section 8.1 hereof.

(k) The transfers set forth in this Section 1.2, made pursuant to the Plan, shall be exempt from any stamp, real estate transfer, mortgage reporting, sales, use or other similar tax, pursuant to section 1146(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

(l) Notwithstanding the foregoing, for purposes of section 553 of the Bankruptcy Code, the transfer of the Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights to Sub-Trust B shall not affect the mutuality of obligations that otherwise may have existed prior to the effectuation of such transfer. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary and subject to the Plan, the Confirmation Order and applicable law, the transfer of the Sub-Trust B Assets to Sub-Trust B does not diminish, and fully preserves, any defenses a defendant would have if the Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights had been retained by the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors.

~~Preliminary and Subject to Change~~

(a) Sub-Trust B shall be funded by the Master Trust with the Sub-Trust B Cash Consideration (subject to the proviso to Section 1.2(b)), which shall be used to administer all Sub-Trust B Assets and initially pay all reasonable fees, costs, and expenses (including indemnities) of and incurred by Sub-Trust B, including legal and other professional fees, costs, and expenses, administrative fees and expenses, insurance fees, taxes, and escrow expenses, which shall be paid in accordance with this Agreement; (the "Sub-Trust B Expenses"). The Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries, Debtors, and Reorganized Debtors shall have no obligation to provide any funding with respect to Sub-Trust B, except (i) as may be directly funded by the Sub-Trust B Assets, including the Sub-Trust B Asset Proceeds or (ii) with respect to the Reorganized Debtors, any funding associated with the Committee's Post-Emergence Cash Consideration.

(b) Each of the Sub-Trust B Trustee and the Delaware Trustee may incur any Sub-Trust B Expenses in connection with the performance of its duties under the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement, and this Agreement, including in connection with retaining professionals and/or entering into agreements pursuant to Sections 3.8 and 3.9 herein. All Sub-Trust B Expenses shall be paid by, and solely be the obligation of, Sub-Trust B. In accordance with Section 1.3(a) and 1.3(d) hereof, all Sub-Trust B Expenses shall initially be paid by Sub-Trust B from the Sub-Trust B Cash Consideration. Thereafter, in accordance with Section 3.7(b) hereof, the Sub-Trust B Trustee may elect to apply amounts from the Sub-Trust B Assets to fund expenses (including professional fees) incurred, or reasonably projected to be incurred, in connection with prosecuting or settling the Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights, monetizing the Sub-Trust B Assets, and distributing the Sub-Trust B Distributable Proceeds[2] to the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries; provided, however, that the Delaware Trustee's expenses shall be limited to those specifically authorized in Section ~~4~~6.3~~(b)~~ or payable pursuant to the indemnification provisions of Article VII hereof. For the avoidance of doubt, all Sub-Trust B Expenses shall be satisfied or reserved for before any distributions may be made to Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries.

(c) [RESERVED].

(d) Up to $~~[~~1,125,000~~]~~ of the Sub-Trust B Cash Consideration may be used to pay Sub-Trust B Expenses (the "Sub-Trust B Initial Funding"), including pursuit of the Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights. The Sub-Trust B Trustee may, as set forth herein, obtain additional funding to pay Sub-Trust B Expenses ("Sub-Trust B Additional Funding," and together with the Sub-Trust B Initial Funding, "Sub-Trust B Funding").

[2] "Sub-Trust B Distributable Proceeds" means all Sub-Trust B Asset Proceeds, net of any amounts (a) used to repay any Sub-Trust B Additional Funding in accordance with the terms of such funding, (b) used to pay the Sub-Trust B Expenses, (c) withheld, upon the good faith determination of the Sub-Trust B Trustee, to fund future Sub-Trust B Expenses, (d) applied or withheld to pay Taxes and (e) as otherwise provided in accordance with this Agreement.

(e) Any failure or inability of the Sub-Trust B Trustee to obtain Sub-Trust B Funding will not affect the enforceability of the Sub-Trust B Agreement.

(f) The Sub-Trust B Trustee shall be paid from the Sub-Trust B Initial Funding and any additional funding obtained by the Sub-Trust B Trustee, or in accordance with Section 3.7(b) hereof.

1.4 Title to the Sub-Trust B Assets. The transfer of the Sub-Trust B Assets to Sub-Trust B pursuant to Section 1.2 hereof is being made for the sole benefit, and on behalf, of the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries. Upon the transfer of the Sub-Trust B Assets to Sub-Trust B, Sub-Trust B shall succeed to all of the Debtors', Reorganized Debtors', the Debtors' Estates, the Master Trust's, and the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries' rights, title, and interest in the Sub-Trust B Assets, free and clear of all Liens, Claims, encumbrances, Interests, contractually imposed restrictions, and other interests, and no other Person shall have any interest, legal, beneficial, or otherwise, in Sub-Trust B or the Sub-Trust B Assets upon the assignment and transfer of such assets to Sub-Trust B (other than as provided in the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, or this Agreement). On the Effective Date, Sub-Trust B shall be substituted for the Master Trust, Master Trustees, Debtors and Reorganized Debtors (as applicable) for all purposes with respect to the Sub-Trust B Assets. To the extent any law or regulation prohibits the transfer of ownership of any of the Sub-Trust B Assets from the Master Trust to Sub-Trust B and such law is not superseded by the Bankruptcy Code, Sub-Trust B's interest shall be a lien upon and security interest in such Sub-Trust B Assets, in trust, nevertheless, for the sole use and purposes set forth herein and in the Plan, and this Agreement shall be deemed a security agreement granting such interest thereon without need to file financing statements or mortgages. By executing this Agreement, the Sub-Trust B Trustee on behalf of Sub-Trust B hereby accepts all of such property as Sub-Trust B Assets, to be held in trust for the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries, subject to the terms of this Agreement and the Plan.

1.5 Nature and Purpose of Sub-Trust B.

(a) Purpose. Sub-Trust B is organized and established as a trust pursuant to which the Sub-Trust B Trustee, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and subject to any consultation rights of the Sub-Trust A Trustee provided for herein, shall (i) further channel the Tort Claims channeled to Sub-Trust B from the Master Trust to the Tort Sub-Trusts, in whole or in part, in accordance with the Plan and this Agreement, (ii) administer and distribute the Sub-Trust B Assets, (iii) investigate, prosecute, settle, or abandon Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights and otherwise implement the terms of this Agreement on behalf, and for the benefit, of the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries, and (iv) otherwise direct the administration, processing, liquidation and payment of Other Tort Claims. Sub-Trust B shall (i) serve as a mechanism for prosecuting all Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights (except those insurance rights that Sub-Trust B assigns to any Tort-Sub Trust(s) in accordance herewith), monetizing the Sub-Trust B Assets, and distributing the Sub-Trust B Distributable Proceeds in a timely fashion to or for the benefit of the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries in accordance with the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, and this Agreement and (ii) liquidate and administer the Sub-Trust B Assets in accordance with Treasury Regulation section 301.7701-4(d), with no objective to continue or engage in the conduct of a trade or any other business, except to the extent reasonably necessary to, and consistent with, the liquidating purpose of Sub-Trust B. Except as otherwise provided in Article III hereof and subject to the Confirmation Order, Sub-Trust B shall have the sole responsibility for the pursuit and settlement of the Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights and the sole power and authority to allow or settle and compromise any Claims related to the Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights. The primary purpose of Sub-Trust B is to, in an expeditious and orderly manner, maximize the recoveries to the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries by monetizing and converting the Sub-Trust B Assets to Cash and making timely distributions to the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries, in accordance with the Plan and the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, with no objective to continue or engage in the conduct of, or to further, any trade or business. The Sub-Trust B Trustee shall be obligated to make continuing reasonable efforts to timely resolve the Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights and not unreasonably prolong the duration of Sub-Trust B. The liquidation of Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights may be accomplished either through the prosecution, compromise and settlement, abandonment, or dismissal, or other form of monetization of any or all claims, rights, or causes of action or otherwise, in accordance with the Plan, the Confirmation Order and this Agreement.

(b) Relationship. This Agreement is intended to create a trust and a trust relationship and to be governed and construed in all respects as a trust. Sub-Trust B is not intended to be, and shall not be deemed to be, or be treated as, a general partnership, limited partnership, joint venture, corporation, joint stock company, or association, nor shall the Sub-Trust B Trustee, or the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries for any purpose be, or be deemed to be or treated in any way whatsoever to be, liable or responsible hereunder as partners or joint venturers. The relationship of the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries, on the one hand, to the Sub-Trust B Trustee, on the other hand, shall be solely that of a beneficiary of a trust and shall not be deemed a principal and agency relationship, and their rights shall be limited to those conferred upon them by the Plan, the Confirmation Order, and this Agreement.

(c) No Waiver of Claims. In accordance with section 1123(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Sub-Trust B Trustee may enforce all rights to commence and pursue, as appropriate, any and all Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights after the Effective Date. No Person or entity may rely on the absence of a specific reference in the Plan to any Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights against them as any indication that the Sub-Trust B Trustee will not pursue any and all available Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights or objections against them. Unless any Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights against a Person or Entity are expressly waived, relinquished, exculpated, released, compromised, or settled in the Plan or an order of the Bankruptcy Court, the Sub-Trust B Trustee expressly reserves all Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights for later adjudication, and, therefore, no preclusion doctrine, including the doctrines of res judicata, collateral estoppel, issue preclusion, claim preclusion, estoppel (judicial, equitable, or otherwise), or laches, shall apply to such Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights upon, after, or as a consequence of the Confirmation Order.

(d) Relationship to and Incorporation of the Plan. The principal purpose of this Agreement is to aid in the implementation of the Plan, the Confirmation Order, and the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, and therefore this Agreement incorporates the provisions thereof by reference. To that end, the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall have full power and authority to take any action consistent with the purpose and provisions of the Plan and the Confirmation Order, to seek any orders from the Bankruptcy Court in furtherance of implementation of the Plan that directly affect the interests of Sub-Trust B, and to seek any orders from the Bankruptcy Court solely in furtherance of this Agreement. To the extent there is a conflict between the provisions of this Agreement, the provisions of the Plan, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement and/or the Confirmation Order, each such document shall have controlling effect in the following ranked order: (1) the Confirmation Order; (2) the Plan; (3) the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement; and (4) this Agreement; provided, that the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement shall control over this Agreement with respect to any matters specifically addressed in the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement, and nothing in this Agreement shall modify or expand the obligations of the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors under the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement with respect to any matters addressed therein. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, no provision herein shall be construed or implemented in a manner that would cause the Sub-Trust B to fail to qualify as a "liquidating trust" within the meaning of Section 301.7701-4(d) of the Treasury Regulations.

(e) Capacity of Sub-Trust B. Notwithstanding any state or federal law to the contrary or anything herein, Sub-Trust B shall itself have the capacity, in its own right and name, to act or refrain from acting, including the capacity to sue and be sued and to enter into contracts. Sub-Trust B may alone be the named movant, respondent, party plaintiff or defendant, or the like in all adversary proceedings, contested matters, and other state or federal proceedings brought by or against it, and may settle and compromise all such matters in its own name.

1.6 Appointment as Representative. Pursuant to section 1123(b)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall be the duly appointed representative of the Debtors' Estates for certain limited purposes and, as such, to the extent provided herein, the Sub-Trust B Trustee succeeds to the rights and powers of a trustee in bankruptcy solely with respect to prosecution of Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights and the Tort Claims channeled to this Sub-Trust B.

1.7 Incidents of Ownership. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries shall be the sole beneficiaries of Sub-Trust B, and the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall retain only such incidents of ownership as are necessary to undertake the actions and transactions authorized herein, in the Plan and in the Confirmation Order, including those powers set forth in this Agreement.

1.8 Channeling and Assumption of Tort Claims.

(a) Subject to Section 1.8(h), as of the Effective Date, and immediately following the channeling of such claims to the Master Trust, each Tort Claim, including any and all liability of the Debtors and/or the Reorganized Debtors for any and all Tort Claims shall automatically, and without further act, deed or court order, be channeled to and assumed by Sub-Trust B solely for the purpose of (i) further channeling such Tort Claims to the Tort Sub-Trusts, in whole or in part, as set forth in Section 1.8(b), (ii) prosecuting the Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights, (iii) otherwise directing the administration, processing, liquidation and payment of Other Tort Claims in accordance herewith. In consideration for the assumption by the Tort Sub-Trusts of applicable Tort Claims in accordance therewith, and, if applicable, the acceptance of the Sub-Trust Cooperation Obligations (as defined below) set forth herein, Sub-Trust B shall make the Distributions to the Tort Sub-Trusts as set forth herein.

(b) Set forth on Exhibit A(i) and Exhibit A(ii) hereto are lists of the Tort Sub-Trusts and definitions of the corresponding sub-groups of Tort Claims to be channeled to such Tort Sub-Trusts. Subject to Section 1.8(g), immediately following the channeling of Tort Claims to this Sub-Trust B, (i) 0.1% of each Tort Claim that meets a definition set forth on Exhibit A(i) (the "Two-Step Tort Claims") shall automatically, and without further act, deed or court order, be channeled to and assumed by the corresponding Tort Sub-Trust, and (ii) each Tort Claim that meets a definition set forth on Exhibit A(ii) (the "One-Step Tort Claims") shall automatically, and without further act, deed or court order, be channeled to and assumed by the corresponding Tort Sub-Trust in full. Following such channeling, in whole or in part, distributions, in accordance with the applicable governing documents of the Tort Sub-Trusts, from the Tort Sub-Trusts to which a Tort Claim is channeled in accordance herewith, shall be the sole source of remuneration, if any, in respect of such Tort Claims (except, with respect to Two-Step Tort Claims, for any proceeds arising from the successful prosecution of associated insurance rights, which proceeds are distributed to the corresponding Tort Sub-Trust), and the holder of such Tort Claims shall have no other or further recourse against the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors; provided that, solely with respect to Two-Step Tort Claims, the applicable Tort Sub-Trusts shall be entitled to request assignment of the remaining unchanneled portion of such Claims and the corresponding insurance rights held by Sub-Trust B in accordance with Section 3.3(c), to allow the trustee of such Tort Sub-Trust to direct the administration, processing, liquidation and payment of such Claims, and to prosecute such insurance rights directly. All Tort Claims channeled to a Tort Sub-Trust in accordance herewith shall be administered, liquidated and discharged solely pursuant to, and solely to the extent provided in, the governing documents of the applicable Tort Sub-Trust for such Tort Claim.

(c) In furtherance of the foregoing, any trust to whom a Tort Claim is channeled in full hereunder (whether in a single channeling with respect to One-Stop Tort Claims, or upon the channeling of the remaining 99.9% with respect to Two-Step Tort Claims), except as otherwise provided in the Plan, shall have all defenses, cross-claims, offsets and recoupments, as well as rights of indemnification, contribution, subrogation and similar rights, regarding the Tort Claims that the Debtors and/or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, have, or would have had, under applicable law; provided (i) (ii) that all such defenses, cross-claims, offsets and recoupments regarding any Tort Claim that is channeled to a Tort Sub-Trust in accordance herewith shall be transferred to such Tort Sub-Trust with such Tort Claims, at which point, the Sub-Trust B shall no longer have such defenses, cross-claims, offsets and recoupments regarding such Tort Claims.

(d) No Tort Claim shall be channeled to any Tort Sub-Trust except as and to the extent provided herein. Individual Tort Claims shall be administered and resolved pursuant to, and to the extent provided in, the governing documents of the applicable Tort Sub-Trust to which such Tort Claim is channeled. Distributions from the Tort Sub-Trusts in accordance with their terms shall be the sole source of recovery, if any, in respect of Tort Claims, and holders of Tort Claims have no other or further recourse to the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, the Master Trust or Sub-Trust A on account of such Tort Claims.

(e) The Bankruptcy Court shall have exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether any claim is a Tort Claim and whether any Tort Claim satisfies the requirements under this Agreement to be channeled to a Tort Sub-Trust. Only the following parties shall have standing to participate in any such determination before the Bankruptcy Court after the Effective Date: the Sub-Trust B Trustee, the trustee of the applicable Tort Sub-Trust, the Person seeking to assert such Tort Claim, and any Person against which such Tort Claim is purportedly asserted.

(f) Solely with respect to Two-Step Tort Claims, the 99.9% interest therein retained by this Sub-Trust B on the Effective Date (i) may be assigned along with the corresponding insurance rights held by Sub-Trust B in accordance with Section 3.3(c), (ii) shall be channeled to the applicable Tort Sub-Trust, along with a corresponding distribution of proceeds, if any, upon the successful prosecution of such Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights (whether by settlement, judgment or otherwise), as determined in the Sub-Trust B Trustee's sole and absolute discretion, or (iii) shall be channeled to the applicable Tort Sub-Trust upon the determination of the Sub-Trust B Trustee to abandon further prosecution of such Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights.

(g) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, (i) Talc Claims shall remain at this Sub-Trust B, and shall not be further channeled to the applicable Tort Sub-Trust until the designation of the applicable recipient Tort Sub-Trust in accordance with Section ~~2.5~~2.6(a), and (ii) Public Opioid Claims shall remain at this Sub-Trust B, and shall not be further channeled to the applicable Tort Sub-Trust until the designation of the applicable recipient Tort Sub-Trust in accordance with Section 2.5.

(h) For the avoidance of doubt, (i) the partial channeling of Two-Step Tort Claims on the Effective Date contemplated herein is being effected as a matter of convenience and to maximize the potential recovery in respect of such Claims, and (ii) the fractional interest in Two-Step Tort Claims channeled to applicable Tort Sub-Trusts on the Effective Date, and the fractional interest retained by Sub-Trust B on the Effective Date shall in no way affect the distribution entitlements or other rights associated with Sub-Trust B Interests held by such Tort Sub-Trusts.

Substantially contemporaneously with any distribution other than the distributions of Committees' Initial Cash Consideration, the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall provide each Sub-Trust B Beneficiary with written notice of such distribution, setting forth the aggregate amount distributed to each type of Sub-Trust B Interest, the source of funds for such distribution, the type of proceeds represented, and reasonably detailed supporting calculations that are sufficient to calculate the amount of Aggregate Eligible Distributable Proceeds required to be distributed by Sub-Trust B in connection with such distribution. For avoidance of doubt, as of the date hereof, it is intent of the parties that (i) the only classes of Sub-Trust B Interests that are expected to have multiple direct holders are the Sub-Trust B-1 Interests and the Sub-Trust B-7 Interests, and (ii) the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall make distributions and provide notice, as and to the extent contemplated herein, to (A) the trustees of the Tort Sub-Trusts holding Sub-Trust B-1 Interests, (B) the trustees of the trusts holding Sub-Trust B-2 Interests, Sub-Trust B-3 Interests, Sub-Trust B-4 Interests and Sub-Trust B-5 Interests, (C) the trustee of any trust, or the other applicable entity acting for the Sub-Trust B-6 Interest, as provided in Section 2.5 hereof, and (D) to the individual Claimants holding Sub-Trust B-7 Interests.

For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 3.7(b) shall not prohibit the Sub-Trust B Trustee from using the Sub-Trust B Assets to timely pay obligations and liabilities of Sub-Trust B duly incurred in accordance with this Agreement or the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement, including with respect to the payment of any Taxes or other amounts owed to Governmental Authorities and to timely compensate consultants, agents, employees, and professionals (including counsel, tax advisors and financial advisors) engaged by Sub-Trust B in accordance with this Agreement to assist the Sub-Trust B Trustee with respect to the Sub-Trust B Trustee's responsibilities.

(c) Any payment of Cash by Sub-Trust B shall be made by the Sub-Trust B Trustee via (i) a check drawn on, or (ii) wire transfer from, a domestic bank selected by the Sub-Trust B Trustee, the option of which shall be in the sole discretion of the Sub-Trust B Trustee. If any distribution to any holder is returned as undeliverable, no distribution to such holder shall be made unless and until the Sub-Trust B Trustee is notified in writing of the then-current address of such holder, at which time such distribution shall be made as soon as reasonably practicable after such distribution has become deliverable or has been claimed to such holder without interest; provided, however, that such distributions shall be made without interest and that such distribution shall be deemed unclaimed property under section 347(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and forfeited at the expiration of six months from the applicable Distribution Date. After such date, all "unclaimed property" or interests in property shall revert to Sub-Trust B (notwithstanding any applicable federal or state escheat, abandoned, or unclaimed property laws to the contrary) for redistribution in accordance with the terms of the Plan, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, and this Agreement, and the Claim of any holder to such property or interest in property shall be forever barred. Nothing contained herein shall require the Sub-Trust B Trustee to attempt to locate any holder of a Sub-Trust B Interest.

(d) The Sub-Trust B Trustee shall make distributions to the DIP Noteholder Trust at ~~[●].~~[5] U.S. Bank Trust Company, National Association, West Side Flats St Paul, 111 Fillmore Ave., Saint Paul, MN 55107, Attention of: Rite Aid DIP Notes Trust Administrator, Email: benjamin.krueger@usbank.com.

(e) The Sub-Trust B Trustee shall have the authority to enter into agreements with one or more agents ("Distribution Agents") to facilitate the distributions required under the Plan and this Agreement. The Sub-Trust B Trustee may pay to the Distribution Agents all reasonable and documented fees and expenses of the Distribution Agents without the need for any approvals, authorizations, actions, or consents. For the avoidance of doubt, the reasonable and documented fees of the Distribution Agents will be paid by Sub-Trust B and will not be deducted from distributions to be made under the Plan to holders of Sub-Trust B Interests receiving distributions from the Distribution Agent other than in accordance with Section 3.7(b).

(f) The Sub-Trust B Trustee may deduct and withhold Taxes from amounts otherwise distributable to any Entity any and all amounts, determined in the Sub-Trust B Trustee's sole discretion, required by this Agreement, any law, regulation, rule, ruling, directive, treaty, or other governmental requirement in accordance with Section 8.3 hereof.

(g) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, until the final distribution of Sub-Trust B, the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall not be required to make on account of a Sub-Trust B Interest (i) partial distributions or payments of fractions of dollars; (ii) partial distributions or payments of fractions of Sub-Trust B Interests; or (iii) a distribution if the amount to be distributed is or has an economic value of less than $100.00. Any funds so withheld and not distributed shall be held in reserve and distributed in subsequent distributions; provided, that all Cash (including funds withheld in reserve pursuant to the preceding clause) shall be distributed in the final distribution of Sub-Trust B; provided, however, that the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall not be required to make any final distribution on account of a Sub-Trust B Interest in an amount less than $100.00

(h) Any check issued by Sub-Trust B to a Sub-Trust B Beneficiary shall be null and void if not negotiated within 120 days after the issuance of such check. Requests for reissuance of any check shall be made directly to the Sub-Trust B Trustee by the holder of the relevant Sub-Trust B Interest with respect to which such check originally was issued, and if paid, shall be net of any expenses of Sub-Trust B with respect thereto (including any costs incurred to attempt to locate the recipient and any stop-payment or similar bank charges). If any holder of a Sub-Trust B Interest holding an un-negotiated check does not request reissuance of that check within six months after the date the check was mailed or otherwise delivered to the holder, that Sub-Trust B Interest shall be released and the holder thereof shall be forever barred, estopped, and enjoined from asserting any Claim against any of the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors, Sub-Trust B, or the Sub-Trust B Trustee. In such cases, any Cash or Sub-Trust B Interests held for payment on account of such Claims shall be property of Sub-Trust B, free of any Claims of such holder with respect thereto. The Sub-Trust B Trustee may, but is not required to, file with the Bankruptcy Court a list of the holders of any un-negotiated checks. Nothing contained herein shall require the Sub-Trust B Trustee to attempt to locate any holder of a Sub-Trust B Interest.

(i) For the avoidance of doubt, and notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall have no obligation to pay any amounts in respect of prepetition deductibles or self-insured retention amounts with respect to Claims covered by the Reorganized Debtors' insurance policies. Any obligation to pay any amounts in respect of prepetition deductibles or self-insured retention amounts with respect to Claims covered by the Debtors' insurance policies shall be determined by applicable law.

(j) Subject to Sections 3.10, 3.11, and 3.12 hereof, any non-Cash property of Sub-Trust B may be sold, transferred, abandoned, or otherwise disposed of by the Sub-Trust B Trustee. Notice of such sale, transfer, abandonment, or disposition shall be provided to the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries pursuant to the reporting obligations provided in Section 3.15 of this Agreement. If, in the Sub-Trust B Trustee's reasonable judgment, such property cannot be sold in a commercially reasonable manner, or the Sub-Trust B Trustee believes, in good faith, such property has no consequential value to Sub-Trust B, the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall have the right, in consultation with the Sub-Trust A Trustee to abandon or otherwise dispose of such property; provided, to the extent the proceeds from such property would be payable, in whole or in part, to the holders of the Sub-Trust B-2 Interest, the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall not abandon or otherwise dispose of such property without the consent (not to be unreasonably withheld) of the Sub-Trust A Trustee. Except in the case of fraud or willful misconduct, no party in interest shall have a cause of action against Sub-Trust B, the Sub-Trust B Trustee, or any of their directors, officers, employees, consultants, or professionals arising from or related to the disposition of non-Cash property in accordance with this Section 3.7(j).

(k) Any payment or distribution due on a day other than a Business Day shall be made, without interest, on the next Business Day.

3.8 Retention of Counsel and Other Professionals. Professionals engaged by the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall not be required to file applications to receive compensation for services rendered and reimbursement of actual out-of-pocket expenses incurred. Unless an alternative fee arrangement has been agreed to (either by order of the Bankruptcy Court or with the consent of the Sub-Trust B Trustee), professionals retained by the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall be compensated, pursuant to Section 1.3 hereof, from the proceeds of Sub-Trust B Funding, the proceeds of Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights, or other Sub-Trust B Assets.

3.9 Agreements. Pursuant to the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, and the other provisions of this Agreement, the Sub-Trust B Trustee may enter into any agreement or execute any document required by or consistent with the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, or this Agreement and perform all of Sub-Trust B's obligations thereunder.

3.10 Management of Sub-Trust B Assets.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, or this Agreement, and subject to Treasury Regulations governing liquidating trusts and the retained jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court as provided for in the Plan, but without prior or further authorization, the Sub-Trust B Trustee may control and exercise authority over the Sub-Trust B Assets, over the management and disposition thereof, and over the management and conduct of Sub-Trust B, in each case, as necessary or advisable to enable the Sub-Trust B Trustee to fulfill the intents and purposes of this Agreement. No Person dealing with Sub-Trust B will be obligated to inquire into the authority of the Sub-Trust B Trustee in connection with the acquisition, management, or disposition of the Sub-Trust B Assets.

(b) In connection with the management and use of the Sub-Trust B Assets and except as otherwise expressly limited in the Plan, the Confirmation Order, or this Agreement, Sub-Trust B will have, in addition to any powers conferred upon Sub-Trust B by any other provision of this Agreement, the power to take any and all actions as, in the Sub-Trust B Trustee's discretion, are necessary or advisable to effectuate the primary purposes of Sub-Trust B, subject to any approvals or direction of the Sub-Trust A Trustee as set forth herein or the Confirmation Order, including, without limitation, the power and authority to (i) pay taxes and other obligations owed by Sub-Trust B or incurred by the Sub-Trust B Trustee; (ii) engage and compensate consultants, agents, employees, and professional persons to assist the Sub-Trust B Trustee with respect to the Sub-Trust B Trustee's responsibilities; (iii) commence and/or pursue any and all actions involving the Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights that could arise or be asserted at any time, unless otherwise waived or relinquished in the Plan, the Confirmation Order, or this Agreement; (iv) act and implement the Plan, this Agreement, and orders of the Bankruptcy Court; and (v) take any action or engage in any activities that are necessary to have the Sub-Trust B treated as a liquidating trust within the meaning of Treasury Regulation Section 301.7701-4(d) and taxable as a grantor trust pursuant to sections 671–77 of the IRC.

3.11 Investment of Cash. The right and power of the Sub-Trust B Trustee to invest Sub-Trust B Assets, the proceeds thereof, or any income earned by Sub-Trust B shall be limited to the right and power to invest in such Sub-Trust B Assets only in Cash and U.S. Government securities as defined in section 2(a)(16) of the Investment Company Act, and money market funds; provided, however, that (a) the scope of any such permissible investments shall be further limited to include only those investments that a liquidating trust within the meaning of Treasury Regulation Section 301.7701-4(d), may be permitted to hold, pursuant to the Treasury Regulations, or any modification in the IRS guidelines, whether set forth in IRS rulings, other IRS pronouncements, or otherwise, as applicable, and (b) the Sub-Trust B Trustee may expend the assets of Sub-Trust B (i) as reasonably necessary to meet contingent liabilities and maintain the value of the assets of Sub-Trust B during liquidation, (ii) to pay reasonable administrative expenses (including, but not limited to, any taxes imposed on Sub-Trust B or reasonable fees and expenses in connection with litigation), and (iii) to satisfy other liabilities incurred or assumed by Sub-Trust B (or to which the assets are otherwise subject) in accordance with the Plan or this Agreement.

3.12 Additional Powers of the Sub-Trust B Trustee. In addition to any and all of the powers enumerated above, and except as otherwise provided in the Plan, the Confirmation Order, or this Agreement, and subject to the IRC sections governing grantor trusts and Treasury Regulations governing liquidating trusts and the retained jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court as provided for in the Plan, the Sub-Trust B Trustee, shall be empowered to:

The Sub-Trust B Trustee shall require such Supplemental Sub-Trust B Trustee to be answerable to the Sub-Trust B Trustee for all monies, assets and other property that may be received in

LIABILITY AND INDEMNIFICATION

7.1 Limitation of Liability. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement, the Plan, or the Confirmation Order to the contrary, to the maximum extent provided for under the Trust Act, none of the Sub-Trust B Trustee, the Delaware Trustee, nor any of their respective principals, advisors, or professionals, each of the foregoing, in their capacity as such, shall be liable to Sub-Trust B or any Sub-Trust B Beneficiary for any Claim arising out of, or in connection with, the creation, operation, or termination of the Sub-Trust B, including actions taken or omitted in fulfillment of such parties' duties with respect to the Sub-Trust B, nor shall such parties incur any responsibility or liability by reason of any error of law or of any matter or thing done or suffered or omitted to be done under this Agreement, except as may be determined by Final Order to have arisen out of such party's bad faith or willful misconduct (and, in the case of the Delaware Trustee, in the performance of its express duties under this Agreement); provided that in no event will any such party be liable for punitive, exemplary, consequential, or special damages under any circumstances. Furthermore, none of the Sub-Trust B Trustee, the Delaware Trustee, nor any of their respective principals, advisors, or professionals shall be liable to the Sub-Trust B or any Sub-Trust B Beneficiary for any action or inaction taken in good faith reliance upon the advice of the professionals retained by the Sub-Trust B to the maximum extent provided for under the Trust Act, or in reliance upon any order of the Bankruptcy Court.

(a) Upon the appointment of a successor Sub-Trust B Trustee as provided in Section 4.5 hereof, or the appointment of a successor Delaware Trustee, the predecessor Sub-Trust B Trustee, or the predecessor Delaware Trustee, as the case may be, and each of their respective accountants, agents, assigns, attorneys, bankers, consultants, directors, employees, executors, financial advisors, investment bankers, real estate brokers, transfer agents, independent contractors, managers, members, officers, partners, predecessors, principals, professional persons, representatives, affiliates, employers, and successors shall have no further liability or responsibility with respect thereto, except to the extent arising out of any act or failure to act by such person prior to such appointment. A successor Sub-Trust B Trustee or successor Delaware Trustee shall have no duty to examine or inquire into the acts or omissions of its immediate or remote predecessor, and no successor Sub-Trust B Trustee or successor Delaware Trustee shall be in any way liable for the acts or omissions of any predecessor Sub-Trust B Trustee or predecessor Delaware Trustee, unless such party expressly assumes such responsibility. A predecessor Sub-Trust B Trustee or predecessor Delaware Trustee shall have no liability for the acts or omissions of any immediate or subsequent successor Sub-Trust B Trustee or successor Delaware Trustee for any events or occurrences subsequent to the cessation of its role.

(b) None of the Sub-Trust B Trustee nor the Delaware Trustee, when acting in such capacities, shall be subject to any personal liability whatsoever, whether in tort, contract, or otherwise, to any Person, other than the Sub-Trust B or the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries, in connection with the affairs of the Sub-Trust B to the fullest extent provided under section 3803 of the Trust Act, and all persons claiming against any of the Sub-Trust B Trustee or the Delaware Trustee, or otherwise asserting Claims of any nature in connection with affairs of the Sub-Trust B, shall look solely to the Sub-Trust B Assets for satisfaction of any such Claims.

(c) Except as expressly provided herein, nothing in this Agreement shall be, or be deemed to be, an assumption, covenant, or agreement to assume or accept, any liability, obligation, or duty, (x) by the Sub-Trust B Trustee or the Delaware Trustee of any of the liabilities, obligations, or duties of the Reorganized Debtors or (y) by the Reorganized Debtors of any of the liabilities, obligations, or duties of the Sub-Trust B, the Sub-Trust B Trustee, or the Delaware Trustee. For the avoidance of doubt, none of the Debtors nor Reorganized Debtors shall have any liability or obligation with respect to indemnification or reimbursement under this Agreement.

7.2 Indemnification.

(a) From and after the Effective Date, each of the Sub-Trust B Trustee, the Delaware Trustee, and the professionals of Sub-Trust B and their representatives and professionals (each, a "Sub-Trust B Trust Indemnified Party," and collectively, the "Sub-Trust B Trust Indemnified Parties") shall be, and each of them hereby is, indemnified by Sub-Trust B Trust, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, including the Trust Act, from and against any and all Claims, debts, dues, accounts, actions, suits, Causes of Action (including, without limitation, any suit or other enforcement action brought to enforce indemnity obligations under this Agreement), bonds, covenants, judgments, damages, reasonable attorneys' fees, defense costs, and other assertions of liability arising out of any such Sub-Trust B Trust Indemnified Party's exercise of what such Sub-Trust B Trust Indemnified Party reasonably understands to be its powers or the discharge of what such Sub-Trust B Trust Indemnified Party reasonably understands to be its duties conferred by the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement or this Agreement, any order of the Bankruptcy Court entered pursuant to, or in furtherance of, the Plan, applicable law, or otherwise (except only for actions or omissions to act to the extent determined by a Final Order to be due to such Sub-Trust B Trust Indemnified Party's own fraud or willful misconduct on and after the Effective Date). The foregoing indemnification shall also extend to matters directly or indirectly in connection with, arising out of, based on, or in any way related to: (i) this Agreement; (ii) the services to be rendered pursuant to this Agreement; (iii) any document or information, whether oral or written, referred to herein or supplied to the Sub-Trust B Trustee or Delaware Trustee in connection herewith; or (iv) proceedings by or on behalf of any creditor, or (v) the application of any law, statute, regulation or other rule to the Sub-Trust B Trust or its assets. Sub-Trust B shall, on demand, advance or pay promptly, at the election of the Sub-Trust B Trust Indemnified Party, solely out of the Sub-Trust B Trust Assets, on behalf of each Sub-Trust B Trust Indemnified Party, reasonable attorneys' fees and other expenses and disbursements to which such Sub-Trust B Trust Indemnified Party would be entitled pursuant to the foregoing indemnification provision; provided, however, that any Sub-Trust B Trust Indemnified Party receiving any such advance shall execute a written undertaking to repay such advance if a court of competent jurisdiction ultimately determines, by Final Order, that such Sub-Trust B Trust Indemnified Party is not entitled to indemnification hereunder due to such Person's own fraud or willful misconduct. Any indemnification Claim of a Sub-Trust B Trust Indemnified Party shall be entitled to a priority distribution from the Sub-Trust B Trust Assets, ahead of Trust Interests and any other Claim to or Interest in such assets. In any matter covered by the first two sentences of this subsection, any party entitled to indemnification shall have the right to employ such party's own separate counsel, at Sub-Trust B's expense, subject to the foregoing terms and conditions. The indemnification provided under this Section 7.2 shall survive the death, dissolution, resignation, or removal, as may be applicable, of the Sub-Trust B Trustee, or any other Sub-Trust B Trust Indemnified Party and shall inure to the benefit of the Sub-Trust B Trustee, and each other Sub-Trust B Trust Indemnified Party's respective heirs, successors, and assigns.

(b) The foregoing indemnity in respect of any Sub-Trust B Trust Indemnified Party shall survive the termination of such Sub-Trust B Trust Indemnified Party from the capacity for which such party is indemnified. Termination or modification of this Agreement shall not affect any indemnification rights or obligations set forth herein.

(c) Sub-Trust B may, but is not obligated to, indemnify any Person who is not a Sub-Trust B Trust Indemnified Party for any loss, cost, damage, expense or liability for which a Sub-Trust B Trust Indemnified Party would be entitled to mandatory indemnification under this Section 7.2.

(d) Any Sub-Trust B Trust Indemnified Party may waive the benefits of indemnification under this Section 7.2, but only by an instrument in writing executed by such Sub-Trust B Trust Indemnified Party.

(e) The rights to indemnification under this Section 7.2 are not exclusive of other rights which any Sub-Trust B Trust Indemnified Party may otherwise have at law or in equity, including, without limitation, common law rights to indemnification or contribution. Nothing in this Section 7.2 will affect the rights or obligations of any Person (or the limitations on those rights or obligations) under any other agreement or instrument to which that Person is a party. Further, Sub-Trust B hereby agrees that that Sub-Trust B Trust shall be required to pay the full amount of expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) actually incurred by such Sub-Trust B Indemnified Party in connection with any proceeding as to which Sub-Trust B Trust Indemnified Party is entitled to indemnification hereunder in advance of the final disposition of such proceeding. For the avoidance of doubt, each Sub-Trust B Trust Indemnified Party shall be entitled, subject to the terms hereof, to indemnification for any costs and reasonable attorneys' fees such Sub-Trust B Trust Indemnified Party may incur in connection with enforcing any of its rights under this Article VII

7.3 Sub-Trust B Trust Liabilities. All liabilities of Sub-Trust B, including, without limitation, actual indemnity obligations under Section 7.2 of this Agreement, will be liabilities of Sub-Trust B as an Entity and will be paid or satisfied solely from the Sub-Trust B Trust Assets and paid. No liability of Sub-Trust B will be payable in whole or in part by any Sub-Trust B Beneficiary individually or in the Sub-Trust B Beneficiary's capacity as a Sub-Trust B Beneficiary, by the Sub-Trust B Trustee individually or in the Sub-Trust B Trustee's capacity as Sub-Trust B Trustee, or by any representative, member, partner, shareholder, director, officer, professional, employees, agent, affiliate, or advisor of any Sub-Trust B Beneficiary, the Delaware Trustee, or their respective affiliates

7.4 Limitation of Liability. None of the Sub-Trust B Trust Indemnified Parties shall be liable for indirect, punitive, exemplary, consequential, special, or other damages for a breach of this Agreement under any circumstances

7.5 Burden of Proof. In making a determination with respect to entitlement to exculpation or indemnification hereunder, the court, person, or entity making such determination shall presume that any Covered Party is entitled to exculpation and indemnification under this Agreement and any person seeking to overcome such presumption shall have the burden of proof to overcome that presumption.

ARTICLE VIII
TAX MATTERS

8.1 Treatment of Sub-Trust B Assets Transfer. For all U.S. federal income tax purposes, all parties (including, without limitation, the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors, the Sub-Trust B Trustee, and the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries) shall treat the transfer of the Sub-Trust B Assets to Sub-Trust B for the benefit of the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries, whether their Claims are Allowed on or after the Effective Date, including any amounts or other assets subsequently transferred to Sub-Trust B (but only at such time as actually transferred) as (i) a transfer of the Sub-Trust B Assets (subject to any obligations relating to such Sub-Trust B Assets) directly by the Debtors to the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries, followed by (ii) a transfer by the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries to Sub-Trust B of the Sub-Trust B Assets in exchange for Sub-Trust B Interests. Accordingly, the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries shall be treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes as the grantors and/or indirect owners of their respective share of the Sub-Trust B Assets. The foregoing treatment shall also apply, to the extent permitted by applicable law, for state and local income tax purposes. For U.S. federal income tax purposes (and for purposes of all state, local and other jurisdictions to the extent applicable), Sub-Trust B shall be treated as a liquidating trust pursuant to Section 301.7701-4(d) of the Treasury Regulations and that is taxable as a grantor trust pursuant to Sections 671-677 of the IRC. To the extent consistent with Revenue Procedure 94-45 and not otherwise inconsistent with this Agreement, Sub-Trust B shall satisfy the requirements for liquidating trust status. Sub-Trust B shall at all times be administered so as to constitute a domestic trust for U.S. federal and applicable state and local income tax purposes. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement or the Plan, the failure of Sub-Trust B to be treated for tax purposes as contemplated by this Section 8.1 shall not limit or affect the validity or formation of Sub-Trust B or the effectiveness of the Plan or the power or authority of the Sub-Trust B Trustee, and the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall be entitled to take such steps or actions as the Sub-Trust B Trustee deems appropriate or advisable, in order to further or support the tax treatment and effects contemplated by this Section 8.1.

8.2 Tax Reporting.

(a) The "taxable year" of Sub-Trust B shall be the "calendar year" as such terms are defined in section 441 of the IRC, unless the Sub-Trust B Trustee determines in good faith to use a different tax year in the interest of all beneficiaries to the extent permitted under the IRC and the Treasury Regulations thereunder. The Sub-Trust B Trustee shall file all tax or information returns required to be filed under applicable law for Sub-Trust B treating Sub-Trust B as a "grantor trust", including, without limitation, pursuant to Treasury Regulation section 1.671-4(a) and in accordance with this Section 8.2. The Sub-Trust B Trustee also will annually send to each Sub-Trust B Beneficiary a separate statement setting forth such holder's share of items of income, gain, loss, deduction, or credit (including the receipts and expenditures of Sub-Trust B) as relevant for U.S. federal and applicable state and local income tax purposes and will instruct all such Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries to use such information in preparing their U.S. federal income tax returns or to forward the appropriate information to such Sub-Trust B Beneficiary's underlying beneficial holders with instructions to utilize such information in preparing their U.S. federal income tax returns.

(b) Allocations of Sub-Trust B taxable income among the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries shall be determined by reference to the manner in which an amount of Cash equal to such taxable income would be distributed (were such Cash permitted to be distributed at such time, and without regard to any restrictions on distributions set forth in the Plan or this Agreement) if, immediately prior to such deemed distribution, Sub-Trust B had distributed all its assets (valued at their tax book value), to the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries, adjusted for prior taxable income and loss and taking into account all prior and concurrent distributions from Sub-Trust B. Similarly, taxable loss of Sub-Trust B shall be allocated by reference to the manner in which an economic loss would be borne immediately after a hypothetical liquidating distribution of the remaining Sub-Trust B Assets. The tax book value of the Sub-Trust B

Assets for purposes of this Section 8.2(b) shall equal their fair market value on the Effective Date, adjusted in accordance with tax accounting principles prescribed by the IRC, the applicable Treasury Regulations and other applicable administrative and judicial authorities and pronouncements.

(c) The Sub-Trust B Trustee shall be responsible for payment of, and shall be permitted to pay, out of the Sub-Trust B Assets, any taxes imposed on Sub-Trust B or the Sub-Trust B Assets and any such payment shall be considered a cost and expense of the operation of Sub-Trust B payable without Bankruptcy Court order.

8.3 Withholding of Taxes. Sub-Trust B shall comply with all withholding and reporting requirements imposed by the IRC, state, local or non-U.S. taxing authority. The Sub-Trust B Trustee shall be authorized to take any and all actions that may be necessary or appropriate to comply with any such withholding, payment, and reporting requirements The Sub-Trust B Trustee may deduct and withhold and pay to the appropriate Tax Authority all amounts required to be deducted or withheld pursuant to the IRC or any provision of any state, local or non-U.S. tax law with respect to any payment or distribution to the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries. Notwithstanding the above, each holder of a Sub-Trust B Interest that is to receive a distribution under the Plan shall have the sole and exclusive responsibility for the satisfaction and payment of any taxes imposed on such holder by any Tax Authority, including income, withholding, and other tax obligations, on account of such distribution. All such amounts withheld and paid to the appropriate Tax Authority shall be treated as amounts distributed to such Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries for all purposes of this Agreement. The Sub-Trust B Trustee shall be authorized to collect such tax information from the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries (including, without limitation, social security numbers or other tax identification numbers) as it, in its sole discretion, deems necessary to effectuate the Plan, the Confirmation Order, and this Agreement. As a condition to receive distributions under the Plan, all Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries will need to identify themselves to the Sub-Trust B Trustee and provide tax information and the specifics of their holdings, to the extent the Sub-Trust B Trustee deems appropriate, including an IRS Form W-9 (or any successor form) or, in the case of Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries that are not United States persons for U.S. federal income tax purposes, certification of foreign status on an applicable IRS Form W-8 (or any successor form). The Sub-Trust B Trustee may refuse to make a distribution to any Sub-Trust B Beneficiary that fails to furnish such information in a timely fashion, until such information is delivered; provided, however, that, upon the delivery of such information by a Sub-Trust B Beneficiary within 180 days of the Sub-Trust B Trustee's request, the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall make such distribution to which the Sub-Trust B Beneficiary is entitled, without interest; and, provided, further, that, if the Sub-Trust B Trustee fails to withhold in respect of amounts received or distributable with respect to any such holder and the Sub-Trust B Trustee is later held liable for the amount of such withholding, such holder shall reimburse the Sub-Trust B Trustee for such liability. If the holder fails to comply with such a request for tax information within such 180 days of the Sub-Trust B Trustee's request, such distribution shall be deemed an unclaimed distribution and treated in accordance with Section 3.7(c) hereof.

8.4 Valuation. As soon as reasonably practicable following the establishment of the Sub-Trust B, the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall determine the value of the Sub-Trust B Assets transferred to the Sub-Trust B as of the Effective Date, based on the good-faith determination of the Sub-Trust B Trustee. The Sub-Trust B Trustee shall apprise, in writing, the applicable

Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries of such valuation. The valuation of the Sub-Trust B Assets prepared pursuant to this Agreement shall be used consistently by all parties (including, without limitation, the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, the Sub-Trust B Trustee, and the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries) for all U.S. federal income tax purposes. Sub-Trust B also shall file (or cause to be filed) any other statements, returns, or disclosures relating to Sub-Trust B that are required by any Governmental Unit. In connection with the preparation of any valuation contemplated hereby, the Sub-Trust B, subject to Section 3.8 hereof, shall be entitled to retain such Sub-Trust B Professionals as the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall determine to be appropriate or necessary in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, and the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall take such other actions in connection therewith as it determines to be appropriate or necessary. The Sub-Trust B shall bear all of the reasonable and documented costs and expenses incurred in connection with determining such value, including the fees and expenses of any Sub-Trust B professionals retained in connection therewith. For avoidance of doubt, the valuation shall not be binding on Sub-Trust B, the Sub-Trust B Trustee, or the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries for any purpose other than U.S. federal income tax purposes, and the valuation shall not impair or prejudice rights, claims, powers, duties, authority and/or privileges of Sub-Trust B, the Sub-Trust B Trustee, or any of the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries except with respect to U.S. federal income tax purposes.

8.5 Expedited Determination of Taxes. The Sub-Trust B Trustee may request an expedited determination of taxes of Sub-Trust B under section 505(b) of the Bankruptcy Code for all returns filed for, or on behalf of, Sub-Trust B for all taxable periods through the termination of Sub-Trust B.

TERMINATION OF SUB-TRUST B

9.1 Termination. Sub-Trust B shall be dissolved at such time as (i) all of the Sub-Trust B Assets have been distributed to Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries or otherwise applied to Sub-Trust B Expenses pursuant to the Plan and this Agreement or (ii) the Sub-Trust B Trustee determines, following the approval of the Sub-Trust A Trustee (such approval not to be unreasonably withheld), that the administration of any remaining Sub-Trust B Assets is not likely to yield sufficient additional Sub-Trust B Proceeds to justify further pursuit; provided, however, that in no event shall Sub-Trust B be dissolved later than five (5) years from the Effective Date unless the Bankruptcy Court, upon motion within the six-month period prior to the fifth (5^{th}) anniversary (or within the six-month period prior to the end of an extension period), determines that a fixed period extension (not to exceed five (5) years, including any prior extensions, without a favorable private letter ruling from the Internal Revenue Service or an opinion of counsel satisfactory to the Sub-Trust B Trustee that any further extension would not adversely affect the status of Sub-Trust B as a liquidating trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes) is necessary to facilitate or complete the recovery and liquidation of the Sub-Trust B Assets. If at any time the Sub-Trust B Trustee determines, in reliance upon such professionals as the Sub-Trust B Trustee may retain and following approval of the Sub-Trust A Trustee, that the expense of administering Sub-Trust B so as to make a final distribution to the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries is likely to exceed the value of the assets remaining in Sub-Trust B, the Sub-Trust B Trustee may, in its discretion and without the need to apply to the Bankruptcy Court for approval (i) reserve any amount necessary to dissolve Sub-Trust B, (ii) donate any balance to a charitable organization (A) described in section 501(c)(3) of the IRC, (B) exempt from U.S.

federal income tax under section 501(a) of the IRC, (C) not a "private foundation," as defined in section 509(a) of the IRC and (D) that is unrelated to the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors, Sub-Trust B and any insider of the Sub-Trust B Trustee and (iii) dissolve Sub-Trust B. The Sub-Trust B Trustee may, but shall not be required to, apply for an order of the Bankruptcy Court approving any or all of the foregoing. If a final decree has been entered closing the Chapter 11 Cases, the Sub-Trust B Trustee may seek to open the Chapter 11 Cases for the limited purpose of filing a motion seeking authority as set forth in the immediately preceding sentence, and the costs for such motion and costs related to re-opening the Chapter 11 Cases shall be paid by use of the Sub-Trust B Assets. Such date upon which Sub-Trust B shall finally be dissolved shall be referred to herein as the "Termination Date." Upon the Termination Date, the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall wind up and liquidate Sub-Trust B in accordance with section 3808 of the Trust Act and Section 9.2 herein and all monies remaining in Sub-Trust B shall be distributed or disbursed in accordance with Section 3.7 above. The Sub-Trust B Trustee and the Delaware Trustee (acting at the written direction of the Sub-Trust B Trustee) shall file a Certificate of Cancellation in accordance with section 3810(d) of the Trust Act, and thereupon this Agreement shall terminate.

9.2 Continuance of Sub-Trust B for Winding Up. After the termination of Sub-Trust B and solely for the purpose of liquidating and winding up the affairs of Sub-Trust B, the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall continue to act as such until its duties have been fully performed and shall continue to be entitled to receive the fees called for by Section 4.2(a) hereof. Upon distribution of all the Sub-Trust B Assets, the Sub-Trust B Trustee may retain the books, records, and files that shall have been delivered or created by the Sub-Trust B Trustee; provided, however, that the Sub-Trust B Trustee may, in its discretion, abandon or destroy such books and records (unless such records and documents are necessary to fulfill the Sub-Trust B Trustee's obligations hereunder) subject to the terms of any joint prosecution and common interest agreement(s) to which the Sub-Trust B Trustee may be a party. Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, upon the final distribution of Sub-Trust B Assets and filing by the Sub-Trust B Trustee and the Delaware Trustee of a Certificate of Cancellation with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware, the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall be deemed discharged and have no further duties or obligations hereunder, except to account to the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries as provided herein, Sub-Trust B Interests shall be cancelled, and Sub-Trust B will be deemed to have dissolved.

AMENDMENT AND WAIVER

10.1 Subject to Sections 1.5(d) and 10.2 of this Agreement, the Sub-Trust B Trustee, with the prior consent of the Sub-Trust A Trustee (not to be unreasonably withheld), may amend, supplement, or seek to waive any provision of this Agreement; provided, that to the extent any such amendment, supplement or waiver materially and adversely impacts the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, or modifies the obligations of the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors hereunder, such amendment, supplement, or waiver shall also require the prior written consent of the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, as applicable (not to be unreasonably withheld); provided, further, that to the extent any such amendment, supplement, or waiver materially and adversely affects the interests of the holder of the Sub-Trust B-3 Interest in a manner disproportionate to holders of other Sub-Trust B Interests, such amendment, supplement or waiver shall also require the prior consent of the DIP Notes Trust Trustee.

10.2 Notwithstanding Section 10.1 of this Agreement, no amendment, supplement, or waiver of or to this Agreement shall: (a) adversely affect the payments and/or distributions to be made under the Plan, the Confirmation Order, the UCC/TCC Recovery Allocation Agreement, or this Agreement; (b) alter the procedural requirements of Section 3.4 of this Agreement; (c) adversely affect the U.S. federal income tax status of Sub-Trust B as a "liquidating trust" that is taxable as a "grantor trust" for U.S. federal and applicable state and local income taxes; (d) adversely affect any consent, consultation or other rights afforded to the Sub-Trust A Trustee hereunder without the consent of the Sub-Trust A Trustee or adversely affect, in a manner disproportionate to holders of other Sub-Trust B Interests, any consent, consultation or other rights of the DIP Noteholder Trust (without the consent of the DIP Noteholder Trust Trustee); (e) conflict with, or expand the Reorganized Debtors' obligations under, the Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement; or (f) be inconsistent with the purpose and intention of Sub-Trust B to liquidate in an expeditious but orderly manner the Sub-Trust B Assets in accordance with Treasury Regulation Section 301.7701-4(d).

10.3 No failure by Sub-Trust B, or the Sub-Trust B Trustee, to exercise or delay in exercising any right, power, or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, power, or privilege hereunder preclude any further exercise thereof, or of any other right, power, or privilege.

10.4 Notwithstanding the forgoing, to the extent any such amendment, supplement, or waiver affects the rights, duties, protections, immunities, or indemnities of the Delaware Trustee, such act shall require the written consent of the Delaware Trustee. The fees and expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees) of the Delaware Trustee incurred in connection with any amendment shall be paid by the Sub-Trust B. In consenting to any amendment hereunder, the Delaware Trustee shall be entitled to receive and be fully protected in relying on an opinion of counsel that such amendment is authorized and permitted by this Agreement and that all conditions precedent to such amendment have been satisfied.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

11.1 Cooperation. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or otherwise, by accepting the Sub-Trust B-1 Interest or the Sub-Trust B-4 Interest, and accepting the corresponding distribution of a portion of the Committees Initial Cash Consideration, and without any requirement to execute and deliver this Agreement or any other document, each applicable Tort Sub-Trust shall be deemed to have agreed with this Sub-Trust B to (the "Sub Trust Cooperation Obligations") cooperate in good faith with this Sub-Trust B, at such Tort Sub-Trust's expense, and use its commercially reasonable efforts, in connection with the prosecution of the Sub-Trust B Assigned Insurance Rights for portion of each Tort Claim retained by Sub-Trust B after the Effective Date, including, without limitation, responding to reasonable information requests and coordinating information requests and other matters with its beneficiaries.

Each Party to this Agreement and the Sub-Trust B Beneficiaries, by accepting and holding their interest in the Sub-Trust B, hereby irrevocably consents to the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court in any action to enforce, interpret or construe any provision of this Agreement or of any other agreement or document delivered in connection with this Agreement, and also hereby irrevocably waives any defense of improper venue, forum non conveniens, or lack of personal jurisdiction to any such action brought in the Bankruptcy Court. Until the closing of the Chapter 11 Cases, any action to enforce, interpret, or construe any provision of this Agreement will be brought only in the Bankruptcy Court. In the event that all of the Chapter 11 Cases are closed, the Parties agree that the Sub-Trust B Trustee shall have the right to move to re-open the Chapter 11 Cases or alternatively, to bring the dispute(s) before the courts of the State of Delaware, including any federal court located in the State of Delaware (and, in such event, the Parties agree that the such courts shall have jurisdiction over the Sub-Trust B and the Sub-Trust B Trustee, including, without limitation, the administration and activities of the Sub-Trust B and the Sub-Trust B Trustee to the fullest extent permitted by law). Each Party hereby irrevocably consents to the service by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, of any process in any action to enforce, interpret, or construe any provision of this Agreement. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO, AND EACH SUB-TRUST B BENEFICIARY, BY ACCEPTING ITS INTEREST HEREIN, HEREBY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY AND ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY WITH RESPECT TO ANY LITIGATION OR LEGAL PROCEEDING DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF, UNDER OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT, THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY AND/OR SUB-TRUST B. McKesson 503(b)(9) Settlement Term Sheet

Execution Version

McKesson 503(b)(9) Settlement[1]

This agreement (the "Agreement") sets forth certain terms and conditions of the McKesson Settlement agreed to by the Debtors and McKesson (McKesson and the Debtors each a "Party" and collectively the "Parties"). For the avoidance of doubt, this Agreement memorializes solely those terms of the McKesson 503(b)(9) Settlement related to the treatment and settlement of the McKesson Claim. To the extent any term of this Agreement conflicts with the terms of the McKesson Settlement Documents or the Plan, the McKesson Settlement Documents or the Plan, as applicable, shall govern.

Topic	Terms
Post-Emergence Trade Credit Terms and Lien Priority	As collateral security for the payment and performance in full of the Reorganized Debtors' obligations from and after the Effective Date under the McKesson New Contract (excluding the payments set forth in Exhibit P thereof), the Reorganized Debtors shall, pursuant to a duly-executed security agreement (the "Security Agreement"), along with a related subsidiary guarantee agreement, a related indemnity, subrogation and contribution agreement and a related notice and consent (affiliate joinder) agreement, copies of which will be appended to the McKesson New Contract, pledge and grant to McKesson a lien on and security interest in substantially all of the property and assets of the Reorganized Debtors and with the priority as contemplated herein and as set forth in the Security Agreement and the applicable intercreditor agreements (such obligations, the "McKesson Go-Forward 2L Debt"). The liens securing the McKesson Go-Forward 2L Debt shall be (a) junior only to the Exit ABL Facility, the Exit FILO Term Loan Facility, and the Exit 1.5 Lien Notes, and (b) senior to the liens securing the Takeback Notes, which notes shall be secured by a third lien on all of the Debtors' assets.[2]

[1] The document set forth herein reflects a term sheet containing certain of the material terms related to the McKesson 503(b)(9) Settlement. The terms of this document remain subject to ongoing negotiation and material revision, supplementation and other changes, and the parties reserve their rights with respect to any such negotiation, revision, supplementation and other changes. The Debtors will file an amended version of this document reflecting finalized terms at a later date.

Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meaning set forth in the Second Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization of Rite Aid Corporation and Its Debtor Affiliates (as Further Amended) [Docket No. 3833] (as may be amended, supplemented, or otherwise modified from time to time, the "Plan).

[2] Intercreditor agreements to be entered into (i) as between the McKesson Go-Forward 2L Debt and the Exit ABL Facility, Exit FILO Term Loan Facility, and Exit 1.5 Lien Notes and (ii) as between the McKesson Go-Forward 2L Debt and the Takeback Notes.

Topic	Terms
	The liens securing the Takeback Notes shall be (x) junior only to the Exit ABL Facility, the Exit FILO Term Loan Facility, and the Exit 1.5 Lien Notes, and the McKesson Go-Forward 2L Debt, and (y) senior to the Guaranteed Deferred Cash Payments (as defined herein) and the Contingent Deferred Cash Payments (as defined herein), which Guaranteed Deferred Cash Payments and Contingent Deferred Cash Payments shall be unsecured. Further terms related to the Debtors' go-forward trade terms with McKesson are set forth in the McKesson New Contract.
Release	As set forth in the Plan and Confirmation Order, approved by the Bankruptcy Court upon entry of the Confirmation Order.
Treatment of 503(b)(9) Claim	In full and final satisfaction, compromise, settlement, and release of and in exchange for the McKesson Claim, McKesson shall receive the following, including Cash payments up to a maximum of approximately $333.8 million, consisting of the following: The Debtors shall pay, or cause to be paid, to McKesson, not later than the first (1st) Business Day after the Effective Date, the amounts set forth in the following clauses (i) and (iii) and MedImpact shall pay or cause to be paid to McKesson, not later than the first (1st) Business Day after the Effective Date, the amount set forth in the following clause (ii):[3]

[3] The McKesson New Contract shall include a provision substantially in the form of the following: "If McKesson is ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction, pursuant to a non-stayed order (such order, the "Non-Stayed Remittance Order"), to remit any portion of the MedImpact Cash Payment to MedImpact, then McKesson shall be entitled to reimbursement for such remitted portion from the Reorganized Debtors. If the Reorganized Debtors do not reimburse McKesson within ten (10) business days of receiving McKesson's demand for such reimbursement, such failure shall constitute a default under the McKesson New Contract (among other defaults listed therein). The Reorganized Debtors shall reimburse McKesson for all fees reasonably incurred in connection with any proceeding commenced by MedImpact (whether such proceeding is brought against the Reorganized Debtors, McKesson, or both) to recover the MedImpact Cash Payment. McKesson shall be required to cooperate in good faith with the Reorganized Debtors in connection with any proceeding by MedImpact (whether such proceeding is brought against the Reorganized Debtors or McKesson, or both) seeking entry of an order requiring McKesson to remit any portion of the MedImpact Cash Payment. The Reorganized Debtors' reimbursement obligations set forth in this paragraph shall be subject to and contingent upon, in each case, McKesson's compliance with its obligations in the foregoing sentence."

Topic	Terms
	(i) an amount equal to $25 million (the "Initial Cash Payment"); plus (ii) approximately $33.8 million (the "MedImpact Cash Payment") of accounts payable owed by Hunter Lane, LLC and assumed by MedImpact; plus (iii) if, on the Effective Date, the Debtors have liquidity calculated as (x) the total amount of ABL Availability (as defined in the Exit Facilities Credit Agreement) under the Exit ABL Facility that is available to be drawn by the Reorganized Debtors on the Effective Date, plus Cash in lockbox and store deposit accounts that have not been swept to pay down the DIP ABL Facility (collectively "Starting Cash"), less (y) the costs to confirm the Plan (including, for the avoidance of doubt, the Initial Cash Payment) and emerge from bankruptcy but excluding Cash to be distributed to any Impaired Class under the Plan (such costs, the "Emergence Costs" and the Starting Cash less the Emergence Costs, collectively, "Available Cash") in excess of $675 million, then the Initial Cash Payment from Rite Aid will increase by $1 million for every $1 million increase in Available Cash over $675 million (such increase, the "Incremental Initial Payment"), up to a maximum Initial Cash Payment from the Debtors of $50 million.[4] The Initial Cash Payment and, solely if applicable, the Incremental Initial Payment, shall be paid by Rite Aid not later than the first (1st) Business Day after the Effective Date in cash by wire transfer. In addition, Rite Aid shall reimburse McKesson for all reasonable professional fees and expenses related to the McKesson 503(b)(9) Settlement (as defined in the Plan) and this Agreement, with such fees and expenses to be paid not later than the third (3rd) Business Day after the Effective Date if invoiced prior to the Effective Date or not later

[4] By way of illustration, (x) if the Debtors' Starting Cash is $775 million and Emergence Costs are $100 million, then Available Cash is $675 million and the Initial Cash Payment is $25 million and (y) if the Debtors' Starting Cash is $775 million and Emergence Costs are $85 million, then Available Cash is $690 million and the Initial Cash Payment is $40 million.

The Reorganized Debtors shall make additional Cash payments to McKesson in an aggregate amount of $175 million (which shall be reduced on a dollar-for-dollar basis by the amount of the Incremental Initial Payment, if any), payable in six (6) equal semi-annual installments over three (3) years (each payment, a "Guaranteed Deferred Cash Payment"). The first Guaranteed Deferred Cash Payment shall be due six (6) months after the Effective Date, and each subsequent Guaranteed Deferred Cash Payment shall be due at six-month (6-month) intervals thereafter.

Each year for five (5) years, the Reorganized Debtors shall make a Cash payment to McKesson due annually thirty (30) days after the date that the Reorganized Debtors deliver their annual financial statements to McKesson for the given fiscal year, starting with fiscal year 2025 (each payment a "Contingent Deferred Cash Payment"), subject to an aggregate cap for all Contingent Deferred Cash Payments of $100 million and in each case contingent on meeting certain performance milestones, based on Adjusted EBITDA (as defined in the McKesson New Contract),[5] in such annual fiscal year results, as set forth below:

[5] The Adjusted EBITDA definition in the McKesson New Contract is based on and substantially identical to the definition of Consolidated EBITDA in the Exit ABL Credit Agreement as of the Effective Date, subject only to such conforming changes as may be required to reflect the different identities of the applicable secured parties (i.e., provisions relating to "Agent" instead relate to "McKesson"). To the extent the aggregate Contingent Deferred Cash Payments accruing pursuant to the foregoing milestones during the applicable 5-year period do not reach the $100 million aggregate cap, then the Reorganized Debtors shall not be obligated to pay any such shortfall. If and when the Reorganized Debtors sell, close or otherwise dispose of five percent (5%) of then-existing stores after the Effective Date (other than any sale, closure or other disposition pursuant to which there is a transfer of inventory or other assets, including prescription files, from one store to another store operated (and not itself subject to a disposition) by Rite Aid or any of its Consolidated Subsidiaries (as defined in the McKesson New Contract)), the trade credit caps under the McKesson New Contract shall be ratably decreased by five (5%) of then-operative trade credit caps, with such ratable decreases applying each time five percent (5%) of then-existing stores have been so disposed of since the prior ratable decrease, as applicable.[6] McKesson and the Reorganized Debtors have agreed on a mutually-satisfactory protocol for calculation and implementation of adjustments to the Adjusted EBITDA thresholds to account for post-emergence dispositions, which is included in the McKesson New Contract. McKesson may withhold and apply all prepetition amounts owed to the Debtors under the McKesson Prepetition Contract (including, but not limited to credits or rebates) against the McKesson Claim (collectively, the "Rebate Amounts"), subject to mutual reconciliation of product return amounts by the Debtors and/or Reorganized Debtors (as applicable) and

[6] The McKesson New Contract shall provide for 10-day payment terms, up to a maximum of $270 million (gross) outstanding during the months of November through July (the "Base Line Cap"), subject to a seasonal adjustment of 107% of the Base Line Cap during the months of August through October (the "Seasonal Adjustment") (e.g., a Seasonal Adjustment of $288.9 million for a Base Line Cap of $270 million), with such payments further subject to the following (x) 11-day payment terms, up to a maximum Base Line Cap of $295 million, upon receipt of $50 million in aggregate Contingent Deferred Cash Payments); and (y) $320 million for 12-day payment terms, upon receipt of $100 million in aggregate Contingent Deferred Cash Payments, with provisos (x) and (y) also subject to the Seasonal Adjustment.

AGREEMENT OF TRUST

1.1 Creation and Name. By this Trust Agreement and the filing of a Certificate of Trust with the Secretary of State for the State of Delaware on September [2], 2024, the parties hereto hereby create a trust known as the "Rite Aid Opioid Personal Injury Trust" (the "PI Trust"), which is the PI Trust contemplated by the Governing Order and Filings. The Trustee may transact the business and affairs of the PI Trust in the name of the PI Trust, and references herein to the PI Trust shall include the Trustee acting on behalf of the PI Trust. It is the intention of the Debtors and the parties hereto that the trust created hereby constitute a statutory trust under Chapter 38 of title 12 of the Delaware Code, 12 Del. C. § 3801 et seq. (as it may be amended from time to time, the "DST Act"), and that this document constitute the governing instrument of the PI Trust. The Trustee and the Delaware Trustee are hereby authorized and directed to execute and file a Certificate of Trust with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A.

1.2 Purpose. The purpose of the PI Trust is to assume the Debtors' liabilities and responsibility for all PI Opioid Claims to resolve and make distributions in respect of Allowed PI Opioid Claims in accordance with the PI TDP, use the PI Trust Assets (as defined herein) and income to meet its obligations, as well as to, among other things:

(a) collect the PI Trust Share in accordance with the Plan and the PI Trust Documents;

(b) direct the administration, processing, liquidation and payment of all PI Opioid Claims and in a manner consistent with the intent of the Plan, and in accordance with the

PI Trust Documents;

(c) preserve, hold, and manage the assets of the PI Trust for use in paying and satisfying Allowed PI Opioid Claims;

(d) qualify at all times as a qualified settlement fund;

(e) pay holders of Allowed PI Opioid Claims in a manner consistent with the intent of the Plan and in accordance with this Trust Agreement, and the PI TDP, such that holders of Allowed PI Opioid Claims are treated fairly, equitably, and reasonably in light of the finite assets available to satisfy such Allowed PI Opioid Claims;

(f) fund the PI Trust and make distributions therefrom to holders of Allowed PI Opioid Claims in accordance with the Plan, the Confirmation Order, and the PI Trust Documents;

(g) use the PI Trust's assets and income to pay any and all fees, costs, expenses, taxes, disbursements, debts, or obligations of the PI Trust incurred from the operation and administration of the PI Trust (including in connection with the Plan, the Confirmation Order, and the PI Trust Documents) and management of the PI Trust Assets (together, the "Trust Operating Expenses") in accordance with the PI Trust Documents; and

(h) make Distributions on account of Allowed PI Opioid Claims (together with the Trust Operating Expenses, the "Trust Expenses").

1.3 Transfer of Assets. Pursuant to and in accordance with the Plan, the PI Trust shall have received, on the Effective Date, the PI Trust Share (together with proceeds from or interest thereon, the "PI Trust Assets") to fund the PI Trust and settle or discharge all PI Opioid Claims. In all events, the PI Trust Assets or any other assets to be transferred to the PI Trust under the Plan will be transferred to the PI Trust free and clear of all Claims, interests, Liens, and other encumbrances and liabilities of any kind by the Debtors, the Settlor, the other Released Parties, any creditor, or other entity except as otherwise provided in the PI Trust Documents, the Plan, or the Confirmation Order.

1.4 Separate NAS Trust. Claimants with Opioid Claims arising from intrauterine exposure to opioids (including but not limited to neonatal abstinence syndrome, or "NAS") are not eligible to participate in the PI Trust and will be subject to a different trust agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, any such claims are not PI Opioid Claims.

1.5 Acceptance of Assets and Assumption of Liabilities.

(a) In furtherance of the purposes of the PI Trust, the PI Trust hereby expressly accepts the transfer to the PI Trust of the PI Trust Assets and any other transfers contemplated by the Plan, Confirmation Order, and the PI Trust Documents in the time and manner as, and subject to the terms, contemplated in the Plan, the Confirmation Order, and the PI Trust Documents.

(b) In furtherance of the purposes of the PI Trust, the PI Trust will expressly assume the Debtors' liabilities and responsibility for all PI Opioid Claims, as and when channeled., in whole or in part, in accordance with the Governing Order and Filings and the PI Trust Documents. However, the PI Trust expressly does not assume any liabilities or responsibility for any Claims against any person or entity that is not a Debtor, and in accordance with the Plan, any rights of holders of PI Opioid Claims against any other person or entity shall be fully preserved. Except as otherwise provided in the Plan or the PI Trust Documents, the PI Trust shall have all defenses, cross-claims, offsets, and recoupments, as well as rights of indemnification, contribution, subrogation, and similar rights, regarding the PI Opioid Claims that the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors have or would have had under Applicable Law (as defined below).

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, no provision herein or in the PI TDP or in the Governing Order and Filings or any other document contemplated thereby shall be construed or implemented in a manner that would cause the PI Trust to fail to qualify as a "qualified settlement fund" under the QSF Regulations.

(d) To the extent required by the DST Act, the beneficial owners (within the meaning of the DST Act) of the PI Trust (the "Beneficial Owners") shall be deemed to be the PI Claimants; provided that (i) the PI Claimants, as such Beneficial Owners, shall have only such rights with respect to the PI Trust and its assets as are set forth in the PI TDP and (ii) no greater or other rights, including upon dissolution, liquidation, or winding up of the PI Trust, shall be deemed to apply to the PI Claimants in their capacity as Beneficial Owners.

ARTICLE II

For the avoidance of doubt, this Trust Agreement shall be construed and implemented in accordance with the Plan and the Confirmation Order, regardless of whether any provision herein explicitly references the Plan.

(b) The Trustee shall (i) timely file such income tax and other returns and statements required to be filed, and shall timely pay all taxes required to be paid by the PI Trust, (ii) comply with all applicable reporting and withholding obligations (including any reports determined to be necessary by the Trustee under the CTA), (iii) satisfy all requirements necessary to qualify and maintain qualification of the PI Trust as a qualified settlement fund within the meaning of the QSF Regulations, and (iv) take no action that could cause the PI Trust to fail to qualify as a qualified settlement fund within the meaning of the QSF Regulations.

(c) The Trustee may withhold, and shall pay to the appropriate tax authority all amounts required by law to be withheld pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code or any provision of any applicable foreign, state, or local tax law with respect to any payment or distribution to the holders of Allowed PI Opioid Claims. All such amounts withheld and paid to the appropriate tax authority shall be treated as amounts distributed to such holders of Allowed PI Opioid Claims for all purposes of this Trust Agreement. The Trustee shall be authorized to collect tax information, which may include applicable IRS Form W-8 or IRS Form W-9, from the holders of Allowed PI Opioid Claims (including tax identification numbers) as reasonably requested by the Trustee, readily available to the holders of the Allowed PI Opioid Claims and necessary to effectuate the Plan, the Confirmation Order and this Trust Agreement. The Trustee may refuse to make some or all of a Distribution to a holder of an Allowed PI Opioid Claim that fails to furnish such information in a timely fashion, and until such information is delivered may treat such holder's Allowed PI Opioid Claim, as disputed; provided, however, that, upon the delivery of such information by a holder of an Allowed PI Opioid Claim, the Trustee shall make such Distribution to which such holder is entitled, without additional interest occasioned by such holder's delay in providing tax information. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a holder of an Allowed PI Opioid Claim fails to furnish any tax information reasonably requested by the Trustee before the date that is six months after the request is made (subject to extension in the discretion of the Trustee if such holder demonstrates to the reasonable satisfaction of the Trustee that such holder's failure to provide such tax information is due to one or more taxing authorities' failure to furnish information necessary to respond to the Trustee's reasonable request to such holder despite such holder's request for such information), to the fullest extent permitted by law, the Trustee in his discretion, may determine that the amount of such distribution shall irrevocably revert to the PI Trust, and any PI Opioid Claim with respect to such Distribution shall be discharged and forever barred from assertion against the PI Trust or its property.

(d) The Trustee shall be responsible for all of the PI Trust's tax matters, including without limitation, tax audits, claims, defenses and proceedings. The Trustee shall file (or cause to be filed) any other statement, return, or disclosure relating to the PI Trust that is required by any governmental unit and be responsible for payment, out of the PI Trust Assets, of any taxes imposed on the PI Trust or its assets.

(e) The Trustee may provide the following reports:

(iii) The Trustee may prepare an annual report (the "Annual Report").

The Annual Report, if any, may contain financial statements of the PI Trust (including, without limitation, a balance sheet of the PI Trust as of the end of such fiscal year and a statement of operations for such fiscal year) audited by a firm of independent certified public accountants selected by the Trustee and accompanied by an opinion of such firm as to the fairness of the financial statements' presentation of the cash and investments available for the payment of claims.

(iv) The Annual Report may also include an aggregate summary regarding the number and type of PI Opioid Claims resolved during the period covered by the financial statements.

(v) The Trustee shall provide a copy of any such Annual Report to the PI Committee.

(f) In consultation with the PI Committee, the Trustee may cause to be prepared as soon as practicable prior to the commencement of each fiscal year a budget and cash flow projection covering such fiscal year. The budget and cash flow projections, if any, shall include a description of the amounts the PI Trust anticipates spending on Trust Operating Expenses and, to the extent practicable, payments to holders of Allowed PI Opioid Claims. The Trustee shall provide a copy of the budget and cash flow projections to the PI Committee.

(g) The Trustee shall consult with the PI Committee (i) on the general implementation and administration of the PI Trust; (ii) on the general implementation and administration of the PI TDP, or as the Trustee may determine; and (iii) on such other matters as may be required under the PI Trust Documents.

(h) The Trustee shall be required to obtain the reasonable consent of the PI Committee pursuant to the consent processes set forth in Sections 5.7(b) below, in addition to any other instances elsewhere enumerated, in order:

(i) to clarify the claim qualification requirements, to the extent such clarification is necessary, described in the PI TDP;

(ii) to determine, establish, or change the Pro Rata Payments described in the PI TDP;

(iii) to change the evidentiary criteria set forth in the PI TDP;

(iv) to determine, establish, or change the types of evidence required for a Qualifying Opioid described in the PI TDP;

(vi) to extend the mandatory deadlines provided under the PI TDP;

(vii) to dissolve the PI Trust pursuant to Section 8.4 below;

(viii) to exercise any consent or consultation right (to the extent the Trustee has any such right) (A) with respect to a proposed settlement of the liability of any insurer under any insurance policy or legal action related thereto or (B) pursuant to the terms of the PI Trust Documents;

(ix) to change the compensation of the Trustee, the Delaware Trustee, the PI Committee members, or the Claims Administrator, other than to reflect cost-of-living increases or to reflect changes approved by the Bankruptcy Court as otherwise provided herein;

(x) to take actions out of the ordinary course to minimize any tax on the PI Trust Assets, provided that no such action prevents the PI Trust from qualifying as a qualified settlement fund within the meaning of the QSF Regulations or requires an election for the PI Trust to be treated as a grantor trust for tax purposes;

(xi) to sell or exchange PI Trust Assets outside the ordinary course of

PI Trust business;

(xii) to amend any provision of the PI Trust Documents in accordance with the terms thereof (provided, no amendment that is inconsistent with the provisions of the Plan and Confirmation Order shall be permissible without the approval of the Bankruptcy Court);

(xiii) to contract with a claims resolution organization or other entity that is not specifically created or authorized by the PI Trust Documents; or

(xiv) if and to the extent required by the PI TDP, disclose any information, documents, or other materials to preserve, litigate, resolve or settle coverage, or comply with an applicable obligation under an insurance policy or settlement agreement pursuant to the PI TDP.

(i) The Trustee shall meet with the PI Committee not less often than quarterly. The Trustee shall meet in the interim with the PI Committee when so requested by the Trustee or any of them. Meetings may be held in person, by telephone, by Zoom or video conference call, or by any combination thereof.

(j) The Trustee, upon notice from the PI Committee, if practicable in view of pending business, shall at the Trustee's next meeting with the PI Committee consider issues submitted by the PI Committee. The Trustee shall keep the PI Committee reasonably informed regarding all material aspects of the administration of the PI Trust.

2.3 Claims Administration. The Trustee shall promptly proceed to implement the PI TDP.

2.4 Assets Available for Payments to Holders of Allowed PI Opioid Claims. The amount of the PI Trust Assets available to make settlement payments to holders of Allowed PI Opioid Claims shall be subject to deductions for the Trust Operating Expenses hereof out of such

Notwithstanding the foregoing, no individual shall be indemnified or defended in any way for any liability, expense, claim, damage, or loss for which such individual is ultimately liable under Section 4.4 above. C. § 3806(e), the written opinion of or information provided by any Trust Professional deemed by the Trustee to be an expert on the particular matter submitted to such Trust Professional shall be full and complete authorization and protection in respect of any action taken or not taken by the Trustee hereunder in good faith and in accordance with the written opinion of or information provided by any Trust Professionals.

(b) The Delaware Trustee shall be permitted to retain counsel in connection with the performance and/or exercise of the Delaware Trustee's obligations, rights, powers and/or authority hereunder and compliance with the advice of such counsel shall be full and complete authorization and protection for actions taken or not taken by the Delaware Trustee in good faith in compliance with such advice.

4.11 Trustee's Retention of Claims Administrator.

(a) The Trustee may retain a claims administrator (the "Claims Administrator") to assist the Trustee in the Trustee's duties as set forth in the Plan and the PI Trust Documents. With the consent of the PI Committee, the Claims Administrator may be the same individual as the Trustee.

(b) The PI Committee has agreed that Edgar C. Gentle, III, of Gentle Turner & Benson, LLC, shall be the initial Trustee and Claims Administrator. With the consent of the PI Committee, and subject to the Trustee's duties and obligations set forth in the Plan, the Confirmation Order, and the PI Trust Documents and the terms of this section with respect to the Claims Administrator's duties and compensation, the initial Trustee and Claims Administrator may retain his law firm, Gentle Turner & Benson, LLC, to assist in carrying out the duties of the Trustee and Claims Administrator under the PI Trust Documents.

(c) Under the direction of the Trustee, the Claims Administrator shall be responsible for (i) supervising and overseeing the processing of and resolution of PI Opioid Claims and all aspects of the claims office (the "Claims Office"), which shall process Allowed PI Opioid Claims that are payable from the PI Trust in accordance with the PI Trust Documents, (ii) preparing and distributing monthly and quarterly reports to the PI Committee documenting the activities of

The Trustee shall monitor the long-term goals and day-to-day activities of the Claims Office and consult with the Claims Administrator and the PI Committee to carry them out. Reports of the numbers of Allowed Claims and amounts of Awards prepared by the Claims Administrator (or similar reports prepared by the Trustee) shall be provided to the trustee of the Future PI Trust and the FCR.

(d) The Claims Administrator, under the direction of the Trustee, shall determine, in accordance with the Governing Order and Filings and the PI Trust Documents, the Allowance or Disallowance (as defined in the PI TDP) of, and the awards payable on, and all PI Opioid Claims liquidated under the PI TDP.

(e) As set forth in the PI TDP, distributions under the PI TDP, which shall be made solely from the PI Trust, are determined only with consideration to Allowed PI Opioid Claims held against the Debtors, and not to any associated claim against any other party; any distribution to a PI Claimant on account of such PI Claimant's Allowed PI Opioid Claim shall be deemed to be a distribution in satisfaction of PI Opioid Claims held by such PI Claimant against any of the Released Parties with respect to the same injuries that are the subject of his or her PI Opioid Claim.

(f) The Trustee shall exercise reasonable measures to oversee the Claims Administrator and the Claims Office, and shall employ reasonable administrative, technical, and physical controls to protect the confidentiality of data concerning individual PI Claimants from unauthorized access, acquisition, disclosure, use, loss, or theft.

(g) In carrying out the Trustee's duties under the PI Trust Documents, the Trustee (or the Trust Professionals under the direction of the Trustee) may investigate any PI Opioid Claims and request information from any PI Claimants or holders of Allowed PI Opioid Claims to ensure compliance with the PI Trust Documents. For PI Claimants and holders of Allowed PI Opioid Claims who are requested to execute the HIPAA release forms, the Trustee (or the Trust Professionals under the direction of the Trustee) also has the power to directly obtain such PI Claimant's medical records.

(h) The Claims Office shall process Allowed PI Opioid Claims payable from the PI Trust in accordance with the PI TDP. The PI TDP establishes specific guidelines for submitting and processing PI Opioid Claims.

(i) The Trustee shall have discretion to implement such additional procedures and routines as necessary to implement the PI TDP, in collaboration with the Claims Administrator, and the PI Committee, and consistent with the terms of the Governing Order and Filings and the PI Trust Documents.

(j) Under the direction of the Trustee, the Claims Administrator shall institute procedures, claims processing protocols, and staff training, and shall develop internal controls, claims-tracking, analysis, and payment systems as necessary to process the PI Opioid Claims and in accordance with the Governing Order and Filings, the PI TDP, including reasonable measures to detect and prevent claims fraud.

(k) The Trustee shall maintain (subject to the confidentiality provisions of this Trust Agreement) records of all individual payments, settlements, and resolutions concerning the PI Opioid Claims. The records shall include the documents and information relative to the valuation of the PI Opioid Claims.

(l) The Claims Administrator shall serve for the duration of the PI Trust, subject to death, resignation, or removal. The Trustee may remove the Claims Administrator with the consent of the PI Committee. In the event that the Claims Administrator resigns, is removed from office, or otherwise is unable to perform the functions of the Claims Administrator, the Trustee shall propose a successor Claims Administrator, subject to consent by the PI Committee. However, in the event that, pursuant to Section 4.11(a), the Trustee also serves as the Claims Administrator, if the Trustee is removed, absent an order of the Bankruptcy Court to the contrary, the Claims Administrator shall also be removed from office, and the successor Trustee shall fill the vacancy by proposing a Claims Administrator subject to consent of the PI Committee.

(m) The Claims Administrator (or successor Claims Administrator) shall be (i) an entity or an individual over the age of 35 whose experience and background are appropriate for the responsibilities set forth herein and (ii) at the time of appointment and at all times during the term of service, independent. For purposes of this Section, a person is independent if such person:

(i) is not and was not at any time a PI Claimant or a representative of a PI Claimant;

(ii) has not had and does not have a relationship with an individual PI Claimant or with counsel for any PI Claimant, such that the person's impartiality in serving as a Claims Administrator could reasonably be questioned;

(iii) is not a holder of any interest (other than interests held indirectly through publicly traded mutual funds) in a Debtor or the Settlor or any related person with respect to a Debtor or the Reorganized Debtors;

(iv) is not and was not at any time an officer, director, employee, or agent of a Debtor or any related person with respect to a Debtor or related to any of the foregoing, or otherwise is or was an "insider," as defined in the Bankruptcy Code, with respect to a Debtor or any related person with respect to a Debtor; or

(v) is not an investment banker, financial advisor, accountant, or attorney, and is not related to any of the foregoing, for any Debtor or any related person with respect to a Debtor, or an officer, director, employee, or agent of any person or entity that provides investment banking, financial advice, accounting, or legal services to a Debtor or any related person with respect to a Debtor or related to any of the foregoing, with the exception of any person employed in the Claims Administrator's law firm who helps provide services in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases.

(n) Subject to approval by the Trustee, the Claims Administrator shall have the power to hire, and shall hire and appoint, such staff and other appropriate agents, including persons or entities performing PI Opioid Claims audit functions, as necessary to carry out the functions of the Claims Administrator under this Trust Agreement, and such staff and agents shall be considered Indemnified Parties to the extent permitted by the DST Act. Salaries, fees, budgets, and payment terms for any staff, contractors, or auditors shall be determined by the Claims Administrator, with the Trustee's approval, subject to consultation with the PI Committee. The Claims Administrator shall not have authority to subcontract claims processing functions without the consent of the Trustee and PI Committee. Subject to the direction of the Trustee, in consultation with the PI Committee, the Claims Administrator shall have the authority to enter into such contracts or agreements as may be necessary to operate the Claims Office, hire staff and contractors, or obtain services and equipment, and shall have the authority to serve all functions of an employer; provided, that no such contracts or agreements may be inconsistent with the terms of the Plan or the Confirmation Order.

(o) The compensation of the Claims Administrator and the Claims Administrator's staff, including periodic increases, shall be governed by the budget developed by the Claims Administrator in consultation with the Financial Advisor and approved by the Trustee, with the consent of the PI Committee.

4.13 Delaware Trustee.

(a) There shall at all times be a Delaware Trustee. The Delaware Trustee shall either be (i) a natural person who is at least 21 years of age and a resident of the State of Delaware or (ii) a legal entity that has its principal place of business in the State of Delaware in accordance with Section 3807 of the DST Act, otherwise meets the requirements of applicable Delaware law and shall act through one or more persons authorized to bind such entity. The initial Delaware Trustee shall be Wilmington Trust, National Association. If at any time the Delaware Trustee shall cease to be eligible in accordance with the provisions of this Section 4.13, it shall resign immediately in the manner and with the effect hereinafter specified in Section 4.13(c) below. For the avoidance of doubt, the Delaware Trustee will only have such rights, duties and obligations as are expressly stated in this Trust Agreement. Any reference to a "Trustee" shall not include the Delaware Trustee.

(b) The Delaware Trustee shall not be entitled to exercise any powers, nor shall the Delaware Trustee have any of the duties, responsibilities, powers or authority of the Trustee. The Delaware Trustee shall be one of the trustees of the PI Trust strictly for the sole and limited purpose of fulfilling the requirement of Section 3807(a) of the DST Act and for taking such actions as are required to be taken by it under the DST Act as expressly set forth in (i) and (ii) of the following sentence. The duties (including fiduciary duties), liabilities and obligations of the Delaware Trustee shall be strictly limited to (i) accepting legal process served on the PI Trust in the State of Delaware when served upon the Delaware trustee required under Section 3807(a) of the DST Act, and (ii) (acting solely at the written direction of the Trustee) the execution of any certificates required to be filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware that the Delaware Trustee is required to execute under Section 3811 of the DST Act, and there shall be no other duties (including fiduciary duties) or obligations, express or implied, at law or in equity, of the Delaware Trustee. To the extent that, at law or in equity, the Delaware Trustee has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the PI Trust, the other parties hereto or any beneficiary of the PI Trust, it is hereby understood and agreed by the other parties hereto and all beneficiaries of the PI Trust that such duties and liabilities are hereby eliminated and restricted to the fullest extent allowable under applicable law and replaced by the duties and liabilities of the Delaware Trustee expressly set forth in this Section 4.13(b). In accepting and performing its duties hereunder the Delaware Trustee acts solely as Delaware Trustee hereunder and not in its individual capacity, and all persons having any claim against the Delaware Trustee or the PI Trust by reason of the transactions contemplated by this Trust Agreement shall look only to the PI Trust Assets for payment or satisfaction thereof. The Delaware Trustee shall not be personally liable under any circumstances, except for such losses or damages which have been finally adjudicated by a court of competent jurisdiction to have directly resulted from its own willful misconduct. The Delaware Trustee shall not be personally liable for any error or judgment made or other action taken by a responsible officer or other authorized officer of the Delaware Trustee in good faith. Under no circumstance shall the Delaware Trustee, in its individual capacity or in its capacity as Delaware Trustee, or any director, officer, employee, consultant, advisor, agent, or affiliate of the Delaware Trustee be personally liable for any representation, warranty, covenant, agreement, liability or indebtedness of the PI Trust, as all such representations, warranties, covenants, agreements, liabilities or indebtedness of the PI Trust are those of the PI Trust as an entity. The recitals contained herein shall not be taken as the statements of the Delaware Trustee, and the Delaware Trustee does not assume any responsibility for their correctness. The Delaware Trustee shall not be required to take or refrain from taking any action if it shall have determined, or shall have been advised by counsel, that such performance is reasonably likely to subject the Delaware Trustee to personal liability or is contrary to the terms of this Trust Agreement or of any document contemplated hereby to which the PI Trust or the Delaware Trustee is a party or is otherwise contrary to law. The Delaware Trustee shall have no liability for the acts or omissions of the Trustee or any other Person. No permissive rights of the Delaware Trustee to do things enumerated in this Trust Agreement, and no power, authority, authorization, or discretion of the Delaware Trustee, shall be construed as a duty and, with respect to any such permissive rights, the Delaware Trustee shall not be answerable for the same other than in the event of its gross negligence, willful misconduct or fraud. The Delaware Trustee shall be entitled to require and receive written instructions from the Trustee and shall have no responsibility or liability for any losses or damages of any nature that may arise from any action taken or not taken by the Delaware Trustee provided that the Delaware Trustee has acted in accordance with the written direction of the Trustee. Following the Effective Date, the Delaware Trustee may, at the expense of the PI Trust, reasonably request, require, rely on and act in accordance with officer's certificates and/or opinions of counsel, and shall incur no liability and shall be fully protected in acting or refraining from acting in accordance with such officer's certificates and opinions of counsel. The Delaware Trustee may conclusively rely and shall be fully protected, and shall incur no liability to anyone, in acting or refraining from acting in good faith and in reliance upon any judgment, order or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction or any signature, instrument, notice, resolution, request, instruction, direction, consent, order, certificate, report, opinion, bond or other document or paper believed by it to be genuine and believed by it to be signed or presented by a proper Person or Persons, not only as to due execution, validity and effectiveness, but also as to the truth and accuracy of any information contained therein. The Delaware Trustee may accept a certified copy of a resolution of any governing body of any Person as conclusive evidence that such resolution has been duly adopted by such Person and that the same is in full force and effect.

(c) The Delaware Trustee shall serve until such time as the Trustee removes the Delaware Trustee or the Delaware Trustee resigns and a successor Delaware Trustee is appointed by the Trustee in accordance with the terms of Section 4.13(d) below. The Delaware Trustee may resign at any time upon the giving of at least forty-five (45) days' advance written notice to the Trustee; provided, that such resignation shall not become effective unless and until a successor Delaware Trustee shall have been appointed by the Trustee in accordance with Section 4.13(d) below. If the Trustee does not appoint a successor within such 45-day period, the Delaware Trustee may apply (at the sole cost and expense of the PI Trust) to the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware for the appointment of a successor Delaware Trustee. In the event that any amounts due and owing to the Delaware Trustee under this Trust Agreement remain unpaid for more than ninety (90) days, the Delaware Trustee shall be entitled to resign on thirty (30) days' notice regardless of whether a successor Delaware Trustee has been appointed.

(d) Upon the resignation or removal of the Delaware Trustee, the Trustee shall appoint a successor Delaware Trustee by delivering a written instrument to the then-serving Delaware Trustee. Any successor Delaware Trustee must satisfy the requirements of Section 3807(a) of the DST Act. Any resignation or removal of the Delaware Trustee and appointment of a successor Delaware Trustee shall not become effective until a written acceptance of appointment is delivered by the successor Delaware Trustee to the then-serving Delaware Trustee and the Trustee and any fees and expenses due to the then-serving Delaware Trustee are paid. Following compliance with the preceding sentence, the successor Delaware Trustee shall become fully vested with all of the rights, powers, duties, and obligations of the then-serving Delaware Trustee under this Trust Agreement, with like effect as if originally named as Delaware Trustee, and the then-serving Delaware Trustee shall be discharged of its duties and obligations under this Trust Agreement. The successor Delaware Trustee shall make any related filings required under the DST Act, including filing a Certificate of Amendment to the Certificate of Trust of the PI Trust in accordance with Section 3810 of the DST Act.

(e) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, any business entity into which the Delaware Trustee may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated or any entity resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Delaware Trustee shall be a party, or any entity succeeding to all or substantially all of the corporate trust business of the Delaware Trustee, shall be the successor of the Delaware Trustee hereunder, without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto.

(f) The Delaware Trustee shall neither be responsible for, nor chargeable with, knowledge of the terms and conditions of any other agreement, instrument or document, other than this Trust Agreement, whether or not an original or a copy of such agreement has been provided to the Delaware Trustee, and shall not be charged with knowledge of (A) any events or other information, or (B) any default under this Trust Agreement or any other agreement unless an officer of the Delaware Trustee having direct responsibility for the Delaware Trustee's performance of this Trust Agreement shall have actual knowledge thereof. The Delaware Trustee shall have no duty to know or inquire as to the performance or nonperformance of any provision of any other agreement, instrument or document, other than this Trust Agreement. Neither the Delaware Trustee nor any of its directors, officers, employees, consultants, advisors, agents or affiliates shall be responsible for or have any duty to supervise or monitor the PI Trust, the Trustee or any other person, or any of their directors, members, officers, consultants, advisors, agents, affiliates or employee, or any performance or action of any of the foregoing, or to select any of the foregoing, nor shall the Delaware Trustee have any liability in connection with the malfeasance or nonfeasance by any such person. The Delaware Trustee may assume (and shall be fully protected in assuming) proper performance by all such persons of their respective obligations. The Delaware Trustee shall have no enforcement or notification obligations relating to breaches of representations or warranties of any other person. The Delaware Trustee shall have no responsibilities for or liability as to the title to or validity, sufficiency, value, genuineness, ownership, investment, condition or transferability of any PI Trust Asset, written instructions, or any other documents in connection therewith, and will not be regarded as making or be required to make, any representations thereto or as to the validity or sufficiency of this Trust Agreement or any related certificate, instrument or other document.

(g) The Delaware Trustee shall not be responsible or liable for any failure or delay in the performance of its obligations under this Trust Agreement arising out of, or caused, directly or indirectly, by circumstances beyond its control, including without limitation, any act or provision of any present or future law or regulation or governmental authority; acts of God; earthquakes; fires; floods; wars; terrorism; civil or military disturbances; sabotage; epidemics; riots; interruptions, loss or malfunctions of utilities, computer (hardware or software) or communications service; accidents; labor disputes; acts of civil or military authority or governmental actions; or the unavailability of the Federal Reserve Bank wire or telex or other wire or communication facility.

(h) In the exercise or administration of its duties hereunder, the Delaware Trustee (i) may act directly or through agents or attorneys pursuant to agreements entered into with any of them, and the Delaware Trustee shall not be liable for the default or misconduct of such agents or attorneys if such agents or attorneys shall have been selected by the Delaware Trustee in good faith and (ii) may consult with counsel, accountants and other skilled persons to be selected in good faith and employed by it, and it may rely on and shall not be liable for anything done, suffered or omitted in good faith by it in accordance with the advice or opinion of any such counsel, accountants or other skilled persons.

(i) All rights, benefits, protections, privileges, immunities and indemnities of the Delaware Trustee shall apply as well to the Delaware Trustee in its individual capacity, and shall survive the termination of this Trust Agreement and/or the earlier removal or resignation of the Delaware Trustee.

(j) No provision of this Trust Agreement or any other document shall require the Delaware Trustee to expend or risk its own funds or otherwise incur any financial liability in the performance or exercise of any of its duties, rights or powers hereunder or under any document if the Delaware Trustee shall have reasonable grounds for believing that repayment of such funds or adequate indemnity against such risk or liability is not reasonably assured or provided to it.

(k) The Delaware Trustee shall not be personally liable for the validity or sufficiency of this Trust Agreement or for the due execution of this Trust Agreement by the other parties to this Trust Agreement.

(l) To the fullest extent permitted by law and notwithstanding anything in this Trust Agreement to the contrary, the Delaware Trustee shall not be personally liable for special, indirect, incidental, consequential, exemplary or punitive damages, however styled, including, without limitation, lost profits.

(m) If any conflict, disagreement or dispute arises between, among, or involving any of the parties hereto concerning the meaning or validity of any provision hereunder or concerning any other matter relating to this Trust Agreement, or the Delaware Trustee is in doubt as to the action to be taken hereunder, the Delaware Trustee may, at its option, after sending written notice of the same to the Trustee, refuse to act until such time as it (a) receives a final non-appealable order of a court of competent jurisdiction directing specific action by the Delaware Trustee or (b) receives a written instruction, executed by each of the parties involved in such disagreement or dispute, in a form reasonably acceptable to the Delaware Trustee, directing specific action by the Delaware Trustee. The Delaware Trustee will be entitled to act on any such written instruction or final, non-appealable order of a court of competent jurisdiction without further question, inquiry or consent. So long as such conflict, disagreement or dispute does not involve any Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, the Delaware Trustee may file an interpleader action in a state or federal court, and upon the filing thereof, the Delaware Trustee will be relieved of all liability as to the PI Trust, its assets, and this Trust Agreement, and will be entitled to recover reasonable and documented out-of-pocket attorneys' fees, expenses and other costs incurred in commencing and maintaining any such interpleader action. For the avoidance of doubt, in no event shall this Section 4.13 require any Debtor, Reorganized Debtor, or any of their respective subsidiaries to appear or participate in any legal proceeding.

(c) A member of the PI Committee may be removed in the event that such member becomes unable to discharge such member's duties hereunder due to physical deterioration, mental incompetence, or a consistent pattern of neglect and failure to perform or to participate in performing the duties of such member hereunder, such as repeated non-attendance at scheduled meetings, or for other good cause. Such removal shall be made at the recommendation of the remaining members of the PI Committee and with the approval of the Trustee.

(a) If, prior to the termination of service of a member of the PI Committee other than as a result of removal, such member has designated in writing an individual to succeed such member as a member of the PI Committee, such individual shall be such member's successor. If such member of the PI Committee did not designate an individual to succeed such member prior to the termination of such member's service as contemplated above, such member's law firm may designate such member's successor. If (i) a member of the PI Committee did not designate an individual to succeed such member prior to the termination of such member's service and such member's law firm does not designate such member's successor as contemplated above or (ii) such member is removed pursuant to Section 5.3(c) above, such member's successor shall be appointed by the mutual consent of the remaining PI Committee member and the Trustee.

(b) Each successor PI Committee member shall serve until the earlier of (i) such member's death, (ii) such member's resignation pursuant to Section 5.3(b) above, (iii) such member's removal pursuant to Section 5.3(c) above, and (iv) termination of the PI Trust pursuant

The PI Committee and the PI Committee Professionals shall at all times have complete access to the Trust Professionals, and shall also have complete access to all information generated by them or otherwise available to the PI Trust or the Trustee provided that any information provided by the Trust Professionals shall not constitute a waiver of any applicable privilege. In the absence of a bad faith violation of the implied contractual covenant of good faith and fair dealing, reliance on the written opinion of or information provided by any PI Committee Professional or Trust Professional deemed by the PI Committee to be qualified as an expert on the particular matter submitted to the PI Committee shall be full and complete authorization and protection in support of any action taken or not taken by the PI Committee in good faith and in accordance with the written opinion of or information provided by the PI Committee Professional or Trust Professional.

(b) The PI Trust shall promptly reimburse, or pay directly if so instructed, the PI Committee for all reasonable fees and costs associated with the PI Committee's employment of PI Committee Professionals pursuant to this provision in connection with the PI Committee's performance of its duties hereunder.

(c) In the event that the PI Committee retains counsel in connection with any matter whether or not related to any claim that has been or might be asserted against the PI Committee and irrespective of whether the PI Trust pays such counsel's fees and related expenses, any communications between the PI Committee and such counsel shall be deemed to be within the attorney-client privilege and protected by section 3333 of Title 12 of the Delaware Code, regardless of whether such communications are related to any claim that has been or might be asserted by or against the PI Committee and regardless of whether the PI Trust pays such counsel's fees and related expenses.

5.6 Compensation and Expenses of the PI Committee. The members of the PI Committee shall receive reasonable compensation from the PI Trust for their services as PI Committee members. The Trustee shall also provide the PI Committee and the PI Committee Professionals with such reasonable access to the Trust Professionals and other experts retained by the PI Trust and its staff (if any) as the PI Committee may reasonably request during the time that the Trustee is considering such matter, and shall also provide the PI Committee the opportunity, at reasonable times and for reasonable periods of time, to discuss and comment on such matter with the Trustee.

(ii) In determining when to take definitive action on any matter subject to the consultation procedures set forth in this Section 5.7(a), the Trustee shall take into consideration the time required for the PI Committee, if its members so wish, to engage and consult with its own independent financial or investment advisors and other PI Committee Professionals as to such matter. In any event, unless there is an exigency the Trustee shall not take definitive action on any such matter until at least thirty (30) days after providing the PI Committee with the initial written notice that such matter is under consideration by the Trustee, unless such time period is waived by the PI Committee.

The Trustee shall provide the PI Committee as much relevant additional information concerning the proposed action as is reasonably practicable under the circumstances. The Trustee shall also provide the PI Committee and the PI Committee Professionals with such reasonable access to the Trust Professionals as the PI Committee may

(iii) The PI Committee must consider in good faith and in a timely fashion any request for its consent by the Trustee, and must in any event advise the Trustee in writing of its consent or its objection to the proposed action within thirty (30) days of receiving the original request for consent from the Trustee, or within such additional time as the Trustee and the PI Committee may agree. The PI Committee may not withhold its consent unreasonably. If the PI Committee decides to withhold its consent, it must explain in detail its objections to the proposed action. If the PI Committee does not advise the Trustee in writing of its consent or its objections to the action within thirty (30) days of receiving notice regarding such request (or the additional time period agreed to by the Trustee and the PI Committee), the PI Committee's consent to the proposed actions shall be deemed to have been affirmatively granted.

(iv) If, after following the procedures specified in this Section 5.7(b), at least one member of the PI Committee continues to object to the proposed action and to withhold its consent to the proposed action, the Trustee and the PI Committee shall resolve their dispute pursuant to Section 8.15. However, the burden of proof with respect to the reasonableness of the PI Committee's objection and withholding of its consent shall be on the PI Committee.

8.15 Dispute Resolution. Any disputes that arise under this Trust Agreement or under the PI TDP among the parties hereto (other than the Delaware Trustee (as such or in its individual capacity) and, for the avoidance of doubt, the Debtors, Reorganized Debtors, and the other Released Parties) shall first be subject to Mediation. Failing that they shall be resolved by submission of the matter to binding arbitration (the "ADR Process"); provided, however, that if one party objects to binding arbitration, or if the Delaware Trustee (as such or in its individual capacity), the Debtors, Reorganized Debtors, or the other Released Parties is a party to any applicable dispute, the matter shall be submitted to the Bankruptcy Court for a judicial determination; further provided, however, that any dispute involving adjustment of the pro rata payment shall be resolved in the first instance by the ADR Process. Should any party to the ADR Process be dissatisfied with the recommendation of the arbitrator(s), that party may apply to the Bankruptcy Court for a judicial determination of the matter. Any review conducted by the Bankruptcy Court shall be de novo. In any case, if the dispute arises pursuant to the consent provision set forth in Section 5.7(b) (in the case of the PI Committee), the burden of proof shall be on the party or parties who withheld consent to show that such party's objection and withholding of consent was reasonable. Should the unresolved dispute not be resolved by the ADR Process within thirty (30) days after submission, the parties are relieved of the requirement to pursue ADR Process prior to application to the Bankruptcy Court. If the Trustee determines that the matter in dispute is exigent and cannot await the completion of the ADR Process, the Trustee shall have the discretion to elect out of the ADR Process altogether or at any stage of the process and seek resolution of the dispute in the Bankruptcy Court.

8.16 Cooperation with Sub-Trust B. The Trustee shall, and shall cause the Trust and its Professionals to, cooperate in good faith with Sub-Trust B, its trustee(s) and its Professionals in connection with Sub-Trust B's pursuit of certain insurance rights assigned to such trust pursuant to the Plan, including, without limitation, the collection and delivery of documents and information in the possession of the Trust, participation in meetings and correspondence, and utilizing reasonable efforts to attempt to collect additional documents and information from PI Claimants upon their consent, in each case, to the extent reasonably necessary to advance the pursuit of such insurance; provided that, (a) Sub-Trust B bears the reasonable, documented, out-of-pocket costs and expenses of the Trust in compiling and providing such information (including attorneys' fees and fees of other Professionals of the Trust, the PI Committee and its members) and (b) except as otherwise ordered by any court of competent jurisdiction, information disclosed to Sub-Trust B shall be disclosed in a manner that complies with HIPAA, to the extent applicable. Nothing in this Section 8.16 shall require or be deemed to require any PI Claimant to cooperate with the Trustee in connection with the Trustee's obligations under this Section to be entitled to an Allowed PI Opioid Claim should such PI Claimant satisfy the requirements for an Allowed PI Opioid Claim set forth in PI TDP Section 4.2.

8.17 Enforcement and Administration. The provisions of this Trust Agreement and the PI TDP shall be enforced by the Bankruptcy Court pursuant to the Plan and Confirmation Order. The parties hereto hereby further acknowledge and agree that the Bankruptcy Court shall have exclusive jurisdiction over the settlement of the accounts of the Trustee and over any disputes hereunder not resolved by the ADR Process in accordance with Section 8.15 above. The Bankruptcy Court and the courts of the State of Delaware shall have the exclusive jurisdiction with respect to any action relating to or arising from the PI Trust.

8.18 Effectiveness. This Trust Agreement shall not become effective until this Trust Agreement has been executed and delivered by all the parties hereto.

8.19 Rules of Interpretation. For purposes of this Trust Agreement, unless otherwise provided herein: (a) whenever from the context it is appropriate, each term, whether stated in the singular or the plural, will include both the singular and the plural; (b) the words "herein," "hereof," "hereto," "hereunder" and other words of similar import refer to this Trust Agreement as a whole and not to any particular section, subsection or clause contained in this Trust Agreement; (c) the rules of construction set forth in section 102 of the Bankruptcy Code will apply; and (d) the term "including" shall be construed to mean "including, but not limited to," "including, without limitation," or words of similar import. In this Trust Agreement and the PI TDP the words "must," "will," and "shall" are intended to have the same mandatory force and effect, while the word "may" is intended to be permissive rather than mandatory.

8.20 Counterpart Signatures. This Trust Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts and by different Parties on separate counterparts (including by facsimile or portable document format (pdf)), and each such counterpart shall be deemed to be an original, but all such counterparts shall together constitute one and the same instrument.

8.21 USA Patriot Act and Corporate Transparency Act. Pursuant to Applicable Law, including the Customer Identification Program requirements established under the Uniting and Strengthening America by Providing Appropriate Tools Required to Intercept and Obstruct Terrorism Act of 2001, Title III of Pub. L. 107 56 (signed into law October 26, 2001) and its implementing regulations (collectively, USA PATRIOT Act), the Financial Crimes Enforcement Network's (FinCEN) Customer Due Diligence Requirements and such other laws, rules, regulations and executive orders in effect from time to time applicable to banking institutions ("Applicable Law"), the Delaware Trustee is required to obtain on or before closing, and from time to time thereafter, documentation to verify and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. For a non-individual person such as a business entity, a charity, a trust or other legal entity, the Delaware Trustee will ask for documentation to verify the entity's formation and existence, its financial statements, licenses, tax identification documents, identification and authorization documents from individuals claiming authority to represent the entity and other relevant documentation and information (including beneficial owners of such entities). To the fullest extent permitted by Applicable Law, the Delaware Trustee may conclusively rely on, and shall be fully protected and indemnified in relying on, any such information received. Failure to provide such information may result in an inability of the Delaware Trustee to perform its obligations hereunder, which, at the sole option of the Delaware Trustee, may result in the Delaware Trustee's resignation in accordance with the terms of this Trust Agreement. In the event of any change in beneficial ownership in the PI Trust (or any beneficial interest in that interest, regardless of form), such change shall be accompanied by such documentation as may be required by the Delaware Trustee in order to comply with Applicable Law.

In addition to the Delaware Trustee's obligations under the Applicable Law, the Corporate Transparency Act (31 U.S.C. § 5336) and its implementing regulations (collectively, the "CTA" and together with Applicable Law as defined herein, "Anti-Money Laundering Law") may require the PI Trust to file certain reports with FinCEN after the date of this Trust Agreement. It shall be the Trustee's duty and not the Delaware Trustee's duty to cause the PI Trust to make such filings and to cause the PI Trust to comply with its obligations under the CTA, if any. The parties hereto agree that for purposes of Anti-Money Laundering Law, the Beneficial Owners are and shall be deemed to be the sole direct owners of the PI Trust, the Delaware Trustee acts solely as a directed trustee hereunder at the direction of the Trustee, and the Trustee (and not the Delaware Trustee) is and shall deemed to be the party with the power and authority to exercise substantial control over the PI Trust.

8.22 Waiver of Trial by Jury. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO AND THE BENEFICIAL OWNERS HEREBY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY AND ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY WITH RESPECT TO ANY LITIGATION OR LEGAL PROCEEDING DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF, UNDER OR IN CONNECTION WITH THE PI TRUST, THIS TRUST AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY.

For the avoidance of doubt, NAS PI Claims are not PI Opioid Claims. The term "PI Claimant" includes each person holding a PI Opioid Claim. Any persons whose claims involve opioid use where the first use of a Qualifying Opioid is October 15, 2023 or later are not PI Claimants, do not have PI Opioid Claims and are not eligible to participate in this PI TDP.

NOW, THEREFORE, it is hereby agreed as follows:

AGREEMENT OF TRUST

1.1 Creation and Name. By this Trust Agreement and the filing of a Certificate of Trust with the Secretary of State for the State of Delaware on ~~August~~September [~~•~~2], 2024, the parties hereto hereby create a trust known as the "Rite Aid Opioid Personal Injury Trust" (the "PI Trust"), which is the PI Trust contemplated by the Governing Order and Filings. The Trustee may transact the business and affairs of the PI Trust in the name of the PI Trust, and references herein to the PI Trust shall include the Trustee acting on behalf of the PI Trust. It is the intention of the Debtors and the parties hereto that the trust created hereby constitute a statutory trust under Chapter 38 of title 12 of the Delaware Code, 12 Del. C. § 3801 et seq. (as it may be amended from time to time, the "DST Act"), and that this document constitute the governing instrument of the PI Trust. The Trustee and the Delaware Trustee are hereby authorized and directed to execute and file a Certificate of Trust with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A.

1.2 Purpose. The purpose of the PI Trust is to assume the Debtors' liabilities and responsibility for all PI Opioid Claims to resolve and make distributions in respect of Allowed PI Opioid Claims in accordance with the PI TDP, use the PI Trust Assets (as defined herein) and income to meet its obligations, as well as to, among other things:

(a) collect the PI Trust Share in accordance with the Plan and the PI Trust Documents;

(b) direct the administration, processing, liquidation and payment of all PI Opioid Claims and in a manner consistent with the intent of the Plan, and in accordance with the PI Trust Documents;

(c) preserve, hold, and manage the assets of the PI Trust for use in paying and satisfying Allowed PI Opioid Claims;

(d) qualify at all times as a qualified settlement fund;

(e) pay holders of Allowed PI Opioid Claims in a manner consistent with the intent of the Plan and in accordance with this Trust Agreement, and the PI TDP, such that holders of Allowed PI Opioid Claims are treated fairly, equitably, and reasonably in light of the finite assets available to satisfy such Allowed PI Opioid Claims;

(f) fund the PI Trust and make distributions therefrom to holders of Allowed PI Opioid Claims in accordance with the Plan, the Confirmation Order, and the PI Trust Documents;

(g) use the PI Trust's assets and income to pay any and all fees, costs, expenses, taxes, disbursements, debts, or obligations of the PI Trust incurred from the operation and administration of the PI Trust (including in connection with the Plan, the Confirmation Order, and the PI Trust Documents) and management of the PI Trust Assets (together, the "Trust Operating Expenses") in accordance with the PI Trust Documents; and

(h) make Distributions on account of Allowed PI Opioid Claims (together with the Trust Operating Expenses, the "Trust Expenses").

1.3 Transfer of Assets. Pursuant to and in accordance with the Plan, the PI Trust shall have received, on the Effective Date, the PI Trust Share (together with proceeds from or interest thereon, the "PI Trust Assets") to fund the PI Trust and settle or discharge all PI Opioid Claims. In all events, the PI Trust Assets or any other assets to be transferred to the PI Trust under the Plan will be transferred to the PI Trust free and clear of all Claims, interests, Liens, and other encumbrances and liabilities of any kind by the Debtors, the Settlor, the other Released Parties, any creditor, or other entity except as otherwise provided in the PI Trust Documents, the Plan, or the Confirmation Order.

1.4 Separate NAS Trust. Claimants with Opioid Claims arising from intrauterine exposure to opioids (including but not limited to neonatal abstinence syndrome, or "NAS") are not eligible to participate in the PI Trust and will be subject to a different trust agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, any such claims are not PI Opioid Claims.

1.5 Acceptance of Assets and Assumption of Liabilities.

(a) In furtherance of the purposes of the PI Trust, the PI Trust hereby expressly accepts the transfer to the PI Trust of the PI Trust Assets and any other transfers contemplated by the Plan, Confirmation Order, and the PI Trust Documents in the time and manner as, and subject to the terms, contemplated in the Plan, the Confirmation Order, and the PI Trust Documents.

(b) In furtherance of the purposes of the PI Trust, the PI Trust will expressly assume the Debtors' liabilities and responsibility for all PI Opioid Claims, as and when channeled., in whole or in part, in accordance with the Governing Order and Filings and the PI Trust Documents. However, the PI Trust expressly does not assume any liabilities or responsibility for any Claims against any person or entity that is not a Debtor, and in accordance with the Plan, any rights of holders of PI Opioid Claims against any other person or entity shall be fully preserved. Except as otherwise provided in the Plan or the PI Trust Documents, the PI Trust shall have all defenses, cross-claims, offsets, and recoupments, as well as rights of indemnification, contribution, subrogation, and similar rights, regarding the PI Opioid Claims that the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors have or would have had under Applicable Law (as defined below).

(c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, no provision herein or in the PI TDP or in the Governing Order and Filings or any other document contemplated thereby shall be construed or implemented in a manner that would cause the PI Trust to fail to qualify as a "qualified settlement fund" under the QSF Regulations.

(d) To the extent required by the DST Act, the beneficial owners (within the meaning of the DST Act) of the PI Trust (the "Beneficial Owners") shall be deemed to be the PI Claimants; provided that (i) the PI Claimants, as such Beneficial Owners, shall have only such rights with respect to the PI Trust and its assets as are set forth in the PI TDP and (ii) no greater or other rights, including upon dissolution, liquidation, or winding up of the PI Trust, shall be deemed to apply to the PI Claimants in their capacity as Beneficial Owners.

ARTICLE II

POWERS AND TRUST ADMINISTRATION

2.1 Powers.

(a) The Trustee is and shall act as the fiduciary to the PI Trust in accordance with the provisions of the PI Trust Documents and the Plan and any documents contemplated thereby. The Trustee shall, at all times, administer the PI Trust and the PI Trust Assets in accordance with the purposes set forth in Section 1.2 above. Subject to the limitations set forth in this Trust Agreement, the Plan, and the Confirmation Order, the Trustee shall have the power to take any and all actions that, in the judgment of the Trustee, are necessary or proper to fulfill the purposes of the PI Trust, including, without limitation, each power expressly granted in this Section 2.1, any power reasonably incidental thereto and not inconsistent with the requirements of Section 2.2, and any power now or hereafter permitted under the laws of the State of Delaware; provided, that, the Trustee may not take any action inconsistent with the terms of the Plan or the Confirmation Order.

(b) Except as required by Applicable Law or otherwise specified herein, the Trustee need not obtain the order or approval of any court in the exercise of any power or discretion conferred hereunder.

(c) Without limiting the generality of Section 2.1(a) above, and except as limited below, the Trustee shall have the power to:

(i) receive and hold the PI Trust Assets and exercise all rights with respect thereto, including the right to vote and sell any securities that are included in the PI Trust Assets;

(ii) invest the monies held from time to time by the PI Trust, in consultation with the PI Committee and the financial advisor for the PI Trust (the "Financial Advisor");

(iii) sell, transfer, or exchange, in the ordinary course of business, any or all of the PI Trust Assets at such prices and upon such terms as the Trustee may consider proper, consistent with the other terms of the PI Trust Documents, without further order of any court;

(iv) enter into leasing and financing agreements with third parties to the extent such agreements are reasonably necessary to permit the PI Trust to operate; provided, that no such agreements shall be inconsistent with the terms of the Plan or the Confirmation Order;

(v) pay liabilities and expenses of the PI Trust;

(vi) subject to the terms of the Plan, Confirmation Order, and the PI Trust Documents, sue and be sued and participate, as a party or otherwise, in any judicial, administrative, arbitrative, or other proceeding;

(vii) establish, supervise, and administer the PI Trust in accordance with the PI Trust Documents;

(viii) appoint, hire, or engage such officers, employees, advisors, counsel, consultants, independent contractors, representatives, and agents to provide such legal, financial, accounting, investment, auditing, forecasting, claims administration, and other services ("Professionals") as the business of the PI Trust requires, and delegate to such Professionals such powers and authorities as the fiduciary duties of the Trustee permit and as the Trustee, in the Trustee's discretion, deems advisable or necessary in order to carry out the terms of the PI Trust Documents;

(x) pay reasonable compensation to Professionals engaged by the PI Trust;

(xi) as provided below, (a) compensate the Trustee, the Delaware

Trustee, and the PI Committee members, as well as their respective Professionals and (b) reimburse the Trustee, the Delaware Trustee, and the PI Committee members, as well as their respective Professionals, for all reasonable out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred by such persons in connection with the performance of their duties hereunder;

(xii) pay reimbursement to the law firms of ASK LLP ("ASK") and Andrews & Thornton ("A&T") in an aggregate amount not to exceed $100,000 per firm based on billing submitted to the PI Trust for work performed by ASK and A&T prior to the Effective Date for work on behalf of all PI Claimants, including the drafting and negotiations of the PI Trust Documents, negotiating a resolution, etc.;

(xiii) execute and deliver such instruments as the Trustee considers proper in administering the PI Trust;

(xiv) enter into such other arrangements with third parties as are deemed by the Trustee to be useful in carrying out the purposes of the PI Trust, provided such arrangements do not conflict with any other provision of the PI Trust Documents;

(xv) in accordance with Section 4.6 below, defend, indemnify, and hold harmless (and, if practicable and reasonable, purchase insurance indemnifying) (A) the Trustee, the Delaware Trustee (as such and in its individual capacity, and its directors, officers, employees, consultants, advisors, agents, and affiliates), the members of the PI Committee, and ASK and Andrews & Thornton, and (B) the respective Professionals of the PI Trust (including the Claims Administrator (as defined herein) and its staff and agents) (collectively the "Indemnified Parties" or "Indemnified Party" in the singular), to the fullest extent that a statutory trust organized under the laws of the State of Delaware is from time to time entitled to defend, indemnify, hold harmless, and insure its trustees, Professionals and other parties. For the avoidance of doubt, except to the extent otherwise contemplated by the Plan, none of the Debtors, Reorganized Debtors, nor their respective subsidiaries shall be responsible or liable for any indemnification or reimbursement obligations under the PI Trust Documents. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, no party shall be indemnified in any way for any liability, expense, claim, damage, or loss for which such party is liable under Section 4.4 below;

(xvi) delegate any or all of the authority herein conferred with respect to the investment of all or any portion of the PI Trust Assets to any one or more reputable individuals or recognized institutional investment advisors or investment managers without liability for any action taken or omission made because of any such delegation, except as provided in Section 4.4 below;

(xvii) consult with the PI Committee at such times and with respect to such issues relating to the conduct of the PI Trust as the Trustee considers desirable in addition to such matters as are prescribed in the PI Trust Documents;

(xviii) make, pursue (by litigation or otherwise), collect, compromise, settle, or otherwise resolve in the name of the PI Trust, any claim, right, action, or cause of action included in the PI Trust Assets (and not prohibited by the Plan, Confirmation Order, or this Trust Agreement), before any court of competent jurisdiction; and

(xix) contract for the establishment and continuing maintenance of a website (the "Trust Website") to publish the claims materials and the Annual Report (as defined herein), and aid in communicating information to the beneficiaries of the PI Trust and their respective counsel or other authorized persons.

(d) The Trustee shall not have the power to guarantee any debt of other Persons.

(e) The Trustee agrees to take the actions of the PI Trust required hereunder.

(f) The Trustee shall give the PI Committee reasonably prompt notice of any material act performed or taken pursuant to Sections 2.1(c)(i) above and any act proposed to be performed or taken pursuant to Section 2.2(g) below.

2.2 General Administration.

(a) The Trustee shall act in accordance with this Trust Agreement, the Plan, the Confirmation Order, and the PI TDP and any documents contemplated by any of the foregoing. In the event of a conflict between the terms or provisions of the Plan and the PI Trust Documents, the terms of the Plan shall control. In the event of a conflict between the terms or provisions of the Plan and the Confirmation Order, the terms of the Confirmation Order shall control. For the avoidance of doubt, this Trust Agreement shall be construed and implemented in accordance with the Plan and the Confirmation Order, regardless of whether any provision herein explicitly references the Plan.

(b) The Trustee shall (i) timely file such income tax and other returns and statements required to be filed, and shall timely pay all taxes required to be paid by the PI Trust, (ii) comply with all applicable reporting and withholding obligations (including any reports determined to be necessary by the Trustee under the CTA), (iii) satisfy all requirements necessary to qualify and maintain qualification of the PI Trust as a qualified settlement fund within the meaning of the QSF Regulations, and (iv) take no action that could cause the PI Trust to fail to qualify as a qualified settlement fund within the meaning of the QSF Regulations.

(c) The Trustee may withhold, and shall pay to the appropriate tax authority all amounts required by law to be withheld pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code or any provision of any applicable foreign, state, or local tax law with respect to any payment or distribution to the holders of Allowed PI Opioid Claims. All such amounts withheld and paid to the appropriate tax authority shall be treated as amounts distributed to such holders of Allowed PI Opioid Claims for all purposes of this Trust Agreement. The Trustee shall be authorized to collect tax information, which may include applicable IRS Form W-8 or IRS Form W-9, from the holders of Allowed PI Opioid Claims (including tax identification numbers) as reasonably requested by the Trustee, readily available to the holders of the Allowed PI Opioid Claims and necessary to effectuate the Plan, the Confirmation Order and this Trust Agreement. The Trustee may refuse to make some or all of a Distribution to a holder of an Allowed PI Opioid Claim that fails to furnish such information in a timely fashion, and until such information is delivered may treat such holder's Allowed PI Opioid Claim, as disputed; provided, however, that, upon the delivery of such information by a holder of an Allowed PI Opioid Claim, the Trustee shall make such Distribution to which such holder is entitled, without additional interest occasioned by such holder's delay in providing tax information. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if a holder of an Allowed PI Opioid Claim fails to furnish any tax information reasonably requested by the Trustee before the date that is six months after the request is made (subject to extension in the discretion of the Trustee if such holder demonstrates to the reasonable satisfaction of the Trustee that such holder's failure to provide such tax information is due to one or more taxing authorities' failure to furnish information necessary to respond to the Trustee's reasonable request to such holder despite such holder's request for such information), to the fullest extent permitted by law, the Trustee in his discretion, may determine that the amount of such distribution shall irrevocably revert to the PI Trust, and any PI Opioid Claim with respect to such Distribution shall be discharged and forever barred from assertion against the PI Trust or its property.

(d) The Trustee shall be responsible for all of the PI Trust's tax matters, including without limitation, tax audits, claims, defenses and proceedings. The Trustee shall file (or cause to be filed) any other statement, return, or disclosure relating to the PI Trust that is required by any governmental unit and be responsible for payment, out of the PI Trust Assets, of any taxes imposed on the PI Trust or its assets.

(e) The Trustee may provide the following reports:

(i) The PI Trust may cause to be prepared and provide to the PI Committee quarterly reports on the financial condition of the PI Trust, including a report on the investments and accounts of the PI Trust and the Trust Operating Expenses ("Quarterly Reports").

(ii) The PI Trust shall cause to be prepared and provide to the PI Committee monthly reports on the status of claims submitted to and processed, paid or resolved by the PI Trust.

(iii) The Trustee may prepare an annual report (the "Annual Report"). The Annual Report, if any, may contain financial statements of the PI Trust (including, without limitation, a balance sheet of the PI Trust as of the end of such fiscal year and a statement of operations for such fiscal year) audited by a firm of independent certified public accountants selected by the Trustee and accompanied by an opinion of such firm as to the fairness of the financial statements' presentation of the cash and investments available for the payment of claims.

(iv) The Annual Report may also include an aggregate summary regarding the number and type of PI Opioid Claims resolved during the period covered by the financial statements.

(v) The Trustee shall provide a copy of any such Annual Report to the PI Committee.

(f) In consultation with the PI Committee, the Trustee may cause to be prepared as soon as practicable prior to the commencement of each fiscal year a budget and cash flow projection covering such fiscal year. The budget and cash flow projections, if any, shall include a description of the amounts the PI Trust anticipates spending on Trust Operating Expenses and, to the extent practicable, payments to holders of Allowed PI Opioid Claims. The Trustee shall provide a copy of the budget and cash flow projections to the PI Committee.

(g) The Trustee shall consult with the PI Committee (i) on the general implementation and administration of the PI Trust; (ii) on the general implementation and administration of the PI TDP, or as the Trustee may determine; and (iii) on such other matters as may be required under the PI Trust Documents.

(h) The Trustee shall be required to obtain the reasonable consent of the PI Committee pursuant to the consent processes set forth in Sections 5.7(b) below, in addition to any other instances elsewhere enumerated, in order:

(i) to clarify the claim qualification requirements, to the extent such clarification is necessary, described in the PI TDP;

(ii) to determine, establish, or change the Pro Rata Payments described in the PI TDP;

(iii) to change the evidentiary criteria set forth in the PI TDP;

(iv) to determine, establish, or change the types of evidence required for a Qualifying Opioid described in the PI TDP;

(v) to establish or to change the claims materials to be provided to PI Claimants under the PI TDP;

The records shall include the documents and information relative to the valuation of the PI Opioid Claims.

(l) The Claims Administrator shall serve for the duration of the PI Trust, subject to death, resignation, or removal. The Trustee may remove the Claims Administrator with the consent of the PI Committee. In the event that the Claims Administrator resigns, is removed from office, or otherwise is unable to perform the functions of the Claims Administrator, the Trustee shall propose a successor Claims Administrator, subject to consent by the PI Committee. However, in the event that, pursuant to Section 4.11(a), the Trustee also serves as the Claims Administrator, if the Trustee is removed, absent an order of the Bankruptcy Court to the contrary, the Claims Administrator shall also be removed from office, and the successor Trustee shall fill the vacancy by proposing a Claims Administrator subject to consent of the PI Committee.

(m) The Claims Administrator (or successor Claims Administrator) shall be (i) an entity or an individual over the age of 35 whose experience and background are appropriate for the responsibilities set forth herein and (ii) at the time of appointment and at all times during the term of service, independent. (i) is not and was not at any time a PI Claimant or a representative of a PI Claimant;

(iv) is not and was not at any time an officer, director, employee, or agent of a Debtor or any related person with respect to a Debtor or related to any of the foregoing, or otherwise is or was an "insider," as defined in the Bankruptcy Code, with respect to a Debtor or any related person with respect to a Debtor; or

(v) is not an investment banker, financial advisor, accountant, or attorney, and is not related to any of the foregoing, for any Debtor or any related person with respect to a Debtor, or an officer, director, employee, or agent of any person or entity that provides investment banking, financial advice, accounting, or legal services to a Debtor or any related person with respect to a Debtor or related to any of the foregoing, with the exception of any person employed in the Claims Administrator's law firm who helps provide services in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases.

(n) Subject to approval by the Trustee, the Claims Administrator shall have the power to hire, and shall hire and appoint, such staff and other appropriate agents, including persons or entities performing PI Opioid Claims audit functions, as necessary to carry out the functions of the Claims Administrator under this Trust Agreement, and such staff and agents shall be considered Indemnified Parties to the extent permitted by the DST Act. Salaries, fees, budgets, and payment terms for any staff, contractors, or auditors shall be determined by the Claims Administrator, with the Trustee's approval, subject to consultation with the PI Committee. Subject to the direction of the Trustee, in consultation with the PI Committee, the Claims Administrator shall have the authority to enter into such contracts or agreements as may be necessary to operate the Claims Office, hire staff and contractors, or obtain services and equipment, and shall have the authority to serve all functions of an employer; provided, that no such contracts or agreements may be inconsistent with the terms of the Plan or the Confirmation Order.

(o) The compensation of the Claims Administrator and the Claims Administrator's staff, including periodic increases, shall be governed by the budget developed by the Claims Administrator in consultation with the Financial Advisor and approved by the Trustee, with the consent of the PI Committee.

4.12 [RESERVED]

4.13 Delaware Trustee.

(a) There shall at all times be a Delaware Trustee. The Delaware Trustee shall either be (i) a natural person who is at least 21 years of age and a resident of the State of Delaware or (ii) a legal entity that has its principal place of business in the State of Delaware in accordance with Section 3807 of the DST Act, otherwise meets the requirements of applicable Delaware law and shall act through one or more persons authorized to bind such entity. The initial Delaware Trustee shall be Wilmington Trust, National Association. If at any time the Delaware Trustee shall cease to be eligible in accordance with the provisions of this Section 4.13, it shall resign immediately in the manner and with the effect hereinafter specified in Section 4.13(c) below. For the avoidance of doubt, the Delaware Trustee will only have such rights, duties and obligations as are expressly stated in this Trust Agreement. Any reference to a "Trustee" shall not include the Delaware Trustee.

(b) The Delaware Trustee shall not be entitled to exercise any powers, nor shall the Delaware Trustee have any of the duties, responsibilities, powers or authority of the Trustee. The Delaware Trustee shall be one of the trustees of the PI Trust strictly for the sole and limited purpose of fulfilling the requirement of Section 3807(a) of the DST Act and for taking such actions as are required to be taken by it under the DST Act as expressly set forth in (i) and

(ii) of the following sentence. The duties (including fiduciary duties), liabilities and obligations of the Delaware Trustee shall be strictly limited to (i) accepting legal process served on the PI Trust in the State of Delaware when served upon the Delaware trustee required under Section 3807(a) of the DST Act, and (ii) (acting solely at the written direction of the Trustee) the execution of any certificates required to be filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware that the Delaware Trustee is required to execute under Section 3811 of the DST Act, and there shall be no other duties (including fiduciary duties) or obligations, express or implied, at law or in equity, of the Delaware Trustee. To the extent that, at law or in equity, the Delaware Trustee has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating thereto to the PI Trust, the other parties hereto or any beneficiary of the PI Trust, it is hereby understood and agreed by the other parties hereto and all beneficiaries of the PI Trust that such duties and liabilities are hereby eliminated and restricted to the fullest extent allowable under applicable law and replaced by the duties and liabilities of the Delaware Trustee expressly set forth in this Section 4.13(b). In accepting and performing its duties hereunder the Delaware Trustee acts solely as Delaware Trustee hereunder and not in its individual capacity, and all persons having any claim against the Delaware Trustee or the PI Trust by reason of the transactions contemplated by this Trust Agreement shall look only to the PI Trust Assets for payment or satisfaction thereof. The Delaware Trustee shall not be personally liable under any circumstances, except for such losses or damages which have been finally adjudicated by a court of competent jurisdiction to have directly resulted from its own willful misconduct. The Delaware Trustee shall not be personally liable for any error or judgment made or other action taken by a responsible officer or other authorized officer of the Delaware Trustee in good faith. Under no circumstance shall the Delaware Trustee, in its individual capacity or in its capacity as Delaware Trustee, or any director, officer, employee, consultant, advisor, agent, or affiliate of the Delaware Trustee be personally liable for any representation, warranty, covenant, agreement, liability or indebtedness of the PI Trust, as all such representations, warranties, covenants, agreements, liabilities or indebtedness of the PI Trust are those of the PI Trust as an entity. The recitals contained herein shall not be taken as the statements of the Delaware Trustee, and the Delaware Trustee does not assume any responsibility for their correctness. The Delaware Trustee shall not be required to take or refrain from taking any action if it shall have determined, or shall have been advised by counsel, that such performance is reasonably likely to subject the Delaware Trustee to personal liability or is contrary to the terms of this Trust Agreement or of any document contemplated hereby to which the PI Trust or the Delaware Trustee is a party or is otherwise contrary to law. The Delaware Trustee shall have no liability for the acts or omissions of the Trustee or any other Person. No permissive rights of the Delaware Trustee to do things enumerated in this Trust Agreement, and no power, authority, authorization, or discretion of the Delaware Trustee, shall be construed as a duty and, with respect to any such permissive rights, the Delaware Trustee shall not be answerable for the same other than in the event of its gross negligence, willful misconduct or fraud. The Delaware Trustee shall be entitled to require and receive written instructions from the Trustee and shall have no responsibility or liability for any losses or damages of any nature that may arise from any action taken or not taken by the Delaware Trustee provided that the Delaware Trustee has acted in accordance with the written direction of the Trustee. Following the Effective Date, the Delaware Trustee may, at the expense of the PI Trust, reasonably request, require, rely on and act in accordance with officer's certificates and/or opinions of counsel, and shall incur no liability and shall be fully protected in acting or refraining from acting in accordance with such officer's certificates and opinions of counsel. The Delaware

Trustee may conclusively rely and shall be fully protected, and shall incur no liability to anyone, in acting or refraining from acting in good faith and in reliance upon any judgment, order or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction or any signature, instrument, notice, resolution, request, instruction, direction, consent, order, certificate, report, opinion, bond or other document or paper believed by it to be genuine and believed by it to be signed or presented by a proper Person or Persons, not only as to due execution, validity and effectiveness, but also as to the truth and accuracy of any information contained therein. The Delaware Trustee may accept a certified copy of a resolution of any governing body of any Person as conclusive evidence that such resolution has been duly adopted by such Person and that the same is in full force and effect.

(c) The Delaware Trustee shall serve until such time as the Trustee removes the Delaware Trustee or the Delaware Trustee resigns and a successor Delaware Trustee is appointed by the Trustee in accordance with the terms of Section 4.13(d) below. The Delaware Trustee may resign at any time upon the giving of at least forty-five (45) days' advance written notice to the Trustee; provided, that such resignation shall not become effective unless and until a successor Delaware Trustee shall have been appointed by the Trustee in accordance with Section 4.13(d) below. If the Trustee does not appoint a successor within such 45-day period, the Delaware Trustee may apply (at the sole cost and expense of the PI Trust) to the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware for the appointment of a successor Delaware Trustee. In the event that any amounts due and owing to the Delaware Trustee under this Trust Agreement remain unpaid for more than ninety (90) days, the Delaware Trustee shall be entitled to resign on thirty (30) days' notice regardless of whether a successor Delaware Trustee has been appointed.

(d) Upon the resignation or removal of the Delaware Trustee, the Trustee shall appoint a successor Delaware Trustee by delivering a written instrument to the then-serving Delaware Trustee. Any successor Delaware Trustee must satisfy the requirements of Section 3807(a) of the DST Act. Any resignation or removal of the Delaware Trustee and appointment of a successor Delaware Trustee shall not become effective until a written acceptance of appointment is delivered by the successor Delaware Trustee to the then-serving Delaware Trustee and the Trustee and any fees and expenses due to the then-serving Delaware Trustee are paid. Following compliance with the preceding sentence, the successor Delaware Trustee shall become fully vested with all of the rights, powers, duties, and obligations of the then-serving Delaware Trustee under this Trust Agreement, with like effect as if originally named as Delaware Trustee, and the then-serving Delaware Trustee shall be discharged of its duties and obligations under this Trust Agreement. The successor Delaware Trustee shall make any related filings required under the DST Act, including filing a Certificate of Amendment to the Certificate of Trust of the PI Trust in accordance with Section 3810 of the DST Act.

(e) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, any business entity into which the Delaware Trustee may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated or any entity resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Delaware Trustee shall be a party, or any entity succeeding to all or substantially all of the corporate trust business of the Delaware Trustee, shall be the successor of the Delaware Trustee hereunder, without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto.

(f) The Delaware Trustee shall neither be responsible for, nor chargeable with, knowledge of the terms and conditions of any other agreement, instrument or document, other than this Trust Agreement, whether or not an original or a copy of such agreement has been provided to the Delaware Trustee, and shall not be charged with knowledge of (A) any events or other information, or (B) any default under this Trust Agreement or any other agreement unless an officer of the Delaware Trustee having direct responsibility for the Delaware Trustee's performance of this Trust Agreement shall have actual knowledge thereof. The Delaware Trustee shall have no duty to know or inquire as to the performance or nonperformance of any provision of any other agreement, instrument or document, other than this Trust Agreement. Neither the Delaware Trustee nor any of its directors, officers, employees, consultants, advisors, agents or affiliates shall be responsible for or have any duty to supervise or monitor the PI Trust, the Trustee or any other person, or any of their directors, members, officers, consultants, advisors, agents, affiliates or employee, or any performance or action of any of the foregoing, or to select any of the foregoing, nor shall the Delaware Trustee have any liability in connection with the malfeasance or nonfeasance by any such person. The Delaware Trustee may assume (and shall be fully protected in assuming) proper performance by all such persons of their respective obligations. The Delaware Trustee shall have no enforcement or notification obligations relating to breaches of representations or warranties of any other person. The Delaware Trustee shall have no responsibilities for or liability as to the title to or validity, sufficiency, value, genuineness, ownership, investment, condition or transferability of any PI Trust Asset, written instructions, or any other documents in connection therewith, and will not be regarded as making or be required to make, any representations thereto or as to the validity or sufficiency of this Trust Agreement or any related certificate, instrument or other document.

(g) The Delaware Trustee shall not be responsible or liable for any failure or delay in the performance of its obligations under this Trust Agreement arising out of, or caused, directly or indirectly, by circumstances beyond its control, including without limitation, any act or provision of any present or future law or regulation or governmental authority; acts of God; earthquakes; fires; floods; wars; terrorism; civil or military disturbances; sabotage; epidemics; riots; interruptions, loss or malfunctions of utilities, computer (hardware or software) or communications service; accidents; labor disputes; acts of civil or military authority or governmental actions; or the unavailability of the Federal Reserve Bank wire or telex or other wire or communication facility.

(h) In the exercise or administration of its duties hereunder, the Delaware Trustee (i) may act directly or through agents or attorneys pursuant to agreements entered into with any of them, and the Delaware Trustee shall not be liable for the default or misconduct of such agents or attorneys if such agents or attorneys shall have been selected by the Delaware Trustee in good faith and (ii) may consult with counsel, accountants and other skilled persons to be selected in good faith and employed by it, and it may rely on and shall not be liable for anything done, suffered or omitted in good faith by it in accordance with the advice or opinion of any such counsel, accountants or other skilled persons.

(i) All rights, benefits, protections, privileges, immunities and indemnities of the Delaware Trustee shall apply as well to the Delaware Trustee in its individual capacity, and shall survive the termination of this Trust Agreement and/or the earlier removal or resignation of the Delaware Trustee.

(j) No provision of this Trust Agreement or any other document shall require the Delaware Trustee to expend or risk its own funds or otherwise incur any financial liability in the performance or exercise of any of its duties, rights or powers hereunder or under any document if the Delaware Trustee shall have reasonable grounds for believing that repayment of such funds or adequate indemnity against such risk or liability is not reasonably assured or

(m) If any conflict, disagreement or dispute arises between, among, or involving any of the parties hereto concerning the meaning or validity of any provision hereunder or concerning any other matter relating to this Trust Agreement, or the Delaware Trustee is in doubt as to the action to be taken hereunder, the Delaware Trustee may, at its option, after sending written notice of the same to the Trustee, refuse to act until such time as it (a) receives a final non-appealable order of a court of competent jurisdiction directing specific action by the Delaware Trustee or (b) receives a written instruction, executed by each of the parties involved in such disagreement or dispute, in a form reasonably acceptable to the Delaware Trustee, directing specific action by the Delaware Trustee. The Delaware Trustee will be entitled to act on any such written instruction or final, non-appealable order of a court of competent jurisdiction without further question, inquiry or consent. So long as such conflict, disagreement or dispute does not involve any Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, the Delaware Trustee may file an interpleader action in a state or federal court, and upon the filing thereof, the Delaware Trustee will be relieved of all liability as to the PI Trust, its assets, and this Trust Agreement, and will be entitled to recover reasonable and documented out-of-pocket attorneys' fees, expenses and other

If such member of the PI Committee did not designate an individual to succeed such member prior to the termination of such member's service as contemplated above, such member's law firm may designate such member's successor. (b) The PI Trust shall promptly reimburse, or pay directly if so instructed, the PI Committee for all reasonable fees and costs associated with the PI Committee's employment of PI Committee Professionals pursuant to this provision in connection with the PI Committee's performance of its duties hereunder.

(c) In the event that the PI Committee retains counsel in connection with any matter whether or not related to any claim that has been or might be asserted against the PI Committee and irrespective of whether the PI Trust pays such counsel's fees and related expenses, any communications between the PI Committee and such counsel shall be deemed to be within the attorney-client privilege and protected by section 3333 of Title 12 of the Delaware Code, regardless of whether such communications are related to any claim that has been or might be asserted by or against the PI Committee and regardless of whether the PI Trust pays such counsel's fees and related expenses.

(ii) In determining when to take definitive action on any matter subject to the consultation procedures set forth in this Section 5.7(a), the Trustee shall take into consideration the time required for the PI Committee, if its members so wish, to engage and consult with its own independent financial or investment advisors and other PI Committee Professionals as to such matter. In any event, unless there is an exigency the Trustee shall not take definitive action on any such matter until at least thirty (30) days after providing the PI Committee with the initial written notice that such matter is under consideration by the Trustee, unless such time period is waived by the PI Committee.

Committee pursuant to Section 2.2(h) above, the Trustee shall provide the PI Committee with a written notice stating that its consent is being sought pursuant to that provision, describing in detail the nature and scope of the action the Trustee proposes to take, and explaining in detail the reasons why the Trustee desires to take such action. The Trustee shall provide the PI Committee as much relevant additional information concerning the proposed action as is reasonably practicable under the circumstances. The Trustee shall also provide the PI Committee and the PI Committee Professionals with such reasonable access to the Trust Professionals as the PI Committee may reasonably request during the time that the Trustee is considering such action, and shall also provide the PI Committee the opportunity, at reasonable times and for reasonable periods of time, to discuss and comment on such action with the Trustee.

(iii) The PI Committee must consider in good faith and in a timely fashion any request for its consent by the Trustee, and must in any event advise the Trustee in writing of its consent or its objection to the proposed action within thirty (30) days of receiving the original request for consent from the Trustee, or within such additional time as the Trustee and the PI Committee may agree. The PI Committee may not withhold its consent unreasonably. If the PI Committee decides to withhold its consent, it must explain in detail its objections to the proposed action. If the PI Committee does not advise the Trustee in writing of its consent or its objections to the action within thirty (30) days of receiving notice regarding such request (or the additional time period agreed to by the Trustee and the PI Committee), the PI Committee's consent to the proposed actions shall be deemed to have been affirmatively granted.

(iv) If, after following the procedures specified in this Section 5.7(b), at least one member of the PI Committee continues to object to the proposed action and to withhold its consent to the proposed action, the Trustee and the PI Committee shall resolve their dispute pursuant to Section 8.15. However, the burden of proof with respect to the reasonableness of the PI Committee's objection and withholding of its consent shall be on the PI Committee.

8.9 Successors and Assigns; Third-Party Beneficiaries. The provisions of this Trust Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the PI Trust, the Trustee, the Delaware Trustee (as such and in its individual capacity), and the Settlor, and their respective successors and assigns, except that none of the Settlor, the PI Trust, nor the Trustee may assign or otherwise transfer any of its, or their, rights or obligations, if any, under this Trust Agreement except, in the case of the PI Trust and the Trustee, as contemplated by Section 2.1 above.

The entire agreement of the parties relating to the subject matter of this Trust Agreement is contained herein and in the documents referred to herein (including the Governing Order and Filings), and this Trust Agreement and such documents supersede any prior oral or written agreements concerning the subject matter hereof. No failure to exercise or delay in exercising any right, power or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, power or privilege hereunder preclude any further exercise thereof or of any other right, power or privilege. The rights and remedies herein provided are cumulative and are not exclusive of rights under law or in equity.

8.13 Governing Law. The validity and construction of this Trust Agreement and all amendments hereto and thereto shall be governed by laws of the State of Delaware, and the rights of all parties hereto and the effect of every provision hereof shall be subject to and construed according to the laws of the State of Delaware without regard to the conflict of laws provisions thereof that would purport to apply the law of any other jurisdiction; provided, however, that the parties hereto intend that the provisions hereof shall control and there shall not be applicable to the PI Trust, the Trustee, the Delaware Trustee (as such or in its individual capacity), the PI Committee, or this Trust Agreement, any provision of the laws (statutory or common) of the State of Delaware pertaining to trusts that relate to or regulate in a manner inconsistent with the terms hereof: (a) the filing with any court or governmental body or agency of trustee accounts or schedules of trustee fees and charges; (b) affirmative requirements to post bonds for trustees, officers, agents, or employees of a trust; (c) the necessity for obtaining court or other governmental approval concerning the acquisition, holding, or disposition of real or personal property; (d) fees or other sums payable to trustees, officers, agents, or employees of a trust; (e) the allocation of receipts and expenditures to income or principal; (f) restrictions or limitations on the permissible nature, amount, or concentration of trust investments or requirements relating to the titling, storage, or other manner of holding of trust assets; (g) the existence of rights or interests (beneficial or otherwise) in trust assets; (h) the ability of beneficial owners or other Persons to terminate or dissolve a trust; or (i) the establishment of fiduciary or other standards or responsibilities or limitations on the acts or powers of trustees or beneficial owners that are inconsistent with the limitations on liability or authorities and powers of the Trustee, the Delaware Trustee, or the PI Committee, set forth or referenced in this Trust Agreement. Administration of the PI TDP shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Delaware without giving effect to any choice or conflict of laws provision or rule (whether of the State of Delaware or any other jurisdiction) that would cause the application of the laws of any other jurisdiction.

8.14 Settlors' Representative and Cooperation. RAD is hereby irrevocably designated as the Settlor, and the Settlor is hereby authorized to take any action requested of the Settlor by the Trustee in connection with the Trust Agreement. The Settlor agrees to cooperate in implementing the goals and objectives of this Trust Agreement, the Plan, and the Confirmation Order, in each case in accordance with the terms and conditions of that certain Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement, if applicable.

the PI TDP among the parties hereto (other than the Delaware Trustee (as such or in its individual capacity) and, for the avoidance of doubt, the Debtors, Reorganized Debtors, and the other Released Parties) shall first be subject to Mediation. Failing that they shall be resolved by submission of the matter to binding arbitration (the "ADR Process"); provided, however, that if one party objects to binding arbitration, or if the Delaware Trustee (as such or in its individual capacity), the Debtors, Reorganized Debtors, or the other Released Parties is a party to any applicable dispute, the matter shall be submitted to the Bankruptcy Court for a judicial determination; further provided, however, that any dispute involving adjustment of the pro rata payment shall be resolved in the first instance by the ADR Process. Should any party to the ADR Process be dissatisfied with the recommendation of the arbitrator(s), that party may apply to the Bankruptcy Court for a judicial determination of the matter. Any review conducted by the Bankruptcy Court shall be de novo. In any case, if the dispute arises pursuant to the consent provision set forth in Section 5.7(b) (in the case of the PI Committee), the burden of proof shall be on the party or parties who withheld consent to show that such party's objection and withholding of consent was reasonable. Should the unresolved dispute not be resolved by the ADR Process within thirty (30) days after submission, the parties are relieved of the requirement to pursue ADR Process prior to application to the Bankruptcy Court. If the Trustee determines that the matter in dispute is exigent and cannot await the completion of the ADR Process, the Trustee shall have the discretion to elect out of the ADR Process altogether or at any stage of the process and seek resolution of the dispute in the Bankruptcy Court.

8.16 Cooperation with Sub-Trust B. The Trustee shall, and shall cause the Trust and its Professionals to, cooperate in good faith with Sub-Trust B, its trustee(s) and its Professionals in connection with Sub-Trust B's pursuit of certain insurance rights assigned to such trust pursuant to the Plan, including, without limitation, the collection and delivery of documents and information in the possession of the Trust, participation in meetings and correspondence, and utilizing reasonable efforts to attempt to collect additional documents and information from PI Claimants upon their consent, in each case, to the extent reasonably necessary to advance the pursuit of such insurance; provided that, (a) Sub-Trust B bears the reasonable, documented, out-of-pocket costs and expenses of the Trust in compiling and providing such information (including attorneys' fees and fees of other Professionals of the Trust, the PI Committee and its members) and (b) except as otherwise ordered by any court of competent jurisdiction, information disclosed to Sub-Trust B shall be disclosed in a manner that complies with HIPAA, to the extent applicable. Nothing in this Section 8.16 shall require or be deemed to require any PI Claimant to cooperate with the Trustee in connection with the Trustee's obligations under this Section to be entitled to an Allowed PI Opioid Claim should such PI Claimant satisfy the requirements for an Allowed PI Opioid Claim set forth in PI TDP Section 4.2.

8.17 Enforcement and Administration. The provisions of this Trust Agreement and the PI TDP shall be enforced by the Bankruptcy Court pursuant to the Plan and Confirmation Order. The parties hereto hereby further acknowledge and agree that the Bankruptcy Court shall have exclusive jurisdiction over the settlement of the accounts of the Trustee and over any disputes hereunder not resolved by the ADR Process in accordance with Section 8.15 above. The Bankruptcy Court and the courts of the State of Delaware shall have the exclusive jurisdiction with respect to any action relating to or arising from the PI Trust.

8.18 Effectiveness. This Trust Agreement shall not become effective until this Trust Agreement has been executed and delivered by all the parties hereto.

8.19 Rules of Interpretation. For purposes of this Trust Agreement, unless otherwise provided herein: (a) whenever from the context it is appropriate, each term, whether stated in the singular or the plural, will include both the singular and the plural; (b) the words "herein," "hereof," "hereto," "hereunder" and other words of similar import refer to this Trust Agreement as a whole and not to any particular section, subsection or clause contained in this Trust Agreement; (c) the rules of construction set forth in section 102 of the Bankruptcy Code will apply; and (d) the term "including" shall be construed to mean "including, but not limited to," "including, without limitation," or words of similar import. 8.20 Counterpart Signatures. This Trust Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts and by different Parties on separate counterparts (including by facsimile or portable document format (pdf)), and each such counterpart shall be deemed to be an original, but all such counterparts shall together constitute one and the same instrument.

Law, including the Customer Identification Program requirements established under the Uniting and Strengthening America by Providing Appropriate Tools Required to Intercept and Obstruct Terrorism Act of 2001, Title III of Pub. L. 107 56 (signed into law October 26, 2001) and its implementing regulations (collectively, USA PATRIOT Act), the Financial Crimes Enforcement Network's (FinCEN) Customer Due Diligence Requirements and such other laws, rules, regulations and executive orders in effect from time to time applicable to banking institutions ("Applicable Law"), the Delaware Trustee is required to obtain on or before closing, and from time to time thereafter, documentation to verify and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. For a non-individual person such as a business entity, a charity, a trust or other legal entity, the Delaware Trustee will ask for documentation to verify the entity's formation and existence, its financial statements, licenses, tax identification documents, identification and authorization documents from individuals claiming authority to represent the entity and other relevant documentation and information (including beneficial owners of such entities). To the fullest extent permitted by Applicable Law, the Delaware Trustee may conclusively rely on, and shall be fully protected and indemnified in relying on, any such information received. Failure to provide such information may result in an inability of the Delaware Trustee to perform its obligations hereunder, which, at the sole option of the Delaware Trustee, may result in the Delaware Trustee's resignation in accordance with the terms of this Trust Agreement. In the event of any change in beneficial ownership in the PI Trust (or any beneficial interest in that interest, regardless of form), such change shall be accompanied by such documentation as may be required by the Delaware Trustee in order to comply with Applicable Law.

In addition to the Delaware Trustee's obligations under the Applicable Law, the Corporate Transparency Act (31 U.S.C. § 5336) and its implementing regulations (collectively, the "CTA" and together with Applicable Law as defined herein, "Anti-Money Laundering Law") may require the PI Trust to file certain reports with FinCEN after the date of this Trust Agreement. It shall be the Trustee's duty and not the Delaware Trustee's duty to cause the PI Trust to make such filings and to cause the PI Trust to comply with its obligations under the CTA, if any. The parties hereto agree that for purposes of Anti-Money Laundering Law, the Beneficial Owners are and shall be deemed to be the sole direct owners of the PI Trust, the Delaware Trustee acts solely as a directed trustee hereunder at the direction of the Trustee, and the Trustee (and not the Delaware Trustee) is and shall deemed to be the party with the power and authority to exercise substantial control over the PI Trust.

8.22 Waiver of Trial by Jury. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO AND THE BENEFICIAL OWNERS HEREBY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY AND ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY WITH RESPECT TO ANY LITIGATION OR LEGAL PROCEEDING DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF, UNDER OR IN CONNECTION WITH THE PI TRUST, THIS TRUST AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY.

EXECUTION VERSION

RITE AID LITIGATION TRUST COOPERATION AGREEMENT

In connection with the Second Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization of Rite Aid Corporation and its Debtor Affiliates (With Further Technical Modifications) [Dkt. No. 4352, Exh. A], dated August 15, 2024, including all exhibits and schedules thereto, and as the same may from time to time be supplemented, amended, or modified, and as confirmed (the "Plan") by order of the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey (the "Bankruptcy Court"), this agreement (the "Agreement") is made, effective as of the Effective Date of the Plan, by and among (i) the Master Trust (the "Trust"), and any GUC Sub-Trusts established under the Plan, including Sub-Trust A and Sub-Trust B,[1] and (ii) Rite Aid Corporation and its affiliates that are debtors-in-possession or, post-Effective Date, Reorganized Debtors or Wind-Down Debtors as applicable (collectively, the "Debtors") (each a "Party" or collectively the "Parties"). Capitalized terms used herein and not otherwise defined shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Plan.

RECITALS

WHEREAS, Article IV.E.3. of the Plan contemplates that a Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement will be executed among the Parties;

WHEREAS, pursuant to Article IV.E.6. of the Plan, the Debtors shall provide reasonable cooperation necessary to (a) maximize the value of the Assigned Claims, (b) prosecute the Assigned Insurance Rights, and (c) reconcile and administer Tort Claims, as more fully set forth in Article IV.E.6 and herein;

WHEREAS, pursuant to the Plan and Confirmation Order, this Agreement has been ordered and approved by the Bankruptcy Court as a binding court order; and

WHEREAS, in consideration of the above-stated premises, the mutual covenants contained herein, and for good and valuable consideration, the Parties agree as follows:

ARTICLE I
TRANSFER OF CLAIM RECORDS

Section 1.1.

a. The Debtors shall use reasonable efforts to collect, copy, and transfer to the Trust (and/or applicable GUC Sub-Trust), Documents[2] or information requested by the Trust under the terms of this Agreement that are relevant to pursue and/or litigate any Assigned Claims and/or Assigned Insurance Rights or to reconcile and administer Tort Claims (collectively, Documents and information transferred under this Agreement are "Claim Records"). The Trust (and/or applicable GUC Sub-Trust) shall request no more PHI[3] or other individually identifiable health information (collectively "IIHI")

[1] References to the Trust include reference to any GUC Sub-Trusts.

[2] "Document" refers, as applicable, to documents, communications, and physical evidence that is in the possession, custody, or control of the Debtors, including reasonably available metadata associated with such documents.

[3] "PHI" or "protected health information" shall have the same definition as "protected health information" as set forth in 45 C.F.R. § 160.103 and includes, but is not limited to, names, addresses, prescription numbers, health plan from the Reorganized Debtors than the Trust (and/or the applicable GUC Sub-Trust) determines is reasonably necessary to address, pursue and/or litigate any Assigned Claims, Assigned Insurance Rights, or Tort Claims, and the Parties will otherwise confer in the manner described in paragraph 254 of the Confirmation Order.

b. The Debtors shall conduct a reasonable search for and, if identified by that reasonable search, transfer the Claim Records identified on Exhibit A hereto reasonably promptly. The Debtors will confer with the Trust about the parameters for the review and/or production of Claims Records identified on Exhibit A and the time and expenses associated with that work.

c. The Debtors also shall conduct a reasonable search for and, if identified by that reasonable search, transfer the Claim Records identified on Exhibit B hereto reasonably promptly. The Debtors will confer with the Trust about the parameters for the review and/or production of Claims Records identified on Exhibit B and the time and expenses associated with that work.

d. Upon request by the Trust, the Debtors shall reasonably cooperate by providing access to the Debtors' books, records, and documents related to topics relevant to Assigned Claims, Assigned Insurance Rights, or Tort Claims. For the avoidance of doubt, this Agreement does not allow direct access to the Debtors' electronic health records.

e. Upon request by the Trust, the Debtors shall reasonably cooperate by proposing search parameters (which, depending on the request, may include search terms and custodians and/or ad hoc document criteria) designed to reasonably identify and collect Claim Records (including electronically stored information ("ESI")) relevant to Assigned Claims, Assigned Insurance Rights, or Tort Claims. In searching for Claim Records in response to a request under this Agreement, the Debtors shall reasonably consult with available, relevant personnel to attempt in good faith to identify and propose search parameters to reasonably identify the requested information.

f. For Claim Records related to the Assigned Claims, the Trust shall have one year after the Effective Date to make requests to the Debtors for relevant Documents and information (including ESI), which period of time can be extended by either consent of the Debtors, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, or an order of the Bankruptcy Court. The Debtors shall use methods designed to minimize the costs of collection, production, and export of such Claim Records (including, non-exclusively, (i) the procedures for collection and production of ESI, as set forth in Section 1.3(e) of this Agreement, and (ii) the procedures for production of PHI and IIHI, described in paragraph 254 of the Confirmation Order), and to enable productions in response to the Trust's requests to be made reasonably promptly.

numbers, and dates related to an individual, other than year, such as the date of dispensing. The Parties acknowledge that PHI is IIHI that is protected under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 and the Health Information Technology for Economic and Clinical Health Act of 2009 (together with their implementing regulations, "HIPAA"), including, for example, customer pharmacy records and claims information.

g. For Claim Records known or reasonably believed to be relevant to the Assigned Insurance Rights or Tort Claims, the Debtors shall take commercially reasonable measures to preserve Documents and information (including ESI) for a period of five years following the Effective Date, which period of time can be extended by either consent of the Debtors, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, or an order of the Bankruptcy Court. The Debtors shall use methods designed to minimize the costs of collection, production, and export of such Claim Records (including, non-exclusively, (i) the procedures for collection and production of ESI, as set forth in Section 1.3(e) of this Agreement, and (ii) the procedures for production of IIHI described in paragraph 254 of the Confirmation Order), and to enable productions in response to the Trust's requests to be made reasonably promptly.

h. To the extent that Claim Records alone are insufficient to respond to requests for discovery made to the Trust or Sub-Trusts in any action or proceeding litigating the Assigned Claims or Assigned Insurance Rights by other parties to such proceedings, such other parties may seek discovery directly from the Debtors and the Debtors shall use reasonable efforts to search, collect, and produce additional Documents, information and/or ESI in order to aid the Trust in sufficiently responding to such discovery requests, in the same manner the Trust would be required to do so with respect to its own documents, subject to any otherwise applicable evidentiary objections.

i. For the avoidance of doubt, and notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Trusts shall not be liable for any costs associated with the provision of the register of General Unsecured Claims, including Tort Claims, or any costs associated with providing the Trusts access to the proof of claim documents related to General Unsecured Claims, including Tort Claims, as set forth in the Confirmation Order.

j. Each of the foregoing subsections (a) through (g) are subject to the cost-reimbursement obligations of the Trust.

k. All Parties' objections, contentions, and arguments regarding relevance, burden, and privilege are preserved; provided, however, that the obligation to cooperate to maximize the value of the Assigned Claims and prosecute the Assigned Insurance Rights shall be paramount.

Section 1.2. The Debtors shall take reasonable measures to preserve, or cause to be preserved, unless and until they are transferred to the Trust or GUC Sub-Trust, Documents or information (including ESI) known or reasonably believed to be relevant to the Assigned Claims, Assigned Insurance Rights, and/or Tort Claims for a period of five years following the Effective Date, subject to the Trustees' ability to seek extensions to the preservation period from the Debtors, which shall not be unreasonably refused by the Debtors, or by Bankruptcy Court order. This shall include Documents or information subject to a litigation hold in prepetition litigation related to (i) any Tort Claim, (ii) any other General Unsecured Claim, or (iii) any Assigned Claim.

Section 1.3. Privileged and/or Confidential Materials

a. Any attorney-client privilege, work-product protection, mediation privilege, or other privilege, protection, or immunity ("Privilege") relevant to the Assigned Claims or Assigned Insurance Rights or Tort Claims (the "Privileged Materials") shall be extended to and shared with the Trust and GUC Sub-Trusts as of the Effective Date.[4] Subject to Section 1.4 of this Agreement, this extension of Privileges encompasses Privileges held by any of the Debtors, including any predecessors, committees or sub-committees, or other designated entities or persons related to the Debtors. This provision and the extension of such Privileges constitutes agreement that the Trust and GUC Sub-Trusts are the successor in interest to the Debtors solely with respect to the Assigned Claims, Assigned Insurance Rights, and Tort Claims and that there is otherwise a common legal interest between the Debtors and the Trust and GUC Sub-Trusts with respect to the Assigned Claims, Assigned Insurance Rights, and Tort Claims in connection with the sharing of and provision of access to Claim Records to the extent they are protected by any Privilege, including for purposes of confidentiality restrictions. The Trust's or any GUC Sub-Trust's receipt of any Privileged Materials shall be without waiver and in recognition of the successorship interest in prosecuting Assigned Claims or Assigned Insurance Rights and/or reconciling and administering Tort Claims on behalf of the Debtors' Estates.

b. Any rights to Claim Records containing confidential or highly confidential information, including IIHI, or other materials containing IIHI ("Confidential Materials," and together with Privileged Materials "Protected Materials"), shall be extended to and shared with the Trust and GUC Sub-Trusts as of the Effective Date, provided the sharing is otherwise consistent with applicable law; for the avoidance of doubt, the Parties acknowledge that such extension and sharing of rights is consistent with HIPAA for uses and disclosures of PHI made pursuant to relevant orders of this Bankruptcy Court. This extension of rights encompasses rights held by any of the Debtors, including any predecessors, committees or sub-committees, or other designated entities or persons related to the Debtors. This provision and the extension of such rights constitutes agreement that the Trust and GUC Sub-Trusts are the successor in interest to the Debtors solely with respect to the Assigned Claims, Assigned Insurance Rights, and Tort Claims.

c. For the avoidance of doubt, the Debtors, on the one hand, and the Trust and GUC Sub-Trusts, on the other hand, shall share ownership of all applicable Privileges that may attach to the Privileged Materials shared pursuant to this Agreement and shall reasonably consult with one another with respect to the potential waiver of any privilege, including, without limitation, in accordance with the terms of Section 1.3(f) of this Agreement.

[4] None of the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors or the Debtors' Personnel (as defined below) shall be liable for violating any confidentiality or privacy protections as a result of transferring Claim Records or other books and records to the Trust and/or any GUC Sub-Trusts. The Debtors and the Reorganized Debtors shall only disclose IIHI (including PHI) to the Trust and/or any GUC Sub-Trusts pursuant to paragraph 254 of the Confirmation Order, and the Recipients shall handle IIHI so received in accordance with paragraph 254 of the Confirmation Order and the Protective Order as defined herein.

d. For the avoidance of doubt, if the Trust or any GUC Sub-Trust is ordered to disclose any Protected Materials by any court over the Trust's or any GUC Sub-Trust's objection (and the Trust and GUC Sub-Trust otherwise complied with Section 1.3(f) of this Agreement), then it shall not be a violation of this Agreement for the Trust or GUC Sub-Trust to comply with such order. In the event the Trust or any GUC Sub-Trust becomes aware that a motion has been or is expected to be filed seeking disclosure of any Protected Materials, the Trust or GUC Sub-Trust shall promptly notify the Debtors in accordance with this Agreement.

e. Potential Privilege Procedures. In order to expedite the efficient transfer of Claim Records, the Debtors shall utilize reasonable methods, including metadata, to identify and minimize the cost of producing ESI that may be subject to a Privilege. Such Claim Records will be transferred with Bates-stamps or other labels that identify them as "Potentially Privileged Materials." Before disclosing, citing, quoting, summarizing, communicating, or otherwise sharing any Potentially Privileged Materials outside the Trust, the Trust or GUC Sub-Trust shall notify and consult with the Debtors regarding whether the Claims Records in question may be subject to a Privilege. No Potentially Privileged Materials can be disclosed to third parties without the Debtors' express written consent, which the Debtors cannot unreasonably withhold, or an order from the Bankruptcy Court. To the extent there are Claims Records that are not stamped Potentially Privileged Materials but a Professional of the Trust or GUC Sub-Trust reasonably believes there may be a Privilege claim regarding such Claim Records, the Trust or GUC Sub-Trust also shall confer with the Debtors about such Claim Records. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this subsection restricts or limits the ability of the Trust or any GUC Sub Trust to use any Potentially Privileged Material for internal analysis; this subsection applies only to disclosing, citing, quoting, summarizing, communicating, or otherwise sharing any Potentially Privileged Materials with third parties outside of the Trust or GUC Sub-Trust and their Professionals.

f. Use of Privileged or Potentially Privileged Materials. Pursuant to this subsection, if the Trust or any GUC Sub-Trust intends on disclosing, citing, quoting, summarizing, communicating, or otherwise sharing Privileged Materials or Potentially Privileged Materials with anyone other than the Trust and GUC Sub-Trust and their Professionals, it shall give the Debtors at least thirty (30) Business Days' prior notice (unless exigent circumstances do not afford time for such notice, in which case the Trust or GUC Sub-Trust shall provide as much notice as reasonably possible) of (a) the Privileged Materials or Potentially Privileged Materials to be disclosed, cited, quoted, summarized, communicated, or shared; (b) the intended recipients of such disclosure; and (c) the purpose for such disclosure (collectively, (a)-(c) constitute "Privilege Disclosure Notice"). The Privilege Disclosure Notice shall identify the response deadline consistent with this paragraph. Following receipt of the Privilege Disclosure Notice, the Debtors' consent to disclosure shall not be unreasonably withheld. To the extent the Debtors do not respond within fifteen (15) days of receipt of the Privilege Disclosure Notice, or respond within fifteen (15) days of receipt of the Privilege Disclosure Notice but indicate that they do not consent to the disclosure described in the Privilege Disclosure Notice, then either the Trust, any GUC Sub-Trust, or the Debtors may file a motion to enforce this Agreement or for a protective order in the Bankruptcy Court, and such issue shall be resolved by the Bankruptcy Court before the Privileged Materials or Potentially Privileged Materials are used or disclosed to third parties. In connection with such a motion, the Trust, any GUC Sub-Trust, and/or the Debtors may submit the Privileged Materials or Potentially Privileged Materials referenced in the Privilege Disclosure Notice to the Bankruptcy Court for review in camera in connection with deciding the motion. The foregoing sentence is without prejudice to any Party's right to contest whether in camera review and/or consideration of the at-issue materials by the Bankruptcy Court is appropriate.

g. The Trust and/or the GUC Sub-Trust will maintain Claim Records produced and identified by the Debtors as Privileged Materials and Potentially Privileged Materials in a segregated location and/or document workspace at the cost of the Trust.

h. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this Agreement limits or reduces the Parties' obligations with respect to discovery under applicable law, including any obligation to produce documents responsive to discovery requests served in any action or proceeding litigating the Assigned Claims and/or Assigned Insurance Right and to sufficiently identify documents withheld for privilege and the basis for withholding them.

Section 1.4. To the extent any Claim Records shareable with the Trust are in the physical possession of a third party and not also in the possession of the Debtors (and the Debtors agree they are Claim Records shareable with the Trust), the Debtors shall provide reasonable cooperation and not unreasonably withhold consent to enable the Trust or GUC Sub-Trusts to obtain such Claim Records from the third party for the purposes set forth in Section 1.6 of this Agreement; provided that, to the extent Privileged Materials are shared between or among the Debtors and a third party pursuant to the protections of common interest or similar doctrine, the Debtors will use reasonable efforts to transfer such Claim Records to the Trust or GUC Sub-Trusts in accordance with, and subject to, the other provisions in this Agreement and any applicable protective orders.

Section 1.5. To the extent that any Claim Records are subject to a protective order or other confidentiality restriction, the Debtors shall produce such requested productions to the extent permitted by, and subject to, any applicable protective orders or confidentiality restrictions, and shall undertake reasonable efforts to facilitate such production or to obtain any requisite consent; provided, however, that for purposes of any protective order or confidentiality restriction, the Debtors shall use methods designed to minimize the costs of collection, production, and export of such Claim Records, subject to applicable law.

Section 1.6. Subject to the provisions on Privileged Materials in Section 1.3 above, the Trust or GUC Sub-Trusts shall use any Claim Records that are provided by the Debtors pursuant to this Agreement solely for the purposes of (i) processing, evaluating, defending, resolving, liquidating, and/or paying the General Unsecured Claims (including Tort Claims); (ii) investigating, preserving, prosecuting, and resolving the Assigned Claims or Assigned Insurance Rights; (iii) responding, at the Trust's or GUC Sub-Trust's reasonable discretion and consistent with applicable law and protective orders, to third-party requests for Documents in connection with the reconciliation and administration of the General Unsecured Claims (including Tort Claims); (iv) responding, at the Trust's or GUC Sub-Trust's reasonable discretion, to requests for Documents made by holders of General Unsecured Claims (including Tort Claims) ("Claimants") subject to entry of a qualified protective order that complies with 45 C.F.R. § 164.512(e)(1)(v) ("Qualified Protective Order"); and (v) responding, at the Trust's or GUC Sub-Trust's reasonable discretion and consistent with applicable law, to requests for Documents and/or other discovery arising in any action or proceeding in pursuit of the Assigned Claims or Assigned Insurance Rights. The Parties shall use their best efforts to agree upon the form of a Qualified Protective Order on or before September 12, 2024, after which point any Party may seek relief from the Bankruptcy Court for the entry of a Qualified Protective Order.

Section 1.7. After the Effective Date of the Plan, at the time of the transfer of any Claim Records, the Debtors will provide the Trust with a factually accurate declaration that establishes, to the greatest extent practicable, the authentication of the Claim Records that were in the Debtors' possession, custody, or control. The Trust or GUC Sub-Trust may make further reasonable requests to the Debtors to authenticate certain Claim Records, which authentications the Debtors will provide in good faith so long as reasonably practicable. Authentication requests are subject to the Trust's cost-reimbursement obligations set forth in this Agreement.

Section 1.8. The Parties each hereby authorize the Official Committee of Tort Claimants and the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors, and their respective agents and Professionals, to provide to the Trust all data and any other information concerning the Assigned Claims, Assigned Insurance Rights or Tort Claims that were provided by the Debtors, directly or indirectly, to the Official Committee of Tort Claimants, the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors, or their respective agents or Professionals on or prior to the Effective Date, notwithstanding any agreement or stipulation entered into prior to the Effective Date to the contrary.

Section 1.9. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Agreement, the Debtors shall not be required to produce or make available for inspection (a) any document or information that the Parties agree is not relevant to a Claim Record, (b) any privileged document or communication that the Parties agree is not relevant to a Claim Record, or (c) any Claim Records that the Debtors are under a legal obligation on account of personal privacy issues of an employee or contractual obligation to refrain from providing to a third party, whether or not privileged; provided, however, that the Trust retains the right to challenge any such determination to maximize the value of the Assigned Claims and/or prosecute the Assigned Insurance Rights, and paragraph 254 of the Confirmation Order is incorporated by reference here.

Section 1.10. Except as otherwise provided for herein, nothing in this Agreement shall require any Party or third party to create any new documents or to compile or organize any data contained in existing Documents into any new documents; provided, however, that nothing in this Agreement affects the Debtors', Reorganized Debtors', Trust's, or GUC Sub-Trusts' obligations to create new documents or compile or organize data contained in existing Documents into any new documents with respect to discovery in any action or proceeding litigating the Assigned Claims and/or Assigned Insurance Rights if and to the extent required under applicable law, including any obligation to produce documents responsive to discovery requests served in such proceedings and to sufficiently identify documents withheld for privilege and the basis for withholding them.

COOPERATION ON TESTIMONY AND PERSONNEL

Section 2.1. With respect to the cooperation of current or former employees, directors, officers, agents, or other representatives of the Debtors (collectively the "Debtors' Personnel," as further defined below), the Debtors agree to reasonably cooperate with the Trust and GUC Sub-Trusts on the terms set forth below in connection with, and in anticipation of, the litigation or related prosecution, including, without limitation, arbitration or mediation, of any Assigned Claims or Assigned Insurance Rights and reconciliation and administration of Tort Claims and subject to the cost-reimbursement obligations of the Trust as well as objections and contentions regarding relevance, burden, and Privilege; provided, however, that the obligation to cooperate to maximize the value of the Assigned Claims and prosecute the Assigned Insurance Rights shall be paramount.

a. Until the conclusion of any litigation, arbitration, mediation, or other proceeding on the Assigned Claims or Assigned Insurance Rights or the reconciliation and administration of Tort Claims, including, during and until the exhaustion of any and all related appeals, and upon written request (including via email) by the Trust (or its Professionals) or any GUC Sub-Trust (or its Professionals) made with reasonable advance notice, the Debtors shall use reasonable efforts to provide the Trust, the GUC Sub-Trusts, and their respective Professionals, with reasonable access, on an informal basis, to (i) individuals then currently employed by or affiliated with the Debtors, (ii) former employees, officers, or directors who have continuing obligations to cooperate with the Debtors without the need for the Debtors to serve formal process (e.g., subpoenas) to secure their cooperation, (iii) then current Professionals or advisors of the Debtors, or (iv) former Professionals or advisors of the Debtors who have continuing obligations to cooperate with the Debtors (collectively, (i) through (iv), the "Debtors' Personnel"). For the purposes of this subsection, the Debtors shall appoint a designated person(s) to whom such requests by the Trust and GUC Sub-Trusts shall be made.

b. In the event that the Trust or the GUC Sub-Trusts, in the course of prosecuting the Assigned Claims or Assigned Insurance Rights or reconciling and administering Tort Claims, makes a formal request for testimony in a proceeding (including but not limited to by way of a subpoena, a request for a de bene esse deposition, a request for deposition testimony, or similar process) from (i) the Debtors, and/or (ii) the Debtors' Personnel, the Debtors shall use reasonable efforts to make the requested testifier(s) available to the Trust or GUC Sub-Trusts, including for live testimony at trial.

c. In the event that a named party in any action or proceeding litigating the Assigned Claims or Assigned Insurance Rights, other than the Trust or the GUC Sub-Trusts, serves a discovery request or demand for testimony in such a proceeding (including but not limited to by way of a subpoena, a request for a de bene esse deposition, or other request for deposition testimony, or similar process) from (i) the Debtors, and/or the Debtors' Personnel, the Debtors shall use reasonable efforts to make the requested testifier(s) available to such party, including for live testimony at trial, in the same manner the Trust would be obligated to do so with respect to individuals employed by or affiliated with the Trust, subject to any applicable evidentiary objections.

d. The Debtors further agree to reasonably cooperate with requests from the Trust and GUC Sub-Trusts to identify and request cooperation from witnesses or other individuals on topics related to Claim Records; provided, however, that the obligation to cooperate to maximize the value of the Assigned Claims and prosecute the Assigned Insurance Rights shall be paramount.

MISCELLANEOUS

Section 3.0. This Agreement shall expire only for reasons expressly permitted in this Agreement and only upon either (a) the termination of the Trust in accordance with its governing documents or (b) an order of the Bankruptcy Court.

Section 3.1. Preservation of Privileges and Defenses; Inadvertent Production. To the extent the Debtors inadvertently transfer to the Trust or GUC Sub-Trusts any Documents that the Debtors contend are exempted from transfer pursuant to this Agreement because they (i) constitute Protected Materials that are not relevant to the Assigned Claims, Assigned Insurance Rights or Tort Claims, or (ii) are later discovered by the Trust to constitute Protected Materials that are not relevant to the Assigned Claims, Assigned Insurance Rights or Tort Claims (each of (i) and (ii), an "Inadvertently Provided Document"), the Debtors may, in writing (including via email) request the return of any Inadvertently Provided Document. A request for the return of an Inadvertently Provided Document shall identify the specific Document and the basis for clawing back such Document, in whole or in part, from production. Further, with respect to any Inadvertently Provided Document under item (ii) of this paragraph, the Debtors, if appropriate, shall within ten (10) Business Days provide a version of the Document to the Trust or GUC Sub-Trusts that redacts only any privileged information that is unrelated to the Assigned Claims or Assigned Insurance Rights or Tort Claims.

If the Debtors request the return of any Inadvertently Provided Document in the custody of the Trust or GUC Sub-Trusts, then the Trust or GUC Sub-Trusts (as applicable) shall either (a) within ten (10) Business Days (i) return, delete, or destroy the Inadvertently Provided Document and all copies thereof, (ii) undertake reasonable measures to obtain or confirm the deletion or destruction of any copies it produced to other parties, and (iii) delete or destroy all notes or other work product reflecting the content of such Inadvertently Provided Document, or, alternatively, (b) within ten (10) Business Days of receipt of such a request, challenge such request in accordance with this Agreement, but, in the event of a challenge, neither the Trust, GUC Sub-Trusts, nor any other third-party shall be entitled to contend that the provision of the Inadvertently Provided Document pursuant to this Agreement constituted a waiver of any applicable privilege(s), protection(s), or immunity. In the event the Trust or GUC Sub-Trust commences a challenge in connection with the Debtors' request for return of an Inadvertently Provided Document, then the Trust need not take the steps described in subsection (a) of this paragraph until such challenge has been fully resolved, but the Trust or GUC Sub-Trusts may not use or disclose the Inadvertently Provided Document (or work product reflecting the contents of the Inadvertently Provided Document) unless and until the challenge is resolved in the Trust's or GUC Sub-Trust's favor.

Under Rule 502 of the Federal Rules of Evidence, all Privileges respecting any Inadvertently Provided Document are fully preserved.

Section 3.2. Confidentiality

a. The Parties promptly shall petition the Bankruptcy Court for a confidentiality agreement and Qualified Protective Order that governs the use and disclosure of IIHI and, without limiting the protections applicable to IIHI, shall provide for the ability to designate Claim Records and other information produced pursuant to this Agreement as "Confidential" or "Highly Confidential." Prior nondisclosure agreements, attorneys' eyes' only agreements, or other confidentiality agreements respecting prior productions shall be superseded by the Qualified Protective Order, and the Trust and GUC Sub-Trusts may use Claim Records received under this Agreement pursuant to the terms of the Qualified Protective Order.

b. For the avoidance of doubt, the Trust and GUC Sub-Trusts, and their respective trustees and Professionals, are permitted to receive and review all Claim Records transferred under this Agreement and pursuant to any Qualified Protective Order.

Section 3.3. Costs.

a. The Reorganized Debtors shall be promptly reimbursed by the Trust for reasonable and documented costs and expenses, including: (i) costs associated with allocating time of employees on projects requiring an allocation of employee time in connection with this Agreement; provided, however, that the identification of such projects, and estimation and identification of costs associated with them, shall be agreed upon among the Parties, without costs to the Trust, in advance of the incurrence of any such costs (and such costs shall be incurred only after estimated and known and approved by the Trust); and (ii) fees and expenses of Professionals (at the applicable rates charged by such professionals) incurred in connection with providing their cooperation hereunder; but, for the avoidance of doubt, not including any costs incurred in connection with insurance archival efforts, the costs of which are to be paid by the Debtors. The Debtors shall cooperate with reasonable requests by the Trust to provide good faith estimates of costs and expenses they will incur prior to incurring such costs and expenses. With respect to the time of the Reorganized Debtors' employees on projects requiring an allocation of employee time, the Trust agrees that it shall use reasonable efforts to minimize the use of such employee time in connection with advancing the goal and purpose of the Trust, and the Trust and the Reorganized Debtors shall agree on a mutually acceptable and reasonable process by which the Reorganized Debtors will provide the Trust with estimates of employee time and costs to be incurred in connection with such projects (including both the number of employees and the quantum of expected time and costs per employee) before any employee time is incurred, and employee time will be incurred thereafter only if the Trust has approved of the relevant estimates; provided, that the Reorganized Debtors shall not incur employee time in connection with such projects in the interim pending approval of the Trust. The Reorganized Debtors shall invoice the Trust monthly for such costs and expenses and the Trust shall pay such invoices as follows: (1) the Trust shall (A) identify any objections to an invoice or any portion thereof no later than thirty (30) calendar days following receipt of such invoice and (B) pay the undisputed portions of any invoice no later than thirty (30) calendar days following receipt of such invoice; and (2) in the event of a dispute between the parties as to payment of an invoice or any portion thereof (an "Invoice Dispute"), the Parties shall (A) meet and confer in good faith to resolve the dispute within seven (7) calendar days of the Trust identifying such dispute, (B) if a full or partial resolution is reached with respect to an Invoice Dispute following the Parties' meet-and-confer, the Trust shall pay the resolved portion of any invoice within seven (7) calendar days of reaching such resolution, (C) if a full resolution of the Invoice Dispute is not reached, either Party may seek an expedited resolution of any remaining issues before the Bankruptcy Court, and no Party shall object to the moving Party's request for a hearing before the Bankruptcy Court on an expedited basis, and (D) if the Bankruptcy Court determines that the Trust is required to pay any portion of a disputed invoice, the Trust shall pay such amounts within seven (7) calendar days of such determination.

b. The Debtors shall bear the costs (i) for providing post-Effective Date only those specific Claim Records requested on Exhibits A and B as to which no email searches are needed, that have not yet been delivered to the Trust and/or its Professionals, and those specific Claim Records are separately agreed upon by the Parties; (ii) associated with the retention of Documents needed to transfer to the Trust the Claim Records identified in Exhibits A and B hereto that are discovered upon a reasonable search; and (iii) associated or in connection with Documents and things that the Debtors desire to keep or would otherwise incur in the ordinary course of business, consistent with historical practices and applicable law. With respect to any Claim Records or other Documents and information not covered by the foregoing sentence, the Trust may, in its discretion, elect to preserve such Documents and information (or retain access, through the Debtors' systems, to such Documents and information), in whole or in part, and subject to the other provisions of this Agreement; provided, that if the Trust so elects, the Trust shall bear the additional document retention costs associated with the preservation of such Documents and information, provided that the Debtors shall use commercially reasonable methods to preserve or retain access to such Documents and information, and, provided further, that the Debtors will advise the Trust prior to seeking to delete, destroy, discard, or abandon any Documents not addressed by the first sentence of this paragraph to the extent they are Claim Records to ensure the Trust has an opportunity to make such an election, and provided further that in no event shall the Debtors delete, destroy, discard, or abandon any Document constituting a Claim Record without first giving the Trust a reasonable opportunity to demand the production of that Document.

c. requests, shall be determined under the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, or similar rules in, and/or by the judge(s) presiding over, such action or proceeding. All Parties' rights regarding the responsibility for costs associated with responding to such third-party discovery, subpoenas or similar requests are reserved.

Section 3.4. Pre-Effective Date Cooperation. After the Confirmation Date and prior to the Effective Date, the Debtors shall reasonably cooperate, except that such cooperation shall be afforded to the Committees and their Professionals in advance of the formation and retention of Professionals by the Trust, as is consistent with, and reasonably necessary to, comply with and satisfy closing conditions.

Section 3.5. A material breach of obligations of the Trust under this Agreement, including a failure by the Trust to promptly reimburse the Reorganized Debtors in accordance with Section 3.3(a), may constitute an event of default and any Party may seek an order from the Bankruptcy Court, on an expedited basis, (i) for a determination as to whether a material breach and/or an event of default has occurred, (ii) if the Bankruptcy Court determines a material breach and/or event of default has occurred, providing the remedy for such material breach and/or event of default (including with respect to any cure periods, if any—except insofar as such cure period is set forth in 3.3(a)(D)) (any such order of the Bankruptcy Court described in this subclause (i) and (ii), a "Bankruptcy Court Breach Order"), and/or (iii) terminating or permitting a cessation of performance under this Agreement as a result of an event of default following the expiration of any cure periods, if applicable. At any time following—but at no time prior to—the entry of a Bankruptcy Court Breach Order finding that a breach and/or an event of default by the Trust has, in fact, occurred under this Agreement, and the expiration of any cure periods set forth in Section 3.3(a)(D) or the Bankruptcy Court Breach Order, the Reorganized Debtors may cease performance under this Agreement if and as permitted by the Bankruptcy Court Breach Order, provided that the Debtors provide the Trust with two business days' notice of the exercise of this right in connection with an undisputed, unpaid invoice. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Reorganized Debtors may cease performance under this Agreement immediately following the Trust's failure to timely pay (1) any undisputed portion of an invoice or (2) any disputed portion of an invoice that becomes resolved among the Parties or pursuant to a decision of the Bankruptcy Court, in each case, within the time periods set forth in Section 3.3(a) and without the need to obtain a Bankruptcy Court Breach Order. The Reorganized Debtors shall resume performance upon the Trust paying the undisputed portion of the invoice (as to subparagraph (1)) or the resolved portion of the invoice (as to subparagraph (2)) or, subject to the terms of any Bankruptcy Court Breach Order, any amount determined in any Bankruptcy Court Breach Order (as described in romanette (iii) above). Except as set forth herein, all Parties' rights are reserved with respect to the pursuit of or defense against any Bankruptcy Court Breach Order.

Section 3.6. Solely to the extent any prepetition contractual or other obligations of the Debtors under the Insurance Policies are not being specifically undertaken by the Trust or GUC Sub-Trusts in connection with the Plan, and except as otherwise provided in the Plan, the Debtors shall have an obligation to continue such prepetition contractual or other obligations under such applicable Insurance Policies; provided, however, that nothing herein shall obligate the Debtors to take any action(s) with respect to the Unassigned Insurance Policies.

Without limiting the foregoing, to the extent Claim Records are transferred prior to the Effective Date of the Plan pursuant to Section 1.1 of this Agreement, this Agreement also shall apply and be deemed effective in connection with such transfers.

Section 3.10. Dispute Resolution. In the event of a dispute concerning this Agreement (a "Dispute"), such Dispute shall be fully and finally resolved by the Bankruptcy Court. The Parties agree to identify a time and cost-efficient process to raise disputes with the Bankruptcy Court, including but not limited to the writing of short letters outlining the Parties' respective positions, subject to such court's procedures and consent, provided that the Parties agree to keep at least one chapter 11 case open until the termination of the Trust in accordance with its governing documents.

Section 3.11. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original but all of which shall constitute one and the same agreement.

Section 3.12. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York, without regard to any conflict of law principles that would result in the application of laws of any other jurisdiction.

Section 3.13. Severability; Validity. Whenever possible, each provision of this Agreement shall be interpreted in such manner as to be effective and valid under applicable law, but to the extent that any provision of this Agreement or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Agreement, and the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby, unless doing so would alter the fundamental agreements expressed in this Agreement, and to such end, the provisions of this Agreement are agreed to be severable.

Section 3.14. No Partnership Agreement. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall create or be deemed to create an employment, agency, fiduciary, joint venture, or partnership relationship between any of the Parties, on the one hand, or any of such other Parties' employees, on the other hand.

Section 3.15. No Waiver. The Parties agree that no failure or delay by any Party in exercising any right, power, or privilege hereunder will operate as a waiver thereof, and that no single or partial exercise thereof will preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any right, power, and privilege hereunder.

Section 3.16. Entire Agreement. This Agreement, together with the Plan and any Qualified Protective Order, contains the entire agreement of the Parties concerning the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior representations and agreements between or among the Parties as to such subject matter. For the avoidance of doubt, the Parties acknowledge and agree that paragraph 254 of the Confirmation Order remains in full force and effect, including as relevant to this Agreement. No modification of this Agreement or waiver of the terms and conditions hereof will be binding upon the Parties unless approved in writing by the Parties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Agreement (a) limits or otherwise waives the rights of the Trust or GUC Sub-Trusts to seek discovery from the Debtors pursuant to applicable law or (b) limits or otherwise waives the rights of the Debtors to object to any such discovery.

Section 3.17. Authorization. Each of the undersigned individuals represents and warrants that they have the power and authority to enter into this Agreement and bind their respective companies or trusts as authorized representatives.

Section 3.18. Titles. The section titles used herein are for convenience only and shall not be considered in construing or interpreting any of the provisions of this Agreement.

Section 3.19. Binding Effect. The Parties agree that this Agreement is for the benefit of and shall be binding upon the Parties and their respective representatives, transferees, successors, and assigns.

Section 3.20. Reporting. If (a) the Reorganized Debtors deliver an estimate to the Trust of expected reimbursable expenses exceeding $50,000 for a project pursuant to Section 3.3(a) and the Trust decides to proceed with that project or (b) the actual outstanding reimbursable expenses exceed $50,000 for a project previously approved by the Trust pursuant to Section 3.3(a), then, in each case, upon the reasonable request of the Reorganized Debtors, the Trust shall provide to the Reorganized Debtors a statement confirming that the amount of unrestricted cash on hand held by the Trust is sufficient and available to pay outstanding and/or projected reimbursable expenses, as applicable.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Parties hereto have executed this Agreement or caused this Agreement to be duly executed by their respective representatives thereunto duly authorized as of the Effective Date of the Plan.

RECITALS

WHEREAS, Article IV.E.3. of the Plan contemplates that a Litigation Trust Cooperation Agreement will be executed among the Parties;

WHEREAS, pursuant to Article IV.E.6. of the Plan, the Debtors shall provide reasonable cooperation necessary to (a) maximize the value of the Assigned Claims, (b) prosecute the Assigned Insurance Rights, and (c) reconcile and administer Tort Claims, as more fully set forth in Article IV.E.6 and herein;

WHEREAS, pursuant to the Plan and Confirmation Order, this Agreement has been ordered and approved by the Bankruptcy Court as a binding court order; and

WHEREAS, in consideration of the above-stated premises, the mutual covenants contained herein, and for good and valuable consideration, the Parties agree as follows:

ARTICLE I
TRANSFER OF CLAIM RECORDS

Section 1.1.

[1] References to the Trust include reference to any GUC Sub-Trusts.

a. The Debtors shall use reasonable efforts to collect, copy, and transfer to the Trust (and/or applicable GUC Sub-Trust), Documents[2] or information requested by the Trust under the terms of this Agreement that are relevant to pursue and/or litigate any Assigned Claims and/or Assigned Insurance Rights or to reconcile and administer Tort Claims (collectively, Documents and information transferred under this Agreement are "Claim Records"). The Trust (and/or applicable GUC Sub-Trust) shall request no more PHI[3] or other individually identifiable health information (collectively "IIHI") from the Reorganized Debtors than the Trust (and/or the applicable GUC Sub-Trust) determines is reasonably necessary to address, pursue and/or litigate any Assigned Claims, Assigned Insurance Rights, or Tort Claims, and the Parties will otherwise confer in the manner described in paragraph 254 of the Confirmation Order.

b. The Debtors shall conduct a reasonable search for and, if identified by that reasonable search, transfer the Claim Records identified on Exhibit A hereto reasonably promptly. ~~Subject to Section 1.1(i), the~~The Debtors will ~~coordinate~~confer with the Trust about the parameters for the review and/or production of Claims Records identified on Exhibit A ~~with the Trust~~and the time and expenses associated with that work.

c. The Debtors also shall conduct a reasonable search for and, if identified by that reasonable search, transfer the Claim Records identified on Exhibit B hereto reasonably promptly. ~~Subject to Section 1.1(i), the~~The Debtors will ~~coordinate~~confer with the Trust about the parameters for the review and/or production of Claims Records identified on Exhibit B ~~with the Trust~~and the time and expenses associated with that work.

d. Upon request by the Trust, the Debtors shall reasonably cooperate by providing access to the Debtors' books, records, and documents related to topics relevant to Assigned Claims, Assigned Insurance Rights, or Tort Claims. For the avoidance of doubt, this Agreement does not allow direct access to the Debtors' electronic health records.

e. Upon request by the Trust, the Debtors shall reasonably cooperate by proposing search ~~terms,~~parameters (which, depending on the request, may include search terms and custodians~~,~~ and/or ad hoc document criteria) designed to reasonably identify and collect Claim Records (including electronically stored information ("ESI")) relevant to Assigned Claims, Assigned Insurance Rights, or Tort Claims. In searching for

[3] "PHI" or "protected health information" shall have the same definition as "protected health information" as set forth in 45 C.F.R. § 160.103 and includes, but is not limited to, names, addresses, prescription numbers, health plan numbers, and dates related to an individual, other than year, such as the date of dispensing. The Parties acknowledge that PHI is IIHI that is protected under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 and the Health Information Technology for Economic and Clinical Health Act of 2009 (together with their implementing regulations, "HIPAA"), including, for example, customer pharmacy records and claims information.

Claim Records in response to a request under this Agreement, the Debtors shall reasonably consult with available, relevant personnel to attempt in good faith to identify and propose search parameters to reasonably identify ~~and collect Claim Records responsive to each~~the requested information.

f. For Claim Records related to the Assigned Claims, the Trust shall have one year after the Effective Date to make requests to the Debtors for relevant Documents and information (including ESI), which period of time can be extended by either consent of the Debtors, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, or an order of the Bankruptcy Court. The Debtors shall use methods designed to minimize the costs of collection, production, and export of such Claim Records (including, non-exclusively, (i) the procedures for collection and production of ESI, as set forth in ~~s~~Section ~~[~~1.3(e)~~]~~ of this Agreement, and (ii) the procedures for production of PHI[3] and ~~other individually identifiable health information (collectively, "~~IIHI~~")~~, described in paragraph 254 of the Confirmation Order), and to ~~ensure that~~enable productions in response to the Trust's requests ~~are~~to be made reasonably promptly.

g. For Claim Records known or reasonably believed to be relevant to the Assigned Insurance Rights or Tort Claims, the Debtors shall take commercially reasonable measures to preserve Documents and information (including ESI) for a period of ~~[~~five years~~]~~ following the Effective Date, which period of time can be extended by either consent of the Debtors, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, or an order of the Bankruptcy Court. The Debtors shall use methods designed to minimize the costs of collection, production, and export of such Claim Records (including, non-exclusively, (i) the procedures for collection and production of ESI, as set forth in ~~s~~Section ~~[~~1.3(e)~~]~~ of this Agreement, and (ii) the procedures for production of IIHI described in paragraph 254 of the Confirmation Order), and to ~~ensure that~~enable productions in response to the Trust's requests ~~are~~to be made reasonably promptly.

h. To the extent that Claim Records alone are insufficient to respond to requests for discovery made to the Trust or Sub-Trusts in any action or proceeding litigating the Assigned Claims or Assigned Insurance Rights by other parties to such proceedings, such other parties may seek discovery directly from the Debtors and the Debtors shall use reasonable efforts to search, collect, and produce additional Documents, information and/or ESI in order to aid the Trust in sufficiently responding to such discovery requests, in the same manner the Trust would be required to do so with respect to its own documents, subject to any otherwise applicable evidentiary objections.

~~[3] "PHI" or "protected health information" shall have the same definition as "protected health information" as set forth in 45 C.F.R. § 160.103 and includes, but is not limited to, names, addresses, prescription numbers, health plan numbers, and dates related to an individual, other than year, such as the date of dispensing. The Parties acknowledge that PHI is IIHI that is protected under the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 and the Health Information Technology for Economic and Clinical Health Act of 2009 (together with their implementing regulations, "HIPAA"), including, for example, customer pharmacy records and claims information.~~

i. ~~h.~~ For the avoidance of doubt, and notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Trusts shall not be liable for any costs associated with the provision of the register of General Unsecured Claims, including Tort Claims, or any costs associated with providing the Trusts access to the proof of claim documents related to General Unsecured Claims, including Tort Claims, as set forth in the Confirmation Order.

j. ~~i.~~ Each of the foregoing subsections (a) through (g) are subject to the cost-reimbursement obligations of the Trust.

k. All Parties' objections, contentions, and arguments regarding relevance, burden, and privilege are preserved; provided, however, that the obligation to cooperate to maximize the value of the Assigned Claims and prosecute the Assigned Insurance Rights shall be paramount.

Section 1.2. The Debtors shall take reasonable measures to preserve, or cause to be preserved, unless and until they are transferred to the Trust or GUC Sub-Trust, Documents or information (including ESI) known or reasonably believed to be relevant to the Assigned Claims, Assigned Insurance Rights, and/or Tort Claims for a period of five years following the Effective Date, subject to the Trustees' ability to seek extensions to the preservation period from the Debtors, which shall not be unreasonably refused by the Debtors, or by Bankruptcy Court order. This shall include Documents or information subject to a litigation hold in prepetition litigation related to (i) any Tort Claim, (ii) any other General Unsecured Claim, or (iii) any Assigned Claim.

Section 1.3. Privileged and/or Confidential Materials

a. Any attorney-client privilege, work-product protection, mediation privilege, or other privilege, protection, or immunity ("Privilege") relevant to the Assigned Claims or Assigned Insurance Rights or Tort Claims (the "Privileged Materials") shall be extended to and shared with the Trust and GUC Sub-Trusts as of the Effective Date.[4] Subject to Section 1.4 of this Agreement, this extension of Privileges encompasses Privileges held by any of the Debtors, including any predecessors, committees or sub-committees, or other designated entities or persons related to the Debtors. This provision and the extension of such Privileges constitutes agreement that the Trust and GUC Sub-Trusts are the successor in interest to the Debtors solely with respect to the Assigned Claims, Assigned Insurance Rights, and Tort Claims and that there is otherwise a common legal interest between the Debtors and the Trust and GUC Sub-Trusts with respect to the Assigned Claims, Assigned Insurance Rights, and Tort Claims in connection with the sharing of and provision of access to Claim Records to the extent they are protected by any Privilege, including for purposes of confidentiality restrictions. The Trust's or any GUC Sub-Trust's receipt of any Privileged Materials shall be without waiver and in recognition of the successorship interest in prosecuting Assigned Claims or Assigned Insurance Rights and/or reconciling and administering Tort Claims on behalf of the Debtors' Estates.

b. Any rights to Claim Records containing confidential or highly confidential information, including IIHI, or other materials containing IIHI ("Confidential Materials," and together with Privileged Materials "Protected Materials"), shall be extended to and shared with the Trust and GUC Sub-Trusts as of the Effective Date, provided the sharing is otherwise consistent with applicable law; for the avoidance of doubt, the Parties acknowledge that such extension and sharing of rights is consistent with HIPAA for uses and disclosures of PHI made pursuant to relevant orders of this Bankruptcy Court. This extension of rights encompasses rights held by any of the Debtors, including any predecessors, committees or sub-committees, or other designated entities or persons related to the Debtors. This provision and the extension of such rights constitutes agreement that the Trust and GUC Sub-Trusts are the successor in interest to the Debtors solely with respect to the Assigned Claims, Assigned Insurance Rights, and Tort Claims.

c. For the avoidance of doubt, the Debtors, on the one hand, and the Trust and GUC Sub-Trusts, on the other hand, shall share ownership of all applicable Privileges that may attach to the Privileged Materials shared pursuant to this Agreement and shall reasonably consult with one another with respect to the potential waiver of any privilege, including, without limitation, in accordance with the terms of Section 1.3(f) of this Agreement.

[4] None of the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors or the Debtors' Personnel (as defined below) shall be liable for violating any confidentiality or privacy protections as a result of transferring ~~the~~Claim Records or other books and records to the Trust and/or any GUC Sub-Trusts. The Debtors and the Reorganized Debtors shall only disclose IIHI (including PHI) to the Trust and/or any GUC Sub-Trusts pursuant to paragraph 254 of the Confirmation Order, and the Recipients shall handle IIHI so received in accordance with paragraph 254 of the Confirmation Order and the Protective Order as defined herein.

d. For the avoidance of doubt, if the Trust or any GUC Sub-Trust is ordered to disclose any Protected Materials by any court over the Trust's or any GUC Sub-Trust's objection (and the Trust and GUC Sub-Trust otherwise complied with Section 1.3(f) of this Agreement), then it shall not be a violation of this Agreement for the Trust or GUC Sub-Trust to comply with such order. In the event the Trust or any GUC Sub-Trust becomes aware that a motion has been or is expected to be filed seeking disclosure of any Protected Materials, the Trust or GUC Sub-Trust shall promptly notify the Debtors in accordance with this Agreement.

e. Potential Privilege Procedures. In order to expedite the efficient transfer of Claim Records, the Debtors shall utilize reasonable methods, including metadata, to identify and minimize the cost of producing ESI that may be subject to a Privilege. Such Claim Records will be transferred with Bates-stamps or other labels that identify them as "Potentially Privileged Materials." Before disclosing, citing, quoting, summarizing, communicating, or otherwise sharing any Potentially Privileged Materials outside the Trust, the Trust or GUC Sub-Trust shall notify and consult with the Debtors regarding whether the Claims Records in question may be subject to a Privilege. No Potentially Privileged Materials can be disclosed to third parties without the Debtors' express written consent, which the Debtors cannot unreasonably withhold, or an order from the Bankruptcy Court. To the extent there are Claims Records that are not stamped Potentially Privileged Materials but a Professional of the Trust or GUC Sub-Trust reasonably believes there may be a ~~p~~Privilege claim regarding such Claim Records, the Trust or GUC Sub-Trust also shall confer with the Debtors about such Claim Records. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this subsection restricts or limits the ability of the Trust or any GUC Sub Trust to use any Potentially Privileged Material for internal analysis; this subsection applies only to disclosing, citing, quoting, summarizing, communicating, or otherwise sharing any Potentially Privileged Materials with third parties outside of the Trust or GUC Sub-Trust and their Professionals.

f. Use of Privileged or Potentially Privileged Materials. Pursuant to this subsection, if the Trust or any GUC Sub-Trust intends on disclosing, citing, quoting, summarizing, communicating, or otherwise sharing Privileged Materials or Potentially Privileged Materials with anyone other than the Trust and GUC Sub-Trust and their ~~p~~Professionals, it shall give the Debtors at least thirty (30) Business Days' prior notice (unless exigent circumstances do not afford time for such notice, in which case the Trust or GUC Sub-Trust shall provide as much notice as reasonably possible) of ~~the~~ (a) the Privileged Materials or Potentially Privileged Materials to be disclosed, cited, quoted, summarized, communicated, or shared; (b) the intended recipients of such disclosure; and (c) the purpose for such disclosure (collectively, (a)-(c) constitute "Privilege Disclosure Notice"). The Privilege Disclosure Notice shall identify the response deadline consistent with this paragraph. Following receipt of the Privilege Disclosure Notice, the Debtors' consent to disclosure shall not be unreasonably withheld. To the extent the Debtors do not respond within fifteen (15) days of receipt of the Privilege Disclosure Notice, or respond within fifteen (15) days of receipt of the Privilege Disclosure Notice but indicate that they do not consent to the disclosure described in the Privilege Disclosure Notice, then either the Trust, any GUC Sub-Trust, or the Debtors may file a motion to enforce this Agreement or for a protective order in the Bankruptcy Court, and such issue shall be resolved by the Bankruptcy Court before the Privileged Materials or Potentially Privileged Materials are used or disclosed to third parties. In connection with such a motion, the Trust, any GUC Sub-Trust, and/or the Debtors may submit the Privileged Materials or Potentially Privileged Materials referenced in the Privilege Disclosure Notice to the Bankruptcy Court for review in camera in connection with deciding the motion. The foregoing sentence is without prejudice to any Party's right to contest whether in camera review and/or consideration of the at-issue materials by the Bankruptcy Court is appropriate.

g. The Trust and/or the GUC Sub-Trust will maintain Claim Records produced and identified by the Debtors as Privileged Materials and Potentially Privileged Materials in a segregated location and/or document workspace at the cost of the Trust.

h. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this Agreement limits or reduces the Parties' obligations with respect to discovery under applicable law, including any obligation to produce documents responsive to discovery requests served in any action or proceeding litigating the Assigned Claims and/or Assigned Insurance Right and to sufficiently identify documents withheld for privilege and the basis for withholding them.

Section 1.4. To the extent any Claim Records shareable with the Trust ~~is~~are in the physical possession of a third party and not also in the possession of the Debtors (and the Debtors agree ~~it is a~~they are Claim Records ~~and~~ shareable with the Trust), the Debtors shall provide reasonable cooperation and not unreasonably withhold consent to enable the Trust or GUC Sub-Trusts to obtain such Claim Records from the third party for the purposes set forth in Section 1.6 of this Agreement; provided that, to the extent Privileged Materials are shared between or among the Debtors and a third party pursuant to the protections of common interest or similar doctrine, the Debtors will use reasonable efforts to transfer such Claim Records to the Trust or GUC Sub-Trusts in accordance with, and subject to, the other provisions in this Agreement and any applicable protective orders.

Section 1.5. To the extent that any Claim Records are subject to a protective order or other confidentiality restriction, the Debtors shall produce such requested productions to the extent permitted by, and subject to, any applicable protective orders or confidentiality restrictions, and shall undertake reasonable efforts to facilitate such production or to obtain any requisite consent; provided, however, that for purposes of any protective order or confidentiality restriction, the Debtors shall use methods designed to minimize the costs of collection, production, and export of such Claim Records, subject to applicable law.

Section 1.6. Subject to the provisions on Privileged Materials in Section 1.3 above, the Trust or GUC Sub-Trusts shall use any Claim Records that are provided by the Debtors pursuant to this Agreement solely for the purposes of (i) processing, evaluating, defending, resolving, liquidating, and/or paying the General Unsecured Claims (including Tort Claims); (ii) investigating, preserving, prosecuting, and resolving the Assigned Claims or Assigned Insurance Rights; (iii) responding, at the Trust's or GUC Sub-Trust's reasonable discretion and consistent with applicable law and protective orders, to third-party requests for Documents in connection with the reconciliation and administration of the General Unsecured Claims (including Tort Claims); (iv) responding, at the Trust's or GUC Sub-Trust's reasonable discretion, to requests for Documents made by holders of General Unsecured Claims (including Tort Claims) ("Claimants") subject to entry of a qualified protective order ~~(which~~that complies with 45 C.F.R. § 164.512(e)(1)(v) ("Qualified ~~p~~Protective ~~o~~Order ~~the Bankruptcy Court may enter if relevant parties cannot agree on its form~~"); and (v) responding, at the Trust's or GUC Sub-Trust's reasonable discretion and consistent with applicable law, to requests for Documents and/or other discovery arising in any action or proceeding in pursuit of the Assigned Claims or Assigned Insurance Rights. The Parties shall use their best efforts to agree upon the form of a Qualified Protective Order on or before September 12, 2024, after which point any Party may seek relief from the Bankruptcy Court for the entry of a Qualified Protective Order.

Section 1.7. ~~At~~After the Effective Date of the Plan, at the time of the transfer of ~~the~~any Claim Records, the Debtors will provide the Trust with a factually accurate declaration that establishes, to the greatest extent ~~possible~~practicable, the authentication of the Claim Records that were in the Debtors' possession, custody, or control. The Trust or GUC Sub-Trust may make further reasonable requests to the Debtors to authenticate certain Claim Records, which authentications the Debtors will provide in good faith so long as reasonably practicable. Authentication requests are subject to the Trust's cost-reimbursement obligations set forth in this Agreement.

Section 1.8. The Parties each hereby authorize the Official Committee of Tort Claimants and the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors, and their respective agents and Professionals, to provide to the Trust all data and any other information concerning the Assigned Claims, Assigned Insurance Rights or Tort Claims that were provided by the Debtors, directly or indirectly, to the Official Committee of Tort Claimants, the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors, or their respective agents or ~~p~~Professionals on or prior to the Effective Date, notwithstanding any agreement or stipulation entered into prior to the Effective Date to the contrary.

Section 1.9. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Agreement, the Debtors shall not be required to produce or make available for inspection (a) any document or information that the Parties agree is not relevant to a Claim Record, (b) any privileged document or communication that the Parties agree is not relevant to a Claim Record, or (c) any Claim Records that the Debtors are under a legal obligation on account of personal privacy issues of an employee or contractual obligation to refrain from providing to a third party, whether or not privileged; provided, however, that the Trust retains the right to challenge any such determination to maximize the value of the Assigned Claims and/or prosecute the Assigned Insurance Rights~~.~~, and ~~P~~paragraph 254 of the Confirmation Order is incorporated by reference here.

Section 1.10. Except as otherwise provided for herein, ~~N~~nothing in this Agreement shall require any Party or ~~any~~ third party to create any new documents or to compile or organize any data contained in existing Documents into any new documents~~.~~; provided, however, that nothing in this Agreement affects the Debtors', Reorganized Debtors', Trust's, or GUC Sub-Trusts' obligations to create new documents or compile or organize data contained in existing Documents into any new documents with respect to discovery in any action or proceeding litigating the Assigned Claims and/or Assigned Insurance Rights if and to the extent required under applicable law, including any obligation to produce documents responsive to discovery requests served in such proceedings and to sufficiently identify documents withheld for privilege and the basis for withholding them.

COOPERATION ON TESTIMONY AND PERSONNEL

Section 2.1. With respect to the cooperation of current or former employees, directors, officers, agents, or other representatives of the Debtors (collectively the "Debtors' Personnel," as further defined below), the Debtors agree to reasonably cooperate with the Trust and GUC Sub-Trusts on the terms set forth below in connection with, and in anticipation of, the litigation or related prosecution, including, without limitation, arbitration or mediation, of any Assigned Claims or Assigned Insurance Rights and reconciliation and administration of Tort Claims and subject to the cost-reimbursement obligations of the Trust as well as objections and contentions regarding relevance, burden, and ~~p~~Privilege; provided, however, that the obligation to cooperate to maximize the value of the Assigned Claims and prosecute the Assigned Insurance Rights shall be paramount.

a. Until the conclusion of any litigation, arbitration, mediation, or other proceeding on the Assigned Claims or Assigned Insurance Rights or the reconciliation and administration of Tort Claims, including, during and until the exhaustion of any and all related appeals, and upon written request (including via email) by the Trust (or its ~~p~~Professionals) or any GUC Sub-Trust (or its ~~p~~Professionals) made with reasonable advance notice, the Debtors shall use reasonable efforts to provide the Trust, the GUC Sub-Trusts, and their respective ~~p~~Professionals, with reasonable access, on an informal basis, to (i) individuals then currently employed by or affiliated with the Debtors, (ii) former employees, officers, or directors who have continuing obligations to cooperate with the Debtors without the need for the Debtors to serve formal process (e.g., subpoenas) to secure their cooperation, (iii) then current ~~p~~Professionals or advisors of the Debtors, or (iv) former ~~p~~Professionals or advisors of the Debtors who have continuing obligations to cooperate with the Debtors (collectively, (i) through (iv), the "Debtors' Personnel"). For the purposes of this subsection, the Debtors shall appoint a designated person(s) to whom such requests by the Trust and GUC Sub-Trusts shall be made.

b. In the event that the Trust or the GUC Sub-Trusts, in the course of prosecuting the Assigned Claims or Assigned Insurance Rights or reconciling and administering Tort Claims, makes a formal request for testimony in a proceeding (including but not limited to by way of a subpoena, a request for a de bene esse deposition, a request for deposition testimony, or similar process) from (i) the Debtors, and/or (ii) ~~individuals then currently employed by or affiliated with the Debtors, (iii) former employees, officers, or directors who have continuing obligations to cooperate with the Debtors, (iv) then current professionals or advisors of the Debtors, or (v) former professionals or advisors of the Debtors who have continuing obligations to cooperate with the~~ ~~Debtors~~the Debtors' Personnel, the Debtors shall use reasonable efforts to make the requested testifier(s) available to the Trust or GUC Sub-Trusts, including for live testimony at trial.

c. In the event that a named party in any action or proceeding litigating the Assigned Claims or Assigned Insurance Rights, other than the Trust or the GUC Sub-Trusts, serves a discovery request or demand for testimony in such a proceeding (including but not limited to by way of a subpoena, a request for a de bene esse deposition, or other request for deposition testimony, or similar process) from (i) the Debtors, and/or the Debtors' Personnel, the Debtors shall use reasonable efforts to make the requested testifier(s) available to such party, including for live testimony at trial, in the same manner the Trust would be obligated to do so with respect to individuals employed by or affiliated with the Trust, subject to any applicable evidentiary objections.

d. ~~c.~~ The Debtors further agree to reasonably cooperate with requests from the Trust and GUC Sub-Trusts to identify and request cooperation from witnesses or other individuals on topics related to Claim Records; provided, however, that the obligation to cooperate to maximize the value of the Assigned Claims and prosecute the Assigned Insurance Rights shall be paramount.

MISCELLANEOUS

Section 3.0. This Agreement shall expire only for reasons expressly permitted in this Agreement and only upon either (a) the termination of the Trust in accordance with its governing documents or (b) an order of the Bankruptcy Court.

Section 3.1. Preservation of Privileges and Defenses; Inadvertent Production. To the extent the Debtors inadvertently transfer to the Trust or GUC Sub-Trusts any Documents that the Debtors contend are exempted from transfer pursuant to this Agreement because they (i) constitute ~~Privileged~~Protected Materials that are not relevant to the Assigned Claims, Assigned Insurance Rights or Tort Claims, or (ii) are later discovered by the Trust to constitute ~~Privileged~~Protected Materials that are not relevant to the Assigned Claims, Assigned Insurance Rights or Tort Claims (each of (i) and (ii), an "Inadvertently Provided Document"), the Debtors may, in writing (including via email) request the return of any Inadvertently Provided Document. A request for the return of an Inadvertently Provided Document shall identify the specific Document and the basis for clawing back such Document, in whole or in part, from production. Further, with respect to any Inadvertently Provided Document under item (ii) of this paragraph, the Debtors, if appropriate, shall within ten (10) Business Days provide a version of the Document to the Trust or GUC Sub-Trusts that redacts only any privileged information that is unrelated to the Assigned Claims or Assigned Insurance Rights or Tort Claims.

If the Debtors request the return of any Inadvertently Provided Document in the custody of the Trust or GUC Sub-Trusts, then the Trust or GUC Sub-Trusts (as applicable) shall either (a) within ten (10) Business Days (i) return, delete, or destroy the Inadvertently Provided Document and all copies thereof, (ii) undertake reasonable measures to obtain or confirm the deletion or destruction of any copies it produced to other parties, and (iii) delete or destroy all notes or other work product reflecting the content of such Inadvertently Provided Document, or, alternatively, (b) within ten (10) Business Days of receipt of such a request, challenge such request in accordance with this Agreement, but, in the event of a challenge, neither the Trust, GUC Sub-Trusts, nor any other third-party shall be entitled to contend that the provision of the Inadvertently Provided Document pursuant to this Agreement constituted a waiver of any applicable privilege(s), protection(s), or immunity. In the event the Trust or GUC Sub-Trust commences a challenge in connection with the Debtors' request for return of an Inadvertently Provided Document, then the Trust need not take the steps described in subsection (a) of this paragraph until such challenge has been fully resolved, but the Trust or GUC Sub-Trusts may not use or disclose the Inadvertently Provided Document (or work product reflecting the contents of the Inadvertently Provided Document) unless and until the challenge is resolved in the Trust's or GUC Sub-Trust's favor.

Under Rule 502 of the Federal Rules of Evidence, all Privileges respecting any Inadvertently Provided Document are fully preserved.

Section 3.2. Confidentiality

a. The Parties promptly shall ~~enter into~~petition the Bankruptcy Court for a confidentiality agreement and ~~protective order (the "~~Qualified Protective Order~~"), substantially in the form of Exhibit C hereto, that~~ that governs the use and disclosure of IIHI and, without limiting the protections applicable to IIHI, shall provide for the ability to designate Claim Records and other information produced pursuant to this Agreement as "Confidential" or "Highly Confidential." ~~Any p~~Prior nondisclosure agreements, attorneys' eyes' only agreements, or other confidentiality agreements respecting prior productions shall be superseded by the Qualified Protective Order, and the Trust and GUC Sub-Trusts may use Claim Records received under this Agreement pursuant to the terms of the Qualified Protective Order.

b. For the avoidance of doubt, the Trust and GUC Sub-Trusts, and their respective trustees and Professionals, are permitted to receive and review all Claim Records transferred under this Agreement and pursuant to any Qualified Protective Order.

Section 3.3. Costs.

a. The Reorganized Debtors shall be promptly reimbursed by the Trust for reasonable and documented costs and expenses, including: (i) costs associated with allocating time of employees on projects requiring an allocation of employee time in connection with this Agreement; provided, however, that the identification of such projects, and estimation and identification of costs associated with them, shall be agreed upon among the ~~p~~Parties, without costs to the Trust, in advance of the incurrence of any such costs (and such costs shall be incurred only after estimated and known and approved by the Trust); and (ii) fees and expenses of Professionals (at the applicable rates charged by such professionals) incurred in connection with providing their cooperation hereunder; but, for the avoidance of doubt, not including any costs incurred in connection with insurance archival efforts, the costs of which are to be paid by the Debtors. The Debtors shall cooperate with reasonable requests by the Trust to provide good faith estimates of costs and expenses they will incur prior to incurring such costs and expenses. With respect to the time of the Reorganized Debtors' employees on projects requiring an allocation of employee time, the Trust agrees that it shall use reasonable efforts to minimize the use of such employee time in connection with advancing the goal and purpose of the Trust, and the Trust and the Reorganized Debtors shall agree on a mutually acceptable and reasonable process by which the Reorganized Debtors will provide the Trust with estimates of employee time and costs to be incurred in connection with such projects (including both the number of employees and the quantum of expected time and costs per employee) before any employee time is incurred, and employee time will be incurred thereafter only if the Trust has approved of the relevant estimates; provided, that the Reorganized Debtors shall not incur employee time in connection with such projects in the interim pending approval of the Trust. The Reorganized Debtors shall invoice the Trust monthly for such costs and expenses and the Trust shall pay such invoices as follows: (1) the Trust shall (A) identify any objections to an invoice or any portion thereof no later than thirty (30) calendar days following receipt of such invoice and (B) pay the undisputed portions of any invoice no later than thirty (30) calendar days following receipt of such invoice; and (2)~~(A)~~ in the event of a dispute between the parties as to payment of an invoice or any portion thereof (an "Invoice Dispute"), the Parties shall (A) meet and confer in good faith to resolve the dispute within seven (7) calendar days of the Trust identifying such dispute, (B) if a full or partial resolution is reached with respect to an Invoice Dispute following the Parties' meet-and-confer, the Trust shall pay the resolved portion of any invoice within seven (7) calendar days of reaching such resolution, (C) if a full resolution of the Invoice Dispute is not reached, either Party may seek an expedited resolution of any remaining issues before the Bankruptcy Court, and no Party shall object to the moving Party's request for a hearing before the Bankruptcy Court on an expedited basis, and (D) if the Bankruptcy Court determines that the Trust is required to pay any portion of a disputed invoice, the Trust shall pay such amounts within seven (7) calendar days of such determination.

b. The Debtors shall bear the costs ~~associated with retention of documents (i)~~ (i) for providing post-Effective Date only those specific Claim Records requested on Exhibits A and B as to which no email searches are needed, that have not yet been delivered to the Trust and/or its Professionals, and those specific Claim Records are separately agreed upon by the Parties; (ii) associated with the retention of Documents needed to transfer to the Trust the Claim Records identified in Exhibits A and B hereto that are discovered upon a reasonable search ~~to the Trust and/or (ii)~~; and (iii) associated or in connection with Documents and things that the Debtors desire to keep ~~and/~~or would otherwise incur in the ordinary course of business, consistent with historical practices and applicable law. With respect to any Claim Records or other ~~d~~Documents and information not covered by the foregoing sentence, the Trust may, in its discretion, elect to preserve such ~~d~~Documents and information (or retain access, through the Debtors' systems, to such ~~d~~Documents and information), in whole or in part, and subject to the other provisions of this Agreement; provided, that if the Trust so elects, the Trust shall bear the additional document retention costs associated with the preservation of such ~~d~~Documents and information, provided that the Debtors shall use commercially reasonable methods to preserve or retain access to such Documents and information, and, provided further, that the Debtors will advise the Trust prior to seeking to delete, destroy, discard, or abandon any ~~d~~Documents not addressed by the first sentence of this paragraph to the extent they are Claim Records to ensure the Trust has an opportunity to make such an election, and provided further that in no event shall the Debtors delete, destroy, discard, or abandon any Document constituting a Claim Record without first giving the Trust a reasonable opportunity to demand the production of that Document.

c. In any action or proceeding litigating the Assigned Claims or Assigned Insurance Rights, the person(s) responsible for bearing costs associated with responding to discovery, subpoenas or similar requests for information or testimony made by parties other than the Trust or Sub-Trusts to the Reorganized Debtors or any of their respective current or former employees, professionals, directors, managers or members, to the extent such person(s) are obligated to comply with such discovery, subpoenas or similar requests, shall be determined under the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, or similar rules in, and/or by the judge(s) presiding over, such action or proceeding. All Parties' rights regarding the responsibility for costs associated with responding to such third-party discovery, subpoenas or similar requests are reserved.

Section 3.4. Pre-Effective Date Cooperation. After the Confirmation Date and prior to the Effective Date, the Debtors shall reasonably cooperate, except that such cooperation shall be afforded to the Committees and their Professionals in advance of the formation and retention of Professionals by the Trust, as is consistent with, and reasonably necessary to, comply with and satisfy closing conditions.

Section 3.5. A material breach of obligations of the Trust under this Agreement, including a failure by the Trust to promptly reimburse the Reorganized Debtors in accordance with Section 3.3(a), may constitute an event of default and any Party may seek an order from the Bankruptcy Court, on an expedited basis, (i) for a determination as to whether a material breach and/or an event of default has occurred, ~~or~~ (ii) if the Bankruptcy Court determines a material breach and/or event of default has occurred, providing the remedy for such material breach and/or event of default (including with respect to any cure periods, if any—except insofar as such cure period is set forth in 3.3(a)(D)) (any such order of the Bankruptcy Court described in this subclause (i) and (ii), a "Bankruptcy Court Breach Order"), and/or (iii) terminating or permitting a cessation of performance under this Agreement as a result of an event of default following the expiration of any cure periods, if applicable. At any time ~~(x)~~ following ~~any determination by the~~ —but at no time prior to—the entry of a Bankruptcy Court Breach Order finding that ~~such~~ a breach and/or an event of default by the Trust has, in fact, occurred ~~or (y) after which the Trust has failed to promptly reimburse the Reorganized Debtors in accordance with Section 3.3(a) (other than with respect to an unresolved Invoice Dispute)~~under this Agreement, and the expiration of any cure periods set forth in Section 3.3(a)(D) or the Bankruptcy Court Breach Order, the Reorganized Debtors may cease performance under this Agreement~~; provided, however, that~~ if and as permitted by the Bankruptcy Court Breach Order, provided that the Debtors provide the Trust with two business days' notice of the exercise of this right in connection with an undisputed, unpaid invoice. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Reorganized Debtors ~~shall not~~may cease performance under this Agreement ~~during: (a) the pendency of any dispute between the parties as to whether a material breach and/or an event of default has occurred (other than~~immediately following the Trust's failure to timely pay (1) any undisputed portion~~s~~ of an invoice~~); (b) the sixty (60) day period following any determination by the Bankruptcy Court that such a breach and/or default has, in fact, occurred, during which time the Trust may cure the material breach and/or default (provided, that this subclause (b) shall not apply with respect to any determinations made by the Bankruptcy Court in connection with an Invoice Dispute); and (c) the pendency of an Invoice Dispute until such Invoice Dispute is~~ or (2) any disputed portion of an invoice that becomes resolved among the Parties or pursuant to a decision of the Bankruptcy Court~~. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Section 3.5, other than with respect to an Invoice Dispute, the Reorganized Debtors shall not be obligated to perform under this Agreement during the pendency of any dispute or cure period if such performance would require the Reorganized Debtors to incur any out-of-pocket costs.~~, in each case, within the time periods set forth in Section 3.3(a) and without the need to obtain a Bankruptcy Court Breach Order. The Reorganized Debtors shall resume performance upon the Trust paying the undisputed portion of the invoice (as to subparagraph (1)) or the resolved portion of the invoice (as to subparagraph (2)) or, subject to the terms of any Bankruptcy Court Breach Order, any amount determined in any Bankruptcy Court Breach Order (as described in romanette (iii) above). Except as set forth herein, all Parties' rights are reserved with respect to the pursuit of or defense against any Bankruptcy Court Breach Order.

Section 3.6. Solely to the extent any prepetition contractual or other obligations of the Debtors under the Insurance Policies are not being specifically undertaken by the Trust or GUC Sub-Trusts in connection with the Plan, and except as otherwise provided in the Plan, the Debtors shall have an obligation to continue such prepetition contractual or other obligations under such applicable Insurance Policies; provided, however, that nothing herein shall obligate the Debtors to take any action(s) with respect to the Unassigned Insurance Policies.

Section 3.7. The Parties agree to cooperate reasonably and share information as necessary and appropriate to facilitate insurance billing by any of the Parties hereto, and/or the resolution of any insurance-related dispute, subject to appropriate protections for confidential information.

Section 3.8. Notices. All notices, requests, or other communications required or permitted to be made in accordance with this Agreement shall be in writing and shall be effective when served by electronic mail ~~at their respective addresses set forth below, or to such other address(es) as any Party may later specify by written notice to the other Parties:~~. The Trust and the Reorganized Debtors shall exchange notice blocks within 30 days of the Effective Date of the Plan.

~~[NTD: Parties to add contact information.]~~

Section 3.9. Effectiveness. This Agreement shall become effective upon the Effective Date of the Plan, except as noted in Section 3.4. Without limiting the foregoing, to the extent Claim Records are transferred prior to the Effective Date of the Plan pursuant to Section 1.1 of this Agreement, this Agreement also shall apply and be deemed effective in connection with such transfers.

Section 3.10. Dispute Resolution. In the event of a dispute concerning this Agreement (a "Dispute"), such Dispute shall be fully and finally resolved by the Bankruptcy Court. The Parties agree to identify a time and cost-efficient process to raise disputes with the Bankruptcy Court, including but not limited to the writing of short letters outlining the Parties' respective positions, subject to such court's procedures and consent, provided that the Parties agree to keep at least one chapter 11 case open until the termination of the Trust in accordance with its governing documents.

Section 3.11. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to be an original but all of which shall constitute one and the same agreement.

Section 3.12. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York, without regard to any conflict of law principles that would result in the application of laws of any other jurisdiction.

Section 3.13. Severability; Validity. Whenever possible, each provision of this Agreement shall be interpreted in such manner as to be effective and valid under applicable law, but to the extent that any provision of this Agreement or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Agreement, and the application of such provision to other persons or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby, unless doing so would alter the fundamental agreements expressed in this Agreement, and to such end, the provisions of this Agreement are agreed to be severable.

Section 3.14. No Partnership Agreement. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall create or be deemed to create an employment, agency, fiduciary, joint venture, or partnership relationship between any of the Parties, on the one hand, or any of such other Parties' employees, on the other hand.

Section 3.15. No Waiver. The Parties agree that no failure or delay by any Party in exercising any right, power, or privilege hereunder will operate as a waiver thereof, and that no single or partial exercise thereof will preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any right, power, and privilege hereunder.

Section 3.16. Entire Agreement. This Agreement, together with the Plan and any Qualified Protective Order, contains the entire agreement of the Parties concerning the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior representations and agreements between or among the Parties as to such subject matter. For the avoidance of doubt, the Parties acknowledge and agree that paragraph 254 of the Confirmation Order remains in full force and effect, including as relevant to this Agreement. No modification of this Agreement or waiver of the terms and conditions hereof will be binding upon the Parties unless approved in writing by the Parties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Agreement (a) limits or otherwise waives the rights of the Trust or GUC Sub-Trusts to seek discovery from the Debtors pursuant to applicable law or (b) limits or otherwise waives the rights of the Debtors to object to any such discovery.

Section 3.17. Authorization. Each of the undersigned individuals represents and warrants that they have the power and authority to enter into this Agreement and bind their respective companies or trusts as authorized representatives.

Section 3.18. Titles. The section titles used herein are for convenience only and shall not be considered in construing or interpreting any of the provisions of this Agreement.

Section 3.19. Binding Effect. The Parties agree that this Agreement is for the benefit of and shall be binding upon the Parties and their respective representatives, transferees, successors, and assigns.

Section 3.20. IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Parties hereto have executed this Agreement or caused this Agreement to be duly executed by their respective representatives thereunto duly authorized as of the Effective Date of the Plan.

2.3 Reporting.

(a) The Administrative Trustee shall timely prepare, file, and distribute such statements, reports and submissions to the extent required by applicable law.

(b) The Administrative Trustee shall appoint a registrar, which may be the Administrative Trustee (the "Registrar"), for the purpose of recording ownership of the AHG Notes and SCD Trust Interests as herein provided. For its services hereunder, the Registrar, unless it is the Administrative Trustee, shall be entitled to receive reasonable compensation from the SCD Trust as a cost of administering the SCD Trust.

(c) The Administrative Trustee may, from time to time, create such accounts and reasonable reserves within the Trust Accounts as authorized in this Section 3.1 and as it may deem necessary, prudent or useful in order to provide for distributions to the SCD Trust Beneficiaries and may, with respect to any such account or reserve, restrict the use of money therein for a specified purpose (the "Trust Subaccounts"). Any such Trust Subaccounts established by the Administrative Trustee shall be held as Trust Assets and are not intended to be subject to separate entity tax treatment as a "disputed claims reserve" or a "disputed ownership fund" within the meaning of the IRC or Treasury Regulations.

3.2 Payment of Operating Expenses. Unless otherwise paid pursuant to a Fee Letter (as defined in Section 4.3(a)), all operating expenses of the SCD Trust may be paid from the Trust Assets as determined by the Administrative Trustee in its discretion (provided that no interest shall be owed or payable on any expenses not timely paid). 3.3 Distributions.

(a) The Administrative Trustee will make distributions to SCD Trust Beneficiaries in accordance with the Governing Documents, which distributions shall be made pro rata to SCD Trust Beneficiaries in respect of each SCD Trust Beneficiary's holdings of the AHG Notes; provided, that if the AHG Notes have been repaid in full prior to such distribution, such distribution shall be made pro rata in respect of each SCD Trust Beneficiary's holdings of the AHG Notes immediately prior to such repayment. The Administrative Trustee shall be permitted to conclusively rely on the Trust Register for the purpose of making such distributions.

Undeliverable SCD Trust distributions shall remain in the possession of the Administrative Trustee until the earlier of (i) such time as a SCD Trust distribution becomes deliverable or (ii) upon the dissolution of the SCD Trust, when such undeliverable SCD Trust distribution may be distributed to other SCD Trust Beneficiaries to repay outstanding AHG Notes (if any) or otherwise as set forth in this Trust Agreement. sentence, the check shall revert to the Administrative Trustee and such SCD Trust distribution shall be deemed to be reduced to zero.

(f) All distributions to Holders (as defined in the AHG Notes Purchase Agreement) of AHG Notes shall be made in Cash.

(g) Starting on the Effective Date, the Administrative Trustee shall make SCD Trust distributions to the SCD Trust Beneficiaries not less frequently than once annually and otherwise in accordance with the AHG Notes Purchase Agreement, unless the Administrative Trustee determines, in the Trustee's reasonable discretion, that making such a distribution is impracticable in light of the anticipated Cash needs of the SCD Trust going forward, or that, in light of the Cash available for distribution, making a distribution would not warrant the incurrence of costs in making the distribution or funds are otherwise not available to distribute; provided, however, that the Trustee's discretion may not be exercised in a manner inconsistent with any express requirements of the Plan.

(h) On the Dissolution Date (defined below), the Administrative Trustee shall distribute the remaining Trust Assets (if any) to the Beneficial Owners after satisfaction of all other obligations of the SCD Trust, including the repayment in full of the AHG Notes and all other expenses or liabilities described in this Section 3.3.

their willful misconduct, bad faith, gross negligence or fraud. Any valid indemnification claim of any of the Trust Indemnified Parties shall be satisfied solely from the Trust Assets.

(c) To the extent that, at law or in equity, the Trust Indemnified Parties have duties (including fiduciary duties) or liability related thereto, to the SCD Trust or the SCD Trust Beneficiaries, it is hereby understood and agreed by the Trustees and the SCD Trust Beneficiaries that such duties and liabilities are eliminated to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, and replaced by the duties and liabilities expressly set forth in this Trust Agreement with respect to the Trust Indemnified Parties; provided, however, that with respect to the Trust Indemnified Parties other than the Delaware Trustee the duties of care and loyalty are not eliminated but are limited and subject to the terms of this Trust Agreement, including but not limited to this Section 4.4 and its subparts.

(b) Reasonable and documented out-of-pocket expenses, costs and fees (including attorneys' fees and costs) incurred by or on behalf of the Trust Indemnified Parties in connection with any action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, administrative or arbitrative, from which they are indemnified by the SCD Trust shall be paid by the SCD Trust in advance of the final disposition thereof upon receipt of an undertaking, by or on behalf of the Trust Indemnified Parties, to repay such amount in the event that it shall be determined ultimately by Final Order that the Trust Indemnified Parties or any other potential indemnitee are not entitled to be indemnified by the SCD Trust.

(c) The Administrative Trustee shall purchase and maintain appropriate amounts and types of insurance on behalf of the Trust Indemnified Parties, as determined by the Trustee, which may include insurance with respect to liability asserted against or incurred by such individual in that capacity or arising from its status as a Trust Indemnified Party, and/or as an employee, agent, lawyer, advisor or consultant of any such person.

(d) The indemnification provisions of this Trust Agreement with respect to any Trust Indemnified Party shall survive the termination of such Trust Indemnified Party from the capacity for which such Trust Indemnified Party is indemnified. Termination or modification of this Trust Agreement shall not affect any indemnification rights or obligations in existence at such time. In making a determination with respect to entitlement to indemnification of any Trust Indemnified Party hereunder, the person, persons or entity making such determination shall presume that such Trust Indemnified Party is entitled to indemnification under this Trust Agreement, and any person seeking to overcome such presumption shall have the burden of proof to overcome the presumption.

(e) The rights to indemnification hereunder are not exclusive of other rights which any Trust Indemnified Party may otherwise have at law or in equity, including common law rights to indemnification or contribution.

4.7 Trustee Independence. The Administrative Trustee shall not, during the term of its service, hold a financial interest in, act as attorney or agent for, or serve as an officer or as any other professional for the Reorganized Debtors. The Administrative Trustee shall not act as an attorney, agent, or other professional for any SCD Trust Beneficiary. For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 4.7 shall not be applicable to the Delaware Trustee.

4.8 No Bond. Neither the Administrative Trustee nor the Delaware Trustee shall be required to post any bond or other form of surety or security unless otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court or any other court of competent jurisdiction.

4.9 Delaware Trustee.

(a) There shall at all times be a Delaware Trustee. The Delaware Trustee shall either be (i) a natural person who is at least twenty-one (21) years of age and a resident of the State of Delaware or (ii) a legal entity that has its principal place of business in the State of Delaware, otherwise meets the requirements of applicable Delaware law to be eligible to serve as the Delaware Trustee, and shall act through one or more persons authorized to bind such entity. The initial Delaware Trustee shall be U.S. Bank Trust National Association. If at any time the Delaware Trustee shall cease to be eligible in accordance with the provisions of this Section 4.9, it shall resign immediately in the manner and with the effect hereinafter specified in Section 4.9(c) below. For the avoidance of doubt, the Delaware Trustee will only have such rights, duties and obligations as expressly provided by reference to the Delaware Trustee hereunder. The Administrative Trustee shall have no liability for the acts or omissions of any Delaware Trustee.

(b) The Delaware Trustee shall not be entitled to exercise any powers, nor shall the Delaware Trustee have any of the duties and responsibilities of the Administrative Trustee set forth herein. The Delaware Trustee shall be a trustee of the SCD Trust for the sole and limited purpose of fulfilling the requirements of the Act and for taking such actions as are required to be taken by a Delaware Trustee under the Act. The duties (including fiduciary duties), liabilities and obligations of the Delaware Trustee shall be limited to accepting legal process served on the SCD

Trust in the State of Delaware and the execution of any certificates required to be filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware that the Delaware Trustee is required to execute under Section 3811 of the Act. There shall be no other duties (including fiduciary duties) or obligations, express or implied, at law or in equity, of the Delaware Trustee. To the extent that, at law or in equity, the Delaware Trustee has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating to the SCD Trust or the SCD Trust Beneficiaries, such duties and liabilities are replaced by the duties and liabilities of the Delaware Trustee expressly set forth in this Trust Agreement. The Delaware Trustee shall have no liability for the acts or omissions of any Administrative Trustee. Any permissive rights of the Delaware Trustee to do things enumerated in this Trust Agreement shall not be construed as a duty and, with respect to any such permissive rights, the Delaware Trustee shall not be answerable for other than its willful misconduct, bad faith, gross negligence or fraud. The Delaware Trustee shall be under no obligation to exercise any of the rights or powers vested in it by this Trust Agreement at the request or direction of the Administrative Trustee or any other person pursuant to the provisions of this Trust Agreement unless the Administrative Trustee or such other person shall have offered to the Delaware Trustee security or indemnity (satisfactory to the Delaware Trustee in its discretion) against the costs, expenses and liabilities that may be incurred by it in compliance with such request or direction. The Delaware Trustee shall be entitled to request and receive written instructions from the Administrative Trustee and shall have no responsibility or liability for any losses or damages of any nature that may arise from any action taken or not taken by the Delaware Trustee in accordance with the written direction of the Administrative Trustee. The Delaware Trustee may, at the expense of the SCD Trust, request, rely on and act in accordance with officer’s certificates and/or opinions of counsel, and shall incur no liability and shall be fully protected in acting or refraining from acting in accordance with such officer's certificates and opinions of counsel, other than its willful misconduct, bad faith, gross negligence or fraud.

(c) The Delaware Trustee shall serve until such time as the Administrative Trustee or Required Holders removes the Delaware Trustee or the Delaware Trustee resigns and a successor Delaware Trustee is appointed by the Administrative Trustee in accordance with the terms of Section 4.9(d) below. The Delaware Trustee may resign at any time upon the giving of at least sixty (60) days' advance written notice to the Trustee; provided that such resignation shall not become effective unless and until a successor Delaware Trustee shall have been appointed by the Administrative Trustee in accordance with Section 4.9(d) below; provided, further that if any amounts due and owing to the Delaware Trustee hereunder remain unpaid for more than ninety (90) days, the Delaware Trustee shall be entitled to resign immediately by giving written notice to the Trustee. If the Administrative Trustee does not act within such sixty (60) day period, the Delaware Trustee, at the expense of the SCD Trust, may apply to the Bankruptcy Court, the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware or any other court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Delaware Trustee.

(d) Upon the resignation or removal of the Delaware Trustee, the Administrative Trustee or Required Holders shall appoint a successor Delaware Trustee by delivering a written instrument to the successor Delaware Trustee and the Administrative Trustee or Required Holders, as applicable. Any successor Delaware Trustee must satisfy the requirements of Section 3807 of the Act. Any resignation or removal of the Delaware Trustee and appointment of a successor Delaware Trustee shall not become effective until a written acceptance of appointment is delivered by the successor Delaware Trustee to the outgoing Delaware Trustee and the Trustee, and any fees and expenses due to the outgoing Delaware Trustee are paid. Following compliance with the preceding sentence, the successor Delaware Trustee shall become fully vested with all of the rights, powers, duties and obligations of the outgoing Delaware Trustee under this Trust Agreement, with like effect as if originally named as Delaware Trustee, and the outgoing Delaware Trustee shall be discharged of its duties and obligations under this Trust Agreement. The successor Delaware Trustee shall make any related filings required under the Act, including filing a Certificate of Amendment to the Certificate of Trust of the SCD Trust in accordance with Section 3810 of the Act.

(e) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, any business entity into which the Delaware Trustee may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated or any entity resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Delaware Trustee shall be a party, or any entity succeeding to all or substantially all of the corporate trust business of the Delaware Trustee, shall be the successor of the Delaware Trustee hereunder, without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto.

(f) The Delaware Trustee shall be compensated for its service as the Delaware Trustee as set forth in the Fee Letter, or as otherwise agreed between the Delaware Trustee and the Required Holders.

(g) The SCD Trust will promptly reimburse the Delaware Trustee for all reasonable, documented, and necessary out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred by the Delaware Trustee in connection with the performance of its duties hereunder, including professional fees incurred by the Delaware Trustee.

(h) The Delaware Trustee shall neither be responsible for, nor chargeable with, knowledge of the terms and conditions of any other agreement, instrument, or document, other than this Trust Agreement, whether or not, an original or a copy of such agreement has been provided to the Delaware Trustee. The Delaware Trustee shall have no duty to know or inquire as to the performance or nonperformance of any provision of any other agreement, instrument or document, other than this Trust Agreement. Neither the Delaware Trustee nor any of its directors, officers, employees, agents or affiliates shall be responsible for nor have any duty to monitor the performance or any action of the SCD Trust, the Administrative Trustee or any other person, or any of their directors, members, officers, agents, affiliates or employee, nor shall it have any liability in connection with the malfeasance or nonfeasance by such party. The Delaware Trustee may assume performance by all such persons of their respective obligations. The Delaware Trustee shall have no enforcement or notification obligations relating to breaches of representations or warranties of any other person. The Delaware Trustee shall have no responsibilities (except as expressly set forth herein) as to the validity, sufficiency, value, genuineness, ownership or transferability of any Trust Asset, written instructions, or any other documents in connection therewith, and will not be regarded as making, nor be required to make, any representations thereto.

(i) The Delaware Trustee shall not be responsible or liable for any failure or delay in the performance of its obligations under this Trust Agreement arising out of, or caused, directly or indirectly, by circumstances beyond its control, including without limitation: any act or provision of any present or future law or regulation or governmental authority; acts of God; earthquakes; fires; floods; wars; terrorism; civil or military disturbances; sabotage; epidemics; riots; interruptions, loss or malfunctions of utilities, computer (hardware or software) or communications service; accidents; labor disputes; acts of civil or military authority or governmental actions; or the unavailability of the Federal Reserve Bank wire or telex or other wire or communication facility.

TAX MATTERS

5.1 Treatment of SCD Trust Assets Transfer. For all United States federal income tax purposes, all parties (including, without limitation, the Debtors, Reorganized Debtors, the SCD Trust Beneficiaries, and the Beneficial Owners) shall treat the transfer of the SCD Trust Assets for the benefit of the SCD Trust Beneficiaries (i) as a transfer of the SCD Trust Assets by Rite Aid Corporation directly to the SCD Trust Beneficiaries in exchange for the AHG New Money plus the settlement of the SCD Trust Beneficiaries' Claims in respect of the AHG Notes Ticking Fee and the AHG New-Money Commitment Premium, followed by (ii) the transfer by such SCD Trust Beneficiaries of such SCD Trust Assets to the SCD Trust in exchange for the AHG Notes in the principal amount of the AHG New Money plus the AHG Notes Ticking Fee plus the AHG New-Money Commitment Premium. Accordingly, the SCD Trust Beneficiaries shall be treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes (and, to the extent permitted, for state and local income tax purposes) as the grantors and owners of their respective share of the SCD Trust Assets. The SCD Trust shall indemnify, defend and hold the Administrative Trustee harmless from and against any tax, penalty or interest that may be assessed against the Administrative Trustee on or with respect to the assets of the SCD Trust and the investment thereof except for any such tax, penalty or interest found by Final Order to be arising out of the willful misconduct, bad faith, gross negligence or fraud of the Administrative Trustee.

5.2 Income Tax Status.

(a) For United States federal income tax purposes (and for purposes of all state, local and other jurisdictions to the extent applicable), this SCD Trust shall be treated as a liquidating trust pursuant to Section 301.7701-4(d) of the Treasury Regulations that is taxable as a grantor trust pursuant to Sections 671-677 of the IRC. To the extent consistent with Revenue Procedure 94-45 and not otherwise inconsistent with this Trust Agreement, this Trust Agreement shall be construed so as to satisfy the requirements for liquidating trust status.

(b) The SCD Trust shall at all times to be administered so as to constitute a domestic trust for United States federal income tax purposes.

5.3 Tax Returns.

(a) The "taxable year" of the SCD Trust shall be the "calendar year" as such terms are defined in section 441 of the IRC, unless the Administrative Trustee determines in good faith to use a different tax year in the interests of all beneficiaries to the extent permitted under the IRC and the Treasury Regulations thereunder. In accordance with Section 6012 of the IRC and Section 1.671-4(a) of the Treasury Regulations, the Administrative Trustee shall file with the IRS annual tax returns for the SCD Trust on Form 1041 as a grantor trust. In addition, the Administrative Trustee shall file, for the SCD Trust, in a timely manner such other tax returns, including any state and local tax returns, as are required by applicable law and pay any taxes shown as due thereon. The SCD Trust's items of taxable income, gain, loss, deduction, and/or credit will be allocated to the SCD Trust Beneficiaries in accordance with their relative ownership of AHG Notes. Within a reasonable time following the end of the taxable year, the SCD Trust shall send to each SCD Trust Beneficiary a separate statement setting forth such SCD Trust Beneficiary's items of income, gain, loss, deduction or credit and will instruct each such SCD Trust Beneficiary to report such items on his/her applicable income tax return.

(b) The SCD Trust shall be responsible for the payment of, and shall be permitted to pay, out of the Trust Assets, any taxes imposed on the SCD Trust or the Trust Assets.

5.4 Withholding of Taxes and Reporting Related to SCD Trust Operations. The SCD Trust shall comply with all withholding and reporting requirements imposed by any federal, state, local or foreign taxing authority, and all distributions made by the SCD Trust shall be subject to any such withholding and reporting requirements. The Administrative Trustee shall be authorized to take any and all actions that may be necessary or appropriate to comply with any such withholding, payment, and reporting requirements. All amounts properly withheld from distributions to a SCD Trust Beneficiary as required by applicable law and paid over to the applicable taxing authority for the account of such SCD Trust Beneficiary shall be treated as part of the SCD Trust distribution to such SCD Trust Beneficiary. To the extent that the operation of the SCD Trust or the liquidation of the Trust Assets creates a tax liability imposed on the SCD Trust, the SCD Trust shall timely pay such tax liability and any such payment shall be considered a cost and expense of the operation of the SCD Trust payable without Bankruptcy Court order. Any federal, state or local withholding taxes or other amounts required to be withheld under applicable law shall be deducted from distributions hereunder. All SCD Trust Beneficiaries shall be required to provide any information necessary to effect the withholding of such taxes. The Administrative Trustee may require each SCD Trust Beneficiary to furnish to the SCD Trust (or its designee) its social security number or employer or taxpayer identification number as assigned by the IRS and complete any related documentation (including but not limited to a Form W-8BEN, Form W-8BENE-E, or Form W-9, as applicable) (the "Tax Documents"). The Administrative Trustee may condition any and all distributions to any SCD Trust Beneficiary upon the timely receipt of properly executed Tax Documents and receipt of such other documents as the Administrative Trustee reasonably requests, and in accordance with the Plan.

5.5 Valuation. As soon as possible after the transfer of the SCD Trust Assets to the SCD Trust, the Administrative Trustee (acting upon the advice of the Required Holders) shall make a good faith valuation of the Trust Assets. Such valuation shall be made available from time to time, to the extent relevant for tax reporting purposes, and used consistently by all Trustees and the SCD Trust Beneficiaries and Beneficial Owners for all U.S. federal income tax purposes. The SCD Trust also shall file (or cause to be filed) any other statements, returns or disclosures relating to the SCD Trust that are required by any governmental unit.

5.6 Expedited Determination of Taxes. The Administrative Trustee may request an expedited determination of taxes of the SCD Trust, under Section 505 of the Bankruptcy Code for all returns filed for, or on behalf of, the SCD Trust for all taxable periods through the termination of the SCD Trust.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

6.1 Irrevocability. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the SCD Trust is irrevocable.

6.2 Term; Termination.

(a) The term for which the SCD Trust is to exist shall commence on the date of the filing of the Certificate of Trust and shall terminate pursuant to the provisions of this Section 6.2.

(b) The SCD Trust shall be dissolved at such time as all distributions of Cash and other Trust Assets required to be made by the Administrative Trustee under the Plan and this Trust Agreement have been made in accordance with provisions of the Plan and this Trust Agreement; provided, however, that in no event shall the SCD Trust be dissolved later than five (5) years from the Effective Date unless the Bankruptcy Court, upon motion made by a party in interest within the six (6) month period prior to such fifth (5th) anniversary (or within the six-month period prior to the end of any extension period), determines that a fixed period extension (not to exceed three (3) years, together with any prior extensions, without a favorable letter ruling from the IRS or an opinion of counsel satisfactory to the Administrative Trustee that any further extension would not adversely affect the status of the SCD Trust as a liquidating trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes) is necessary to facilitate or complete the recovery on and liquidation of the Trust Assets (the "Dissolution Date").

(c) On the Dissolution Date or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, after the wind-up of the affairs of the SCD Trust by the Administrative Trustee and payment of all of the liabilities have been provided for as required by applicable law including Section 3808 of the Act, all monies remaining in the SCD Trust shall be distributed or disbursed in accordance with Section 3.3 above.

(d) Following the dissolution and distribution of the assets of the SCD Trust, the Administrative Trustee shall execute and cause a Certificate of Cancellation of the Certificate of Trust of the SCD Trust to be filed in accordance with the Act and the SCD Trust shall terminate, and the Administrative Trustee and Delaware Trustee shall be discharged of their duties hereunder. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Trust Agreement, the existence of the SCD Trust as a separate legal entity shall continue until the filing of such Certificate of Cancellation. A certified copy of the Certificate of Cancellation shall be given to the Delaware Trustee for its records promptly following such filing.

6.3 Amendments. This Trust Agreement may be amended from time to time through the written agreement of the Administrative Trustee and the Required Holders (or, if the AHG Notes have been repaid in full in cash, the Majority Beneficial Owners). Notwithstanding the foregoing, no amendment or modification of this Trust Agreement or any Exhibit hereto shall (a)(i) modify this Trust Agreement in a manner that is inconsistent with the Plan or the Confirmation Order, (ii) modify this Trust Agreement in any way that could jeopardize, impair, or modify the SCD Trust's status for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a "liquidating trust" that is taxable as a grantor trust or (iii) amend Section 3.3(a) of the Trust Agreement, in each case without the consent of each Holder (or, if the AHG Notes have been repaid in full in cash, each Beneficial Owner), (b) materially and disproportionately affect any Holder or Beneficial Owner without the consent of such Holder or Beneficial Owner, (c) affect the rights, duties, immunities or liabilities of the Delaware Trustee without the Delaware Trustee's written consent, or (d) be inconsistent with the purpose and intention of the SCD Trust to liquidate the Trust Assets in an expeditious but orderly manner.

6.4 Severability. Should any provision in this Trust Agreement be determined to be unenforceable, such determination shall in no way limit or affect the enforceability and operative effect of any and all other provisions of this Trust Agreement.

6.5 Notices.

(a) Notices to SCD Trust Beneficiaries shall be given in accordance with such person's information form submitted to the SCD Trust.

(b) Any notices or other communications required or permitted hereunder to the following Trustees shall be in writing and delivered to the addresses or e-mail addresses

6.6 Successors and Assigns. The provisions of this Trust Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the SCD Trust, the Trustee, and their respective successors and assigns, except that neither the SCD Trust, nor the Trustee, may assign or otherwise transfer any of their rights or obligations, if any, under this Trust Agreement except in the case of the Administrative Trustee in accordance with Section 4.2(e) above.

6.7 Limitation on SCD Trust Interest for Securities Laws Purposes.

(a) The SCD Trust Interests: (i) shall not be assigned, conveyed, hypothecated, pledged, or otherwise transferred, voluntarily or involuntarily, directly or indirectly (collectively, a "Transfer"), except in accordance with Section 6.7(b) of this Agreement; (ii) shall not be evidenced by a certificate or other instrument; (iii) shall not possess any voting rights except as otherwise provided by this Agreement; (iv) shall not be entitled to receive any dividends or interest; and (v) may only be Transferred with a corresponding Transfer of AHG Notes held by such Beneficial Owner.

(b) Unless waived in whole or in part by the SCD Trust (other than in the case of subclause (i)(F) below, which shall not be waived), and with respect to clause (iv) below, unless waived in whole or in part by the Administrative Trustee, no Transfer of all or any portion of the SCD Trust Interests of a Beneficial Owner may be made unless the following conditions are met:

(i) the transaction (A) complies with U.S. federal and any applicable state securities laws, (B) complies with all other applicable U.S. federal, state or non-U.S. laws, (C) shall not subject the SCD Trust to the registration or reporting requirements of the 1940 Act, (D) shall not subject the SCD Trust or any shareholder or any affiliate of any of them to additional burdensome regulatory requirements, (E) shall not cause the SCD Trust to wind up or dissolve under this Agreement, and (F) shall not cause all or any portion of the assets of the SCD Trust to constitute "plan assets" under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder from time to time in effect ("ERISA") or the IRC or any state laws, regulations and administrative policies that are similar in purpose and intent to ERISA;

(ii) the transferee (and if it is a disregarded entity for U.S. federal income tax purposes, its regarded owner) has delivered an IRS Form W-9 (or successor form) or applicable IRS Form W-8 (or successor form) and any attachments to the Administrative Trustee on or about the date on which it acquired its SCD Trust Interests;

(iii) pursuant to such Transfer the transferee agrees to assume any and all obligations applicable to the transferor under this Agreement; provided that the SCD Trust, in its sole discretion, may waive the assumption of any obligations owing to the SCD Trust with respect to any transferee;

(iv) the Administrative Trustee shall have received an administrative questionnaire, any required tax forms, and all documentation and other information reasonably required under applicable "know your customer" and anti-money laundering rules and regulations from the transferor;

(v) the Administrative Trustee shall have received an officer's certificate, an Assignment and Assumption, a processing and recordation fee of $1,000 (provided that (i) such processing and recordation fee shall be waived if the transferee is a Related Fund[3] and (ii) in any case, the Administrative Trustee, in its sole discretion, may elect to waive such processing and recordation fee) and representations and warranties from the transferee and transferor as to the matters set forth in subclauses (i)(A) through (F) above; and

(vi) the Transfer does not create, either alone or with other Transfers, a substantial risk (as determined in good faith by the Administrative Trustee) that then the SCD Trust would be classified as a publicly traded partnership or otherwise as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

(c) If any Person that is not a Qualified Purchaser (as defined in the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended) at the time of acquisition shall become the owner SCD Trust Interests (any such Person, a "Non-Permitted Holder"), the SCD Trust may, promptly after discovery that such Person is a Non-Permitted Holder, send notice to such Non-Permitted Holder demanding that such Non-Permitted Holder transfer its interest to a Person that is not a Non-Permitted Holder within thirty (30) days of the date of such notice. If such Non-Permitted Holder fails to so transfer its SCD Trust Interests, the SCD Trust shall have the right, without further notice to the Non-Permitted Holder, to sell such SCD Trust Interests to a purchaser selected by the SCD Trust or the Required Holders that is not a Non-Permitted Holder, on such terms as the SCD Trust or the Required Holders may choose. The proceeds of any such sale, net of any commissions,

[3] "Related Fund" means, with respect to a Beneficial Owner, any Affiliates (including at the institutional level) of such Beneficial Owner or any fund, account (including any separately managed accounts) or investment vehicle that is controlled, managed, advised, or sub-advised by such Beneficial Owner, an Affiliate of such Beneficial Owner, or by the same investment manager, advisor or subadvisor as such Beneficial Owner or an Affiliate of such Beneficial Owner.

"Affiliate" means, with respect to any Person (as defined in section 101(41) of the Bankruptcy Code), any other Person directly or indirectly controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, such Person as of the date on which, or at any time during the period for which, the determination of affiliation is being made (including any Related Funds of such Person). For purposes of this definition, the term "control" (including the correlative meanings of the terms "controlled by" and "under common control with"), as used with respect to any Person, means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management policies of such Person, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by contract or otherwise.

expenses and taxes due in connection with such sale, shall be remitted to the Non-Permitted Holder.

(d) Any attempted assignment or transfer made in violation of this Section 6.7 shall be null and void.

(e) For the avoidance of doubt, neither the consent of the SCD Trust nor the Administrative Trustee shall be required in connection with any assignment or transfer made pursuant to this Section 6.7.

(f) The Administrative Trustee shall have not have any obligation or duty to monitor, determine or inquire as to compliance with any restrictions on transfer imposed under this Agreement or under applicable law with respect to any transfer of any interest in any SCD Trust Interests other than to require delivery of such certificates and other documentation or evidence as are expressly required by, and to do so if and when expressly required by the terms of, this Agreement, and to examine the same to determine substantial compliance as to form with the express requirements hereof; provided, that if the Required Holders direct the Administrative Trustee to declare a Transfer null and void for failure to comply with this Section 6.7, the Administrative Trustee shall strike such Transfer from the Trust Register. The Administrative Trustee shall not act as, or be deemed to act as, transfer agent or registrar under Article 8 of the UCC or Section 17A(c) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

6.8 Exemption from Registration.

The Trustees and the SCD Trust Beneficiaries intend that the SCD Trust Interest shall not be "securities" under applicable laws, but none of the Trustees and the SCD Trust Beneficiaries represent or warrant that the SCD Trust Interest shall not be securities or shall be entitled to exemption from registration under applicable securities laws. If it should be determined that SCD Trust Interest constitute "securities," the Trustees and the SCD Trust Beneficiaries intend that the distribution under the Plan of the SCD Trust Interest will be exempt from registration under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act") and applicable state and local securities laws pursuant to section 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act and/or the regulations promulgated thereunder (including Regulation D), Regulation S under the Securities Act and/or another available exemption from registration under section 5 of the Securities Act.

6.9 Entire Agreement; No Waiver. The entire agreement of Trustees and the SCD Trust Beneficiaries relating to the subject matter of this Trust Agreement is contained herein, and in the documents referred to herein (including the Plan), and this Trust Agreement and such documents supersede any prior oral or written agreements concerning the subject matter hereof. No failure to exercise or delay in exercising any right, power, or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, power, or privilege hereunder preclude any further exercise thereof or of any other right, power, or privilege. The rights and remedies herein provided are cumulative and are not exclusive of rights under law or in equity.

6.10 Headings. The headings used in this Trust Agreement are inserted for convenience only and do not constitute a portion of this Trust Agreement, nor in any manner affect the construction of the provisions of this Trust Agreement.

6.11 Governing Law. The validity and construction of this Trust Agreement and all amendments hereto and thereto shall be governed by the laws of the State of Delaware, and the rights of all Trustees hereto and the effect of every provision hereof shall be subject to and construed according to the laws of the State of Delaware without regard to the conflicts of law provisions thereof that would purport to apply the law of any other jurisdiction; provided, however, that Trustees and the SCD Trust Beneficiaries intend that the provisions hereof shall control and, except as required by the Act, there shall not be applicable to the SCD Trust, the Trustee, the Delaware Trustee, or this Trust Agreement, any provision of the laws (statutory or common) of the State of Delaware pertaining to trusts that relate to or regulate in a manner inconsistent with the terms hereof: (a) the filing with any court or governmental body or agency of Trustee accounts or schedules of Trustee fees and charges; (b) affirmative requirements to post bonds for the Trustee, officers, agents, or employees of a trust; (c) the necessity for obtaining court or other governmental approval concerning the acquisition, holding, or disposition of real or personal property; (d) fees or other sums payable to the Trustee, officers, agents, or employees of a trust; (e) the allocation of receipts and expenditures to income or principal; (f) restrictions or limitations on the permissible nature, amount, or concentration of trust investments or requirements relating to the titling, storage, or other manner of holding of trust assets; (g) the existence of rights or interests (beneficial or otherwise) in trust assets; (h) the ability of beneficial owners or other persons to terminate or dissolve a trust; or (i) the establishment of fiduciary or other standards or responsibilities or limitations on the acts or powers of the Administrative Trustee or beneficial owners that are inconsistent with the limitations on liability or authorities and powers of the Administrative Trustee or the Delaware Trustee set forth or referenced in this Trust Agreement. Section 3540 of the Act shall not apply to the SCD Trust.

6.12 Dispute Resolution.

(a) Unless otherwise expressly provided for herein or as required in the Act, the dispute resolution procedures of this Section 6.12 shall be the exclusive mechanism to resolve any dispute arising under or with respect to this Trust Agreement.

(b) Informal Dispute Resolution. Any dispute under this Trust Agreement shall first be the subject of informal negotiations. The dispute shall be considered to have arisen when a disputing party sends to the counterparty or counterparties a written notice of dispute ("Notice of Dispute"). Such Notice of Dispute shall state clearly the matter in dispute. The period of informal negotiations shall not exceed thirty (30) days from the date the Notice of Dispute is received by the counterparty or counterparties, unless that period is modified by written agreement of the disputing party and counterparty or counterparties. If the disputing party and the counterparty or counterparties cannot resolve the dispute by informal negotiations, then the disputing party may invoke the formal dispute resolution procedures as set forth below.

(c) Formal Dispute Resolution. The disputing party may invoke formal dispute resolution procedures, within the time period provided in the preceding subparagraph, by serving on the counterparty or counterparties a written statement of position regarding the matter in dispute ("Statement of Position"). The Statement of Position shall include, but need not be limited to, any factual data, analysis or opinion supporting the disputing party's position and any supporting documentation and legal authorities relied upon by the disputing party. Each counterparty shall serve its Statement of Position within thirty (30) days of receipt of the disputing party's Statement of Position, which shall also include, but need not be limited to, any factual data, analysis or opinion supporting the counterparty's position and any supporting documentation and legal authorities relied upon by the counterparty. If the disputing party and the counterparty or counterparties are unable to consensually resolve the dispute within thirty (30) days after the last of all counterparties have served its Statement of Position on the disputing party, the disputing party may file with the Bankruptcy Court a motion for judicial review of the dispute in accordance with Section 6.12(d) below.

(d) Judicial Review. Section 5.6 Taxes. Except as could not individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect (a) the Company has timely filed with the appropriate taxing authority all tax and informational returns which are required to be filed by it or with respect to the income, Properties or operations of such Person, (b) the Company has paid all taxes due pursuant to such returns or otherwise payable by it, except such taxes, if any, as are being contested in good faith and by proper proceedings and for which enforcement of the contested item has been effectively stayed and as of which adequate reserves have been provided in accordance with the Accounting Principles and (c) there is no action, suit, proceeding, investigation, audit, or claim now pending or, to the best knowledge of the Company, threatened by any authority regarding any taxes relating to the Company.

Section 5.7 Title to Property. The Company has good and sufficient title to its properties that individually or in the aggregate are material, including all such rights in the Underlying Assets, in each case free and clear of Liens prohibited by this Agreement.

No mortgage or financing statement or other instrument or recordation covering all or any part of the Collateral is on file in any recording office, except such as may have been filed in favor of the Secured Parties or in respect of Permitted Liens.

(b) The execution and delivery of this Agreement and the issuance and sale of the Notes hereunder will not involve any non-exempt transaction that is subject to the prohibitions of section 406(a)(1) of ERISA or in connection with which a tax could be imposed pursuant to section 4975(c)(1)(A)-(D) of the Code, that could, individually or in the aggregate, be reasonably expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

(c) The Company does not have any Non-U.S. Plans.

Section 5.10 Private Offering by the Company. Neither the Company nor anyone acting on its behalf has offered the Notes or any similar Securities for sale to, or solicited any offer to buy the Notes or any similar Securities from, or otherwise approached or negotiated in respect thereof with, any Person other than the Purchasers, each of which has been offered the Notes at a private sale for investment. Neither the Company nor anyone acting on its behalf has taken, or will take, any action that would subject the issuance or sale of the Notes to the registration requirements of section 5 of the Securities Act or to the registration requirements of any securities or blue sky laws of any applicable jurisdiction.

Section 5.11 Use of Proceeds; Margin Regulations. The Company will apply the proceeds of the sale of the Notes hereunder in accordance with the Plan of Reorganization and the Confirmation Order. Margin stock does not constitute more than 10% of the value of the consolidated assets of the Company and the Company does not have any present intention that margin stock will constitute more than 10% of the value of such assets. As used in this Section 5.11 and in Section 9.6, the terms "margin stock" and "purpose of buying or carrying" shall have the meanings assigned to them in said Regulation U.

Section 5.12 Foreign Assets Control Regulations, Etc.

(a) The Company and its Subsidiaries are in compliance with applicable Sanctions Laws, Anti-Corruption Laws and Anti-Money Laundering Laws in all material respects.

(a) None of the Company or any Subsidiary is, to the Company's knowledge, the subject of any inquiry, claim, allegation, action, suit, proceeding or investigation against it with respect to Sanctions Laws, Anti-Money Laundering Laws or Anti-Corruption Laws. (b) The Company will not use any part of the proceeds from the sale of the Notes hereunder, directly or knowingly indirectly: (i) in connection with any investment in, or any transactions or dealings with, any Restricted Party, in violation of applicable Sanctions Laws, (ii) for any purpose that would cause any Purchaser or Holder to be in violation of any applicable Sanctions Laws, or (iii) for any payments that would constitute a violation of any applicable Anti-Corruption Laws or Anti-Money Laundering Laws.

Section 5.13 Status under Certain Statutes. The Company is not required to be registered as an "investment company" under the 1940 Act.

Section 5.14 No Accounts. The Company has no bank accounts other than the Accounts and any other bank accounts permitted pursuant to the terms of Section 11.

Section 5.15 Single-Purpose Entity. Section 5.16 Absence of Defaults. No Default or Event of Default has occurred and is continuing.

Section 6. Representations of the Purchasers.

Section 6.1 Purchase for Investment. Each Purchaser severally represents to the Company that it is (a) a "qualified purchaser" (as defined in the 1940 Act) that is an "accredited investor" (as defined in Rule 501(a)(1), (2), (3), or (7) of Regulation D under the Securities Act) or (b) a "qualified purchaser" (as defined in the 1940 Act) that is a "qualified institutional buyer" (as defined in Rule 144A under the Securities Act). Each Purchaser severally represents to the Company that it is aware that the Notes will be issued in reliance on the exemption provided by Section 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act, and Regulation D promulgated thereunder. Each Purchaser severally represents that it is purchasing the Notes for its own account or for one or more separate accounts maintained by such Purchaser or for the account of one or more pension or trust funds, which accounts are in each case Qualified Purchasers, and not with a view to the distribution thereof, provided that the disposition of such Purchaser's or their property shall at all times be within such Purchaser's or their control. Each Purchaser understands and agrees that it must bear the economic risk of its investment for an indefinite period of time because, among other reasons, (a) the Notes have not been and will not be registered or qualified under the Securities Act, any applicable state securities laws or the securities laws of any other jurisdiction (together with the Securities Act, the "Securities Laws"), (b) none of the Company, the Company's Agent, the Notes Agent or any other Person is required to so register or qualify the Notes and (c) neither the Notes nor any security issued in exchange therefor or in lieu thereof may be resold or transferred unless such resale or transfer is exempt from the registration requirements of applicable Securities Laws and otherwise complies with the transfer restrictions set forth in this Agreement and that any purported transfer which does not comply with the foregoing shall be deemed null and void. As a result, each Purchaser understands and agrees that an investment in the Notes will be illiquid, no public market exists for the Notes and no public market for the Notes may develop. Each Purchaser severally represents that such Purchaser has carefully reviewed and understands the Transaction Documents and has been furnished with all other materials and information that it considers relevant to an investment in the Notes. Each Purchaser severally represents that such Purchaser or its advisors, or both, prior to acceptance of such Company's subscription in the Notes, has had the opportunity to ask questions of, and receive answers from, the Company, with respect to the Transaction Documents, the Notes and the transactions contemplated herein and therein. If the Purchasers are acquiring the Notes as fiduciaries or agents for one or more accounts, each Purchaser represents and warrants that such Purchaser has sole investment discretion with respect to each such account and has full power to make the acknowledgements, representations, warranties, certifications and agreements contained in this Agreement on behalf of each such account.

Section 6.2 Investment Risks.

(a) Each Purchaser severally represents and warrants that: (i) such Purchaser understands the risks of an investment in the Notes; (ii) such Purchaser is aware that there are substantial risks incident to an investment in the Notes and such Purchaser has made an independent investment decision to purchase the Notes after conducting such investigation as such Purchaser has deemed appropriate, which has included a review of the terms of the Notes, the other Transaction Documents and related matters, of the risks relating to an investment in the Notes, and of the tax, accounting and regulatory implications relating to an investment in the Notes; and (iii) such Purchaser has such knowledge and experience in investing in securities and related financial and business matters and is capable of evaluating the merits and risks of investment in the Notes.

(b) Each Purchaser severally represents and warrants that: (i) such Purchaser has evaluated and is voluntarily assuming the risks of investing in the Notes; (ii) such Purchaser has sought such accounting, legal, tax, regulatory, business, financial and investment advice as it has considered necessary to make an informed investment decision; (iii) such Purchaser understands there are substantial risks of loss incidental to the purchase of the Notes and is able to bear such risks for an indefinite period of time; (iv) can afford a complete loss of its investment in the Notes; and (v) has determined that the Notes are a suitable investment for it after conducting such investigation as such Purchaser has deemed appropriate, which has included a review of the terms of the Notes and related matters, of the risks relating to an investment in the Notes (including that the sole source of recovery for the Notes is a distribution from the Elixir Escrow in accordance with the Elixir Rx Distributions Schedule pursuant to the Plan of Reorganization), and of the tax, accounting and regulatory implications relating to an investment in the Notes.

Section 6.3 Power and Authority. Each Purchaser severally represents and warrants that it has full power and authority (corporate, regulatory and other) to execute and deliver this Agreement and to purchase and hold the Notes.

Section 7. Information as to Company.

Section 7.1 Financial Statements and Other Information. The Company shall deliver, or shall cause to be delivered, to each Holder:

(a) Defaults – promptly after any officer, member or manager (as the case may be) of the Company knows or has a reasonable basis to believe that any Default or Event of Default has occurred, a written notice of such event describing the same in detail and, together with such notice, a description of any action of the Company;

(b) Requested Information — with reasonable promptness, such other data and information relating to the business, operations, affairs, financial condition, assets or properties of the Company or relating to the ability of the Company to perform its obligations hereunder and under the Notes as from time to time may be reasonably requested by any such holder of a Note;

(c) Quarterly Financial Statements – as soon as available and in any event within ninety (90) days after the end of each fiscal quarter of the Company (commencing with December 2024), a copy of the unaudited statements of income, retained earnings and cash flow of the Company and the related balance sheet of the Company as at the end of such fiscal quarter;

(d) Annual Financial Statements – as soon as available and in any event within ninety (90) days after the end of each fiscal year of the Company (commencing with December 2025), a copy of the audited statements of income, retained earnings and cash flow of the Company and the related balance sheet of the Company as at the end of such fiscal year; and

(e) Account Balances – upon reasonable request by a Holder, the SCD Trust Trustee shall promptly provide to such Holder a monthly statement (dated as of the end of the immediately preceding calendar month) which shall include the following account balances: (i) the outstanding principal balance of such Holder's Notes, (ii) the aggregate amount of PIK Interest added to the principal balance of such Holder's Note (based on its respective Pro Rata Share), and (iii) and, without duplication of clause (ii), any other accrued and unpaid interest payable to such Holder as of such date.

Section 7.2 Electronic Delivery. Notices and other information that are required to be delivered by the Company pursuant to Section 7.1 shall be deemed to have been delivered if the Company satisfies any of the following requirements with respect thereto:

(a) such notices or other information are delivered to each Holder by e-mail at the e-mail address set forth in such holder's Purchaser Schedule or as communicated from time to time in a separate writing delivered to the Company;

(b) such notices or other information are timely posted by or on behalf of the Company on the Platform to which each holder of Notes has free access; provided however, that in no case shall access to such financial statements or other information be conditioned upon any waiver or other agreement or consent (other than as required by the Company's Agent for use of the Platform); provided further, that in the case of this Section 7.2(b), the Company shall have given, or caused to be given, each Holder prior written notice, which may be by e-mail or in accordance with Section 19, of such posting or availability in connection with each delivery; or

(c) otherwise delivered in accordance with the Company Trust Agreement.

Section 8. Payment and Prepayment of the Notes.

Section 8.1 Payments and Prepayments.

(a) The Company shall promptly pay the principal of, premium, if any, and interest (which shall be paid in kind) on the Notes on the dates and in the manner provided in the Notes and in this Agreement. Interest on each Note shall accrue from the most recent date to which interest has been paid or duly provided for or, if not interest has been paid or duly provided for, from the Closing Date, at the applicable Interest Rate and be paid in kind on each Payment Date (such amount, "PIK Interest"). Interest shall be computed on the basis of a 360-day year of twelve 30-day months. All PIK Interest will be capitalized by increasing the outstanding principal amount of the Notes on the relevant Payment Date by the amount of PIK Interest for such Note. Unless the context otherwise requires, for all purposes hereof, references to "principal amount" of the Notes includes any PIK Interest so capitalized and added to the principal amount of the Notes, as applicable, from the date on which such interest has been so added.

(b) Prior to the Maturity Date, the Notes may be voluntarily prepaid by the Company at any time (or shall be prepaid by the Company on the SCD Claim Distribution Date), and shall be prepaid no later than three (3) Business Days (or such other later period as may otherwise be agreed upon by the Required Holders) after the occurrence of a Prepayment Event (such date, a "Prepayment Date") in an amount equal to 100% of the cash proceeds of such Prepayment Event, together with accrued and unpaid interest at the Interest Rate on the principal amount being prepaid.

(c) The Company will give each Holder written notice of each prepayment under this Section 8.1 not less than one (1) Business Day prior to the Prepayment Date unless the Company and the Holders agree to another time period pursuant to Section 18; provided that failure to deliver such notice shall not constitute a Default or Event of Default. Each such notice shall specify (i) the Prepayment Date, (ii) the aggregate principal amount of the Notes to be prepaid and the interest to be paid on such Prepayment Date with respect to such principal amount being prepaid, and (iii) the amount of any excess distributable cash, if any, received by the Company (the "Excess Distribution Amounts") payable only after the aggregate unpaid principal balance of the Notes and interest thereon has been paid in full.

Section 8.2 Pro Rata Allocation of Payments. All principal and interest payments and payments of any Excess Distribution Amounts to be made on the Notes on any date shall be allocated ratably among all of the Notes at the time outstanding in proportion, as nearly as practicable, to the respective unpaid principal amounts thereof (or in the case of any payment of Excess Distribution Amounts to be made on the Notes, as nearly as practicable to their respective Pro Rata Shares).

Section 8.3 Payment; Maturity; Surrender, Etc. In the case of each prepayment of the Notes pursuant to this Section 8, the principal amount of each such Note to be prepaid shall mature and become due and payable on the Prepayment Date, together with interest on such principal amount accrued to such date. From and after such date, unless the Company shall fail to pay such principal amount when so due and payable, together with the interest, as aforesaid, interest on such principal amount paid or prepaid shall cease to accrue.

Any Note paid or prepaid in full shall be surrendered (if such Note was issued as a Certificated Security) to the Company or the Company's Agent and cancelled and shall not be reissued, and no Note shall be issued in lieu of any prepaid principal amount of any Note. Once cancelled, the Company or the Company's Agent shall update the Register of Holders to reflect the cancellation of such Notes.

Section 8.4 Payments Due on Non-Business Days. Anything in the Financing Documents to the contrary notwithstanding, (a) any payment of interest on any Note that is due on a date that is not a Business Day shall be made on the next succeeding Business Day without including the additional days elapsed in the computation of the interest payable on such next succeeding Business Day; and (b) any payment of principal of any Note that is due on a date that is not a Business Day shall be made on the next succeeding Business Day.

Section 9. Affirmative Covenants.

The Company covenants that so long as any of the Notes are outstanding:

Section 9.1 Maintenance of Existence. The Company will at all times preserve and keep its corporate existence in full force and effect. The Company will at all times preserve and keep in full force and effect all rights and franchises of the Company unless, in the good faith judgment of the Company, the termination of or failure to preserve and keep in full force and effect such right or franchise could not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

Section 9.2 Compliance with Laws. The Company will comply with all laws, ordinances and governmental rules or regulations to which it is subject and to the extent applicable (including ERISA, Environmental Laws, the USA PATRIOT Act and the other laws and regulations that are referred to in Section 5.12) and will obtain and maintain in effect all licenses, certificates, permits, franchises and other governmental authorizations necessary to the ownership of its properties or to the conduct of its businesses, in each case except to the extent that non-compliance with such laws, ordinances and governmental rules or regulations or failures to obtain or maintain in effect such licenses, certificates, permits, franchises and other governmental authorizations could not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

Section 9.3 Payment of Taxes, Etc. The Company shall duly pay and discharge before they become overdue (a) all taxes, assessments and other governmental charges or levies imposed upon it or its Property, income or profits, and (b) all lawful claims and obligations that, if unpaid, might result in the imposition of a Lien upon its Property (other than Permitted Liens), except where failure to do so could not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect; provided, however, that the Company may contest in good faith any such tax, assessment, charge, levy, claim or obligation and, in such event, may permit the tax, assessment, charge, levy, claim or obligation to remain unpaid during any period, including appeals, when the Company is in good faith contesting the same by proper proceedings, so long as adequate reserves shall have been established with respect to any such tax, assessment, charge, levy, claim or obligation, accrued interest thereon and potential penalties or other costs relating thereto in accordance with the Accounting Principles, or other adequate provision for payment thereof shall have been made.

Section 9.4 Accounting and Financial Management. The Company will maintain, or cause to be maintained (a) proper books of record and account in conformity with the Accounting Principles and all applicable requirements of any Governmental Authority having legal or regulatory jurisdiction over the Company, (b) books, records and accounts which, in reasonable detail, accurately reflect all transactions and dispositions of assets, and (c) a system of internal accounting controls sufficient to provide reasonable assurances that its books, records, and accounts accurately reflect all transactions and dispositions of assets.

(a) The Company shall take all actions necessary or requested by the Required Holders or the Notes Agent to maintain each Security Document in full force and effect and enforceable in accordance with its terms and to maintain and preserve the Liens created by such Security Documents and the first ranking priority thereof (subject to Permitted Liens), including (i) making filings and recordations, (ii) making payments of fees and other charges, (iii) issuing and, if necessary, filing or recording supplemental documentation, including continuation statements, (iv) discharging all claims or other Liens on the Collateral other than Permitted Liens and (v) taking all other actions either necessary or otherwise requested by the Required Holders or the Notes Agent to ensure that all Collateral intended to be covered by any Security Document is subject to a valid and enforceable first-priority (subject only to Permitted Liens) Lien in favor of the Notes Agent for the benefit of the Secured Parties.

(b) To the extent that any action required to be taken pursuant to clause (a) above, in each case, to create and perfect the Security Interests in the Company's interests in the Underlying Assets is unable to be executed or completed prior to or concurrently with the Closing (to the extent the Company has used commercially reasonable efforts to complete such execution, filing, registration, notarization, recordation, publishing or notification), such action may instead be completed within 30 Business Days after the Closing Date.

Section 9.6 Use of Proceeds. The Company will apply the proceeds of the sale of the Notes hereunder in accordance with the Plan of Reorganization and the Confirmation Order. No part of the proceeds from the sale of the Notes hereunder will be used, directly or indirectly, for the purpose of buying or carrying any margin stock within the meaning of Regulation U of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (12 CFR 221), or for the purpose of buying or carrying or trading in any Securities under such circumstances as to involve the Company in a violation of Regulation X of said Board (12 CFR 224) or to involve any broker or dealer in a violation of Regulation T of said Board (12 CFR 220).

Section 9.7 Compliance with Constitutional Documents; Distributions. The Company shall (i) comply with the provisions of its Constitutional Documents, except to the extent that such failure could not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect, and (ii) use best efforts to ensure that all Underlying Asset proceeds are distributed in accordance with the terms of the Underlying Asset Documents.

Section 10. Negative Covenants

(b) The Company shall not, directly or indirectly, make any Investment other than Permitted Investments.

Section 10.4 Merger; Sales and Purchases of Assets.

(a) The Company shall not merge into or consolidate with any Person, or liquidate or dissolve itself (or suffer any liquidation or dissolution), or sell, lease, sub-let, transfer, part with possession or operational control, redeem, or otherwise dispose of any of the Collateral.

(b) The Company shall not purchase or acquire any assets other than Permitted Investments or in the ordinary course of business as contemplated under the Financing Documents.

(b) The Company shall not:

(i) make any payment on or with respect to, or purchase, redeem, defease or otherwise acquire or retire for value any Indebtedness of the Company that is contractually subordinated to the Notes, other than solely with the proceeds from Permitted Indebtedness; or

(ii) make any investment other than an investment permitted pursuant to Section 10.3.

Section 10.6 Nature of Business. The Company shall have no business other than owning, managing and enforcing the claims and undertaking the transactions contemplated by the Transaction Documents.

Section 10.7 Underlying Asset Documentation. The Company shall not agree to amend, supplement, modify or give any consent under the Underlying Asset Documents, unless such modification or consent could not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect or that could not reasonably be expected to adversely affect the interests of the Holders. The Company shall not exercise any right or take any other action under the Underlying Asset Documentation that would impair the Collateral or that would be inconsistent with or result in any violation of any provision of this Agreement, the Notes or the other Financing Documents. The Company shall not consent to any reduction in the SCD Claim or any changes to the agreement governing the Elixir Escrow or the Elixir Rx Distributions Schedule without the consent of the Super-Majority Holders.

Section 10.8 Company Trust Agreement. The Company shall not amend, supplement or modify the Company Trust Agreement without the consent of the Notes Agent and the Required Holders.

Section 11. The Notes Agent, the Depositary Bank and the Establishment of the Accounts.

Section 11.1 The Accounts.

(a) Establishment of Accounts. The Company shall establish, on or before the Closing Date, with the Depositary Bank (i) a collection account (the "Collection Account"), (ii) an expense reserve account (the "Expense Account"), such Expense Account to be funded by the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors (as defined in the Plan of Reorganization), and (iii) such other accounts and sub-accounts, if any, in each case in the name of the Company, bearing the name and having the account number identified in Schedule 11.1 or in a written notice to the Notes Agent and the Company's Agent, if applicable (collectively, the "Accounts"), each of which shall be maintained at all times in accordance with the terms of this Agreement until the Termination Date.

(b) Accounts Constitute Collateral.

(i) Each Account and all amounts from time to time held in or credited to such Account, with the exception of the Expense Account and the amounts from time to time held in or credited therein, shall be subject to the Lien of the Notes Agent intended to be created by the Security Documents for the benefit of the Secured Parties and subject to the terms of a Control Agreement.

(ii) Each Account and all amounts from time to time held in such Account shall be held and maintained by the Depositary Bank for the purposes and on the express terms set out in this Agreement. All such amounts, with the exception of the amounts held in the Expense Account, shall constitute a part of the Depositary Collateral and shall not constitute payment of any Obligations or any other obligations of the Company until expressly applied thereto in accordance with the provisions of this Agreement or the other Financing Documents.

(c) Eligibility. Each Depositary Bank shall at all times satisfy the requirements of an Eligible Account Bank. If at any time an Authorized Officer of the Company obtains knowledge that a Depositary Bank ceases to be an Eligible Account Bank, then the Company shall promptly notify the Notes Agent in writing and, within sixty (60) days after obtaining such knowledge, move each Account held at such ineligible Depositary Bank to an alternative institution that is an Eligible Account Bank that is acceptable to the Notes Agent and the Required Holders (and at the reasonable request of the Company, the Notes Agent shall assist the Company in moving such Accounts). If the Collection Account has been moved to such replacement depositary bank, the Notes Agent shall, at the Company's expense, further cooperate with the Company to enter into a Control Agreement with such replacement depositary bank over the Collection Account within such sixty (60) day period.

Section 11.2 Confirmation of Lien on Accounts. As collateral security for the prompt and complete payment and performance when due of the Obligations, the Company has, pursuant to the Security Agreement, assigned, granted and pledged to the Notes Agent on behalf of and for the benefit of (subject to Section 13.5(a)) the Secured Parties, a security interest in each Account (other than the Expense Account) registered in the name of the Company, and all cash, investments, investment property, securities or other property, including any security entitlements with respect to any of the foregoing at any time on deposit in or credited to any Account (other than the Expense Account), including all income or gain earned thereon and any proceeds thereof (collectively, the "Depositary Collateral").

Section 11.3 Deposits into the Accounts.

(a) Collection Account. The Company shall deposit (and shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause third parties that would otherwise make payments directly to the Company to deposit) into the Collection Account, (i) any amounts retained by the Company from the proceeds of the sale of the Notes on the Closing Date in excess of the amount of such proceeds distributed in accordance with the Plan of Reorganization (if the Collection Account is open on the Closing Date), (ii) any amounts required to be transferred from any other account held by the Company to the Collection Account in accordance with the Financing Documents, (iii) amounts paid by or on behalf of the Company in connection with the Company's exercise of its option to prepay the Notes under Section 8.1, (iv) all cash proceeds of Prepayment Events until such proceeds are applied to repay the Notes in accordance with Section 8.1(b), and (v) all Receipts and all other amounts of any kind whatsoever payable to or for the benefit of the Company by any Person or from any source.

(b) Expense Account. The Expense Account shall be funded initially as provided in Section 11.1(a)(ii). On the final Payment Date, amounts on deposit in the Expense Account that are not otherwise used to pay Operating and Maintenance Expenses of the Company on such final Payment Date shall be deposited into the Collection Account for distribution in accordance with Section 11.4(a).

(c) Receipt by Company. In the event that, notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 11.3, any such payments, proceeds or other amounts contemplated hereunder to be deposited into the Accounts are received by the Company, the Company shall promptly pay, endorse, transfer and deliver such payments or other amounts to the Depositary Bank for deposit in the relevant Account, and, until such delivery, the Company shall hold such payments and other amounts in the same form as received in trust for the Notes Agent.

Section 11.4 Withdrawals and Transfers; Priority of Payments.

(a) From the Collection Account. Subject in all cases to Section 11.5 and provided that the Notes Agent receives the applicable Account Withdrawal Certificate from the Company no later than 11:00 a.m. (New York City time) at least two (2) Business Days before the applicable Payment Date, the Notes Agent shall make the following withdrawals, transfers and payments from the Collection Account on such Payment Date in the amounts and in accordance with the payment instructions specified in such Account Withdrawal Certificate (it being agreed that no amount shall be withdrawn, transferred, or set aside on any Payment Date pursuant to any clause below until amounts sufficient as of that date for all the purposes specified under the prior clauses of this Section 11.4(a) and which are required to be withdrawn, transferred or set aside shall have been so withdrawn, transferred or set aside), solely to the extent amounts are then available in the Collection Account. Each Account Withdrawal Certificate with respect to the Collection Account shall set forth the payments to be made on and as of each Payment Date in the following order of priority and shall not include any items for which amounts have previously been transferred:

(i) first, on each Payment Date, to the payment of any Administrative Costs to each Agent under the Fee Letter or any Financing Document (as stated by such Agent in writing delivered to the Company's Agent and the Notes Agent);

(ii) second, on each Payment Date, to the Expense Account, for the payment of Operating and Maintenance Expenses of the Company, including all taxes (including federal, state and local income taxes) imposed on and payable by the Company at such time (to the extent that such taxes are payable by wire transfer);

(iii) third, on each Payment Date, to the Holders of the Notes, an amount equal to the amount of interest then due and payable to such Holders, ratably, without preference or priority of any kind, according to the amounts due and payable on the Notes for interest;

(iv) fourth, on each Payment Date, any amount that remains on deposit in the Collection Account, to the Holders of the Notes for any unpaid amounts on the Notes for principal, ratably, without preference or priority of any kind, based on their respective Pro Rata Shares;

(v) fifth, to the Holders of the Notes for any other amounts due and unpaid, ratably, under the Financing Documents, without preference or priority of any kind; and

(vi) sixth, on each Payment Date, to the Holders of the Notes, all remaining excess distributable cash on deposit in the Collection Account as Excess Distribution Amounts, ratably, without preference or priority of any kind, based on their respective Pro Rata Shares.

If on any date the funds on deposit in the Collection Account are insufficient to pay in full all of the payments required under any particular clause of this Section 11.4(a) as set forth in the applicable Account Withdrawal Certificate, (a) the Notes Agent shall notify the Company of such insufficiency, specifying the amount then remaining on deposit in the Collection Account, and subject to Section 11.5, the Company shall provide to the Notes Agent further written instruction as to the application of such amount, which shall be pro rata to the required payments under such clause, and (b) if such date is the SCD Claim Distribution Date, all Notes then outstanding shall automatically be deemed paid in full and shall be surrendered (if such Note was issued as a Certificated Security) to the Company or the Company's Agent and cancelled and shall not be reissued, and no Note shall be issued in lieu of any unpaid principal amount of any Note. As described under Section 8.3, once cancelled, the Company or the Company's Agent shall update the Register of Holders to reflect the cancellation of such Notes.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Section 11.4(a), following an Event of Default and the acceleration of the maturity of the Notes pursuant to Section 13.1, the proceeds of any Collateral received pursuant to any enforcement action or other remedy in respect of any Collateral shall be applied in accordance with Section 13.5.

(c) From the Expense Account. Subject in all cases to Section 11.5 and provided that the Notes Agent receives the applicable Account Withdrawal Certificate from the Company no later than 11:00 a.m. (New York City time) at least two (2) Business Days before the applicable Payment Date, the Notes Agent shall make the withdrawals, transfers and payments from the Expense Account on such Payment Date in the amounts and in accordance with the payment instructions specified in such Account Withdrawal Certificate, solely to the extent amounts are then available in the Expense Account. Each Account Withdrawal Certificate with respect to the Expense Account shall set forth the amount to be paid in United States dollars for the payment of Operating and Maintenance Expenses of the Company, including all taxes (including federal, state and local income taxes) imposed on the Company (to the extent that such taxes are payable by wire transfer) or Administrative Costs then due and payable to each Agent under the Fee Letter or any Financing Document (as stated by such Agent in writing delivered to the Company's Agent and the Notes Agent). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, the Company's Agent and their respective Affiliates shall be entitled to reimbursement from the Company for any Operating Expenses or Organizational Expenses paid or incurred by them on behalf of the Company, including fees, costs and expenses incurred in connection with services performed by personnel or employees of the Company's Agent, or their respective Affiliates, as applicable, that are services the fees, costs and expenses for which constitute Operating Expenses or Organizational Expenses.

(d) Supplemental Account Withdrawal Certificates. With respect to any Account Withdrawal Certificate, the Company may supplement such Account Withdrawal Certificate or submit a new, updated Account Withdrawal Certificate in replacement thereof, in each case in order to correct any certifications or wiring or other payment instructions set forth therein, so long as such supplemental or new Account Withdrawal Certificate is provided to the Notes Agent by the Company by 9:00 a.m. (New York City time) at least one Business Day before the proposed Payment Date. The Notes Agent shall be entitled to conclusively rely upon, and shall be fully protected in relying upon, any Account Withdrawal Certificate and shall not be responsible in any manner for (and shall not be obligated to independently verify) the truth and accuracy of any information contained in such Account Withdrawal Certificate or any calculations or amounts contained in such Account Withdrawal Certificate.

Section 11.5 Event of Default, Etc. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, upon the occurrence and during the continuation of any Event of Default, (i) the Notes Agent shall not release, withdraw, distribute, transfer or otherwise make available any funds in or from the Collection Account, and shall take such action or refrain from taking such action as the Notes Agent shall be so instructed to take or refrain from taking in accordance with Section 13 and (ii) at the direction of the Required Holders, the Notes Agent shall have the right to exercise such remedies as are then available to it, including the transfer of all or any part of the funds in the Collection Account to any of the other Accounts or to the payment of the Obligations then due and payable as provided in such Remedies Direction.

Section 12. Events of Default.

An "Event of Default" shall exist if any of the following conditions or events shall occur and be continuing:

(a) the Company defaults in the payment of any principal on any Note for more than three Business Days after the same becomes due and payable, whether at any Payment Date, including the Maturity Date, or at any Prepayment Date or by declaration or otherwise; or

(b) the Company defaults in the performance of or compliance with any term contained in Section 9.1, Section 9.2, or Section 10 in any material respect; or

(c) the Company defaults in the performance of or compliance with any term contained herein or in any other Financing Document (other than those referred to in Section 12(a) and (b)) in any material respect and such default is not remedied within twenty (20) days after the earlier of (i) an Authorized Officer obtaining actual knowledge of such default and (ii) the Company receiving written notice of such default from any Holder (any such written notice to be identified as a "notice of default" and to refer specifically to this Section 12(c)); or

(d) the Company defaults in the payment when due (after any applicable grace period) of any principal of, or any other amount due, on any other of the Company's other Indebtedness aggregating $1,000,000 or more; or any event specified in any note, agreement, indenture or other document evidencing or relating to any such Indebtedness of the Company shall occur and the effect of such event is to cause such Indebtedness to become due, or is required to be prepaid in full (whether by redemption, purchase, offer to purchase or otherwise), prior to its stated maturity; or

(e) any representation or warranty made in writing by or on behalf of the Company or by any officer of the Company in this Agreement, any other Financing Document or any writing furnished in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby proves to have been false or incorrect in any material respect on the date as of which made and such misrepresentation is not remedied within forty-five days after the earlier of (i) an Authorized Officer obtaining actual knowledge of such misrepresentation and (ii) the Company receiving written notice of such misrepresentation from any Holder (any such written notice to be identified as a "notice of default" and to refer specifically to this Section 12(e)); or

(f) the Company (i) is generally not paying, or admits in writing its inability to pay, its debts as they become due, (ii) files, or consents by answer or otherwise to the filing against it of a petition for relief or reorganization or arrangement or any other petition in bankruptcy, for liquidation or to take advantage of any bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium or other similar law of any jurisdiction, (iii) makes an assignment for the benefit of its creditors, (iv) consents to the appointment of a custodian, receiver, trustee or other officer with similar powers with respect to it or with respect to any substantial part of its Property, (v) is adjudicated as insolvent or to be liquidated, or (vi) takes corporate action for the purpose of any of the foregoing; or

(g) a court or other Governmental Authority of competent jurisdiction enters an order appointing, without consent by the Company, a custodian, receiver, trustee, or other officer with similar powers with respect to the Company (as applicable) or with respect to any substantial part of any of the Company's Property, or constituting an order for relief or approving a petition for relief or reorganization or any other petition in bankruptcy or for liquidation or to take advantage of any bankruptcy or insolvency law of any jurisdiction, or ordering the dissolution, winding-up or liquidation of the Company, or any such petition shall be filed against the Company and such petition shall not be dismissed within sixty days; or

(h) one or more final judgments or orders for the payment of money aggregating in excess of $1,000,000 for any one judgment or $1,500,000 in the aggregate (or its equivalent in the relevant currency of payment), including any such final order enforcing a binding arbitration decision, are rendered against the Company and which judgments are not, within sixty days after entry thereof, bonded, discharged or stayed pending appeal, or are not discharged within sixty days after the expiration of such stay; or

(i) any of the Secured Parties shall cease to have a first-priority, perfected Lien on any material portion of the Collateral, subject only to Permitted Liens; or

(j) if, at any time, any Financing Document or any provision thereof (including the enforceability thereof) is expressly terminated (other than in accordance with the terms thereof, including in connection with the replacement agreement with any successor party thereto) or repudiated by the Company or is determined to be unenforceable by a court of competent jurisdiction.

Section 13. Remedies on Default, Etc.

Section 13.1 Acceleration.

(a) If an Event of Default with respect to the Company described in Section 12(f) or Section 12(g) (other than an Event of Default described in clause (i) of Section 12(f) or described in clause (vi) of Section 12(f) by virtue of the fact that such clause encompasses clause (i) of Section 12(f)) has occurred and is continuing, all the Notes then outstanding shall automatically become immediately due and payable.

(b) If any other Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, the Required Holders may at any time, by notice to the Company (with a copy to the Notes Agent), declare all the Notes then outstanding to be immediately due and payable and/or instruct the Notes Agent, in writing, to exercise any or all rights and remedies available under any of the Security Documents.

Upon any Notes becoming due and payable under this Section 13.1, whether automatically or by declaration, such Notes will forthwith mature and the entire unpaid principal amount of such Notes, plus all accrued and unpaid interest thereon determined in respect of such principal amount and all other Obligations, shall all be immediately due and payable, in each and every case without presentment, demand, protest or further notice, all of which are hereby waived. After the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, the Notes Agent (acting at the written instruction of the Required Holders) may exercise any or all rights and remedies at Law or in equity (in any combination or order that the Required Holders may elect), including without limitation or prejudice to the Notes Agent's other rights and remedies, any and all rights and remedies available under any of the Security Documents.

Section 13.2 Other Remedies. If any Event of Default has occurred and is continuing, and irrespective of whether any Notes have become or have been declared immediately due and payable under Section 13.1, any Holder of any Note at the time outstanding may proceed to protect and enforce the rights of such Holder by an action at law, suit in equity or other appropriate proceeding, whether for the specific performance of any agreement contained herein, in any Note or in any other Financing Document, or for an injunction against a violation of any of the terms hereof or thereof, or in aid of the exercise of any power granted hereby or thereby or by Law or otherwise; provided that no action may be taken to enforce the rights of any Holder in the Collateral other than in accordance with the last sentence of the last paragraph of Section 13.1.

Section 13.3 Rescission. At any time after any Notes have been declared due and payable pursuant to Section 13.1(b), the Required Holders, by written notice to the Company (with a copy to the Notes Agent), may rescind and annul any such declaration and its consequences if (a) the Company has paid all overdue interest on the Notes and all principal of any Notes that is due and payable and is unpaid other than by reason of such declaration, and (b) all Events of Default, other than non-payment of amounts that have become due solely by reason of such declaration, have been cured or have been waived pursuant to Section 18. No rescission and annulment under this Section 13.3 will extend to or affect any subsequent Event of Default or impair any right consequent thereon.

Section 13.4 No Waivers or Election of Remedies, Expenses, Etc. No course of dealing and no delay on the part of any Holder, the Company's Agent or the Notes Agent in exercising any right, power or remedy shall operate as a waiver thereof or otherwise prejudice such Person's rights, powers or remedies. No right, power or remedy conferred by any Financing Document upon any Holder, the Company's Agent or the Notes Agent shall be exclusive of any other right, power or remedy referred to herein or therein or now or hereafter available at Law, in equity, by statute or otherwise. Without limiting the obligations of the Company under Section 17, the Company will pay to each Holder, the Company's Agent and the Notes Agent on demand such further amount as shall be sufficient to cover all costs and expenses of such Person incurred in any enforcement or collection under this Section 13, including reasonable attorneys' fees, expenses and disbursements.

Section 13.5 Proceeds of Collateral

(a) The Company agrees that it will not take or receive any Collateral (including Depositary Collateral) or any proceeds of any Collateral in connection with the exercise of any right or remedy (including set-off) with respect to the Collateral, unless and until all Obligations have been settled and paid in full.

(b) Any proceeds of any Collateral received pursuant to any enforcement action or otherwise in respect of any Collateral following an Event of Default and the acceleration of the Notes shall be applied by the Notes Agent in accordance with Section 11.4(a):

Section 14. Registration; Exchange; Substitution of Notes.

Section 14.1 Registration of Notes. The Company, or if appointed at such time, the Company's Agent, shall keep a Register for the ownership and transfers of Notes. The name and address of each Holder, each transfer of a Note, including each Assignment and Assumption and the name and address of each transferee of one or more Notes and the remaining principal amount of, and interest accrued on, each Note shall be registered in the Register. If any Holder is a nominee, then (a) the name and address of the beneficial owner of such Note or Notes shall also be registered in such Register as an owner and holder thereof and (b) at any such beneficial owner's option, either such beneficial owner or its nominee may execute any amendment, waiver or consent pursuant to the Financing Documents. Prior to due presentment (if the Note is a Certificated Security) and registration of transfer, the Person in whose name any Note shall be registered in the Register shall be deemed and treated as the owner and holder thereof for all purposes hereof, and neither the Company nor the Company's Agent shall be affected by any notice or knowledge to the contrary. The Company, or if appointed at such time, the Company's Agent, shall give to any Holder that is an Institutional Investor promptly upon request therefor, a complete and correct copy of the names and addresses of all registered holders of Notes. Each Holder agrees to provide any information requested by the Company or the Company's Agent necessary for the Company or the Company's Agent to maintain its records and the Register and to ensure compliance with all applicable Laws. No assignment or transfer shall be effective unless and until it is properly recorded in the Register.

Section 14.2 Transfer and Exchange of Notes.

(a) Upon surrender of any Note at the address and to the attention of the Company's Agent (as specified in Section 19(a)(iii) or, if no Company's Agent is appointed, to the Company's designated officer (as specified in Section 19(a)(iv)) (which, for the avoidance of doubt, shall only require the physical delivery of a Note that was issued to a Holder in the form of a Certificated Security at such Holder's request), for registration of transfer or exchange (and in the case of a surrender for registration of transfer, accompanied by an Assignment and Assumption duly executed by the registered Holder of such Note or such Holder's attorney duly authorized in writing and accompanied by the relevant name, address and other information for notices of each transferee of such Note or part thereof), within ten Business Days thereafter, the Company shall execute and deliver one or more new Notes (and if requested by the Holder thereof, in the form of a Certificated Security) in exchange therefor, in an aggregate principal amount equal to the unpaid principal amount of the surrendered Note. A Note issued as an Uncertificated Security shall be deemed surrendered pursuant to this Section 14.2(a) if the Holder of such Note has provided written notice of such deemed surrender to the Company's Agent (or if no Company's Agent is appointed, the Company). Each such new Note shall be payable to such Person as such Holder may request and shall be substantially in the form of Schedule 1. Each such new Note shall be dated and bear interest from the date to which interest shall have been paid on the surrendered Note at the Interest Rate or dated the date of the surrendered Note if no interest shall have been paid thereon and shall reflect all PIK Interest added to such Note. The Company, or the Company's Agent on its behalf, may require payment of a sum sufficient to cover any stamp tax or governmental charge imposed in respect of any such transfer of Notes. Any transferee, by its acceptance of a Note registered in its name (or the name of its nominee), shall be deemed to have made the representations set forth in Section 6.

(b) Further Requirements. In addition to the other requirements of Section 14.2, and unless waived in whole or in part by the Company (other than in the case of subclause (i)(F) below, which shall not be waived), and with respect to clause (iv) below, unless waived in whole or in part by the Company's Agent, no Disposal of all or any portion of the Notes of a Purchaser may be made unless the following conditions are met:

(i) the transaction (A) complies with U.S. federal and any applicable state securities laws, (B) complies with all other applicable U.S. federal, state or non-U.S. laws, (C) shall not subject the Company to the registration or reporting requirements of the 1940 Act, (D) shall not subject the Company or any shareholder or any Affiliate of any of them to additional burdensome regulatory requirements, (E) shall not cause the Company to wind up or dissolve under the Company Trust Agreement, and (F) shall not cause all or any portion of the assets of the Company to constitute "plan assets" under ERISA or the Code or any state laws, regulations and administrative policies that are similar in purpose and intent to ERISA;

(ii) the transferee (and if it is a disregarded entity for U.S. federal income tax purposes, both its regarded owner and the transferee (if it were not disregarded)) has delivered an IRS Form W-9 (or successor form) or applicable IRS Form W-8 (or successor form) and any attachments to the Company's Agent on or about the date on which it acquired its Notes;

(iii) pursuant to such Disposal the transferee agrees to assume any and all obligations applicable to the transferor under this Agreement; provided that the Company, in its sole discretion, may waive the assumption of any obligations owing to the Company (but not the Agents) with respect to any transferee;

(iv) solely to the extent appointed at such time, the Company's Agent shall have received an administrative questionnaire, any required tax forms, and all documentation and other information reasonably required under applicable "know your customer" and anti-money laundering rules and regulations from the transferor; and

(v) the Company's Agent shall have received an officer's certificate, an Assignment and Assumption, a processing and recordation fee of $3,500 (provided that the Company's Agent, in its sole discretion, may elect to waiver such processing and recordation fee) and representations and warranties from the transferee and transferor as to the matters set forth in subclauses (i)(A) through (F) above.

(c) If any Person that is not a Qualified Purchaser at the time of acquisition shall become the owner of any Note or interest therein (any such Person, a "Non-Permitted Holder"), the Company may, promptly after discovery that such Person is a Non-Permitted Holder, send notice to such Non-Permitted Holder demanding that such Non-Permitted Holder transfer its interest to a Person that is not a Non-Permitted Holder within thirty (30) days of the date of such notice. If such Non-Permitted Holder fails to so transfer its Notes, the Company shall have the right, without further notice to the Non-Permitted Holder, to sell such Notes or interests therein to a purchaser selected the Company or the Required Holders that is not a Non-Permitted Holder, on such terms as the Company or the Required Holders may choose. The proceeds of any such sale, net of any commissions, expenses and taxes due in connection with such sale, shall be remitted to the Non-Permitted Holder.

(d) Any attempted assignment or transfer made in violation of this Section 14.2 shall be null and void.

For the avoidance of doubt, neither the consent of the Company nor the Company's Agent shall be required in connection with any assignment or transfer made pursuant to this Section 14.2.

Neither the Notes Agent nor the Company's Agent shall have any obligation or duty to monitor, determine or inquire as to compliance with any restrictions on transfer imposed under this Agreement or under applicable law with respect to any transfer of any interest in any Note other than to require delivery of such certificates and other documentation or evidence as are expressly required by, and to do so if and when expressly required by the terms of, this Agreement, and to examine the same to determine substantial compliance as to form with the express requirements hereof. Neither the Notes Agent nor the Company's Agent shall act as, or be deemed to act as, transfer agent or registrar under Article 8 of the UCC or Section 17A(c) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, hereunder or under any other Financing Document.

Section 14.3 Replacement of Notes. In the case of any Note that is a Certificated Security, upon receipt by the Company at the address and to the attention of the Company's designated officer (as specified in Section 19(a)(iv) and, if applicable at such time, the Company's Agent (as specified in Section 19(a)(iii)) of evidence reasonably satisfactory to it of the ownership of and the loss, theft, destruction or mutilation of such Note (which evidence shall be, in the case of an Institutional Investor, written notice from such Institutional Investor of such ownership and such loss, theft, destruction or mutilation), and

(a) in the case of loss, theft or destruction, of indemnity reasonably satisfactory to it, or

(b) in the case of mutilation, upon surrender and cancellation thereof, within ten Business Days thereafter, the Company, at its own expense, shall, if requested by the Holder, execute and deliver, in lieu thereof, a new Note, dated and bearing interest from the date to which interest shall have been paid on such lost, stolen, destroyed or mutilated Note or dated the date of such lost, stolen, destroyed or mutilated Note if no interest shall have been paid thereon. Otherwise, such replacement Note shall be issued as an Uncertificated Security.

Section 14.4 Evidence of Indebtedness. The Notes and the Company's obligation to repay the Notes with interest and all other amounts due under this Agreement in accordance with the terms of this Agreement shall be evidenced by this Agreement, the Notes and the records of the Holders. The Register and the records of the Holders shall be prima facie evidence of the ownership of the Notes and amounts payable under this Agreement and the Notes and all payments made in respect thereof. The Company authorizes the Holders to make such recordations, which shall be conclusive and binding on the Company absent manifest error, provided that the failure of any Holder to make any such recordation shall not affect the obligations of the Company hereunder. The Company will notify the Holders promptly of any errors, unauthorized transactions or irregularities reflected in the confirmations and other account records sent by the Holders to the Company and the Notes Agent. In the event of any conflict between the records of the Holders and the Register, the Register shall control in the absence of manifest error. The books and records of the Holders include all books and records in any form (including all electronic media) which at any time may evidence or contain information relating hereto.

Section 14.5 Company's Agent; Platform.

(a) Appointment of Company's Agent. The Company may from time to time appoint, and may at any time cancel the appointment of, the Company's Agent to provide administrative services with respect to maintenance of the Register and the transfer, exchange and replacement of Notes under this Section 14 as well as certain other administrative services on behalf of the Company under this Agreement, including serving as paying agent and distributing any notices and documents required to be delivered by the Company to the Holders. The Company has appointed U.S. Bank Trust Company, National Association as the initial Company's Agent. In the event such appointment is cancelled or any other appointment shall be made, the Company shall give written notice to the Holders of any such cancellation of appointment or appointment, which notice shall set forth the name, delivery and mailing address, e-mail address, facsimile number and other information for notices for the Company or any replacement Company's Agent. During such time as a Person is appointed to serve as the Company's Agent, every act, omission, undertaking, notice, document delivery or other communication by the Company's Agent in such capacity shall be binding for all purposes on the Company as if such act, omission, notice, document delivery or other communication had been performed, omitted, given, delivered or communicated by the Company. In the event of any conflict between the duties and obligations of U.S. Bank Trust Company, National Association (or any successor) in its capacities as Company's Agent and Notes Agent, U.S. Bank Trust Company, National Association (or any successor) shall be entitled to comply with its duties and obligations as Notes Agent, and shall incur no liability therefor.

(b) Platform. Each Agent may deliver or furnish Company Materials to the Holders by electronic communication (including e-mail and Internet or intranet websites) pursuant to procedures approved by such Agent, including by posting the Company Materials on the Platform.

(c) Each of the Company and the Holders acknowledges and agrees that the distribution of material through an electronic medium is not necessarily secure, that neither Agent is responsible for approving or vetting the representatives or contacts of any Holder that are added to the Platform, and that there are confidentiality and other risks associated with such distribution. Each of the Company and the Holders hereby approves distribution of the Company Materials through the Platform and understands and assumes the risks of such distribution.

(d) THE PLATFORM AND THE COMPANY MATERIALS ARE PROVIDED "AS IS" AND "AS AVAILABLE". THE COMPANY'S AGENT AND ITS RELATED PARTIES DO NOT WARRANT THE ACCURACY OR COMPLETENESS OF THE COMPANY MATERIALS, OR THE ADEQUACY OF THE PLATFORM AND EXPRESSLY DISCLAIM LIABILITY FOR ERRORS IN OR OMISSIONS FROM THE PLATFORM AND THE COMPANY MATERIALS. NO WARRANTY OF ANY KIND, EXPRESS, IMPLIED OR STATUTORY, INCLUDING ANY WARRANTY OF MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE, NON-INFRINGEMENT OF THIRD PARTY RIGHTS OR FREEDOM FROM VIRUSES OR OTHER CODE DEFECTS, IS MADE BY THE COMPANY'S AGENT OR ITS RELATED PARTIES IN CONNECTION WITH THE COMPANY MATERIALS OR THE PLATFORM. In no event shall any Agent or its Related Parties have any liability to the Company, any Holder or any other Person for losses, claims, damages, liabilities or expenses of any kind (whether in tort, contract or otherwise) arising out of the Company's or such Agent's transmission of the Company Materials through the Internet, except to the extent that such losses, claims, damages, liabilities or expenses are determined by a court of competent jurisdiction by a final and non-appealable judgment to have resulted from the fraud, bad faith, gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Company's Agent. In no event shall any Agent or its Related Parties have any liability to the Company, any Holder or any other Person for indirect, special, incidental, consequential or punitive damages (as opposed to direct or actual damages).

(e) Each Holder agrees that notice to it (as provided in the next sentence) specifying that the Company Materials have been posted to the Platform shall constitute effective delivery of the Company Materials to such Holder for purposes of the Financing Documents. Each Holder agrees (i) to notify each Agent in writing (which could be in the form of electronic communication) from time to time of such Holder's email address to which the foregoing notice may be sent by electronic transmission and (ii) that the foregoing notice may be sent to such email address.

(f) Each of the Company and the Holders agrees that each Agent may, but (except as may be required by applicable law) shall not be obligated to, store the Company Materials on the Platform in accordance with such Agent's generally applicable document retention procedures and policies.

Section 15. Payments on Notes.

Section 15.1 Payment. So long as any Purchaser or its nominee shall be the Holder of any Note, and notwithstanding anything contained in such Note to the contrary, the Company will pay all sums becoming due on such Note for principal, interest and all other amounts becoming due hereunder by the method and at the address specified for such purpose below such Purchaser's name in the Register, or by such other method or at such other address as such Purchaser shall have from time to time specified to the Company in writing for such purpose, without the presentation or surrender of such Note or the making of any notation thereon, except that upon written request of the Company made concurrently with or reasonably promptly after payment or prepayment in full of any Note, such Purchaser shall surrender any such Note issued as a Certificated Security for cancellation, reasonably promptly after any such request, to the Company at its principal executive office or at the place of payment most recently designated by the Company. Prior to any sale or other Disposition of any Note issued as a Certificated Security held by a Purchaser or its nominee, such Purchaser will, at its election, either endorse thereon the amount of principal paid thereon and the last date to which interest has been paid thereon or surrender such Note to the Company in exchange for a new Note or Notes pursuant to Section 14.2. The Company will afford the benefits of this Section 15.1 to any Institutional Investor that is the direct or indirect transferee of any Note purchased by a Purchaser under this Agreement and that has made the same agreement relating to such Note as the Purchasers have made in this Section 15.1.

Section 15.2 Tax Forms; Transfers.

(a) All payments under the Financing Documents will be made by the Company free and clear of, and without liability for withholding or deduction for or on account of, any present or future Taxes of whatever nature imposed or levied by or on behalf of any jurisdiction (or any political subdivision or taxing authority of or in such jurisdiction) (hereinafter a "Taxing Jurisdiction"), unless the withholding or deduction of such Tax is compelled by Law. If any deduction or withholding for any Tax of a Taxing Jurisdiction shall at any time be required in respect of any amounts to be paid by the Company under the Financing Documents, the Company will pay to the relevant Taxing Jurisdiction the full amount required to be withheld, deducted or otherwise paid, which withheld, deducted or otherwise paid amount shall be treated as having been paid by the Company to the applicable Holder or other recipient for all purposes of this Agreement.

(b) By acceptance of any Note, the Holder of such Note agrees that it will from time to time with reasonable promptness (i) duly execute, complete and deliver to or as reasonably directed by the Company all such forms, certificates, documents and returns provided to such Holder by the Company (collectively, together with instructions for completing the same, "Forms") required to be filed by or on behalf of such Holder to avoid or reduce any Tax described in Section 15.2(a) pursuant to the provisions of an applicable statute, regulation or administrative practice of the relevant Taxing Jurisdiction. Nothing in this Section 15.2(b) shall require any Holder to provide information that is confidential or proprietary to such Holder unless the Company is required to obtain such information under applicable Law and, in such event, the Company shall treat any such information it receives as confidential.

(c) By acceptance of any Note, the Holder of such Note agrees that such Holder will with reasonable promptness duly execute, complete and deliver to the Company, or to such other Person as may be reasonably requested by the Company, from time to time, and shall update or replace as may be necessary (i) such information or documentation as may be necessary for the Company to comply with its obligations under CRS, (ii) in the case of any such Holder that is a United States Person, such Holder's United States tax identification number or other Forms reasonably requested by the Company necessary to establish such Holder's status as a United States Person under FATCA and as may otherwise be necessary for the Company to comply with its obligations under FATCA and (iii) in the case of any such Holder that is not a United States Person, such documentation prescribed by applicable Law (including as prescribed by section 1471(b)(3)(C)(i) of the Code) and such additional documentation as may be necessary for the Company to comply with its obligations under FATCA and to determine that such Holder has complied with such Holder's obligations under FATCA or to determine the amount (if any) to deduct and withhold from any such payment made to such Holder. Nothing in this Section 15.2(c) shall require any Holder to provide information that is confidential or proprietary to such Holder unless the Company is required to obtain such information under FATCA and, in such event, the Company shall treat any such information it receives as confidential.

(d) The parties hereto will treat the Notes as indebtedness for all U.S. federal (and applicable state and local) income tax purposes and will not take any position inconsistent therewith.

Section 16. Expenses, Etc.

Section 16.1 Transaction Expenses. The Company will pay all reasonable and documented costs and out-of-pocket expenses (including reasonable and documented out-of-pocket attorneys' fees of one counsel for the Notes Agent and the Company's Agent) incurred by the Notes Agent and the Company's Agent in connection with the negotiation, preparation, execution, delivery, performance and administration of this Agreement, the other Financing Documents and the Fee Letter, and any amendments, supplements, modifications, waivers or consents under or in respect thereof (whether or not such amendment, waiver or consent becomes effective), including: (a) the costs and expenses incurred in preserving, protecting, enforcing or defending any rights under the Financing Documents or the Fee Letter or in responding to any subpoena or other legal process or informal investigative demand issued in connection therewith, or by reason of being a Holder, the Company's Agent or the Notes Agent, and (b) the costs and expenses, incurred in connection with the insolvency or bankruptcy of the Company or in connection with any work-out or restructuring of the transactions contemplated by the Financing Documents.

The Company will pay, and will save each Purchaser and each other Holder, the Company's Agent and the Notes Agent harmless from, any judgment, liability, claim, order, decree, fine, penalty, cost, fee, expense (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) or obligation resulting from the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Financing Documents, including the use of the proceeds of the Notes by the Company, except amounts resulting from (x) the fraud, gross negligence, willful misconduct or bad faith of the related Purchaser or Holder, as applicable or (y) the fraud, gross negligence willful misconduct or bad faith of the Notes Agent as determined by a final, non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

Section 16.2 Certain Taxes. The Company agrees to pay all stamp, documentary or similar taxes or fees which may be payable in respect of the execution, delivery, filing or the enforcement of any Financing Document (other than the Notes) or the execution and delivery (but not the transfer) or the enforcement of any of the Notes in the United States or any other jurisdiction of organization of the Company or of any amendment, supplement, or modification of, or waiver or consent under or with respect to, any Financing Document, and will save each Holder, the Notes Agent and the Depositary Bank to the extent permitted by applicable Law harmless against any loss or liability resulting from nonpayment or delay in payment of any such tax or fee required to be paid by the Company under the Financing Documents.

Section 16.3 Survival. The obligations of the Company under this Section 16 will survive the payment or transfer of any Note, the repayment, satisfaction or discharge of the Obligations, the resignation or replacement of the Notes Agent, the enforcement, amendment or waiver of any provision of the Financing Documents, and the termination of the Financing Documents.

Section 17. Survival of Representations and Warranties; Entire Agreement. All representations and warranties contained herein shall survive the execution and delivery of the Financing Documents, the purchase or transfer by any Purchaser of any Note or portion thereof or interest therein and the payment of any Note, and may be relied upon by each Purchaser, any subsequent Holder and the Notes Agent regardless of any investigation made at any time by or on behalf of such Purchaser, subsequent Holder or the Notes Agent. All statements contained in any certificate or other instrument delivered by or on behalf of the Company pursuant to the Financing Documents shall be deemed representations and warranties of the Company under the Financing Documents. Subject to the preceding sentence, this Agreement and the other Financing Documents embody the entire agreement and understanding between each Purchaser and the Company and supersede all prior agreements and understandings relating to the subject matter hereof.

Section 18. Amendment and Waiver.

Section 18.1 Requirements. The Financing Documents may be amended, and the observance of any term thereof may be waived (either retroactively or prospectively), only with the written consent of the Company and the Required Holders, except that:

(a) subject to clause (d) below, no amendment or waiver of any of Section 1 or Section 2 hereof, or any defined term (as it is used therein), will be effective as to any Purchaser unless consented to by such Purchaser in writing;

(b) subject to clause (d) below, without the written consent of the Super-Majority Holders, no amendment or waiver of any of Section 4 or Section 6, or any defined term (as it is used therein), or any amendment to any Financing Document that would have the effect of restricting any Holder's ability to assign its rights and obligations under any Financing Documents, will be effective;

(c) subject to clause (d) below, no amendment or waiver may, without the written consent of each Purchaser and each Holder,

(i) subject to Section 13 relating to acceleration or rescission, change the amount or time of any prepayment or payment of principal of, or reduce the rate or change the time of payment or method of computation of interest on the Notes,

(ii) amend the definition of "Required Holders," "Super-Majority Holders" or any other provision of any Financing Document specifying the number or percentage of Holders or Purchasers required to waiver, amend, modify or supplement any rights thereunder or make any determination or grant any consent thereunder;

(iii) amend Section 8.2, Section 11.4(a) or any other Financing Document affecting the order of priority of payments,

(iv) (A) release any material portion of the Collateral (including any change in the priority of any Lien thereon) or (B) (1) modify any Security Document other than in accordance with its terms in a manner materially adverse to any Holder or (2) terminate any Security Document other than in accordance with its terms, or

(v) amend the definition of "Financing Documents" in a manner materially adverse to any Holder, and

(d) no amendment or waiver may, without the written consent of the Notes Agent or the Company's Agent, as applicable, adversely affect the rights, duties benefits, privileges, protections or immunities of, or any fees, indemnities or other amounts payable to, the Notes Agent or the Company's Agent, as applicable.

Section 18.2 Solicitation of Holders of Notes.

(a) Solicitation. For any amendment or waiver that requires the consent of any Holder pursuant to Section 18.1, the Company will provide each Holder with sufficient information, in advance of the date a decision is required, to enable such Holder to make an informed and considered decision with respect to any proposed amendment, waiver or consent in respect of any of the provisions hereof or of the Notes.

(b) Notice of Final Amendments, Waivers and Consents. The Company will deliver, or cause to be delivered, executed or true and correct copies of each amendment, waiver or consent effected pursuant to this Section 18 to each Holder promptly following the date on which such amendment or waiver becomes effective or, with respect to any Holder consent or approval, the date on which it receives the consent or approval of, the requisite Holders, as applicable.

Section 18.3 Binding Effect, Etc. Any amendment or waiver effected in accordance with this Section 18 applies equally to all Holders and is binding upon them and upon each future Holder and upon the Company without regard to whether any Note has been marked to indicate such amendment or waiver. No such amendment or waiver will extend to or affect any obligation, covenant, agreement, Default or Event of Default not expressly amended or waived or impair any right consequent thereon. No course of dealing between the Company and any Holder or the Notes Agent and no delay in exercising any rights hereunder or under any Note shall operate as a waiver of any rights of any Holder or the Notes Agent.

Section 18.4 No Notes Held by Excluded Transferees, Etc. Excluded Transferees shall not hold any Notes. Any transfer in violation of this Section 18 shall be void ab initio. Without limiting the foregoing, if notwithstanding the foregoing an Excluded Transferee becomes a record or beneficial owner of any Notes, such Notes shall not be entitled to vote on any matter hereunder and shall be excluded from any calculation of any required vote including from both the numerator and denominator in any calculation of a percentage of Noteholders consenting to or directing any action.

(a) Except to the extent otherwise provided in Section 7.2, Section 14.5 or Section 19(b), all notices and communications provided for hereunder shall be in writing and sent (x) by email (provided that the sender shall send a confirming copy of such notice by registered or certified mail with return receipt requested (postage prepaid) if reasonably requested by the recipient), (y) by registered or certified mail with return receipt requested (postage prepaid), or (z) by an internationally recognized commercial delivery service (charges prepaid). Section 20. Notes Agent.

Section 20.1 Authorization and Action.

(a) Each of the Purchasers and the Holders hereby appoints U.S. Bank Trust Company, National Association to act on its behalf as the Notes Agent hereunder and under the other Financing Documents and authorizes the Notes Agent to take such actions on its behalf and to exercise such powers as are delegated to the Notes Agent by the terms hereof or thereof, together with such other actions and powers as are reasonably incidental thereto, including acting as the Notes Agent of the Purchasers for purposes of acquiring, holding and enforcing any and all Liens on the Collateral granted by the Company to secure any of the Obligations. The Notes Agent is authorized to, and shall enter into the Financing Documents (it being understood and agree that the Notes Agent and each of the Holders, and their respective successors and assigns, shall be subject to, and comply with, all terms and conditions of the Financing Documents).

(b) The provisions of this Section 20.1 are solely for the benefit of the Agents, the Purchasers and the Holders, and the Company shall not have any rights as a third-party beneficiary of any of such provisions. In performing its functions and duties hereunder, the Notes Agent does not assume, and shall not be deemed to have assumed, any obligation towards or relationship of agency or trust, or any fiduciary relationship or obligation, with or for the Purchasers, the Holders or the Company. The Company's Agent and its Related Parties, in their capacities as such, shall be deemed third-party beneficiaries of the Financing Documents with respect to any rights, privileges, protections, and immunities granted to the Company's Agent and its Related Parties thereunder.

(c) The Notes Agent shall not have, by reason hereof or of any of the other Financing Documents, any agency, trust or fiduciary relationship or obligation with or for the Purchasers, the Holders or any other Person (regardless of whether or not a Default or Event of Default has occurred), it being understood and agreed that the use of the term "agent" herein or in any other Financing Document (or any other similar term) with reference to the Notes Agent is not intended to connote any agency, trust or fiduciary or other implied obligations arising under any agency doctrine of any applicable Law, and that such term is used as a matter of market custom and is intended to create or reflect only an administrative relationship between contracting parties; and nothing herein or in any of the other Financing Documents, expressed or implied, is intended to or shall be so construed as to impose upon the Notes Agent any obligations, covenants, functions, responsibilities, or duties in respect hereof or of any of the other Financing Documents except as expressly set forth herein or therein. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Notes Agent shall not, except as expressly set forth herein and in the other Financing Documents, have any duty to disclose, and shall not be liable for the failure to disclose, any information relating to the Company or any of its Affiliates that is communicated to or obtained by the Person serving as the Notes Agent or any of its Affiliates in any capacity.

(d) The Notes Agent shall promptly make available to each Holder (at the address and contact information for such Holder set forth in the Register maintained pursuant to Section 14.1) any notices, reports, certificates or other documents delivered to it by the Company or the Company's Agent or any other Person in connection with the Financing Documents (it being agreed that the Notes Agent may distribute such notices, reports, certificates or other documents through the Platform). The Notes Agent shall provide such additional information available to it in its capacity as Notes Agent to a Holder as such Holder may reasonably request in connection with the Financing Documents and the transactions contemplated thereby.

(e) The Notes Agent may resign at any time upon written notice filed with the Bankruptcy Court and delivered to the Holders. Such notice shall specify a date when such resignation shall take effect, which shall not be less than ninety (90) days after the date such notice is given, where practicable. The Notes Agent may be removed by the Required Holders in their discretion. In the event of any vacancy in the office of the Notes Agent, such vacancy shall be filled by the Required Holders. Immediately upon the appointment of any successor Notes Agent, all rights, titles, duties, powers and authority of the predecessor Notes Agent hereunder shall be vested in and undertaken by the successor Notes Agent without any further act. No successor Notes Agent shall be liable personally for any act or omission of any predecessor Notes Agent. No predecessor Notes Agent shall be liable personally for any act or omission of any successor Notes Agent.

Section 20.2 Rights as a Purchaser or Holder.

(a) Each Purchaser and each Holder understands that the Notes Agent and its Affiliates are engaged in a wide range of financial services and businesses (including investment management, financing, securities trading, corporate and investment banking and research) (such services and businesses are collectively referred to in this Section 20.2 as "Activities") and may engage in the Activities with or on behalf of the Company or its Affiliates. Furthermore, the Notes Agent and its Affiliates may, in undertaking the Activities, engage in trading in financial products or undertake other investment businesses for their own account or on behalf of others (including the Company and its Affiliates and including holding, for their own account or on behalf of others, equity and similar positions in the Company or its Affiliates), including trading in or holding long, short or derivative positions in securities, loans or other financial products of the Company or its Affiliates. The Purchasers, the Holders and the Company understand and agree that in engaging in the Activities, the Notes Agent and its Affiliates may receive or otherwise obtain information concerning the Company or its Affiliates (including information concerning the ability of the Company to perform its obligations hereunder and under the other Financing Documents), which information may not be available to the Purchasers or the Holders if it is not an Affiliate of the Notes Agent. Neither the Notes Agent nor any of its Affiliates shall have any duty or responsibility to provide, and shall not be liable for the failure to provide, the Purchasers or Holders with any credit or other information concerning the business, prospects, operations, Property, financial and other condition or creditworthiness of the Company or any Affiliate of the Company that may come into the possession of the Notes Agent or any Affiliate thereof or any employee or agent of any of the foregoing.

(b) The Purchasers, the Holders and the Company further understand that there may be situations where parts of the Notes Agent or its customers (including the Company or its Affiliates) either now have or may in the future have interests or take actions that may conflict with the interests of the Purchasers or the Holders hereunder and under the other Financing Documents. The Purchasers, the Holders and the Company agree that the Notes Agent and its Affiliates are not required to restrict their activities as a result of the Notes Agent acting as the Notes Agent hereunder and under the other Financing Documents, and that the Notes Agent and its Affiliates may undertake any Activities without further consultation with or notification to the Purchasers, the Holders or the Company. Neither (i) this Agreement nor any other Security Document nor (ii) any other matter shall give rise to any fiduciary, equitable or contractual duties (including without limitation any duty of trust or confidence) owing by the Notes Agent or any of its Affiliates to the Purchasers, the Holders or the Company that would prevent or restrict the Notes Agent or its Affiliates from acting on behalf of customers (including the Company or its Affiliates) or for their own account. The Purchasers, the Holders and the Company agree that the Notes Agent and its Affiliates are not under a duty to disclose to the Purchasers, the Holders or the Company or use on behalf of the Purchasers, the Holders or the Company any information whatsoever about or derived from the Activities or to account for any revenue or profits obtained in connection with the Activities.

Section 20.3 Duties of the Notes Agent; Exculpatory Provisions.

(a) The Notes Agent's duties hereunder and under the other Financing Documents are solely mechanical and administrative in nature and the Notes Agent shall not have any duties or obligations except those expressly set forth herein and in the other Financing Documents. The permissive rights of the Notes Agent to take any actions permitted by this Agreement or any other Financing Document shall not be construed as an obligation or duty to do so. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Notes Agent shall be entitled to refrain from the taking of any action (including the failure to take an action) in connection herewith or with any of the other Financing Documents or from the exercise of any power, discretion or authority vested in it hereunder or thereunder unless and until the Notes Agent shall have received instructions in respect thereof from the Required Holders (or such other quorum of Holders as may be required, or as the Notes Agent shall believe in good faith to be required, to give such instructions under Section 18) and, upon receipt of such instructions from the Required Holders or such other Holders, as the case may be, the Notes Agent shall be entitled to act or (where so instructed) refrain from acting, or to exercise such power, discretion or authority, in accordance with such instructions; provided that the Notes Agent shall not be required to take any action that, in its opinion or the opinion of its counsel, could (i) expose the Notes Agent to liability or be contrary to any Financing Document or applicable Law or (ii) be in violation of the automatic stay under any requirement of law relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, or relief of debtors. The Notes Agent may seek clarification or further direction from the Required Holders (or such other quorum of Holders as may be required, or as the Notes Agent shall believe in good faith to be required, to give such instructions under Section 18) prior to taking any such directed action and may refrain from acting until such clarification or further direction has been provided. Before the Notes Agent acts or refrains from acting, it may require an officer's certificate or an opinion of counsel. The Notes Agent shall not be liable for any action it takes or omits to take in good faith in reliance on the officer's certificate or opinion of counsel.

(b) The Notes Agent and its Related Parties shall not be liable to the Purchasers or the Holders or any other Person for any action taken or omitted by the Notes Agent under or in connection with any of the Financing Documents (i) in accordance with the instructions of the Required Holders (or such other Holders, as may be required, or as the Notes Agent shall believe in good faith to be required, to give such instructions under Section 18) (and such action or omission pursuant thereto shall be binding upon all the Secured Parties) or (ii) in the absence of the Notes Agent's fraud, gross negligence, willful misconduct or bad faith as determined by a final, non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction (which shall not include any action taken or omitted to be taken in accordance with clause (i), for which the Notes Agent and its Related Parties shall have no liability). The Notes Agent shall not be deemed to have knowledge of any Default or Event of Default or the event or events that give or may give rise to any Default or Event of Default unless and until a Responsible Officer of the Notes Agent receives written notice of such Default, Event of Default or other event, stating that such notice is a "Notice of Default," at its notice address set forth in Section 19 herein, by the Company or any Purchaser or Holder. As used in this Agreement, "Responsible Officer" shall mean any officer assigned to the agency division (or any successor thereto) of the Notes Agent having direct responsibility for the administration of this Agreement. For clarity, information contained in reports shall not constitute actual or constructive knowledge on the part of the Notes Agent. For clarity, publicly available information or information contained in reports or other documents delivered to the Notes Agent shall not constitute actual or constructive knowledge or notice of a Default, Event of Default or other information contained in those reports or documents. The information actually known by the Notes Agent shall not be attributed or imputed to U.S. Bank Trust Company, National Association acting in any other capacity, or to any Affiliate, line of business, subsidiary or other division of U.S. Bank Trust Company, National Association, and information actually known by U.S. Bank Trust Company, National Association, acting in any capacity other than as the Notes Agent, shall not be attributed or imputed to the Notes Agent.

(c) The Notes Agent shall not be responsible or liable for or have any duty to ascertain or inquire into or monitor (i) any recital, statement, warranty or representation made in or in connection with this Agreement or any other Financing Document, (ii) the contents of any certificate, report or other document delivered hereunder or thereunder or in connection herewith or therewith, (iii) the performance or observance of any of the covenants, agreements or other terms or conditions set forth herein or therein, the use of the proceeds of the Notes, or the occurrence or possible occurrence of any Default or Event of Default, (iv) the execution, validity, enforceability, effectiveness, genuineness, collectability or sufficiency of this Agreement, any other Financing Document or any other agreement, instrument or document or the creation, preservation, perfection, maintenance or continuation of perfection or priority of any Lien or Security Interest created or purported to be created by the Security Documents, (v) the value or the sufficiency of the Collateral, (vi) whether the Collateral exists, is owned by the Company, is cared for, protected, insured, or maintained or has been encumbered or meets the eligibility criteria applicable in respect thereof, (vii) the satisfaction of any condition set forth in Section 4 or elsewhere herein, other than (but subject to the foregoing clause (ii)) to confirm receipt of items expressly required to be delivered to the Notes Agent or (viii) the Company's properties, books or records, or financial condition or business affairs. The Notes Agent shall not be required to expend or risk any of its own funds or otherwise incur any liability, financial or otherwise, in the performance of any of its duties under this Agreement or the other Financing Documents. The Notes Agent shall be under no obligation to exercise any of the rights or powers vested in it by this Agreement or the other Financing Documents at the request or direction of any Holder(s) or Secured Party(ies) unless such Holder(s) or Secured Party(ies) shall have offered and if requested, provided, to the Notes Agent security or indemnity (satisfactory to the Notes Agent in its sole and absolute discretion) against the costs, expenses and liabilities which may be incurred by it in compliance with such request or direction. In no event shall the Notes Agent be responsible or liable for special, indirect, punitive, incidental or consequential loss or damage of any kind whatsoever (including, but not limited to, loss of profit) irrespective of whether the Notes Agent has been advised of the likelihood of such loss or damage and regardless of the form of action. Without limiting the other protections set forth in this Section 20.3, with respect to any determination, designation, or judgment to be made by the Notes Agent herein or in the other Financing Documents, the Notes Agent shall be entitled to request that the Required Holders (or such other Holders, as may be required, or as the Notes Agent shall believe in good faith to be required, to give such instructions under Section 18) make or confirm such determination, designation, or judgment.

(d) Nothing in this Agreement or any other Financing Document shall require the Notes Agent to carry out any "know your customer" or other checks in relation to any person on behalf of any Purchaser or Holder and each Purchaser and Holder confirms to the Notes Agent that it is solely responsible for any such checks it is required to carry out and that it may not rely on any statement in relation to such checks made by the Notes Agent.

Section 20.4 Reliance by the Notes Agent.

(a) The Notes Agent shall be entitled to rely upon, and shall not incur any liability for relying upon, any notice, request, certificate (including any Account Withdrawal Certificate), orders, consent, statement, instrument, document or other writing or communications (including any telephonic notice, electronic message, internet or intranet website posting or other distribution) believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed, sent or otherwise provided by the proper Person (whether or not such Person in fact meets the requirements set forth in the Financing Documents for being the signatory, sender or provider thereof) and on opinions and judgments of attorneys (who may be attorneys for the Company), accountants, experts and other professional advisors selected by it.

(b) The Notes Agent also may rely upon any statement made to it orally or by telephone and believed by it to have been made by the proper Person, and shall not incur any liability for relying thereon.

(c) The Notes Agent shall be entitled to rely on the Register and on information provided to it by each Holder with respect to such Holder's identity and the principal amounts outstanding with respect to such Holder under this Agreement, such Holder's Note and the other Financing Documents, and may rely on information provided to it by each Holder with respect to any other amounts payable to such Holder under the Financing Documents, including under Section 13.5(b).

(d) The Notes Agent may exercise its powers and execute any of its duties under this Agreement and the Financing Documents by or through employees, agents (including co-agents and sub-agents) or attorneys-in-fact and shall be entitled to take and to rely on (and shall not be liable for any action taken or omitted to be taken by it in accordance with) advice of counsel concerning all matters pertaining to such powers and duties. The Notes Agent and any such employees, agents and attorneys-in-fact may perform any and all of its duties and exercise its rights and powers by or through their respective Related Parties. The Notes Agent shall not be responsible for the misconduct or negligence of any employees, agents and attorneys-in-fact appointed with due care. All provisions of this Section 20.4 and Section 16 and all other rights, privileges, protections, immunities, and indemnities granted to the Notes Agent hereunder and under the other Financing Documents shall apply to any such employees, agents and attorneys-in-fact, and to the Related Parties of the Notes Agent, including the Company's Agent, and any such employees, agents and attorneys-in-fact. The Notes Agent shall not be responsible for the negligence or misconduct of any agents or attorneys-in-fact selected by it in good faith. The Notes Agent may utilize the services of such Persons as the Notes Agent in its sole discretion may determine, and the Company will pay all such reasonable and documented fees and expenses upon written demand from the Notes Agent in accordance with Section 16.

Section 20.5 Non-Reliance on Notes Agent and Other Holders.

(a) Each Purchaser and each Holder represents and warrants to the Notes Agent, each other Purchaser and Holder and each of their respective Related Parties that it (i) possesses such knowledge and experience in financial and business matters that it is capable, without reliance on the Notes Agent, any other Purchaser or Holder or any of their respective Related Parties, of evaluating the merits and risks (including tax, legal, regulatory, accounting and other financial matters) of entering into the Financing Documents, purchasing the Notes and in taking or not taking actions hereunder and thereunder, (ii) is financially able to bear such risk and (iii) has determined that entering into the Financing Documents and purchasing the Notes is suitable and appropriate for it.

(b) Each Purchaser and each Holder acknowledges that it is solely responsible for making its own independent appraisal and investigation of all risks arising under or in connection with this Agreement and the other Financing Documents and that it has, independently and without reliance upon the Notes Agent or any other Purchaser or Holder or any of their respective Related Parties and based on such documents and information, as it has deemed appropriate, made its own credit analysis and decision to enter into this Agreement and the other Financing Documents. Each Purchaser and each Holder also acknowledges that it will, independently and without reliance upon the Notes Agent or any other Purchaser or Holder or any of their Related Parties and based on such documents and information as it shall from time to time deem appropriate, continue to be solely responsible for making its own independent appraisal and investigation of all risks arising under or in connection with this Agreement and the other Financing Documents, including, but not limited to:

(i) the financial condition, status and capitalization of the Company;

(ii) the legality, validity, effectiveness, adequacy or enforceability of this Agreement and each other Financing Document and any other agreement, arrangement or document entered into, made or executed in anticipation of, under or in connection with any Financing Document;

(iii) determining compliance or non-compliance with any condition hereunder; and

(iv) the adequacy, accuracy and/or completeness of any information delivered by the Notes Agent and any other Purchaser or Holder or by any other Person under or in connection with this Agreement or any other Financing Document, the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and the other Financing Documents or any other agreement, arrangement or document entered into, made or executed in anticipation of, under or in connection with any Financing Document.

(c) Each Purchaser and each Holder, by delivering its signature page to this Agreement and each other Financing Document to which it is a party or by its acceptance of a Note on or after the Closing (as applicable) shall be deemed to have (i) acknowledged receipt of, and consented to and approved, each Financing Document and each other document required to be approved by the Required Holders or any other quorum of Holders, as applicable, on or after the Closing; (ii) authorized and directed the Notes Agent to enter into this Agreement and the other Financing Documents; and (iii) acknowledged and agreed that (x) the foregoing directed actions constitute a direction from all the Purchasers and Holders under this Section 20.5 and (y) this Section 20.5 and Section 16 and any other rights, privileges, protections, immunities and indemnities in favor of such Agent hereunder apply to any and all actions taken or not taken by such Agent in accordance with such instruction.

Section 20.6 No Other Duties, Etc. Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, neither the Company's Agent nor the Notes Agent shall have any powers, duties or responsibilities under this Agreement or any of the other Financing Documents, except in its capacity, as applicable, as the Company's Agent or the Notes Agent.

Section 20.7 Indemnification by Company, Purchasers and Holders.

(a) The Company agrees to indemnify the Notes Agent and its Related Parties (each, an "Agent Indemnitee") from and against of any and all claims, liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, fees, costs, expenses or disbursements of any kind or nature (including reasonable attorney's fees and expenses and the costs of enforcement of this Agreement, the other Financing Documents or any provision hereof or thereof) whatsoever that may be imposed on, incurred by, or asserted against such Agent Indemnitee in any way relating to or arising out of the Financing Documents or any action taken or omitted by such Agent Indemnitee or under the Financing Documents (collectively, the "Indemnified Costs"); provided that the Company shall not be liable for any portion of such claims, liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses or disbursements resulting from the Notes Agent's fraud, gross negligence, willful misconduct or bad faith as determined by a final, non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction. In the case of any investigation, litigation or proceeding giving rise to any Indemnified Costs, this Section 20.7 applies whether any such investigation, litigation or proceeding is brought by any Purchaser or any Holder or any other Person.

Section 20.8 Force Majeure. Neither Company's Agent nor the Notes Agent shall be responsible or liable for any failure or delay in the performance of its obligations under this Agreement or the other Financing Documents arising out of or caused, directly or indirectly, by circumstances beyond its control, including any act or provision of any present or future law or regulation or governmental authority; acts of God; earthquakes; fires; floods; wars; terrorism; civil or military disturbances; sabotage; epidemics; pandemics; riots; interruptions, loss or malfunctions of utilities, computer (hardware or software) or communications service; accidents; labor disputes; acts of civil or military authority or governmental actions; or the unavailability of the Federal Reserve Bank wire or telex or other wire or communication facility; it being understood that each of the Company's Agent and the Notes Agent shall use commercially reasonable efforts to resume performance as soon as practicable under the circumstances and minimize the disruption of any such events on the performance of its obligations under this Agreement or the other Financing Documents.

Section 20.9 Withholding Tax. To the extent required by applicable Law, the Notes Agent may withhold from any payment to any Secured Party an amount equivalent to any applicable withholding tax. Each Secured Party shall, and does hereby, indemnify the Notes Agent, and shall make payment in respect thereof within 10 days after demand therefor, against any and all taxes and any and all related losses, claims, liabilities and expenses (including fees, charges and disbursements of any counsel for the Notes Agent) incurred by or asserted against the Notes Agent by the IRS or any other Governmental Authority as a result of the failure of the Notes Agent to properly withhold tax from amounts paid to or for the account of such Secured Party for any reason (including, without limitation, because the appropriate form was not delivered or not properly executed, or because such Secured Party failed to notify the Notes Agent of a change in circumstance that rendered the exemption from, or reduction of withholding tax ineffective), whether or not such taxes were correctly or legally imposed or asserted by the relevant Governmental Authority except to the extent that the Notes Agent acted with fraud, gross negligence, willful misconduct or bad faith as determined by a final, non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction. A certificate as to the amount of such payment or liability delivered to such Secured Party by the Notes Agent shall be conclusive absent manifest error. Each Secured Party hereby authorizes the Notes Agent to set off and apply any and all amounts at any time owing to it under this Agreement or any other Financing Document against any amount due the Notes Agent under this Section 20.9.

Section 20.10 Erroneous Payments.

(a) Each Purchaser and Holder hereby agrees that if an Agent notifies such Purchaser or Holder that such Agent, as applicable, has determined in its sole discretion that any funds received by such Purchaser or Holder from the Company or such Agent (or any of its Affiliates) were erroneously or mistakenly transmitted to, or otherwise erroneously or mistakenly received by, such Purchaser or Holder (whether or not known to such Purchaser or Holder, as applicable) (whether as a payment, prepayment or repayment of principal, interest, fees or otherwise; individually and collectively, an "Erroneous Payment") and demands the return of such Erroneous Payment (or a portion thereof), such Purchaser or Holder shall promptly, but in no event later than five (5) Business Days thereafter, return to the Company or such Agent, as applicable, the amount of any such Erroneous Payment (or portion thereof) as to which such a demand was made, in same day funds (in the currency so received), together with interest thereon in respect of each day from and including the date such Erroneous Payment (or portion thereof) was received by such Purchaser or Holder to the date such amount is repaid to the Company or such Agent, as applicable, in same day funds at the greater of the Federal Funds Rate and a rate determined by the Company or such Agent, as applicable, in accordance with banking industry rules on interbank compensation from time to time in effect. A notice of an Agent to any Purchaser or Holder under this clause (a) shall be conclusive, absent manifest error.

(b) Without limiting immediately preceding clause (a), each Purchaser or Holder hereby further agrees that if it receives a payment from the Company or an Agent (or any of its Affiliates) (x) that is in a different amount than, or on a different date from, that specified in a notice of payment sent by such Agent, (y) that was not preceded or accompanied by notice of payment, or (z) that such Purchaser or Holder otherwise becomes aware was transmitted, or received, in error or by mistake (in whole or in part), then in each case, if an error has been made each such Purchaser or Holder is deemed to have knowledge of such error at the time of receipt of such Erroneous Payment. In the case of clause (a) or this clause (b), to the extent permitted by applicable law, such Purchaser or Holder shall not assert any right or claim to the Erroneous Payment, and hereby waives, any claim, counterclaim, defense or right of set-off or recoupment with respect to any demand, claim or counterclaim by the Company or such Agent for the return of any Erroneous Payments received, including without limitation waiver of any defense based on "discharge for value" or any similar theory or doctrine. Each Purchaser and Holder agrees that, in each such case, it shall promptly (and, in all events, within two (2) Business Days of its knowledge or deemed knowledge of such error) notify the Company or such Agent, as applicable, of such occurrence and, upon demand from the Company or such Agent, it shall promptly, but in all events no later than five (5) Business Days thereafter, return to the Company or such Agent, as applicable, the amount of any such Erroneous Payment (or portion thereof) as to which such a demand was made in same day funds (in the currency so received), together with interest thereon in respect of each day from and including the date such Erroneous Payment (or portion thereof) was received by such Purchaser or Holder to the date such amount is repaid to the Company or such Agent, as applicable, in same day funds at the greater of the Federal Funds Rate and a rate determined by the Company or such Agent in accordance with banking industry rules on interbank compensation from time to time in effect.

(c) The Company hereby agrees that (x) in the event an Erroneous Payment (or portion thereof) is not recovered from any Purchaser or Holder that has received such Erroneous Payment (or portion thereof) for any reason (and without limiting any Agent's rights and remedies under this Section 20.10), such Agent shall be subrogated to all the rights of such Purchaser or Holder with respect to such amount and (y) an Erroneous Payment shall not pay, prepay, repay, discharge or otherwise satisfy any Obligations owed by the Company; provided that such Erroneous Payment was made as a result of directions or information provided by the Company to the applicable Agent or was not made with funds provided by the Company.

(d) In addition to any rights and remedies of the Agents provided by law, each Agent shall have the right, without prior notice to any Purchaser or Holder, any such notice being expressly waived by such Purchaser or Holder to the extent permitted by applicable law, with respect to any Erroneous Payment for which a demand has been made in accordance with this Section 20.10 and which has not been returned to such Agent, to set off and appropriate and apply against such amount any and all deposits (general or special, time or demand, provisional or final but excluding trust accounts), in any currency, and any other credits, indebtedness or claims, in any currency, in each case whether direct or indirect, absolute or contingent, matured or unmatured, at any time held or owing by such Agent or any of its Affiliates, branch or agency thereof to or for the credit or the account of such Purchaser or Holder. Each Agent agrees promptly to notify the Purchaser or Holder after any such setoff and application made by such Agent; provided, that the failure to give such notice shall not affect the validity of such setoff and application.

(e) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in any other Financing Document, (x) the Company has not acquired or incurred (or will acquire or incur) any additional obligations under this Section 20.10, and (y) except with respect to the rights of the Company under Section 20.10(b) and the agreements of the Company under Section 20.10(c), the rights and obligations of the Company shall not be affected by this Section 20.10 and this Section 20.10 shall solely be an agreement between the Agents and each Purchaser and Holder, and not the Company.

Section 20.11 Survival. The provisions of this Section 20 shall survive the resignation or removal of the Notes Agent, the payment or transfer of any Note, the repayment, satisfaction or discharge of the Obligations, the enforcement, amendment or waiver of any provision of the Financing Documents, and the termination of the Financing Documents.

Section 20.12 Acts of Holders.

(a) Any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other action provided by this Agreement to be given or taken by Holders may be embodied in and evidenced by one or more instruments of substantially similar tenor signed by such Holders in Person or by an agent duly appointed in writing. Except as herein otherwise expressly provided, such action shall become effective when such instrument or instruments or record or both are delivered to the Notes Agent and, where it is hereby expressly required, to the Company. Proof of execution of any such instrument or of a writing appointing any such agent, or the holding by any Person of a Note, shall be sufficient for any purpose of this Agreement and conclusive in favor of the Notes Agent and the Company, if made in the manner provided in this Section 20.12.

Where such execution is by or on behalf of any legal entity other than an individual, such certificate or affidavit shall also constitute proof of the authority of the Person executing the same. The fact and date of the execution of any such instrument or writing, or the authority of the Person executing the same, may also be proved in any other manner that the Notes Agent deems sufficient.

(c) The ownership of Notes shall be proved by the Register.

(d) Any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or other action by the Holder of any Note shall bind every future Holder of the same Notes and the Holder of every Note issued upon the registration of transfer thereof or in exchange therefor or in lieu thereof, in respect of any action taken, suffered or omitted by the Notes or the Company in reliance thereon, whether or not notation of such action is made upon such Note.

(e) The Company may set a record date for purposes of determining the identity of Holders entitled to give any request, demand, authorization, direction, notice, consent, waiver or take any other act, or to vote or consent to any action by vote or consent authorized or permitted to be given or taken by Holders. Unless otherwise specified, if not set by the Company prior to the first solicitation of a Holder made by any Person in respect of any such action, or in the case of any such vote, prior to such vote, any such record date shall be the later of 30 days prior to the first solicitation of such consent or the date of the most recent list of Holders furnished to the Notes Agent prior to such solicitation.

(f) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, a Holder entitled to take any action hereunder with regard to any particular Note may do so with regard to all or any part of the principal amount of such Notes or by one or more duly appointed agents, each of which may do so pursuant to such appointment with regard to all or any part of such principal amount. Any notice given or action taken by a Holder or its agents with regard to different parts of such principal amount shall have the same effect as if given or taken by separate Holders of each such different part.

Section 21. Miscellaneous.

Section 21.1 Successors and Assigns. All covenants and other agreements contained in the Financing Documents by or on behalf of any of the parties hereto bind and inure to the benefit of their respective successors and assigns (including any subsequent Holder) whether so expressed or not, except that, subject to Section 10.2, the Company may not assign or otherwise transfer any of its rights or obligations hereunder or under the Notes without the prior written consent of each Holder and the Notes Agent. Nothing in the Financing Documents, expressed or implied, shall be construed to confer upon any Person (other than the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns permitted hereby) any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim under or by reason of the Financing Documents. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, any business entity into which the Notes Agent or the Company's Agent may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated or any entity resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Notes Agent or the Company's Agent shall be a party, or any entity succeeding to all or substantially all of the corporate trust business of the Notes Agent or the Company's Agent, shall be the successor of the Notes Agent or the Company's Agent hereunder, as applicable, without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto.

Section 21.2 Accounting Terms. All accounting terms used herein which are not expressly defined in this Agreement have the meanings respectively given to them in accordance with the Accounting Principles. Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, (i) all computations made pursuant to the Financing Documents shall be made in accordance with the Accounting Principles, and (ii) all financial statements shall be prepared in accordance with the Accounting Principles. For purposes of determining compliance with this Agreement (including Section 9, Section 10 and the definition of "Indebtedness"), any election by the Company to measure any financial liability using fair value (as permitted by Financial Accounting Standards Board Accounting Standards Codification Topic No. 825-10-25 – Fair Value Option, International Accounting Standard 39 – Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement or any similar accounting standard) shall be disregarded and such determination shall be made as if such election had not been made.

Section 21.3 Severability. Any provision of this Agreement that is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability without invalidating the remaining provisions hereof, and any such prohibition or unenforceability in any jurisdiction shall (to the full extent permitted by law) not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction.

Section 21.4 Construction, Etc. Each covenant contained herein shall be construed (absent express provision to the contrary) as being independent of each other covenant contained herein, so that compliance with any one covenant shall not (absent such an express contrary provision) be deemed to excuse compliance with any other covenant. Where any provision herein refers to action to be taken by any Person, or which such Person is prohibited from taking, such provision shall be applicable whether such action is taken directly or indirectly by such Person.

Defined terms herein shall apply equally to the singular and plural forms of the terms defined. Whenever the context may require, any pronoun shall include the corresponding masculine, feminine and neuter forms. The words "include," "includes" and "including" shall be deemed to be followed by the phrase "without limitation." The word "will" shall be construed to have the same meaning and effect as the word "shall." Unless the context requires otherwise (a) any definition of or reference to any agreement, instrument or other document herein shall be construed as referring to such agreement, instrument or other document as from time to time amended, restated, supplemented or otherwise modified (subject to any restrictions on such amendments, restatements, supplements or modifications set forth herein) and, for purposes of the Notes, shall also include any such notes issued in substitution therefor pursuant to Section 14, (b) subject to Section 21.1, any reference herein to any Person shall be construed to include such Person's successors and assigns, (c) the words "herein," "hereof" and "hereunder," and words of similar import, shall be construed to refer to this Agreement in its entirety and not to any particular provision hereof, (d) all references herein to Sections and Schedules shall be construed to refer to Sections of, and Schedules to, this Agreement, and (e) any reference to any law or regulation herein shall, unless otherwise specified, refer to such law or regulation as amended, modified or supplemented from time to time.

Section 21.5 Counterparts; Electronic Contracting.

(a) This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be an original but all of which together shall constitute one instrument. Each counterpart may consist of a number of copies hereof, each signed by less than all, but together signed by all, of the parties hereto. The parties agree to electronic contracting and signatures with respect to this Agreement and the other Financing Documents (other than the Notes). Delivery of an electronic signature to, or a signed copy of, this Agreement and such other Financing Documents (other than the Notes) by facsimile, email or other electronic transmission shall be fully binding on the parties to the same extent as the delivery of the signed originals and shall be admissible into evidence for all purposes. The words "execution," "execute", "signed," "signature," and words of like import in or related to any document to be signed in connection with this Agreement and the other Financing Documents (other than the Notes) shall be deemed to include electronic signatures, the electronic matching of assignment terms and contract formations on electronic platforms approved by the Company, or the keeping of records in electronic form, each of which shall be of the same legal effect, validity or enforceability as a manually executed signature or the use of a paper-based recordkeeping system, as the case may be, to the extent and as provided for in any applicable law, including the Federal Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act, the New York State Electronic Signatures and Records Act, or any other similar state laws based on the Uniform Electronic Transactions Act.

(b) If any Holder requests the delivery of a Note in the form of a Certificated Security, the parties agree to electronic contracting and signatures with respect to each Note requested to be delivered hereunder in registered form. Delivery of an electronic signature to, or a signed copy of, any Note in the name of a particular Purchaser by facsimile, email or other electronic transmission shall be fully binding on the Company to the same extent as the delivery of the signed original of any such Note and shall be admissible into evidence for all purposes, and the Company hereby expressly waives any defense related to a Purchaser's failure to present an original Note. The Company further agrees that, if requested by a Holder, it shall produce an original manually signed Note for delivery to each Purchaser in accordance with the instructions provided by such Purchaser as soon as reasonably practicable (but in any event within 30 days of such request or such longer period as the requesting Purchaser and the Company may mutually agree).

Section 21.6 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be construed and enforced in accordance with, and the rights of the parties shall be governed by, the law of the State of New York, excluding choice of law principles of the law of such State that would permit the application of the laws of a jurisdiction other than such State.

Section 21.7 Jurisdiction and Process; Waiver of Jury Trial.

(a) The Company irrevocably submits to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of any New York State or federal court sitting in the Borough of Manhattan, The City of New York, over any suit, action or proceeding arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the Notes. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, the Company irrevocably waives and agrees not to assert, by way of motion, as a defense or otherwise, any claim that it is not subject to the jurisdiction of any such court, any objection that it may now or hereafter have to the laying of the venue of any such suit, action or proceeding brought in any such court and any claim that any such suit, action or proceeding brought in any such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum.

(b) The Company agrees, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, that a final judgment in any suit, action or proceeding of the nature referred to in this Section 21.7 brought in any such court shall be conclusive and binding upon it subject to rights of appeal, as the case may be, and may be enforced in the courts of the United States of America or the State of New York (or any other courts to the jurisdiction of which it or any of its assets is or may be subject) by a suit upon such judgment.

(c) The Company consents, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, to process being served by or on behalf of any Holder in any suit, action or proceeding of the nature referred to in Section 21.7 by mailing a copy thereof by registered, certified, priority or express mail, postage prepaid, return receipt or delivery confirmation requested, or delivering a copy thereof in the manner for delivery of notices specified in Section 19, to it at its address specified in Section 19 or at such other address of which such Holder shall have then been notified pursuant to Section 19. The Company agrees that such service upon receipt (i) shall be deemed in every respect effective service of process upon it in any such suit, action or proceeding and (ii) shall, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable Law, be taken and held to be valid personal service upon and personal delivery to it. Notices hereunder shall be conclusively presumed received as evidenced by a delivery receipt furnished by the United States Postal Service or any reputable commercial delivery service.

(d) Nothing in this Section 21.7 shall affect the right of any Purchaser or Holder to serve process in any manner permitted by Law, or limit any right that any Purchaser or Holder may have to bring proceedings against the Company in the courts of any appropriate jurisdiction or to enforce in any lawful manner a judgment obtained in one jurisdiction in any other jurisdiction.

(e) THE PARTIES HERETO HEREBY WAIVE TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION BROUGHT ON OR WITH RESPECT TO THIS AGREEMENT, THE NOTES OR ANY OTHER DOCUMENT EXECUTED IN CONNECTION HEREWITH OR THEREWITH.

Section 21.8 Non-Recourse. Anything herein or in any other Financing Document to the contrary notwithstanding, each Secured Party will have full recourse to the Company and to all of the Company's assets, but in no event will the Notes Agent or any officer, director, member, or manager (as the case may be) or holder of any interest in the Company, be liable or obligated for the liabilities and obligations of the Company. Nothing herein contained shall limit or be construed to (a) release the Notes Agent from liability for fraudulent actions (including collusive bankruptcy) or misappropriation of funds or willful misconduct, or from any of its obligations or liabilities under any agreement executed by the Notes Agent in its individual capacity in connection with any Financing Document or (b) limit or impair the exercise of remedies with respect to any Collateral. Further, the initial member of the Company, any employee or incorporator of the Company, or their respective affiliates, successors or assigns, or any advisor of the same, shall not be liable or obligated for any amounts payable under or pursuant to the terms of this Agreement. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Financing Documents, in no event shall New Rite Aid LLC or its subsidiaries be obligated to repay the Notes (other than with respect to the obligation to fund the Elixir Escrow in accordance with the Plan of Reorganization).

Section 21.9 Non-Petition Covenants. The Notes Agent, the Company's Agent, each Purchaser and each holder of a beneficial interest in the Notes agree that before the date that is one year and one day after the termination of this Note Purchase Agreement or, if longer, the expiration of the then applicable preference period plus one day, such party shall not acquiesce in, petition or otherwise invoke or cause any other Person to invoke the process of any governmental authority for the purpose of commencing or sustaining a case against the Company under U.S. Federal or State bankruptcy, insolvency or similar law of any jurisdiction or appointing a receiver, liquidator, assignee, trustee, custodian, sequestrator or other similar official of the Company or any substantial part of its property or ordering the winding-up or liquidation of the affairs of the Company. Nothing in this Section 21.9 shall preclude, to the extent not otherwise precluded in this section, the Notes Agent, the Company's Agent, any Purchaser or any holder of a beneficial interest in the Notes from taking any action prior to the expiration of the aforementioned one year and one day period or, if longer, the applicable preference period then in effect in (i) any case or proceeding voluntarily filed or commenced by the Company or (ii) any involuntary insolvency proceeding filed or commenced by a person other than the Notes Agent, the Company's Agent, any such Purchaser or any such holder of a beneficial interest in the Notes. The provisions of this Section 21.9 shall survive termination of this Note Purchase Agreement for any reason whatsoever.

(h) On the Dissolution Date (defined below), the Administrative Trustee shall distribute the remaining Trust Assets (if any) to the DIP Noteholder Trust Beneficiaries after satisfaction of all other obligations of the DIP Noteholder Trust, including the repayment in full of all other expenses or liabilities described in this Section 3.3.

effect of guiding the Administrative Trustee in the performance of duties hereunder. A successor Administrative Trustee shall succeed to and hold the same respective rights and benefits of the predecessor for purposes of privilege, including the attorney-client privilege. No Trustee or other person may raise any exception to the attorney-client privilege described herein as any such exceptions are hereby waived by all Trustees.

(c) No Trust Indemnified Party shall be personally liable under any circumstances, except for its own willful misconduct, bad faith, gross negligence or fraud as determined by a Final Order.

No Trustee shall in any event assume or incur any liability, duty or obligation to the DIP Noteholder Trust Beneficiaries, other than as expressly provided for herein.

(i) No Trust Indemnified Party shall be liable for (i) special, consequential, indirect or punitive damages, however styled, including lost profits, (ii) the acts or omissions of any nominee, correspondent, clearing agency or securities depository through which it holds the DIP Noteholder Trust's securities or assets, or (iii) any losses due to forces beyond the reasonable control of such Trust Indemnified Party, including strikes, work stoppages, pandemics, epidemics, acts of war or terrorism, insurrection, revolution, nuclear or natural catastrophes or acts of God and interruptions, loss or malfunctions of utilities, communications or computer (software and hardware) services.

(c) The Administrative Trustee shall purchase and maintain appropriate amounts and types of insurance on behalf of the Trust Indemnified Parties, as determined by the Trustee, which may include insurance with respect to liability asserted against or incurred by such individual in that capacity or arising from its status as a Trust Indemnified Party, and/or as an employee, agent, lawyer, advisor or consultant of any such person.

(d) The indemnification provisions of this Trust Agreement with respect to any Trust Indemnified Party shall survive the termination of such Trust Indemnified Party from the capacity for which such Trust Indemnified Party is indemnified. Termination or modification of this Trust Agreement shall not affect any indemnification rights or obligations in existence at such time. In making a determination with respect to entitlement to indemnification of any Trust Indemnified Party hereunder, the person, persons or entity making such determination shall presume that such Trust Indemnified Party is entitled to indemnification under this Trust Agreement, and any person seeking to overcome such presumption shall have the burden of proof to overcome the presumption.

The Administrative Trustee shall have no liability for the acts or omissions of any Delaware Trustee.

(b) The Delaware Trustee shall not be entitled to exercise any powers, nor shall the Delaware Trustee have any of the duties and responsibilities of the Administrative Trustee set forth herein. The Delaware Trustee shall be a trustee of the DIP Noteholder Trust for the sole and limited purpose of fulfilling the requirements of the Act and for taking such actions as are required to be taken by a Delaware Trustee under the Act. To the extent that, at law or in equity, the Delaware Trustee has duties (including fiduciary duties) and liabilities relating to the DIP Noteholder Trust or the DIP Noteholder Trust Beneficiaries, such duties and liabilities are replaced by the duties and liabilities of the Delaware Trustee expressly set forth in this Trust Agreement. The Delaware Trustee shall have no liability for the acts or omissions of any Administrative Trustee. Any permissive rights of the Delaware Trustee to do things enumerated in this Trust Agreement shall not be construed as a duty and, with respect to any such permissive rights, the Delaware Trustee shall not be answerable for other than its willful misconduct, bad faith, gross negligence or fraud. The Delaware Trustee shall be entitled to request and receive written instructions from the Administrative Trustee and shall have no responsibility or liability for any losses or damages of any nature that may arise from any action taken or not taken by the Delaware Trustee in accordance with the written direction of the Administrative Trustee. The Delaware Trustee may, at the expense of the DIP Noteholder Trust, request, rely on and act in accordance with officer's certificates and/or opinions of counsel, and shall incur no liability and shall be fully protected in acting or refraining from acting in accordance with such officer's certificates and opinions of counsel, other than its willful misconduct, bad faith, gross negligence or fraud.

(c) The Delaware Trustee shall serve until such time as the Administrative Trustee or Majority DIP Noteholder Trust Beneficiaries removes the Delaware Trustee or the Delaware Trustee resigns and a successor Delaware Trustee is appointed by the Administrative Trustee in accordance with the terms of Section 4.9(d) below. The Delaware Trustee may resign at any time upon the giving of at least sixty (60) days' advance written notice to the Trustee; provided that such resignation shall not become effective unless and until a successor Delaware Trustee shall have been appointed by the Administrative Trustee in accordance with Section 4.9(d) below; provided, further that if any amounts due and owing to the Delaware Trustee hereunder remain unpaid for more than ninety (90) days, the Delaware Trustee shall be entitled to resign immediately by giving written notice to the Trustee. If the Administrative Trustee does not act within such sixty (60) day period, the Delaware Trustee, at the expense of the DIP Noteholder Trust, may apply to the Bankruptcy Court, the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware or any other court of competent jurisdiction for the appointment of a successor Delaware Trustee.

(d) Upon the resignation or removal of the Delaware Trustee, the Administrative Trustee or Majority DIP Noteholder Trust Beneficiaries shall appoint a successor Delaware Trustee by delivering a written instrument to the successor Delaware Trustee and the Administrative Trustee or Majority DIP Noteholder Trust Beneficiaries, as applicable. Any successor Delaware Trustee must satisfy the requirements of Section 3807 of the Act. Any resignation or removal of the Delaware Trustee and appointment of a successor Delaware Trustee shall not become effective until a written acceptance of appointment is delivered by the successor Delaware Trustee to the outgoing Delaware Trustee and the Trustee, and any fees and expenses due to the outgoing Delaware Trustee are paid. Following compliance with the preceding sentence, the successor Delaware Trustee shall become fully vested with all of the rights, powers, duties and obligations of the outgoing Delaware Trustee under this Trust Agreement, with like effect as if originally named as Delaware Trustee, and the outgoing Delaware Trustee shall be discharged of its duties and obligations under this Trust Agreement. The successor Delaware Trustee shall make any related filings required under the Act, including filing a Certificate of Amendment to the Certificate of Trust of the DIP Noteholder Trust in accordance with Section 3810 of the Act.

(e) Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, any business entity into which the Delaware Trustee may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated or any entity resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which the Delaware Trustee shall be a party, or any entity succeeding to all or substantially all of the corporate trust business of the Delaware Trustee, shall be the successor of the Delaware Trustee hereunder, without the execution or filing of any paper or any further act on the part of any of the parties hereto.

(f) The Delaware Trustee shall be compensated for its service as the Delaware Trustee as set forth in the Fee Letter, or as otherwise agreed between the Delaware Trustee and the Majority DIP Noteholder Trust Beneficiaries.

(g) The DIP Noteholder Trust will promptly reimburse the Delaware Trustee for all reasonable, documented, and necessary out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred by the Delaware Trustee in connection with the performance of its duties hereunder, including professional fees incurred by the Delaware Trustee.

(h) The Delaware Trustee shall neither be responsible for, nor chargeable with, knowledge of the terms and conditions of any other agreement, instrument, or document, other than this Trust Agreement, whether or not, an original or a copy of such agreement has been provided to the Delaware Trustee. The Delaware Trustee shall have no duty to know or inquire as to the performance or nonperformance of any provision of any other agreement, instrument or document, other than this Trust Agreement. Neither the Delaware Trustee nor any of its directors, officers, employees, agents or affiliates shall be responsible for nor have any duty to monitor the performance or any action of the DIP Noteholder Trust, the Administrative Trustee or any other person, or any of their directors, members, officers, agents, affiliates or employee, nor shall it have any liability in connection with the malfeasance or nonfeasance by such party. The Delaware Trustee may assume performance by all such persons of their respective obligations. The Delaware Trustee shall have no enforcement or notification obligations relating to breaches of representations or warranties of any other person. The Delaware Trustee shall have no responsibilities (except as expressly set forth herein) as to the validity, sufficiency, value, genuineness, ownership or transferability of any Trust Asset, written instructions, or any other documents in connection therewith, and will not be regarded as making, nor be required to make, any representations thereto.

(i) The Delaware Trustee shall not be responsible or liable for any failure or delay in the performance of its obligations under this Trust Agreement arising out of, or caused, directly or indirectly, by circumstances beyond its control, including without limitation: any act or provision of any present or future law or regulation or governmental authority; acts of God; earthquakes; fires; floods; wars; terrorism; civil or military disturbances; sabotage; epidemics; riots; interruptions, loss or malfunctions of utilities, computer (hardware or software) or communications service; accidents; labor disputes; acts of civil or military authority or governmental actions; or the unavailability of the Federal Reserve Bank wire or telex or other wire or communication facility.

5.1 Treatment of DIP Noteholder Trust Assets Transfer. For all United States federal income tax purposes, all parties (including, without limitation, the Debtors, Reorganized Debtors and the DIP Noteholder Trust Beneficiaries) shall treat the transfer of the DIP Noteholder Trust Assets for the benefit of the DIP Noteholder Trust Beneficiaries (i) as a transfer of the DIP Noteholder Trust Assets by Rite Aid Corporation directly to the DIP Noteholder Trust Beneficiaries followed by (ii) the transfer by the DIP Noteholder Trust Beneficiaries to the DIP Noteholder Trust in exchange for their respective ownership interest in the DIP Noteholder Trust. Accordingly, the DIP Noteholder Trust Beneficiaries shall be treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes (and, to the extent permitted, for state and local income tax purposes) as the grantors and owners of their respective share of the DIP Noteholder Trust Assets. The DIP Noteholder Trust shall indemnify, defend and hold the Administrative Trustee harmless from and against any tax, penalty or interest that may be assessed against the Administrative Trustee on or with respect to the assets of the DIP Noteholder Trust and the investment thereof except for any such tax, penalty or interest found by Final Order to be arising out of the willful misconduct, bad faith, gross negligence or fraud of the Administrative Trustee.

5.2 Income Tax Status.

(a) For United States federal income tax purposes (and for purposes of all state, local and other jurisdictions to the extent applicable), the DIP Noteholder Trust shall be treated as a liquidating trust pursuant to Section 301.7701-4(d) of the Treasury Regulations that is taxable as a grantor trust pursuant to Sections 671-677 of the IRC. To the extent consistent with Revenue

Procedure 94-45 and not otherwise inconsistent with this Trust Agreement, this Trust Agreement shall be construed so as to satisfy the requirements for liquidating trust status.

(b) The DIP Noteholder Trust shall at all times to be administered so as to constitute a domestic trust for United States federal income tax purposes.

5.3 Tax Returns.

(a) The "taxable year" of the DIP Noteholder Trust shall be the "calendar year" as such terms are defined in section 441 of the IRC, unless the Administrative Trustee determines in good faith to use a different tax year in the interests of all beneficiaries to the extent permitted under the IRC and the Treasury Regulations thereunder. In accordance with Section 6012 of the IRC and Section 1.671-4(a) of the Treasury Regulations, the Administrative Trustee shall file with the IRS annual tax returns for the DIP Noteholder Trust on Form 1041 as a grantor trust. In addition, the Administrative Trustee shall file, for the DIP Noteholder Trust, in a timely manner such other tax returns, including any state and local tax returns, as are required by applicable law and pay any taxes shown as due thereon. The DIP Noteholder Trust's items of taxable income, gain, loss, deduction, and/or credit will be allocated to the DIP Noteholder Trust Beneficiaries in accordance with their pro rata share of the DIP Noteholder Trust Interests. Within a reasonable time following the end of the taxable year, the DIP Noteholder Trust shall send to each DIP Noteholder Trust Beneficiary a separate statement setting forth such DIP Noteholder Trust Beneficiary's items of income, gain, loss, deduction or credit and will instruct each such DIP Noteholder Trust Beneficiary to report such items on his/her applicable income tax return.

(b) The DIP Noteholder Trust shall be responsible for the payment of, and shall be permitted to pay, out of the DIP Noteholder Trust Assets, any taxes imposed on the DIP Noteholder Trust or the Trust Assets.

5.4 Withholding of Taxes and Reporting Related to DIP Noteholder Trust Operations. The DIP Noteholder Trust shall comply with all withholding and reporting requirements imposed by any federal, state, local or foreign taxing authority, and all distributions made by the DIP Noteholder Trust shall be subject to any such withholding and reporting requirements. The Administrative Trustee shall be authorized to take any and all actions that may be necessary or appropriate to comply with any such withholding, payment, and reporting requirements. All amounts properly withheld from distributions to a DIP Noteholder Trust Beneficiary as required by applicable law and paid over to the applicable taxing authority for the account of such DIP Noteholder Trust Beneficiary shall be treated as part of the DIP Noteholder Trust distribution to such DIP Noteholder Trust Beneficiary. To the extent that the operation of the DIP Noteholder Trust or the liquidation of the Trust Assets creates a tax liability imposed on the DIP Noteholder Trust, the DIP Noteholder Trust shall timely pay such tax liability and any such payment shall be considered a cost and expense of the operation of the DIP Noteholder Trust payable without Bankruptcy Court order. Any federal, state or local withholding taxes or other amounts required to be withheld under applicable law shall be deducted from distributions hereunder. All DIP Noteholder Trust Beneficiaries shall be required to provide any information necessary to effect the withholding of such taxes. The Administrative Trustee may require each DIP Noteholder Trust Beneficiary to furnish to the DIP Noteholder Trust (or its designee) its social security number or employer or taxpayer identification number as assigned by the IRS and complete any related documentation (including but not limited to a Form W-8BEN, Form W-8BENE-E, or Form W-9, as applicable) (the "Tax Documents"). The Administrative Trustee may condition any and all distributions to any DIP Noteholder Trust Beneficiary upon the timely receipt of properly executed Tax Documents and receipt of such other documents as the Administrative Trustee reasonably requests, and in accordance with the Plan.

5.5 Valuation. As soon as possible after the transfer of the Trust Assets to the DIP Noteholder Trust, the Administrative Trustee (acting upon the advice of the Majority DIP Noteholder Trust Beneficiaries) shall make a good faith valuation of the Trust Assets. Such valuation shall be made available from time to time, to the extent relevant for tax reporting purposes, and used consistently by all parties and the DIP Noteholder Trust Beneficiaries for all U.S. federal income tax purposes. The DIP Noteholder Trust also shall file (or cause to be filed) any other statements, returns or disclosures relating to the DIP Noteholder Trust that are required by any governmental unit.

5.6 Expedited Determination of Taxes. The Administrative Trustee may request an expedited determination of taxes of the DIP Noteholder Trust, under Section 505 of the Bankruptcy Code for all returns filed for, or on behalf of, the DIP Noteholder Trust for all taxable periods through the termination of the DIP Noteholder Trust.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

6.1 Irrevocability. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the DIP Noteholder Trust is irrevocable.

6.2 Term; Termination.

(a) The term for which the DIP Noteholder Trust is to exist shall commence on the date of the filing of the Certificate of Trust and shall terminate pursuant to the provisions of this Section 6.2.

(b) The DIP Noteholder Trust shall be dissolved at such time as all distributions of Cash and other Trust Assets required to be made by the Administrative Trustee under the Plan and this Trust Agreement have been made in accordance with provisions of the Plan and this Trust Agreement; provided, however, that in no event shall the DIP Noteholder Trust be dissolved later than five (5) years from the Effective Date unless the Bankruptcy Court, upon motion made by a party in interest within the six (6) month period prior to such fifth (5th) anniversary (or within the six-month period prior to the end of any extension period), determines that a fixed period extension (not to exceed three (3) years, together with any prior extensions, without a favorable letter ruling from the IRS or an opinion of counsel satisfactory to the Administrative Trustee that any further extension would not adversely affect the status of the DIP Noteholder Trust as a liquidating trust for U.S. federal income tax purposes) is necessary to facilitate or complete the recovery on and liquidation of the Trust Assets (the "Dissolution Date").

(c) On the Dissolution Date or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, after the wind-up of the affairs of the DIP Noteholder Trust by the Administrative Trustee and payment of all of the liabilities have been provided for as required by applicable law including Section 3808 of the Act, all monies remaining in the DIP Noteholder Trust shall be distributed or disbursed in accordance with Section 3.3 above.

(d) Following the dissolution and distribution of the assets of the DIP Noteholder Trust, the Administrative Trustee shall execute and cause a Certificate of Cancellation of the Certificate of Trust of the DIP Noteholder Trust to be filed in accordance with the Act and the DIP Noteholder Trust shall terminate, and the Administrative Trustee and Delaware Trustee shall be discharged of their duties hereunder. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Trust Agreement, the existence of the DIP Noteholder Trust as a separate legal entity shall continue until the filing of such Certificate of Cancellation. A certified copy of the Certificate of Cancellation shall be given to the Delaware Trustee for its records promptly following such filing.

6.3 Amendments. This Trust Agreement may be amended from time to time through the written agreement of the Administrative Trustee and the Majority DIP Noteholder Trust Beneficiaries. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no amendment or modification of this Trust Agreement or any Exhibit hereto shall (a)(i) modify this Trust Agreement in a manner that is inconsistent with the Plan or the Confirmation Order, (ii) modify this Trust Agreement in any way that could jeopardize, impair, or modify the DIP Noteholder Trust's status for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a "liquidating trust" that is taxable as a grantor trust or (iii) amend Section 3.3(a) of the Trust Agreement, in each case without the consent of each DIP Noteholder Trust Beneficiary, (b) materially and disproportionately affect any DIP Noteholder Trust Beneficiary without the consent of such DIP Noteholder Trust Beneficiary, (c) affect the rights, duties, immunities or liabilities of the Delaware Trustee without the Delaware Trustee's written consent, or (d) be inconsistent with the purpose and intention of the DIP Noteholder Trust to liquidate the DIP Noteholder Trust Assets in an expeditious but orderly manner.

6.4 Severability. Should any provision in this Trust Agreement be determined to be unenforceable, such determination shall in no way limit or affect the enforceability and operative effect of any and all other provisions of this Trust Agreement.

6.5 Notices.

(a) Notices to DIP Noteholder Trust Beneficiaries shall be given in accordance with such person's information form submitted to the DIP Noteholder Trust.

(b) Any notices or other communications required or permitted hereunder to the following Trustees shall be in writing and delivered to the addresses or e-mail addresses designated below, or to such other addresses or e-mail addresses as may hereafter be furnished in writing to each of the other Trustees listed below in compliance with the terms hereof.

(c) All such notices and communications if mailed shall be effective when physically delivered at the designated addresses or, if electronically transmitted, when the communication is received at the designated addresses.

(d) The Administrative Trustee shall be entitled to comply with the requirements of this section by, among other things (i) posting a copy of any required reports on a website maintained by the Administrative Trustee or the Reorganized Debtors and made available to the DIP Noteholder Trust Beneficiaries, or (ii) providing its reports directly to the DIP Noteholder Trust Beneficiaries via email or other communication.

6.6 Successors and Assigns. The provisions of this Trust Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the DIP Noteholder Trust, the Trustee, and their respective successors and assigns, except that neither the DIP Noteholder Trust, nor the Trustee, may assign or otherwise transfer any of their rights or obligations, if any, under this Trust Agreement except in the case of the Administrative Trustee in accordance with Section 4.2(e) above.

6.7 Limitation on DIP Noteholder Trust Interest for Securities Laws Purposes.

(a) The DIP Noteholder Trust Interests: (i) shall not be assigned, conveyed, hypothecated, pledged, or otherwise transferred, voluntarily or involuntarily, directly or indirectly (collectively, a "Transfer"), except in accordance with Section 6.7(b) of this Agreement; (ii) shall not be evidenced by a certificate or other instrument; (iii) shall not possess any voting rights except as otherwise provided by this Agreement; and (iv) shall not be entitled to receive any dividends or interest.

(b) Unless waived in whole or in part by the DIP Noteholder Trust (other than in the case of subclause (i)(F) below, which shall not be waived), and with respect to clause (iv) below, unless waived in whole or in part by the Administrative Trustee, no Transfer of all or any portion of the DIP Noteholder Trust Interests of a DIP Noteholder Trust Beneficiary may be made unless the following conditions are met:

(i) the transaction (A) complies with U.S. federal and any applicable state securities laws, (B) complies with all other applicable U.S. federal, state or non-U.S. laws, (C) shall not subject the DIP Noteholder Trust to the registration or reporting requirements of the 1940 Act, (D) shall not subject the DIP Noteholder Trust or any shareholder or any affiliate of any of them to additional burdensome regulatory requirements, (E) shall not cause the DIP Noteholder Trust to wind up or dissolve under this Agreement, and (F) shall not cause all or any portion of the assets of the DIP Noteholder Trust to constitute "plan assets" under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder from time to time in effect ("ERISA") or the IRC or any state laws, regulations and administrative policies that are similar in purpose and intent to ERISA;

(ii) the transferee (and if it is a disregarded entity for U.S. federal income tax purposes, its regarded owner) has delivered an IRS Form W-9 (or successor form) or applicable IRS Form W-8 (or successor form) and any attachments to the Administrative Trustee on or about the date on which it acquired its DIP Noteholder Trust Interests;

(iii) pursuant to such Transfer the transferee agrees to assume any and all obligations applicable to the transferor under this Agreement; provided that the DIP Noteholder Trust, in its sole discretion, may waive the assumption of any obligations owing to the DIP Noteholder Trust with respect to any transferee;

(iv) the Administrative Trustee shall have received an administrative questionnaire, any required tax forms, and all documentation and other information reasonably required under applicable "know your customer" and anti-money laundering rules and regulations from the transferor;

(v) the Administrative Trustee shall have received an officer's certificate, an Assignment and Assumption, a processing and recordation fee of $1,000 (provided that (i) such processing and recordation fee shall be waived if the transferee is a Related Fund[3] and (ii) in any case, the Administrative Trustee, in its sole discretion, may elect to waive such processing and recordation fee) and representations and warranties from the transferee and transferor as to the matters set forth in subclauses (i)(A) through (F) above; and

(vi) the Transfer does not create, either alone or with other Transfers, a substantial risk (as determined in good faith by the Administrative Trustee) that then the DIP Noteholder Trust would be classified as a publicly traded partnership or otherwise as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

(c) If any Person that is not a Qualified Purchaser (as defined in the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended) at the time of acquisition shall become the owner of DIP Noteholder Trust Interests (any such Person, a "Non-Permitted Holder"), the DIP Noteholder Trust may, promptly after discovery that such Person is a Non-Permitted Holder, send notice to such Non-Permitted Holder demanding that such Non-Permitted Holder transfer its interest to a Person that is not a Non-Permitted Holder within thirty (30) days of the date of such notice. If such

[3] "Related Fund" means, with respect to a DIP Noteholder Trust Beneficiary, any Affiliates (including at the institutional level) of such DIP Noteholder Trust Beneficiary or any fund, account (including any separately managed accounts) or investment vehicle that is controlled, managed, advised, or sub-advised by such DIP Noteholder Trust Beneficiary, an Affiliate of such DIP Noteholder Trust Beneficiary, or by the same investment manager, advisor or subadvisor as such DIP Noteholder Trust Beneficiary or an Affiliate of such DIP Noteholder Trust Beneficiary.

"Affiliate" means, with respect to any Person (as defined in section 101(41) of the Bankruptcy Code), any other Person directly or indirectly controlling, controlled by, or under common control with, such Person as of the date on which, or at any time during the period for which, the determination of affiliation is being made (including any Related Funds of such Person). For purposes of this definition, the term "control" (including the correlative meanings of the terms "controlled by" and "under common control with"), as used with respect to any Person, means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management policies of such Person, whether through the ownership of voting securities, by contract or otherwise.

Non-Permitted Holder fails to so transfer its DIP Noteholder Trust Interests, the DIP Noteholder Trust shall have the right, without further notice to the Non-Permitted Holder, to sell such DIP Noteholder Trust Interests to a purchaser selected by the DIP Noteholder Trust or the Majority DIP Noteholder Trust Beneficiaries that is not a Non-Permitted Holder, on such terms as the DIP Noteholder Trust or the Majority DIP Noteholder Trust Beneficiaries may choose. The proceeds of any such sale, net of any commissions, expenses and taxes due in connection with such sale, shall be remitted to the Non-Permitted Holder.

(d) Any attempted assignment or transfer made in violation of this Section 6.7 shall be null and void.

(e) For the avoidance of doubt, neither the consent of the DIP Noteholder Trust nor the Administrative Trustee shall be required in connection with any assignment or transfer made pursuant to this Section 6.7.

(f) The Administrative Trustee shall have not have any obligation or duty to monitor, determine or inquire as to compliance with any restrictions on transfer imposed under this Agreement or under applicable law with respect to any transfer of any interest in any DIP Noteholder Trust Interests other than to require delivery of such certificates and other documentation or evidence as are expressly required by, and to do so if and when expressly required by the terms of, this Agreement, and to examine the same to determine substantial compliance as to form with the express requirements hereof; provided, that if the Majority DIP Noteholder Trust Beneficiaries direct the Administrative Trustee to declare a Transfer null and void for failure to comply with this Section 6.7, the Administrative Trustee shall strike such Transfer from the Trust Register. The Administrative Trustee shall not act as, or be deemed to act as, transfer agent or registrar under Article 8 of the UCC or Section 17A(c) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

6.8 Exemption from Registration. The Trustees and the DIP Noteholder Trust Beneficiaries intend that the DIP Noteholder Trust Interest shall not be "securities" under applicable laws, but none of the Trustees and the DIP Noteholder Trust Beneficiaries represent or warrant that the DIP Noteholder Trust Interest shall not be securities or shall be entitled to exemption from registration under applicable securities laws. If it should be determined that DIP Noteholder Trust Interest constitute "securities," the Trustees and the DIP Noteholder Trust Beneficiaries intend that the distribution under the Plan of the DIP Noteholder Trust Interest will be exempt from registration under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act") and applicable state and local securities laws pursuant to section 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act and/or the regulations promulgated thereunder (including Regulation D), Regulation S under the Securities Act and/or another available exemption from registration under section 5 of the Securities Act.

6.9 Entire Agreement; No Waiver. The entire agreement of Trustees and the DIP Noteholder Trust Beneficiaries relating to the subject matter of this Trust Agreement is contained herein, and in the documents referred to herein (including the Plan), and this Trust Agreement and such documents supersede any prior oral or written agreements concerning the subject matter hereof. No failure to exercise or delay in exercising any right, power, or privilege hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, power, or privilege hereunder preclude any further exercise thereof or of any other right, power, or privilege. The rights and remedies herein provided are cumulative and are not exclusive of rights under law or in equity.

6.10 Headings. The headings used in this Trust Agreement are inserted for convenience only and do not constitute a portion of this Trust Agreement, nor in any manner affect the construction of the provisions of this Trust Agreement.

6.11 Governing Law. The validity and construction of this Trust Agreement and all amendments hereto and thereto shall be governed by the laws of the State of Delaware, and the rights of all Trustees hereto and the effect of every provision hereof shall be subject to and construed according to the laws of the State of Delaware without regard to the conflicts of law provisions thereof that would purport to apply the law of any other jurisdiction; provided, however, that Trustees and the DIP Noteholder Trust Beneficiaries intend that the provisions hereof shall control and, except as required by the Act, there shall not be applicable to the DIP Noteholder Trust, the Trustee, the Delaware Trustee, or this Trust Agreement, any provision of the laws (statutory or common) of the State of Delaware pertaining to trusts that relate to or regulate in a manner inconsistent with the terms hereof: (a) the filing with any court or governmental body or agency of Trustee accounts or schedules of Trustee fees and charges; (b) affirmative requirements to post bonds for the Trustee, officers, agents, or employees of a trust; (c) the necessity for obtaining court or other governmental approval concerning the acquisition, holding, or disposition of real or personal property; (d) fees or other sums payable to the Trustee, officers, agents, or employees of a trust; (e) the allocation of receipts and expenditures to income or principal; (f) restrictions or limitations on the permissible nature, amount, or concentration of trust investments or requirements relating to the titling, storage, or other manner of holding of trust assets; (g) the existence of rights or interests (beneficial or otherwise) in trust assets; (h) the ability of beneficial owners or other persons to terminate or dissolve a trust; or (i) the establishment of fiduciary or other standards or responsibilities or limitations on the acts or powers of the Administrative Trustee or beneficial owners that are inconsistent with the limitations on liability or authorities and powers of the Administrative Trustee or the Delaware Trustee set forth or referenced in this Trust Agreement. Section 3540 of the Act shall not apply to the DIP Noteholder Trust.

6.12 Dispute Resolution.

(a) Unless otherwise expressly provided for herein or as required in the Act, the dispute resolution procedures of this Section 6.12 shall be the exclusive mechanism to resolve any dispute arising under or with respect to this Trust Agreement.

(b) Informal Dispute Resolution. Any dispute under this Trust Agreement shall first be the subject of informal negotiations. The dispute shall be considered to have arisen when a disputing party sends to the counterparty or counterparties a written notice of dispute ("Notice of Dispute"). Such Notice of Dispute shall state clearly the matter in dispute. The period of informal negotiations shall not exceed thirty (30) days from the date the Notice of Dispute is received by the counterparty or counterparties, unless that period is modified by written agreement of the disputing party and counterparty or counterparties. If the disputing party and the counterparty or counterparties cannot resolve the dispute by informal negotiations, then the disputing party may invoke the formal dispute resolution procedures as set forth below.

(c) Formal Dispute Resolution. The disputing party may invoke formal dispute resolution procedures, within the time period provided in the preceding subparagraph, by serving on the counterparty or counterparties a written statement of position regarding the matter in dispute ("Statement of Position"). The Statement of Position shall include, but need not be limited to, any factual data, analysis or opinion supporting the disputing party's position and any supporting documentation and legal authorities relied upon by the disputing party. Each counterparty shall serve its Statement of Position within thirty (30) days of receipt of the disputing party's Statement of Position, which shall also include, but need not be limited to, any factual data, analysis or opinion supporting the counterparty's position and any supporting documentation and legal authorities relied upon by the counterparty. If the disputing party and the counterparty or counterparties are unable to consensually resolve the dispute within thirty (30) days after the last of all counterparties have served its Statement of Position on the disputing party, the disputing party may file with the Bankruptcy Court a motion for judicial review of the dispute in accordance with Section 6.12(d) below.

(d) Judicial Review. The disputing party may seek judicial review of the dispute by filing with the Bankruptcy Court (or, if the Bankruptcy Court shall not have jurisdiction over such dispute, such court as has jurisdiction pursuant to Section 1.5 above) and serving on the counterparty or counterparties and the Trustee, a motion requesting judicial resolution of the dispute. The motion must be filed within forty-five (45) days of receipt of the last counterparty's Statement of Position pursuant to the preceding subparagraph. The motion shall contain a written statement of the disputing party's position on the matter in dispute, including any supporting factual data, analysis, opinion, documentation and legal authorities, and shall set forth the relief requested and any schedule within which the dispute must be resolved for orderly administration of the DIP Noteholder Trust. Each counterparty shall respond to the motion within the time period allowed by the rules of the court, and the disputing party may file a reply memorandum, to the extent permitted by the rules of the court.

6.13 Effectiveness. This Trust Agreement shall become effective on the Effective Date.

6.14 Counterpart Signatures. This Trust Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts and by different Trustees on separate counterparts (including by PDF transmitted by e-mail), and each such counterpart shall be deemed to be an original, but all such counterparts shall together constitute one and the same instrument.
